60.23204. Red Civil Airway No. 5—Pantano, Ariz.–Rodeo, N. Mex.—Rodeo, N. Mex., radio range station.

60.23215. Red Civil Airway No. 16—Lone Rock, Wis.–Elmhurst, Ill.—Lone Rock, Wis., radio range station; Rockford, Ill., radio range station.

60.23224. Red Civil Airway No. 25—Batavia, N. Y.–Newark, N. J.—Elmira, N. Y., radio range station; the intersection of the center lines of the on course signals of the northwest leg of the Newark, N. J., radio range and the northeast leg of the Allentown, Pa., radio range; Newark, N. J., radio range station.

60.23227. Red Civil Airway No. 28—Palisades, N. J.–Swanton, Vt.—The intersection of the center lines of the on course signals of the northeast leg of the Newark, N. J., radio range and the south leg of the Albany, N. Y., radio range (Palisades, N. J.); New Hackensack, N. Y., radio marker station; Columbiaville, N. Y., radio marker station; Albany, N. Y., radio range station.

60.233. On Blue Civil Airways—The following locations are designated as radio fixes on blue civil airways:

60.23303. Blue Civil Airway No. 4—Boston, Mass.–Burlington, Vt.—Boston, Mass., radio range station; Concord, N. H., radio range station.

60.24. Airway Traffic Control Area Designation: The following part or parts of the civil airways are designated as airway traffic control areas:

60.240. On Green Civil Airways.

60.2400. Green Civil Airway No. 1—From a point 25 miles southeast of the La Crosse, Wis., radio range station to the Lone Rock, Wis., radio range station; from a point 25 miles east of the Grand Rapids, Mich., Kent County Airport to the intersection of the center line of the east leg of the Detroit, Mich. (Wayne County Airport), radio range and the U. S.-Canadian Border.

60.2401. Green Civil Airway No. 2—From the San Francisco, Calif., Municipal Airport to a point 25 miles west of the Elko, Nev., radio range station; from a point 25 miles east of the Des Moines, Iowa, radio range station to the Newark, N. J., Municipal Airport.

60.2402. Green Civil Airway No. 3—From the Burbank, Calif., Union Air Terminal to a point 25 miles west of the Kingman, Ariz., radio range station; from a point 25 miles east of the Columbus, Ohio, radio range station to the Camden, N. J., Central Airport.

60.2403. Green Civil Airway No. 4—From the Glendale, Calif., Grand Central Air Terminal to a point 25 miles west of the Blythe, Calif., radio range station; from a point 25 miles northeast of the Roanoke, Va., radio range station to the Washington, D. C., Washington Airport.

60.2411. Amber Civil Airway No. 2—From the Daggett, Calif., intermediate field to a point 25 miles southwest of the Las Vegas, Nev., radio range station.

60.242. On Red Civil Airways

60.24200. Red Civil Airway No. 14—From a point 25 miles northeast of the Knoxville, Mo., radio marker station to the intersection of the center lines of the on course signals of the southwest leg of the Chicago, Ill., radio range and the south leg of the Sterling, Ill., radio range.

60.24201. Red Civil Airway No. 16—From the Lone Rock, Wis., radio range station to the Elmhurst, Ill., Elmhurst Airport.

60.24202. Red Civil Airway No. 17—From the Chicago, Ill., radio range station to the Detroit, Mich. (Wayne County Airport), radio range station.

60.24205. Red Civil Airway No. 21—From the Toledo, Ohio, radio range station to the Detroit, Mich. (Wayne County Airport), radio range station.

60.24207. Red Civil Airway No. 23—From the Akron, Ohio, radio range station to the Pittsburgh, Pa., radio range station.

60.24208. Red Civil Airway No. 24—From a point 25 miles northeast of the Roanoke, Va., radio range station to the Gordonsville, Va., radio range station.

60.24209. Red Civil Airway No. 25—From a point 25 miles southeast of the Elmira, N. Y., radio range station to the Newark, N. J., radio range station.

60.24210. Red Civil Airway No. 28—From the intersection of the center lines of the on course signals of the northeast leg of the Newark, N. J., radio range and the south leg of the Albany, N. Y., radio range to a point 25 miles south of the Albany, N. Y., radio range station.

60.243. On Blue Civil Airways

60.2430. Blue Civil Airway No. 3—From the Baltimore, Md., Logan Field to a point 25 miles southwest of the Elmira, N. Y., radio range station.

NOTE.—The radio range courses specified herein shall be considered to be those shown by the following Department of Commerce charts and publications:

60.3. FLIGHT RULES (GENERAL)

60.30. Pilot Certificates: No person shall pilot a civil aircraft within the limits of a civil airway or control zone of intersection, or elsewhere in interstate or foreign air commerce

(a) unless possessed of a valid pilot certificate of competency, or

(b) unless possessed, if an alien, of such certificate or a similar pilot certificate issued or validated according to the provisions of CAR 65, nor

(c) in violation of any term, specification or limitation of such certificate.

60.31. Aircraft Certificate: No flight of civil aircraft, other than of a foreign aircraft, shall be made or authorized to be made

(a) within the limits of a civil airway or control zone of intersection whatever the purpose or nature of the flight may be, unless such aircraft is possessed of valid aircraft registration and airworthiness or experimental certificates, nor

(b) elsewhere in the navigable airspace over the lands and waters of the United States if engaged in interstate or foreign air commerce, unless such aircraft is possessed of such valid aircraft certificates, nor

(c) in violation of any term, specification or limitation of such certificates.

60.310. No foreign aircraft shall engage in interstate or intrastate commerce; nor shall it be otherwise navigated in the United States except in compliance with these air traffic rules and the provisions of CAR 65.

60.32. Identification Mark: No flight of aircraft shall be made or authorized to be made in the navigable airspace over the lands or the waters of the United States unless such aircraft is possessed of and displays a valid identification mark assigned or approved therefor by the Secretary.

60.33. Take-Off and Landing

60.330. Method of Taking-Off and Landing—The following rules shall govern the method by which aircraft shall take-off and land:

60.3300 (a). Aircraft, when taking off or landing, shall observe the local field traffic rules issued for the protection of interstate and foreign air commerce, as approved by the Secretary.

60.3301 (b). A take-off shall not be commenced until there is no risk of collision with other aircraft during such take-off.

60.3302 (c). Aircraft approaching for a landing shall circle the airport or other landing area sufficiently to observe other traffic, unless the pilot receives other instructions from the airport traffic control operator. Such circles shall be made to the left unless the pilot receives other instructions from the airport traffic control operator, or unless local traffic rules approved by the Secretary provide otherwise.

60.3303 (d). Aircraft approaching for a landing shall, unless impracticable, maintain a straight approach course for the last 1,000 feet before crossing the airport boundary.

60.3304 (e). Aircraft making contact flights within 3 miles horizontally of the center of an airport or landing area shall conform to the circuit rule provided in CAR 60.3302 unless flying at an altitude in excess of 3,000 feet above the ground or water.

60.3305 (f). Air traffic departing from, or arriving at, a control airport shall take precedence over other air traffic within the control zone of such airport when required in the interests of safety, and all traffic will be governed by special traffic rules approved by the Secretary.

60.331. Running Motors, Supervision of—No aircraft engine shall be started or run unless a competent operator is in the aircraft attending the engine controls. Blocks, equipped with ropes or other suitable means of pulling them, shall always be placed in front of the wheels before starting the engine, or engines, unless the aircraft is provided with adequate parking brakes and the same are fully on.

60.332. Air Meet Landing—In approaching a landing area where there is a congestion of aircraft or an assembly of persons or automobiles in the vicinity of aircraft, pilots shall proceed with caution and ascertain before landing, or before flying at low altitude over the landing area, whether or not an air meet or aeronautical demonstration is in progress. (See CAR 60.8911.)

60.340. Right of Way—The following rules will govern aircraft right of way:

60.3400 (a). Order—Aircraft in flight shall have right of way in the following order: (1) Balloons, fixed or free (an airship not under control is classed as a free balloon), (2) gliders, (3) airships, and (4) airplanes, including rotorplanes).

60.3401 (b). Crossing—When two aircraft are on crossing courses at approximately the same altitude, the aircraft which has the other on its left shall have right of way, and the other aircraft shall give way.

60.3402 (c). Approaching Head-On—When two aircraft are approaching head-on, or approximately so, and there is danger of collision, each shall alter its course to the right so that they will pass each other at a distance of at least 500 feet.

60.3403 (d). Overtaking—An overtaken aircraft shall have right of way and the overtaking aircraft shall keep clear of the overtaken aircraft by altering its own course to the right.

60.3404 (e). Landing—An aircraft landing in the manner prescribed in CAR 60.3303 (d) shall have right of way over other aircraft in flight or on the ground or water, except aircraft landing in distress.

60.3405 (f). Distress Landing—An aircraft in distress shall have right of way in attempting to land.

60.341. Duty to Give Way—When landing or maneuvering in preparation to land, it shall be the duty of the aircraft at the higher altitude to avoid the aircraft at the lower altitude.

60.342. Right Side Traffic—Aircraft making a contact flight along a civil airway in accordance with the provisions of CAR 60.4, except when impracticable for reasons of safety, shall keep to the right side of such radio range course as is projected along the airway. Except when otherwise specified in a flight plan, and except when impracticable because of any natural or other obstruction, aircraft making a flight along a civil airway in accordance with the provisions of CAR 60.5 shall keep to the right side of, and close to, such radio range course as is projected along the airway: Provided, That inbound aircraft may fly along the on course signal if navigating at an altitude of less than 10,000 feet above sea level or if maintaining level flight at an altitude of 10,000 feet or more above sea level as prescribed for such flight: And provided, further, That outbound aircraft may fly along the on course signal if maintaining level flight at an altitude of 10,000 feet or more above sea level as prescribed for such flight from the time of passing over the cone of silence of the particular radio range concerned.

60.343. Proximity in Flight—No aircraft, other than military aircraft of the United States engaged in military maneuvers, shall be flown closer than 500 feet to any other aircraft in flight, except that by prearrangement two or more civil aircraft may be flown in formation closer than 500 feet to each other.

60.344. Transport of Prohibited Articles—No explosives, arms, or munitions of war or other materials deemed by the Secretary to be dangerous goods shall be carried by or in any aircraft other than public aircraft or aircraft in which mail is being transported or arms are required, provided that the provisions of this rule shall not apply to persons lawfully carrying arms and ammunition for legitimate purposes, proper signalling or safety equipment (such as a Very pistol or landing flares) nor to the aircraft fuel, nor to materials for industrial and agricultural spraying (dusting).

60.345. Liquor, Narcotics, and Drugs—No pilot or other member of the crew of an aircraft in flight shall be under the influence of, or use intoxicating liquor, cocaine, or other habit-forming drugs, nor shall such person carry any other person who is obviously under the influence of intoxicating liquor, cocaine, or other habit-forming drugs, except a medical patient under proper care, or in case of emergency.

60.346. Towing by Aircraft—The towing of aircraft by other aircraft or the towing of any device or object by aircraft (except by military aircraft) is prohibited, unless permission therefor has been granted by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of CAR 60.901.

60.347. Dropping Objects or Things—No object or thing, other than fine sand, lead shot, fuel, or water, shall be dropped or released from an aircraft in flight (except by military aircraft) by any person on board the aircraft, unless permission therefor has been granted by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of CAR 60.901. The pilot or person in charge of the aircraft shall be responsible for the observance of this rule by all persons in the aircraft.

60.348. Airspace Reservations—No flight of aircraft shall be made within any airspace reservation set apart by order of the President of the United States, any authorized Federal agency, or by any of the several States, pursuant to the provisions of the Air Commerce Act, as amended, or other applicable law: Provided, however, That such restriction of flight shall not apply to public aircraft previously authorized by the appropriate governmental agency to make such flights. (See Appendix A for a list of airspace reservations.)

60.35. Minimum Safe Altitudes: Exclusive of taking off from or landing upon an airport or other landing area, aircraft shall not be flown below the following minimum safe altitudes of flight:

60.350 (a). An altitude over the congested parts of cities, towns, or settlements, sufficient to permit at all times an emergency landing outside of such areas in the event of complete power failure, but in no case less than 1,000 feet above the ground.

60.351 (b). An altitude over certified high explosive danger areas, other than airspace reservations, sufficient to permit at all times an emergency landing outside of such certified danger area in the event of complete power failure, but in no case less than 1,000 feet above the ground: Provided, however, That the restrictions of this subparagraph shall not apply to public aircraft, previously authorized by the appropriate governmental agency, to make specific flights below such minimums in the public interest.

60.352 (c). 1,000 feet above the ground over any Federal penal institution or any open air assembly of persons.

60.353 (d). 500 feet above the ground or water elsewhere than as specified in CAR 60.350, 60.351 and 60.352, or within 500 feet from any mountain, hill or other obstruction to flight, if the aircraft is making a contact flight, in accordance with CAR 60.4, except as may be specifically approved by the Secretary: Provided, however, That seaplanes and amphibians may be flown below 500 feet, but not below 300 feet, if making a contact flight during daylight hours over open water and where an emergency landing may, at all times, be made, without the aid of power, into the wind and without danger of collision with craft on the surface or other obstructions: And provided, further, That the restrictions of this subparagraph shall not apply to public aircraft, previously authorized by the appropriate governmental agency, to make specific flights below such minimums in the public interest.

60.354 (e). 1,000 feet above the ground or water, or within 1,000 feet of any mountain, hill or other obstruction to flight, if an aircraft is making an instrument flight as defined in CAR 60.131.

60.36. Parachutes: No parachute shall be carried, available for immediate use as such, in any aircraft in flight unless it has been packed within the preceding 60 days by a person authorized by the provisions of CAR 25.40.

NOTE.—CAR 60.36 does not apply to military personnel when flying, or flying in, military aircraft.

60.4. FLIGHT RULES (CONTACT): In addition to general or special air traffic rules which apply, the following rules shall govern a contact flight in weather conditions equal to or better than those described in CAR 60.44, within the limits of a civil airway or control zone of intersection, or elsewhere in interstate or foreign air commerce. For flight in weather conditions worse than those described in CAR 60.44 and for flight in closer proximity to cloud formations than the distances prescribed in CAR 60.44, see CAR 60.5.

NOTE.—The rules prescribed under CAR 60.4 will apply to scheduled airline operations unless otherwise specifically indicated.

60.40. Pilot: No instrument rating required. (See CAR 40 and 61 for provisions applicable to scheduled airlines.)

60.41. Equipment: Aircraft shall be certificated as to equipment as provided for in CAR 04.510, 04.511, 04.512 or 04.515, depending upon whether the flight is visual-contact day within 100 miles of a fixed base, visual-contact day unlimited distance or visual-contact night for land-planes, or either of the same for seaplanes or amphibians. (See CAR 04.530 and 04.531 for provisions applicable to scheduled airlines.)

60.42. Fuel Requirements: No aircraft shall take off without sufficient fuel and oil, taking into account wind and other weather conditions to be encountered during the course of the flight, to arrive at its point of first intended landing and effect a safe landing thereat. (See CAR 61.7020 for provisions applicable to scheduled airlines.)

60.43. Flight Plan: No flight plan is required.

NOTE.—If a pilot desires that any information concerning his proposed flight be transmitted by a Bureau communications facility to the point of destination, a complete flight plan as defined in CAR 60.133 shall be submitted to such facility. Such flight plan will, if possible, be transmitted by Bureau communications facilities to such point of destination as soon as practicable.

60.430. Notification of Arrival—If the pilot of an aircraft has submitted, or authorized the submission of, a flight plan for transmission to destination, he shall, immediately upon landing or upon completion of the flight, file an arrival message for transmission to the point of departure.

60.44. Weather Minimums: The following weather minimums shall govern flight made in accordance with contact flight rules: Provided, however, That a Bureau airway traffic control station may, for reasons of safety, restrict or suspend contact flight operation within the airway traffic control area of such station: And provided further, That the Secretary may require higher minimums at any particular control airport, and that such minimums shall govern the control zone in which such control airport lies. Pending the issuance of airport control tower operator certificates by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of CAR 26., but in no case later than July 1, 1938, the authority granted to certificated airport control tower operators to permit flights in accordance with the provisions of CAR 60.440 and 60.441 is hereby granted to any airport control tower operator who has had not less than six months satisfactory service as an airport control tower operator, during the year immediately preceding the effective date of these air traffic rules, at the particular airport involved.

60.440. Within Control Zones (Day)—Flight of aircraft shall not be made during the hours of daylight within a control zone unless the ceiling is at least 800 feet (1,000 feet if precipitation is occurring in any form) and the visibility is at least 3 miles: Provided, however,

(a) that a certificated airport control tower operator on duty in a radio equipped airport control tower in operation at the control airport may authorize flight, in accordance with CAR 60.442 and 60.443, at or below 1,000 feet above the ground or water in the control zone of such control airport when the visibility is less than 3 miles but not less than 1 mile, and

(b) that such operator shall suspend contact flight operations within the control zone whenever in his opinion safety requires such action.

60.441. Within Control Zones (Night)—Flight of aircraft shall not be made during the hours of darkness within a control zone unless the ceiling is at least 1,000 feet and the visibility is at least 3 miles: Provided, however,

(a) that a certificated airport control tower operator on duty in a radio equipped airport control tower in operation at the control airport may authorize flight at or below 1,000 feet above the ground in the control zone for such control airport when the visibility is less than 3 miles but not less than 2 miles, and

(b) that such operator shall suspend contact flight operations within the control zone whenever in his opinion safety requires such action.

60.442. Within Control Zones (Day or Night Below Overcast)—No flight of aircraft shall be made during daylight within a control zone closer than 300 feet vertically to the base of an overcast or cloud formation within such zone, nor closer than 500 feet vertically if precipitation is occuring in any form. No flight of aircraft shall be made at night within a control zone closer than 500 feet vertically to the base of an overcast or cloud formation within such zone.

60.443. Within Control Zones (Day or Night Above Overcast or Through Cloud Level)—No flight of aircraft shall be made during daylight within a control zone closer than 300 feet vertically to the top of an overcast or cloud formation within such zone, nor closer than 500 feet vertically if precipitation is occurring in any form. No flight of aircraft shall be made at night within a control zone closer than 500 feet vertically to the top of an overcast or cloud formation within such zone. At no time during ascent, descent, or level flight within the cloud level shall the aircraft be flown closer than 2,000 feet horizontally to the cloud formation or overcast.

60.444. Outside of Control Zones (Day Flight At or Below 1,000 feet Above the Ground or Water)—No flight of aircraft shall be made during daylight outside of a control zone at or below 1,000 feet above the ground or water, unless the ceiling is sufficient to permit flight at the minimum altitudes prescribed in CAR 60.35 and unless the visibility is at least 1 mile.

60.447. Outside of Control Zones (Night Flight Above 1,000 Feet Above the Ground or Water)—No flight of aircraft shall be made at night outside of a control zone above 1,000 feet above the ground or water, unless the ceiling is sufficient to permit flight at the minimum altitudes prescribed in CAR 60.35 and unless the visibility is at least 3 miles at the flight altitude, except as provided in CAR 60.443 and 60.449.

60.448. Outside of Control Zones (Day or Night Below Overcast)—No flight of aircraft shall be made during daylight outside of a control zone closer than 300 feet vertically to the base of an overcast or cloud formation, nor closer than 500 feet vertically if precipitation is occurring in any form. No flight of aircraft shall be made during darkness outside of a control zone closer than 500 feet vertically to the base of an overcast or cloud formation.

60.449. Outside of Control Zones (Day or Night Above Overcast or Through Cloud Level)—No flight of aircraft shall be made during daylight outside of a control zone closer than 300 feet vertically to the top of an overcast or cloud formation, nor closer than 500 feet vertically if precipitation is occurring in any form. No flight of aircraft shall be made at night outside of a control zone closer than 500 feet vertically to the top of an overcast or cloud formation. At no time during ascent, descent, or level flight within the cloud level shall the aircraft be flown closer than 2,000 feet horizontally to the cloud formation or overcast.

60.45. Alternate Airport: No requirement.

60.46. Over-the-Top Flight: No flight of aircraft shall be made over broken clouds or stretches of solid overcast unless the attitude of the aircraft and its flight path can at all times be controlled by visual reference to the ground or water and ascent and descent can be made in accordance with the provisions of CAR 60.443 or 60.449. (For scheduled airline operations, see CAR 40 and 61.)

60.47. Flight Enroute

60.470. Weather Changes—If weather conditions below the minimums prescribed in CAR 60.44 are anticipated or are actually encountered enroute, a landing shall be made at the nearest airport at which weather conditions are equal to or better than those prescribed in CAR 60.44, or the flight shall be altered so that it may be made in weather conditions as good as, or better than, such minimums, unless such flight can and does proceed in accordance with the instrument flight rules prescribed in CAR 60.5.

60.471. Communication Contacts—No communication contacts required.

NOTE.—If the aircraft is possessed of two-way radio, it is recommended that the procedure provided for in CAR 60.571 be followed.

60.472. Flight Plan Changes—No notice of any change in flight plan is required. See, however, CAR 60.430.

NOTE.—If a flight plan has been submitted and the aircraft is possessed of two-way radio, it is recommended that the procedure provided for in CAR 60.573 be followed.

60.48. Flight Altitudes: None required.

NOTE.—It is recommended that cruising altitudes shall conform to those provided for in CAR 60.58 if the flight is made above 1,000 feet above the ground or water.

60.5. FLIGHT RULES (INSTRUMENT): In addition to general or special air traffic rules which apply, the following rules shall govern instrument flight, flight in closer proximity to cloud formation than the distances prescribed in CAR 60.44, and flight in weather conditions worse than those described in CAR 60.44, within or approaching the limits of a civil airway or control zone of intersection, or elsewhere in interstate or foreign air commerce.

60.50. Pilot: No flight shall be made unless the pilot in charge holds a valid instrument rating.

60.51. Equipment: Aircraft shall be properly certificated as to equipment according to the provisions of CAR 04.513, 04.514, and 04.515. (Scheduled airline aircraft shall be certificated as provided in CAR 04.532, 04.533, and 04.534.)

60.52. Fuel Requirements: No aircraft shall take off without fuel and oil sufficient, considering the wind and other weather conditions forecast for the flight, at least

(a) to complete such flight to the point of the first intended landing and thereafter

(b) to fly to and land at the alternate airport designated in the approved flight plan, and thereafter

(c) to fly, at normal cruising consumption, for a period of 45 minutes.

(For scheduled airline operations, see CAR 61.7021.)

60.53. Flight Plan: Prior to take-off from any point within an airway traffic control area, and prior to entering such an area, an approved flight plan as prescribed in CAR 60.134 is required. No flight plan shall be submitted until after the pilot has made a careful study of available current weather reports and forecasts and believes the flight can be made with safety. (For a list of airway traffic control areas, see CAR 60.24.)

60.530. Traffic Control Instructions—Traffic control instructions from a Bureau airway traffic control station issued to the pilot before departure or enroute are a part of the approved flight plan, and the pilot shall comply with the same in all respects.

60.531. Control Zone of Intersection—No control zone of intersection served by a Bureau radio voice communication station shall be entered without first establishing communication with such station, directly or through other communication channels, and forwarding the expected time of arrival over the center of such zone, the altitude to be flown through such zone, and the course or courses to be followed while within such zone, and thereafter observing such traffic instructions as may be issued by such station: Provided, That such procedure shall not be required within an airway traffic control area if the flight plan has been approved by a Bureau airway traffic control station prior to entering such zone.

NOTE.—For a list of control zones of intersection, see CAR 60.22. For further information concerning aids to air navigation, see "Tabulation of Air Navigation Radio Aids" published periodically by the Bureau of Air Commerce.

60.532. Notification of Arrival—The pilot of an aircraft shall, immediately upon landing or upon completion of the flight, file an arrival message for transmittal to the point of departure.

60.54. Weather Minimums: The following weather minimums shall govern landings and take-offs made in accordance with instrument flight rules: Provided, however, That the Secretary may require higher minimums at any airport: And provided, further, That such minimums, if for a control airport, shall govern the control zone in which such airport lies. Pending the issuance of traffic control tower operator certificates by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of CAR 26., but in no case later than July 1, 1938, the authority granted to certificated airport control tower operators to permit flights in accordance with the provisions of CAR 60.540 is hereby granted to any airport control tower operator who has had not less than six months' experience as an airport control tower operator during the year immediately preceding the effective date of these air traffic rules.

60.540. Airports Within Control Zones—No flight, other than by a public aircraft or by a scheduled airline aircraft shall be made to or from a control airport nor to or from any other airport within a control zone, when the ceiling is less than 500 feet or the visibility is less than 1 mile: Provided, however, That if the control airport is equipped with a radio directional aid to air navigation designed to direct aircraft to that airport by the aid of instruments, a certificated airport control tower operator on duty in a radio equipped airport control tower in operation at such airport may authorize departure from such control airport when the ceiling is not less than 300 feet and the visibility is not less than one-half mile. (From scheduled airline operation, see CAR 40.290, 40.390 and 61.7109.)

60.541. Airports Outside a Control Zone—No flight, other than by a public aircraft or by a scheduled airline aircraft, shall be made to or from an airport outside of a control zone when the ceiling is less than 500 feet or the visibility is less than 1 mile. (For scheduled airline operation, see CAR 40.290, 40.390 and 61.7109.)

60.55. Alternate Airport: No take-off of aircraft shall be made unless:

(a) the flight plan as submitted includes an alternate airport having a landing area suitable for the equipment to be used, and

(b) weather reports and forecasts indicate that the weather conditions at the alternate airport will remain at or above the minimums specified in (c) or (d) below until the arrival of the aircraft thereat, and

(c) if the alternate airport is equipped with a radio directional aid to air navigation in operation and there is at such alternate airport a ceiling of at least 2,000 feet and a visibility of at least 3 miles if an overcast exists, or a ceiling of at least 1,500 feet and a visibility of at least 3 miles if broken clouds exist, or

(d) if the alternate airport is not equipped with a radio directional aid to air navigation, there is at such alternate airport an unlimited ceiling and a visibility of at least 3 miles.

60.56. Over-the-Top Flight: Over-the-top flight shall be governed by instrument flight rules whenever the attitude of the aircraft and its flight path can not be controlled at all times by visual reference to the ground or water.

60.570. Weather Changes—If weather reports available to the pilot enroute indicate that the weather conditions will be below the minimums allowing operation into the airport of destination at the expected time of arrival, the pilot shall not attempt a landing at the airport of destination but shall either proceed to the appropriate alternate airport as provided for in CAR 60.55, or proceed to an airport where weather conditions are at such time equal to or better than the weather minimums prescribed in CAR 60.54. (For scheduled airline operation, see CAR 61.7106.)

60.571. Communications Contacts—The pilot shall maintain a continuous listening watch on the appropriate radio frequency and shall, by radio, contact and report as soon as possible to the appropriate communication station the time and altitude of passing each radio fix or other check point designated by the Secretary or specified in the flight plan together with unanticipated weather conditions being encountered and any other information pertinent to the aircraft movement and, further, if not within an airway traffic control area, shall, prior to entering a control zone of intersection, served by a Bureau radio voice communication station, establish communication with such station, directly or through other communication channels, forwarding the expected time of arrival over the center of such zone, the altitude to be flown through such zone, and the course or courses proposed to be followed while within such zone.

60.5710. Aircraft utilizing airline communication facilities shall transmit information as required in this paragraph through such facilities, or such information may be transmitted directly by radio, to the appropriate agency of the Bureau.

NOTE.—For further information concerning aids to air navigation, see "Tabulation of Air Navigation Radio Aids" published periodically by the Bureau of Air Commerce.

60.572. Communications Failure—In the event of mechanical failure of aircraft two-way communication equipment or in the event that the pilot does not receive radio signals sufficient to permit his maintaining an instrument flight on course, (see CAR 60.342) one of the following procedures shall be observed.

60.5720. (a). Continue Flight in Accordance with Contact Flight Rules—The pilot may proceed provided that the flight may be made in accordance with contact flight rules as provided for in CAR 60.4.

60.5721. (b). Effect a Landing—The pilot may effect a landing at the nearest suitable airport at which favorable weather conditions exist and where no airway traffic control station is located.

60.5722. (c). Continue Flight in Accordance with Flight Plan—In the event weather conditions do not permit the procedures provided for in CAR 60.5720 or 60.5721, the pilot shall proceed according to his flight plan, including any amending instructions issued and acknowledged enroute, with particular attention to maintaining his last acknowledged assigned altitude until the approach time last authorized for, and acknowledged by, the pilot of such aircraft, after which landing may be made.

NOTE.—Normal traffic will resume as soon as the aircraft has landed or been accounted for, but, in any event in not more than 30 minutes after the approach time last authorized for the aircraft and acknowledged by the pilot of such aircraft.

60.573. Flight Plan Changes—No change shall be made enroute in any approved flight plan until approval has first been obtained from the Bureau airway traffic control station for the area in which the flight is progressing, unless an emergency situation arises which requires immediate decision and action, in which case as soon as possible after such emergency authority is exercised the pilot shall inform the proper control station of the new flight plan and obtain approval therefor.

60.580. Flight Altitudes Along Green Civil Airways—The following rules will govern the altitude at which aircraft shall fly when making flights along green civil airways:

60.5800. Eastbound Flights—Aircraft making good a true course of from 0° (or 360°) to, but not including, 180° along a green civil airway shall fly at an ODD thousand foot level above sea level (such as 3,000, 5,000, or 7,000 feet).

60.5801. Westbound Flights—Aircraft making good a true course of from 180° to, but not including, 360° (or 0°) along a green civil airway shall fly at an EVEN thousand foot level above sea level (such as 2,000, 4,000, or 6,000 feet).

60.581. Flight Altitudes Along Amber Civil Airways—The following rules will govern the altitude at which aircraft shall fly when making flights along amber civil airways:

60.5810. Northbound Flights—Aircraft making good a true course of from 270° to, but not including, 90° along an amber civil airway shall fly at an ODD thousand foot level above sea level (such as 3,000, 5,000, or 7,000 feet).

60.5811. Southbound Flights—Aircraft making good a true course of from 90° to, but not including, 270° along an amber civil airway shall fly at an EVEN thousand foot level above sea level (such as 2,000, 4,000, or 6,000 feet.)

60.582. Flight Altitudes Along Red Civil Airways—The following rules will govern the altitude at which aircraft shall fly when making flights along red civil airways:

60.5820. Eastbound Flights—Aircraft making good a true course of 0° (or 360°) to, but not including, 180° along a red civil airway shall fly at an ODD thousand foot level above sea level (such as 3,000, 5,000, or 7,000 feet).

60.5821. Westbound Flights—Aircraft making good a true course of 180° to, but not including, 360° (or 0°) along a red civil airway shall fly at an EVEN thousand foot level above sea level (such as 2,000, 4,000, or 6,000 feet).

60.583. Flight Altitudes Along Blue Civil Airways—The following rules will govern the altitude at which aircraft shall fly when making flights along blue civil airways:

60.5830. Northbound Flights—Aircraft making good a true course of from 270° to, but not including, 90° along a blue civil airway shall fly at an ODD thousand foot level above sea level (such as 3,000, 5,000, or 7,000 feet).

60.5831. Southbound Flights—Aircraft making good a true course of from 90° to, but not including, 270° along a blue civil airway shall fly at an EVEN thousand foot level above sea level (such as 2,000, 4,000, or 6,000 feet).

60.584. Flight Altitudes on Airway Intersections—The following flight procedure and altitude rules will govern aircraft making flights on the civil airways where two or more such airways intersect.

60.5840. Flight on Green Civil Airway—An aircraft flying along a green civil airway and continuing the flight through a green zone of intersection shall, while within a green zone of intersection, maintain the altitude approved for flight on the green civil airway being followed and, upon leaving a green zone of intersection, shall assume an altitude prescribed for the airway to be followed.

60.5841. Flight on Amber Civil Airway.

60.58410. Through Green Zone of Intersection—An aircraft flying along an amber civil airway and continuing flight through a green zone of intersection shall, while within a green zone of intersection, maintain an altitude 500 feet higher than the altitude approved for flight on the amber civil airway being followed and, upon leaving a green zone of intersection, shall assume an altitude prescribed for the airway to be followed.

60.58411. Through Amber Zone of Intersection—An aircraft flying along an amber civil airway and continuing the flight through an amber zone of intersection shall, while within an amber zone of intersection, maintain the altitude approved for flight on the amber civil airway being followed and, upon leaving an amber zone of intersection, shall assume an altitude prescribed for the airway to be followed.

60.5842. Flight on Red Civil Airway.

60.58420. Through Green Zone of Intersection—An aircraft flying along a red civil airway and continuing flight through a green zone of intersection shall, while within a green zone of intersection, maintain an altitude 500 feet higher than the altitude approved for flight on the red civil airway being followed and, upon leaving a green zone of intersection, shall assume an altitude prescribed for the airway to be followed.

60.58421. Through Amber Zone of Intersection—An aircraft flying along a red civil airway and continuing flight through an amber zone of intersection shall, while within an amber zone of intersection, maintain an altitude 500 feet higher than the altitude approved for flight on the red civil airway being followed and, upon leaving an amber zone of intersection, shall assume an altitude prescribed for the airway to be followed.

60.58422. Through Red Zone of Intersection—An aircraft flying along a red civil airway and continuing flight through a red zone of intersection shall, while within a red zone of intersection, maintain an altitude approved for flight on the red civil airway being followed and, upon leaving the red zone of intersection, shall assume an altitude prescribed for the airway to be followed.

60.5843. Flight on Blue Civil Airway.

60.58430. Through a Green, Amber, or Red Zone of Intersection—An aircraft flying along a blue civil airway and continuing flight through a green, amber, or red zone of intersection shall, while within such zone of intersection, maintain an altitude 500 feet higher than the altitude approved for flight on the blue civil airway being followed and, upon leaving such zone of intersection, shall assume an altitude prescribed for the airway to be followed.

60.585. Flight Altitudes on Off-Airway Flights—The following rules will govern the altitudes of aircraft making instrument flights when approaching for crossing a civil airway not at a control zone of intersection:

60.5850 (a). Eastbound Flights—Aircraft making good a true course of 0° (or 360°) to, but not including, 180° shall fly at an ODD thousand foot level plus 500 feet, above sea level (such as 3,500, 5,500, or 7,500 feet); and 60.5851 (b). Westbound Flights—Aircraft making good a true course of 180° to, but not including, 360° (or 0°) shall fly at an EVEN thousand foot level plus 500 feet, above sea level (such as 2,500, 4,500, or 6,500 feet).

60.586. Crossing An Airway—Unless otherwise instructed by a Bureau airway traffic control station, a civil airway shall not be crossed at an angle of less than 45° to such airway, and the appropriate altitude as prescribed in CAR 60.585 shall be maintained throughout the entire crossing of such airway: Provided, however, That if such crossing is through any part of a zone of intersection the pertinent provisions of CAR 60.584 shall govern, and if such crossing is through any part of a control zone of intersection the pertinent provisions of CAR 60.571 and 60.584 shall govern.

60.59. Approach and Departure Procedures: (To be issued)

60.6. LIGHT AND SIGNAL RULES

60.60. Angular Limits: The angular limits prescribed in the following rules relating to lights will be determined with the aircraft in normal flying position.

60.61. Airplane Lights: Between sunset and sunrise, all airplanes in flight shall show the following lights:

60.611 (b). At the rear, and as far aft as possible, a white light shining rearward, visible for at least 3 miles in a dihedral angle of 140 degrees bisected by a vertical plane through the longitudinal axis of the aircraft.

60.62. Airship Lights: Between sunset and sunrise, airships shall carry and display the same lights that are prescribed for airplanes, except that the side lights shall be doubled horizontally in a fore-and-aft position and the rear light shall be doubled vertically. Lights in a pair shall be at least 7 feet apart.

60.63. Balloon Lights: Between sunset and sunrise, a free balloon shall display one white light visible for at least 2 miles and located not less than 20 feet below the car. A fixed balloon, or airship, shall carry 3 lights—red, white, and red—in a vertical line, one over the other, visible at least 2 miles. The top light shall be not less than 20 feet below the car, and the lights shall be not less than 7, nor more than 10, feet apart.

60.64. Lights on Stationary Aircraft: Between sunset and sunrise, all aircraft which are on the surface of water and not under way, or which are moored or anchored in navigation lanes, shall show a white light visible for at least 2 miles in all directions. Between sunset and sunrise balloon and airship mooring cables shall show groups of 3 red lights at intervals of at least every 100 feet, measured from the car. The first light in the first group shall be approximately 20 feet from the lower red balloon light. The object to which the balloon is moored on the ground shall have an adequate group of lights to mark its position.

60.65. Signals on Stationary Aircraft: By day, balloon and airship mooring cables shall be marked with chrome yellow colored conical streamers not less than 10 inches in diameter at the mouth and 7 feet long. The object to which the balloon or airship is moored on the ground shall have the same kind of streamers, which must be in the same position as the lights specified in CAR 60.64.

60.66. Distress Signals: The following signals, separately or together shall, where practicable, be used in case of distress:

60.660 (a). The international signal, S O S by radio: In radiotelephony, the spoken expression MAYDAY (corresponding to the French pronunciation of the expression "m'aider"). When, owing to the rapidity of the maneuvers to be accomplished, an aircraft is unable to transmit the intended message, the signal P A N not followed by a message retains such meaning.

60.661 (b). The international code flag signal of Distress, NC.

60.662 (c). A square flag having either above or below it a ball, or anything resembling a ball.

60.67. Forced Landing Signals: When an aircraft is forced to land at night at an airport, it shall signal its forced landing by making a series of short flashes with its navigation lights, if practicable to do so.

60.68. Fog Signals: In fog, mist, or heavy weather, an aircraft on the water in navigation lanes shall signal its presence by a sound device emitting a signal for about 5 seconds at one-minute intervals.

60.7. ACROBATIC FLIGHT RULES

60.70. Prohibited Zones: No person shall acrobatically fly an aircraft

60.700. (a). at any height whatsoever over a congested area of any city, town, or settlement, or over any open air assembly of persons, or over any airport or landing area or within 1,000 feet horizontally thereof, or within any control zone unless under the supervision of a Bureau inspector observing flight tests and then only between 2,000 and 5,000 feet above the ground or water.

60.701. (b). at any height less than 1,500 feet over any place over which flight is not otherwise restricted.

60.702. (c). at any place unless the visibility is at least 3 miles and the ceiling at least 3,000 feet, and unless the pilot has first ascertained that there is no danger of collision with other aircraft.

60.71. Acrobatics While Carrying Persons: No person shall acrobatically fly an aircraft while carrying any other person or persons for hire: Provided, however, That this provision shall not apply to the giving of instruction in acrobatic flying to a person receiving dual instruction.

60.72. Equipment for Acrobatics: Each person in an aircraft flown acrobatically shall be properly equipped with a parachute manufactured under a valid type certificate and maintained in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Air Regulations.

60.73. Parachute Jump: No person shall make any exhibition, test, training or demonstration parachute jump, unless wearing a certificated and properly maintained auxiliary parachute so arranged that it can be operated if the first parachute should fail to function or become fouled. Whenever an auxiliary parachute is required, it shall consist of a single-harness pack.

60.730. Altitude Before Jump—No person shall make any exhibition, training or demonstration parachute jump from an altitude of less than 2,000 feet above the surface of the ground or water.

60.731. Delayed Jump—No person shall delay opening his parachute more than is necessary to properly and safely clear the aircraft, which in no case, except in an emergency jump, shall be less than 1,500 feet above the surface of the ground.

60.732. Jump in High Wind—No person shall make any exhibition, test, training or demonstration parachute jump from any aircraft when the surface wind is more than 15 miles per hour.

60.733. Jump Near Open Water—No person shall make any exhibition, test, training or demonstration parachute jump from any aircraft within 2 miles horizontally from any body of water, unless the jumper wears a flotation device approved by the Secretary and unless motor-powered marine rescue equipment is available.

NOTE.—CAR 60.71, 60.72 and 60.73 do not apply to military personnel when flying, or flying in, military aircraft.

60.8. AIR MEET RULES

60.80. Classification: Air meets will be classified as follows:

60.800. Class 1 Air Meets—meaning those meets which will receive wide publicity, large crowds and large numbers of visiting aircraft and in which any one or all of the following events are included:

60.8000 (a). Races in which "NC", "NR" or "NX" aircraft are permitted to enter. (See CAR 02.11.)

60.8001 (b). Acrobatic flights over the airport at or below 1,500 feet.

60.8002 (c). Formation flying over the airport at or below 1,500 feet.

60.8003 (d). So called "crazy flying" over the airport.

60.8004 (e). Parachute jumping for a spot.

60.801. Class 2 Air Meets—meaning those meets which are locally-sponsored amateur meets and which may combine passenger-carrying activities with one or more of the following events:

60.8010 (a). Races for "NC" aircraft.

60.8011 (b). Simulated bomb dropping contests.

60.8012 (c). Acrobatic flights over the airport above 1,500 feet.

60.8013 (d). Formation flights over the airport above 1,500 feet.

60.8014 (e). Paper-cutting over the airport above 1,500 feet.

60.8015 (f). Balloon-bursting over the airport above 1,500 feet.

60.8016 (g). Spot landing contests (switches not cut).

60.8017 (h). Parachute jumping (not for spot).

60.81. Permit Required: No air meet shall be held or conducted, or authorized to be held or conducted, on a civil airway or elsewhere within the United States where there is likelihood of endangering aircraft moving in interstate or foreign air commerce unless a permit for such meet has been issued by the Secretary.

60.82. Provision for Issuance: The Secretary will issue a permit, in appropriate form, for the holding of an air meet provided:

60.820 (a). Such proposed air meet is to be held on a civil airway or elsewhere within the United States where there is likelihood of endangering aircraft moving in interstate or foreign air commerce, and

60.821 (b). proper application therefor is made and information submitted in accordance with the provisions of CAR 60.83 or 60.84, and

60.822 (c). the person or persons proposing to hold or conduct such air meet appear, in the opinion of the Secretary, to have taken all necessary and proper precautions for safeguarding the interests of the public and those engaged in aeronautics.

60.83. Application for Class 1 Air Meet Permit: In order to enable the Secretary to make adequate investigation and to permit publication and distribution of field rules and regulations for the protection of the public and for the benefit of those engaged in aeronautics, any person or persons desiring a permit for the conduct of a Class 1 Air Meet, shall make application therefor to the Secretary, or to the Bureau supervising aeronautical inspector whose office is located in the district in which such meet will be held, at least 15 days prior to the time of holding of such proposed air meet, upon a form to be supplied for the purpose, which form shall contain at least the following information:

60.8300 (a). Name, address and telephone number of the person or persons making the application.

60.8301 (b). Names and addresses of sponsors and backers, if any, of the air meet other than the applicant.

60.8302 (c). List of names of the personnel charged with operation of the air meet and their duties.

60.8303 (d). Certified copy of permission granted by State or local authorities for conduct of such air meet.

60.8304 (e). Certified copy of permission granted for the use of the airport or other landing area.

60.8305 (f). Map or blueprint showing the scale of measurement of the airport or other landing area and race course, if any, and showing the course in relation to obstructions, congested areas, grandstand or spectators' seats, and parking areas.

60.8306 (g). Schedule of airline operation in and out of, or in the vicinity of, the airport during the time the air meet is in progress.

60.8307 (h). Complete description of all events, showing time and qualification for entry.

60.8308 (i). Detailed description of method of policing, particularly as to methods of preventing spectators or unauthorized persons from entering restricted areas. Also, detailed description of the provisions for compliance with CAR 60.8912.

60.8309 (j). Copy of rules and regulations covering the conduct of the air meet. These regulations shall conform substantially with the rules prescribed in CAR 60.89 and shall include such additional rules as, in the opinion of the operator, are necessary for the particular meet involved, including the proposed method of local air traffic control for the operation of all aircraft during the time of such air meet and until the air operations have returned to normal.

60.84. Application for Class 2 Air Meet Permit: In order to enable the Secretary to make adequate investigation and to permit publication and distribution of field rules and regulations, if any, for the protection of the public and for the benefit of those engaged in aeronautics, any person or persons desiring a permit for the conduct of a Class 2 Air Meet shall make application to the Secretary, or to the Bureau supervising aeronautical inspector whose office is in the district in which such meet will be held, at least 5 days prior to the holding of such proposed air meet, upon a form to be supplied for the purpose, which form shall contain at least the following information:

60.8400 (a). Name, address and telephone number of the person or persons making the application.

60.8401 (b). Names and addresses of sponsors or backers, if any, of the air meet other than the applicant.

60.8402 (c). List of the names of the personnel charged with operation of the air meet and their duties.

60.8403 (d). Statement that permission will be obtained from State or local authorities for conduct of the air meet prior to the holding of such meet.

60.8404 (e). Statement that permission will be obtained for the use of the airport or other landing area.

60.8405 (f). Map or sketch of airport or other landing area and race course, if any, showing the course in relation to obstructions, congested areas, grandstand or spectators' seats, and parking areas.

60.8406 (g). Schedule of airline operation in and out of, or in the vicinity of, the airport or landing area during the time the air meet is in progress.

60.8407 (h). Complete description of all events, showing time and qualification of entry.

60.8408 (i). Detailed description of method of policing, particularly as to methods of preventing spectators or unauthorized persons from entering restricted areas.

60.85. Issuance: Upon approval of an application duly made, data submitted and investigations and inspections completed, an air meet permit will be issued in appropriate form.

60.86. Duration: An air meet permit will be granted for a limited time only and for a specific purpose, which time and purpose will be clearly stated in such permit.

60.87. Non-Transferability: An air meet permit is not transferable.

60.88. Suspension and Revocation: An air meet permit may be suspended or revoked by the Secretary for any of the following reasons:

60.880 (a). Any false statement on the part of the person making application for such permit or in any information accompanying the application.

60.881 (b). Adverse weather conditions affecting the safety of the public or those engaged in aeronautics, as determined by the local Bureau inspector.

60.882. (c). Failure of those in charge of the air meet to properly enforce any term or condition in the air meet permit.

60.883 (d). Violation of any term or condition contained in the permit granted for the air meet.

60.884 (e). Violation of any provision of the Air Commerce Act or any rule or regulations duly promulgated thereunder.

60.89. Air Meet Rules: The following rules shall apply to, and govern the conduct of, all Class 1 and Class 2 air meets for which a permit may be issued by the Secretary.

60.8900 (a) No person shall be permitted to take part in any air meet until he has furnished the air meet officials a signed statement to the effect that he has read the rules and regulations governing such meets, and which obligates him to abide by all local and Department of Commerce rules and regulations.

60.8901 (b). No person shall be permitted on the operations area of an airport or flying field during any air meet held thereon, except the operating personnel, contestants and their crews, police, State and Federal aeronautics officials and inspectors, and authorized press, radio and photographer personnel.

60.8902 (c). A white dead line paralleling the area reserved for spectators and at least 200 feet in front of such area shall be provided by the air meet officials and the crossing by any aircraft of this dead line in the direction of the spectators will result in the suspension of the certificate of the operator of such aircraft.

60.8903 (d). The air meet management shall be held responsible for the proper policing of the air meet area within the airport and for other suitable provisions to insure that all spectators and unauthorized persons are kept off prohibited areas.

60.8904 (e). No air meet event shall be conducted unless the operations area of the airport or flying field is clear, the operating personnel are present, sufficient police or guards are on duty and at their posts, no other air operations are going on and scheduled airline aircraft are not flying in the vicinity.

60.8905 (f). Participants in racing events shall not come in closer proximity to other participating aircraft than 50 feet, and a participant must be not less than 150 feet in the lead before cutting into the same lane of plane or planes just passed.

60.8906 (g). No aircraft shall be flown toward, over, nor within 200 feet horizontally of, the grandstand or spectators.

60.8907 (h). No aircraft performing acrobatics shall be flown toward or over the grandstands or spectators nor within 500 feet thereof.

60.8908 (i). No object shall be dropped or released from aircraft in connection with an air meet which will fall over, toward, nor within 500 feet of, the grandstands or spectators.

60.8909 (j). Race-horse-starts shall be prohibited except when such starts provide for minimum spacing from wing tip to wing tip of at least 100 feet between participating aircraft and then only in case the take-off area is suitable for such starts and a scattering pylon is used for the first pylon, which scattering pylon must be located at least one mile from the boundary of the airport.

60.8910 (k). The home pylon shall be located at least 800 feet from the grandstands or spectators, and racing aircraft shall not be flown toward, over, or within a minimum distance of 500 feet horizontally of, the grandstands or spectators. The home stretches of all race courses shall be parallel to the grandstands and other sections provided for spectators.

60.8911 (l). For purposes of controlling traffic at, and in the vicinity of, an airport or other landing area used for an air meet, signals shall be located either near the announcer's stand or near the home pylon and shall consist either of a large white letter "O" indicating open, and a large white letter "X" indicating closed, or by the words spelled in large white letters on the ground, "OPEN" or "CLOSED", as the case may be. Such signals shall be so constructed as to be easily legible from 2,000 feet altitude and these signals shall be properly operated during the period of the air meet to indicate whether the airport is open for landing to non-participants in the meet, or whether it is closed. For the safety and convenience of non-participating aircraft, the airport or landing area shall be declared open for landing and take-off purposes for a period of 5 minutes at not more than 30 minute intervals during the air meet.

60.8912 (m). A physician and ambulance and a fully equipped emergency truck shall be available at the air meet for emergency use. This provision is mandatory for Class 1 Air Meets only.

60.9. MISCELLANEOUS AIR TRAFFIC RULES

60.90. Non-Application of Air Traffic Rules: The air traffic rules, or any particular air traffic rule, shall not apply in the following cases:

60.900 (a). When special circumstances render non-observance necessary to avoid immediate danger, or when such non-observance is required because of stress of weather conditions which could not reasonably have been foreseen, or other unavoidable causes. Such non-observance shall be reported within 24 hours in full detail by letter to the Secretary, including the emergency making such non-observance necessary, the results accomplished by non-observance, and when regular observance was resumed after the emergency had passed. In such case of non-observance if, after investigation by the Secretary, non-observance is deemed to have been necessary in the interests of safety, no infraction of these rules will have been incurred.

60.901 (b). When the public safety, the safety of those engaged in aeronautics or the interests of sound fostering and promotion of aeronautics is deemed by the Secretary to require a non-observance of the air traffic rules, or any particular rules, as evidence by a certificate of non-application issued by, or under the authority of, the Secretary.

60.91. Certificate of Non-Application: A certificate of non-application of air traffic rules will be issued for a limited time and will specifically set forth the subject matter involved, the time limits involved, and will be strictly construed. Requests for such certificate shall be addressed to the Secretary at least ten days before the certificate applied for is to have effect.

60.910. Surrender—Upon notice from a duly authorized Bureau inspector of the suspension of a certificate of non-application by such inspector or by the Secretary, and upon the demand of either of the same for the surrender of such certificate, or upon notice from the Secretary of the revocation of such certificate, the holder thereof shall immediately surrender such certificate to such inspector or immediately return such certificate to the Secretary, as the case may be.

60.92. Aircraft on Water: Seaplanes on the water shall navigate according to the laws and regulations of the United States governing the navigation and operation of watercraft, except as otherwise provided in these regulations.

60.93. Aircraft Model Flying Activities, Supervision of: No model aircraft shall be flown from, or over, any airport or landing field unless permission therefor, in writing, has been secured from the airport manager or his duly authorized representative. The airport manager shall designate the portion of the field to be used and shall take all necessary precautions to assure the safety of the public on the ground and of aircraft in the air. Rules governing the conduct of such activity shall be drawn and shall include:

60.930 (a). The definite boundaries of the area to be utilized.

60.931 (b). The periods of suspensions of activity before, during and after any scheduled or other aircraft operations.

60.932 (c). The limitation of duration of flight of the models.

60.933 (d). Procedure for the retrieving of models.

60.934 (e). Notification by the airport manager to all model operators so engaged of the rules as drawn.

Approved, to take effect March 31, 1938.

[SEAL] DANIEL C. ROPER,
Secretary of Commerce.

APPENDIX A

Presidential Airspace Reservations

The following airspace reservation has been set apart by order of the President, by Executive Order No. 5211, October 19, 1929:

Aberdeen Proving Ground, portions of the Fort Hoyle and the Edgewood Arsenal Military Reservations, and portions of Bush River, Gunpowder River and Chesapeake Bay, all in the State of Maryland, as more particularly shown by the designation of said areas on official aeronautical charts.

The following airspace reservations have been set apart by order of the President, by Executive Order No. 7138, August 12, 1935:

Picatinny Arsenal, Dover, New Jersey.
Savanna Ordnance Depot, Savanna, Illinois.
Nansomond Ordnance Depot, Portsmouth, Virginia.
Wingate Ordnance Depot, Gallup, New Mexico.
Camp Stanley Ordnance Reservations, Leon Springs, Texas.
Fort Hancock, Sandy Hook, New Jersey.
Fort Saulsbury, about 4 miles east of Milford, Delaware.
Fort Pickens, western portion of Santa Rose Island, Pensacola Bay, Florida.
Fort Barry, near Point Bonita Lighthouse, San Francisco Bay, California.
Fort Canby, near Cape Disappointment Lighthouse, Washington.
Fort Casey, near Admiralty Head Lighthouse, Washington.
Naval Ammunition Depot, Hingham, Massachusetts.
Naval Ammunition Depot, Fort Lafayette, New York.
Naval Ammunition Depot, Lake Denmark, New Jersey.
Naval Ammunition Depot, St. Juliens Creek, Virginia.
Naval Ammunition Depot, Hawthorne, Nevada.
Naval Ammunition Depot, Mare Island, California.
Naval Ammunition Depot, Puget Sound, Washington.
Naval Mine Depot, Yorktown, Virginia.
Naval Torpedo Station, Newport, Rhode Island.
Naval Torpedo Station, Keyport, Washington.
Naval Ordnance Plant, Baldwin, Long Island, New York.
Naval Fuel Depot, San Diego, California.
That part of the Aleutian Islands, Alaska, with their territorial waters, lying west of the 167th meridian.

The following harbors were declared to be reserved areas by Executive Order No. 5281, dated February 17, 1930, and navigation of aircraft within the airspace above the same was put under the authority of the United States Navy Department:

Tortugas, Florida.
Great Harbor, Culebra, Canal Zone.
Guantanamo Naval Station, Cuba.
Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.
Guam.
Subic Bay, Philippine Islands.
Kiska, Aleutian Islands.

APPENDIX B

State Airspace Reservations

None at present.

APPENDIX C

Restricted Areas Under Other Federal Agencies

The following areas are under the administrative control of the United States Navy Department, and application should be made thereto for information as to aeronautical regulations:

Samoa (including Tutuila and various smaller islands).
Midway Island.
Wake Island (with a few adjacent small islands).

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION.

[FCA 81]

CONDITIONAL PAYMENTS BY BORROWERS FOR SUBSEQUENT CREDIT UPON INDEBTEDNESS TO LAND BANK

Pursuant to the authority of paragraph Eighteenth of Section 13 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, (Section 17 of the Farm Credit Act of 1937), the following rules and regulations are hereby prescribed for the efficient execution of the provisions of said paragraph:

1. Conditional payments under the provisions of paragraph Eighteenth of Section 13 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, shall be accepted by a land bank only for subsequent credit upon indebtedness to the bank incurred pursuant to Section 12 or 16 of said Act (12 U. S. C. 771, 818).

2. Wherever used in these Regulations the term "balance of unapplied conditional payments" shall mean the amount of unapplied conditional payments to the credit of the borrower, including interest thereon allowed to the borrower.

3. The terms and conditions upon which any conditional payment is accepted shall

(a) Identify the indebtedness in connection with which the conditional payment is accepted.

(b) Specify the rate of interest which shall be allowed by the bank, in accordance with regulations of the Farm Credit Administration, on the conditional payment.

(c) Provide that interest allowed upon the conditional payment shall be credited to the borrower and held by the bank in the same manner in which the conditional payment is credited to the borrower and held by the bank.

(d) Provide that the bank shall, out of and to the extent of the balance of unapplied conditional payments held in connection with the indebtedness, as the borrower may direct in writing, pay any portion of said indebtedness as the same becomes due and payable and, after five years from the date upon which the borrower's loan was made, upon any regular installment date, pay in advance any portion of or all the principal of the indebtedness.

(e) Provide that at its option the bank may, out of and to the extent of the balance of unapplied conditional payments held in connection with the indebtedness, pay any portion of said indebtedness as and when the same becomes due and payable if it is not otherwise paid by the borrower at or before maturity.

(f) Provide that if at any time after five years from the date when the borrower's loan was made the balance of unapplied conditional payments held in connection with the indebtedness, equals or exceeds the total thereof, the whole indebtedness shall become due and payable at once and shall be paid out of such balance.

(g) Provide that if at any time before five years from the date when the borrower's loan was made, the balance of unapplied conditional payments equals or exceeds the total of the indebtedness, at the option of the bank the whole indebtedness shall be paid out of such balance.

(h) Provide that any balance of unapplied conditional payments held in connection with the indebtedness, shall be refunded to the borrower by the bank when the indebtedness is paid in full.

(i) Provide that any balance of unapplied conditional payments held in connection with the indebtedness, shall be applied to the unpaid balance thereof prior to a transfer of title to the loan by the bank.

(j) Be consistent with law and with any applicable rules and regulations prescribed by the Farm Credit Administration.

4. Except with the written approval of the Land Bank Commissioner, the rate of interest allowed by a land bank upon conditional payments shall not exceed 3 per cent per annum or the interest rate in the last series of farm loan bonds issued by the bank or a rate 1 per cent per annum less than the loan rate specified in the mortgage securing the indebtedness in connection with which the conditional payment is held, whichever is the lower.

5. A land bank shall not accept conditional payments to an amount exceeding the unpaid balance of the indebtedness in connection with which the conditional payments are held.

6. Interest shall not be allowed upon any amount which has not been held for the credit of the borrower as an unapplied conditional payment for a period of at least one month.

7. Interest allowed on conditional payments shall be credited to the borrower upon regular installment dates, provided, however, that where such payments are held in connection with loans with annual installment dates interest allowed may be credited upon the regular installment dates and the dates midway between such installment dates; provided, further, that interest allowed shall be credited to the borrower at any time when the loan in connection with which the conditional payments are held is paid in full or the entire balance of conditional payments to the credit of the borrower is applied upon the loan.

8. A conditional payment shall not be accepted in connection with a delinquent indebtedness.

[SEAL] A. S. Goss,
Land Bank Commissioner.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD.

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

PERMITTING FEDERAL ASSOCIATIONS TO LEND ON INSURED LOANS UP TO THE PERCENTAGE OF APPRAISED VALUE PERMITTED UNDER THE NATIONAL HOUSING ACT, AS AMENDED

Be it resolved, That pursuant to authority vested in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board by subsection (a) of Section 5 of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (12 U. S. C. 1464 (a)), the first sentence of subsection (b) of Section 39 of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Savings and Loan Associations is hereby amended by striking the period at the end thereof and by adding the following:

"unless insured under the National Housing Act, as amended, in which event any percentage of appraised value permitted under the National Housing Act, as amended, may be loaned."

Be it further resolved, That, it being deemed that this amendment is of an emergency character, said amendment shall be effective immediately.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on March 7, 1938.

INTERNATIONAL FISHERIES COMMISSION.

REGULATIONS ADOPTED PURSUANT TO THE PACIFIC HALIBUT FISHERY CONVENTION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE DOMINION OF CANADA, SIGNED JANUARY 29, 1937

REGULATORY AREAS

1. The convention waters shall be divided into the following areas, all directions given being magnetic.

(a) Area 1 shall include all convention waters southeast of a line running northeast and southwest through Willapa Bay Light on Cape Shoalwater, as shown on Chart 6185, published in May, 1926, by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, which light is approximately in latitude 46°43'07" N., longitude 124°04'18" W.

(b) Area 2 shall include all convention waters off the coasts of the United States of America and of Alaska and of the Dominion of Canada between Area 1 and a line running through the most westerly point of Glacier Bay, Alaska, to Cape Spencer Light as shown on Chart 8304, published in September, 1923, by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, which light is approximately latitude 58°11'48" N., longitude 136°38'24" W., thence south one-quarter east and is exclusive of the areas closed to all halibut fishing in Section 10 of these regulations.

(c) Area 3 shall include all the convention waters off the coast of Alaska that are between Area 2 and a straight line running south from the southwestern extremity of Cape Sagak on Umnak Island, at a point approximately latitude 52°41'25" N., longitude 168°58'05" W., and that are south of the Alaska Peninsula and of the Aleutian Islands including the intervening straits or passes.

(d) Area 4 shall include all convention waters not included in Areas 1, 2, and 3, and those areas defined in Section 10.

LIMIT OF CATCH IN EACH AREA

2. The catch of halibut to be taken during the halibut fishing season of 1938 from Area 2 shall be limited to approximately 22,700,000 pounds of salable halibut, and from Area 3 to approximately 25,300,000 pounds of salable halibut, or, if the International Fisheries Commission shall at any time so decide, the catch shall not be limited separately in Areas 2 and 3, but shall be limited to 48,000,000 pounds of salable halibut from the combined Areas 2 and 3, the weights in each or any such limit to be computed as with heads off and entrails removed. The International Fisheries Commission shall as early in the said year as is practicable determine the date on which it deems each such limit of catch will be attained, and the limit of each such catch shall then be that which shall be taken prior to said date, and fishing for or catching of halibut in the area or areas to which such limit applies shall at that date be prohibited until after the end of the closed season as defined and modified in Section 3 of these regulations, except as provided in Section 5 thereof and in Article I of the Convention, and provided that if it shall at any time become evident to the International Fisheries Commission that the limit will not be reached by such date, it may substitute another date.

LENGTH OF CLOSED SEASON

3. (a) Under the authority of Article I of the aforesaid Convention the closed season as therein defined shall be modified so as to end at 12 midnight of March 31 of each year and shall begin at 12 midnight of November 30 of each year unless an earlier date is determined upon for any area under the provisions of this Section paragraph (b) of these regulations, provided that the International Fisheries Commission may fix any date subsequent to November 1 as the commencement of the closed season regardless of the catch which it deems will be attained by such date.

(b) Under authority of Article I of the Convention the closed season as therein defined shall begin in each area on the date on which the limit is reached as hereinbefore provided, and the closing of such area or areas shall be taken to have been duly approved unless before the said date either the President of the United States of America or the Governor General of Canada shall have signified his disapproval, (the onus of proving any such signification being upon the person alleging it) and provided that the closure of Area 2 or 3, whichever shall be later, shall apply to Area 4, and that the closure of Area 2 shall apply to Area 1, and provided further that nothing in this regulation shall prohibit the fishing for other species of fish and fishing by the International Fisheries Commission as provided for in Article I of the Convention.

LAST DEPARTURE FOR AREA 3

4. After any date on which the International Fisheries Commission shall deem that the vessels which have departed for Area 3 prior to that date or which are known to be fishing in Area 3 shall suffice to catch the limit which is set for that area in Section 2, the departure for halibut fishing in the said area of any vessel from any port or place, or from any receiving vessel or station shall be prohibited during the remainder of the season when the said area is open to halibut fishing; provided that vessels which have departed for halibut fishing prior to said date and which shall hold a valid license as herein provided in Section 7 for halibut fishing may within ten days of entrance therein again depart from any port or harbor en route to or in the vicinity of the fishing grounds when such port or harbor is uninhabited, and from any port or from any place within a port at which the halibut shall not have been landed, transferred, or discharged by said vessel since the said date, when said port or place has been entered solely for shelter, repairs or supplies, and provided further that the place of departure may be designated for any port by the customs or enforcing officer in authority who may there or elsewhere at his discretion inspect the cargo of any departing vessel which he may have reason to believe has entered with halibut on board.

RETENTION OF HALIBUT TAKEN WITH OTHER FISH

5. There may be retained in possession on any vessel which shall have a permit as provided in Section 6 (b) that halibut which is taken incidentally to fishing by that vessel with set lines for other species not to exceed at any time one pound of halibut for each seven pounds of other species, not including salmon, and such halibut may be sold as the catch of said vessel, the weight of all such fish to be computed as provided in Section 2 for halibut. Halibut retained under such permit shall not be landed or otherwise removed from the catching vessel until all halibut on board shall have been reported to a customs or other authorized officer of either Government nor shall any vessel receive it for transportation unless it shall be reported to the said officer prior to departure from port, and it and all fish of other species shall be removed from the catching vessel under such supervision as the said officer may deem advisable. Such halibut shall not be purchased or held in possession by any person other than the master, operator or crew of the catching vessel in excess of the proportion herein allowed until such excess whatever its origin shall have been forfeited and surrendered to the customs or other authorized officers of either Government. All purchasers shall make statistical return as to the halibut and as to the other species landed therewith within such time as the supervising officer shall require.

The International Fisheries Commission shall determine a date in each calendar year for each area after which no permit shall be granted and a date after which no permit shall be valid for retention of halibut caught therein, provided that permits shall not be valid after the closure of the last area open to halibut fishing in convention waters.

ISSUANCE OF LICENSES AND PERMITS

6. (a) All vessels of any tonnage which shall fish for halibut in any manner or hold halibut in possession in any area, or which shall transport halibut otherwise than as a common carrier documented by the respective Governments for the carriage of freight, must be licensed by the International Fisheries Commission, provided that vessels of less than five net tons or vessels fishing otherwise than with set lines or bottom nets or trawls, need not be licensed during the open season prior to the date after which departure for any area shall be prohibited under Section 4 of these regulations.

Each licensed vessel shall carry this license on board at all times while at sea whether it is validated for halibut fishing or endorsed with a permit as hereinafter provided, and this license shall at all times be subject to inspection by authorized officers of either Government or by representatives of the International Fisheries Commission.

The license shall be issued without fee by the customs officers of either Government or by representatives of the International Fisheries Commission. Licenses issued under the Convention for the preservation of the halibut fishery signed May 9, 1930, shall be regarded as issued under the supplanting Convention signed January 29, 1937.

A new license may be issued by the officer accepting statistical return at any time to vessels which have furnished proof of loss of the license form previously issued, or when there shall be no further space for record thereon, providing the receipt of statistical return shall be shown on the new form for any halibut or other species taken during or after the voyage upon which loss occurred. The old license form shall be forwarded in each case to the International Fisheries Commission.

(b) Any vessel which shall be used in fishing for other species than halibut in any area closed to halibut fishing, or which shall depart for fishing in any area when departure for halibut fishing therein is prohibited, must have a permit if it shall retain, land or sell any halibut caught incidentally to such fishing or possess any halibut of any origin during such fishing, as provided in Section 5. The permit shall be shown by endorsement of the issuing officer on the face of the halibut license form held by said vessel and shall terminate at the time of first landing thereafter of fish of any species and a new permit may be granted in accordance with Section 7. A permit shall not be issued to any vessel which shall have halibut on board taken while licensed to fish in an open area unless such halibut shall be considered as taken under the issued permit and as thereby subject to forfeiture when landed if in excess of the amount permitted in Section 5. A permit shall not be issued to, or be valid if held by, any vessel which shall fish with other than set lines.

CONDITIONS LIMITING VALIDITY OF LICENSES AND PERMITS

7. The license or permit of any vessel shall not be valid unless the license is validated or the permit is granted before departure is allowed from the port of last clearance prior to each fishing operation for which statistical returns are required. This validation of a license or granting of a permit shall be by customs officers and shall not be made unless the area or areas in which the vessel will fish is entered on the license form and unless the provisions of Section 8 (a) and 8 (b) have been complied with for all landings and all fishing operations since issue of the license or permit provided that if the master or operator of any vessel shall fail to comply with the provisions of Section 8 (a) and 8 (b) the license or permit of such vessel may be validated or issued by customs officers or authorized representatives of the International Fisheries Commission only upon evidence either that there has been a judicial determination of the offense or that the said master or operator is no longer responsible for, nor sharing in, the operations of said vessel.

The license shall not be valid for halibut fishing in any area closed to halibut fishing or for the possession of halibut in any area closed to halibut fishing except while in transit to or within a port of sale, nor shall it be valid for halibut fishing in any area while a permit endorsed thereon is in effect, nor shall it be validated while halibut taken under such permit is on board.

When departure for halibut fishing in Area 3 has been prohibited as provided in Section 4, the license of any vessel which shall fish for halibut or retain halibut in possession within that area shall not be valid, nor be validated, for halibut fishing after any landing, transfer, or sale of halibut by such vessel subsequent to the date of this prohibition. Such license shall not be valid, nor be validated, after any entry into a port at which there shall be customs officers or others authorized to accept statistical return or to validate licenses unless the arrival of the vessel shall have been reported to such officers prior to any lading or discharge of cargo, and unless such information shall have been provided or inspection made as they shall require and unless statistical return supported by a sworn statement shall have been made showing that said vessel discharged no halibut since departure for halibut fishing was permitted, whereupon if the provisions of these regulations have otherwise been complied with, the license may be again validated and departure permitted as provided in Section 4.

STATISTICAL RETURN BY VESSELS

8. (a) Statistical return as to the amount of halibut taken during fishing operations must be made by the master or operator of any licensed vessel and as to the amount of halibut and other species by the master or operator of any vessel operating under permit as provided for in Sections 5 and 6 (b), within 48 hours of landing, sale or transfer of halibut or of first port entry thereafter, except that within any area in which the catch is not limited by these regulations the master or operator of a licensed vessel shall make statistical returns at such times as are required by the customs officers or the International Fisheries Commission, but shall at all times keep with the license form such records as are necessary to make such return. The statistical return must state the port of landing, the amount of each species taken within each area defined in these regulations, and the dates of operation in each area. The total return must include all halibut landed or transferred to other vessels and all halibut held in possession on board and must be full, true and correct in all respects herein required. A copy of such return must be forwarded to the International Fisheries Commission at such times as the latter shall require.

The master or operator and/or any person engaged on shares in the operation of any vessel licensed or holding a permit under these regulations may be required by the International Fisheries Commission or by any officer authorized to receive such return to certify to its correctness to the best of his information and belief and to support the certificate by a sworn statement. Validation of a license or issuance of a permit after such sworn return is made shall be provisional and shall not render the license or permit valid in case the return shall later be shown to be false or fraudulently made.

(b) The master or operator of any vessel holding a license or permit under these regulations shall keep an accurate log of all fishing operations including therein date, locality, amount of gear used, and the amount of halibut taken daily in each such locality. This log record shall be open to inspection of representatives of the International Fisheries Commission authorized for this purpose. The master, operator and/or any other person engaged on shares in the operation of any vessel licensed under these regulations may be required by the International Fisheries Commission or by any officer of either Government to certify to the correctness of such log record to the best of his information and belief and to support the certificate by a sworn statement.

STATISTICAL RETURNS BY OTHERS

9. All persons, firms, or corporations that shall buy halibut or receive halibut for any purpose from fishing or transporting vessels shall keep and on request furnish to customs officers or to any enforcing officer of either Government or to the International Fisheries Commission, records of each purchase or receipt of halibut, showing date, locality, name of vessel, person, firm or corporation purchased or received from and the amount in pounds according to trade categories of the halibut and other species landed with the halibut, providing that such return must be made to customs or enforcing officers within such time as they shall require after the purchase or landing of any halibut caught or landed by a vessel operating under permit, as provided in Sections 5 and 6 (b). Such persons, firms, or corporations may be required to certify to the correctness of such records and to support the certificate by a sworn statement. The knowing possession by such persons, firms or corporations of halibut taken by an unlicensed vessel, or a vessel without permit when such license or permit is required shall be prohibited.

CLOSED SMALL HALIBUT GROUNDS

10. The following areas having been found to be populated by small immature halibut, are hereby closed to all halibut fishing and the possession of halibut of any origin is prohibited therein during fishing for other species:

First, that area in the waters off the coast of Alaska within the following boundary as stated in terms of the magnetic compass unless otherwise indicated; from the north extremity of Cape Ulitka, Noyes Island, approximately latitude 55°33′42″ N., longitude 133°43′39″ W., to the south extremity of Wood Island, approximately latitude 55°39′38″ N., longitude 133°42′32″ W.; thence to the east extremity of Timbered Islet, approximately latitude 55°41′42″ N., longitude 133°47′45″ W.; thence to the true west extremity of Timbered Islet, approximately latitude 55°41′41″ N., longitude 133°48′04″ W.; thence southwest three-quarters south sixteen and five-eighths miles to a point approximately latitude 55°35′00″ N., longitude 134°14′45″ W.; thence southeast by south twelve and five-eighths miles to a point approximately latitude 55°22′24″ N., longitude 134°13′05″ W.; thence northeast fourteen miles to the southern extremity of Cape Addington, Noyes Island, latitude 55°26′06″ N., longitude 133°49′14″ W.; and to the point of origin on Cape Ulitka. The boundary lines herein indicated shall be determined from Chart 8157, as published by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey at Washington, D. C., in April, 1925, except for the point of Cape Addington which shall be determined from Chart 8158, as published by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey in December, 1923, provided that the duly authorized officers of the United States of America may at any time place a plainly visible mark or marks at any point or points as nearly as practicable on the boundary line defined herein, and such mark or marks shall thereafter be considered as correctly defining said boundary.

Second, that area lying in the waters off the north coast of Graham Island, British Columbia, within the following boundary: From the northwest extremity of Wiah Point, latitude 54°06′50″ N., longitude 132°19′18″ W., true north five and one-half miles to a point approximately latitude 54°12′20″ N., longitude 132°19′18″ W.; thence true east approximately sixteen and three-tenths miles to a point which shall lie northwest (according to magnetic compass at any time) of the highest point of Tow Hill, Graham Island, latitude 54°04′24″ N., longitude 131°48′00″ W.; thence southeast to the said highest point of Tow Hill. The points on the shoreline of the above mentioned island shall be determined from Chart 3754, published at the Admiralty, London, April 11, 1911, provided that the duly authorized officers of the Dominion of Canada may at any time place a plainly visible mark or marks at any point or points as nearly as practicable on the boundary line defined herein, and such marks shall thereafter be considered as correctly defining said boundary.

DORY GEAR PROHIBITED IN AREAS 1 AND 2

11. The use of any hand gurdy or other appliance in hauling halibut gear by hand power in any dory or small boat operated from a vessel licensed under the provisions of these regulations is prohibited in Areas 1 and 2.

SET NETS PROHIBITED

12. It is prohibited to take or to retain halibut with a set net of any kind or to have in possession any halibut while using any such net for other species of fish, nor shall any license or permit held by any vessel under these regulations be valid during the use or possession on board of any such net.

SUPERSEDE PREVIOUS REGULATIONS

13. These regulations shall supersede all previous regulations adopted pursuant to the Convention between the United States of America and the Dominion of Canada for preservation of the halibut fishery of the northern Pacific Ocean and Bering Sea, signed January 29, 1937. Any determination made by the International Fisheries Commission pursuant to these regulations shall become effective immediately.

IN THE MATTER OF GARDNER ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A declaration pursuant to section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by Gardner Electric Light Company, of Gardner, Massachusetts, a subsidiary of New England Power Association, a registered holding company, regarding the issue and sale by declarant of $400,000 aggregate principal amount of unsecured promissory notes, payable one year after date, and bearing interest at the rate of 3% per annum, in two notes of equal amounts to The First National Bank of Boston, and The Chase National Bank of the city of New York, to provide funds for the payment of bank loans, demand notes and to reimburse declarant's treasury for capital expenditures.

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on March 25, 1938, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Moore or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before March 21, 1938.

[General Order No. 23]

RULES AND REGULATIONS REGARDING CADET OFFICERS AND CADETS UPON VESSELS OPERATED FOR THE ACCOUNT OF THE UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION AND UPON VESSELS OPERATING UNDER SUBSIDY AGREEMENTS

1. Effective March 15, 1938, there are established the ratings, "Cadet Officer" and "Cadet."

2. (a) Cadet officer.—Qualifications for the rating "Cadet Officer" shall be: graduation from the State Nautical school of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, New York, or California, the U. S. Naval Academy or the U. S. Coast Guard Academy, or from such other school or academy specifically approved by this Commission, who is also licensed as Third Mate or Third Assistant Engineer.

(b) Cadet.—The rating "cadet" shall designate any person meeting requirements to be established and who is on the Commission's eligible list hereinafter described and who is in training or to be trained for a license as Third Mate or Third Assistant Engineer.

3. Compensation—(a) Cadet officers.—Compensation for cadet officers shall be at the rate of $75.00 per month and cadet officers shall have in all other respects the perquisites and privileges of a licensed officer.

(b) Cadets.—Compensation for cadets shall be at a rate of $50.00 per month. While traveling, cadets shall be furnished an allowance for subsistence at the rate of $3.25 per day, except where subsistence is included with transportation. When meals are not furnished, cadets shall receive a subsistence allowance of $2.50 per day, and, when required to sleep ashore, they shall receive an allowance of $1.75 per night for lodging.

4. Quarters.—All cadet officers and cadets shall be quartered with licensed personnel.

5. Age limits.—At the time of appointment cadet officers shall be not less than 19 and not more than 23 years of age; cadets shall be not less than 18 and not more than 23 years of age.

6. Eligible list.—The Division of Maritime Personnel shall examine all applications for cadet officers and cadets and shall compile an eligible list in each classification. After March 15, 1938, appointment of cadet officers and cadets shall be made exclusively from among those on the eligible list. Operators of vessels with an operating subsidy and the Division of Operations and Traffic of this Commission may select from this eligible list cadet officers or cadets for vessels under their respective jurisdiction.

7. The number of cadet officers or cadets, deck and engine, required to be carried will be prescribed by the Commission in the establishment of minimum manning scales for each individual vessel operating under subsidy contracts.

REGULATING THE IMPORTATION OF LIVING DISEASE ORGANISMS AND VECTORS

AMENDMENT NO. 17 TO THE QUARANTINE REGULATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES

Pursuant to the authority contained in section 3 of the Act of February 15, 1893, 27 Stat. 450 (U. S. C., title 42, sec. 92), the quarantine regulations of the United States are hereby amended by adding thereto the following new chapter, numbered XVII–A, entitled "Living Disease Organisms and Vectors," and containing paragraphs numbered 128–A, 128–B, 128–C, and 128–D:

CHAPTER XVII–A

Living Disease Organisms and Vectors

128–A. No culture of bacteria, or any living virus or collection of organisms, that causes or may cause any contagious or infectious disease, nor any insect, animal, or plant infected with such bacteria, virus, or organism, shall be admitted into the United States without a specific permit issued by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service.

128–B. No living insect, animal, or plant, new to or not theretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States, which is potentially capable of transmitting any contagious or infectious disease, shall be admitted into the United States without a specific permit issued by the Surgeon General.

128–C. The Surgeon General may, in his discretion, issue a permit as specified in paragraph 128–A and paragraph 128–B when proper safeguards are set up to protect the public. No article or thing coming within the provisions of paragraph 128–A or paragraph 128–B shall be released from customs custody prior to the receipt by the collector of customs of a permit therefor issued by the Surgeon General, which permit shall specify the name and address of the consignee of such article or thing.

128–D. The provisions of paragraphs 128–A, 128–B, and 128–C shall not apply to birds of the parrot family, as defined in "Regulations Governing the Importation of Birds of the Parrot Family into Ports of the United States Prescribed in Accordance with the Provisions of Executive Order No. 5264, approved January 24, 1930", which regulations, approved December 20, 1933, shall continue to govern the importation of such birds of the parrot family.

DETERMINATION OF FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICES FOR THE 1938 CROP OF PUERTO RICAN SUGARCANE PURSUANT TO THE SUGAR ACT OF 1937

Whereas Section 301 (d) of the Sugar Act of 1937, approved September 1, 1937, provides, as one of the conditions for payment to producers of sugar beets and sugarcane, as follows:

That the producer on the farm who is also, directly or indirectly, a processor of sugar beets or sugarcane, as may be determined by the Secretary, shall have paid, or contracted to pay under either purchase or toll agreements, for any sugar beets or sugarcane grown by other producers and processed by him at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing;

Whereas the Secretary of Agriculture, on November 30, 1937, held a public hearing at San Juan, Puerto Rico, for the purpose of receiving evidence likely to be of assistance to him in determining fair and reasonable prices for the 1938 crop of Puerto Rican sugarcane.

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, after investigation and due consideration of the evidence obtained at the aforesaid hearing and all other information before me, do hereby determine fair and reasonable prices for the 1938 crop of Puerto Rican sugarcane to be paid by processors who, as producers (hereinafter referred to as producer-processors), apply for payments under the said act, in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) When payment for sugarcane delivered to a producer-processor is made by actual delivery of sugar to the producer (colono) on the basis of a stated percentage of 96° raw sugar recoverable from the producer's sugarcane, such percentage shall be the same as in 1937, except that in no event shall it be less than 63 percent of the recoverable sugar (packed in the customary bags) determined in accordance with the formula given below, and except, further, that such recoverable sugar shall be calculated fortnightly or monthly as may be agreed upon between the producer (colono) and the producer-processor:

R=Recoverable sugar, 96° polarization.
S=Polarization of the crusher juice obtained from the sugarcane of each producer, during each fortnight or month.
F=Fraction whose numerator is the average yield of sugar of 96° polarization obtained from the aggregate grinding during each fortnight or month in which the cane of the producer (colono) has been ground, and whose denominator is the average polarization of the crusher juice obtained from the aggregate grinding during the fortnight or month in which the cane of the producer (colono) has been ground;

Provided, however, That when through the delivery of unripe or burnt cane, or through any other cause, the recoverable sugar determined in accordance with the foregoing formula amounts to 9 pounds or less per 100 pounds of cane, or when sugarcane is delivered of the Japanese, Uba, Coimbatore, or other varieties of the Sacharum Spontaneum or Sacharum Sinensis type, the payment shall be on the basis of rates not less than those provided in the 1937 cane grinding agreement between the producer-processor and the grower (colono).

(b) When payment for sugarcane delivered to a producer-processor is made by actual delivery of sugar to the producer on the basis of an amount of 96° raw sugar equal to a stated percentage of the weight of the sugarcane received from the producer (commonly referred to as the "flat rate" basis), the applicable percentage of recoverable sugar shall be computed by multiplying the average number of pounds of sugar, 96° basis, recovered per 100 pounds of sugarcane, during the current crop at the mill where the sugarcane was ground, by not less than .63. The figure for the average number of pounds of sugar, 96° basis, recovered per 100 pounds of sugarcane shall be rounded to the nearest one-tenth of a pound.[1] The product of such figure and .63 shall be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of 1 percent.[1] Pending the calculation of the sugar recovery for the entire crop, provisional liquidations shall be made fortnightly or monthly on such bases as may be agreed upon between the producer (colono) and the producer-processor.

(c) When settlement is not made by actual delivery of 96° raw sugar, as aforesaid, the money value of the recoverable sugar, determined as in (a) or (b) above (whichever is applicable) shall be paid to the grower on the basis of such average duty paid price for 96° raw sugar as may be agreed upon between the producer and the producer-processor, for the fortnight or month in which the sugarcane is delivered to the producer-processor, converted to the equivalent f. o. b. mill price by deducting selling and delivery expenses actually incurred by the producer-processor, provided that in no event shall such deduction amount to more than .25 cent per pound of sugar.

In addition to the foregoing, the following requirement shall be met:

When sugarcane is delivered to a producer-processor in the name of a person other than the legal owner thereof (commonly referred to as "purchasing agent"), the producer-processor shall make payment to the legal owner of such sugarcane in accordance with the provisions of this determination.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of March 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Secretary of Agriculture.

2. The annual operation and maintenance charge for the irrigation season of 1938, and thereafter until further notice, against all lands of the Tule Lake Division remaining subject to public notice of September 29, 1922, lying outside of the Klamath Irrigation District, shall be a minimum charge of one dollar and eighty cents ($1.80) per irrigable acre, whether water is used or not, which will entitle the water user to two and one-half (2½) acre-feet of water per irrigable acre. Additional water will be furnished up to a limit of three and one-half (3½) acre-feet per irrigable acre at the rate of fifty cents ($0.50) per acre-foot and all further quantities for seventy-five cents ($0.75) per acre-foot.

3. The annual operation and maintenance charges for the irrigation season of 1938, and thereafter until further notice, against all lands under individual Warren Act contracts, shall be a minimum charge of sixty-nine cents ($0.69) per irrigable acre, whether water is used or not, which will entitle the water user to two and one-half (2½) acre-feet of water per irrigable acre; provided that for those contracts which have not been amended so as to increase the allowance of water from 2 to 2½ acre-feet per annum, only 2 acre-feet will be furnished under the minimum charge. Additional water will be furnished at the rate of twenty-five cents ($0.25) per acre-foot.

4. Water rental charges.—The annual water rental charge for the irrigation season of 1938, and thereafter until further notice, against all lands of the Tule Lake Division lying outside of the Klamath Irrigation District and subject to Public Orders of January 22, 1927, March 30, 1928, February 6, 1929, September 10, 1930, October 16, 1931, and September 7, 1937, shall be a minimum charge of one dollar and eighty cents ($1.80) per irrigable acre, whether water is used or not, which will entitle the water users to two and one-half (2½) acre-feet of water per irrigable acre. Additional water will be furnished up to a limit of three and one-half (3½) acre-feet per irrigable acre at the rate of fifty cents ($0.50) per acre-foot and all further quantities for seventy-five cents ($0.75) per acre-foot.

5. For irrigation or waste water furnished Tule Lake leased lands, the charge, unless otherwise specified in the leases, shall be sixty-five cents ($0.65) per acre-foot for the season of 1938 and thereafter until further notice.

6. For water furnished lands not subject to the operation and maintenance or water-rental charges named above the charge shall be seventy-five cents ($0.75) per acre-foot for the season of 1938 and thereafter until further notice.

7. Time of payment.—For lands of the Tule Lake Division under public notice or public order lying outside of the Klamath Irrigation District, the minimum charge of one dollar and eighty cents ($1.80) per irrigable acre stated above will be due and payable one-half before the delivery of water, if water is delivered before July 1, 1938, and one-half on or before July 1, 1938. If no water is delivered before July 1, 1938, then the entire charge shall become due and payable on that date. If the charge, or any part thereof, is unpaid on that date there will be added a penalty of one-half of one per centum (½%) and there will be added a like penalty of one-half of one per centum (½%) on the first day of each month thereafter so long as such default shall continue. Payment for water used in addition to the allowance under the minimum charge shall be made on or before December 1 of the season in which used, and if not paid on or before said due date, there will be added a penalty of one-half of one per centum (½%) and there will be added a like penalty of one-half of one per centum (½%) on the first day of each month thereafter so long as such default shall continue.

8. For all other lands referred to herein the minimum charges announced shall be due and payable before the delivery of water and in any event not later than May 1 of the current irrigation season. Payment for water used in addition to the allowance under the minimum charge shall be made on or before December 1 of the season in which used. On all payments not made on or before the due dates specified herein, there will be added a penalty of one-half of one per centum (½%) and there will be added a like penalty of one-half of one per centum (½%) on the first day of each month thereafter so long as such default shall continue.

[1] Act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat., 388), as amended or supplemented.

9. Where water-rental application is made for public land entered under the reclamation law after June 15 and where water-rental application is made after August 1 for land in private ownership, no water-rental charge shall be made for water delivered during the remainder of the irrigation season in which water-rental application is made.

Division of Territories and Island Possessions.

[Tariff No. 9 (Cancels Tariff No. 6)]

THE ALASKA RAILROAD

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE TARIFF

ANCHORAGE, ALASKA, February 1, 1938.

Effective February 1, 1938, long-distance telephone tolls will be calculated on a basis of one-cent per mile between all points. A minimum charge of twenty-five cents will be made.

Mileage will be computed from current railroad time-tables or other official publications; fraction miles will be disregarded.

The rate of one-cent per mile is based on a three minute conversation. Charges for additional minutes will be made in accordance with the following table:

When rate is—

$0.25 to $0.35 inclusive, 10 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$0.40 to $0.65 inclusive, 15 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$0.70 to $0.95 inclusive, 20 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$1.00 to $1.25 inclusive, 25 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$1.30 to $1.55 inclusive, 30 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$1.60 to $1.85 inclusive, 35 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$1.90 to $2.15 inclusive, 40 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$2.20 to $2.45 inclusive, 45 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$2.50 to $2.75 inclusive, 50 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$2.80 to $3.05 inclusive, 55 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$3.10 to $3.35 inclusive, 60 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$3.40 to $3.65 inclusive, 65 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$3.70 to $3.95 inclusive, 70 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$3.95 to $4.20 inclusive, 75 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$4.25 to $4.50 inclusive, 80 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$4.55 to $4.80 inclusive, 85 cents will be charged for each additional minute.
$4.85 to $5.10 inclusive, 90 cents will be charged for each additional minute.

The nearest multiple of five will be regarded as the number of miles to be charged for in computing rates. For instance; if the mileage between two points should be 32, the rate will be 30 cents. If the mileage should be 33, the rate will be 35 cents.

A Federal Tax on commercial telephone conversations over lines of The Alaska Railroad will be made as follows:

When the charge is 50 cents or more and less than $1.00	10 cents.
When the charge is $1.00 or more and less than $2.00	15 cents.
When the charge is $2.00 or more	20 cents.

The tax will be paid by party paying for service and will be reported by line collecting tax. In the case of The Railroad collecting the tax, employee that makes the collection will report tax on Form 343, Telephone Toll Service.

No tax to be imposed on services furnished press for collection of news for public press or dissemination of news through public press or furnished Government or Territory including any political subdivision thereof.

SUBSCRIBERS

The Railroad will install, when line conditions permit, telephones for subscribers on long distance lines, which will consist of wall telephone and one span from railroad telephone line, any additional spans including poles and fixtures to be furnished, installed and maintained by the subscriber, in accordance with standard specifications of The Railroad.

A deposit of $10.00 will be required in advance for each telephone installed, which will be refunded, less any amount due The Railroad, when telephone is discontinued.

A charge will be made against the subscriber in accordance with this tariff for each long distance telephone call made from the subscriber's telephone, which will be billed against the subscriber at the end of each month, with minimum charge of $5.00 for the month.

Where extra equipment is required, the following charges will be made:

Desk Telephone (in place of wall type)	$0.50 per month.
Extension Bell only	$0.50 per month.
Extension Telephone, Wall Type	$1.00 per month.
Extension Telephone, Desk Type	$1.50 per month.

The above charges for extra equipment will be made in addition to charges for long distance calls or in addition to monthly guarantee.

THE ALASKA RAILROAD—TRANSPORTATION DEPARTMENT

INFORMATION FOR FREIGHT SHIPMENTS TO RIVER POINTS BETWEEN NENANA AND MARSHALL, ALASKA

ANCHORAGE, ALASKA, February 10, 1938.

To All Concerned:

During the 1938 season the Steamer Nenana will be operated between Nenana, Holy Cross, Marshall and intermediate points as follows:

Leave Nenana at 7:00 p. m. for Marshall on Sunday, May 15, June 5, 19, July 3, 17, 31, August 14, 28, and September 11.

Returning from Marshall, steamer will leave that point for Nenana as soon as freight and passengers are discharged but not earlier than 6:00 a. m. May 24, June 10, 24, July 8, 22, August 5, 19, September 2, 16. Departure from Holy Cross will be not earlier than 6:00 p. m., on date shown following departure from Marshall.

A barge will be handled by steamer leaving Nenana on sailings May 15th, June 5, July 3, 31, August —, 28, Sept. 11. No barge will be handled by steamer sailing from Nenana on June 19, July 17, August 14, unless there is on hand at Nenana sufficient tonnage, in excess of carrying capacity of the steamer itself, to warrant the handling of a barge.

Inflammable liquids and explosives, which include gasoline, distillate, kerosene, are prohibited for transportation on the steamer itself and must be transported or loaded on a barge towed by the steamer. Therefore, shippers of these commodities should arrange their orders so that shipments will connect at Nenana with steamer handling barge, on dates indicated above.

Connections are made at Holy Cross with steamer of Ira Wood and Day Navigation Company for points on the Innoko River and Iditarod.

Connections are made at Marshall, with each sailing, with launches of Northern Commercial Company for Saint Michael and Nome.

Train connections with Steamer Nenana at Nenana, for Marshall, are made with Train No. 2 from Seward, also motor car leaving Fairbanks Sunday at 4:00 p. m. for Nenana. Steamer Nenana arriving Nenana connects with Train No. 1 for Seward, and motor car for Fairbanks.

The Steamer Alice will also be operated on the Tanana and Yukon Rivers as a freight steamer handling freight traffic and a limited amount of passenger traffic. This steamer will operate on an irregular schedule depending on traffic.

Local Passenger Tariff No. 6-A and Local Freight Tariff No. 6-A name passenger and freight rates between all points Nenana to Marshall.

This circular cancels Freight Circular No. 69-G and Passenger Circular No. 127-G of February 24, 1937.

J. T. CUNNINGHAM,
Sup't. of Transportation.

The above is hereby confirmed.

THE ALASKA RAILROAD—TRANSPORTATION DEPARTMENT

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT SERVICE ON TANANA AND YUKON RIVERS

ANCHORAGE, ALASKA, February 10, 1938.

To Shippers:

River boat service during the 1938 season between Nenana and Marshall will commence with sailing of the Steamer Nenana from Nenana on May 15th, the next sailing will be Sunday, June 5th, and every second Sunday thereafter until sailing of September 11th, which will be the final sailing for the season.

For the information of shippers and consignees the following schedule of freight connections with steamers leaving Seattle is made. Schedule shows the dates shipments must be forwarded from Seattle to make connection with sailings from Nenana. Highly perishable and cool room shipments will be given special service over the rail line of The Alaska Railroad, and as noted in the schedule may be forwarded from Seattle only one week prior to sailing from Nenana; the minimum time other shipments must leave Seattle, for connection with any sailing from Nenana is two weeks.

The last sailing from Seattle on which freight may be forwarded with the assurance of delivery is the sailing of August 27th; delivery is not guaranteed on any shipments forwarded after that date. (See exception)

Exception: Shipments of eggs, potatoes, onions, oranges, apples and such other semi-perishable freight, including highly perishable and cool room freight may be forwarded from Seattle on steamer leaving September 3rd to connect with the last steamer leaving Nenana September 11th.

A barge will be handled by steamer leaving Nenana on sailing May 15th, June 5, July 3, 31, August 28, September 11. No barge will be handled by steamer sailing from Nenana on June 19, July 17, August 14, unless there is on hand at Nenana sufficient tonnage, in excess of carrying capacity of the steamer itself to warrant the handling of a barge.

Inflammable liquids and explosives, which includes gasoline, distillate, kerosene, are prohibited for transportation on the steamer itself and must be transported or loaded on a barge towed by the steamer. Therefore, shippers of these commodities should arrange their orders so that shipments will connect at Nenana with steamer handling barge, on dates indicated above.

Freight shipments should leave Seattle as shown below to connect with steamer leaving Nenana.

Steamer leaves Nenana—	All freight except highly perishable and cool room freight should leave Seattle—	Highly perishable and cool room freight leave Seattle—	Gas and oil should leave Seward not later than—
May 15	April 16, 20, 23, 30	May 7	May 7
June 5	May 4, 7, 14, 18, 21	May 28	May 28
June 19 [1]	May 28, June 1, 4	June 11	(1)
July 3	June 8, 11, 15, 18	June 25	June 25
July 17 [1]	June 22, 25, 29, July 2	July 9	(1)
July 31	July 6, 9, 13, 16	July 23	July 23
Aug. 14 [1]	July 20, 23, 27, 30	Aug. 6	(1)
Aug. 28	Aug. 3, 6, 10, 13	Aug. 20	Aug. 20
Sept. 11	Aug. 17, 20, 24, 27	Sept. 3	Sept. 3

[1] No barge with river steamer.

The Steamer Alice will also be operated on the Tanana and Yukon Rivers as a freight steamer, handling freight traffic and a limited amount of passenger traffic. This steamer will operate on an irregular schedule depending on traffic.

Owing to the possibility of the first sailing from Nenana being delayed due to river conditions, highly perishable and cool room freight, which is subject to loss due to delay in transit, will only be accepted at owner's risk. Any loss due to delay at Nenana waiting for navigation to open will be for the account of shipper or owner.

For the information of residents along and adjacent to the Tanana and Yukon Rivers, position reports are broadcast by radio telephone, on a frequency of 6190 kilocycles from river steamers at 8:00 A. M., and 7:00 P. M. daily.

Special Tanana River Trip

If river conditions permit, a short trip from Nenana to Tanana will be made prior to May 15th, and shipments for Tolovana, Hot Springs, Tanana and other Tanana River points should leave Seattle not later than April 23rd to connect with this special sailing. Highly perishable and cool room shipments may leave April 30th for this special trip.

Final shipments for Cripple and other points on the headwaters of the Innoko River, and Alatna, Bettles, and Wiseman on the headwaters of the Koyukuk River should leave Seattle not later than August 13th.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, HOLDING COMPANY ACT

AMENDMENTS TO RULES OF PRACTICE

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, particularly Section 19 (a) thereof, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly Section 23 (a) thereof, the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly Section 20 (a) thereof, and finding that it is necessary to carry out the provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and that it is necessary for the execution of the functions vested in the Commission by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, thereby amends the Rules of Practice of the Commission, effective March 21, 1938.

Attached hereto is Rule II of the Rules of Practice of the Commission, as amended. The Rule, as amended, provides that consent of the Commission shall be obtained in order for a former member or employee of the Commission to appear as attorney or agent in connection with any matter, including any investigation, conducted by the Commission which was pending before the Commission during the period of his employment therein. It also provides for the obtaining of consent of the Commission for former members or employees (excluding persons not classified as attorneys or other experts at the time of their separation from the service) to aid or assist in the preparation or presentation of any matter, including any investigation, conducted by the Commission which was pending before the Commission during the period of his employment therein.

The provisions of Rule II, as amended, apply not only to present members or employees who may subsequently terminate their employment with the Commission, but also to members or employees who have heretofore been employed by the Commission and left the service.

Rule II, as amended, now provides as follows:

Appearance and Practice Before the Commission

(a) An individual may appear in his own behalf, a member of a partnership may represent the partnership, a bonafide officer of a corporation, trust, or association may represent the corporation, trust or association, and an officer or employee of a state commission or of a department or political subdivision of a state may represent the state commission or the department or political subdivision of the state, in any proceeding.

(b) A person may be represented in any proceeding by an attorney at law duly admitted to practice before the Commission.

(c) A person shall not be represented at any hearing before the Commission or a trial examiner except as stated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this rule.

(d) In all matters other than hearings before the Commission or a trial examiner, a person may be represented by an agent who is duly admitted to practice before the Commission.

(e) All persons appearing before or transacting business with the Commission in a represenative capacity may be required to file powers of attorney with the Commission showing their authority to act in such capacity.

(f) A register will be maintained by the Commission in which will be entered the names and addresses of all persons admitted to practice before the Commission. Only individual members of firms will be admitted.

(g) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (e) and (f) of this rule, the following classes of persons whom the Commision finds, on consideration of their applications, to be of good moral character and to possess the requisite qualifications to represent others, may be admitted to practice before the Commission:

(1) Attorneys at law who are admitted to practice before any court of the United States, or the highest court of any State or Territory.

(2) Any person, not an attorney, to be designated as agent, who is a citizen of the United States and who shall, in the opinion of the Commission, possess the necessary education, training, experience, and technical qualifications which would enable him properly to represent others before the Commission.

(h) An application for admission to practice shall be addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D. C., stating under oath the name, residence address, and business address of the applicant. In the case of an attorney, the time and place of admission to the bar and whether the applicant has ever been suspended or disbarred as an attorney in any court or jurisdiction shall be stated. In the case of an agent, the applicant shall state briefly his education, training, experience, and technical qualifications.

(i) In the discretion of the Commission or trial examiner, an attorney at law may be permitted to appear for the purpose of any proceeding, though not theretofore admitted to practice before the Commission in the way prescribed.

(j) All persons appearing in any proceeding shall conform to the standards of conduct generally required of practitioners at law.

(k) The Commission may deny admission to any person who is found by the Commission:

(1) Not to possess the requisite qualifications to represent others;

(2) To be lacking in character, integrity, or proper professional conduct.

If, upon consideration of an application, the Commission is not satisfied that the applicant possesses the qualifications required by this rule, it will so notify him by personal service or registered mail, with demand for a return receipt, whereupon he may request a hearing for the purposes of proving his qualifications. If he presents such a request, the Commission will accord him a hearing, but if no request for a hearing is made by the applicant and received by the Commission within thirty days after such service or the mailing of such notification to the address given in the application for admission to practice, his application shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

(l) The Commission may suspend or disbar any person who, after such person shall have been given an opportunity to be heard in the matter, is found by the Commission:

(1) To have violated these rules;

(2) Not to possess the requisite qualifications to represent others;

(3) To be lacking in character, integrity or proper professional conduct.

Any former member or employee of the Commission who shall appear as attorney or agent in connection with any matter, including any investigation conducted by the Commission, which was pending before the Commission during the period of his employment therein, without first obtaining the consent of the Commission so to appear, may be held by reason thereof to be lacking in proper professional conduct within the meaning of these rules. Any person who shall appear as attorney or agent in connection with any matter, including any investigation conducted by the Commission, and shall accept the advice or assistance of any former member or employee of the Commission (excluding persons not classified as attorneys or other experts as of the time of their separation from the employ of the Commission) in the preparation or presentation of any such matter without first obtaining the consent of the Commission for such former member or employee so to advise or assist where the matter in connection with which such person appears was pending before the Commission during the period of such former member's or employee's employment therein, may be held by reason thereof to be lacking in proper professional conduct within the meaning of these rules.

(m) Consent of the Commission for former members or employees to act in the preparation or presentation of matters pending before the Commission during the period of employment by the Commission of such former member or employee may be granted after written application therefor is filed with the Commission. Such application shall be made by the former member or employee where he is admitted to practice before the Commission, and by the person admitted to practice before the Commission who desires to accept the advice or assistance of such former member or employee. The application shall describe the matter in respect to which the applicant proposes to act. In connection with the application the Commission should be advised by the former member or employee as to the extent of the consideration given by him to the matter involved during the period of his employment with the Commission. Such information may be furnished in affidavit form. The Commission shall not grant such application unless it finds that the former member or employee has not, by virtue of his former employment with the Commission, such familiarity with the matter in respect to which he proposes to act as to be prejudicial to the proper conduct of the proceeding. In considering such application the Commission may make such examination of the former member or employee and of the Commission's records as it may deem proper and shall grant or deny the application and advise the applicant promptly as to its action. The granting of such application shall entitle such applicant to act for another only where the person to be represented is entitled to representation by an attorney or agent.

(n) Contemptuous conduct at any hearing before the Commission or a Trial Examiner shall be ground for exclusion from said hearing and for summary suspension without a hearing for the duration of the hearing.

IN THE MATTER OF ST. ANTHONY GOLD MINES, LTD., COMMON STOCK, $1 PAR VALUE

ORDER SETTING HEARING ON APPLICATION TO WITHDRAW FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION

The St. Anthony Gold Mines, Ltd., pursuant to Section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule JD2 promulgated thereunder, having made application to the Commission to withdraw its Common Stock, $1 Par Value, from listing and registration on the New York Curb Exchange; and

The Commission deeming it necessary for the protection of investors that a hearing be held in this matter at which all interested persons be given an opportunity to be heard;

It is ordered, That the matter be set down for hearing at 10:00 A. M., on Tuesday, March 15, 1938, in Room 1102, Securities and Exchange Commission Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., and continue thereafter at such times and places as the Commission or its officer herein designated shall determine, and that general notice thereof be given; and

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HOLDING REFERENDA ON COTTON AND FIRE-CURED AND DARK AIR-CURED TOBACCO MARKETING QUOTAS ON THE 1938 CROP

The following amendments are hereby made in the "Instructions for Holding Referenda on Cotton and Fire-Cured and Dark Air-Cured Tobacco Marketing Quotas on the 1938 Crop", 38-AAA-1-B, issued February 18, 1938, pursuant to Sections 347 and 312 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938:

In item 15, Section B (Instructions to Community Referendum Committees) the date is hereby changed from March 12, 1938 to March 14, 1938. Item 15 now reads as follows:

"Seal the registers and community summary forms, and the unused ballots, in envelopes provided for that purpose and deliver them to the County Committee not later than 12 o'clock noon, Monday, March 14, 1938. The chairman of the Community Referendum Committee shall be responsible for the safe delivery of the forms and ballots."

The second paragraph of Section D (Eligibility and General Provisions) is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Only farmers who were engaged in the production of cotton in 1937 are eligible to vote in the cotton marketing quota referendum. Likewise, only farmers who were engaged in the production of fire-cured or dark air-cured tobacco in 1937 are eligible to vote in the fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco marketing quota referendum. The fact that a farmer is eligible to vote in one referendum does not necessarily mean that he is eligible to vote in the other. Any person who shared in the proceeds of the 1937 cotton crop as landowner, operator, share-tenant, or sharecropper shall be considered as engaged in the production of cotton. Likewise, any person who shared in the proceeds of the 1937 fire-cured or dark air-cured tobacco crop as landowner, operator, share-tenant, or sharecropper shall be considered as engaged in the production of fire-cured or dark air-cured tobacco."

In Section D (Eligibility and General Provisions) the following paragraph is hereby inserted before the last paragraph:

"Since marketing quotas are not applicable to cotton, the staple of which is 1½ inches or more in length, a person who was engaged in the production of such cotton in 1937 shall not be eligible to vote unless he was also engaged in the production of cotton in 1937 the staple of which was less than 1½ inches in length."

Done at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of March 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

IN THE MATTER OF NEW ENGLAND POWER COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 10 (a) (2) and 10 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by New England Power Company, organized under the laws of Massachusetts, a subsidiary of New England Power Association, a registered holding company, regarding the acquisition of transmission lines including title and interest on right of way in Webster and Dudley, Massachusetts; substation equipment and land whereon the same is located in Webster, Massachusetts, and other miscellaneous equipment incidental to the operation of said property for a cash consideration of $87,185.97 to the vendor, Worcester County Electric Company, a Massachusetts corporation also a subsidiary of New England Power Association.

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on March 29, 1938, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before March 24, 1938.

REVENUE ACT OF 1932—COAL, COKE, AND BRIQUETS

TAXABLE STATUS OF COAL, COKE, AND BRIQUETS IMPORTED FROM CERTAIN COUNTRIES

MARCH 8, 1938.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Coal, coke made from coal, and coal or coke briquets imported from the following countries and entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption during the period from January 1 to December 31, 1938, inclusive, will not be subject to the tax of 10 cents per hundred pounds provided for in section 601 (c) (5) of the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended:

Australia	France, including French Indo-China
Canada	Mexico

Coal, coke made from coal, and coal or coke briquets produced in the following countries, imported into the United States directly or indirectly therefrom and entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption during the period from January 1 to December 31, 1938, inclusive, will be exempt from the tax by virtue of section 601 (a) of the revenue act:

Belgium	Poland
Japan	United Kingdom
Netherlands

The same entry privilege under section 601 (a), supra, shall be granted to such fuels produced in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, imported directly or indirectly therefrom, and entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption during the period from January 1 to August 5, 1938, inclusive.

Such fuels will be subject to the tax when produced in and imported from Germany and entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption during the current calendar year.

The above list does not include countries from which there have been no importations of coal or allied fuels during the past two calendar years. Further information concerning the taxable status of such fuels imported in 1938 will be furnished upon application therefore to the Bureau.

ORDER AND NOTICE FOR HEARING

Pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs:

1. That a public hearing be held on the 25th day of April, 1938, commencing at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., at the Hearing Room of the Commission, Walker Building, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Commission to determine and prescribe due and reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances that may be made by code members to "distributors", defined by Section 4, Part II (h), of the Act as those who purchase coal for resale and resell it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots, and to establish Rules and Regulations for the maintenance and observance by such "distributors" in the resale of coal, of the Prices and Marketing Rules and Regulations to be established by the Commission, at which hearing all interested parties shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard; such evidence as to reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances and Rules and Regulations to include:

(a) Evidence as to the reasonable cost and value of the service rendered by a distributor who purchases coal for resale and resells it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots.

(b) Evidence as to what constitutes a fair return or reasonable profit to distributors in effecting such resales.

(c) Evidence as to proper reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances for different geographical localities wherein coal is distributed subject to the provisions of the Act and evidence as to other proper differentials in reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances due to varying factors.

(d) Evidence as to any other pertinent factors which should properly be considered in determining reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances.

(e) Evidence as to proper rules and regulations to be established as to require the maintenance and observance by "distributors", in the resale of coal, of the Prices and Marketing Rules and Regulations to be established by the Commission.

2. That the said hearing shall be conducted by the Commission or a division thereof

3. The Secretary of the Commission is forthwith directed to cause to be served a copy of this notice of and order for hearing by mailing a copy thereof to the Secretary of each of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards, to the Consumers' Counsel, to code members within the several districts, to all known distributors; and to publish a copy of this notice of and order for hearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 12th day of March, 1938.

[Docket No. 72-FD]

INVESTIGATION OF THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF TRANSACTIONS IN INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF KANSAS AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH TRANSACTIONS ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL

At a Regular Session of the National Bituminous Coal Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of March, 1938.

It appearing, That by Orders No. 2 and 86, the Commission upon its own motion entered into and conducted an investigation under the provisions of Section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, for the purpose of determining the nature and extent of transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of Kansas and the effect of such transactions upon interstate commerce in such coal; and

It further appearing, That reasonable public notice of a hearing was provided and that at said hearing interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard; that the presiding Examiner duly designated by the Commission having filed his report and recommendations and the Commission having given due consideration to said report and recommendations and to the record of the evidence in this proceeding; and, the Commission having on the 12th day of March, 1938, adopted the Examiner's report and recommendations as its own which said report is hereby referred to and made a part hereof;

Now, therefore, It is by order declared:

That substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce in the State of Kansas directly affect interstate commerce in such coal; and

That there will be an undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice as between localities in Kansas in such intrastate commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce in bituminous coal on the other hand, and an undue, unreasonable, or unjust discrimination against interstate commerce in such coal if such transactions in intrastate commerce or any substantial part thereof are not regulated and subjected to the provisions of Section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Therefore, it is further ordered:

1. That on and after the 12th day of April, 1938, all bituminous coal sold, delivered or offered for sale in transactions in intrastate commerce in such coal in all localities within the State of Kansas, shall be subject to the provisions of Section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, to the Bituminous Coal Code, as promulgated by the Commission and made effective on the 21st day of June, 1937, and to all relevant orders of the Commission in effect on the date of this order, as well as all further orders which may thereafter be issued by the Commission under Section 4 of said Act, so as to apply to such intrastate commerce in coal within the State of Kansas.

2. That any producer of bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the State of Kansas, who may believe that his or its particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal should be exempted from this order and/or from the provisions of Section 4 and 4-A of said Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file application at any time hereafter for exemption pursuant to the second paragraph of Section 4-A of said Act, and be entitled to a hearing and appropriate orders thereon.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall give notice to each known producer of bituminous coal within the State of Kansas who is not upon the date of this Order a member of the Bituminous Coal Code, by mailing, within five (5) days from this date, a copy of this Order, together with three (3) copies of the Form of Code Acceptance and rules prescribed by the Commission for filing acceptances, and a copy of the Bituminous Coal Code as promulgated under Date of June 21, 1937.

The Secretary shall cause a copy of this Order to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and shall also publish a copy thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in each county within the State of Kansas known to produce bituminous coal, publication thereof to be made three (3) times within fourteen (14) days from the date of this Order.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 12th day of March, 1938.

CHIPPEWA INDIAN RESERVATIONS, MINNESOTA

ORDER OF RESTORATION

Whereas under authority contained in the Act of Congress approved January 14, 1889 (25 Stat. L., 642), agreements were entered into with the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota, providing for the cession to the United States of all lands within the Bois Fort (Nett Lake), Fond du Lac, White Oak Point, Leech Lake, Cass Lake, Chippewa of the Mississippi, Winnibigoshish, and the White Earth Indian Reservations, all in the State of Minnesota, and such ceded lands of these reservations were opened to sale and entry under the homestead laws, the proceeds of such sale and entry to be placed to the credit of the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota, and

Whereas there is now remaining undisposed of within the said ceded areas, approximately 29,000 acres of land, which is of little or no value for its original purpose of entry and settlement, but which will be of value to the Indians if restored to tribal ownership, and where practicable, consolidated by exchanges with other land owners, and

Whereas the Tribal Executive Committee of the Minnesota Chippewa Tribe, the General Council of the Red Lake Band of Chippewa Indians, the Superintendents in charge of the Consolidated Chippewa and Red Lake Agencies and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs have recommended the restoration to tribal ownership of all undisposed-of lands included within the reservation cessions made under the said Act of January 14, 1889, supra, of lands within the reservations named above;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by section 3 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. L., 984), I hereby find that restoration to tribal ownership of all lands which are now, or may hereafter be, classified as undisposed-of opened lands of the reservations named herein, ceded by the Indians under the Act of January 14, 1889, supra, will be in the public interest, and the said lands are hereby restored to tribal ownership for the use and benefit of the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota, subject to any valid existing rights.

HAROLD L. ICKES,
Secretary of the Interior.

This bulletin revises and supplements the 1938 Range Conservation Program Bulletin (RCP-1938) and Supplements Nos. 1 and 2 thereto (RCP-1938-1 and RCP-1938-2) and to the extent of such revision and supplementation, but not otherwise, supersedes said bulletin and supplements.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, and in connection with the effectuation of the purposes of Section 7 (a) of said Act in 1938, payments and grants of aid will be made for participation in the 1938 Range Conservation Program in accordance with the provisions of this bulletin and such modifications thereof or other revisions as may hereafter be made.

The provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program, including the Range Conservation Program, are necessarily subject to such legislation affecting said program as the Congress of the United States may hereafter enact; the making of the payments and grants of aid herein provided are contingent upon such appropriation as the Congress may hereafter provide for such purposes; and the amounts of such payments and grants of aid will necessarily be within the limits finally determined by such appropriation and the extent of national participation in the program. Any increase or decrease in rates of payment made because of the extent of participation in the Range Conservation Program will not exceed 10 percent.

The provisions of the 1938 Range Conservation Program contained in this bulletin are not applicable to (1) Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and Alaska; (2) counties for which special range programs under said Act are approved for 1938 by the Secretary of Agriculture; and (3) public domain of the United States, including lands owned by the United States and administered under the Taylor Grazing Act or by the Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, and other lands in which the beneficial ownership is in the United States.

SECTION I. Rates of Range-Building Payments.—Within the limits of the range-building allowance and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, payment will be made for carrying out on range land in 1938 such of the following range-building practices as are recommended for the State by the State committee and approved by the Regional Director, and as are approved by the county committee for the ranching unit prior to their institution.

Practices and Conditions of Payment—Rate of Payment

A. Reseeding of range land.—

1. Natural reseeding by deferred grazing.—For withholding 25 percent of the range land in the ranching unit from grazing for the period from the start of forage growth to seed maturity, established by the State committee and approved by the Regional Director: Provided, (1) if grazing is deferred on less than 25 percent of the range land in the ranching unit, a proportionate payment will be made; (2) on ranching units on which cattle or horses are grazed the area to be kept free of grazing is fenced and the fence is maintained sufficiently to prevent the entry of livestock; (3) on ranching units used exclusively for grazing sheep either the area to be kept free of grazing is fenced and the fence is maintained sufficiently to prevent entry of livestock or the entry of livestock on the non-grazed acreage is prevented by herding; (4) the remaining range land in such ranching unit is not pastured to such an extent as will decrease the stand of grass or injure the forage, tree growth, or watershed; (5) such practice shall not be applicable to range land in the ranching unit which normally is not used for grazing during the period from the start of forage growth to seed maturity; (6) the ranch operator has submitted to the county committee in writing the designation of the non-grazing range area of the ranching unit previous to the carrying-out of such practice, and (7) the ranch operator complies with such other conditions or specifications as may be established by the county committee with the approval of the State committee, including the increase of the area to be withheld from grazing to as much as 40 percent of the range land, where the county committee determines such additional conditions or specifications are needed in the interest of range conservation: Sixty percent of that part of the range-building allowance which is computed under subsection A of Section II, provided such rate shall not exceed the equivalent of $1.25 per animal unit of grazing capacity.

2. Artificial reseeding.—For reseeding depleted range land with good seed of adapted varieties of range grasses, legumes, or forage shrubs: $0.20 per pound of seed sown, but not in excess of $2.00 per acre.

B. Erosion and runoff control.—

3. (a) Contour listing, furrowing, or subsoiling.—For listing, furrowing, or subsoiling range land on the contour; $0.50 per acre.

(b) Contour ridging.—For ridging range land on the contour: $0.10 per 100 linear feet.

4. Spreader dams and terraces.—For constructing spreader dams and spreader terraces alone or in combination with each other for the diversion of surface water to prevent soil washing of range land.

(a) Spreader dams: $0.15 per cubic yard of material moved.

(b) Spreader terraces: $0.40 per 100 linear feet.

C. Development of stock water on range land.—

5. Earthen tanks or reservoirs.—For constructing reservoirs or earthen tanks with spillways adequate to prevent dams from washing out, for the purpose of providing water for range livestock: $0.15 per cubic yard of fill or excavation.

6. Concrete or rubble masonry dams.—For constructing concrete or rubble masonry dams in rough or broken areas (where earthen dams or reservoirs are impracticable and where there is no possibility of using the masonry dam for irrigation), for the purpose of providing water for range livestock: $6.00 per cubic yard of concrete or rubble masonry.

7. Wells.—(a) For drilling or digging wells with casing not less than 4 inches in diameter, for the purpose of providing water for range livestock, provided a windmill or power pump is installed and the water is conveyed to a tank or storage reservoir. Payment will not be made for a well developed at ranching unit headquarters: $2.00 per linear foot.

(b) For drilling or digging wells with casing less than 4 inches but not less than 2 inches in diameter, for the purpose of providing water for range livestock, provided a windmill or power pump is installed and the water is conveyed to a tank or storage reservoir. An artesian well will qualify for payment provided adequate stock water is made available during the grazing season and the water is conveyed to a tank or trough. Payment will not be made for a well developed at ranching unit headquarters: $1.00 per linear foot.

8. Development of natural watering places.—For developing springs or seeps, protecting the source from trampling and conveying the water in a trough or in a pipe not less than one inch in diameter to a tank, for the purpose of providing water for range livestock: $0.40 per cubic foot for excavation in soil or gravel, and $0.70 per cubic foot for excavation in rock.

D. Planting and maintaining a stand of trees.—

9. Tree planting.—Planting of trees on range land, provided that the trees are planted in 1938 prior to November 1; that the number, kind, and age of trees planted and methods of planting and growing of such trees are in accordance with approved specifications; and that the acreage planted to trees is fenced and the fence is maintained sufficiently to prevent entry of livestock: $10.00 per acre.

10. Cultivating and maintaining a stand of trees.—Cultivating, protecting, and maintaining, by replanting if necessary, a full stand of at least 500 trees per acre of forest planting, or 200 trees per acre of windbreak or shelter-belt plantings planted between January 1, 1934 and January 1, 1938: $4.00 per acre.

E. Conservation of range lands through the elimination of destructive plants.—

11. Prickly pear and cactus.—(a) Light infestation: $0.50 per acre.

(b) Medium infestation: $0.75 per acre.

(c) Heavy infestation: $1.00 per acre.

12. Mesquite.—(a) Light infestation: $0.50 per acre.

(b) Medium infestation: $1.00 per acre.

(c) Heavy infestation: $2.00 per acre.

13. Cedar.—(a) Light infestation: $0.75 per acre.

(b) Medium infestation: $1.00 per acre.

(c) Heavy infestation: $1.50 per acre.

14. Lechuguilla.—(a) Heavy infestation: $0.50 per acre.

F. Fire guards.—

15. For the establishment of fire guards not less than 10 feet in width by plowing furrows or otherwise exposing the mineral soil. Payment will not be made if the fire guard is used in connection with controlled burning within the ranching unit: $0.05 per 100 linear feet.

SECTION II. Range-Building Allowance.—A. In Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, and California, the range-building allowance shall be 2 cents per acre of range land in the ranching unit plus $1.00 times the grazing capacity of the range land; and in Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, and North Dakota, the range-building allowance shall be 3 cents per acre of range land in the ranching unit plus 75 cents times the grazing capacity of the range land: Provided, however, That in either area the grazing capacity item shall not be calculated on more than one animal unit for each 10 acres of range land in the ranching unit, and the acreage item shall not be calculated on more than 60 acres for each animal unit of grazing capacity established for the ranching unit.

B. In addition, the range-building allowance shall include 35 cents times the number of acres of mountain meadow land in the ranching unit from which hay is normally harvested for feeding on the ranching unit to range livestock owned by the operator of the ranching unit. The mountain counties in which this additional allowance is made shall be those counties in the Western Region for which, upon the basis of the recommendations of the county and State committees, the Regional Director determines the reseeding and erosion control practices specified in Section I to be necessary and effective in promoting range conservation: Provided, however, That mountain meadow land for which this additional allowance is made shall not be considered in calculating the portion of the range-building allowance provided for in subsection A.

SECTION III. Conditions of payment.—A. The range-building payment with respect to any ranching unit shall not exceed the range-building allowance for such ranching unit. Payment will be made only if range-building practices are carried out according to specifications recommended by the State committee and approved by the Regional Director. Payments made for carrying out range-building practices shall not be subject to the provisions of Section V of the Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin, as amended February 19, 1938 (ACP-1938-3).

B. No payment will be made for practices carried out with labor, seed, trees, and materials furnished entirely by any State or Federal agency other than the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, or for practices with respect to which a portion of the labor, seed, trees, or other materials used in carrying out such practices is furnished by a State or Federal agency other than the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, if such portion represents one-half or more of the total cost of carrying out such practices. If a portion of the labor, seed, trees, or other materials used in carrying out any practice is furnished by a State or Federal agency other than the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and such portion represents less than one-half of the total cost of carrying out such practice, payment will be made for such practice at one-half of the rate specified in Section I.

SECTION IV. Changes in leasing arrangements and other devices.—A. No payment will be made to any person who has for 1938 made any change from the 1937 leasing arrangements of range land for the purpose of, or which would have the effect of, diverting to such person any payment to which any lessee would be entitled if the 1937 leasing arrangements of such range land were in effect for 1938. If the State committee finds that any person who files an application for a payment pursuant to the provisions of the 1938 Range Conservation Program has made any change from the 1937 leasing arrangements of such range land or has employed any other scheme or device whatsoever for the purpose of, or which would have the effect of, depriving any other person of any payment or share therein to which such other person otherwise would be entitled, the Secretary may withhold in whole or in part from the person participating in such a scheme or device, or require such person to refund in whole or in part, the amount of any payment which has been or otherwise would be made to such person for performance in connection with the 1938 Range Conservation Program.

B. If on any ranching unit in 1938 any change of the leasing arrangements which existed on the ranching unit in 1937 is made between the landlord and the tenants and such change would cause a greater proportion of the payment to be made to the landlord under the 1938 Range Conservation Program than would have been made to the landlord for performances on the ranching unit under the 1937 Range Conservation Program, payment to the landlord under the 1938 Range Conservation Program with respect to the ranching unit shall not be greater than the amount that would have been paid to the landlord if the arrangements which existed on the ranching unit in 1937 had been continued in 1938, if the county committee certifies that the change is not justified and disapproves such change.

C. If on any ranching unit the number of tenants in 1938 is less than the average number on the ranching unit during the years 1935 to 1937, inclusive, and such reduction would increase the payments that would otherwise be made to the landlord, such payments to the landlord shall not be greater than the amount that would otherwise be made if the county committee certifies that the reduction is not justified and disapproves such reduction.

SECTION V. Eligibility for payment.—A. Application for range-building payment may be made only by ranch operators. Range-building payments will be made to (1) a sole ranch operator, or (2) each ranch operator of a group of two or more ranch operators, provided they all signify in the application for the range-building payment a percentum of the total payment to be made to each ranch operator. In case there are two or more ranch operators, the application must be made by all of them, except that in cases where any ranch operator refuses to sign the application for payment the county committee shall determine the percentage share of each ranch operator and payment of his percentage share will be made to each ranch operator applying for payment in accordance with such determination.

B. Any person who has an interest in a farm on which cotton is planted in 1938 and who makes application for payment with respect to any ranching unit shall file with such application a statement verified by affidavit that the applicant has not knowingly planted or caused to be planted during 1938 cotton on land in any farm in which he has an interest in excess of the cotton acreage allotment established for the farm for 1938 under Section 344 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 in connection with cotton marketing quotas, and that cotton was not planted in excess of such allotment by his authority or with his consent. Any person who knowingly plants cotton on his farm in 1938 on acreage in excess of the cotton acreage allotment for the farm established in connection with cotton marketing quotas under Section 344 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 and regulations issued in connection therewith shall not be eligible for any payment under the provisions of the 1938 Range Conservation Program. A person shall be presumed to have knowingly planted cotton on his farm on acreage in excess of such farm cotton acreage allotment if notice of his allotment is mailed to him prior to the completion of the planting of cotton on the farm unless such person establishes the fact that the excess acreage planted to cotton was due to his lack of knowledge of the number of acres in the tract(s) planted to cotton. Such notice, if mailed to the operator of the farm, shall be deemed to be notice to all persons sharing in the production of cotton thereon in 1938.

SECTION VI. Materials furnished as grants of aid.—Wherever it is found practicable, trees, seeds, and other material may, upon request of the ranch operator(s), be furnished by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration as grants of aid in lieu of payments. Wherever such materials are furnished, the range-building allowance will be reduced by the amount of the payment which otherwise would be computed with respect to the practices in connection with which the materials so furnished are used. In making a request for materials pursuant to this section the ranch operator(s) to whom such materials are furnished shall agree that, in the event the amount of the payment which otherwise would be computed with respect to the practices in connection with which the materials so furnished are used exceeds the range-building allowance, the amount of such excess shall be repaid by him to the Secretary.

SECTION VII. Payment restricted to effectuation of the purposes of the program.—All or any part of any payment which otherwise would be made to any person under the 1938 Range Conservation Program may be withheld (1) if he has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the program, (2) if, by means of any corporation, partnership, estate, trust, or any other device, or in any manner whatsoever, he has offset, or has participated in offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance for which such payment is otherwise authorized, or (3) if, with respect to forest land or woodland owned or controlled by him, he adopts any practice which the Regional Director finds is contrary to sound conservation practices.

No payment will be made to any person if it is determined in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration that, with respect to any ranch which he owns or operates, the stand of grass has been decreased or the forage, tree growth or watershed has been injured by overgrazing in 1938.

SECTION VIII. Payments computed and made without regard to claims.—Any payment or share of payment shall be computed and made without regard to questions of title under State law, without deduction of claims for advances (except as provided in Section XI), and without regard to any claim or lien against any crop or livestock, or proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any other creditor.

SECTION IX. Increase in small payments.—The total payment computed for any person with respect to any ranching unit shall be increased as follows:

(1) Any payment amounting to 71 cents or less shall be increased to $1.00;

(2) Any payment amounting to more than 71 cents but less than $1.00 shall be increased by 40 percent;

(3) Any payment amounting to $1.00 or more shall be increased in accordance with the following schedule:

Amount of payment computed	Increase in payment	Amount of payment computed	Increase in payment
$1.00 to $1.99	$0.40	$32.00 to $32.99	10.40
$2.00 to $2.99	0.80	$33.00 to $33.99	10.60

SECTION X. Deductions for association expenses.—There shall be deducted pro rata from the payments with respect to any ranching unit all or such part as the Secretary may prescribe of the estimated administrative expenses incurred or to be incurred by the county agricultural conservation association in the county in which the ranching unit is located.

SECTION XI. Assignments.—Any person who may be entitled to any payment in connection with the 1938 Range Conservation Program may assign his interest in such payment as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1938. No such assignment will be recognized unless (1) the assignment is made in writing on a form prescribed by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and is acknowledged by the ranch operator before the county agricultural extension agent and filed with such agent; (2) the ranch operator files with the assignment an affidavit showing that the assignment is made to pay or secure an indebtedness incurred in connection with financing the making of a 1938 crop and not to pay or secure any pre-existing indebtedness; and (3) the person to whom such assignment is made certifies that the payment is being assigned without discount for such purpose. For the purposes of this section the making of a crop shall be deemed to include the carrying out of range-building practices.

Nothing in the provisions of this section shall be construed to give an assignee a right to any payment other than that to which the ranch operator is entitled, nor shall the Secretary or any disbursing agent be subject to any suit or liability if payment is made to the ranch operator without regard to the existence of any such assignment.

SECTION XII. Establishment of grazing capacities.—There shall be established a grazing capacity for each ranching unit for which an application for determination of grazing capacity is received on or before a date established by the Regional Director as affording reasonable opportunity for the filing of such applications. In determining grazing capacity, consideration shall be given to the following: (a) composition, palatability, and density of forage growth; (b) climatic fluctuations; (c) distribution and character of watering facilities; (d) topographic and cultural features; (e) presence or absence of rodents and poisonous plant infestations; and (f) number and classes of livestock previously carried. The average of the individual grazing capacities established for all ranching units in a county shall not exceed the county average grazing capacity limit established by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration on the basis of available statistics.

SECTION XIII. Determination of county in which a ranching unit is located.—A ranching unit shall be regarded as located in the county in which its principal dwelling is situated, or if there is no dwelling thereon it shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of the ranching unit is located.

SECTION XIV. Appeals.—Any person who considers himself aggrieved by any recommendation or determination of the county committee with respect to any ranching unit in which he has an interest may, within 15 days after notice thereof is forwarded to or available to him request the county committee in writing to reconsider its recommendation or determination with respect to any of the following matters: (a) eligibility to file an application for payment, (b) grazing capacity established for the range land in such ranching unit, or (c) any other matter affecting the right to or the amount of his payment with respect to the ranching unit. The county committee shall notify such person of its decision in writing within 15 days after receipt of such written request for reconsideration. If such person is dissatisfied with the decision of the county committee he may, within 15 days after such decision is forwarded to or made available to him, appeal in writing to the State committee. The State committee shall notify such person of its decision in writing within 30 days after the receipt of the appeal. If such person is dissatisfied with the decision of the State committee he may, within 15 days after such decision is forwarded to or made available to him, request the regional director to review the decision of the State committee.

SECTION XV. State and regional bulletins, instructions and forms.—The Agricultural Adjustment Administration shall prepare and issue such State and regional bulletins, instructions, and forms as may be required in administering the 1938 Range Conservation Program.

SECTION XVI. Definitions.—For the purposes of the 1938 Range Conservation Program,

Secretary means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

North Central Region means the area included in the States of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, South Dakota, and Wisconsin.

Southern Region means the area included in the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma, South Carolina, and Texas.

Western Region means the area included in the States of Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming.

Regional director means the director of the division of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in charge of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program and the 1938 Range Conservation Program in the Region.

State committee means the group of persons designated for any State to assist in the administration of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program and the 1938 Range Conservation Program in such State.

County committee means the group of persons elected for any county to assist in the administration of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program and the 1938 Range Conservation Program in such county.

Person means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate or trust, and wherever applicable a State, a political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

Range-building payment means a payment for the carrying out of one or more approved range-building practices.

Range-building allowance means the largest amount for any ranching unit which may be earned as a range-building payment on such ranching unit.

Ranch operator means a person who as owner, cash tenant, or share tenant operates, or a person who acts in similar capacity in the operation of, a ranching unit in 1938.

Range land means any land in which a ranch operator has such a legal estate or interest as to give him control thereof, which produces forage grazed by range livestock, without cultivation or general irrigation. Range land shall not include public domain of the United States, including lands owned by the United States and administered under the Taylor Grazing Act or by the Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, and other lands in which the beneficial ownership is in the United States.

Ranching unit means all range land which is used in 1938 by the ranch operator as a single unit in producing range livestock, with machinery, workstock, and labor substantially separate from that of any other range land. In order to facilitate the administration of the program the Regional Director may prescribe that for the purposes of this program tracts shall be deemed ranching units only if they contain more than the minimum acreage of range land fixed by him.

Animal unit means one cow, one horse, five sheep, or five goats, or the equivalent thereof.

Grazing capacity of range land means the number of animal units which such land will sustain, on a 12-month basis, over a period of years without decreasing the stand of grass or other grazing vegetation, and without injury to the forage, tree growth, or watershed.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of March, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Wednesday, March 16, 1938 No. 52

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

CASH RELIEF FOR CERTAIN EMPLOYEES OF THE PANAMA CANAL

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the act of July 8, 1937, ch. 443, 50 Stat. 478 (U. S. Code, title 48, sec. 1372), I hereby prescribe the following regulations for the payment of cash relief to persons coming within the provisions of that act:

SEC. 1. Application for relief.—Applicants for cash relief under the provisions of the said act of July 8, 1937, shall make application therefor in such form as may be prescribed by the Governor of The Panama Canal. Applications shall be supported by such proof, including medical certificates, as may be considered necessary and adequate to enable the Governor to determine the eligibility of the applicant to receive cash relief, his length of service, and his economic status. If the applicant is mentally incompetent the application for relief may be submitted by his guardian or, with the consent or authority of the Governor, by the nearest relative of the applicant, or other person familiar with the status of the applicant.

SEC. 2. Determination of length of service.—The length of service of the applicant, including continuous and intermittent service, shall be determined by the Governor of The Panama Canal in accordance with the official records of employment or by such other proof as the Governor may require.

SEC. 3. Amount of relief.—The monthly cash relief which shall be allowed to an applicant who is found to be eligible for such relief under the said act, shall be an amount, not in excess of $25, equal to $1 multiplied by the number of years of service of applicant in the employ of The Panama Canal and the Panama Railroad Company as determined by the Governor of The Panama Canal: Provided, that in the application of this section, only the whole number of years of service, excluding the fraction of a year, if any, shall be used in calculating the monthly cash relief: And provided further, that the Governor, in his discretion, may allow a less amount of cash relief per month to an applicant. The Governor may from time to time reduce or increase, within the limits prescribed by the said act, the amount of relief granted to a beneficiary, if the economic status of the beneficiary in the opinion of the Governor justifies or warrants such an adjustment of the amount of cash relief, consideration being given to such factors as the earnings or income of the beneficiary, if any, the number of persons dependent upon him for support, and the ability of his family to assist in providing for him.

SEC. 4. Payment.—Cash relief shall commence at such date after the separation of the employee from The Panama Canal service as shall be determined by the Governor, and shall be payable monthly, or at such more frequent intervals as may be prescribed by the Governor: Provided, that the amount unpaid on the death of the beneficiary may be paid only to the person who shall have been designated by the beneficiary with the approval of the Governor to receive such amount. Payments shall be made by the Paymaster, The Panama Canal.

SEC. 5. Administrative regulations authorized.—The Governor is hereby authorized to prescribe such additional regulations as may be necessary for the proper administration of the provisions of this order.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

ESTABLISHMENT OF A SUPPLY FUND FOR THE PROCUREMENT, DISTRIBUTION, AND USE OF MATERIALS, SUPPLIES, AND EQUIPMENT FOR PROJECTS OF THE WORKS PROGRESS ADMINISTRATION UNDER THE EMERGENCY RELIEF APPROPRIATION ACT OF 1937

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1937, approved June 29, 1937 (50 Stat. 352), it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. There is hereby established a revolving fund, not to exceed in the aggregate $25,000,000, of such amounts as may be transferred thereto from time to time by the Administrator of the Works Progress Administration from funds allocated to that Administration for the prosecution of non-Federal projects under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1937. This fund is to be known as the "Emergency Relief, Works Progress Administration, Supply Fund, 1938", hereinafter referred to as "the fund".

2. The Administrator of the Works Progress Administration is authorized to promulgate, with the approval of the President, the administrative regulations necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Executive Order. Such regulations and the operations of the fund shall, however, be subject to and not inconsistent with the provisions of Section II (A) of Executive Order No. 7034, dated May 6, 1935 (as continued by Executive Order No. 7396, dated June 22, 1936, and Executive Order No. 7649, dated June 29, 1937) and regulations issued pursuant thereto, and of section 1 of Executive Order No. 6166, dated June 10, 1933.

3. The fund shall be available for the purchase, repair, distribution, and rental of materials, supplies, equipment, and tools, including the maintenance and operation of shops, warehouses, tool depots, and other depositories for the handling of such properties for servicing non-Federal or Federal projects of the Works Progress Administration including the National Youth Administration.

4. Reimbursement shall be made to the fund under regulations issued in accordance with paragraph 2 on statements prepared by the State Works Progress Administrations of the value of materials, supplies, equipment, and tools issued for use on any approved non-Federal or Federal projects of the Works Progress Administration or the National Youth Administration. Such statements shall also include a monthly proration of operating costs against projects chargeable therewith. Such reimbursements shall be made at least monthly through checks drawn by the State Disbursing Officers of the United States Treasury Department and shall be immediately credited to the fund, for use in accordance with the purposes thereof.

5. Under regulations prescribed by the Administrator, the fund shall be charged with the value of all materials, supplies, equipment, and tools which are not required for the completion of any project. The amounts so charged shall be paid from the fund by the State Disbursing Officers of the United States Treasury Department upon statements prepared by the State Works Progress Administrations, the amounts so paid to be immediately deposited to the credit of either Appropriation Symbol 465800, "Emergency Relief, Works Progress Administration, (Non-Federal Projects, Approved Prior to June 30, 1937) 1938", or to the official project and appropriation from which the transfer is made, as determined in accordance with administrative regulations. Such reimbursements shall remain available to the Works Progress Administration.

6. A report shall be submitted to the President by the Administrator of the Works Progress Administration showing the amounts of the inventory remaining charged to the fund as of June 30, 1938, with respect to each State, classified according to major categories of materials, supplies, tools, and equipment.

7. Upon liquidation of the "Emergency Relief, Works Progress Administration, Supply Fund, 1938", any balance remaining shall be returned to the appropriation contained in the said Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1937, approved June 29, 1937.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

TRANSFERRING CERTAIN HOUSING OR SLUM-CLEARANCE PROJECTS TO THE PUERTO RICO RECONSTRUCTION ADMINISTRATION

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by Title II of the National Industrial Recovery Act, approved June 16, 1933 (48 Stat. 200), and the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, approved April 8, 1935 (49 Stat. 115), and in order to effectuate the purposes of those Acts, it is ordered as follows:

1. Executive Order No. 7732 of October 27, 1937, transferring certain Federal housing or slum-clearance projects from the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works to the United States Housing Authority, is hereby revoked in so far as it pertains to or affects the following-described housing or slum-clearance projects in Puerto Rico:

(a) Housing Division Project No. H-3600-SJ-A, Official Project No. 52-8384, constructed and being carried out in San Juan, Puerto Rico, pursuant to Presidential Letter No. 880 of October 28, 1935.

(b) Housing Division Project No. H-3600-C-A, Official Project No. 52-5353, constructed and being carried out in Caguas, Puerto Rico, pursuant to Presidential Letter No. 1579 of May 2, 1936.

2. All right, title, and interest held on October 31, 1937, by the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works in the two above-described projects are hereby transferred to the Puerto Rico Reconstruction Administration, together with the following:

(a) All assets, contracts, records, and other property held by the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works on October 31, 1937, in connection with the above-described projects: Provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as impairing or affecting the obligation of the United States under any contracts hereby transferred.

(b) All funds allocated to the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works which were available on October 31, 1937, for the construction and completion of the above-mentioned projects and are not yet expended.

(c) All employees who are actually serving in Puerto Rico on the effective date of this order and who shall be certified within one month from this date by the Federal Emergency Administrator of Public Works as having been employed in the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works in Puerto Rico on October 31, 1937, in connection with the construction or administration of the above-described projects.

3. The Puerto Rico Reconstruction Administration, through the Administrator thereof, shall supervise, control, and administer the above-described projects and the funds, property, and employees hereby transferred, in accordance with the said Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935 and the act of February 11, 1936, entitled "An Act to provide that funds allocated to Puerto Rico under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935 may be expended for permanent rehabilitation, and for other purposes" (49 Stat. 1135).

WAIVER OF SURVEY REQUIREMENTS AS TO DISTILLERIES

To District Supervisors and others concerned:

Pursuant to the authority conferred by Sections 302, 303, and 304, Title III, Liquor Tax Administration Act (U. S. C., 1934 ed., Supp. II, title 26, secs. 1168, 1165, and 1171), the following regulations are prescribed:

SURVEY REQUIREMENTS WAIVED

1. The survey requirements prescribed by Section 3264, R. S. (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 26, sec. 1168), as to registered distilleries, are hereby waived.

2. Distillers are hereby relieved from the following provisions of law relating to the survey requirements:

(a) From so much of Section 3259, R. S. (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 26, sec. 1163), as requires a distiller to state in his notice the number of hours in which the distiller will ferment each tub of mash or beer, and from the necessity of filing a notice of the change in the time of fermenting the mash or beer.

(b) From so much of Section 3280, R. S. (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 26, sec. 1183), as requires the distiller to comply with the provisions of law relating to the survey of distilleries, as a condition precedent to carrying on the business of distilling.

(c) From the provisions of Section 3285, R. S. (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 26, sec. 1191).

(d) From so much of the provisions of Section 3309, R. S. (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 26, sec. 1197), as make a distiller liable to an assessment for a deficiency in producing less than 80 per centum of the producing capacity of the distillery as estimated according to law; and as make him liable to an assessment for the tax upon the spirits that should have been produced from the materials found to have been used in excess of the capacity of the distillery for any month as estimated according to law.

(e) From so much of the provisions of Section 3310, R. S. (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 26, sec. 1200), as prescribe the fermenting periods.

(f) From so much of Section 3311, R. S. (U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 26, sec. 1202), as requires the placing of close fitting covers upon fermenting tubs, for the purpose of reducing the producing capacity of the distillery.

3. The exemptions from the above-mentioned provisions of law will be subject to such further changes as may be prescribed by regulations.

DISTILLER'S BOND

4. Distiller's Bond, Form 30, shall be in a penal sum of not less than the amount of tax, at the rate prescribed by law, on the spirits that can be distilled in the distillery during a period of 15 days of 24 hours each, as shown by the Distiller's Notice, Form 27A, which shall be verified by the District Supervisor; but in no case shall the penal sum of the bond be less than $5,000, nor greater than $100,000.

DISTILLING UNIT, EBULLIOMETER, AND OTHER LABORATORY APPARATUS

5. The distiller shall provide at his own expense, for the use of Government officers assigned to the distillery, a Kjeldahl or other distilling unit of sufficient capacity to distill samples of beer and slop and a Juerst, Leftco or other approved ebulliometer; also, such other laboratory apparatus and equipment necessary for determining the alcoholic content of the beer and slop. The distilling unit shall be installed in a suitable location approved by the District Supervisor. Where the distiller maintains a laboratory which, in the opinion of the District Supervisor, is properly equipped for making such tests, the distiller may make such facilities available to Government officers in lieu of providing additional apparatus and equipment.

GAUGING OF UNFINISHED SPIRITS

6. At distilleries where spirits, in the course of distillation, are run from the beer still into tanks in the distilling building for temporary deposit preparatory to completing the distillation thereof, storekeeper-gaugers shall promptly gauge the unfinished spirits in such tanks and make proper entry in the prescribed records. Each such tank must be mounted on scales or equipped with a glass gauge, or other suitable gauging device, whereby the contents of the tank may be accurately determined. Unfinished spirits may not be stored in such tanks, but may only be deposited therein temporarily in the course of distillation.

CALIBRATION OF FERMENTERS

7. Distillers shall accurately calibrate each fermenter and permanently mark thereon the total capacity in gallons. The distiller will furnish the Governmental officer in charge a table showing the capacity of each fermenter, if not uniform in dimensions from top to bottom, for each inch of depth. If the fermenters are of uniform dimensions from top to bottom, a table will be furnished for each fermenter showing the gallons per inch of depth. When deemed necessary, the accuracy of the calibration of tanks will be verified by Government officers.

DISTILLER'S NOTICE OF CHANGE IN MATERIALS

8. The distiller may elect to mash molasses, grain, or other fermentable material, in any proportion or strength that he may desire, provided he shall give written notice to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the distillery of the quantity of each kind of material which he proposes to mash and the strength of the beer. When desiring to change the quantity or kind of materials or the strength of the beer, he shall, before making such change, give written notice to the storekeeper-gauger in charge of the distillery.

STOREKEEPER-GAUGER'S RECORD AND REPORT

9. Storekeeper-gaugers shall keep a record and render a report on Form 1592, "U. S. Storekeeper-Gauger's Report of Operations at Distillery No. ------", in the form and manner prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

DISTILLER'S RECORD AND REPORT

10. Distillers shall keep a record and render a report on Form 1598, "Distiller's Report of Operations at Distillery No. ------", in the form and manner prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

USE OF REPORTS AND RECORDS DISCONTINUED

11. The use of the following reports and records is hereby discontinued:

Form 12: Distiller's Purchase Book.
Form 13: Distillation Book.
Form 14: Distiller's Monthly Account.
Form 16: Record of Storekeeper-Gauger at Rum Distillery.
Form 17: Record of Storekeeper-Gauger at Registered Distillery.
Form 17½: Supplement to No. 17.
Form 25: Distiller's Yeasting Book.
Form 45: Record of Registered Distilleries.
Form 88: Storekeeper-Gauger's Monthly Abstract.
Form 123: Report of Survey of Distillery.
Form 126: Distiller's Notice of Change in Capacity.

REGULATIONS MODIFIED

12. Regulations No. 7, concerning the tax on distilled spirits, July 10, 1914, as amended; Regulations 8, concerning the manufacture of whiskey, December 1929, as amended; and all Treasury Decisions which are inconsistent herewith, are hereby modified accordingly.

13. These regulations shall not apply to fruit brandy distillers or distilleries.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF REGULATIONS

14. The provisions of these regulations shall be effective on and after July 1, 1938, provided, however, that distillers shall install the testing equipment and apparatus prescribed by Paragraph 5 hereof on or before May 1, 1938, in order that Government officers may be properly trained in the use thereof prior to the effective date of these regulations.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 12 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and Rules 12E-1 to 12E-5, both inclusive, promulgated thereunder, having been duly filed with this Commission by Avery Brundage, Clayton J. Howel, George F. Manzelman, and John A. Dawson, acting as Protective Committee for the holders of 6% 20-Year First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds of Utilities Elkhorn Coal Company, requesting permission to solicit deposits of 6% 20-Year First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds of Utilities Elkhorn Coal Company and to represent such security holders in connection with the negotiation, formulation, or development of a reorganization plan for Utilities Elkhorn Coal Company;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on April 1, 1938, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. GOLDEN GATE INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION

ENTRY OF ARTICLES FOR EXHIBITION AT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, IN THE YEAR 1939

MARCH 12, 1938.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Attention is invited to the provisions of Public Resolution No. 29 of the Seventy-fifth Congress, approved May 18, 1937, which read as follows:

That all articles which shall be imported from foreign countries for the purpose of exhibition at the Golden Gate International Exposition to be held at San Francisco, California, in the year 1939, by the San Francisco Bay Exposition, or for use in constructing, installing, or maintaining foreign building, or exhibits at the said exposition, upon which articles there shall be a tariff or customs duty shall be admitted without payment of such tariff, customs duty, fees, or charges under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe; but it shall be lawful at any time during or within three months after the close of the said exposition to sell within the area of the exposition any articles provided for herein, subject to such regulations for the security of the revenue and for the collection of import duties as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: Provided, That all such articles, when withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, shall be subject to the duties, if any, imposed upon such articles by the revenue laws in force at the date of their withdrawal; and on such articles which shall have suffered diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure the duties, if payable, shall be assessed according to the appraised value at the time of withdrawal from entry hereunder for consumption or entry under the general tariff law: Provided further, That imported articles provided for herein shall not be subject to any marking requirements of the general tariff laws, except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall not be released from customs custody until properly marked, but no additional duty shall be assessed because such articles were not sufficiently marked when imported into the United States: Provided further, That at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, whereupon any duties on such article shall be remitted: Provided further, That articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any tariff law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond and imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be accorded the privilege of transfer to and entry for exhibition at the said exposition under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: And provided further, That the San Francisco Bay Exposition shall be deemed, for customs purposes only, to be the sole consignee of all merchandise imported under the provisions of this Act, and that the actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision, custody of, and accounting for articles imported under the provisions of this Act, shall be reimbursed by the San Francisco Bay Exposition to the Government of the United States under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and that receipts from such reimbursements shall be deposited as refunds to the appropriation from which paid, in the manner provided for in section 524 of the Tariff Act of 1930.

(1) All packages containing imported merchandise to be entered under the provisions of the public resolution shall be plainly marked "Golden Gate International Exposition," and shall bear separate serial numbers.

(2) All importations of articles of a class requiring a consular invoice, intended for exhibition under the provisions of the public resolution and valued at more than $100, must be covered by consular invoices certified as provided in article 276 of the Customs Regulations of 1937. Such invoices shall contain the information prescribed under section 481 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1481) and shall show that the articles covered thereby are destined to the port of San Francisco, California, and are intended for exhibition or use at the Golden Gate International Exposition.

(3) The San Francisco Bay Exposition shall give to the collector of customs at San Francisco, California, such security for compliance with the public resolution and these regulations as may be approved by the Commisioner of Customs.

(4) The collector of customs at San Francisco, California, shall detail an officer to act as his representative at the Golden Gate International Exposition and shall station inside the exhibition buildings as many additional customs officers and employees as may be necessary properly to protect the revenue.

(5) All actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release or custody of imported articles, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision and custody of, and accounting for, articles imported for exhibition at the Golden Gate International Exposition or transferred thereto for exhibition, shall be reimbursed by the San Francisco Bay Exposition to the Government, payment to be made monthly to the collector of customs, San Francisco, California, for deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States as a refund to the appropriation "Collecting the Revenue from Customs."

(6) Articles to be entered under these regulations which arrive at ports other than San Francisco shall be entered for immediate transportation without appraisement to the latter port in the manner provided by the general customs regulations.

(7) Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any tariff law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the Golden Gate International Exposition in the manner prescribed in article 453 (c) of the Customs Regulations of 1937, except that in each case an entry under paragraph (9) of these regulations shall be filed, which shall supersede any previous entry, and no new bond other than that specified in paragraph (3) shall be required. Imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the Golden Gate International Exposition in the manner prescribed in article 323 of the Customs Regulations of 1937.

(8) The entry of plant material subject to restriction under the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (U. S. C., title 7, secs. 151 to 165, inclusive, and sec. 167), shall not be permitted except under permits issued therefor by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Department of Agriculture, and in accordance with the plant quarantine regulations.

(9) Upon the arrival at the port of San Francisco of articles to be entered under these regulations the same should be entered on a special form of entry to read substantially as follows:

Entry for Exhibition

Entry No. ------

Entry at the port of San Francisco of articles consigned or transferred to the Golden Gate International Exposition under -------- I. T. No. ---- ex S. S. ---------- from ---------- on the ---------- day of ----------, 193--, for exhibition purposes under Public Resolution No. 29 of the Seventy-fifth Congress, approved May 18, 1937.

SAN FRANCISCO BAY EXPOSITION.
By ----------

(10) Upon such entry being made, the collector shall issue a special permit for the transfer of the articles covered thereby to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used, or, in the discretion of the collector, to the appraiser's stores for examination and subsequent transfer to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used. Upon the receipt of the articles at such buildings or at the appraiser's stores, the same shall be given a tentative appraisal prior to their exhibition or use. All imported exhibits so received in such buildings shall be kept segregated from domestic articles and imported duty-paid articles and shall not be removed from the exhibition building except in accordance with paragraph (12) of these regulations.

(11) If for any reason articles imported for entry under these regulations are not upon their arrival to be delivered immediately at an exhibition building, the importer should so indicate to the collector in writing, who will cause such articles to be placed in a bonded warehouse under a "general order permit" at the importer's risk and expense, and such articles may be entered at any time within one year from the date of importation for exhibition, as herein provided, or under the general tariff law, or for exportation. If not so entered within such period they will be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(12) Any articles entered under these regulations may be withdrawn for exportation, for abandonment to the Government, for destruction under customs supervision, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law, but not otherwise, at any time prior to the opening of the exposition, or at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition. Upon the withdrawal of such articles for consumption or for entry under the general tariff law, or at the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition in the case of articles not previously so withdrawn, they shall be appraised with due allowance made for diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure. Such appraisal shall be final in the absence of an appeal to reappraisement, as provided in section 501 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1501). In the case of such articles withdrawn for entry under the general tariff law under a warehouse bond or a bond conditioned upon exportation, the statutory period of the bond and any extension thereof shall be computed from the date of withdrawal from entry under the provisions of Public Resolution No. 29 of the Seventy-fifth Congress.

(13) At any time prior to the opening of the exposition, or at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition, any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, as provided in article 808 of the Customs Regulations of 1937.

(14) Any articles entered under these regulations which have not been withdrawn for consumption, entry under the general tariff law, or exportation, or which have not been abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, before the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition, shall be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(15) All entries under these regulations shall be made in the name of the San Francisco Bay Exposition, which shall be deemed for customs purposes the sole consignee of the merchandise entered under the Act and which shall be held responsible to the Government for all duties and charges due the United States on account of such entries; but, in the case of merchandise withdrawn from entry under these regulations, an entry under the general tariff law, in the name of any person duly authorized in writing by the San Francisco Bay Exposition, to make such entry, may be accepted by the collector, and the bond of the San Francisco Bay Exposition shall thereafter be considered as collateral security for any duties and charges accruing on the merchandise covered by any such entry, unless the entry is for permanent exhibition, in which case the liability of the San Francisco Bay Exposition, under its bond with respect to the articles covered by such entry, shall be terminated when the security required by the general tariff law has been given.

(16) The marking requirements of the Tariff Act of 1930 and the regulations promulgated thereunder will not apply to articles imported under these regulations except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall be released from customs custody only upon a full compliance with the marking requirements of the tariff act and the regulations promulgated thereunder. No additional duty shall be assessed because such articles were not properly marked when imported into the United States.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Attention is invited to the provisions of Public Resolution No. 61 of the Seventy-fifth Congress, approved August 16, 1937, which read as follows:

That all articles which shall be imported from foreign countries for the purpose of exhibition at the international exposition to be held at New York City, New York, beginning in April 1939 by the New York World's Fair 1939, Incorporated, or for use in constructing, installing, or maintaining foreign buildings or exhibits at the said exposition, upon which articles there shall be a tariff or customs duty shall be admitted without payment of such tariff, customs duty, fees, or charges under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe; but it shall be lawful at any time during and/or within three months after the close of the said exposition, to sell within the area of the exposition any articles provided for herein, subject to such regulations for the security of the revenue and for the collection of import duties as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: Provided, That all such articles, when withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, shall be subject to the duties, if any, imposed upon such articles by the revenue laws in force at the date of their withdrawal; and on such articles, which shall have suffered diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure, the duties, if payable, shall be assessed according to the appraised value at the time of withdrawal from entry hereunder for consumption or entry under the general tariff law: Provided further, That imported articles provided for herein shall not be subject to any marking requirements of the general tariff laws, except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall not be released from customs custody until properly marked, but no additional duty shall be assessed because such articles were not sufficiently marked when imported into the United States: Provided further, That at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition, any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, whereupon any duties on such article shall be remitted: Provided further, That articles, which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any tariff law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond, and imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be accorded the privilege of transfer to and entry for exhibition at the said exposition under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: And provided further, That the New York World's Fair 1939, Incorporated, shall be deemed, for customs purposes only to be the sole consignee of all merchandise imported under the provisions of this Act, and that the actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision, custody of, and accounting for articles imported under the provisions of this Act, shall be reimbursed by the New York World's Fair 1939, Incorporated, to the Government of the United States under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and that receipts from such reimbursements shall be deposited as refunds to the appropriation from which paid, in the manner provided for in section 524, Tariff Act of 1930.

(1) All packages containing imported merchandise to be entered under the provisions of the public resolution shall be plainly marked "New York World's Fair, 1939, Incorporated," and shall bear separate serial numbers.

(2) All importations of articles of a class requiring a consular invoice, intended for exhibition under the provisions of the public resolution and valued at more than $100, must be covered by consular invoices certified as provided in article 276 of the Customs Regulations of 1937. Such invoices shall contain the information prescribed under section 481 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec 1481) and shall show that the articles covered thereby are destined to the port of New York, N. Y., and are intended for exhibition or use at the New York World's Fair 1939.

(3) The New York World's Fair, 1939, Incorporated, shall give to the collector of customs at New York, N. Y., such security for compliance with the public resolution and these regulations as may be approved by the Commissioner of Customs.

(4) The collector of customs at New York, N. Y., shall detail an officer to act as his representative at the New York World's Fair 1939 and shall station inside the exhibition buildings as many additional customs officers and employees as may be necessary properly to protect the revenue.

(5) All actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody of imported articles, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision and custody of, and accounting for, articles imported for exhibition at the New York World's Fair 1939 or transferred thereto for exhibition, shall be reimbursed by the New York World's Fair 1939, Incorporated, to the Government, payment to be made monthly to the collector of customs, New York, N. Y., for deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States as a refund to the appropriation "Collecting the Revenue from Customs."

(6) Articles to be entered under these regulations which arrive at ports other than New York shall be entered for immediate transportation without appraisement to the latter port in the manner provided by the general customs regulations.

(7) Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any tariff law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the New York World's Fair 1939 in the manner prescribed in article 453 (c) of the Customs Regulations of 1937, except that in each case an entry under paragraph (9) of these regulations shall be filed, which shall supersede any previous entry, and no new bond other than that specified in paragraph (3) shall be required. Imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the New York World's Fair 1939 in the manner prescribed in article 323 of the Customs Regulations of 1937.

(8) The entry of plant material subject to restriction under the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (U. S. C., title 7, secs. 151 to 165, inclusive, and sec. 167), shall not be permitted except under permits issued therefor by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Department of Agriculture, and in accordance with the plant quarantine regulations.

(9) Upon the arrival at the port of New York of articles to be entered under these regulations the same should be entered on a special form of entry to read substantially as follows:

Entry for Exhibition

Entry No. ------

Entry at the port of New York of articles consigned or transferred to the New York World's Fair 1939 under ---------- I. T. No. ---- ex S. S. ---------- from ---------- on the ---------- day of ----------, 193--, for exhibition purposes under Public Resolution No. 61 of the Seventy-fifth Congress, approved August 16, 1937.

Mark	Number	Package and contents	Quantity	Invoice	Value

NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR 1939, INCORPORATED.
By ----------

(10) Upon such entry being made, the collector shall issue a special permit for the transfer of the articles covered thereby to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used, or, in the discretion of the collector, to the appraiser's stores for examination and subsequent transfer to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used. Upon the receipt of the articles at such buildings or at the appraiser's stores, the same shall be given a tentative appraisal prior to their exhibition or use. All imported exhibits so received in such buildings shall be kept segregated from domestic articles and imported duty-paid articles and shall not be removed from the exhibition building except in accordance with paragraph (12) of these regulations.

(11) If for any reason articles imported for entry under these regulations are not upon their arrival to be delivered immediately at an exhibition building, the importer should so indicate to the collector in writing, who will cause such articles to be placed in a bonded warehouse under a "general order permit" at the importer's risk and expense, and such articles may be entered at any time within one year from the date of importation for exhibition, as herein provided, or under the general tariff law, or for exportation. If not so entered within such period they will be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(12) Any articles entered under these regulations may be withdrawn for exportation, for abandonment to the Government, for destruction under customs supervision, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law, but not otherwise, at any time prior to the opening of the exposition, or at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition. Upon the withdrawal of such articles for consumption or for entry under the general tariff law, or at the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition in the case of articles not previously so withdrawn, they shall be appraised with due allowance made for diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure. Such appraisal shall be final in the absence of an appeal to reappraisement, as provided in section 501 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1501). In the case of such articles withdrawn for entry under the general tariff law under a warehouse bond or a bond conditioned upon exportation, the statutory period of the bond and any extension thereof shall be computed from the date of withdrawal from entry under the provisions of Public Resolution No. 61 of the Seventy-fifth Congress.

(13) At any time prior to the opening of the exposition, or at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition, any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, as provided in article 808 of the Customs Regulations of 1937.

(14) Any articles entered under these regulations which have not been withdrawn for consumption, entry under the general tariff law, or exportation, or which have not been abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, before the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition, shall be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(15) All entries under these regulations shall be made in the name of the New York World's Fair 1939, Incorporated, which shall be deemed for customs purposes the sole consignee of the merchandise entered under the Act and which shall be held responsible to the Government for all duties and charges due the United States on account of such entries; but, in the case of merchandise withdrawn from entry under these regulations, an entry under the general tariff law, in the name of any person duly authorized in writing by the New York World's Fair 1939, Incorporated, to make such entry, may be accepted by the collector, and the bond of the New York World's Fair 1939, Incorporated, shall thereafter be considered as collateral security for any duties and charges accruing on the merchandise covered by any such entry, unless the entry is for permanent exhibition, in which case the liability of the New York World's Fair 1939, Incorporated, under its bond with respect to the articles covered by such entry, shall be terminated when the security required by the general tariff law has been given.

(16) The marking requirements of the Tariff Act of 1930 and the regulations promulgated thereunder will not apply to articles imported under these regulations except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall be released from customs custody only upon a full compliance with the marking requirements of the tariff act and the regulations promulgated thereunder. No additional duty shall be assessed because such articles were not properly marked when imported into the United States.

[SEAL] STEPHEN B. GIBBONS,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD.

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANKS

AMENDMENT TO PROCEDURE FOR ELECTION OF DIRECTORS OF BANKS

Be it resolved, That pursuant to authority vested in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board by subsections (d) and (e) of Section 7 of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act (12 U. S. C. 1427 (e)), Exhibit F, annexed to the Rules and Regulations for the Federal Home Loan Banks, is hereby amended as follows:

1. Add the following sentence to Section 1: "Members shall be deemed to hold $1,000,000 of the capital stock of a Bank when they have subscribed to a total of $1,000,000 par value of such stock, made the statutory payments thereon, such subscriptions have been accepted and the subscribers have been notified."

2. Substitute "July 26th" for "August 1st" in the first and sixth lines of Section 5. Add "on the June 15th immediately preceding said July 26th" at the end of the first sentence in Section 5. Add after the word "class" in the eighth line of Section 5 the following: "and a list of those holding directorships at that time in the Bank of which it is a member, containing the name of each director, the date of expiration of the term of each director, the name and address of the member institution of which each Class director is an officer or director, the city and state of which each director-at-large is a resident, the name and address of the institution with which each director-at-large is affiliated or his present or former occupation, and indicating each Class directorship and each directorship-at-large." Add at the end of Section

5 the following sentence: "Each Bank will be furnished with copies of all of such information and ballots forwarded to its members."

3. Substitute "August 31st" for "September 5th" in the last line of Section 6.

4. Revise Section 7 to read as follows: "Each nominee will be informed of his nomination by telegram from the Board setting forth the requirements of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act for eligibility for the directorship or directorships for which he has been nominated and stating that it is necessary that the Board receive from him, within five days after said telegram has been forwarded, an acceptance of the nomination, an assertion of eligibility, and an expression of willingness to serve if elected, in order to have his name placed on an election ballot.

"In the event any person is nominated for two directorships, he will be so informed by the Board in the telegram referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph hereof and given an opportunity to state which of said directorships he prefers; or in the event any person is nominated for more than two directorships, he will be so informed by the Board by said telegram and given the opportunity to express his order of preference for the directorships for which he has been nominated. In each such case the nominee will be informed by said telegram that it is necessary that the Board receive from him, within five days after said telegram has been forwarded, an expression of preference in order to have his name placed on an election ballot. In each such case where the Board has received from a nominee an expression of preference within the time referred to and the other information as required herein, the Board will, in accordance with the preference expressed, designate the directorship for which the nominee shall be a candidate; however, if it appears to the Board that such action would impair, or result in such nominee having no chance of being elected on account of, the representation per State as set forth in Section 9 hereof, the Board will designate such person as a candidate only for the directorship which appears to the Board to be the most suitable.

"In the event a person is nominated for a Class directorship but there is no ballot showing the name and address of the member institution of which he is an officer or director, or in the event a person is nominated for a directorship-at-large and there is no ballot showing the city and State of which he is a resident and the name and address of the institution with which he is affiliated or his present or former occupation, the Board will in each such case endeavor to obtain such information from the nominee by telegram and will inform him that he must have such information in its possession within five days after said telegram has been forwarded, in order to have his name placed on an election ballot.

"On or before September 25th, the Board will mail to each member the first election ballots which will contain in alphabetical order the name of each nominee for each directorship to be filled in its Class and from the membership-at-large who has complied with the provisions of this Section. Each ballot for a Class directorship will also contain opposite the name of each nominee the name and address of the member institution of which he is an officer or director and each ballot for a directorship-at-large will also contain opposite the name of each nominee the city and State of which he is a resident and the name and address of the institution with which he is affiliated or his present or former occupation."

5. Insert the following as the last paragraph of Section 10: "Upon determining the results of the first election ballots, the Board will declare elected the candidates who should be declared elected in accordance with the provisions of these Rules and Regulations. The Board will thereupon spread said results upon its minutes and notify the directors elected of their election. The Board will also inform each Bank and each member thereof of the directors elected, and of any directorship or directorships for which final election ballots are to be cast."

6. Add at the end of Section 11 the following sentences: "There will be shown opposite the name of each candidate on each final election ballot the same information which will be shown on each first election ballot opposite the name of each nominee, as set forth in Section 7 hereof. Each Bank will be furnished with a copy of any final election ballots forwarded to its members."

7. Substitute the words "determining the results" for the words "the receipt" in the first line of Section 13. Revise the last sentence of Section 13 to read as follows: "The Board will thereupon spread said results upon its minutes and notify the directors elected of their election and each Bank and its members of the directors elected for that Bank."

8. Insert the following as the first sentence of Section 16: "No election envelopes received by the Secretary of the Board containing ballots will be opened until after the close of the polls."

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on March 15, 1938.

Assistant Secretary.

Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR INSURANCE OF ACCOUNTS

PROVIDING FOR DETERMINING THE AMOUNT OF EACH INSURED ACCOUNT AND DEFINING AN "ACCOUNT OF AN INSURED MEMBER"

Be it resolved, That pursuant to authority vested in the Board of Trustees of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation by subsection (a) of Section 402 of the National Housing Act (12 U. S. C. 1725 (a)):

1. The second sentence of subsection (b) of Section 18 of the Rules and Regulations for Insurance of Accounts is hereby amended to read as follows:

"The amount of each insured account will be determined from the security contract and from the books and records of the insured institution as of the last dividend or apportionment date, plus payments on, and less repurchases and withdrawals from, such insured account subsequent to such date, without regard to the actual value of the assets of the insured institution, without regard to provisions of the security contract which authorize the insured institution to retain or deduct, in the event of voluntary withdrawal or repurchase, any amount on account of premature withdrawal or repurchase, without regard to whether or not dividends are subject to recapture, and without regard to whether dividends are credited or apportioned to a series (being apportionable to each share account of the series)."

2. The first sentence of subsection (e) of Section 1 of the Rules and Regulations for Insurance of Accounts is hereby amended to read as follows:

"An 'account of an insured member' is the total amount credited (or when dividends are not credited, apportionable after having been apportioned to a series) to any member in withdrawable or repurchasable accounts, whether or not such accounts are subject to any pledge, whether or not such accounts are insured in full, and whether or not dividends are subject to recapture."

Be it further resolved, That, it being deemed this amendment is of an emergency character, said amendment shall be effective immediately.

Adopted by the Board of Trustees of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation on March 15, 1938.

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR INSURANCE OF ACCOUNTS

REQUIRING INSURED INSTITUTIONS TO SUBMIT MONTHLY REPORTS

Be it resolved, That pursuant to authority vested in the Board of Trustees of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation by subsection (a) of Section 402 of the National Housing Act (12 U. S. C. 1725 (a)), Section 14 of the Rules and Regulations for Insurance of Accounts is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"The officers of each insured institution shall make a monthly report to the board of directors on forms prescribed by the Corporation which shall be filed as follows: one copy shall be forwarded to the Federal home loan bank of the district in which the insured institution is located and two copies to the Governor of the Federal Home Loan Bank System, Washington, D. C."

Be it further resolved, That, it being deemed that this is a major amendment affecting matters of general principle or policy, and not of an emergency character, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (a) of Section 22 of the Rules and Regulations for Insurance of Accounts, such amendment shall be effective 30 days from a date to be fixed by the Secretary to the Board, which date shall be fixed within 10 days from the date of the adoption of this resolution.

(This Regulation will become effective April 15, 1938.)

Adopted by the Board of Trustees of Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, on March 15, 1938.

IN THE MATTER OF COLUMBIA GAS & ELECTRIC CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to Section 12 (c) and Rule 12C-2 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, for approval of certain dividend declarations and payments out of capital or unearned surplus, as follows:

(a) the charge to "Surplus at December 31, 1937", of the regular quarterly dividends in the amount of $1,421,767.50 on its Cumulative 6% Preferred Stock, Series A, $50,582.50 on its Cumulative Preferred Stock, 5% Series, and $154,825 on its 5% Cumulative Preference Stock, declared on January 6, 1938, and paid on February 15, 1938;

(b) the declaration, payment on or about May 15, 1938, and charge to "Surplus at December 31, 1937", of the regular quarterly dividends in the amount of $1,421,767.50 on its Cumulative 6% Preferred Stock, Series A, and $50,582.50 on its Cumulative Preferred Stock, 5% Series, and $154,825 on its 5% Cumulative Preference Stock;

(c) the declaration, payment on or about August 15, 1938, and charge to "Surplus at December 31, 1937", of the regular quarterly dividends in the amount of $1,421,767.50 on its Cumulative 6% Preferred Stock, Series A, and $50,582.50 on its Cumulative Preferred Stock, 5% Series, and $154,825 on its 5% Cumulative Preference Stock;

(d) the declaration, payment on or about November 15, 1938, and charge to "Surplus at December 31, 1937", of the regular quarterly dividends in the amount of $1,421,767.50 on its Cumulative 6% Preferred Stock, Series A, and $50,582.50 on its Cumulative Preferred Stock, 5% Series, and $154,825 on its 5% Cumulative Preference Stock;

(e) the declaration, payment on or about May 15, 1938, and charge to "Surplus at December 31, 1937", of a dividend on its Common Stock at the rate of not more than 25 cents a share and aggregating not more than $3,076,070.50; and

(f) the declaration, payment on or about November 15, 1938, and charge to "Surplus at December 31, 1937", of a dividend on its Common Stock at the rate of not more than the difference between 50 cents and the aggregate of all other dividends paid on the Common Stock in the calendar year 1938.

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on March 30, 1938, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Moore or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under Section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before March 25, 1938.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET FILED BY ANDREW J. BARRETT, RESPONDENT, ON FEBRUARY 11, 1938, COVERING PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE PAN AMERICAN-RICHARDSON-SAGARIN-ERWIN TRACT

ORDER FOR HEARING (UNDER RULE 340 (B)) AND ORDER DESIGNATING TRIAL EXAMINER

Andrew J. Barrett, having filed on February 11, 1938, with the Securities and Exchange Commission, an offering sheet for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from registration for the securities described therein under Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended; and

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe, and, therefore, alleging that said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in a material respect, or contains an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of said Regulation B, to wit:

(1) That the information given under Division II, Item 20 (b), concerning the percentage of water in fluid produced, is not correctly stated;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 340 (b) of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that an opportunity for hearing be given to the said respondent for the purpose of determining the material completeness or accuracy of the said offering sheet in the respects in which it is herein alleged to be deficient and/or misleading, and whether the effectiveness of the filing of the said offering sheet shall be suspended; and

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder, an officer of the Commission be, and hereby is, designated as Trial Examiner to preside at such hearing, to continue or adjourn the said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, consider any amendments to said offering sheet as may be filed prior to the conclusion of the hearing, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law; and

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony in this proceeding commence on the 30th day of March, 1938, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., and continue thereafter at such times and places as said Examiner may designate.

Upon completion of testimony in this matter the Examiner is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

CLOSED AREA UNDER THE MIGRATORY BIRD TREATY ACT ARKANSAS

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Secretary of Agriculture has submitted to me for approval the following amendatory regulation adopted by him on January 22, 1938, under authority of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755):

Amendment of Regulation Designating Certain Land and Navigable Water Within or Adjacent to the White River Migratory Waterfowl Refuge, Arkansas, as a Closed Area Under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act

The regulation entitled "Regulation Designating Certain Land and Navigable Water Within or Adjacent to White River Migratory Waterfowl Refuge, Arkansas, as Closed Area Under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act," adopted by the Acting Secretary of Agriculture and approved by the President by Proclamation No. 2206 of October 14, 1936, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, by virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755), and in extension of Regulation 4 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act Regulations, do hereby designate as a closed area, in or on which hunting, taking, capturing, or killing, or attempting to hunt, take, capture, or kill, migratory birds is not permitted, all that area of land and navigable water in Monroe, Arkansas, Phillips, and Desha Counties, Arkansas, lying within the meander lines of the White River between its point of entry into Sec. 13, T. 3 S., R. 2 W., and the point where it leaves Sec. 29, T. 8 S., R. 1 W., Fifth Principal Meridian, and all lands and waters in Arkansas County, Arkansas, lying within the meander lines of La Grue Bayou between its point of entry into Sec. 19, T. 6 S., R. 1 W., and the point of its confluence with the White River in Sec. 7, T. 7 S., R. 1 W., Fifth Principal Meridian, and being within or adjacent to White River Migratory Waterfowl Refuge as established by Executive Order No. 7173, dated September 4, 1935"; and

WHEREAS upon consideration it appears that the foregoing regulation will tend to effectuate the purposes of the aforesaid Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the aforesaid Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918, do hereby approve and proclaim the foregoing amendatory regulation of the Secretary of Agriculture.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 15" day of March in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.

[SEAL] FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:

CORDELL HULL
Secretary of State.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of March A. D. 1938.

Commissioners: Garland S. Ferguson, Jr., Chairman; Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres, Robert E. Freer.

[File No. 21–289]

IN THE MATTER OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES FOR THE WHOLESALE JEWELRY INDUSTRY

PROMULGATION OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES

Due proceedings having been had under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914 (38 Stat. 717),

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules of Group I which have been approved by the Commission in this proceeding be, and the same are, hereby promulgated for the Wholesale Jewelry Industry.

These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote fair competitive conditions in the interest of the industry and the public. They are not to be used, directly or indirectly, as part of or in connection with any combination or agreement to fix prices, or for the suppression of competition, or otherwise to unreasonably restrain trade.

Group I

The unfair trade practices which are embraced in Group I rules are considered to be unfair methods of competition or other illegal practices prohibited, within the purview of the Federal Government, by acts of Congress as construed in the decisions of the Federal Trade Commission or the courts; and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use of such unlawful practices in or directly affecting interstate commerce.

RULE 1. Failure to disclose that watch is rebuilt or secondhand.—(a) Selling, offering for sale, advertising, branding, labeling, or otherwise describing any watch as rebuilt when such watch has not in fact been rebuilt at a watch factory or other place properly equipped and used for this purpose, with the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

(b) In the sale or offering for sale of rebuilt or secondhand watches or watches containing rebuilt or secondhand movements, the failure to attach a tag to each such watch at the time of sale and delivery stating that the watch is rebuilt or secondhand is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 2. Misuse of word "perfect" in describing gem stones.—It is an unfair trade practice to use the word "perfect", or any other word, expression, or representation of similar import, as descriptive of any diamond, ruby, sapphire, emerald, or other gem stone, which discloses flaws, cracks, carbon spots, clouds, or other blemishes or imperfections of any sort when examined by a trained eye under a diamond eye loupe or other magnifier of not less than ten power, with the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public.

RULE 3. Misuse of terms "perfect cut," "perfectly cut," "eye perfect," "commercially perfect," "commercially white," etc.—It is an unfair trade practice to use the terms "perfect cut," "perfectly cut," "eye perfect," "commercially perfect," or "commercially white," or any other terms, expressions, or representations of similar import, in advertising, labeling, representing, or describing any diamond, when such terms are so used for the purpose or with the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public.

RULE 4. Misuse of words "pearl," "diamond," "ruby," "sapphire," "emerald," "topaz," etc.—It is an unfair trade practice to use the word "pearl," or the word "diamond," "ruby," "sapphire," "emerald," "topaz," or the name of any gem stone, in such manner as to mislead or deceive purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public into the erroneous belief that the product is a genuine pearl, diamond, ruby, sapphire, emerald, topaz, or other gem stone.[1]

RULE 5. Misuse of words "real," "genuine," "natural," etc.—It is an unfair trade practice to use the word "real," "genuine," or "natural," or any other word, expression, or representation of similar import, in any way as descriptive of any article or articles which are manufactured or produced synthetically or artificially, or which are artificially cultured or cultivated, or which are a simulation or imitation of or substitute for any precious or semi-precious stones, or pearls,

[1] Definitions (Rule 4):

Pearls.—Pearls are lustrous concretions, consisting essentially of alternating concentric layers of carbonate of lime and organic material found in the shells of certain mollusks, the result of an abnormal secretory process caused by an irritation of the mantle of the mollusk consequent on the natural intrusion into the shell of some foreign body.

Diamond.—A mineral consisting essentially of pure carbon crystallized in the isometric system, either colorless or colored. Its hardness is 10 and its specific gravity approximately 3.52.

Ruby.—The name "ruby" is given to the transparent to translucent variety of the mineral corundum. Its color is red with only limited traces of other tints or hues. The color is due to the presence of minute quantities of metallic oxides in the alumina. Its hardness is about 9 and its specific gravity varies from 3.94 to 4.10. The variety of ruby which exhibits a six-rayed star is known as the "Star Ruby."

Sapphire.—The name "sapphire" is given to the transparent to translucent blue, yellow, green, orange, purple, pink, or other colored or colorless varieties of the mineral corundum, except red, or red with only limited traces of other tints or hues. The color is due to the presence of minute quantities of metallic oxides in the alumina. Its hardness is about 9 and its specific gravity varies from 3.94 to 4.10. The translucent variety of corundum of any of these colors which exhibits a six-rayed star is known as the "Star Sapphire."

Emerald.—A deep green to light grass green transparent to translucent variety of the mineral beryl which crystallized in the hexagonal system. Its color is due to the presence of chromium. Its hardness ranges from 7½ to 8, and its specific gravity from 2.67 to 2.75. The still lighter green varieties of beryl are correctly known as either green beryl or aquamarine and should not be confused with emerald.

Topaz.—A mineral consisting essentially of aluminum fluosilicate crystallized in the orthorhombic system. Its characteristic color is yellow, varying from canary to deep orange, but it is also white, greenish, bluish, pink, rose, red, etc. Its hardness is 8 and its specific gravity varies from about 3.4 to 3.6. This mineral, known in the trade as precious topaz, should not be confused with a yellow to brown variety of quartz (silica) generally known as topaz quartz, citrine quarts, or citrine.

with the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public.

RULE 6. Misuse of terms "blue white," etc.—(a) It is an unfair trade practice to use the term "blue white," or any other term, expression, or representation of similar import, as descriptive of any diamond which shows any color or any trace of any color other than blue or bluish, with the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public.

(b) The practice of tinting a diamond a bluish white or any other color for the purpose or with the tendency and capacity or effect of thereby misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public as to the natural color, tint, or condition of such diamond, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 7. Misrepresentation as to character of business.—Representing, in connection with the sale or distribution of any article or product of the industry, that the seller or distributor is a manufacturer, wholesaler, or importer of said article or product of the industry when such is not true in fact, or when such concern is not engaged in the manufacturing, wholesaling, or importing business, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 8. Misrepresentation of products.—Making, or causing to be made or published, any false, misleading, or deceptive statement or representation, by way of advertisement or otherwise, concerning the grade, quality, quantity, use, size, material, content, origin, nature, substance, preparation, manufacture, or distribution of any industry products, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 9. Misbranding.—The false or deceptive marking or branding of products of the industry with respect to the grade, quality, quantity, use, size, material, content, origin, nature, substance, preparation, manufacture, or distribution of such products, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 10. Fictitious price tags.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, direct or indirectly, to use, or to supply to dealers, or to aid or assist in the use of, price tags which are knowingly false, fictitious, or exaggerated, or which such member has reason to believe are intended to be used or will be used by dealers or salesmen for the purpose of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public in respect to price, value, or in any other material respect.

RULE 11. Misuse of term "synthetic".—Applying the term "synthetic" to gem stones other than those produced by artificial means and having essentially the same physical, chemical, and optical properties as the genuine or natural gem stones which such synthetic products simulate, with the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 12. False invoicing.—Withholding from or inserting in invoices any statements or information by reason of which omission or insertion a false record is made, wholly or in part, of the transactions represented on the face of such invoices, with the purpose or effect of thereby misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 13. Robinson-Patman Act.—(a) Prohibited discriminatory rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, and other price differentials.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other price differential, where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other price differential effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality and where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce[1] and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce[1] or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either of them: Provided, however—

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States;

(2) That nothing herein contained shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

(3) That nothing herein contained shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce[1] from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade:

(4) That nothing herein contained shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting either (a) the market for the goods concerned, or (b) the marketability of the goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(b) Prohibited brokerage and commissions.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(d) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or by furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(e) Illegal price discrimination.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry or other person engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to discriminate in price in any other respect contrary to Section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended by the Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936 (Public No. 692, 74th Congress), or knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by such section as amended.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF KEYSTONE PIPE & SUPPLY COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 3 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by Keystone Pipe & Supply Company for exemption as a holding company from the provisions of said Act; it being stated in said application that Public Service Corporation of Texas is applicant's only subsidiary which is a public utility company;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on April 11, 1938, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before April 6, 1938.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

APPLICATION OF DUTIES PROCLAIMED IN CONNECTION WITH CERTAIN TRADE AGREEMENTS

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, March 15, 1938.

The Honorable HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: The Act to amend the Tariff Act of 1930, approved June 12, 1934 (48 Stat. 943), as extended by the Joint Resolution approved March 1, 1937 (Public Resolution No. 10, 75th Congress), provides in part that the duties proclaimed under its authority shall be applied to articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of all foreign countries, whether imported directly or indirectly. The Act further provides that the President may suspend the application of the proclaimed duties to articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country because of its discriminatory treatment of American commerce or because of other acts or policies which in his opinion tend to defeat the purposes set forth in the Act. Pursuant to these provisions of the Act, I hereby direct that the duties proclaimed on this date in connection with the trade agreement signed on March 7, 1938 with Czechoslovakia, and all other duties heretofore proclaimed in connection with trade agreements (other than the trade agreement with Cuba signed on August 24, 1934, and the trade agreement with Nicaragua signed on March 11, 1936) signed under the authority of the Act shall be applied from the effective date of such duties, or, as the case may be, shall continue to be applied on and from the date of this letter, only to articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of the countries hereinafter designated and to such articles, in the case of each country, respectively, for the period indicated in the numbered section below in which such country is designated.

1. In respect of the products of each country designated in this section, the proclaimed duties shall be applied from the effective date of such duties, or, as the case may be, shall continue to be applied on and from the date of this letter until thirty days from the date on which you are notified by me that the United States has ceased, or on a day certain will cease, to be bound by provisions of a treaty or agreement providing for most-favored-nation treatment in respect of customs duties.

QUARANTINE ANCHORAGE GROUND IN TAMPA BAY OFF QUARANTINE STATION AND RULES AND REGULATIONS RELATING THERETO

THE LAW

Section 7 of the River and Harbor Act approved March 4, 1915, provides as follows:

That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to define and establish anchorage grounds for vessels in all harbors, rivers, bays, and other navigable waters of the United States whenever it is manifest to the said Secretary that the maritime or commercial interests of the United States require such anchorage grounds for safe navigation and the establishment of such anchorage grounds shall have been recommended by the Chief of Engineers, and to adopt suitable rules and regulations in relation thereto; and such rules and regulations shall be enforced by the Revenue-Cutter Service[1] under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That at ports or places where there is no revenue cutter available such rules and regulations may be enforced by the Chief of Engineers under the direction of the Secretary of War. In the event of the violation of any such rules and regulations by the owner, master, or person in charge of any vessel, such owner, master, or person in charge of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $100; and the said vessel may be holden for the payment of such penalty, and may be seized and proceeded against summarily by libel for the recovery of the same in any United States district court for the district within which such vessel may be and in the name of the officer designated by the Secretary of War.

Complaints arising under these regulations should be addressed to the Engineer in Local Charge, United States Engineer Suboffice, Tampa, Florida.

In pursuance of the aforementioned law the area in Tampa Bay, Florida, indicated on the plat hereto attached and more particularly described below is hereby established as a quarantine anchorage for vessels, and the following rules and regulations relating thereto are hereby adopted:

An area to the eastward of a line bearing 341° (N. 19° W.) through a point X, said point being 830 yards on a line bearing 161° (S. 19° E.) from the front range of Tampa Bay Cut E; and to the northward of a line bearing 71° (N. 71° E.) through said point X; the above described area being a rectangle 2 nautical miles long, along the line bearing 71° from point X, and 2000' wide northerly from this line. (Point X is marked by a second class can buoy.)

THE RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Vessels arriving at quarantine and awaiting inspection will anchor in the above prescribed quarantine anchorage area. As soon as cleared by the quarantine officer, vessels must vacate this area.

2. No vessels, excepting those awaiting quarantine inspection or clearance, will anchor in the quarantine anchorage area except in cases of great emergency. All vessels so anchored will vacate this area as soon as the emergency ceases.

3. All vessels anchored in the quarantine anchorage area shall lie at anchor with as short a cable as conditions will permit and anchors must be placed well within the anchorage area, so that no portion of the hull or rigging shall at any time extend outside the boundaries of the anchorage area.

4. Nothing in these rules and regulations shall be construed as relieving the owner or persons in charge of any vessel from the penalties of the law for obstructing navigation, or for obstructing or interfering with range lights, or for not complying with the navigation laws in regard to lights, fog signals, or other aids to navigation, or for otherwise violating law.

Approved, March 4, 1938.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE OPENING OF THE DRAWBRIDGE OF THE LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD ACROSS THE APALACHICOLA RIVER AT RIVER JUNCTION, FLORIDA

Supplemental to rules and regulations to govern the operation of drawbridges crossing all navigable waterways of the United States discharging their waters into the Atlantic Ocean south of and including Chesapeake Bay and the Gulf of Mexico, excepting the Mississippi River and its tributaries.

THE LAW

The River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894, contains the following section:

SEC. 5. That it shall be the duty of all persons owning, operating, and tending the drawbridges now built, or which may hereafter be built across the navigable rivers and other waters of the United States, to open, or cause to be opened, the draws of such bridges under such rules and regulations as in the opinion of the Secretary of War the public interests require to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law. Every such person who shall willfully fail or refuse to open, or cause to be opened, the draw of any such bridge for the passage of a boat or boats, or who shall unreasonably delay the opening of said draw after reasonable signal shall have been given, as provided in such regulations, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars nor less than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) for not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court; Provided, That the proper action to enforce the provisions of this section may be commenced before any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States, and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States: Provided further, That whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, the public interests require it, he may make rules and regulations to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law, and any violation thereof shall be punished as hereinbefore provided.

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the foregoing law, the following special regulations are prescribed to govern the opening of the drawbridge of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad across the Apalachicola River at River Junction, Florida.

1. The owner or agency controlling the bridge will not be required to keep a tender in constant attendance at the aforementioned bridge except during periods of high water as prescribed herein.

2. Whenever a vessel unable to pass under the closed bridge desires to pass through the draw span, at least 24 hours' advance notice of the time the opening is required shall be given to the authorized representative of the owner or agency controlling the bridge.

3. Upon receipt of such notice, the authorized representative of the owner of or agency controlling the bridge, in compliance therewith, shall arrange for the prompt opening of the draw at the time specified in the notice for the passage of the vessel.

4. Operators shall be placed in attendance on the bridge when the stage of the river rises to 14 feet on the gage, and they shall be maintained thereon for the duration of all stages above 14 feet.

5. The owner of or agency controlling the bridge shall keep conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides of the bridge, in a manner that it can easily be read at any time, a copy of these regulations, together with a notice stating exactly how the representative specified in paragraph two may be reached.

6. The operating machinery of the draw shall be maintained in a serviceable condition and the draw opened and closed at least once each quarter to make certain that the machinery is in proper order for satisfactory operation.

7. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof.

Approved March 5, 1938.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE OPENING OF THE DRAWBRIDGE OF THE LOUISIANA HIGHWAY COMMISSION ACROSS SABINE RIVER ON THE HIGHWAY BETWEEN STARKS, LOUISIANA, AND DEWEYVILLE, TEXAS

Supplemental to rules and regulations to govern the operation of drawbridges crossing all navigable waterways of the United States discharging their waters into the Atlantic Ocean south of and including Chesapeake Bay and the Gulf of Mexico, excepting the Mississippi River and its tributaries.

THE LAW

The River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894, contains the following section:

[Here follows, in the original document, the text of Section 5 which appears in full in the document immediately preceding.]

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the foregoing law, the following special regulations are prescribed to govern the opening of the drawbridge of the Louisiana Highway Commission across Sabine River on the highway between Starks, Louisiana, and Deweyville, Texas.

1. The owner of or agency controlling the bridge will not be required to keep a draw tender in constant attendance at the above-named bridge.

2. Whenever a vessel unable to pass under the closed bridge desires to pass through the draw, at least 24 hours' advance notice of the time the opening is required shall be given to the authorized representative of the owner or agency controlling the bridge.

3. Upon receipt of such notice, the authorized representative of the owner of, or agency controlling the bridge, in compliance therewith, shall arrange for the prompt opening of the draw at the time specified in the notice for the passage of the vessel.

4. The owner of, or the agency controlling the bridge shall keep conspicuously posted on the bridge in such manner that it can be easily read at any time, a copy of these regulations together with a notice stating exactly how the representative specified in paragraph 1 of these regulations may be reached, giving his telephone number and location; and shall arrange for ready telephonic communication with him at any time, either from the bridge or from its immediate vicinity.

5. The operating machinery of the draw shall be maintained in a serviceable condition and the draw opened and closed at least once each quarter to make certain that the machinery is in proper order for satisfactory operation.

6. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof.

Approved, March 5, 1938.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 234]

AN ORDER REQUIRING CODE MEMBERS TO FILE WITH THE COMMISSION AND THE DISTRICT BOARDS "QUESTIONNAIRE AS TO ANALYSIS, METHODS OF MINING, PREPARATION OF COALS, AND OTHER INFORMATION"

Pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. Each code member shall, on or before the 15th day of April, 1938, execute in duplicate and file for each mine operated by him the form adopted by the Commission entitled "Questionnaire as to Analysis, Methods of Mining, Preparation of Coals, and Other Information", which forms will be furnished to each code member by the Commission.

Each code member shall file one copy of said form, duly executed, with the District Board for the district in which the mine reported upon is located and one copy with the Marketing Division of the National Bituminous Coal Commission at Washington, D. C.

2. Each code member shall report, as directed by the Questionnaire, all available information concerning the analytical qualities of each size of coal produced at each mine, as such coal is loaded into transportation facilities for shipment to market. Where such analytical information is not now available, the reporting code member shall so state.

3. Each Questionnaire shall be executed by the code member or his or its duly authorized officer or agent, and shall be verified by affidavit before a Notary Public or other officer authorized to administer oaths.

4. Subsequent to the filing of such Questionnaire, each code member shall give written notice to the proper District Board and to the Commission of any variation in the method of mining, preparation of coal or any other condition effecting a material change in the analysis or other qualities of any sizes of coal produced by such code member; such notice shall be given within ten (10) days after the occurence of such change and shall include a report as to the effect of such change on the analysis and other market qualities of the coals of such code member.

5. Each code member shall, on or before the 15th day of April, 1938, prepare in duplicate and file a report of all analyses used by it in the sale or offering for sale of each size of coal from each mine of the code member, such report to contain all analyses used on or after the 16th day of December, 1937, and prior to the date of this order. Such report shall be verified by affidavit, and shall include an exact copy of each analysis, together with a statement of the place and manner of sampling, the date of such analysis, and the person or firm by whom the coal was analyzed. One copy of such report shall be filed with the District Board and one copy with the Marketing Division of the National Bituminous Coal Commission at Washington, D. C.

6. Each code member shall from and after the date of this order file with the District Board and with the National Bituminous Coal Commission a copy of each analysis used in the selling or offering for sale of each grade and size of coal produced at each mine.

7. Each code member shall, on or before the 15th day of April, 1938, file with the National Bituminous Coal Commission, Washington, D. C., a report, duly verified by affidavit, of all analyses used in entering into contracts or orders for coal on a premium or penalty basis from and after the 1st day of January, 1937, to and including March 15, 1938. Such report shall include a statement of the analysis or analyses used in each case, the name and address of the purchaser of the coal, the size of coal and tonnage included in such order or contract, the price for such coal as agreed upon between the parties, and the precise terms and conditions of the premium or penalty agreement; such report shall also include detailed information as to each analysis made of coal delivered under such premium or penalty contract or order and the terms of each price adjustment made pursuant thereto. Like reports shall be made monthly on or before the 10th day of the succeeding month as to premium or penalty orders and contracts made or fulfilled subsequent to the date of this order.

8. The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers Boards, and to the code members within the several districts.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 16th day of March, 1938.

[F. R. Doc. 38-801; Filed, March 17, 1938; 4:08 p. m.]

[Order No. 235]

AN ORDER AUTHORIZING ALL DISTRICT BOARDS TO SECURE FROM CODE MEMBERS PERTINENT DATA CONCERNING PLANT PERFORMANCE AND PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS OF PERFORMANCE OF THE COALS OF CODE MEMBERS, AND AUTHORIZING THE ANALYSES OF COALS OF CODE MEMBERS, DIRECTING THE FILING OF ANALYSES MADE BY THE DISTRICT BOARDS WITH THE COMMISSION, AND PROVIDING THE REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL ANALYSES SO MADE

Pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs;

1. For the purpose of securing more complete and more accurate information as to the qualities and characteristics of coals of code members, the several District Boards are hereby authorized either to provide facilities for the sampling and analyzing of coals or to enter into contracts for the performance of such work either by Governmental agencies having proper facilities therefor or by competent and disinterested private individuals or companies generally engaged in the business of sampling and analyzing coals.

The reasonable expense of providing and operating such facilities or of having such work performed shall be paid from the general funds of the District Boards and such expenditures shall be subject to the general supervision and approval of the Commission.

2. In order that the District Boards may have available for the classification of coals of code members pertinent data concerning physical characteristics and characteristics of performance of the coals of code members, all District Boards are authorized to request from code members by questionnaire or by other means such information as will tend to establish these factors as to the code members' coals.

3. In any case where a code member has failed to file analyses of his coals as required by Order No. 234, or has filed the questionnaire required by such order, reporting that he has no analyses of his coals, the District Board in the district in which his mines are located may, when in its judgment necessary, cause an analysis or analyses to be made which will be truly representative of such code member's coals. Such analyses shall be in accordance with the requirements of Paragraph 8 hereof.

4. In any case where a code member has filed the analyses required by Order No. 234, but such analyses are not, in the judgment of the District Board, truly representative, such District Board may, in its discretion, cause a proper sample or samples of such coals to be taken and analyzed in accordance with the requirements of Paragraph 8 hereof and the code member in each such case shall permit representatives of the District Board to enter upon his property and take the necessary samples. In each such case, the District Board may, in its discretion, take samples and make analyses of every size of coal produced at a mine, or may designate a size or sizes to be analyzed which, in the judgment of the District Board, are truly representative of the coals of the code member or are sizes most highly competitive or likely to be involved in controversies as to classification or price.

5. The District Board shall promptly, after the completion of every analysis, file with the Commission a copy of the analysis, together with a statement as to the manner in which the sample was taken and analysis made.

6. The District Board may, with the written consent of any code member, request the production of analyses made by any consumer of the coals of the code member.

7. Each District Board shall, on or before the 15th day of April, 1938, and weekly thereafter, furnish to the National Bituminous Coal Commission at Washington, D. C., copies of all analyses obtained through independent sampling and analyses by the District Board, if such analyses have not previously been filed with the Commission by the District Board.

8. Unless otherwise directed, the analysis to be made in every case shall be proximate analysis and shall show the moisture, ash, volatile matter, fixed carbon and sulphur content of the coal, and ash softening temperature, together with the heating value in British thermal units on an "as received" basis.

All samples of coal taken for analysis purposes shall be tipple samples taken after final preparation of coal for shipment to market, in accordance with the standard methods developed by the United States Bureau of Mines in Technical Paper No. 133 and approved by the American Society for Testing Materials.

9. This order is not intended to, nor does it restrict or impair the authority of the District Board to propose classifications and prices or of the Commission to establish classifications and prices of any coal of any code member made upon the basis of such analytical information as is available to the District Board and to the Commission without having first obtained independent or other analyses of the coals as herein authorized to be made.

10. The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, to the Secretaries of all District Boards, and to all code members within their respective districts.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 17th day of March, 1938.

ORDER IN THE MATTER OF AN INVESTIGATION AND HEARING TO DETERMINE THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH COMMERCE ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL

At a Regular Session of the National Bituminous Coal Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of March, 1938.

It appearing, That by Orders No. 2 and No. 48, the Commission upon its own motion entered into and conducted an investigation under the provisions of Section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, for the purpose of determining the nature and extent of transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of North Carolina and the effect of such transactions upon interstate commerce in such coal; and

It further appearing, That reasonable public notice of a hearing was provided and that at said hearing interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard; that the presiding Examiner duly designated by the Commission having filed his report and recommendations and the Commission having given due consideration to said report and recommendations and to the record of the evidence in this proceeding; and, the Commission having on the 16th day of March, 1938, adopted the Examiner's report and recommendations as its own which said report is hereby referred to and made a part hereof;

Now, therefore, It is by order declared:

That intrastate transactions in bituminous coal in the State of North Carolina do not directly affect interstate commerce in such coal at the present time; and

Therefore, it is further ordered:

1. That bituminous coal sold, delivered or offered for sale in transactions in intrastate commerce in such coal in all localities within the State of North Carolina is exempt from the provisions of Section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

2. That the Commission may upon its own motion or upon petition of any code member, district board, state or political subdivision thereof, or the Consumers' Counsel, conduct a further investigation and hearing under the provisions of Section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 for the purpose of determining the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of North Carolina and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal.

The Secretary shall cause a copy of this Order to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and shall also publish a copy thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in each county within the State of North Carolina known to produce bituminous coal, publication thereof to be made three (3) times within ten (10) days from the date of this Order.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 16th day of March, 1938.

[Docket No. 133-FD]

INVESTIGATION OF THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF TRANSACTIONS IN INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH TRANSACTIONS ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL

At a Regular Session of the National Bituminous Coal Commission Held at its Offices in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of March, 1938.

It appearing, That by Orders No. 2 and 168, the Commission upon its own motion entered into and conducted an investigation under the provisions of Section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, for the purpose of determining the nature and extent of transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of New Mexico and the effect of such transactions upon interstate commerce in such coal; and

It further appearing, That reasonable public notice of a hearing was provided and that at said hearing interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard; that the presiding Examiner duly designated by the Commission having filed his report and recommendations and the Commission having given due consideration to said report and recommendations and to the record of the evidence in this proceeding; and, the Commission having on the 16th day of March, 1938, adopted the Examiner's report and recommendations as its own which said report is hereby referred to and made a part hereof;

Now, therefore, It is by order declared:

That substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce in the State of New Mexico directly affect interstate commerce in such coal; and

That there will be an undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice as between localities in New Mexico in such intrastate commerce on the one hand the interstate commerce in bituminous coal on the other hand, and an undue, unreasonable, or unjust discrimination against interstate commerce in such coal if such transactions in intrastate commerce or any substantial part thereof are not regulated and subjected to the provisions of Section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Therefore, it is further ordered:

1. That on and after the 15th day of April, 1938, all bituminous coal sold, delivered or offered for sale in transactions in intrastate commerce in such coal in all localities within the State of New Mexico, shall be subject to the provisions of Section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, to the Bituminous Coal Code, as promulgated by the Commission and made effective on the 21st day of June, 1937, and to all relevant orders of the Commission in effect on the date of this order, as well as all further orders which may thereafter be issued by the Commission under Section 4 of said Act, so as to apply to such intrastate commerce in coal within the State of New Mexico.

2. That any producer of bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the State of New Mexico, who may believe that his or its particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal should be exempted from this order and/or from the provisions of Section 4 and 4-A of said Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, may file application at any time hereafter for exemption pursuant to the second paragraph of Section 4-A of said Act, and be entitled to a hearing and appropriate orders thereon.

3. That the Secretary of the Commission shall give notice to each known producer of bituminous coal within the State of New Mexico who is not upon the date of this Order a member of the Bituminous Coal Code, by mailing, within five (5) days from this date, a copy of this Order, together with three (3) copies of the Form of Code Acceptance and rules prescribed by the Commission for filing acceptances, and a copy of the Bituminous Coal Code as promulgated under date of June 21, 1937.

The Secretary shall cause a copy of this Order to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and shall also publish a copy thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in each county within the State of New Mexico known to produce bituminous coal, publication thereof to be made three (3) times within fourteen (14) days from the date of this Order.

By order of the Commission.

APPLICATION OF REPATRIATED ALIENS FOR READMISSION TO THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 17, 1938.

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority conferred by Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (Act of February 5, 1917, 39 Stat. 892; 8 U. S. C. 102), Rule 19, Subdivision K of the Immigration Rules of January 1, 1930, as amended, is amended by adding the following paragraph thereto:

"PAR. 2. An alien removed from the United States after May 13, 1937, in the manner described in paragraph 1 of this subdivision, is ineligible for admission to the United States either as an immigrant or a nonimmigrant without first receiving permission from the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Labor to apply for readmission. Applications for such permission must be made by letter addressed to the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Labor, which should be prepared in triplicate and contain the following information:

(a) When the alien was repatriated, from what address in the United States and to what place repatriated.

(b) The alien's purpose in desiring readmission.

(c) The alien's financial resources and how he will be supported while in the United States (Corroboratory evidence of this must be submitted with the application).

(d) The port through which the alien proposes to enter the United States.

The application must be delivered to the American Consul to whom the alien desires to apply for a visa, but in exceptional cases where this is not practicable, the application may be filed with the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization directly, or through the immigration officer in charge at the proposed port of entry. A parent or legal guardian may make application for or on behalf of a child of tender years. An approved application for readmission is valid for all admissions to the United States after the date of its approval unless the alien shall again have been removed in the manner described in paragraph 1 of this subdivision. Officials of foreign governments, their suites, families, or guests who are covered by the last proviso of Section 3 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (39 Stat. 875; 8 U. S. C. 136 (r)) who may have been repatriated under paragraph 1 of this subdivision, may nevertheless be admitted to the United States without obtaining permission to apply for readmission."

DETENTION OF SEAMEN ON BOARD VESSELS ON WHICH EMPLOYED

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority conferred by Section 24 of the Immigration Act of 1924 (Act of May 26, 1924, 43 Stat. 166; 8 U. S. C. 222), and Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (Act of February 5, 1917, 39 Stat. 892; 8 U. S. C. 102), Rule 7, Subdivision E, Paragraph 4 of the Immigration Rules of January 1, 1930, as amended, is hereby canceled; Paragraphs 5 and 6 are renumbered respectively Paragraphs 4 and 5; and Paragraph 3 is amended to read as follows:

"PAR. 3. It shall be the duty of the inspector to order detained on board, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1924 (43 Stat. 164; 8 U. S. C. 166-167), (1) any alien seaman who has been heretofore or is hereafter arrested and deported in pursuance of law and is found employed on any vessel arriving in the United States, unless he has obtained from the Secretary of Labor, in conformity with law, permission to reapply for admission and arrives at least one year after the date of deportation; and, (2) any alien seaman found subject to exclusion from admission to the United States under Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 892; 8 U. S. C. 102, as amended by the Act of May 14, 1937, 50 Stat. 164), because he was removed from the United States subsequent to May 13, 1937, in the manner provided in the last mentioned statutes, unless permission to apply for readmission has been granted to such alien by the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Labor. In emergent cases seamen covered by this paragraph may be accorded hospital treatment as provided in the regulations relating to seamen."

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION.

[FCA 82]

AUTHORITY OF REGIONAL MANAGERS OF EMERGENCY CROP AND FEED LOAN OFFICES TO SUBORDINATE, IN CERTAIN INSTANCES, LIENS ACQUIRED BY THE GOVERNOR AS SECURITY FOR UNPAID DROUGHT FEED LOANS

Whereas, the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration (hereafter referred to as Governor) made drought feed loans to farmers pursuant to the "Emergency Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1935" and Executive Order No. 6747, dated June 23, 1934; and

Whereas, many of such borrowers who have been unable to fully repay their drought feed loans have voluntarily given, and others will give, to the Governor chattel mortgages on their livestock as security for their loans, subject to the condition that the Governor, under certain circumstances, will subordinate his interest in such livestock; and

Whereas, some of such borrowers who have so given chattel mortgages on their livestock have requested that such subordination agreements be executed;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered that if any such drought feed loan borrower has obtained or hereafter obtains an advance or advances from any person or persons (including corporations) for the preservation of livestock on which such borrower theretofore has voluntarily given to the Governor a chattel mortgage as security for such drought feed loan, or as security for the purchase of additional livestock (such additions likewise having been made subject to the lien of the Governor's mortgage), the manager of the regional office of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section in which such drought feed loan is held may, upon the request in writing of such borrower, execute for me and in my name and stead an agreement in the form prescribed by the Director of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section subordinating in favor of the person or persons (including corporations) so making such advance or advances the lien of the Governor's mortgage to the extent of the sum or sums so advanced; and any such subordination agreement heretofore executed by any manager of a regional office of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section in conformity with the foregoing conditions and limitations is hereby ratified and confirmed.

The provisions of this order shall remain in full force and effect until the same are amended or revoked by subsequent order.

IN THE MATTER OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES FOR THE CARBON DIOXIDE MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

PROMULGATION

Due proceedings having been had under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914 (38 Stat. 717),

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules of Group I which have been approved by the Commission in this proceeding and the rules in Group II which have been received by the Commission as expressions of the industry be, and the same are, hereby promulgated for the Carbon Dioxide Manufacturing Industry.

These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote fair competitive conditions in the interest of the industry and the public. They are not to be used, directly or indirectly, as part of or in connection with any combination or agreement to fix prices, or for the suppression of competition, or otherwise to unreasonably restrain trade.

Group I

The unfair trade practices which are embraced in Group I rules are considered to be unfair methods of competition or other illegal practices prohibited, within the purview of the Federal Government, by acts of Congress as construed in the decisions of the Federal Trade Commission or the courts; and approximate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use of such unlawful practices in or directly affecting interstate commerce.

RULE 1. Wilfully inducing or attempting to induce, by any false or deceptive means whatsoever, the breach of any lawful contract or contracts existing between competitors and their customers or their suppliers, or wilfully interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractual duties or services by any such means, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring, or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 2. Securing information from competitors concerning their businesses by false or misleading statements or representations or by false impersonation of one in authority, and the wrongful use thereof to unduly hinder or stifle the competition of such competitors, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 3. The defamation of competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the grade, quality, or manufacture of the products of competitors, or of their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies, or services, or conditions of employment, with the tendency, capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 4. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, by means of any monopolistic practices or through combination, conspiracy, coercion, boycott, threats, or any other unlawful means, directly or indirectly, to interfere with a competitor's right to purchase his products and supplies from whomsoever he chooses, or to sell the same to whomsoever he chooses.

RULE 5. The practice of imitating or causing to be imitated, or directly or indirectly promoting the imitation of, the trade-marks, trade names, or other exclusively owned symbols or marks of identification of competitors, having the capacity, tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 6. The false or deceptive marking or branding of products of the industry, with respect to the grade, quality, quantity, use, size, material, content, origin, preparation, manufacture, or distribution of such products, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 7. The unauthorized use of the carbon dioxide containers of a competitor with the purpose and effect of thereby misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, or with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring, or prejudicing such competitor in his business, is an unfair trade practice.

NOTE.—Owing to the responsibility of the owners of containers involving compliance with Interstate Commerce Commission Specifications 3 or 3-A requiring periodic testing of such containers, the industry recommends that containers which bear a competitor's identification marks should not be used without owner's permission evidenced by bill of sale, lease, or other instrument, in writing.

RULE 8. Making, or causing to be made or published, any false, misleading, or deceptive statement or representation, by way of advertisement or otherwise, concerning the grade, quality, quantity, substance, character, use, size, material, content, nature, origin, preparation, manufacture, or distribution of any industry product, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 9. (a) Prohibited discriminatory rebates, refunds, discounts, credits and other price differentials.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other price differential, where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other price differential effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality and where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce[1] and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce[1] or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either of them: Provided, however—

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States;

(2) That nothing herein contained shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

(3) That nothing herein contained shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce[1] from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing herein contained shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting either (a) the market for the goods concerned, or (b) the marketability of the goods, such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(b) Prohibited brokerage and commissions.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(d) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or by furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(e) Illegal price discrimination.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry or other person engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to discriminate in price in any other respect contrary to Section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended by the Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936 (Public No. 692, 74th Congress), or knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by such section as amended.

RULE 10. The sale or offering for sale of any product of the industry by any false or deceptive means or device which has the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public as to the quality, quantity, substance, or size of such product, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 11. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to use the practice of shipping goods on consignment or pretended consignment for the purpose and with the effect of artificially clogging trade outlets and unduly restricting competitors' use of said trade outlets in getting their goods to consumers through regular channels of distribution, or with such purpose to entirely close said trade outlets to such competitors so as to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or to unreasonably restrain trade; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed or used as restricting or preventing consignment shipping or marketing of commodities in good faith and without artificial interference with competitors' use of the usual channels of distribution in such manner as thereby to suppress competition or restrain trade.

RULE 12. The use of the word "free" where not properly or fairly qualified when the article is in fact not free, with the tendency or capacity to mislead or deceive purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 13. Directly or indirectly to give, or permit to be given, or offer to give, money or anything of value to agents, employees, or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees, or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase industry products from the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 14. The offering or giving of prizes, premiums, or gifts in connection with the sale of products, or as an inducement thereto, by any scheme which involves lottery, misrepresentation, or fraud, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 15. The practice of coercing the purchase of one or more products as a prerequisite to the purchase of one or more other products, where the effect may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or to unreasonably restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 16. Withholding from or inserting in invoices, bills of lading, delivery receipts, or other documents of title, any statements or information by reason of which omission or insertion a false record is made, wholly or in part, of the transactions represented on the face of such invoices, bills of lading, delivery receipts, or other documents of title, with the purpose or effect of thereby misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers, or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

RULE 17. The practice of selling goods below the seller's cost, with the intent and with the effect of injuring a competitor and where the effect may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or unreasonably restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice; all elements recognized by good accounting practice as proper elements of such cost shall be included in determining cost under this rule.

RULE 18. It is an unfair trade practice for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or association to enter into or take part in, directly or indirectly, any agreement, understanding, combination, or conspiracy with one or more persons, firms, partnerships, corporations, or associations to fix, maintain, or enhance prices, or to suppress competition in respect of any product or products of the industry or other products, or to fix, maintain, or enhance prices or suppress competition by any other unlawful means.

RULE 19. For any member of the industry knowingly to aid or abet another member, or any other person, firm, or corporation, in the use of unfair trade practices, is an unfair trade practice.

Group II

The trade practices embraced in these Group II rules are considered to be conducive to sound business methods and are to be encouraged and promoted individually or through voluntary cooperation exercised in accordance with existing law. Nonobservance of such rules does not, per se, constitute violation of law. However, the failure to observe them under certain circumstances may result in an unfair method of competition contrary to law. In such event, a corrective proceeding may be instituted by the Commission as in the case of a violation of Group I rules.

RULE A. The industry approves the practice of handling business disputes between members of the industry and their customers in a fair and reasonable manner, coupled with a spirit of moderation and good will, and every effort should be made by the disputants themselves to compose their differences. If unable to do so they should, if possible, submit these disputes to arbitration.

RULE B. Contracts are business obligations which should be performed in letter and in spirit. The repudiation of contracts by sellers on a rising market, or by buyers on a declining market, is condemned by the industry.

RULE C. The practice, by members of the industry, of selling merchandise and later permitting the purchaser to return it for credit or refund of purchase price, without good reason, creates waste and loss, increases the cost of doing business, to the detriment of both the industry and the public, and is condemned by the industry.

RULE D. Where products of the industry are sold at wholesale and retail in the same establishment, the failure on the part of such member correctly to differentiate between or identify the two types of transactions, where the result may be to create confusion and deception as to the character of the transaction in the minds of purchasers or prospective purchasers, is condemned by the industry.

RULE E. The use of buying power to force uneconomic or unjust terms of sale upon sellers, and the use of selling power to force uneconomic or unjust terms of sale upon buyers, are condemned by the industry.

RULE F. In the judgment of the industry the practice of filling or using, for the distribution of liquid carbon dioxide, cylinders or containers which do not meet the requirements of Interstate Commerce Commission Specifications 3 or 3–A, and the practice of using converters or liquefiers which do not conform to the safety regulations of the locality in which they are used, may be dangerous to life and property and such practices are therefore condemned by the industry. In localities in which no official applicable safety regulations are in effect it is recommended as a proper practice to follow in the interest of safety that converters or liquefiers used be such as have been manufactured or constructed to meet the requirements of the Unfired Pressure Vessel Code of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (A. S. M. E.) in effect at the time of such manufacture or construction, or which have otherwise been manufactured or constructed in accordance with adequate safety requirements. The use of converters or liquefiers is not prohibited or condemned by this rule but safety precautions are deemed necessary and desirable in the interest of the public and for the welfare of the industry and are therefore recommended.

RULE G. The industry records its approval of the distribution among members of the industry of information covering delinquent and slow return of cylinder accounts as well as delinquent and slow credit accounts in so far as such may be lawfully done.

RULE H. To promote a business practice fair to both buyer and seller and to avoid unnecessary claims for evaporation during transportation, the industry recommends that buyers and sellers at the time of sale of carbon dioxide in solid form agree upon the place at which delivery should be made and weight taken.

By the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

ARMY DAY

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS Senate Concurrent Resolution 5, 75th Congress, 1st Session (50 Stat. 1108), provides:

"That April 6 of each year be recognized by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America as Army Day, and that the President of the United States be requested, as Commander in Chief, to order military units throughout the United States to assist civic bodies in appropriate celebration to such extent as he may deem advisable; to issue a proclamation each year declaring April 6 as Army Day, and in such proclamations to invite the Governors of the various States to issue Army Day proclamations: Provided, That in the event April 6 falls on Sunday, the following Monday shall be recognized as Army Day."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, pursuant to the aforesaid Concurrent Resolution, do hereby declare April 6, 1938, as Army Day, and I hereby invite the Governors of the several States to issue Army Day proclamations; and, acting under the authority vested in me as Commander in Chief, I hereby order military units throughout the United States, its Territories and possessions, to assist civic bodies in the appropriate observance of that day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this 18'' day of March, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-

Division of Grazing.

THE FEDERAL RANGE CODE

RULES FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF GRAZING DISTRICTS UNDER THE ACT OF JUNE 28, 1934 [48 STAT. 1269], AS AMENDED BY THE ACT OF JUNE 26, 1936 [49 STAT. 1976] COMMONLY KNOWN AS THE TAYLOR GRAZING ACT

(Note: The Following Rules Will Supersede the Compiled Rules for the Administration of Grazing Districts, as Approved on June 14, 1937, as Far as the Heading "Fees", on Page 3, and Any Other Existing Rules Which May Be in Conflict Herewith. The Words "License" and "Licensee" as Used in All Rules Not Superseded Also Will Connote "Permit" and "Permittee.")

SEC. 1. Introductory; basic policy and plan of administration.

PAR. a. Grazing districts will be administered for the conservation of the public domain and as far as compatible therewith to promote the proper use of the privately controlled lands and waters dependent upon it. Possession of sufficient land, water, or feed to insure a year-round operation for a certain number of livestock in connection with the use of the public domain will be required of all users.

PAR. b. Preference applicants.—Preference in the granting of grazing privileges will be given to those applicants within or near a district who are landowners engaged in the livestock business, bona-fide occupants or settlers, or owners of water or water rights, as may be necessary to permit the proper use of lands, water, or water rights owned, occupied, or leased by them. When the demands of all such preference applicants cannot be supplied, prior consideration will be given certain applicants in the manner hereinafter provided. Provision will be made for other applicants in so far as Federal range remains available.

PAR. c. Permits; temporary licenses; expiration; revocation.—Permits within the meaning of section 3 of the act will be issued as soon as the necessary data for term permits can be obtained. During the intervening period, in order to provide for the existing livestock industry, the issuance of temporary licenses will be continued. Licenses issued in 1938 will be operative only during that year or for such part of 1939 as may be considered the "winter grazing season," but in no event later than July 1, 1939. Upon the issuance of permits within any district or portion thereof, any unexpired licenses in such district or portion may be terminated upon notice by the Division of Grazing. Both licenses and permits will be revocable for violation of the terms thereof.

SEC. 2. Definitions.—Wherever used in rules, instructions or interpretations issued by the Division of Grazing, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) The act means the Taylor Grazing Act (act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), as amended by the act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976), and any subsequent amendments thereto).

(b) The Federal Range Code means all of the rules pertaining to the administration of grazing districts.

(c) Federal range means land owned, leased, or otherwise controlled by the United States and administered by the Division of Grazing.

(d) Property means privately owned or controlled land or water used in range livestock operations.

(e) Base property means property used for the support of the livestock for which a grazing privilege is sought and on the basis of which the extent of a license or permit is computed, without reference to forest permits or complementary feed.

(f) Forage land means land the principal use of which is the production of natural or cultivated feed for livestock.

(g) Land dependent by use means forage land which was used in livestock operations in connection with the same part of the public domain, which part is now Federal range, for any three years or for any two consecutive years in the 5-year period immediately preceding June 28, 1934, and which is offered as base property in an application for a grazing license or a permit filed before June 28, 1938. Land will be considered dependent by use only to the extent of that part of it necessary to maintain the average number of livestock grazed on the public domain in connection with it for any three years or for any two consecutive years, whichever is the more favorable to the applicant, during the 5-year period immediately preceding June 28, 1934.

(h) Land dependent by location means forage land within or in the immediate neighborhood of the Federal range which is so situated and of such character that the conduct of economic livestock operations requires the use of the Federal range in connection with it.

(i) Animal-unit month means that amount of natural, cultivated, or complementary feed necessary for the complete subsistence of one cow for a period of one month. For the purpose of this definition, one (1) horse or five (5) goats or five (5) sheep will be considered the equivalent of one (1) cow.

(j) Carrying capacity means the amount of natural or cultivated feed grown or produced on a given area of forage land in one year, measured in animal-unit months.

(k) Full-time water means water which is suitable for consumption by livestock and available, accessible, and adequate for a given number of livestock during those months in the year for which the range is classified as suitable for use. Such water may be from one source or may be the aggregate amount available from several sources.

(l) Prior water is water which was used to service certain range for a given number of livestock during the 5-year period immediately preceding June 28, 1934. It will be considered prior water only to the extent of the greatest number of livestock that was properly grazed from it during said period.

(m) Service value of water means the number of livestock that can be grazed properly from such water.

(n) Competing water means water which is available, accessible, and adequate to service some part of the Federal range serviced by other water of the same class. In determining whether prior waters are competing, each shall be considered only to the extent that it is prior water.

(o) Complementary feed means the cultivated feed purchased by an applicant and fed to his range livestock for a period of time during which he is not using the Federal range.

(p) Free-use applicant means an applicant who is a resident within or near a grazing district, who owns or controls property dependent by location, and who is not an applicant for a regular grazing license or permit for the purpose of carrying on livestock operations.

(q) Nonuse license or permit means a license or permit issued to an applicant who is otherwise eligible for a regular license or permit but who either elects or is required, for conservation purposes, not to have livestock on the Federal range for a designated time.

SEC. 3. Personal qualifications of applicants.—An applicant for a grazing license or permit is qualified if he owns livestock and is (a) A citizen of the United States or one who has filed his declaration of intention to become such, or

(b) A group, association, or corporation authorized to conduct business under the laws of the State in which the grazing district or any part thereof in which the applicant's license or permit is to be effective is located.

SEC. 4. Rating and classification of properties.

PAR. a. Base properties; classes; carrying capacity of land; service value of water.—For the purpose of determining the proper use of the base properties of all applicants and their relative dependence upon the Federal range, water conditions and other factors affecting livestock operations in the area will be considered. Base properties will be classified as land or water and further in the following manner:

Class 1.—Forage land dependent by both location and use, and full-time prior water.

Class 2.—Forage land dependent by use only, and full-time water.

Class 3.—Forage land dependent by location only, and full-time water which otherwise would be in class 2 but which was developed later than other water servicing a part or all of the same area.

Base property which is forage land will be rated for its carrying capacity. Water will be rated for its service value by deducting therefrom the carrying capacity of half of the area serviced jointly by competing water of the same class, and the carrying capacity of all private or State land located within such service area and not owned or controlled by the applicant. In computing the service value of water in class 3, there will also be deducted therefrom the carrying capacity of any portion of its service area which is serviceable from any other full-time water antedating it in development.

PAR. b. National forest grazing permits; complementary feed.—The value of national forest grazing permits and complementary feed will be computed in animal-unit months where necessary under these rules, but neither will be considered as base property.

SEC. 5. Rating and classification of Federal range.

PAR. a. Carrying capacity; seasons and maximum annual period of use.—For the purpose of determining what use of the Federal range will be most consistent with conservation purposes, the carrying capacity of each administrative unit or area in a grazing district will be rated, and each will be classified for the proper season or seasons, if necessary, of its use and for the maximum period of time for which any licensee or permittee will be allowed to use the Federal range lying therein during any one year.

PAR. b. Wildlife; allowance for maintenance.—In each grazing district a sufficient carrying capacity of Federal range will be reserved for the maintenance of a reasonable number of wild game animals, to use the range in common with livestock grazing in the district.

PAR. c. Segregation of ranges for particular kinds of livestock.—When the proper use of the Federal range or an orderly administration of the act requires it, certain areas may be designated as suitable exclusively for a certain kind

SEC. 6. Issuance of licenses and permits.

PAR. a. Free-use licenses and permits.—Licenses or permits first will be issued to free-use applicants for not to exceed 10 head of work or milch stock kept for domestic purposes, to be grazed on Federal range adjacent to or in the immediate neighborhood of the licensee's or permittee's property.

PAR. b. Regular licenses and permits; order of issuance; number of livestock; reductions; allotments.—Regular licenses or permits will be issued to qualified applicants to the extent that Federal range is available in the following preference order and amounts:

(1) To applicants owning or controlling land in class 1, licenses or permits for the number of livestock for which such base lands are rated for a period of time which when added to the period of use allowed on the Federal range for such livestock will equal 12 months; and to applicants owning or controlling water in class 1, licenses or permits to the extent of the service value of such water.

(2) To applicants owning or controlling base properties in class 2, licenses or permits computed in the same manner as those issued under subparagraph (1), above.

(3) To applicants owning or controlling base properties in class 3, licenses or permits computed in the same manner as those issued under subparagraphs (1) and (2), above.

In the event that Federal range remains available following the computation of licenses or permits in the foregoing manner, the licenses or permits to be issued to applicants owning or controlling any base property the use of which in connection with the Federal range is supplemented by the use of a forest permit or complementary feed will be augmented to the extent of the number of livestock which such forest permit or complementary feed would support for a period equivalent to the base-property period described above. In the event that there is insufficient Federal range to permit this maximum allowance, all such licenses or permits, irrespective of classes of base property, will be augmented in proportion to the carrying capacities of the base properties of the applicants.

PAR. c. Applicants having more than one class of property; reductions; allotments; agreements.—Nothing herein contained will prevent an applicant who owns or controls properties in more than one class from having such properties considered separately in the order and manner set forth in this section. If the issuance of licenses or permits based on properties in any particular class will exhaust the available Federal range, any junior class or classes of properties will be eliminated from consideration. If necessary to reach the carrying capacity of the Federal range either at the time of issuing licenses or permits or thereafter, reductions will be applied on an equal percentage basis. In making such reductions, the lowest class of properties will be reduced first, and no class of properties will be reduced until the properties in all lower classes have been reduced. Reductions in all cases will be made by reducing the numbers of livestock or the time on the Federal range area involved, or by both methods, provided that the regional grazier may recommend, for the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, a limit below which no license or permit in that area will be reduced. Allotments of Federal range will be made to licensees or permittees when conditions warrant and divisions of the range by agreement or by former practice will be respected and followed where practicable.

SEC. 7. Transfers of base properties and licenses or permits.

PAR. a. Transfer of base property; effect.—A transfer of a base property, whether by agreement or by operation of law, will entitle the transferee, if otherwise properly qualified, to all or such part of a license or permit as is based on the property transferred, and the original license or permit will be terminated or decreased by such transfer.

PAR. b. Transfer of license or permit; limitation; effects; consent of owner or encumbrancer.—A license or permit based on land in class 2 may be transferred to base land in any other class, provided that the total extent of the grazing privileges based on the latter land and thereupon to be in effect, including any license or permit already in existence and based on the latter land, may not exceed that based on the carrying capacity of such land. Such a transfer must be made with the written consent of the owners and encumbrancers, if any, of the property from which the transfer is made, except that when the licensee or permittee applying for the transfer is a tenant who has used such property in connection with some part of the public domain which is now Federal range for any three years or for any two consecutive years in the 5-year period immediately preceding June 28, 1934, and without such use by him the land could not be recognized as being dependent by use, he may transfer the license or permit without the consent of the owner or encumbrancer. When a license or permit is transferred from one property to another, the former shall lose its status as dependent by use.

SEC. 8. Special rules for grazing districts.—Whenever it appears to a regional grazier that local conditions in any district in his region make necessary the application of a special rule on any of the matters in this code in order better to achieve an administration consistent with the purposes of the act, he may recommend such a rule, supported by a factual showing of its necessity, to the Secretary of the Interior for approval.

Director of Grazing.

[Order No. 486]

ESTABLISHMENT OF ROADLESS AND WILD AREAS ON INDIAN RESERVATIONS

OCTOBER 25, 1937.

Mechanization is growing in America with unprecedented acceleration. Activity after activity which for countless generations have been performed directly by manpower and area after area which have been subject only to the forces of nature are now dominated by machinery. To millions of Americans this constitutes an unmitigated blessing.

There are other millions who, while they appreciate the good which the machine can bring, also have an intense craving for another type of existence. They do not see why their life must be lived entirely in the world of machinery when there is ample space in this great country for another world as well. They cannot believe that with vast stretches which need not be used for the mechanical activities of our civilization, it is necessary to make every nook and corner of the country a part of the machine world and to wipe out all sizable traces of the primitive.

It is perfectly feasible to reserve for such people something of those wilderness values which they crave. A little advance planning and a little balancing of the claims of genuine conflicting values will make it possible to save many areas from mechanization. In the past a great many ideal wilderness areas have been opened by roads which were of no necessity and which have never returned in value of service anywhere near the investment which has been put into them. Had there been a little prior thought about a reasonable balance between primitive and developed areas, these roads would not have been constructed.

From the standpoint of the Indians, it is of special importance to save as many areas as possible from invasion by roads. Almost everywhere they go the Indians encounter the competition and disturbances of the white race. Most of them desire some place which is all their own. If, on reservations where the Indians desire privacy, sizeable areas are uninvaded by roads, then it will be possible for the Indians of these tribes to maintain a retreat where they may escape from constant contact with white men.

The present Indian Service policy emphasizes giving the Indians an opportunity to work for their livelihood. One important potential source of enjoyable and remunerative work is for the Indians to guide parties on camping and pack trips. It is obvious that no one is going to require a guide to travel down a road. The possibility for Indians to make money through guiding lies in maintaining portions of their reservations in a wild enough condition so that some one visiting them might conceivably need a guide.

In spite of these important advantages of maintaining roadless areas in general and especially of maintaining them on Indian reservations, it is nevertheless true that roadless areas are rapidly vanishing. The National Resources Board defines a roadless area as one which contains no provision for the passage of motorized transportation and which is at least 100,000 acres in forested country and at least 500,000 acres in non-forested country. Under such a definition there are left in the United States only 82 forest roadless areas and only 29 non-forest roadless areas. The number of such areas on Indian reservations is even more limited. Clearly, it seems exigent to set aside as many as practicable while the opportunity remains. Consequently, I am establishing the policy that existing areas without roads or settlements on Indian reservations should be preserved in such a condition, unless the requirements of fire protection, commercial use for the Indians' benefit or actual needs of the Indians clearly demand otherwise.

Under this policy, I hereby order that the following shall be established as roadless areas on Indian reservations:

Name of area	Reservation	Approximate acreage
Rainbow Bridge	Navajo	1,590,000
Black Mesa	Navajo	820,000
Grand Canyon	Hualpai	530,000
Painted Desert	Navajo	525,000
Black River	San Carlos-Ft. Apache	325,000
Wind River Mountains	Shoshone	220,000
Columbia-San Poil Divide	Colville	155,000
Mt. Thomas	Ft. Apache	130,000
Mission Range	Flathead	125,000
Mesa Verde	Consolidated Ute	115,000
Goat Rocks	Yakima	105,000
Mt. Jefferson	Warm Springs	105,000

The boundaries of these areas are indicated in the appendix to this order.

There are certain areas, not large enough to be designated by the term roadless, from which it is nevertheless desirable to exclude provision for the passage of motorized transportation. Such tracts the National Resources Board has designated as wild areas. I hereby order that the following shall be established as wild areas on Indian reservations:

Name of area	Reservation	Approximate acreage
Mt. Admas	Yakima	48,000
Fort Charlotte	Grand Portage	19,000
Grand Portage	Grand Portage	11,000
Cape Flattery	Makah	6,000

The boundaries of these areas are indicated in the appendix to this order.

Within the boundaries of these officially designated roadless and wild areas it will be the policy of the Interior Department to refuse consent to the construction or establishment of any routes passable to motor transportation, including in this restriction highways, roads, truck trails, work roads, and all other types of way constructed to make possible the passage of motor vehicles either for transportation of people or for the hauling of supplies and equipment. Foot trails and horse trails are not barred. Superintendents of reservations on which roadless and wild areas have been established will be held strictly accountable for seeing that these areas are maintained in a roadless condition. Elimination of any areas or parts of areas from the restriction of this order will be made only upon a written showing of an actual and controlling need.

JOHN COLLIER, Commissioner.

Approved, October 29, 1937.

HAROLD L. ICKES,
Secretary of the Interior.

APPENDIX

DETAILED DESCRIPTIONS OF ROADLESS AND WILD AREAS

Rainbow Bridge Roadless Area

The Rainbow Bridge Roadless Area embraces approximately 1,590,000 acres on the Navajo Reservation. It is indicated on the accompanying map[1] by the green lines, and may be described as all that territory lying within the following boundaries:

Beginning at Lees Berry on the Colorado River, thence south along U. S. Highway No. 89 to latitude 36°30', thence east to within one-half mile of the road to the Copper District, thence in a northerly direction, keeping one-half mile from said road, to the end of said road then turning and running in a southerly direction, keeping one-half mile east of said road, to latitude 36°30', then due east to the road running from Gap to Kaibab, thence in a northeasterly direction to Kaibab along said road, thence southeasterly along road to the junction with the road to Rainbow Lodge, thence north and northwest along the Rainbow Lodge road, keeping one-half mile west of road to its end, thence east and northeast around the southern side of Navajo Mountain to the end of the road to Dunns Trading Post, thence southeasterly along said road and the Rainbow Lodge Road to the junction with the road to Paiute Mesa, keeping one-half mile east of said roads, thence northerly with the Paiute Mesa road, keeping one mile west of said road, to a point one mile north of the Arizona-Utah State Line, thence south, one mile east of said road, to the junction with the road to Kayenta, thence following said road south, east and northeast to Kayenta, keeping one-half mile north of said road, thence north and northwesterly, keeping one-half mile west of the road from Kayenta to Copper Canyon, along said road to the southwest corner of T. 42 S., R. 14 E., Salt Lake Meridian, Utah, thence in an easterly direction one-half mile north of the road running north of Train Rock to the San Juan River, thence down said river in a westerly direction to its junction with Colorado River, thence southwesterly down the Colorado to Lees Ferry to the point of beginning.

Black Mesa Roadless Area

The Black Mesa Roadless Area embraces approximately 820,000 acres on the Navajo Reservation. It is indicated on the accompanying map[1] by the green lines, and may be described as all that territory lying within the following boundaries:

Beginning at Blue Canyon on the road from Red Lake to Hotevila, thence south to the north line of T. 31 N., thence east along township line until it cuts the road from Hotevila to Rough Rock, thence northeast along said road to Rough Rock, thence north and west along the road to Kayenta, thence southwest along the road to Red Lake, thence south and east along the road to Hotevila to Blue Canyon, the point of beginning.

Grand Canyon Roadless Area

Hualpai Reservation

The Grand Canyon Roadless Area embraces approximately 530,000 acres on the reservation. It is indicated on the accompanying map[1] by the green lines, and may be described as all that territory lying within the following boundaries:

EXTENSION AND MAINTENANCE OF CREDIT BY BROKERS, DEALERS, AND MEMBERS OF NATIONAL SECURITIES EXCHANGES

AMENDMENT NO. 1 OF REVISED REGULATION T

On March 17, 1938, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That, effective March 21, 1938, Regulation T is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 4 (b) of said regulation is amended by striking out the word "and" after the semicolon in paragraph (2) of said section, by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (3) of said section and substituting therefor a semicolon and the word "and", and by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph reading as follows:

"(4) A transaction consisting of a withdrawal of cash or registered or exempted securities from the account shall not be subject to the restrictions specified in the second paragraph of section 3 (b)."

2. The second paragraph following paragraph (2) of section 4 (c) of said regulation is amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof:

"If any shipment of securities is incidental to the consummation of a transaction in a special cash account, the period applicable to the transaction under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph or the preceding paragraph shall be deemed to be extended by the number of days required for such shipment, except that the total extension of such period pursuant to this sentence shall not exceed 7 days for any transaction."

3. Paragraph (2) of section 4 (f) of said regulation is amended to read as follows:

"(2) Effect and finance, for any member of a national securities exchange who is registered and acts as an odd-lot dealer in securities on the exchange, such member's transactions as an odd-lot dealer in such securities, or effect and finance, for any joint adventure in which the creditor participates, any transactions in any securities of an issue with respect to which all participants, or all participants other than the creditor, are registered and act on a national securities exchange as odd-lot dealers."

Adopted by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System on March 17, 1938.

AMENDMENTS OF THE LOAN SERVICE CHAPTER OF THE MANUAL MODIFYING PROCEDURE FOR THE PERSONAL SERVICING OF ACCOUNTS

Be it resolved, That pursuant to the authority vested in the Board by Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 128, 129) as amended by Sections 1 and 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 643-647) and particularly by subsections (a) and (k) of Section 4 of said Act as amended, Sections 203, 204, and 205 of the Loan Service Chapter of the Manual be amended in the following respects:

Section 203 (c) is hereby amended to read as follows:

The Control Supervisor shall be responsible for assignment of cases for personal service and for review of the action taken.

Section 204 is amended by inserting at the beginning of the first paragraph the words "Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter".

The second paragraph of Section 204 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Where necessary in the interest of more effective operation, procedure adopted under the authority contained in this resolution may provide for the handling of Loan Service operations directly between Regional and District Offices or between Regional Offices and Field Representatives; and upon the recommendation of the Deputy General Manager in Charge of Loan Service, procedure may be adopted which will authorize Loan Service personnel to service accounts located across a state line, when the General Manager determines that such action will be productive of administrative economy or for the best interest of the Corporation.

Section 205 is amended by adding the following language at the end of said Section:

The provisions of this Section are subject to special procedure authorized by the Board in Section 204.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on March 16, 1938.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

PRESCRIBING REGULATIONS RELATING TO ANNUAL LEAVE OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 7 of the act of March 14, 1936, entitled "An Act to provide for vacations to Government employees and for other purposes" (49 Stat. 1161), I hereby prescribe the following regulations governing the granting of annual leave to civilian officers and employees of the United States, the District of Columbia, and all corporations included within the provisions of section 6 of the said act, except as provided in PART III hereof:

Part I. Definitions

SEC. 1. As used in these regulations:

(a) "Employee" and "employees" include officer and officers, respectively.

(b) "Permanent employees" are those appointed without limitation as to length of service or for definite periods in excess of 6 months.

(c) "Temporary employees" are those appointed for definite periods of time not exceeding 6 months.

(d) "Emergency employees" are those whose compensation is paid from emergency funds and whose tenure of appointment is limited to the period for which the emergency funds are available.

(e) "Indefinite employees" are those appointed for the "duration of the job" and those who, although paid only when actually employed, are continuously employed or required to be available for duty for a period of not less than one month, as distinguished from part-time or intermittent employees.

(f) "Accumulated leave" means the unused annual leave not exceeding 60 days which has accrued during years prior to the current year.

(g) "Current annual leave" means the leave authorized by statute for the current year.

(h) "Current accrued leave" means that part of the current annual leave which bears the same ratio to the current annual leave that the expired part of the current year bears to the full year.

(i) "Unaccrued leave" means that part of the current annual leave which bears the same ratio to the current annual leave as the unexpired part of the current year bears to the full year.

Part II. General Provisions

SEC. 2. Permanent employees who have been employed continuously for one year or more and who do not contemplate leaving the service during the current calendar year shall be entitled to current annual leave with pay at any time during such calendar year not in excess of 26 days. In addition to current annual leave such employees may be granted accumulated leave not to exceed 60 days.

SEC. 3. Leave shall be granted at such time or times as may be deemed to be in the public interest.

SEC. 4. (a) Unaccrued leave shall be granted only with the express understanding that if such leave is not later earned during the calendar year, deductions will be made for the unearned portion from any salary due the employee, or from any deductions in the retirement fund to the credit of the employee.

(b) In cases of separations where employees are indebted to the Government for advanced annual leave such indebtedness shall be charged against the employee on the basis of the salary rate obtaining during the period of advanced annual leave and on the basis of one day's pay for each day of absence, exclusive of Sundays and holidays. Absences for fractional parts of a day will be charged proportionately. This provision shall not apply in cases of death, retirement for age or disability, reduction of force, or when an employee who is not eligible for retirement is unable to return to duty because of disability, evidence of which shall be supported by an acceptable certificate from a registered practicing physician or other practitioner.

SEC. 5. Employees, other than temporary, entering the service by original appointment or by reinstatement shall be entitled to annual leave with pay accruing at the rate of 2⅙ days for each month of service rendered until the completion of one year's service. Emergency and indefinite employees shall be entitled to annual leave with pay accruing at the rate of 2⅙ days per month for each month of service, and may in addition thereto be granted accumulated leave.

SEC. 6. An employee transferred or reappointed without break in service from one permanent position to another permanent position within the same or a different governmental agency shall at the time of the transfer be credited with such accumulated and current accrued leave as may be due him, or charged with any unaccrued leave which may have been advanced. "Break in service" means separation from the service for a period of one or more work days.

SEC. 7. An employee voluntarily separated from the service without prejudice during any calendar year shall be entitled to all of his accumulated leave plus his current accrued leave to and including the date of separation.

SEC. 8. An employee who is involuntarily separated from the service other than for cause due to his own misconduct shall be entitled to all of his accumulated leave and current accrued leave, and the date of his discharge shall be fixed so as to permit him to take such leave. The date of discharge of an employee separated from the service for cause due to his own misconduct may, within the discretion of the administrative office concerned, be fixed so as to permit the allowance of all or any part of accumulated leave and current accrued leave.

SEC. 9. Leave without pay shall not be granted until all accumulated leave and current accrued leave allowable under these regulations is exhausted, except that employees injured in line of duty may take leave without pay, if desired, covering their absence due to such injury instead of covering such time by annual leave; and during absence because of such injury and while being paid by the Employees' Compensation Commission, employees shall continue to earn leave, which shall, however, be granted only in the event of their return to actual duty.

SEC. 10. Annual leave shall accrue to an employee while in a leave-with-pay status. Except as provided in section 9 hereof, annual leave shall not accrue to an employee while in a non-pay status due to leave without pay or furlough when the duration of such non-pay status in any calendar year aggregates 30 days or more: Provided, that when the duration of such non-pay status is in excess of 30 days in any calendar year, such excess shall affect the accrual of annual leave only when it aggregates 10 days, and likewise for each aggregate period of 10 days thereafter.

SEC. 11. Except in the case of temporary employees, Sundays and holidays occurring within a period of annual leave shall not be charged as annual leave: Provided, that in the case of employees whose terms or conditions of employment require that they regularly work on a Sunday or a holiday and be off duty on another day of the week in lieu thereof, the Sunday or holiday occurring within a period of annual leave shall be charged as annual leave and the lieu day shall not be so charged. The word "holidays" as used herein means all days declared or recognized by Federal statute as holidays, all days specifically declared holidays by Executive Order, and all days on which the departments and establishments are closed by Executive Order, but does not include non-work days established by administrative order, or days on which, by Executive Order or administrative order, certain classes of employees are merely excused from work.

SEC. 12. The minimum charge for annual leave shall be 15 minutes, and additional leave shall be charged in like multiples. Annual leave granted for less than one day shall be charged in the ratio that the amount of annual leave granted bears to the number of work hours of the regular work day prevailing in the agency concerned. For the purposes of this section, Saturdays and part holidays shall not be considered regular work days, except as may be required under section 11 hereof.

SEC. 13. Annual leave shall not be granted with pay at the beginning of a calendar year immediately following a period of absence in a non-pay status in the preceding year unless and until there is a return to duty, at which time leave may be retroactively granted. Leave without pay under any other circumstances may not later be converted into annual leave.

SEC. 14. Temporary employees shall be granted 2½ days leave for each full month of service, and Sundays and holidays occurring within a period of annual leave shall be charged as annual leave. After the first month of service such leave may be credited at the beginning of the month in which it accrues.

SEC. 15. Temporary employees who subsequently receive permanent or probational appointments in the same department without break in service shall be entitled to 2½ days annual leave for each full month of service to the date of permanent appointment and thereafter at the rate of 2⅙ days per month.

SEC. 16. Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to prevent the continuance of any leave differential existing prior to January 1, 1936, for the benefit of employees of the Federal Government stationed without the continental limits of the United States. However, any department may, if it so desires, apply these regulations to employees stationed without the continental limits of the United States, subject to the continuance of such leave differential.

SEC. 17. The annual leave authorized by these regulations shall, except as to temporary employees, be recorded and administered on a calendar-year basis.

SEC. 18. The heads or governing bodies of the various governmental agencies to which this Executive Order applies shall be responsible for the proper administration of these regulations in so far as they pertain to the granting of annual leave to employees under their respective jurisdictions; and they may, within the limits authorized by law, issue such regulations as are not inconsistent with these regulations.

Part III. Employees Excepted

SEC. 19. These regulations shall not apply to:

(a) Teachers and Librarians of the public schools of the District of Columbia.

(b) Officers and employees of the Panama Canal and Panama Railroad on the Isthmus of Panama.

(c) Temporary employees engaged on construction work at hourly rates.

(d) The Postmaster General and officers and employees in or under the Post Office Department, except those serving in the departmental service and in the Mail Equipment Shops.

(e) Persons paid security or prevailing wages from funds allocated by the Works Progress Administration on state, municipal, or other public but non-Federal projects, or on a Federal project: Provided, that annual leave shall be granted in accordance with these regulations to employees in the central office of the Works Progress Administration in the District of Columbia and at district and local headquarters, and to other employees in administrative or clerical positions who receive other than security or prevailing wages, as prescribed in Executive Orders.

(f) Employees not required to be continuously employed during regular tour of duty, such as: (1) per diem or per hour employees engaged in an emergency who may be employed for more than one 7- or 8-hour shift within 24 hours during the emergency; (2) part-time or intermittent employees; (3) persons engaged under contract; (4) employees engaged temporarily for less than a month on a piece-price basis; (5) employees who are paid at hourly rates but who are not engaged on construction work, such as mechanics, skilled laborers, and others engaged in various services on maintenance, repair, clean-up work, etc., where employment is more or less intermittent and not on a regular and continuous basis; and (6) employees paid on a fee basis, such as physicians, surgeons, and other consultants.

Part IV. Ratification: Revocation: Effective Date

SEC. 20. All temporary regulations issued by the heads of the various departments and independent establishments under authority of Executive Order No. 7321 of March 21, 1936, are hereby ratified. All such temporary regulations and all other regulations relating to the granting of annual leave are hereby revoked in so far as they are inconsistent with these regulations.

SEC. 21. This order shall be effective as of January 1, 1938, and shall, as of that date, supersede Executive Order No. 7409 of July 9, 1936, prescribing regulations relating to annual leave of government employees.

SEC. 22. This order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

PRESCRIBING REGULATIONS RELATING TO SICK LEAVE OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 7 of the act of March 14, 1936, entitled "An Act to standardize sick leave and extend it to all civilian employees" (49 Stat. 1162), I hereby prescribe the following regulations governing the granting of sick leave to civilian officers and employees of the United States, the District of Columbia, and all corporations included within the provision of section 6 of the said act, except as provided in PART III hereof:

Part I. Definitions

SEC. 1. As used in these regulations "employee" and "employees" shall include:

(a) Officer and officers, respectively.

(b) Permanent employees—those appointed without limitation as to length of service or for definite periods in excess of six months.

(c) Temporary employees—those appointed for definite periods of time not exceeding six months.

(d) Emergency employees—those whose compensation is paid from emergency funds and whose tenure of appointment is limited to the period for which the emergency funds are available.

(e) Indefinite employees—those appointed for the "duration of the job" and those who, although paid only when actually employed, are continuously employed or required to be available for duty for a period of not less than one month, as distinguished from part-time or intermittent employees.

Part II. General Provisions

SEC. 2. Sick leave with pay shall be granted to employees when they are incapacitated for the performance of their duties by sickness, injury, or pregnancy and confinement, or when some member of the immediate family of the employee is afflicted with a contagious disease and requires the care and attendance of the employee, or when, through exposure to contagious disease, the presence of the employee at his post of duty would jeopardize the health of others.

SEC. 3. Except as provided in section 4 hereof, employees shall be entitled to sick leave at the rate of 1¼ days a month, and if such leave is not used it shall accumulate: Provided, that the total accumulation shall not exceed 90 days. Sick leave accruing during any month of service shall be available at any time during the month.

SEC. 4. In cases of serious disability or ailments, and when the exigencies of the situation so require, sick leave may be advanced not in excess of 30 days in addition to the unused sick leave that has accumulated to the credit of the employee: Provided, that temporary employees shall not be entitled to an advance of sick leave: And provided further, that no advances of sick leave shall be made to any employee unless the absence from duty on account of illness is for a period, or periods, of not less than 5 consecutive days, except that advanced leave in a less amount may be granted to supplement accrued leave to cover a continuous absence of 5 days or more; that every case of advanced leave shall be supported by a certificate of a registered practicing physician or other practitioner; that the total of such advances shall not at any time exceed 30 days in excess of the accumulated sick leave; and that such advances shall be charged against sick leave subsequently accumulating.

SEC. 5. When an employee applies for sick leave in excess of the amount accumulated to his credit and the circumstances do not justify such an advance, the excess leave applied for, if granted and used, shall be charged against any unused annual leave to which the employee is entitled, or, if there is no unused annual leave, the excess shall be charged as leave without pay, and such excess leave, however charged, shall not thereafter be converted into either sick or annual leave subsequently accumulating.

SEC. 6. Sick leave shall not be advanced in an amount that would exceed the total that would accumulate during the period from the date of the advance to the termination of a limited appointment (not temporary in character) or one expiring on a specified date.

SEC. 7. Advanced sick leave may be granted irrespective of whether the employee has to his credit unused annual leave.

SEC. 8. Sick leave shall not be granted for slight illness or indisposition not incapacitating the employee for the performance of his regular duties, or for absence for the purpose of being treated professionally by a dentist or oculist in his office; but sick leave may be granted for detention at home or in a hospital by illness or disability due to causes as to which a dentist or oculist is qualified to certify.

SEC. 9. An employee transferred or reappointed without break in service from one permanent position to another permanent position within the same or a different governmental agency shall be credited with accumulated sick leave and charged with sick leave previously advanced in excess of that accumulated at the time of transfer. "Break in service" means separation from the service for a period of one or more work days.

SEC. 10. Sick leave shall accrue to an employee while in a leave-with-pay status. Sick leave shall not accumulate to an employee while in a non-pay status due to leave without pay or furlough when the duration of such non-pay status in any calendar year aggregates 30 days or more: Provided, that when the duration of such non-pay status is in excess of 30 days in any calendar year, such excess shall affect the accumulation of sick leave only when it aggregates 10 days, and likewise for each aggregate period of 10 days thereafter. Sick leave shall not accrue during any period of suspension for disciplinary reasons.

SEC. 11. In the case of voluntary separation or removal for cause of an employee to whom sick leave has been advanced in an amount in excess of that accumulated, the employee shall refund the amount paid him for the period of such excess, or deduction therefor shall be made from any salary due him or from any deductions in the retirement fund to his credit. Such indebtedness shall be charged against the employee on the basis of the salary rate obtaining during the period of advanced sick leave, and on the basis of one day's pay for each day of absence, inclusive of Sundays and holidays. Absences for fractional parts of a day will be charged proportionately. Refund shall not be required in cases of death, retirement for age or disability, reduction of force, or when an employee who is not eligible for retirement is unable to return to duty because of disability, which shall be evidenced by an acceptable certificate from a registered practicing physician or other practitioner.

SEC. 12. Sundays, holidays, and non-work days within a period of sick leave shall be charged as sick leave, except when immediately preceding or following a period of sick leave, if the employee shall have been in a pay status immediately prior to or following such Sundays, holidays, or non-work days.

SEC. 13. The minimum charge for absence on account of sickness, except on Saturdays or on other days on which 4 hours constitute a full work day, shall be ½ day; and additional fractions authorized on the same day shall be charged in multiples of ½ hour. On Saturdays, or other days on which 4 hours constitute a full work day, absences on account of illness shall be charged as follows: For 2 hours or less—½ day; for more than 2 hours and not more than 3 hours—¾ of a day; for more than 3 hours—a full day.

SEC. 14. Notification of absence on account of sickness shall be given as soon as possible on the first day of absence. If such notification is not made in accordance with this regulation, such absence may be charged to annual leave or leave without pay. Application for sick leave shall be filed within two days after return to duty.

SEC. 15. Application for sick leave for a period in excess of 3 days shall be supported by a certificate of a registered practicing physician or other practitioner, except that in remote localities where such certificate cannot reasonably be obtained, the applicant's signed statement as to the nature of the illness and the reason why a certificate is not furnished, may be accepted. For periods of 3 days or less, the total of which shall not exceed 12 days in any one calendar year, the applicant's signed statement on a prescribed form may be accepted.

SEC. 16. When sickness continuing for more than 5 days occurs within a period of annual leave, the period of illness may, upon presentation of the certificate of a registered practicing physician or other practitioner, be charged as sick leave, and the charge against annual leave reduced accordingly. No such charge against sick leave shall be made for illness which does not last more than 5 days. Application for such substitution of sick leave for annual leave shall be made within 2 days after the expiration of the annual-leave period: Provided, that this provision may be waived by the head of the department or agency concerned.

SEC. 17. Sick leave may not be granted for a period immediately following a period of absence in a non-pay status, unless and until there is a return to actual duty, nor may such leave without pay be converted into sick leave.

SEC. 18. Sick leave accumulated during temporary appointment shall be credited to an employee who receives a permanent appointment in the same governmental agency without break in service but shall not be transferable elsewhere under any circumstances.

SEC. 19. In the case of an employee who was not entitled to sick leave under prior law, but who is now entitled thereto, sick leave as accumulated may be substituted for leave without pay or annual leave taken because of illness between January 1 and March 14, 1936.

SEC. 20. Sick leave taken in excess of 1¼ days a month during the period between January 1 and March 14, 1936, shall be charged against sick leave subsequently accumulating.

SEC. 21. Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to prevent the continuance of any sick leave differential existing prior to January 1, 1936, for the benefit of employees of the Federal Government stationed without the continental limits of the United States. However, any department may, if it so desires, apply these regulations to employees stationed without the continental limits of the United States, subject to the continuance of such leave differential.

SEC. 22. The heads or governing bodies of the various governmental agencies to which this order applies shall be responsible for the proper administration of these regulations in so far as they pertain to the granting of sick leave to employees under their respective jurisdictions; and they may, within the limits authorized by law, issue such regulations as are not inconsistent with these regulations.

Part III. Employees Excepted

SEC. 23. These regulations shall not apply to:

(a) Teachers and librarians of the public schools of the District of Columbia.

(b) Officers and members of the police and fire departments of the District of Columbia, other than civilian personnel.

(c) Officers and employees of the Panama Canal and Panama Railroad on the Isthmus of Panama.

(d) Temporary employees engaged on construction work at hourly rates.

(e) The Postmaster General and officers and employees in or under the Post Office Department except those serving in the departmental service and in the Mail Equipment Shops.

(f) Persons paid security or prevailing wages from funds allotted by the Works Progress Administration on a state, municipal, or other public but non-Federal project or on a Federal project: Provided, that sick leave shall be granted in accordance with these regulations to employees in the central office of the Works Progress Administration in the District of Columbia and at district and local headquarters, and to other employees in administrative or clerical positions who receive other than security or prevailing wages as prescribed in Executive Orders.

(g) Employees not required to be continuously employed during regular tour of duty, such as: (1) Per diem or per hour employees engaged in an emergency who may be employed for more than one 7- or 8-hour shift within 24 hours during the emergency; (2) part-time or intermittent employees; (3) persons engaged under contract; (4) employees engaged temporarily for less than a month on a piece-price basis; (5) employees who are paid at hourly rates but who are not engaged on construction work, such as mechanics, skilled laborers, and others engaged in many services on maintenance, repair, clean-up work, and the like, where employment is more or less intermittent and not on a regular or continuous basis; and (6) employees paid on a fee basis, such as physicians, surgeons, and other consultants.

Part IV. Ratification: Revocation: Effective Date

SEC. 24. All temporary regulations issued by the heads of the various departments and independent establishments under authority of Executive Order No. 7321 of March 21, 1936, are hereby ratified. All such temporary regulations and all other regulations relating to the granting of sick leave are hereby revoked in so far as they are inconsistent with these regulations.

SEC. 25. This order shall be effective as of January 1, 1938, and shall, as of that date, supersede Executive Order No. 7410 of July 9, 1936, prescribing regulations relating to sick leave of government employees.

SEC. 26. This order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

[Ex Parte No. MC 19]

PRACTICES OF MOTOR COMMON CARRIERS OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS

At a General Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 14th day of March, A. D. 1938.

Sections 204 (c) and 217 (a) of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, being under consideration, and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted into the matter of the practices of common carriers of household goods by motor vehicle subject to said act;

It is further ordered, That said investigation be, and it is hereby, assigned to Division 5 for administrative handling and disposition;

And it is further ordered, That notice of this proceeding be duly given.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL, Secretary.

NOTICE

MARCH 19, 1938.

On March 14, 1938, the Commission instituted a general investigation, under the provisions of sections 204 (c) and 217 (a) of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, into the matter of the practices of motor common carriers of household goods subject to the act.

This investigation results from the receipt by the Commission of numerous informal complaints alleging that carriers of household goods have been charging other than their tariff rates by giving incorrect estimates of the cubic footage of the shipments when the tariff provides for charges on the cubic foot basis, and alleging also that certain other practices of these carriers of household goods have been unreasonable, unduly prejudicial, or unjustly discriminatory. In order to obtain as complete a picture as possible of that branch of the motor carrier industry, the Bureau of Motor Carriers held 90 informal conferences, in an equal number of cities throughout the country, to which all motor carriers of household goods were invited.

The compilation of the reports of these conferences, together with other information received, indicated the desirability of the Commission's establishing certain rules applicable to all persons engaged in the transportation of household goods. The attached draft of proposed rules has been prepared as a basis for discussion of rules on that subject to be adopted by the Commission, and it is suggested that all interested parties direct their efforts principally toward preparing evidence which will bear specifically on the reasonableness or unreasonableness of these proposed rules.

In order that the Commission may determine the points at which hearings should be held and the time which will be necessary for such hearings, all interested parties desiring to introduce evidence are requested to notify the Commission, on or before April 11, 1938, of the amount of time which they estimate will be necessary for introduction of their evidence and of the point at which they would prefer to be heard.

It is to be distinctly understood that the level of rates for transportation of household goods by motor common carriers is not an issue in this investigation.

W. P. BARTEL, Secretary.

PROPOSED DRAFT OF REGULATIONS TO BE ISSUED BY THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION PURSUANT TO SECTIONS 204 (C) AND 217 (A) OF THE MOTOR CARRIER ACT, 1935, GOVERNING THE PRACTICES AND CHARGES OF COMMON CARRIERS BY MOTOR VEHICLE ENGAGED IN THE TRANSPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS IN INTERSTATE AND FOREIGN COMMERCE

RULE 1. As used in these regulations:

(a) The term "household goods" means used household or personal effects usual to use in a household when a part of such household equipment or supply; used furniture, fixtures, equipment usual to use in a store, office, museum, institution, hospital, or other similar establishments, when part of the equipment or supply of such establishment.

(b) The term "dock charges" means any charge made by a common carrier which owns or operates a storage warehouse, against any other common carrier or shipper, or both, for the use of the platform, warehouse or other loading or unloading facilities at such warehouse, or for the privilege of loading or unloading at such warehouse, whether such charges be in a specific amount or in the form of a charge for labor or otherwise.

(c) Where any other terms used in these regulations are defined in section 203 (a) of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, such definitions shall be controlling. Where the terms are used in the regulations which are neither defined herein nor in said section 203 (a), they shall have the ordinary practical meaning of such terms.

RULE 2. All common carriers engaged in the transportation of household goods in interstate or foreign commerce shall establish, in the manner and form required, by section 217 of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, and by the regulations of the Commission issued pursuant thereto, rates and charges for the transportation of household goods, in interstate or foreign commerce stated in terms of cents per hundred pounds or fractions thereof, and shall not establish rates or charges upon any other basis. All rates and charges applicable to the transportation of household goods established upon any other basis than in cents per hundred pounds or fractions thereof shall be canceled and superseded by rates or charges published in accordance with this rule.

RULE 3. Each such common carrier shall determine the tare weight of each vehicle used in the transportation of household goods by having it weighed by a certified weighmaster or on a certified scale, and when so weighed the gasoline tank on each such vehicle shall be full and the vehicle shall contain all blankets, pads, chains, dollies, hand trucks and other equipment transported with household goods. Each carrier shall retain in its possession subject to inspection, a weighmaster's certificate or weight ticket as to each such vehicle showing the tare weight, the date weighed, and a list of such equipment. The tare weight shall be painted on each such vehicle.

After the vehicle has been loaded it shall be weighed prior to delivery of the shipment and the net weight determined by deducting the tar weight from the loaded weight. The gross weight, the tare weight and the net weight shall be shown on the bill of lading and the freight bill.

RULE 4. Such common carriers shall establish in the manner prescribed by section 217 of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, and the said rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto, the rates and charges to be made for each accessorial service rendered in connection with the transportation of household goods. The tariffs establishing such rates and charges shall separately state each accessorial service to be rendered and the rate and charge therefor. The rate for transportation of such goods shall not include the charge for any accessorial service and no such services other than those for which separate rates and charges have been so established shall be rendered by any such carrier.

RULE 5. No discounts from the rates established pursuant to rule 2 hereof, of any character whatsoever, shall be authorized by tariff provisions, or otherwise allowed by any such common carrier, and no rates or charges shall be established based upon prepayment of charges.

RULE 6. No such common carrier operating a warehouse for the storage of household goods shall charge, collect, or receive a dock charge from any other carrier or shipper of household goods or both of them.

RULE 7. No such common carrier shall act as an agent of any other common carrier in the solicitation of shipments of household goods in interstate or foreign commerce, if such agent carrier shall have established local or joint rates between the same points which are different from those established by its principal.

RULE 8. No such common carrier nor any employee, agent, or representative of a carrier shall act as an agent for an insurance company in insuring, under any type of policy, shipments of household goods to be transported by such carrier in interstate or foreign commerce if such carrier, its employee, representative, or agent receives compensation from such insurance company.

RULE 9. No such common carrier shall issue a receipt or bill of lading for household goods to be transported in interstate or foreign commerce prior to receiving such household goods for such transportation, but must issue such receipt or bill of lading when such household goods have been received.

These rules and regulations shall be effective on and after the ---------- day of ----------, 1938, and tariffs in accordance therewith shall be filed and published, not later than the ---------- day of ----------, 1938.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of March, A. D., 1938.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET FILED BY H. B. SEARS, RESPONDENT, COVERING PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE STAHL-DENNIS TRACT.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND ORDER DESIGNATING TRIAL EXAMINER

H. B. Sears, having filed on January 24, 1938, with the Securities and Exchange Commission, an offering sheet for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from registration for the securities described therein under Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended; and

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe, and, therefore, alleging that said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in a material respect, or contains an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of said Regulations B, to wit:

(1) That the footnote following Division II, Item 20, omits to state that there has been a natural decline in production from the tract involved, which omission renders materially misleading the statement that "The #2 and #2B wells were cleaned, re-tubed and pumps installed during the month of December, 1937, which accounts for the decline in production.";

(2) That at the time the amendment to the offering sheet was filed, production figures for the month of January, 1938, were available and should be set forth under Division II, Item 20 (a), if the information contained in the offering sheet is not to be misleading;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 340 (b) of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that an opportunity for hearing be given to the said respondent for the purpose of determining the material completeness or accuracy of the said offering sheet in the respects in which it is herein alleged to be deficient and/or misleading, and whether the effectiveness of the filing of the said offering sheet shall be suspended; and

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier, an officer of the Commission be, and hereby is, designated as Trial Examiner to preside at such hearing, to continue or adjourn the said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, consider any amendments to said offering sheet as may be filed prior to the conclusion of the hearing, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law; and

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony in this proceeding commence on the 5th day of April, 1938, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., and continue thereafter at such times and places as said Examiner may designate.

Upon completion of testimony in this matter the Examiner is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

THOMAS JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence and third President of the United States, was the advocate of great causes and high ideals of human freedom—principles adopted as fundamental by the American people; and

WHEREAS Thomas Jefferson as lawyer, statesman, philosopher, scientist, farmer, and architect lived a life of such rich diversity that it encompassed the full scope of the knowledge of his time, and—of happy significance to his country—knew how to carry theory into practice, and from youth to a fine old age exemplified in all of his work the principle that the true evidence of life is growth; and

WHEREAS Public Resolution No. 60, 75th Congress, approved August 16, 1937, provides:

That the President of the United States of America is authorized and directed to issue a proclamation calling upon officials of the Government to display the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on April 13 of each year, and inviting the people of the United States to observe the day in schools and churches, or other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies in commemoration of the birth of Thomas Jefferson:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do hereby call upon officials of the Government to display the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on April 13, 1938, and on April 13 of each succeeding year, and do invite the people of the United States to observe the day in schools, churches, and other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies in commemoration of the birth of Thomas Jefferson.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 21'' day of March in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.

INCOME TAX

REGULATIONS 94 AMENDED

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Article 51-2 of Regulations 94, relating to the form of return, is hereby amended by inserting after the first sentence thereof the following:

"For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1936, the return shall be on short Form 1040A if (1) the net income does not exceed $5,000 and is derived solely from interest, dividends and salaries, wages, commissions, bonuses, and other compensation for personal services, and (2) the taxpayer does not own a business or practice a profession on his own account and renders a return on the cash receipts and disbursements basis for the calendar year."

Article 51-2 of Regulations 94 is further amended by striking out the parenthetical clause in the fifth sentence.

Paragraph (b) of article 142-5 of Regulations 94, as amended by Treasury Decision 4791, approved January 14, 1938 (I. R. B. 1938-4, 2), is hereby further amended by striking out of the first sentence thereof "on Form 1040NB"; by striking out of the second sentence thereof "Form 1040NB", and inserting in lieu thereof "Form 1040NB (a)"; and by striking out of the third sentence thereof "Form 1040NB", and inserting in lieu thereof "a return."

This Treasury Decision is issued pursuant to the authority contained in section 62 of the Revenue Act of 1936.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 236]

AN ORDER REQUIRING REPORTS FROM PRODUCERS OF COST AND REALIZATION DATA BEGINNING JANUARY 1, 1938, PURSUANT TO SECTION 10 (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, in order to perform effectively its duties under said Act, is required to be fully informed as to the production and distribution of bituminous coal throughout the United States. Therefore, pursuant to authority conferred by Section 10 of said Act, the Commission orders and directs as follows:

1. Each producer of bituminous coal, whether or not a code member and whether or not engaged in commerce in coal which is subject to the provisions of Section 4 of said Act, shall file, in duplicate, complete reports showing the total costs of the tonnage produced and realization prices derived from the sale of coal, all as more fully set forth and specified in the Commission's Cost Forms No. 3 and No. 3-A, such reports to be made separately for each mine and for each calendar month so as to include all coal produced and all coal sold on and after the 1st day of January, 1938.

2. Each producer shall, within fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and of said forms, file reports for the months of January and February, 1938, with the statistical bureau of the Commission within the district in which the mine or mines reported on are located, and thereafter shall file with such statistical bureau like monthly reports as prescribed in paragraph three of this order.

3. For the month of March, 1938, and for each month thereafter, each producer of bituminous coal shall file in the same manner as prescribed in paragraph one of this order, complete reports showing the total cost of the tonnage produced and the realization prices derived from the sale of coal during the month reported on, which reports shall be filed on or before the 25th day of the next succeeding month.

4. The Commission's Cost Form No. 3 shall be used by producers for all mines having a present actual daily capacity of fifty (50) net tons or more, and by producers for all mines shipping directly by rail or river, regardless of daily capacity.

The Commission's Cost Form No. 3-A shall be used by producers in making reports for mines not shipping directly by rail or river and having a present actual daily capacity of less than fifty net tons.

In the case of any mine not actually in operation during any calendar month subsequent to January 1, 1938, the producer shall report as to such calendar month such data as will show all costs of ownership and maintenance.

5. Reports made by producers on Cost Forms No. 3 and No. 3-A shall be duly verified before an officer authorized to administer oaths, by the producer, if an individual, by a member of the firm if a partnership, or by the president or vice-president of the company if a corporation.

6. The Secretary of the Commission shall cause the proper statistical bureau of the Commission to mail to each known producer within the United States a copy of this order, together with the necessary forms for making the required reports for the months of January and February, 1938, and thereafter on or before the last day of each month, the necessary forms for making reports for that month, and shall make available to all producers additional copies of said forms at the statistical bureau as such bureaus are established in each district under said Act.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 22nd day of March, 1938.

[Order No. 237]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A PUBLIC HEARING FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE TO ENABLE THE COMMISSION TO DETERMINE WHETHER CERTAIN COALS IN THE STATE OF MONTANA ARE SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937, AND FOR THE FURTHER PURPOSE OF HEARING APPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTION AS PROVIDED FOR BY ORDER No. 28

Whereas the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st Sess.) known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, provides (Section 17 (b) that "The term 'bituminous coal' includes all bituminous, semi-bituminous, and sub-bituminous coal and shall exclude lignite, which is defined as a lignitic coal having calorific value in British thermal units of less than seven thousand six hundred per pound and having a natural moisture content in place in the mine of 30 per centum or more"; and

Whereas the Commission deems it necessary to conduct a public hearing in the State of Montana for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Commission to determine whether certain coals in the State of Montana are subject to the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and, further, to hear and determine at the same time all Montana applications for exemption filed pursuant to Order No. 28;

Now, therefore, in order to determine whether the coal in said state or any part thereof does not come within the definition of "bituminous coal" as set forth in Section 17 (b) of the Act, and in order to hear applications filed pursuant to Order No. 28 of the Commission, the Commission hereby orders and directs:

1. That a public hearing shall be held at Northern Hotel in the City of Billings, Montana, on the 25th day of April, 1938, commencing at the hour of 10:00 a. m., for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Commission to determine whether any part of the coal produced in the State of Montana does not come within the purview of Section 17 (b) of the Act.

2. That the public hearing so provided by this order, at the time and place designated, shall include the hearing of the applications for exemption filed by Emil Skoglund, Richland, Montana; Saavi Storaasli, Plentywood, Montana; Lars Linn, Dagmar, Montana; Guy H. Ross, Lambert, Montana; Carl Jensen, Miles City, Montana; Herman Anderson, Westby, Montana; Anderson and Lagerquist, Westby, Montana; Peerless Coal Mine, Broadus, Montana; Fairview Coal Company, Fairview, Montana; Clyde Clapp, Glendive, Montana; Otto A. Pust, Lambert, Montana, pursuant to the Commission's Order No. 28, and, in addition, any other applications for exemption filed for the State of Montana pursuant to Order No. 28.

3. That any producer of coal, whether bituminous, semi-bituminous, subbituminous, anthracite, or lignite, or the Consumers' Counsel, or code members, and all other interested parties may appear at said hearing and submit evidence.

4. Notice of said hearing shall be given under the direction of the Secretary of the Commission by mailing a copy of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to the Secretaries of the respective District Boards, to Emil Skoglund, Richland, Montana; Saavi Storaasli, Plentywood, Montana; Lars Linn, Dagmar, Montana; Guy H. Ross, Lambert, Montana; Carl Jensen, Miles City, Montana; Herman Anderson, Westby, Montana; Anderson and Lagerquist, Westby, Montana; Peerless Coal Mine, Broadus, Montana; Fairview Coal Company, Fairview, Montana; Clyde Clapp, Glendive, Montana; Otto A. Pust, Lambert, Montana, to all known producers of coal in Montana lignite or otherwise, and by publication of a notice upon two consecutive days in two newspapers of general circulation in the State of Montana. The notice published in said newspapers shall contain the date and place of the hearing and a concise statement of the purpose thereof.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 22nd day of March, 1938.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, and in connection with the effectuation of the purposes of Section 7 (a) of said Act in 1938, payments and grants of aid will be made for participation in the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program in Alaska in accordance with the provisions of this bulletin and such modifications thereof or other provisions as may hereafter be made.

The provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program are necessarily subject to such legislation affecting said program as the Congress of the United States may hereafter enact; the making of the payments and grants of aid herein provided are contingent upon such appropriation as the Congress may hereafter provide for such purpose; and the amounts of such payments and grants of aid will necessarily be within the limits finally determined by such appropriation and the extent of national participation. Any increase or decrease in rates of payments and allowances with respect to any crop or other item of payment made because of the extent of participation in the program in connection with such crop or item of payment will not exceed 10 percent.

SECTION I. Allowance in connection with soil-building practices.—The soil-building allowance for a farm is the maximum amount of payment which will be made for carrying out on the farm the soil-building practices specified in Section III. This allowance for any farm will be the sum of the following:

1. $4.00 per acre, not in excess of 10 acres, and $1.00 per acre, in excess of 10 acres, of cropland in the farm;

2. 20 cents per acre, not in excess of 1000 acres, and 10 cents per acre, in excess of 1000 acres, of pasture land included in the farm but not included in the cropland.

SECTION II. Payment in connection with soil-building practices.—Payment will be made, within the limit of the soil-building allowance established for the farm in accordance with Section I, for carrying out in the calendar year 1938 any of the soil-building practices listed in Section III, at the rate of $1.00 per unit of such practices, provided the practice is carried out by such methods and with such kinds of seeds, trees, and other materials as conform to good farming practice, and in accordance with the specifications listed herein and such additional specifications as may be issued by the Director of the Insular Division to assure that the soil-building practices will be performed in workmanlike manner and in accordance with good farming practices for the locality.

No payment will be made with respect to practices carried out with labor, seed, trees, and materials furnished entirely by any Federal or Territorial agency. If a portion of the labor, seed, or other materials (except trees) used in carrying out any practice is furnished by a Federal or Territorial agency and such portion represents one-half or more of the total cost of carrying out such practice, no payment will be made with respect to such practice; if such portion represents less than one-half of the total cost of carrying out such practice, payment will be made with respect to one-half of such practice.

SECTION III. Schedule of soil-building practices.—Each of the following practices in the amounts specified shall be counted as the number of units specified for each:

1. Planting forest trees.—(a) Planting land entirely to forest trees or windbreak trees (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1177, "Care and Improvement of the Farm Woods", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as five units.

(b) Planting forest trees on the sides or crests of gulches or on erosion scars. Each 50 trees will be counted as one unit.

2. Control of erosion by terracing.—Constructing a sufficient amount of continuous terrace to give adequate protection against erosion (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1669, "Farm Terracing", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture), not including more than 300 feet of terrace per acre and not including Mangum type terraces on land of 20 percent or more slope. Each 100 feet of terrace will be counted as one unit.

3. Control of erosion by ditching.—Constructing permanent ditching, on land of 6 percent or more slope, with suitable outlets, and the slope of ditches not exceeding 4 percent, for the diversion of surface water to prevent soil washing, not including any temporary field ditching nor any ditching primarily for purposes of irrigation, sub-surface drainage, or under-drainage, or primarily for any purpose other than the prevention of soil washing (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1606, "Farm Drainage", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each 500 linear feet of ditching will be counted as one unit.

4. Control of gullies.—(a) Filling shallow gullies, not more than 4 feet deep, when accompanied by the construction of adequate check dams properly spaced along the gully to prevent washing out. Each 10 cubic yards of fill or construction will be counted as one unit.

(b) Constructing and maintaining check dams in gullies (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1234, "Gullies: How to Control and Reclaim Them", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each 20 linear feet of dams constructed will be counted as one unit.

(c) Establishing a good stand of erosion-resistant perennial grasses in gullies. Each 4000 square feet will be counted as one unit.

5. Contour cultivation.—(a) Plowing (unless plowed in 1937 in preparation for planting in 1938), planting, and cultivating land of 2 percent or more slope along lines of less than 2 percent slope (see Leaflet No. 85, "Strip-Cropping to Prevent Erosion", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each 2 acres will be counted as one unit.

(b) Listing land along contour lines for fallowing or for planting protective nondepleting cover crops. Each 2 acres will be counted as one unit.

(c) Strip-cropping land of 2 percent or more slope along contour lines with protective nondepleting cover crops or perennial varieties of crops which will prevent soil washing (see Leaflet No. 85, "Strip-Cropping to Prevent Erosion", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as one unit.

6. Planting protective nondepleting cover crops.—(a) Interplanting protective nondepleting cover crops with other crops (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1750, "Summer Crops for Green Manure and Soil Improvement", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as two units.

(b) Planting protective nondepleting cover crops in rotation with other crops or using such cover crops, or oats and peas, for green manuring (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1475, "Soil Productivity as Affected by Crop Rotation", and Farmers' Bulletin No. 1250, "Green Manuring", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as three units.

(c) Planting on properly prepared land perennial varieties of protective nondepleting cover crops for permanent pasture or for cutting green for livestock feed (see Miscellaneous Publication No. 194, "A Pasture Handbook", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as four units.

(d) Seeding pasture land with good seed of adapted varieties of perennial grasses or legumes which do not require preparation of a seed bed. Each 5 pounds of seed sown will be counted as one unit.

7. Applying ground limestone.—Applying ground limestone or its equivalent to acid soil. Each 1000 pounds will be counted as one unit but credit will not be given for the application of more than 2 tons per acre.

8. Applying phosphoric acid and potash.—Applying 20 percent superphosphate or 50 percent muriate of potash, or both, or their equivalent, to, or in connection with the seeding of, protective nondepleting cover crops. Each 100 pounds will be counted as one unit but credit will not be given for the application of more than 200 pounds per acre.

SECTION IV. Division of payments.—The amount of payment earned with respect to any farm shall be paid to the landlord, tenant, or sharecropper who carried out the soil-building practices thereon. If more than one such person contributes to the carrying-out of soil-building practices on the farm in 1938, such payment shall be divided in the proportion that the units contributed by each such person to such practices bears to the total units of such practices carried out on the farm in 1938. Each person contributing to the practice carried out on a particular acreage shall be deemed to have contributed equally to the units of such practice unless such persons establish that their respective contributions thereto were not in equal proportion, in which event such unit shall be divided in the proportion which such persons establish that they contributed thereto.

SECTION V. Increase in small payments.—The total payment computed under Sections I to IV, inclusive, for any person with respect to any farm shall be increased as follows:

(1) Any payment amounting to 71 cents or less shall be increased to $1.00;

(2) Any payment amounting to more than 71 cents but less than $1.00 shall be increased by 40 percent;

(3) Any payment amounting to $1.00 or more shall be increased in accordance with the following schedule:

Amount of payment computed	Increase in payment	Amount of payment computed	Increase in payment
$1.00 to $1.99	$0.40	$32.00 to $32.99	$10.40
$2.00 to $2.99	0.80	$33.00 to $33.99	10.60

[1] Increase to $200.00.

[2] No increase.

SECTION VI. General provisions relating to payments.—A. Payment restricted to effectuation of purposes of the program.—All or any part of any payment which otherwise would be made to any person under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may be withheld if he has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the program.

B. Payment computed and made without regard to claims.—Any payment or share of payment shall be computed and made without regard to questions of title under State law, without deduction of claims for advances (except as provided in subsection C of this Section VI) and without regard to any claim or lien against any crop, or proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any other creditor.

C. Assignments.—Any person who may be entitled to any payment in connection with the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may assign his interest in such payment as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1938. No such assignment will be recognized unless (1) the assignment is made in writing on a form prescribed by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and is acknowledged by the farmer before the county agricultural extension agent and filed with such agent; (2) the farmer files with the assignment an affidavit showing that the assignment is made to pay or secure an indebtedness incurred in connection with financing the making of a 1938 crop and not to pay or secure any pre-existing indebtedness; and (3) the person to whom such assignment is made certifies that the payment is being assigned without discount for such purpose.

Nothing in the provisions of this section shall be construed to give an assignee a right to any payment other than that to which the farmer is entitled nor shall the Secretary or any disbursing agent be subject to any suit or liability if payment is made to the farmer without regard to the existence of any such assignment.

Section VII. Application for payment.—A. Persons eligible to file application.—An application for payment with respect to a farm may be made by any person for whom, under the provisions of Section IV, a share in the payment with respect to the farm may be computed and (1) who at the time of harvest is entitled to share in the crops grown or livestock produced on the farm under a lease or operating agreement, or (2) who is owner of such farm and participates thereon in 1938 in carrying out approved soil-building practices.

B. Time and manner of filing application and information required.—Payment will be made only upon application submitted through the local office of the Insular Division on or before March 31, 1939. The Secretary reserves the right (1) to withhold payment from any person who fails to file any form or furnish any information required with respect to any farm which such person is operating or renting to another person for a share of the crops grown thereon, and (2) to refuse to accept any application for payment if any other form or information required is not submitted to the local office within the time fixed by the regional director. At least two weeks' notice to the public shall be given of the expiration of a time limit for filing prescribed forms. Such notice shall be given by mailing the same to the office of each county agricultural extension agent and making copies of the same available to the press.

SECTION VII. Definitions.—As used herein and in all forms and documents relating to the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program for Alaska, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

Secretary means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

Insular Region means the area included in the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

Insular Division means the division of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in charge of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program for the Insular Region.

Person means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, trust, or estate, and wherever applicable, a State, Territory, or Possession, or a political subdivision or agency thereof.

Farm means all tracts of cropland, pasture land, and other farm land in Alaska, operated by one or more persons in 1938 as a single farming unit, with cropping practices, work stock, farm machinery, management, and labor substantially separate from that for any other such unit, and including any other land which serves as a watershed for the supply of water for such farm and on which any applicable soil-building practice is performed.

Cropland means farm land which is tilled annually or in a regular rotation or is devoted to bearing or non-bearing orchards other than abandoned orchards.

Orchards means the acreage in planted fruit trees, nut trees, vineyards, hops, or bush fruits.

Pasture Land means farm land on which the predominant growth is forage suitable for grazing and on which the number and spacing of any trees or shrubs is such that the land could not fairly be considered as woodland.

Protective Nondepleting Cover Crops means any of the following: (1) all grasses, provided no grain is harvested therefrom, (2) field peas, cow peas, pigeon peas, gandule, soy beans, velvet beans, sword beans, field beans and sweetpotatoes not grown for commercial purposes, crotalaria, provided the vines are not removed from the land, (3) alfalfa, vetch, clover, lespedeza, lupines, and (4) any other crops approved by the Director of the Insular Division.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 22nd day of March, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, and in connection with the effectuation of the purposes of Section 7 (a) of said Act in 1938, payments and grants of aid will be made for participation in the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program in Hawaii in accordance with the provisions of this bulletin and such modifications thereof or other provisions as may hereafter be made.

The provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program are necessarily subject to such legislation affecting said program as the Congress of the United States may hereafter enact; the making of the payments and grants of aid herein provided are contingent upon such appropriation as the Congress may hereafter provide for such purpose; and the amounts of such payments and grants of aid will necessarily be within the limits finally determined by such appropriation and the extent of national participation. Any increase or decrease in rates of payments and allowances with respect to any crop or other item of payment made because of the extent of participation in the program in connection with such crop or item of payment will not exceed 10 percent.

SECTION I. Allowance in connection with soil-building practices.—The soil-building allowance for a farm is the maximum amount of payment which will be made for carrying out on the farm the soil-building practices specified in Section III. This allowance for any farm will be the sum of the following:

1. $4.00 per acre, not in excess of 10 acres, and $1.00 per acre, in excess of 10 acres, of cropland in the farm in excess of the largest acreage devoted to sugarcane at any one time in 1938;

2. 20 cents per acre, not in excess of 1000 acres, and 10 cents per acre, in excess of 1000 acres, of range land and pasture land included in the farm but not included in the cropland.

SECTION II. Payment in connection with soil-building practices.—Payment will be made, within the limit of the soil-building allowance established for the farm in accordance with Section I, for carrying out in the calendar year 1938 any of the soil-building practices listed in Section III, at the rate of $1.00 per unit of such practices, provided the practice is carried out by such methods and with such kinds of seeds, trees, and other materials as conform to good farming practice, and in accordance with the specifications listed herein and such additional specifications as may be issued by the Director of the Insular Division to assure that the soil-building practices will be performed in workmanlike manner and in accordance with good farming practices for the locality.

No payment will be made with respect to practices carried out with labor, seed, trees, and materials furnished entirely by any Federal or Territorial agency. If a portion of the labor, seed, or other materials (except trees) used in carrying out any practice is furnished by a Federal or Territorial agency and such portion represents one-half or more of the total cost of carrying out such practice, no payment will be made with respect to such practice; if such portion represents less than one-half of the total cost of carrying out such practice, payment will be made with respect to one-half of such practice.

SECTION III. Schedule of soil-building practices.—Each of the following practices in the amounts specified shall be counted as the number of units specified for each:

1. Planting forest trees.—(a) Planting land entirely to forest trees or windbreak trees (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1177, "Care and Improvement of the Farm Woods", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as five units.

(b) Planting forest trees on the sides or crests of gulches or on erosion scars. Each 50 trees will be counted as one unit.

(c) Planting shade trees in established coffee groves by planting seedling trees. Each 50 trees will be counted as one unit.

2. Control of erosion by terracing.—(a) Constructing a sufficient amount of continuous terrace to give adequate protection against erosion (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1663, "Farm Terracing", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture), not including more than 300 feet of terrace per acre and not including Mangum type terraces on land of 20 percent or more slope. Each 100 feet of terrace will be counted as one unit.

(b) Constructing, and maintaining during 1938, individual terraces or catch pits around coffee trees. Each 200 terraces or catch pits constructed will be counted as one unit.

3. Control of erosion by ditching.—(a) Constructing permanent ditching, on land of 6 percent or more slope, with suitable outlets, and the slope of ditches not exceeding 4 percent, for the diversion of surface water to prevent soil washing, not including any temporary field ditching nor any ditching primarily for purposes of irrigation, sub-surface drainage, or under-drainage, or primarily for any purpose other than the prevention of soil washing (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1606, "Farm Drainage", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each 500 linear feet of ditching will be counted as one unit.

(b) Constructing temporary field ditching on land of 6 percent or more slope, with suitable outlets and the slope of ditches not exceeding 4 percent, for the diversion of surface water to prevent soil washing, not including any ditching primarily for the purpose of irrigation, sub-surface drainage, or under-drainage, or primarily for any purpose other than the prevention of soil washing. Each 2000 linear feet of ditching will be counted as one unit.

(c) Lining ditches carrying water on a grade of 2 percent or more, including ditches constructed in accordance with the provisions of practice 3 (a). Credit of one unit will be given for each 12 square feet of ditch surface lined with concrete or stone set in mortar, for each 24 square feet of ditch surface lined with plaster, and for each 24 square feet of the inside surface of concrete, iron, or composition pipe used.

4. Control of gullies.—(a) Filling shallow gullies, not more than 4 feet deep, when accompanied by the construction of adequate check dams properly spaced along the gully to prevent washing out. Each 10 cubic yards of fill or construction will be counted as one unit.

(b) Constructing and maintaining check dams in gullies (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1234, "Gullies: How to Control and Reclaim Them", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each 20 linear feet of dams constructed will be counted as one unit.

(c) Establishing a good stand of erosion-resistant perennial grasses in gullies. Each 4000 square feet will be counted as one unit.

5. Contour cultivation.—(a) Plowing (unless plowed in 1937 in preparation for planting in 1938), planting, and cultivating land of 2 percent or more slope along lines of less than 2 percent slope (see Leaflet No. 85, "Strip-Cropping to Prevent Erosion", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each 2 acres will be counted as one unit.

(b) Ridging land, with furrows not more than 40 feet apart and not less than 8 inches vertically between the tops and bottoms thereof, along contour lines or, in areas subject to wind erosion, at approximately right angles to the direction of prevailing winds: Provided, That if the land is of 6 percent or more slope, it is protected from erosion by adequate ditching. Each 4 acres will be counted as one unit for each such ridging operation performed thereon.

(c) Furrowing range land along contour lines with furrows not less than 8 inches in width and 4 inches in depth, dammed at intervals of not more than 100 feet, and with intervals between furrows not more than 25 feet. Each 2 acres will be counted as one unit.

(d) Strip-cropping land of 2 percent or more slope along contour lines with protective nondepleting cover crops or perennial varieties of crops which will prevent soil washing (see Leaflet No. 85, "Strip-Cropping to Prevent Erosion", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as one unit.

6. Planting protective nondepleting cover crops.—(a) Interplanting protective nondepleting cover crops with other crops (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1750, "Summer Crops for Green Manure and Soil Improvement", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as two units.

(b) Planting protective nondepleting cover crops in rotation with other crops or using such cover crops for green manuring (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1475, "Soil Productivity as Affected by Crop Rotation", and Farmers' Bulletin No. 1250, "Green Manuring", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as three units.

(c) Planting on properly prepared land perennial varieties of protective nondepleting cover crops for permanent pasture or for cutting green for livestock feed (see Miscellaneous Publication No. 194, "A Pasture Handbook", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as four units.

(d) Seeding depleted range land with good seed of adapted varieties of perennial grasses or legumes which do not require preparation of a seed bed. Each 5 pounds of seed sown will be counted as one unit.

7. Applying ground limestone.—Applying ground limestone or its equivalent to acid soil. Each ton will be counted as one unit but credit will not be given for the application of more than 2 tons per acre.

8. Applying phosphoric acid and potash.—Applying 20 percent superphosphate or 50 percent muriate of potash, or both, or their equivalent, to, or in connection with the seeding of, protective nondepleting cover crops. Each 100 pounds will be counted as one unit but credit will not be given for the application of more than 200 pounds per acre.

9. Applying coffee pulp.—Applying coffee pulp around coffee trees, to which coffee pulp was not applied in 1937, and to all the trees on the acreage on which the practice is carried out. Each acre so treated will be counted as two units if the average application of pulp is not less than 10 pounds (fermented weight) per tree, and each acre so treated will be counted as three units if the average application of pulp is not less than 15 pounds (fermented weight) per tree. Fresh pulp applied shall be converted to its fermented-weight equivalent on the basis of: 2 pounds of fresh pulp equal 1 pound of fermented pulp.

10. Reduction of fallow period on pineapple land.—Reducing the average fallow period of all the land in the farm planted to pineapples in 1938 below the average fallow period of all the land in the farm planted to pineapples in 1937. The average fallow period with respect to land planted to pineapples in 1937 shall be the weighted average number of months between the date of the first plowing in preparation for planting pineapples in 1937 and the date of such planting but in no event shall such average be regarded as being more than 8 months. The average fallow period with respect to land planted to pineapples in 1938 shall be the weighted average number of months between the date of the first plowing in preparation for planting pineapples in 1938 and the date of such planting: Provided, That any land which is plowed prior to December 31, 1938, in preparation for planting pineapples after December 31, 1938, shall be regarded as planted to pineapples on December 31, 1938, and included in the computation of the average fallow period with respect to land planted to pineapples in 1938, if the inclusion of such land in such computation will result in increasing such average fallow period. Each acre of land planted to pineapples in 1938 (not including land regarded as planted to pineapples pursuant to the proviso of the preceding sentence) will be counted as one-tenth of one unit for each month by which the average fallow period with respect to land planted to pineapples in 1938 is less than the average fallow period with respect to land planted to pineapples in 1937, provided the land fallowed in 1938 is adequately protected from soil washing by ditching in accordance with practice 3 (b) or by ridging in accordance with practice 5 (b).

11. Eradicating range-destroying plants.—Eradicating serious infestations of guava (Psidium guajava), lantana (Lantana camara), pamakani (Eupatorium adonophorum), melastoma (Melastoma decemfidum), pukiawe (Styphelia tameiameiae), Hawaiian holly (Schinus terrabentifolius), firebush (Myrica americana), or joee (Stachytarpheta dichotoma, Verbena bonariensis) on range land. Each acre will be counted as one unit.

12. Restoration of range land and pasture land.—Removing all livestock from range land or pasture land, which was pastured in 1937 (including range land which was withheld from use in 1937 for the purpose of eradicating range-destroying plants), for a continuous period of more than six months between January 1, 1938, and March 31, 1939: Provided, (1) Such practice shall not be applicable to more than 25 percent of such range land and pasture land included in the farm; (2) On lands on which cattle or horses are grazed, the area to be kept free of grazing is fenced and the fence is maintained sufficiently to prevent the entry of livestock; (3) On lands used exclusively for grazing sheep, either the area to be kept free of grazing is fenced and the fence maintained sufficiently to prevent the entry of livestock or the entry of livestock is prevented by herding; (4) The remaining range land and pasture land in the farm is not pastured to such extent as will decrease the stand of grass or injure the forage, tree growth, or watershed; (5) Such practice shall not be applicable to land which normally is not used for grazing during the period in which livestock are excluded; and (6) The operator has submitted to the local office of the Insular Division in writing the designation of the non-grazing area of the farm prior to the carrying-out of such practice. Each acre will be counted as one-tenth of one unit for each month, in excess of six but not in excess of twelve, during which livestock are removed.

13. Development of stock water on range land.—Payment will be made with respect to the following water development practices: Provided, (1) Carrying out the practice results in supplying ample water, at points remote from the ranch headquarters, for the number of livestock using the adjoining range during the grazing season; (2) The purpose of the development is solely to bring about such a distribution of stock on the range as will conserve and restore the vegetative cover thereof; (3) No part of the water impounded or supplied is used for irrigating purposes; (4) The operator has submitted to the local office of the Insular Division in writing a designation of the point at which the practice is to be carried out and the nature thereof; and (5) the carrying-out of the practice has been approved by the officer in charge of such local office prior to the carrying-out of such practice.

(a) Drilling or digging wells, provided a windmill or power pump is installed and the water is conveyed to a tank or storage reservoir. The drilling of an artesian well will qualify for payment provided adequate stock water is made available during the grazing season and the water is conveyed to a tank or trough. Each linear foot of the well will be counted as one unit.

(b) Developing springs or seeps, protecting the source from trampling, and conveying the water in a trough or in a pipe not less than one inch in diameter to a tank. Credit of one unit will be given for each 2 cubic feet of excavation in soil and for each three-fourths of a cubic foot of excavation in rock.

(c) Constructing permanent watersheds of galvanized iron or other approved material for accumulating rainwater for range livestock, provided other methods of furnishing or accumulating water are not available and the water is conveyed to a tank or storage reservoir. Each 40 square feet of shed constructed will be counted as one unit.

(d) Constructing water storage tanks of redwood, steel, or other approved material on adequate foundations. Each 200 gallons of capacity of the tank will be counted as one unit.

14. Soil analysis and field experiment—No payment.—(a) For all plantation farms.—The preparation of a soil map, or maps, showing the principal types of soil included in the cropland on the plantation farm, based on soil analyses sufficient to show the general nature of the textural and chemical composition, at various depths within the zone of root penetration, of each principal soil type, a copy of a map and a report of the analyses to be supplied prior to January 1, 1939, to the local office of the Insular Division: Provided, That if such a map and report have been submitted in accordance with the Agricultural Conservation Program for any year prior to 1938, there shall be supplied only such amendment or addition thereto as is specified by the Director of the Insular Division.

(b) For all plantation farms.—The establishment in 1938 of field experiments on principal types of soil included in the cropland on the plantation farm (not devoted to permanent pasture or to orchards or trees of any kind) in the use of organic matter or chemical fertilizers, the experiments to be properly laid out, controlled, carried to that degree of completion which is practicable during the calendar year 1938, and reported prior to January 1, 1939, to the local office of the Insular Division, each experiment to include not less than five replications of each individual treatment (variable) to be tested, and five replications of the standard check, the number of experiments established on the farm to be determined in accordance with the following table:

For farms on which there is included cropland not devoted to permanent pasture or to orchards or trees of any kind, in an amount—

Less than 800 acres, 1 experiment.
800–1299 acres, inclusive, 2 experiments.
1300–1899 acres, inclusive, 3 experiments.
1900–2499 acres, inclusive, 4 experiments.
2500 acres and over, 5 experiments, plus one additional experiment for each 1000 acres in excess of 2500 acres.

(d) For plantation farms on which field experiments, established under the 1936, 1937, or 1938 Agricultural Conservation Programs, are completed in 1938.—The proper control of such experiments to the time of harvest and a report, prior to March 1, 1939, to the local office of the Insular Division including:

(1) A brief history of each experiment with a summary showing the kind and variety of crop used, the dates of planting and harvesting, the location, type of soil, size of plots, number of replications, quantities and formulas of fertilizer used, whether irrigated or not, and data concerning the presence of disease or pests.

(2) A tabulation of data showing the weight and quality of the produce of each plot and, in the case of sugarcane, an analysis of the cane juice from each plot showing brix, purity, sucrose, and yield of sugar.

(3) A statement of any significant relationships which may appear between the applications of various quantities or kinds of fertilizer and the chemical and textural composition of the soils on which the experiments were carried out.

(4) A statistical analysis of the yield data for each experiment indicating whether the yield differences observed have any statistical significance, and a statement of general conclusions which may be drawn from the data obtained, in the light of this analysis.

SECTION IV. Division of Payments.—The amount of payment earned with respect to any farm shall be paid to the landlord, tenant or sharecropper who carried out the soil-building practices thereon. If more than one such person contributes to the carrying-out of soil-building practices on the farm in 1938, such payment shall be divided in the proportion that the units contributed by each such person to such practices bears to the total units of such practices carried out on the farm in 1938. Each person contributing to the practice carried out on a particular acreage shall be deemed to have contributed equally to the units of such practice unless such persons establish that their respective contributions thereto were not in equal proportion, in which event such unit shall be divided in the proportion which such persons establish that they contributed thereto.

SECTION V. Increase in Small Payments.—The total payment computed under Sections I to IV, inclusive, for any person with respect to any farm shall be increased as follows:

(1) Any payment amounting to 71 cents or less shall be increased to $1.00;

(2) Any payment amounting to more than 71 cents but less than $1.00 shall be increased by 40 percent;

(3) Any payment amounting to $1.00 or more shall be increased in accordance with the following schedule.

Amount of payment computed	Increase in payment	Amount of payment computed	Increase in payment
$1.00 to $1.99	$0.40	$32.00 to $32.99	$10.40
$2.00 to $2.99	0.80	$33.00 to $33.99	10.60
$3.00 to $3.99	1.20	$34.00 to $34.99	10.80
$4.00 to $4.99	1.60	$35.00 to $35.99	11.00
$5.00 to $5.99	2.00	$36.00 to $36.99	11.20
$6.00 to $6.99	2.40	$37.00 to $37.99	11.40
$7.00 to $7.99	2.80	$38.00 to $38.99	11.60
$8.00 to $8.99	3.20	$39.00 to $39.99	11.80
$9.00 to $9.99	3.60	$40.00 to $40.99	12.00
$10.00 to $10.99	4.00	$41.00 to $41.99	12.10
$11.00 to $11.99	4.40	$42.00 to $42.99	12.20
$12.00 to $12.99	4.80	$43.00 to $43.99	12.30
$13.00 to $13.99	5.20	$44.00 to $44.99	12.40
$14.00 to $14.99	5.60	$45.00 to $45.99	12.50
$15.00 to $15.99	6.00	$46.00 to $46.99	12.60
$16.00 to $16.99	6.40	$47.00 to $47.99	12.70

$22.00 to $22.99	8.40	$53.00 to $53.99	13.30
$23.00 to $23.99	8.60	$54.00 to $54.99	13.40
$24.00 to $24.99	8.80	$55.00 to $55.99	13.50
$25.00 to $25.99	9.00	$56.00 to $56.99	13.60
$26.00 to $26.99	9.20	$57.00 to $57.99	13.70
$27.00 to $27.99	9.40	$58.00 to $58.99	13.80
$28.00 to $28.99	9.60	$59.00 to $59.99	13.90
$29.00 to $29.99	9.80	$60.00 to $185.99	14.00
$30.00 to $30.99	10.00	$186.00 to $199.99	(1)
$31.00 to $31.99	10.20	$200.00 and over	(2)

[1] Increase to $200.00.
[2] No increase.

SECTION VI. General Provisions Relating to Payments.—A. Payment restricted to effectuation of purposes of the program.—All or any part of any payment which otherwise would be made to any person under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may be withheld if he has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the program.

B. Payment computed and made without regard to claims.—Any payment or share of payment shall be computed and made without regard to questions of title under State law, without deduction of claims for advances (except as provided in subsection C of this Section VI) and without regard to any claim or lien against any crop, or proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any other creditor.

C. Assignments.—Any person who may be entitled to any payment in connection with the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may assign his interest in such payment as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1938. No such assignment will be recognized unless (1) the assignment is made in writing on a form prescribed by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and is acknowledged by the farmer before the county agricultural extension agent and filed with such agent; (2) the farmer files with the assignment an affidavit showing that the assignment is made to pay or secure an indebtedness incurred in connection with financing the making of a 1938 crop and not to pay or secure any pre-existing indebtedness; and (3) the person to whom such assignment is made certifies that the payment is being assigned without discount for such purpose.

Nothing in the provisions of this section shall be construed to give an assignee a right to any payment other than that to which the farmer is entitled nor shall the Secretary or any disbursing agent be subject to any suit or liability if payment is made to the farmer without regard to the existence of any such assignment.

SECTION VII. Application for Payment.—A. Persons eligible to file applications.—An application for payment with respect to a farm may be made by any person for whom, under the provisions of Section IV, a share in the payment with respect to the farm may be computed and (1) who at the time of harvest is entitled to share in the crops grown or livestock produced on the farm under a lease or operating agreement, or (2) who is owner of such farm and participates thereon in 1938 in carrying out approved soil-building practices.

B. Time and manner of filing application and information required.—Payment will be made only upon application submitted through the local office of the Insular Division on or before March 31, 1939. The Secretary reserves the right (1) to withhold payment from any person who fails to file any form or furnish any information required with respect to any farm which such person is operating or renting to another person for a share of the crops grown thereon, and (2) to refuse to accept any application for payment if any other form or information required is not submitted to the local office within the time fixed by the regional director. At least two weeks' notice to the public shall be given of the expiration of a time limit for filing prescribed forms. Such notice shall be given by mailing the same to the office of each county agricultural extension agent and making copies of the same available to the press.

C. Applications for plantation farms.—No payment will be made under this program with respect to an application pertaining to any plantation farm except on the condition that practice 14 of Section III be performed in 1938 in the manner applicable to such farm.

SECTION VIII. Definitions.—As used herein and in all forms and documents relating to the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program for Hawaii, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

Secretary means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

Insular Region means the area included in the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

Insular Division means the division of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in charge of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program for the Insular Region.

Person means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, trust, or estate, and, wherever applicable, a State, Territory, or Possession, or a political subdivision or agency thereof.

Farm means all tracts of cropland, range land, and other farm land in Hawaii, operated by one or more persons in 1938 as a single farming unit, with cropping practices, work stock, farm machinery, management, and labor substantially separate from that for any other such unit, and including any other land which serves as a watershed for the supply of water for such farm and on which any applicable soil-building practice is performed.

Plantation Farm means any farm comprising more than 500 acres of cropland, not devoted to permanent pasture or to orchards or trees of any kind.

Principal Type of Soil means for any plantation farm each soil type which comprises either 200 acres of cropland on such farm or 30 percent of the total cropland on such farm.

Cropland means farm land which is tilled annually or in a regular rotation or is devoted to bearing or nonbearing orchards other than abandoned orchards.

Orchards means the acreage in planted fruit trees, nut trees, coffee trees, banana plants, or vineyards.

Pasture Land means farm land (other than range land) on which the predominant growth is forage suitable for grazing and on which the number and spacing of any trees or shrubs is such that the land could not fairly be considered as woodland.

Range Land means any land which produces forage grazed by range livestock without cultivation or general irrigation. Range land shall not include any land for which the Territory tax-assessment valuation is less than 50 cents per acre.

Protective Nondepleting Cover Crops means any of the following: (1) all grasses, provided no grain is harvested therefrom, (2) field peas, cow peas, pigeon peas, gandule, soy beans, velvet beans, sword beans, field beans and sweet-potatoes not grown for commercial purposes, crotalaria, provided the vines are not removed from the land, (3) alfalfa, vetch, clover, lespedeza, lupines, Koa Haole (Lucaena Glauca), and (4) any other crops approved by the Director of the Insular Division.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 22nd day of March 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, and in connection with the effectuation of the purposes of Section 7 (a) of said Act in 1938, payments and grants of aid will be made for participation in the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program in Puerto Rico in accordance with the provisions of this bulletin and such modifications thereof or other provisions as may hereafter be made.

The provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program are necessarily subject to such legislation affecting said program as the Congress of the United States may hereafter enact; the making of the payments and grants of aid herein provided are contingent upon such appropriation as the Congress may hereafter provide for such purpose; and the amounts of such payments and grants of aid will necessarily be within the limits finally determined by such appropriation and the extent of national participation. Any increase or decrease in rates of payments and allowances with respect to any crop or other item of payment made because of the extent of participation in the program in connection with such crop or item of payment will not exceed 10 percent.

SECTION I. Allowance in connection with soil-building practices.—The soil-building allowance for a farm is the maximum amount of payment which will be made for carrying out on the farm the soil-building practices specified in Section III. This allowance for any farm will be the sum of the following:

1. $4.00 per acre, not in excess of 10 acres, and $1.00 per acre, in excess of 10 acres, of cropland in the farm in excess of the sum of (1) the largest acreage devoted to sugarcane at any one time in 1938 and (2) the tobacco acreage allotment established for the farm.

2. 20 cents per acre, not in excess of 1000 acres, and 10 cents per acre, in excess of 1000 acres, of pasture land included in the farm but not included in the cropland.

SECTION II. Payment in connection with soil-building practices.—Payment will be made, within the limit of the soil-building allowance established for the farm in accordance with Section I, for carrying out in the calendar year 1938 any of the soil-building practices listed in Section III, at the rate of $1.00 per unit of such practices, provided the practice is carried out by such methods and with such kinds of seeds, trees, and other materials as conform to good farming practice, and in accordance with the specifications listed herein and such additional specifications as may be issued by the Director of the Insular Division to assure that the soil-building practices will be performed in workmanlike manner and in accordance with good farming practices for the locality.

No payment will be made with respect to practices carried out with labor, seed, trees, and materials furnished entirely by any Federal agency or any agency of Puerto Rico. If a portion of the labor, seed, or other materials (except trees) used in carrying out any practice is furnished by a Federal agency or an agency of Puerto Rico and such portion represents one-half or more of the total cost of carrying out such practice, no payment will be made with respect to such practice; if such portion represents less than one-half of the total cost of carrying out such practice, payment will be made with respect to one-half of such practice.

SECTION III. Schedule of soil-building practices.—Each of the following practices in the amounts specified shall be counted as the number of units specified for each:

1. Planting forest trees.—(a) Planting land entirely to forest trees or windbreak trees (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1177, "Care and Improvement of the Farm Woods", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as five units.

(b) Planting shade trees in established coffee groves by planting seedling trees. Each 50 trees will be counted as one unit.

(c) Cultivating, protecting, improving, and maintaining a good stand of shade trees planted in coffee groves prior to 1938. Each acre will be counted as one unit.

(d) Planting land to a normal number of Erythrina for use as support and shade for vanilla, by planting cuttings on suitably prepared land. Each acre will be counted as five units.

2. Control of erosion by terracing.—(a) Constructing a sufficient amount of continuous terrace to give adequate protection against erosion (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1669, "Farm Terracing", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture), not including more than 300 feet of terrace per acre and not including Mangum type terraces on land of 20 percent or more slope. Each 100 feet of terrace will be counted as one unit.

(b) Constructing, and maintaining during 1938, individual terraces or catch pits around coffee trees. Each 200 terraces or catch pits constructed will be counted as one unit.

(c) Maintaining throughout 1938 individual terraces or catch pits constructed around coffee trees prior to 1938. Each 500 terraces or catch pits maintained will be counted as one unit.

3. Control of erosion by ditching.—(a) Constructing permanent ditching, on land of 6 percent or more slope, with suitable outlets, and the slope of ditches not exceeding 4 percent, for the diversion of surface water to prevent soil washing, not including any temporary field ditching nor any ditching primarily for purposes of irrigation, sub-surface drainage, or under-drainage, or primarily for any purpose other than the prevention of soil washing (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1606, "Farm Drainage", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each 500 linear feet of ditching will be counted as one unit.

(b) Constructing temporary field ditching on land of 6 percent or more slope, with suitable outlets and the slope of ditches not exceeding 4 percent, for the diversion of surface water to prevent soil washing, not including any ditching primarily for the purpose of irrigation, subsurface drainage, or under-drainage, or primarily for any purpose other than the prevention of soil washing. Each 2000 linear feet of ditching will be counted as one unit.

(c) Lining ditches carrying water on a grade of 2 percent or more, including ditches constructed in accordance with the provisions of practice 3 (a). Credit of one unit will be given for each 12 square feet of ditch surface lined with concrete or stone set in mortar, for each 24 square feet of ditch surface lined with plaster, and for each 24 square feet of the inside surface of concrete, iron, or composition pipe used.

4. Control of gullies.—(a) Filling shallow gullies, not more than 4 feet deep, when accompanied by the construction of adequate check dams properly spaced along the gully to prevent washing out. Each 10 cubic yards of fill or construction will be counted as one unit.

(b) Constructing and maintaining check dams in gullies (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1234, "Gullies: How to Control and Reclaim Them", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each 20 linear feet of dams constructed will be counted as one unit.

(c) Establishing a good stand of erosion-resistant perennial grasses in gullies. Each 4000 square feet will be counted as one unit.

5. Contour cultivation.—(a) Plowing (unless plowed in 1937 in preparation for planting in 1938), planting, and cultivating land of 2 percent or more slope along lines of less than 2 percent slope (see Leaflet No. 85, "Strip-Cropping to Prevent Erosion", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each 2 acres will be counted as one unit.

(b) Listing land along contour lines for fallowing or for planting protective nondepleting cover crops. Each 2 acres will be counted as one unit.

(c) Strip-cropping land of 2 percent or more slope along contour lines with protective nondepleting cover crops or perennial varieties of crops which will prevent soil washing (see Leaflet No. 85, "Strip-Cropping to Prevent Erosion", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as one unit.

6. Planting protective nondepleting cover crops.—(a) Interplanting protective nondepleting cover crops with other crops (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1750, "Summer Crops for Green Manure and Soil Improvement", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as two units.

(b) Planting protective nondepleting cover crops in rotation with other crops or using such cover crops for green manuring (see Farmers' Bulletin No. 1475, "Soil Productivity as Affected by Crop Rotation", and Farmers' Bulletin No. 1250, "Green Manuring", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as three units.

(c) Planting on properly prepared land perennial varieties of protective nondepleting cover crops for permanent pasture or for cutting green for livestock feed (see Miscellaneous Publication No. 194, "A Pasture Handbook", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each acre will be counted as four units.

(d) Seeding pasture land with good seed of adapted varieties of perennial grasses or legumes which do not require preparation of a seed bed. Each acre seeded will be counted as two units.

7. Applying ground limestone.—Applying ground limestone or its equivalent to acid soil. Each ton will be counted as one unit but credit will not be given for the application of more than 2 tons per acre.

8. Applying phosphoric acid and potash.—Applying 20 percent superphosphate or 50 percent muriate of potash, or both, or their equivalent, to, or in connection with the seeding of, protective nondepleting cover crops. Each 100 pounds will be counted as one unit but credit will not be given for the application of more than 200 pounds per acre.

9. Applying coffee pulp.—Applying coffee pulp around coffee trees, to which coffee pulp was not applied in 1937, and to all the trees on the acreage on which the practice is carried out at the rate of not less than an average of 3 pounds (fermented weight) per tree. Each acre so treated will be counted as two units. Fresh pulp applied shall be converted to its fermented-weight equivalent on the basis of: 2 pounds of fresh pulp equal 1 pound of fermented pulp.

10. Making compost.—Making compost for use on land on which food crops for home consumption are grown (see Miscellaneous Publication No. 136, "Conservation of Fertilizer Materials from Minor Sources", published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture). Each 10 cubic yards will be counted as one unit but credit will not be given for more than 10 units on any farm.

11. Soil analysis and field experiment—No payment—(a) For all plantation farms.—The preparation of a soil map, or maps, showing the principal types of soil included in the cropland on the plantation farm, based on soil analyses sufficient to show the general nature of the textural and chemical composition, at various depths within the zone of root penetration, of each principal soil type, a copy of a map and a report of the analyses to be supplied prior to January 1, 1939, to the local office of the Insular Division: Provided, That if such a map and report have been submitted in accordance with the Agricultural Conservation Program for any year prior to 1938, there shall be supplied only such amendment or addition thereto as is specified by the director of the Insular Division.

(b) For all plantation farms.—The establishment in 1938 of field experiments on principal types of soil included in the cropland on the plantation farm (not devoted to permanent pasture or to orchards or trees of any kind) in the use of organic matter or chemical fertilizers, the experiments to be properly laid out, controlled, carried to that degree of completion which is practicable during the calendar year 1938, and reported prior to January 1, 1939, to the local office of the Insular Division, each experiment to include not less than five replications of each individual treatment (variable) to be tested, and five replications of the standard check, the number of experiments established on the farm to be determined in accordance with the following table:

For farms on which there is included cropland not devoted to permanent pasture or to orchards or trees of any kind, in an amount—

Less than 800 acres, 1 experiment.
800–1299 acres, inclusive, 2 experiments.
1300–1899 acres, inclusive, 3 experiments.
1900–2499 acres, inclusive, 4 experiments.
2500 acres and over, 5 experiments, plus one additional experiment for each 1000 acres in excess of 2500 acres.

Program, are not completed during the calendar year 1938.—The proper control and continuation of such experiments during the calendar year 1938.

(d) For plantation farms on which field experiments, established under the 1936, 1937, or 1938 Agricultural Conservation Programs, are completed in 1938.—The proper control of such experiments to the time of harvest and a report, prior to March 1, 1939, to the local office of the Insular Division including:

(1) A brief history of each experiment with a summary showing the kind and variety of crop used, the dates of planting and harvesting, the location, type of soil, size of plots, number of replications, quantities and formulas of fertilizer used, whether irrigated or not, and data concerning the presence of disease or pests.

(2) A tabulation of data showing the weight and quality of the produce of each plot, and in the case of sugarcane, an analysis of the cane juice from each plot showing brix, purity, sucrose, and yield of sugar.

(3) A statement of any significant relationships which may appear between the application of various quantities or kinds of fertilizer and the chemical and textural composition of the soils on which the experiments were carried out.

(4) A statistical analysis of the yield data for each experiment indicating whether the yield differences observed have any statistical significance, and a statement of general conclusions which may be drawn from the data obtained, in the light of this analysis.

SECTION IV. Payment in connection with tobacco acreage allotments.—Payment will be made with respect to any farm at the rate of $6.00 for each acre in the tobacco acreage allotment established for the farm. The payment with respect to any farm shall be subject to a deduction of $18.00 for each acre of tobacco planted on the farm in the 1938–1939 tobacco season in excess of the tobacco acreage allotment established for the farm.

SECTION V. Division of payments.—A. Payments and deductions in connection with tabacco acreage allotments.—The net payment or net deduction computed for any farm with respect to the tobacco acreage allotment shall be divided among the landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers in the same proportion (as indicated by their acreage shares) that such persons are entitled, at the time the crop is harvested, to share in the proceeds of the tobacco grown on the farm in the 1938–1939 tobacco season. In the event that tobacco is not harvested on the farm in the 1938–1939 tobacco season the payment, if any, with respect to the tobacco acreage allotment shall be divided among the landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers in the same proportion that such persons would have shared in the proceeds of such crop had tobacco been harvested on the farm in the 1938–1939 tobacco season.

B. Payments in connection with soil-building practices.—The amount of payment earned in connection with soil-building practices carried out on any farm shall be paid to the landlord, tenant, or sharecropper who carried out the soil-building practices. If more than one such person contributes to the carrying-out of soil-building practices on the farm in 1938, such payment shall be divided in the proportion that the units contributed by each such person to such practices bears to the total units of such practices carried out on the farm in 1938. Each person contributing to the practice carried out on a particular acreage shall be deemed to have contributed equally to the units of such practice unless such persons establish that their respective contributions thereto were not in equal proportion, in which event such unit shall be divided in the proportion which such persons establish that they contributed thereto.

C. Proration of net deductions.—If with respect to any farm the sum of the net payments computed for all persons on the farm exceeds the sum of the net deductions computed for all persons on the farm, the net deduction computed for any person on the farm shall be prorated among the other persons on the farm for whom a net payment is computed in the proportion in which the net payment computed for any person is of the sum of the net payments computed for all persons on the farm. If, with respect to any farm the sum of the net deductions computed for all persons on the farm equals or exceeds the sum of the net payments computed for all persons on the farm, no payment will be made to such farm and the amount of such net deductions in excess of the net payments shall be prorated among the persons on the farm in the proportion which the net deduction computed for any person is of the sum of the net deductions computed for all persons on the farm.

SECTION VI. Increase in small payments.—The total payment computed under Sections I to V, inclusive, for any person with respect to any farm shall be increased as follows:

(1) Any payment amounting to 71 cents or less shall be increased to $1.00;

(2) Any payment amounting to more than 71 cents but less than $1.00 shall be increased by 40 percent;

(3) Any payment amounting to $1.00 or more shall be increased in accordance with the following schedule:

Amount of payment computed	Increase in payment	Amount of payment computed	Increase in payment
$1.00 to $1.99	$0.40	$32.00 to $32.99	$10.40
$2.00 to $2.99	0.80	$33.00 to $33.99	10.60
$3.00 to $3.99	1.20	$34.00 to $34.99	10.80
$4.00 to $4.99	1.60	$35.00 to $35.99	11.00
$5.00 to $5.99	2.00	$36.00 to $36.99	11.20
$6.00 to $6.99	2.40	$37.00 to $37.99	11.40
$7.00 to $7.99	2.80	$38.00 to $38.99	11.60
$8.00 to $8.99	3.20	$39.00 to $39.99	11.80
$9.00 to $9.99	3.60	$40.00 to $40.99	12.00
$10.00 to $10.99	4.00	$41.00 to $41.99	12.10
$11.00 to $11.99	4.40	$42.00 to $42.99	12.20
$12.00 to $12.99	4.80	$43.00 to $43.99	12.30
$13.00 to $13.99	5.20	$44.00 to $44.99	12.40
$14.00 to $14.99	5.60	$45.00 to $45.99	12.50
$15.00 to $15.99	6.00	$46.00 to $46.99	12.60
$16.00 to $16.99	6.40	$47.00 to $47.99	12.70
$17.00 to $17.99	6.80	$48.00 to $48.99	12.80
$18.00 to $18.99	7.20	$49.00 to $49.99	12.90
$19.00 to $19.99	7.60	$50.00 to $50.99	13.00
$20.00 to $20.99	8.00	$51.00 to $51.99	13.10
$21.00 to $21.99	8.20	$52.00 to $52.99	13.20
$22.00 to $22.99	8.40	$53.00 to $53.99	13.30
$23.00 to $23.99	8.60	$54.00 to $54.99	13.40
$24.00 to $24.99	8.80	$55.00 to $55.99	13.50
$25.00 to $25.99	9.00	$56.00 to $56.99	13.60
$26.00 to $26.99	9.20	$57.00 to $57.99	13.70
$27.00 to $27.99	9.40	$58.00 to $58.99	13.80
$28.00 to $28.99	9.60	$59.00 to $59.99	13.90
$29.00 to $29.99	9.80	$60.00 to $185.99	14.00
$30.00 to $30.99	10.00	$186.00 to $199.99	(1)
$31.00 to $31.99	10.20	$200.00 and over	(2)

[1] Increase to $200.00.
[2] No increase.

SECTION VII. Deductions incurred on other farms.—If the deductions computed under Section IV with respect to any farm exceed the payment computed under Sections I to III, inclusive, with respect to such farm, any person's share of the amount by which such deductions exceed such payments shall be deducted from such person's share of the payments which would otherwise be made to him with respect to any other farms in Puerto Rico.

SECTION VIII. Acreage allotments for tobacco.—The acreage allotment of tobacco for Puerto Rico shall be 42,000 acres and the tobacco acreage allotments established for all farms in Puerto Rico shall not exceed such amount. Acreage allotments of tobacco shall be determined for farms for which a base acreage for tobacco was, or could have been, established under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program on the basis of: (1) the sum of the acreage planted to tobacco on the farm in the 1937–1938 tobacco season (not exceeding such base acreage for tobacco) and the acreage diverted from the production of tobacco under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program; (2) land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; (3) crop rotation practices; and (4) the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco. Not more than 3 percent of the acreage allotment of tobacco for Puerto Rico shall be apportioned to farms for which a base acreage for tobacco could not have been established under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program, on the basis of the acreage, if any, planted to tobacco on the farm in the 1937–1938 tobacco season and the factors specified in clauses (2), (3), and (4) of the preceding sentence.

SECTION IX. General provisions relating to payments.—A. Payment restricted to effectuation of purposes of the program.—All or any part of any payment which otherwise would be made to any person under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may be withheld if he has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the program.

B. Payment computed and made without regard to claims.—Any payment or share of payment shall be computed and made without regard to questions of title under State law, without deductions of claims for advances (except as provided in subsection D of this Section IX) and without regard to any claim or lien against any crop, or proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any other creditor.

C. Changes in leasing and cropping agreements, reduction in number of tenants, and other devices.—If on any farm in 1938 any change of the arrangements which existed on the farm in 1937 is made between the landlord and the tenants or sharecroppers and such change would cause a greater proportion of the payments to be made to the landlord under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program than would have been made to the landlord for performance on the farm under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program, payments to the landlord under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program with respect to the farm shall not be greater than the amount that would have been paid to the landlord if the arrangements which existed on the farm in 1937 had been continued in 1938, if the local office of the Insular Division certifies that the change is not justified and disapproves such change.

If on any farm the number of sharecroppers or share tenants in 1938 is less than the average number on the farm during the years 1935 to 1937, inclusive, and such reduction would increase the payments that would otherwise be made to the landlord, such payments to the landlord shall not be greater than the amount that would otherwise be made if the local office of the Insular Division certifies that the reduction is not justified and disapproves such reduction.

If the Agricultural Adjustment Administration finds that any person who files an application for payment pursuant to the provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program has employed any other scheme or device, the effect of which would be or has been to deprive any other person of any payment under any agricultural conservation program to which such other person would normally be entitled, the Secretary may withhold in whole or in part from the person participating in or employing such a scheme or device, or require such person to refund in whole or in part, the amount of any payment which has been or would otherwise be made to such person in connection with the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program.

D. Assignments.—Any person who may be entitled to any payment in connection with the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may assign his interest in such payment as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1938. No such assignment will be recognized unless (1) the assignment is made in writing on a form prescribed by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and is acknowledged by the farmer before the local agricultural extension agent and filed with such agent; (2) the farmer files with the assignment an affidavit showing that the assignment is made to pay or secure an indebtedness incurred in connection with financing the making of a 1938 crop and not to pay or secure any pre-existing indebtedness; and (3) the person to whom such assignment is made certifies that the payment is being assigned without discount for such purpose.

Nothing in the provisions of this section shall be construed to give an assignee a right to any payment other than that to which the farmer is entitled nor shall the Secretary or any disbursing agent be subject to any suit or liability if payment is made to the farmer without regard to the existence of any such assignment.

SECTION X. Application for payment.—A. Persons eligible to file applications.—An application for payment with respect to a farm may be made by any person for whom, under the provisions of Section V, a share in the payment with respect to the farm may be computed and (1) who at the time of harvest is entitled to share in the crops grown or livestock produced on the farm under a lease or operating agreement, or (2) who is owner of such farm and participates thereon in 1938 in carrying out approved soil-building practices.

B. Time and manner of filing application and information required.—Payment will be made only upon application submitted through the local office of the Insular Division on or before March 31, 1939. The Secretary reserves the right (1) to withhold payment from any person who fails to file any form or furnish any information required with respect to any farm which such person is operating or renting to another person for a share of the crops grown thereon, and (2) to refuse to accept any application for payment if any other form or information required is not submitted to the local office within the time fixed by the regional director. At least two weeks' notice to the public shall be given of the expiration of a time limit for filing prescribed forms. Such notice shall be given by mailing the same to the office of each local agricultural extension agent and making copies of the same available to the press.

C. Application for plantation farms.—No payment will be made under this program with respect to an application pertaining to any plantation farm except on the condition that practice 11 of Section III be performed in 1938 in the manner applicable to such farm.

D. Land area.—All calculations involving land area will be made on the basis that one cuerda equals 0.97 acre.

SECTION XI. Definitions.—As used herein and in all forms and documents relating to the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program for Puerto Rico, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

Secretary means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

Insular Region means the area included in the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

Insular Division means the division of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in charge of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program for the Insular Region.

Person means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, trust, or estate, and, wherever applicable, a State, Territory, or Possession, or a political subdivision or agency thereof.

Farm means all tracts of cropland, pasture land, and other farm land in Puerto Rico, operated by one or more persons in 1938 as a single farming unit, with cropping practices, work stock, farm machinery, management, and labor substantially separate from that for any other such unit, and including any other land which serves as a watershed for the supply of water for such farm and on which any applicable soil-building practice is performed.

Plantation Farm means any farm comprising more than 500 acres of cropland, not devoted to permanent pasture or to orchards or trees of any kind.

Principal Type of Soil means for any plantation farm each soil type which comprises either 200 acres of cropland on such farm or 30 percent of the total cropland on such farm.

Cropland means farm land which is tilled annually or in a regular rotation or is devoted to bearing or nonbearing orchards other than abandoned orchards.

Orchards means the acreage in planted fruit trees, nut trees, coffee trees, banana plants, vineyards, or bush fruits.

Pasture Land means farm land on which the predominant growth is forage suitable for grazing and one which the number and spacing of any trees or shrubs is such that the land could not fairly be considered as woodland.

Tobacco Season means the period beginning on September 1 of one calendar year and ending on March 31 of the succeeding calendar year.

Protective Nondepleting Cover Crops means any of the following: (1) all grasses, provided no grain is harvested therefrom, (2) field peas, cow peas, pigeon peas, gandule, soy beans, velvet beans, sword beans, field beans and sweetpotatoes not grown for commercial purposes, crotalaria, provided the vines are not removed from the land, (3) alfalfa, vetch, clover, lespedeza, lupines, and (4) any other crops approved by the Director of the Insular Division.

DETERMINATION OF FARMING PRACTICES TO BE CARRIED OUT IN CONNECTION WITH THE PRODUCTION OF SUGARCANE DURING THE CROP YEAR 1938 FOR THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII

Whereas Section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937 authorizes the Secretary to make payments upon certain conditions with respect to sugar or liquid sugar recoverable from the sugarcane grown on a farm for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar; and

Whereas the condition with respect to farming practices, as stated in subsection (e) of section 301 of the said act, is:

That there shall be carried out on the farm such farming practices in connection with the production of sugar beets and sugarcane during the year in which the crop was harvested with respect to which a payment is applied for, as the Secretary may determine, pursuant to this subsection, for preserving and improving fertility of the soil and for preventing soil erosion, such practices to be consistent with the reasonable standards of the farming community in which the farm is situated.

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine that the requirements of subsection (e) of section 301 of the said act shall be deemed to have been met with respect to a farm in the Territory of Hawaii if the following farming practices have been carried out during the calendar year 1938:

The application to land on which sugarcane is growing at any time during the calendar year 1938 of an amount of chemical fertilizer per acre of such land fertilized, which contains an average quantity of available plant food, in any form or combination of nitrogen, phosphoric acid, or potash, equal to not less than the greater of either (1) 150 pounds, or (2) 80 percent of the average, for 1936 or 1937, whichever was smaller, quantity which was applied on land on which sugarcane was growing and on which fertilizer was applied, during such year: Provided, That the number of acres of land on which sugarcane is growing and on which fertilizer is applied during 1938 is not less than the number of acres on the farm on which there is growing at any time during 1938 a crop of sugarcane of less than six months growth.

"Chemical fertilizer" as used herein means commercial fertilizer which contains not less than 15 pounds of some form of available nitrogen, phosphoric acid, or potash per hundred pounds of gross weight.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 22nd day of March, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH REFERENCE TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS NO. 7, RELATING TO LABELING AND ADVERTISING OF MALT BEVERAGES

TO CONSIDER REVISION OF THE STANDARDS FOR ALE, PORTER, AND STOUT, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

MARCH 23, 1938.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended:

Notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held on Monday, April 25, 1938, at 10:00 A. M. at the Mayflower Hotel, Connecticut Avenue and DeSales Street, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of taking evidence with reference to proposed amendments to Regulations No. 7, Relating to Labeling and Advertising of Malt Beverages:

1. To amend Article II, Section 24, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to define "ale", "porter", and "stout" on a basis other than that of alcoholic content.

2. To amend Article II, Section 24, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to provide that a malt beverage for which there is no class or type designation known to the trade shall bear a distinctive or fanciful name, together with a truthful and adequate statement of composition.

3. To amend Article II, Section 29, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to regulate references in labeling or advertising to vitamin content and similar properties of malt beverages.

4. To amend Article II, Section 29, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to provide that the labels for imported Pilsener beer not brewed at Pilsen, Czechoslovakia, shall clearly indicate that such product was not brewed at Pilsen.

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH REFERENCE TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS NO. 4, RELATING TO LABELING AND ADVERTISING OF WINE

TO CONSIDER REVISIONS PERMITTING THE SUBSTITUTION OF APPROPRIATE NOMENCLATURE IN LIEU OF THE MANDATORY CLASS DESIGNATION "LIGHT WINE", TO REVISE THE REQUIREMENTS RELATIVE TO DOMESTIC AND OTHER APPELLATIONS OF ORIGIN, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

MARCH 23, 1938.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended:

Notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held on Wednesday, April 27, 1938, at 10 A. M. at the Mayflower Hotel, Connecticut Avenue and DeSales Street, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of taking evidence with reference to proposed amendments of Regulations No. 4, Relating to Labeling and Advertising of Wine:

1. To amend Article II, Section 21, Class 1, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to authorize the use of the terms "red wine", "white wine", "grape wine", and similar appropriate nomenclature, in lieu of the class designation "light wine."

2. To amend Article II, Section 21, Class 1, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to include therein "pure sweet wine" as defined in Section 43 of the Act of October 1, 1890, as amended.

3. To amend Article II, Section 21, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to clarify the phrase "permitted by internal-revenue laws" and to specify the practices permissible thereunder.

4. To amend Article II, Section 21, and other pertinent sections of the regulations dealing with "citrus fruit wine", "fortified citrus fruit wine", "fruit wine", "fortified fruit wine", "vegetable wine" and "fortified vegetable wine" in such manner as to conform their provisions to the requirements of internal revenue statutes, to define more specifically appropriate amelioration limits thereunder, and to provide more specifically for the composition and designation of mixtures of various wines under these classifications.

5. To amend Article II, Section 21, Class 6 (d), and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to require that "Light Port" and "Light Sherry" have a minimum alcoholic content of more than 14% by volume.

6. To amend Article II, Section 21, Class 10 (c), and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to provide a specific maximum volatile acidity for wines in addition to those defined in Classes 1 and 6 of Section 21.

7. To amend Article II, Section 22, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to provide that the introduction into any wine of substances foreign thereto and remaining a part thereof shall constitute an alteration of the class and type of the wine, and to further provide for more specific definition of permissible cellar treatment.

8. To amend Article II, Section 23, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to define more specifically the minimum content of a given grape variety to be required in any wine bearing the name of that grape variety on its label.

9. To amend Article III, Section 33 (b), and Section 39 (j), and Article VI, Section 64 (h), and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to provide, in addition to existing requirements, and with respect to both domestic and imported wine, (1) that any wine bearing a label which contains, as a part of the class and type designation, or otherwise, any indication of origin must conform in composition, and in all other respects, to the requirements of the laws or regulations of such place of origin governing the composition and labeling of wine for local consumption, and (2) that any wine, otherwise entitled to a particular designation of origin, may not bear on the label any indication of such place of origin, if by any processing taking place outside such place of origin, such wine has been rectified, blended with wines which are not of the same origin, class and type, or otherwise altered as to class and type.

10. To amend Article III, Section 39 (b), and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to—

(a) Prohibit statements of vintage dates upon the labels of any domestic wine; or, in the alternative,

(b) Prohibit any statement of vintage date on any domestic wine unless such wine has been bottled in a container having a capacity of one gallon or less at the winery premises at which the entire operations of crushing, fermenting, clarifying and subsequent cellar treatment took place, and unless the producer at such winery premises shall have maintained in such manner and form as the Administrator shall prescribe, permanent plant records showing, among other things, the source and origin of each lot of wine introduced into the premises, the subsequent blending of each such lot, its movement from one place of storage to another within the premises up to the time of bottling, the brand name, class and type designation and vintage date appearing upon the label, the serial number of the shipping container, and the number of the storage tank from which the wine was bottled, and to further require that such producer shall from time to time furnish the Administrator with an inventory of wine stocks so recorded; or, in the alternative,

(c) Permit the producer to bottle or pack domestic vintage wine in containers having a capacity not in excess of 50 gallons, under the procedure outlined in (b) above, and to permit any permittee purchasing the wine so packed to rebottle the same without blending into containers having a capacity not in excess of one gallon, provided such permittee maintains, in such manner and form as the Administrator shall prescribe, permanent plant records at the place of bottling which will show the origin, description and producer of such wine, and to further require that such bottler shall from time to time furnish the Administrator with an inventory of the wines so recorded.

11. To amend Article III, Section 39, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to forbid any references to alcoholic content other than statements required or permitted under Section 36 thereof, so as to forbid references, or statements which may be construed as references, to intoxicating and similar qualities of a wine, and so as to forbid any references to the distilled spirits which may be contained in a wine other than such statements as are required as part of a statement of composition under Section 34 thereof.

12. To amend Article III, Section 39, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to specify the conditions of the use of "Pure", "Natural", "Select", "Reserve", and similar expressions relative to quality or circumstances of production.

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH REFERENCE TO THE PROPOSED ESTABLISHMENT OF MAXIMUM CREDIT PERIODS AND TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS NO. 6

TO CONSIDER THE LIMITATION OF THE PERIODS OF CREDIT WHICH MAY BE OFFERED TO RETAILERS, AND TO CONSIDER CERTAIN AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS NO. 6 TO PERMIT THE FURNISHING OF SPECIFIED EQUIPMENT, SUPPLIES, AND SERVICES TO RETAILERS, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

MARCH 23, 1938.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended:

Notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held on Tuesday, April 26, 1938, at 10:00 A. M., at the Mayflower Hotel, Connecticut Avenue and DeSales Street, Washington, D. C.,

(a) for the purpose of taking evidence with reference to a proposed regulation limiting, pursuant to Section 5 (b) (6) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (which authorizes the Administrator to ascertain and prescribe by regulations the credit period usual and customary to the industry for the particular class of transactions), the credit which may be extended to retailers.

(b) for the purpose of taking evidence with reference to proposed amendments of Regulations No. 6, Relating to the Furnishing of equipment, Fixtures, Signs, Supplies, Money, Services, and Other Things of Value to Retailers of Distilled Spirits, Wine and Malt Beverages:

1. To amend Section 3, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to permit the furnishing, selling, or renting, under certain prescribed conditions, to a retail purchaser of bulk wines, such specified equipment, supplies, and services as are necessary to insure that the wine will reach the consumer in proper condition; and to prescribe conditions under which a vendor of bulk wine may furnish proprietary and private brand labels at cost to retailers bottling such wine.

2. To amend Section 3 (e) (3) of the regulations in such manner as to provide that permittees dealing in particular brands of distilled spirits or wines, which are not packaged in containers of one pint capacity, be permitted to furnish not more than one quart of such distilled spirits or wines, as samples, to retailers who have not previously purchased such products, and to further provide, in the case of all distilled spirits, wines and malt beverages furnished to retailers as samples, that a distinctive form of labeling be adopted and that detailed records of distribution be kept.

3. To amend Section 3 (e), and other pertinent sections of the regulations, to permit the sale of equipment, fixtures, or supplies, under certain prescribed restrictions, by an industry member independently established in business as a bona fide vendor of such merchandise.

SUPPLEMENT NO. 3

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin, as amended February 19, 1938, is hereby amended as follows:

(1) Item 5 of subsection A of Section II is hereby amended to read as follows:

"8. Tobacco acreage allotments.—County acreage allotments for each kind of tobacco shall be established by distributing the State acreage allotment of such kind of tobacco among the counties in the State on the basis of the base acreages of such kind of tobacco established for such counties under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program, taking into consideration allotments for small farms, trends in acreage, seed bed, and other plant diseases."

(2) Item 7 of subsection A of Section III is hereby amended to read as follows:

"7. Peanut allotment.—In counties included in the commercial peanut-producing area peanut acreage allotments shall be determined on the basis of good soil management, tillable acreage on the farm, type of soil, topography, degree of erosion, and the acreage of peanuts for market customarily grown on the farm. The peanut acreage allotment for any farm shall be comparable with the allotments for other farms in the same community which are similar with respect to such factors."

(3) Item 8 of subsection A of Section IV is hereby amended to read as follows:

"8. General soil-depleting crops on class A farms.—$1.25 per acre, adjusted for productivity, for each acre in the general crop acreage allotment in excess of one-fourth of the sum of the cotton, Burley tobacco and fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotments established for the farm."

(4) Item 5 of subsection C of Section IV is hereby amended to read as follows:

"5. 70 cents per acre of cropland on any class B farm in excess of the sum of (1) the corn, wheat, rice, potato, peanut, cigar filler and binder tobacco, and Georgia-Florida Type 62 tobacco acreage allotments established for the farm; (2) the acreage of sugar beets and sugarcane for sugar grown on the farm in 1938; (3) one and one-half times the cotton, flue-cured tobacco, Burley tobacco, and fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotments established for the farm; and (4) in the Western Region the normal acreage of summer fallow for the farm, not in excess of the wheat acreage allotment established for the farm."

(5) The second paragraph of subsection A of Section XI is hereby amended to read as follows:

"In areas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration as areas subject to serious wind erosion in 1938, no payment will be made to any person with respect to any farm which such person owns or operates in a county if he allows any part of the cultivated acreage in any such farm to become a wind erosion hazard during 1938 by reason of failure to carry out wind erosion control measures approved by the county committee."

(6) Subsection C of Section XIV is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"6. Green manure crops of which a good stand and a good growth is plowed or disced under (applicable only to class B farms in the Western, East Central and Southern Regions on which the average acreage of land on which commercial vegetables were grown in 1936 and 1937 exceeds 50 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm in excess of the sum of the potato, tobacco, cotton, and peanut acreage allotments established for the farm)."

(7) The definition of Class A farms in Section XVIII is hereby revised to read as follows insofar as it relates to counties in New Mexico and California.

"New Mexico—Union, Harding, Quay, Curry, Roosevelt, De Baca, Torrance, Lincoln, Chaves, Lea, Eddy, Otero, and Dona Ana."

"California.—Butte, Colusa, Fresno, Glenn, Kern, Kings, Madera, Merced, San Benito, Monterey, Sacramento, San Joaquin, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Solano, Stanislaus, Sutter, Tehama, Tulare, Ventura, Yolo, Yuba, and that portion of Placer County lying west of the east boundary of Township 9 East, Mt. Diablo Meridian."

Done at Washington, D. C., this 24th day of March, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Revision of Determination of Farming Practices To Be Carried Out in Connection With the Production of Sugar Beets During the Crop Year 1938

Whereas Section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937 authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to make payments under specified conditions with respect to sugar or liquid sugar commercially recoverable from the sugar beets or sugarcane grown on a farm for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar, and

Whereas the condition with respect to farming practices, as stated in subsection (e) of said section of said act is as follows:

That there shall have been carried out on the farm such farming practices in connection with the production of sugar beets and sugarcane during the year in which the crop was harvested with respect to which a payment is applied for, as the Secretary may determine, pursuant to this subsection, for preserving and improving fertility of the soil and for preventing soil erosion, such practices to be consistent with the reasonable standards of the farming community in which the farm is situated.

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine that the conditions prescribed in subsection (e) of section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937 shall be deemed to have been fulfilled with respect to the production of the 1938 crop of sugar beets on any farm if there is carried out, on land on the farm which is adapted to the production of sugar beets, not less than one acre of soil conserving practices for each acre of sugar beets planted on the farm for harvest in 1938: Provided, however, That not in excess of 75 percent of the foregoing requirements in connection with rented acreage which would otherwise be part of another farm may consist of practices carried out on such farm in excess of any practices required thereon.

For the purposes of this determination:

(1) Each of the following shall be deemed to be one acre of soil conserving practices:

(a) Maintaining until after July 1, 1938, one acre of a protective covering of adapted perennial or biennial legumes, adapted perennial grasses, or mixtures of such legumes and grasses; or

(b) Seeding in 1938 one acre of land to adapted perennial or biennial legumes, adapted perennial grasses, or mixtures of such legumes and grasses; or

(c) Seeding and maintaining until after December 31, 1938, one acre of an adapted green manure crop, or plowing under in 1938 one acre of a good stand and a good growth of an adapted green manure crop; or

(e) Applying in 1938 to land on which sugar beets are planted for harvest in 1938 an amount of commercial chemical fertilizing materials (including inorganic chemical substances used as fertilizers), the principal constituents of value of which are any form or combination of nitrogen, phosphoric acid, or potash, and which contain 75 pounds (or 50 pounds in the case of peat or muck land determined as such by the State Agricultural Conservation Committee of the state in which the land is located) of such constituents in the form of net available plant food.

(2) Adapted perennial or biennial legumes, or adapted perennial grasses, or mixtures thereof, or adapted green manure crops, shall be deemed to be those perennial and biennial legumes, or perennial grasses, or mixtures thereof, or green manure crops which are approved under the 1938 State Agricultural Conservation Program as being adaptable for the state in which the farm is located.

All of the foregoing soil conserving practices shall be carried out in accordance with farming methods commonly used in the community in which the farm is located.

This determination supersedes the "Determination of Farming Practices to be Carried out in Connection with the Production of Sugar Beets During the Crop Year 1938, Pursuant to Subsection (e) of Section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937," made by the Secretary of Agriculture on February 19, 1938.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 24th day of March, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

Order

[Ex Parte No. MC 20]

Order Concerning Motor Carrier Rates in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware

At a General Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of March, A. D. 1938.

The Commission having under consideration the subject of the rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations, and practices applicable to the transportation of property in interstate or foreign commerce by common carriers by motor vehicle between points in those parts of the States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware described in appendix of this order;

It is ordered, That an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted by the Commission, on its own motion, into and concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, and classifications, and the rules, regulations, and practices relating thereto, applicable to the transportation by all common carriers by motor vehicle subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, of all property in interstate or foreign commerce between all points in the territory defined in appendix of this order, with a view of determining whether the rates, charges, classifications, and the rules, regulations, and practices relating thereto, of respondents, or any of them, applicable to such transportation are in any respects in violation of law, and of making such findings and entering such order or orders in the premises, and of taking such other and further action, as the facts and circumstances may appear to warrant;

It is further ordered, That all common carriers of property by motor vehicle subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, operating between the points and participating in the transportation described in the next preceding paragraph hereof, be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding, that this order be served upon said respondents, and that notice to the public be given by posting a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission.

By the Commission.

Customs Regulations Amended—Release of Seized Property Upon Payment of Appraised Domestic Value

GENERAL PRIOR APPROVAL TO ACCEPTANCE OF OFFERS TO PAY APPRAISED DOMESTIC VALUE OF SEIZED PROPERTY AND TO THE RELEASE OF SUCH PROPERTY IN CERTAIN CASES

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 614 and 624, Tariff Act of 1930, (U. S. C., title 19, secs. 1614 and 1624, respectively) and section 251, Revised Statutes, (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 66), article 1138, Customs Regulations of 1937, is hereby amended as follows:

A new paragraph, designated (b), reading as follows, is added:

"(b) When the appraised domestic value of property seized under the customs laws does not exceed $5,000, and the collector is satisfied that the claimant making a written offer to pay such value has, in fact, a substantial interest therein, approval is hereby granted and the collector is hereby authorized to accept such offer and to release such property, provided that its importation is not prohibited by law and that the claimant or his attorney executes an assent to forfeiture and a waiver of further proceedings on customs Form 4607. In any case where the collector is not satisfied that the proponent has a substantial interest in the seized property or for any other reason he believes that it would not be in the interest of the United States to accept the offer, the procedure outlined in paragraph (c) of this article will be followed."

The present paragraph (b) is redesignated (c) and is amended by deleting the first two words "The application" and by inserting in lieu thereof the phrase "Applications not covered by the preceding paragraph."

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AMENDED—ILLUSTRATIONS OF POSTAGE STAMPS

PERMITTING PRINTING OF BLACK-AND-WHITE ILLUSTRATIONS OF UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN POSTAGE STAMPS FOR PHILATELIC PURPOSES

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to section 2 of the act of Congress approved January 27, 1938 (Public No. 421, 75th Congress), authorizing the printing of black-and-white illustrations of United States and foreign postage stamps for philatelic purposes, and the authority contained in section 161 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title 5, sec. 22) and section 624 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1624), article 691 of the Customs Regulations of 1937 is hereby amended as indicated below.

Paragraph (g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) United States Code, title 18, sec. 350, as amended by section 2 of the act approved January 27, 1938:

That (a) nothing in sections 161, 172, and 220 of the Criminal Code, as amended, or in any other provision of law, shall be construed to forbid or prevent the printing, publishing, or importation, or the making or importation of the necessary plates for such printing or publishing, for philatelic purposes in articles, books, journals, newspapers, or albums (including the circulars or advertising literature of legitimate dealers in stamps or publishers of or dealers in philatelic or historical articles, books, journals, or albums), of black and white illustrations of—

(1) foreign revenue stamps if from plates so defaced as to indicate that the illustrations are not adapted or intended for use as stamps;

(2) foreign postage stamps; or

(3) such portion of the border of a stamp of the United States as may be necessary to show minor distinctive features of the stamp so illustrated, but all such illustrations shall be at least four times as large as the portion of the original United States stamp so illustrated.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of the Treasury, subject to the approval of the President, may, upon finding that no hindrance to the suppression of counterfeiting and no tendency to bring into disrepute any obligation or other security of the United States will result, by regulations, permit, to the extent and under such conditions as he may deem appropriate, the printing, publishing or importation or the making or importation of the necessary plates for such printing, or publishing, for philatelic purposes in articles, books, journals, newspapers, or albums (including the circulars or advertising literature of legitimate dealers in stamps or publishers of or dealers in philatelic or historical articles, books, journals, or albums), of black and white illustrations of canceled or uncanceled United States postage stamps. The Secretary, subject to the approval of the President, may amend or repeal such regulations at any time. Such regulations, and any amendment or repeal thereof, shall become effective upon publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER or upon such date as may be specified therein if later than the date of publication. All findings of fact made hereunder shall be final and conclusive and shall not be subject to review.

A new paragraph is added reading as follows:

(h) Under regulations approved by the President on February 14, 1938, the printing, publishing, and importation, and the making and importation of the necessary plates for such printing and publishing, for philatelic purposes in articles, books, journals, newspapers, and albums (including the circulars and advertising literature of legitimate dealers in stamps and publishers of and dealers in philatelic and historical articles, books, journals, and albums) of black and white illustrations of canceled and uncanceled United States postage stamps are permitted, provided that such illustrations are of a size less than three-quarters or more than one and one-half, in linear dimension, of each part of such stamps.

Paragraph (h) is redesignated (i) and amended by inserting the words "or the regulations referred to in paragraph (h)" after the number "350" in line four.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Order No. 37]

IN THE MATTER OF CALLING A PUBLIC HEARING TO MAKE AN IMMEDIATE INVESTIGATION TO DETERMINE WHAT SPECIAL REGULATIONS MAY BE APPLICABLE TO RADIO STATIONS ENGAGED IN CHAIN OR OTHER BROADCASTING MAY BE REQUIRED IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST, CONVENIENCE, OR NECESSITY

The Commission at a Special Meeting held March 18, 1938, adopted the following Order:

Whereas, under the provisions of Section 303 of the Communications Act of 1934 as amended "the Commission, from time to time, as public convenience, interest, or necessity requires, shall—(1) Have authority to make special regulations applicable to radio stations engaged in chain broadcasting;" and,

Whereas the Commission has not at this time sufficient information in fact upon which to base regulations regarding contractual relationships between chain companies and network stations, multiple ownership of radio broadcast stations of various classes, competitive practices of all classes of stations, networks and chain companies, and other methods by which competition may be restrained or by which restricted use of facilities may result;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the Federal Communications Commission undertake an immediate investigation to determine what special regulations applicable to radio stations engaged in chain or other broadcasting are required in the public interest, convenience, or necessity; such investigation to include an inquiry into the following specific matters, as well as all other pertinent and related matters including those covered in the Report on Social and Economic Data prepared by the Engineering Department of the Federal Communications Commission and filed with the Commission on January 20, 1938:

1. The contractual rights and obligations of stations engaged in chain broadcasting, arising out of their network agreements.

2. The extent of the control of programs, advertising contracts and other matters exercised in practice by stations engaged in chain broadcasting.

3. The nature and extent of network program duplication by stations serving the same area.

4. Contract provisions in network agreements providing for exclusive affiliation with a single network and also provisions restricting networks from affiliation with other stations in a given area.

5. The extent to which single chains or networks have exclusive coverage in any service area.

6. Program policies adopted by the various national and other networks and chains, with respect to character of programs, diversification, and accommodation of program characteristics to the requirements of the area to be served.

7. The number and location of stations licensed to or affiliated with each of the various national and other networks. The number of hours and the specified time which such networks control over the station affiliates and the number of hours and the specified time actually used by such networks.

8. The rights and obligations of stations engaged in chain broadcasting so far as advertisers having network contracts are concerned.

9. Nature of service rendered by each station licensed to a chain or network organization, particularly with respect to amount of program origination for network purposes by such stations.

10. Competitive practices of stations engaged in chain broadcasting as compared with such practices in the broadcasting industry generally.

11. Effect of chain broadcasting upon stations not affiliated with or licensed to any chain or network organization.

12. Practices or agreements in restraint of trade or furtherance of monopoly in connection with chain broadcasting.

13. Extent and effects of concentration of control of stations locally, regionally or nationally in the same or affiliated interests, by means of chain or network contracts or agreements, management contracts or agreements, common ownership or other means or devices, particularly in so far as the same tends toward or results in restraint of trade or monopoly.

It is further ordered, That hearings be held in connection with such investigation at such times and places as the Commission shall designate.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be posted in the office of the Secretary and that a copy of the same be mailed to each licensee of a broadcast station and to each chain and network organization.

RAILROAD RETIREMENT BOARD.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING DESIGNATION OR CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY PURSUANT TO SECTION 5 OF THE RAILROAD RETIREMENT ACT OF 1937 AND SECTION 202 OF PUBLIC NUMBER 162, 75TH CONGRESS, APPROVED JUNE 24, 1937

Pursuant to the authority conferred by section 10 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 the Railroad Retirement Board hereby prescribes the following rules and regulations:

1. Annuity payments due an individual under the Railroad Retirement Act of 1935 but not yet paid at death shall be paid to a surviving spouse if such spouse is entitled to an annuity under an election made pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of such Act; otherwise they shall be paid to such person or persons as the deceased may have designated, or if there be no designation, to the legal representative of the deceased. A designation by the deceased to be valid must be made by him in writing on the prescribed Form AA–11, entitled "Designation or Change of Beneficiary," and must be received by the Railroad Retirement Board prior to the deceased's death. If the person or persons designated by the deceased do not survive him, the annuity payments shall be made to the legal representative of the deceased.

2. Any individual who was an employee after December 31, 1936, may designate the person or persons whom he wishes to receive any death benefit payable under section 5 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937. Such designation to be valid must be made by such individual in writing on the prescribed Form AA–11, entitled "Designation or Change of Beneficiary," and must be received by the Railroad Retirement Board prior to the individual's death. If the person or persons designated to receive a death benefit die before the death benefits become payable, such benefits shall be paid to the designator's legal representative.

3. A revocation or change of designation of beneficiary, or a designation of an additional or new beneficiary or beneficiaries, may be made at any time and without the knowledge or consent of the previous beneficiary or beneficiaries, but to be valid must be made by the designator in writing on the prescribed Form AA–11, entitled "Designation or Change of Beneficiary," and must be received by the Railroad Retirement Board prior to the designator's death.

4. Where a writing, other than Form AA–11, signed by the designator is received by the Board prior to the designator's death, in which a clear and unambiguous designation of beneficiary or revocation or change of designation is made in substantially the same manner as that provided on Form AA–11, and the designator dies without executing Form AA–11, the designation, revocation or change shall be given the same effect as if executed on Form AA–11.

5. No effect shall be given to a designation of beneficiary or revocation or change of designation which does not bear the signatures of two witnesses, neither of whom is named as beneficiary, unless the execution of the designation, revocation or change by the designator is proved to the satisfaction of the Board.

6. Where more than one person is designated as beneficiary, each benficiary shall receive an equal share, unless the percentage to be paid to each beneficiary is specified in which case each beneficiary shall receive only the percentage specified.

7. Any designation of beneficiary or revocation or change of designation heretofore filed with the Board under section 5 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 and section 202 of Public Number 162, 75th Congress, approved June 24, 1937, if clear and unambiguous, shall be given effect although not executed on Form AA–11, entitled "Designation or Change of Beneficiary," but in all other respects shall be subject to the above regulations numbered 1, 2, 3, 5, and 6.

8. Annuity payments due an individual under the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 but not yet paid at death shall be paid to a surviving spouse if such spouse is entitled to an annuity under an election made pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of such Act; otherwise they shall be paid to the same individual or individuals who may be entitled to receive any death benefit that may be payable under the provisions of section 5 of such Act and the above regulations numbered 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 and shall be paid in the same proportion that such death benefits are so payable.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of March, A. D., 1938.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET FILED BY SOUTHWEST ROYALTIES COMPANY, RESPONDENT, COVERING PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE PAN AMERICAN-RICHARDSON-SAGARIN-ERWIN TRACT

ORDER CONSENTING TO WITHDRAWAL OF OFFERING SHEET AND TERMINATING PROCEEDING

Southwest Royalties Company, having filed on February 10, 1938, with the Securities and Exchange Commission, an offering sheet for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from registration for the securities described therein under Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended; and

The said Southwest Royalties Company having filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission an application for an order terminating the effectiveness of said offering sheet together with an affidavit that all persons on whose behalf said offering sheet has been filed and to whom copies thereof have been delivered, have been notified in writing of the intention of such person to terminate the effectiveness of said filing, and it appearing that termination of the effectiveness of the filing of the offering sheet as requested is not inconsistent with the public interest,

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 356 of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, terminated as of the date of the entry of this order.

It is further ordered, That the Order for Hearing and Order Designating Trial Examiner heretofore entered in this proceeding be, and hereby is, revoked, and said proceeding terminated.

By the Commission.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AMENDED—NAVIGATION FEES

ARTICLE 210 (A) (B) (C) AND (D) OF THE CUSTOMS REGULATIONS OF 1937, RELATING TO NAVIGATION FEES, AMENDED

MARCH 22, 1938.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to the authority contained in section 2635 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 59), section 161 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title 5, sec. 22), and the provisions of law cited in the following text, the Customs Regulations of 1937 are hereby amended as follows:

Article 210 (a) (b) (c) and (d) is amended to read as follows:

(a) The following navigation fees should be collected from the persons for whom the services are rendered and deposited in the name of the collector of customs to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States.

(b) The collections should be accounted for at the end of the month on commerce Cat. nos. 1001 and 1007, and standard Form no. 1020, as required by section 12 of the act of July 31, 1894 (U. S. C., title 31, secs. 78, 496).

[1] See page 641.

(c) The fees in column A are those collectible on the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coasts and on the Mississippi River and tributaries; those in column B are collectible on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers (Great Lakes, Lake Champlain, and St. Lawrence River).

(d) Table of navigation fees.—These fee numbers are to be cited to the exclusion of all former lists.

Fee No.	Description of services	A	B
1	Entry of vessel, including American, from foreign port (R. S. 2654; U. S. C., title 19, sec. 58):
	Less than 100 tons net	$1.50	-------
	100 tons net and over	2.50	-------
2	Clearance of vessel, including American, to foreign port (R. S. 2654; U. S. C., title 19, sec. 58):
	Less than 100 tons net	1.50	-------
	100 tons net and over	2.50	-------
3	Permit to foreign vessel to proceed from district to district, and receiving the manifest (R. S. 4381, 4382; U. S. C., title 46, secs. 329 and 330)	2.00	$0.10
4	Receiving manifest of foreign vessel on arrival from another district, and granting a permit to unlade (R. S. 4381, 4382; U. S. C., title 46, secs. 329 and 330)	$2.00	$0.10
5	Post entry (R. S. 2654 and 4382; U. S. C., title 19, sec. 58, title 46, sec. 330)	2.00	2.00
7	Changing name of vessel:
	Less than 100 tons gross	10.00	10.00

	1,000 gross and not exceeding 4,999 gross	75.00	75.00
	5,000 gross and over	100.00	100.00
8	(1) Recording—bill of sale, conveyance, mortgage (C–b); or (2) Furnishing—certified copy of any bill of sale, conveyance, mortgage, notice of claim of lien, or certificate of discharge in respect to such vessel (I–2); or (3) Certified copy of record at former home port (H–c); or (4) Certificate setting forth names of owners, the interest held by each owner, material facts put in each bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage, or lien, or encumbrance (I–1); or 5) Certificate that there are no liens or encumbrances (I) (Act of June 5, 1920, sec. 30, subsec. I; U. S. C., title 46, sec. 927)	.20 folio	.20 folio
9	Official bond, not otherwise provided for (R. S. 2654, U. S. C., title 19, sec. 58)	.40	-------
10	Certificate of payment of tonnage tax and certificate of admeasurement, both for foreign vessel (R. S. 2654, U. S. C., title 19, sec. 58)	.20	.20
11	Copy of official document including marine document, not elsewhere enumerated (R. S. 2654, U. S. C., title 19, sec. 58)	.20	.20

Fee 1 should be collected at the first port of entry only. This fee should not be collected from a vessel entering at a port on the northern, northeastern, or northwestern frontier otherwise than by sea.

Fee 2 should be collected at the port from which a vessel clears for a foreign country. If a foreign vessel proceeds from New York to La Guaira, Venezuela, via San Juan, Puerto Rico, with foreign cargo for both ports, fee 3 would be collected at New York and fee 4 at San Juan and, whether the vessel be American or foreign, fee 2 would be collected on clearing from San Juan. This fee should not be collected from a vessel clearing from a port on the northern, northeastern, or northwestern frontier otherwise than by sea.

Fee 3 should be collected for granting a permit (commerce Cat. 1385) to a foreign vessel to proceed to another customs district, but not for a permit to a port in the same district.

Fee 4 should be collected for receiving manifest of a foreign vessel arriving from another customs district, but not on arriving from another port in the same district.

Fee 6 is no longer imposed.

Fee 7 should be collected when the application is approved.

Fee 8 is 20 cents for each folio of one hundred words, with a minimum charge of one dollar. No charge should be made for less than 100 words in excess of the minimum number of 500; thus, the charge for 599 words is one dollar, and for 600 words is one dollar and twenty cents. See commerce circular no. 283, paragraph 23, for the method of computing the number of words.

Fee 9 is collected principally from vessels in the Alaska trade.

Fee 10 should be collected from foreign vessels only.

Fee 11 should be collected for each copy whether certified or not, of any official document, including marine document, furnished to any person other than a Government officer.

NOTE.—No fee should be collected for admeasuring a vessel for a certificate of record (commerce Cat. 1316) nor for a Panama Canal tonnage certificate.

DANIEL C. ROPER,
Secretary of Commerce.

MARKING PACKAGES OF WHISKEY—GAUGING MANUAL AMENDED

To District Supervisors and Others Concerned:

Paragraph 71 of the Gauging Manual, as amended by Treasury Decision 4652 and Treasury Decision 4735, is further amended as to sub-paragraphs (d) and (e), to read as follows:

(d) Spirits distilled from a fermented mash of grain at less than 190 degrees of proof in such manner that the distillate possesses the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to whiskey and withdrawn from the cistern room of the distillery at not more than 110 degrees and not less than 80 degrees of proof, shall be branded "Whiskey," except as provided in sub-paragraph (e).

(e) (1) Spirits distilled at not exceeding 160 degrees of proof from a fermented mash of not less than 51% rye grain, corn grain, wheat grain, malted barley grain, or malted rye grain, withdrawn from the cistern room of the distillery at not more than 110 degrees and not less than 80 degrees of proof, and packaged in charred new oak containers, shall be branded "Rye Whiskey," "Bourbon Whiskey," "Wheat Whiskey," "Malt Whiskey," or "Rye Malt Whiskey," respectively.

(2) Spirits distilled at not exceeding 160 degrees of proof from a fermented mash of not less than 51% rye grain, corn grain, wheat grain, malted barley grain, or malted rye grain, withdrawn on and after the effective date of this regulation from the cistern room of the distillery at not more than 110 degrees and not less than 80 degrees of proof, and packaged in reused cooperage, shall be branded "Whiskey." Such spirits shall be further marked, either by branding or stenciling, with the words "Distilled from Rye (or Bourbon, Wheat, Malt, or Rye Malt) Mash," as the case may be.

(3) Spirits distilled at not exceeding 160 degrees of proof from a fermented mash of not less than 80% of corn grain, withdrawn on and after March 1, 1938, from the cistern room of the distillery at not more than 110 degrees and not less than 80 degrees of proof, and packaged in uncharred oak containers, or reused charred oak containers, and not subjected, in the process of distillation or otherwise, to treatment with charred wood, shall be branded "Corn Whiskey."

Paragraph 71 of the Gauging Manual, as amended, is further amended by adding thereto sub-paragraph (i) as follows:

(i) Whiskey, rye whiskey, wheat whiskey, malt whiskey, rye malt whiskey, bourbon whiskey, or corn whiskey, as defined in sub-paragraphs 71 (d) and (e), which in whole or in part, is treated with wood chips through percolation or otherwise, during distillation or storage on and after March 1, 1938, shall be further marked, either by branding or stenciling, with the words "Treated with oak chips."

Paragraph J. Section 702 (Title V) of the Revenue Act of 1934 (relating to excess-profits tax) provides in part:

"(b) All provisions of law (including penalties) applicable in respect of the taxes imposed by Title I of this Act, shall, in so far as not inconsistent with this section, be applicable in respect of the tax imposed by this section * * *."

Paragraph K. Section 55 (Title I) of the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended by section 218 (h), Title II, of the National Industrial Recovery Act, approved June 16, 1933, provides:

"Returns made under this title shall be open to inspection in the same manner, to the same extent, and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as returns made under Title II of the Revenue Act of 1926; and all returns made under this Act after the date of enactment of the National Industrial Recovery Act shall constitute public records and shall be open to public examination and inspection to such extent as shall be authorized in rules and regulations promulgated by the President."

Paragraph L. Section 215, Title II, of the National Industrial Recovery Act (relating to capital stock tax) provides in part:

"(e) Returns required to be filed for the purpose of the tax imposed by this section shall be open to inspection in the same manner, to the same extent, and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as returns made under Title II of the Revenue Act of 1926."

Paragraph M. Section 216, Title II, of the National Industrial Recovery Act (relating to excess-profits tax) provides in part:

"(b) The tax imposed by this section shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner, and shall be subject to the same provisions of law (including penalties), as the taxes imposed by title I of the Revenue Act of 1932."

Paragraph N. Section 55, Title I, of the Revenue Act of 1932 provides:

"Returns made under this title shall be open to inspection in the same manner, to the same extent, and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as returns made under Title II of the Revenue Act of 1926."

Paragraph O. Section 55, Title I, of the Revenue Act of 1928 provides:

"Returns made under this title shall be open to inspection in the same manner, to the same extent, and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as returns made under Title II of the Revenue Act of 1926."

Paragraph P. Section 257, Title II, of the Revenue Act of 1926, provides in part:

"(a) Returns upon which the tax has been determined by the Commissioner shall constitute public records; but, except as hereinafter provided in this section and section 1203, they shall be open to inspection only upon order of the President and under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary and approved by the President."

Pursuant to the above-quoted provisions of law, it is hereby ordered that the returns of individuals, partnerships, estates, trusts, corporations, associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies, made pursuant to the requirements of the Revenue Act of 1936, the Revenue Act of 1935; Title IX of the Social Security Act, the Revenue Act of 1934; sections 215 and 216, Title II, National Industrial Recovery Act; the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended by section 218, Title II of the National Industrial Recovery Act; Title I of the Revenue Act of 1932; Title I of the Revenue Act of 1928; Title II of the Revenue Act of 1926; and income, profits, and capital stock tax returns under the prior Revenue Acts, or under any such Act as amended, shall be open to inspection in accordance and upon compliance with the following rules and regulations:

ARTICLE 1. Scope of regulations.—These regulations deal only with inspection of returns in so far as such inspection is permissible only upon order of the President and under rules and regulations approved by the President. Other uses to which returns may be lawfully put, without action by the President, are not covered by these regulations.

PART I

INCOME, PROFITS, AND CAPITAL STOCK TAX RETURNS AND RETURNS UNDER TITLE IX OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

ARTICLE 1. Return.—The word "return" when used in Part I of these regulations shall include only income and profits tax returns; special excise tax returns of corporations made pursuant to section 1000 of Title X of each of the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921 and section 700 of Title VII of the Revenue Act of 1924; capital stock tax returns made pursuant to section 215 of Title II of the National Industrial Recovery Act, section 701 of Title V of the Revenue Act of 1934, and section 105 of the Revenue Act of 1935; and returns under Title IX of the Social Security Act. Any other word or term used in these regulations which is defined by the Revenue Acts, the National Industrial Recovery Act, or the Social Security Act, shall be given the respective definition contained in the Act under which the particular return is made.

ARTICLE 2. Corporation.—The word "corporation" when used in these regulations includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies.

ARTICLE 3. Partnership.—The word "partnership" when used in these regulations includes a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or other unincorporated organization, through or by means of which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of the income tax laws, a trust or estate or a corporation.

ARTICLE 4. Stock.—The word "stock" includes the shares in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company; and the word "shareholder" includes a member in an association, joint-stock company or insurance company.

ARTICLE 5. Return of individual.—The return of an individual shall be open to inspection (a) by the person who made the return, or by his duly constituted attorney in fact; (b) if the maker of the return has died, or become legally incompetent, by the administrator, executor, trustee or guardian of his estate, or by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such administrator, executor, trustee, or guardian; (c) in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, by any heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary under the will, of such deceased person, or by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary, upon a showing that such heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary has a material interest which will be affected by information contained in the return; (d) as to returns under Title IX of the Social Security Act in the discretion of the Commissioner and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe for the inspection, by an officer of any State having a law certified to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Social Security Board as having been approved in accordance with section 903 of the Social Security Act, upon written application signed by the Governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the officer to make the inspection and showing that such inspection is solely for purposes of administering such State law; and (e) as to returns for any taxable year begun prior to January 1, 1935, in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe for the inspection, by an officer or employee of any State having a law imposing an income tax upon the individual, or a tax upon intangible property owned by the individual, measured by the income derived therefrom, upon written application signed by the governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the person to make the inspection and showing that the inspection is solely for such State income or intangible property tax purposes. With respect to inspection on behalf of states, or political subdivisions thereof, of income returns for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1935, see Articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, of Regulations 86, as substituted by Treasury Decision 4626, C. B. XV–1, p. 61, 71, and Articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, of Regulations 94, both as amended by Treasury Decision 4732, C. B. 1937–1, p. 145.

ARTICLE 6. Joint return of husband and wife.—A joint return of a husband and wife shall be open to inspection (a) by either spouse for whom the return was made, upon satisfactory evidence of such relationship being furnished, or by his or her duly constituted attorney in fact; (b) if either spouse has died, or become legally incompetent, by the administrator, executor, trustee, or guardian of his or her estate, or by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such administrator, executor, trustee, or guardian; (c) in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue by any heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary under the will, of such deceased spouse, or by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary, upon a showing that such heir at law, next of kin or beneficiary has a material interest which will be affected by information contained in the return; and (d) for any taxable year begun prior to January 1, 1935, in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe for the inspection, by an officer or employee of any State having a law imposing an income tax upon either spouse or a tax upon intangible property owned by either spouse, measured by the income derived therefrom, upon written application signed by the governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the person to make the inspection and showing that the inspection is solely for purposes of administering such State law; and (e) as to returns for any taxable year begun prior to January 1, 1935, in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe for the inspection, by an officer or employee of any State having a law imposing an income tax upon the partnership or upon any member thereof in respect of income therefrom or a tax upon intangible property owned by the partnership, measured by the income derived therefrom, upon written application signed by the governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the person to make the inspection and showing that the inspection is solely for such State income or intangible property tax purposes. With respect to inspection on behalf of States or political subdivisions thereof of income returns for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1935, see Articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, of Regulations 86, as substituted by Treasury Decision 4626, C. B. XV–1, p. 61, 71, and Articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, or Regulations 94, both as amended by Treasury Decision 4732, C. B. 1937–1, p. 145.

ARTICLE 7. Partnership return.—The return of a partnership shall be open to inspection (a) by any individual who was a member of such partnership during any part of the time covered by the return, or by his duly constituted attorney in fact, upon satisfactory evidence of such fact being furnished; (b) if a member of such partnership during any part of the time covered by the return has died, or become legally incompetent, by the administrator, executor, trustee, or guardian, of his estate, or by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such administrator, executor, trustee, or guardian; (c) in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, by any heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary under the will, of such deceased person, or by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary, upon a showing that such heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary has a material interest which will be affected by information contained in the return; (d) as to returns under Title IX of the Social Security Act in the discretion of the Commissioner and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe for the inspection, by an officer of any State having a law certified to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Social Security Board as having been approved in accordance with section 903 of the Social Security Act, upon written application signed by the Governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the officer to make the inspection and showing that such inspection is solely for purposes of administering such State laws; and (e) as to returns for any taxable year begun prior to January 1, 1935, in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe for the inspection, by an officer or employee of any State having a law imposing an income tax upon the partnership or upon any member thereof in respect of income therefrom or a tax upon intangible property owned by the partnership, measured by the income derived therefrom, upon written application signed by the governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the person to make the inspection and showing that the inspection is solely for such State income or intangible property tax purposes. With respect to inspection on behalf of States or political subdivisions thereof of income returns for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1935, see Articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, or Regulations 86, as substituted by Treasury Decision 4626, C. B. XV–1, p. 61, 71, and Articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, or Regulations 94, both as amended by Treasury Decision 4732, C. B. 1937–1, p. 145.

ARTICLE 8. Estates.—The return of an estate shall be open to inspection (a) by the administrator, executor, or trustee of such estate, or by his duly constituted attorney in fact; (b) in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, by any heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary under the will, of the deceased person for whose estate the return is made, or by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary, or if any such heir at law, next of kin or beneficiary has died or become legally incompetent, by his administrator, executor, trustee, or guardian of his estate, or by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such administrator, executor, trustee, or guardian, upon a showing of material interest which will be affected by information contained in the return; (c) as to returns under Title IX of the Social Security Act in the discretion of the Commissioner and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe for the inspection, by an officer of any State having a law certified to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Social Security Board as having been approved in accordance with section 903 of the Social Security Act, upon written application signed by the Governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the officer to make the inspection and showing that such inspection is solely for purposes of administering such State law; and (d) as to returns for any taxable year begun prior to January 1, 1935, in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe for the inspection, by an officer or employee of any State having a law imposing an income tax upon the estate or upon any beneficiary of the estate in respect of income therefrom, or a tax upon intangible property owned by the estate, measured by the income derived therefrom, upon written application signed by the governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the person to make the inspection and showing that the inspection is solely for such State income or intangible property tax purposes. With respect to inspection on behalf of States or political subdivisions thereof of income returns for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1935, see Articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, of Regulations 86, as substituted by Treasury Decision 4626, C. B. XV–1, p. 61, 71, and Articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, of Regulations 94, both as amended by Treasury Decision 4732, C. B. 1937–1, p. 145.

ARTICLE 9. Trusts.—The return of a trust shall be open to inspection (a) by the trustee or trustees, jointly or severally, or the duly constituted attorney in fact of such trustee or trustees; (b) by any individual who was a beneficiary of such trust during any part of the time covered by the return, or by his duly constituted attorney in fact, upon satisfactory evidence of such fact being furnished; (c) if any individual who was a beneficiary of such trust during any part of the time covered by the return has died, or become legally incompetent, by the administrator, executor, trustee, or guardian, of his estate, or by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such administrator, executor, trustee, or guardian; (d) in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, by any heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary under the will, of such deceased person, or by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary, upon a showing that such heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary has a material interest which will be affected by information contained in the return; (e) as to returns under Title IX of the Social Security Act in the discretion of the Commissioner and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe for the inspection, by an officer of any State having a law certified to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Social Security Board as having been approved in accordance with section 903 of the Social Security Act, upon written application signed by the Governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the officer to make the inspection and showing that such inspection is solely for purposes of administering such State law; and (f) as to returns for any taxable year begun prior to January 1, 1935, in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe for the inspection, by an officer or employee of any State having a law imposing an income tax upon the trust or upon any beneficiary of the trust in respect of income therefrom, or a tax upon intangible property owned by the trust, measured by the income derived therefrom, upon written application signed by the Governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the person to make the inspection and showing that the inspection is solely for such State income or intangible property tax purposes. With respect to inspection on behalf of States or political subdivisions thereof of income returns for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1935, see Articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, of Regulations 86, as substituted by Treasury Decision 4626, C. B. XV–1, p. 61, 71, and Articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, of Regulations 94, both as amended by Treasury Decision 4732, C. B. 1937–1, p. 145.

ARTICLE 10. Corporations.—The return of a corporation shall be open to inspection (a) by any person designated by action of its board of directors, or other similar governing body, upon submission of satisfactory evidence of such action, or (b) by any officer or employee of such corporation upon written request to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue signed by any principal officer and attested by the secretary, or other officer under the corporate seal, if any, or (c) by the duly constituted attorney in fact of such corporation. The return of a corporation which has since been dissolved, shall, in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, be open to inspection by any person who under these regulations might have inspected the return at the date of dissolution.

Returns of corporations under Title IX of the Social Security Act, in the discretion of the Commissioner, and at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe, shall be open to inspection by an officer of any State having a law certified to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Social Security Board as having been approved in accordance with section 903 of the Social Security Act, upon written application signed by the Governor of such State under the seal of the State, designating the officer to make the inspection and showing that such inspection is solely for purposes of administering such State law.

PART II

ESTATE AND GIFT TAX RETURNS FILED AFTER JUNE 16, 1933, UNDER THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932, OR UNDER THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932, AS AMENDED

Estate tax returns and notices, and gift tax returns, shall be treated as privileged communications and shall not be inspected nor their contents disclosed, except as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE 1. Upon application to the collector, internal revenue agent in charge, or Commissioner, an estate tax return or notice, may be inspected by the executor, or his successor in office, or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. Upon like application a gift tax return may be inspected by the donor or his duly authorized attorney in fact.

ARTICLE 2. An Internal Revenue officer engaged in an official investigation of an estate tax or gift tax liability may disclose the returned value of any item or the amount of any specific deduction, or other limited information, if such disclosure is necessary in order to verify the same or to arrive at a correct determination of the tax. This right of disclosure, however, is limited to the purposes of the investigation, and in no case extends to such information as the amount of the estate, the amount of tax, or other general data.

ARTICLE 3. A return or notice may be exhibited, or information contained therein may be disclosed, to an officer of any state, for official use in connection with an estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, gift, or other tax of the state, provided a like cooperation is given by the state to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or his representatives for use in the administration of the Federal tax laws. Such officer may also be permitted to inspect schedules, lists and other statements designed to be supplemental to or to become a part of, the original return, and other records and reports which contain information included or required by statute to be included in the return.

ARTICLE 4. If any other person has a material interest in ascertaining any fact disclosed by the return, or in obtaining information as to the payment of the tax, he may make a written application to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for such information, setting forth the nature of his interest and the purpose of the application. Thereupon, the Commissioner may permit an inspection of, or furnish a copy of the return, or may furnish such information as he deems advisable.

PART III

GENERAL PROVISIONS

The following provisions, unless otherwise stated, are applicable to all returns referred to in Parts I and II of these Regulations.

ARTICLE 1. Permission to Inspect.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, upon written application setting forth fully the reasons for the request, may grant permission for the inspection of returns in accordance with these Regulations.

ARTICLE 2. Treasury Department Officials and Employees.—The officers and employees of the Treasury Department whose official duties require inspection of returns may inspect any such returns without making such written application. If the Head of a Bureau or office in the Treasury Department, not a part of the Internal Revenue Bureau, desires to inspect, or to have an employee in his Bureau or office inspect a return, in connection with some matter officially before him, for reasons other than tax administration purposes, the inspection may, in the discretion of the Secretary, be permitted upon written application to him by the Head of such Bureau or office, showing in detail why the inspection is desired.

ARTICLE 3. Inspection by Branch of Government other than Treasury Department.—Except as provided in Article 4, if the head of an executive department (other than the Treasury Department), or of any other establishment of the United States Government, desires to inspect or to have some other officer or employee of his branch of the service inspect a return in connection with some matter officially before him, the inspection may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be permitted upon written application to him by the head of such executive department or other Government establishment. The application shall be signed by such head and shall show in detail why the inspection is desired, the name and address of the taxpayer who made the return, and the name and official designation of the person it is desired shall inspect the return.

ARTICLE 4. Inspection by Government Attorneys.—Any return shall be open to inspection by a United States Attorney or by an attorney of the Department of Justice where necessary in the performance of his official duties. The request for inspection shall be in writing and, except as provided in Article 7, shall be addressed to the Commissioner, and shall state the purpose for which inspection is desired. It may be signed by the Attorney General, the Assistant to the Attorney General, an Assistant Attorney General, or a United States Attorney.

ARTICLE 5. Information returns.—Information returns, schedules, lists, and other statements designed to be supplemental to, or to become a part of, the returns shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as to inspection as are the returns themselves. In any case where inspection of the return is authorized by these regulations, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, permit inspection of other records and reports which contain information included or required by statute to be included in the return.

ARTICLE 6. Place of Inspection.—Generally, returns may be inspected only in the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., unless such returns are in the custody of a collector of internal revenue or internal revenue agent in charge, in which event the returns may be inspected in the office of such collector or agent in charge, but only in the presence of an internal revenue officer, designated by the collector or agent for that purpose.

ARTICLE 7. Applications for Inspection.—Except as provided in Article 3, and as hereinafter provided, all applications for permission to inspect returns must be made in writing to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. When a return is in the custody of a collector of internal revenue or internal revenue agent in charge, such collector or revenue agent in charge, upon written application to him, is authorized to permit the inspection of such return by a United States Attorney, or an attorney in the Department of Justice, or by the taxpayer or his duly authorized attorney in fact, in accordance with these Regulations.

ARTICLE 8. Penalties.—Section 3167, Revised Statutes, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1918, and reenacted without change by Section 1115 of the Revenue Act of 1926, makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine not exceeding $1,000.00, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the Court, for any person to print or publish in any manner whatever not provided by law information contained in any income return, and further provides that if the offender be an officer or emloyee of the United States he shall be dismissed from office or discharged from employment. The penalties provided in section 3167, Revised Statutes, are applicable also to disclosure of information contained in excess-profits and capital-stock tax returns and returns made under Title IX of the Social Security Act.

ARTICLE 9. Former Regulations Revoked.—Former regulations issued with the approval of the President in respect of inspection of returns, except Regulations relating to the inspection of returns by Committees of Congress, Regulations relating to overassessments contained in Treasury Decision 4583, and Regulations governing the inspection of income tax returns, Form 1042B, by the Department of National Revenue, Ottawa, Canada, are hereby revoked to the extent that they are inconsistent with this Treasury Decision.

[T. D. 4798]

INCOME, EXCESS-PROFITS, CAPITAL STOCK, ESTATE, GIFT TAX RETURNS; RETURNS MADE UNDER TITLE III OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1936; AND RETURNS MADE UNDER TITLE IX OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

USE OF ORIGINAL RETURNS OPEN TO INSPECTION IN ACCORDANCE WITH TREASURY DECISION (4797); FURNISHING OF COPIES OF RETURNS; INSPECTION OF RETURNS OF CORPORATIONS BY STATE OFFICERS AND SHAREHOLDERS; AND INSPECTION OF ESTATE AND GIFT TAX RETURNS

Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

By Executive Order dated March 25, 1938,[1] the President ordered that income, excess-profits, and capital stock tax returns, estate and gift tax returns made under the Revenue Act of 1932 and filed after June 16, 1933, and returns made under Title IX of the Social Security Act, shall be open to inspection in accordance and upon compliance with the rules and regulations promulgated in a Treasury Decision 4797[2] approved by the President on the same date. That Treasury Decision deals with the inspection of returns only in so far as inspection is permissible only upon order of the President and under regulations approved by the President. Under authority of law, and without action by the President, returns of corporations except income and excess profits tax returns and returns for the purpose of surtax on personal holding companies for years beginning after December 31, 1934, are open to inspection by the proper officers of any State; all returns of corporations are open to inspection by bona fide shareholders of record owning one per cent or more of the outstanding stock; and all returns under Title III of the Revenue Act of 1936 (or copies thereof) are open to inspection by any official, body or commission, lawfully charged with the administration of any State tax law, if the inspection is for the purpose of such administration or for the purpose of obtaining information to be furnished to local taxing authorities.

Pursuant to sections 62, 351 (c) and 503 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1936, section 105 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1935, sections 62, 351 (c) and 701 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1934, sections 62, 403 and 530 of the Revenue Act of 1932, section 62 of the Revenue Act of 1928, sections 257 and 1101 of the Revenue Act of 1926, section 905 (c) of the Social Security Act, and sections 215 (e) and 216 (b) of the National Industrial Recovery Act, the following regulations are hereby prescribed with respect to the use of original, and the furnishing of copies of, returns open to inspection in accordance with Treasury Decision 4797, or otherwise; with respect to examinations by shareholders of the returns of corporations; by State officers of returns of corporations made under the income, capital stock, or excess-profits tax provisions of the Revenue Act of 1926, the Revenue Act of 1928, the Revenue Act of 1932, sections 215 and 216 of the National Industrial Recovery Act, the Revenue Act of 1934, the Revenue Act of 1935, the Revenue Act of 1936, and under Title IX of the Social Security Act, except income and excess-profits tax returns and returns for the purpose of surtax on personal holding companies for years beginning after December 31, 1934; with respect to the inspection of returns under Title III of the Revenue Act of 1936 by any official, body, or commission, lawfully charged with the administration of any State tax law; and with respect to the inspection of estate and gift tax returns made under the Revenue Act of 1932 and filed prior to June 17, 1933, and made under the Revenue Act of 1926 and under prior Revenue Acts. For inspection by State taxing officials of income returns other than returns under Title III of the Revenue Act of 1936, for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1934, see articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive, of Regulations 86, as substituted by Treasury Decision 4626, C. B. XV–1, p. 61, 71, and articles 55 (b)–1 to 55 (b)–4, inclusive of Regulations 94, both as amended by Treasury Decision 4732, C. B. 1937–1, p. 145.

PART I

INCOME AND EXCESS PROFITS TAX RETURNS, EXCEPT RETURNS UNDER TITLE III OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1936, CAPITAL STOCK TAX RETURNS, AND RETURNS UNDER TITLE IX OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

ARTICLE 1. Definitions.—When used in Part I of these regulations (a) the term "return" means the original return except a return under Title III of the Revenue Act of 1936, made for income, excess-profits, or capital stock tax purposes, or for purposes of the tax imposed by Title IX of the Social Security Act;

(b) the term "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies;

(c) the term "partnership" includes a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or other unincorporated organization, through or by means of which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of the Federal tax laws, a trust or estate or a corporation;

(d) the term "stock" includes shares in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company; and the term "shareholder" includes a member in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

ARTICLE 2. Access to returns by State officers.—(1) The proper officers of a State are entitled as of right upon the request of its governor to have access to the returns of a corporation or to an abstract thereof, showing its name and income.

(2) The request or application of the governor must be in writing, signed by him under the seal of his State, and must show why access is desired, and the names and official positions of the officers designated to have the access. The request or application should be addressed to the Commissioner, who will set a convenient time and place for the access to the returns (or to an abstract thereof as he may determine).

(3) Access shall be given only in the office of the Commissioner, unless such returns are in the custody of a collector of internal revenue or internal revenue agent in charge, in which event the return may be inspected in the office of such collector or agent, but only in the presence of an internal revenue officer designated by the collector or agent for that purpose.

ARTICLE 3. Examination of returns by shareholder.—A bona fide shareholder of record owning one per cent or more of the outstanding stock of a corporation shall be entitled as of right, upon making request of the Commissioner, to examine the returns of such corporation and of its subsidiaries. His request for permission to examine such returns must be made in writing, and must be in the form of an affidavit showing his address, the name of the corporation, the period of time covered by the return he desires to inspect, the amount of the corporation's outstanding capital stock, the number of shares owned by him, the date when he acquired them, and whether he has the beneficial as well as the record title to such shares. It must also show that he has not acquired his shares for the purpose of the examination of the returns of the corporation. If he has acquired them for such purpose, he is not a bona fide shareholder within the meaning of the statute. The application must be supported by satisfactory evidence showing that the applicant is a bona fide shareholder of record of the required amount of stock of the corporation. The supporting evidence may be in the form of a certificate signed by the president or vice president of the corporation and countersigned by the secretary under the corporate seal. Upon being satisfied from the evidence presented that the applicant has fully met these conditions, the Commissioner will grant the permission to examine the returns and set a convenient time and place for the examination. This privilege is personal and will be granted only to the shareholder, who cannot delegate it to another. In the case of a corporation which has been dissolved, the returns may be examined by any person who would have been entitled to examine them at the date of dissolution.

ARTICLE 4. Penalties for disclosure of returns.—Section 3167, Revised Statutes, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1918 and reenacted without change by section 1115 of the Revenue Act of 1926, makes it a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000.00 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court, for any person to print or publish in any manner whatever not provided by law information contained in any income return, and further provides that if the offender be an officer or employee of the United States he shall be dismissed from office or discharged from employment. The penalties provided in section 3167, Revised Statutes, are applicable also to disclosure of information contained in excess-profits and capital stock tax returns and returns made under Title IX of the Social Security Act.

PART II

RETURNS UNDER TITLE III OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1936

ARTICLE 1. Inspection of returns by State taxing officials.—Original returns of taxes imposed by Title III shall be open to inspection, at convenient times and places, by any official, body, or commission lawfully charged with the administration of any State tax law, or by the representatives of such official, body, or commission designated in writing by the Governor of the State, for the purpose of such administration, or for the purpose of obtaining information to be furnished to local taxing authorities, as provided in Section 55 (b) (1) and (2) of the Revenue Act of 1936. Requests for permission to inspect the returns must be in writing signed by the governor under the seal of his State, and must be addressed to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Records Division, Washington, D. C. The request must state (a) the kind of returns it is desired to inspect, (b) the taxable year or years covered by the returns it is desired to inspect, (c) the name of the official, body, or commission by whom or which the inspection is to be made, (d) the name of the representative of such official, body, or commission, designated to make the inspection, (e) by specific references, the State tax law which such official, body, or commission is charged with administering and the law under which he, she, or it is so charged, (f) the purpose for which the inspection is to be made, and (g) if the inspection is for the purpose of obtaining information to be furnished to local taxing authorities, (1) the name of the official, body, or commission of any political subdivision of the State, lawfully charged with the administration of the tax laws of such political subdivision, if any, to whom or to which the information secured by the inspection is to be furnished, and (2) the purpose for which the information is to be used by such official, body, or commission.

ARTICLE 2. Examination of returns by shareholder.—A bona fide shareholder of record owning one per cent or more of the outstanding stock of a corporation shall be entitled as of right, upon making request of the Commissioner, to examine the returns of such corporation and of its subsidiaries. His request for permission to examine such returns must be made in writing, and must be in the form of an affidavit showing his address, the name of the corporation, the period of time covered by the return he desires to inspect, the amount of the corporation's outstanding capital stock, the number of shares owned by him, the date when he acquired them, and whether he has the beneficial as well as the record title to such shares. It must also show that he has not acquired his shares for the purpose of the examination of the returns of the corporation. If he has acquired them for such purpose, he is not a bona fide shareholder within the meaning of the statute. The application must be supported by satisfactory evidence showing that the applicant is a bona fide shareholder of record of the required amount of stock of the corporation. The supporting evidence may be in the form of a certificate signed by the president or vice president of the corporation and countersigned by the secretary under the corporate seal. Upon being satisfied from the evidence presented that the applicant has fully met these conditions, the Commissioner will grant the permission to examine the returns and set a convenient time and place for the examination. This privilege is personal and will be granted only to the shareholder, who cannot delegate it to another. In the case of a corporation which has been dissolved, the returns may be examined by any person who would have been entitled to examine them at the date of dissolution.

PART III

ESTATE AND GIFT TAX RETURNS FILED ON OR BEFORE JUNE 16, 1933

Estate tax returns and notices, and gift tax returns, shall be treated as privileged communications and shall not be inspected nor their contents disclosed, except as follows:

ARTICLE 1. Inspection by executor or donor.—Upon application to the Commissioner an estate tax return or notice may be inspected by the executor, or his successor in office, or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. Upon like application a gift tax return may be inspected by the donor or by his duly authorized attorney in fact.

ARTICLE 2. Disclosure of information by revenue officer.—An Internal Revenue officer engaged in an official investigation of an estate tax or gift tax liability may disclose the returned value of any item or the amount of any specific deduction or other limited information, if such disclosure is necessary in order to verify the same or to arrive at a correct determination of the tax. This right of disclosure, however, is limited to the purposes of the investigation, and in no case extends to such information as the amount of the estate, the amount of tax, or other general data.

ARTICLE 3. Inspection by State officers.—Upon written application to the Commissioner, a return or notice may be exhibited, or information contained therein may be disclosed, to an officer of any state, for official use in connection with an estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, gift or other tax of the state, provided a like cooperation is given by the state to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or his representatives for use in the administration of the Federal tax laws. Such officer may also be permitted to inspect schedules, lists and other statements designed to be supplemental to or to become a part of, the original return, and other records and reports which contain information included or required by statute to be included in the return.

ARTICLE 4. Inspection by person having material interest.—If any other person has a material interest in ascertaining any fact disclosed by the return, or in obtaining information as to the payment of the tax, he may make a written application to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for such information, setting forth the nature of his interest and the purpose of the application. Thereupon, the Commissioner may permit an inspection of, or furnish a copy of the return, or may furnish such information as he deems advisable.

ARTICLE 5. Inspection by Government attorneys.—Returns shall be open to inspection by a United States Attorney or by an attorney of the Department of Justice in the course of his official duties. The request for inspection shall be in writing and, except as provided in Article 6, shall be addressed to the Commissioner, and shall state the purpose for which inspection is desired. It may be signed by the Attorney General, the Assistant to the Attorney General, an Assistant Attorney General, or a United State Attorney.

ARTICLE 6. Returns in custody of collector or revenue agent in charge.—When the return is in the custody of a collector or internal revenue agent in charge, such collector or agent in charge may, upon like written request made to him, permit inspection thereof by a United States Attorney or an attorney of the Department of Justice. Upon written application to him such collector or agent in charge may also permit inspection by the executor or his successor in office, or his duly authorized attorney in fact, in case of estate tax returns, or the donor or his duly authorized attorney in fact in case of gift tax returns, in accordance with these regulations.

PART IV

GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 1. Use of returns in litigation.—The return of an individual, partnership, corporation, or fiduciary, or a copy thereof, may be furnished to a United States Attorney for official use in proceedings before a United States grand jury or in litigation in any court, where the United States is interested in the result, or for use in preparation for such proceedings or litigation; or to an attorney of the Department of Justice, for like use, upon written request of the Attorney General, the Assistant to the Attorney General, or an Assistant Attorney General. When a return or copy is thus furnished, it must be limited in use to the purpose for which it is furnished and is under no condition to be made public except to the extent that publicity necessarily results from such use. The original return will be furnished only in exceptional cases, and then only when it is made to appear that the ends of justice may otherwise be defeated. Neither the original nor a copy of a return desired for use in litigation in court will be furnished where the United States Government is not interested in the result, but this provision is not a limitation on the use of copies of returns by the persons entitled thereto.

ARTICLE 2. Furnishing of copies of returns.—A copy of a return may be furnished to any person who is entitled to inspect such return upon written application therefor and the submission of evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner of his right to receive the same, except that when a return is in the custody of a collector or of an internal revenue agent in charge, such collector or agent in charge may furnish a copy of such return to a United States Attorney, or an attorney of the Department of Justice, or to the taxpayer or his duly authorized attorney in fact, in accordance with these regulations. Certified copies will be furnished only upon specific request therefor sent to the Commissioner at Washington.

The Commissioner may prescribe a reasonable fee for furnishing copies of returns.

ARTICLE 3. Supplemental documents, records and reports.—Persons entitled to inspect returns may have access to information returns, schedules, lists and other statements designed to be supplemental to, or to become a part of, the returns to which they are given access, and the Commissioner may, in his discretion, permit such persons to inspect other records and reports which contain information included or required by statute to be included in the return.

Bureau of Mines.

AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE PRODUCTION AND SALE OF HELIUM FOR MEDICAL, SCIENTIFIC AND COMMERCIAL USE APPROVED JANUARY 14, 1938

The "Regulations Governing the Production and Sale of Helium for Medical, Scientific and Commercial Use" approved January 14, 1938, are hereby amended as follows:

Section 1 is amended by deleting therefrom subsections (j) and (k), and by renumbering subsections (l) and (m) as (j) and (k), respectively.

Subsection (l) of Section 2 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"No purchaser shall use or permit the use, directly or indirectly, of any helium purchased from the Bureau of Mines, for military purposes or for the inflation of any airship which shall operate between two foreign countries notwithstanding such airship may also touch at some point in the United States."

Subsection (d) of Section 3 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"Every contract for the purchase of helium which is to be used for airship inflation and exported within the meaning of the Act shall provide for the payment by the purchaser of liquidated damages, in an amount to be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior with the concurrence of the Secretaries of State, War, and the Navy, in the event of failure by the purchaser faithfully to comply with the Act and these regulations; and shall be accompanied by a domestic corporate surety bond, satisfactory to the Secretary of the Interior, in like amount conditioned upon faithful compliance by the purchaser with the Act and these regulations. Such bond shall continue in force so long as any of the helium delivered under such contract shall remain in captivity, or for a period of three years, whichever shall be the longer."

Subsections (e) and (f) of Section 3 are amended to read as follows:

"(e) Failure to execute and forward the said contract or to make the required initial deposit or to furnish a bond where required within the time allotted may nullify the delivery schedule at the discretion of the Bureau of Mines.

"(f) Upon receipt of a properly executed contract accompanied by the stipulated initial deposit and by a bond where required the contract will be forwarded for the consideration of the Director of the Bureau of Mines. If such a contract executed by the said Director is for more than 100 units of helium (100,000 cubic feet of contained helium) it shall also be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for consideration and shall not be binding until approved by him in writing. If the said contract is executed by the Director of the Bureau of Mines (and approved by the Secretary of the Interior if it is for more than 100 units of helium), the initial deposit will be placed to the credit of the special helium-production fund provided for by Section 3 (c) of the said Act. Otherwise the certified check and bond will be returned to the applicant."

Section 4 is amended by deleting therefrom subsection (c).

The proviso to subsection (a) of Section 5 is amended to read as follows:

"Provided, however, That in computing the deposit required under an application for a quantity of helium large enough to have a material effect on the actual cost per unit of helium, the Bureau of Mines may use a revised estimate of the cost per unit of helium conditionally approved by the said Secretary, to become effective upon final execution of the contract arising out of said application."

Section 6 is amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 6

"Deposits

"(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of this Section 6, the initial deposit to be made by the purchaser, before final execution on behalf of the Government of any contract for the purchase of market helium, shall be one hundred twenty per centum (120%) of the estimated cost of all helium to be delivered under such contract, plus all estimated service charges applicable thereto: Provided, however, That in no event shall the amount deposited for any one contract be less than $12 plus the estimated service charges applicable to the helium to be delivered: Provided further, That if such a contract is for the purchase of more than 1,000 units of helium, the deliveries of which are to be extended over a period that in the judgment of the Bureau of Mines warrants application of this proviso, the initial deposit may be a sum not less than sixty per centum (60%) of the estimated cost of all helium to be delivered under said contract, plus the estimated service charges applicable thereto, or the amount estimated by the Bureau of Mines to be necessary to meet obligations incurred or to be incurred in producing and delivering the helium called for by such contract, whichever amount is the greater.

"(b) Subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of this Section 6, in case the initial deposit under a contract is less than the said one hundred twenty per centum (120%) of the estimated cost of helium, plus estimated service charges, or in the event that (as a result of an increase in the estimated cost per unit of helium or for any other reason) the amount that has been deposited under a contract is less than the amount required to be on deposit under the following provisions of this subsection, and deliveries of helium under that contract have not been completed, the purchaser shall deposit additional funds (in the form of certified checks payable to the Treasurer of the United States) at such times and in such amounts that at least 30 days in advance of any scheduled delivery under such contract the amount the purchaser has deposited under that contract shall equal or be greater than the following, to wit:

"(1) One hundred five per centum (105%) of the actual cost of all helium delivered under said contract for which actual costs have been determined, plus all service charges applicable thereto, plus

"(2) One hundred twenty per centum (120%) of the latest estimated cost of all helium delivered under said contract for which actual costs have not yet been determined, plus all estimated service charges applicable thereto, plus

"(3) One hundred twenty per centum (120%) of the latest estimated cost of the estimated amount of helium to be delivered in the next scheduled delivery, plus all estimated service charges applicable thereto, plus

"(4) Sixty per centum (60%) of the latest estimated cost of the amount of helium to be delivered under such contract subsequent to the next scheduled delivery, plus all estimated service charges applicable thereto:

"Provided, however, That in lieu of making a supplemental deposit required by an increase in the estimated cost per unit of helium, the purchaser may accept a corresponding decrease (to be determined by the Bureau of Mines) in the quantity of helium subsequently to be delivered under such contract.

"(c) In the case of all contracts for the purchase of market helium for commercial use, as distinguished from medical and scientific use, the deposits required under subsections (a) and (b) of this Section 6 shall be determined by applying the percentages stated in said subsections (a) and (b) to (1) a figure equal to one hundred twelve per centum (112%) of the estimated cost of helium rather than to the estimated cost of helium, or (2) a figure equal to one hundred twelve per centum (112%) of the actual cost of helium rather than to the actual cost of helium, as the case may be.

"(d) In case any scheduled delivery of helium is not made because of failure of the purchaser to deposit adequate funds as hereinbefore required, the Bureau of Mines, at its election, may schedule that delivery for any later time suited to its operating program or deduct the quantity of helium in that scheduled delivery from the amount of helium remaining to be delivered under the pertaining contract."

Section 7 is amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 7

"Adjustments of deposits, refunds, and final settlements

"After the close of a fiscal year (ending June 30) and the computation by the Bureau of Mines and approval by the Secretary of the Interior of the actual cost per unit of helium for that year, and computation of service charges applicable under each contract, adjustments in deposits shall be made as follows:

"(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of this Section 7, in the case of each contract under which no helium remains to be delivered and the actual cost of all helium delivered thereunder, and the service charges applicable thereto, have been determined, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive (without interest) the excess, if any, that remains after one hundred five per centum (105%) of the actual cost of all helium delivered under said contract during the said fiscal year, plus all service charges applicable thereto, has been subtracted from the amount of money the purchaser has deposited under that contract; and the money deposited (exclusive of such excess, if any) shall constitute full payment of the price for the helium delivered under said contract and the delivery thereof: Provided, however, That the minimum to be subtracted from the amount of money the purchaser has deposited, on account of helium included in any one shipment, and the delivery of such helium, shall be $10.50, plus all service charges applicable to that shipment.

"(b) Subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of this Section 7, in the case of each contract under which deliveries of helium have not been completed, or under which the actual costs of helium delivered, and the service charges applicable thereto, have not been determined, the purchaser, at the option and in accordance with the determinations of the Bureau of Mines acting under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, may be entitled to receive (without interest) all or a part of the excess, if any, that remains after subtracting from the amount of money the purchaser has deposited under that contract the following, to wit:

"(1) One hundred five per centum (105%) of the actual cost of all helium delivered under said contract for which actual costs have been determined, plus all service charges applicable thereto, plus

"(2) The amounts required to be on deposit under the terms of Section 6 hereof to cover all helium delivered under said contract for which actual costs have not been determined, all helium remaining to be delivered under said contract, and the delivery of all such helium.

"(c) In the case of all purchases of market helium for commercial use, as distinguished from medical and scientific use, the amounts to be subtracted, pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) (1) of this Section 7, from the amount of money the purchaser has deposited shall be determined by applying the percentages stated in said subsections (a) and (b) (1) to a figure equal to one hundred twelve per centum (112%) of the actual cost of helium rather than to the actual cost of helium. In the case of all purchases of market helium for medical use, the amounts to be subtracted, pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) (1) of this Section 7, from the amount of money the purchaser has deposited shall be such as will, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Interior, permit the general use of helium for medical purposes.

"(d) Excesses due purchasers under the terms of this Section 7 shall be paid to such purchasers out of the special helium-production fund authorized by Section 3 (c) of the said Act: Provided, however, That at the election of the purchaser any such excess may be left on deposit to the credit of the same contract or any other contract for purchase of helium from the Government to which said purchaser may be a party."

Section 10 is amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 10

"Inspection

"Any person, firm, corporation, association, institution, or political authority who shall use or make available for any use, helium purchased from the Bureau of Mines and exported within the meaning of the Act, shall permit and make possible the examination and inspection by a representative of the United States, of such helium and its use, and where the helium is used for the inflation of any airship, examination and inspection of such airship and its contents, of reserve supplies of helium, and of the processes of inflation both in the United States and in any foreign country, all at such times and in such manner as such representative of the United States shall require."

Section 11 is hereby added and shall read as follows:

"SECTION 11

"Violations

"If the Secretary of the Interior shall at any time find that any person, firm, corporation, association, institution, or political authority has violated any of the provisions of the Act or of these regulations, or has used or permitted the use of helium purchased from the Bureau of Mines in a manner contrary to the intent of the Act or of these regulations, the said Secretary may deny such person, firm, corporation, association, institution, or political authority any or all privileges to purchase helium from the Bureau of Mines, and he may cancel all future deliveries and forfeit all deposits under any or all existing contracts with such person, firm, corporation, association, institution, or political authority. Likewise, in the event of such finding by the Secretary, the liquidated damages provided for in the contract with any such person, firm, corporation, association, institution, or political authority shall become due and payable and the purchaser and its sureties on the bond shall become liable therefor."

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

ORDER IN THE MATTER OF PROGRESSIVE MINERS OF AMERICA, PETITIONER, V. RAY EDMUNDSON AND UNITED MINE WORKERS OF AMERICA, RESPONDENTS

[Docket No. 1-FD]

At a Regular Session of the National Bituminous Coal Commission Held at its Offices in Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of March, 1938.

It appearing, that the above named petitioner on the 10th day of July, 1937, filed its petition, objecting to the designation, by the Commission's Order No. 5, of Ray Edmundson, United Mine Workers Building, Springfield, Illinois, as the member of the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 10 selected by the organization of employees representing the preponderant number of employees in the industry of said District No. 10, and alleging that the petitioner, and not the United Mine Workers of America, is the organization of employees representing the preponderant number of employees in the industry in said district, as contemplated by Section 4 I (a) of the Act, and praying that as such preponderant organization it be permitted to select the employee member of said board; The Commission designated Ray Edmundson and United Mine Workers of America as respondents, and by Order dated July 15, 1937, assigned the cause to an examiner of the Commission for hearing on July 22, 1937, in the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Hamilton Hotel in the City of Washington, D. C.; and

It further appearing, That due and proper notice of said hearing was given to all interested parties, and the matter came on to be heard upon said petition and the answer of the respondents; and the evidence being adduced, and being submitted to the examiner, the petitioner, on August 2, 1937, filed its motion to reopen said hearing for the submission of additional evidence, which motion was granted by the Commission on October 11, 1937, assigned said cause for hearing on October 21, 1937, for such purpose, in the Hearing Room of the Commission at Washington, D. C. Due and proper notice of such reopened hearing was given to all interested parties. At such time and place said further hearing was held and additional evidence therein submitted, and

It further appearing, That the original hearing on July 22, 1937, was held before Examiner George Edward Acret, who submitted his report and recommendations to the Commission on September 23, 1937, and the reopened hearing was held before Examiner Robert C. Patterson who submitted his report and recommendations to the Commission on December 3, 1937; copy of said report and recommendation of Examiner Patterson was mailed to each interested party on March 4, 1938, and service of same was completed on interested parties on March 7, 1938. More than fifteen days have elapsed since said service, and no exceptions to the said report have been filed with the Commission; and

The Commission being fully advised of the evidence adduced at the hearing commenced on July 22, 1937 and continued, as reopened, on October 21 and October 22, 1937, as the same is contained in the official transcripts of the testimony and documentary evidence filed herein, finds that the proposed findings of fact and the conclusions submitted by the examiner are, in all respects, true and correct, and the same are hereby adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of the Commission;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered:

That the petition of the petitioner be dismissed for the reason that it has failed to sustain its allegation that it is the organization of employees representing the preponderant number of employees in the Bituminous Coal Industry within District No. 10.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 25th day of March, 1938.

RESULT OF REFERENDUM ON MARKETING QUOTAS FOR COTTON MARKETED DURING MARKETING YEAR BEGINNING AUGUST 1, 1938

By the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas pursuant to the provisions of Section 347 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, the Secretary of Agriculture conducted a referendum on March 12, 1938, to determine whether farmers who were engaged in production of the 1937 cotton crop favor or oppose the establishment, pursuant to the provisions of Part IV, Subtitle B, Title III of said Act, of marketing quotas for cotton marketed during the marketing year beginning August 1, 1938:

Now, therefore be it known that I, Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, acting under and pursuant to, and by virtue of, the authority vested in me by said Section 347 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, do hereby proclaim the results of said referendum to be as follows:

1,406,088 votes, or 92.1 percent of the total votes cast, were in favor of such marketing quotas;

120,940 votes, or 7.9 percent of the total votes cast, were opposed to such marketing quotas; and

1,527,028 were the total votes cast.

AMENDMENT TO DETERMINATION OF PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR THE MAINLAND CANE SUGAR AREA FOR THE 1938 CROP, PURSUANT TO THE SUGAR ACT OF 1937

Whereas the determination of the Secretary of Agriculture of proportionate shares for the mainland cane sugar area for the 1938 crop, issued September 29, 1937, provided, as one of the conditions to be met by producers, as follows:

"That no change shall have been made in the leasing or cropping agreements for the purpose of, or which shall have the effect of, diverting to any producer any payment to which tenants or sharecroppers would be entitled if the 1937 leasing or cropping agreements were in effect",

and,

Whereas, it appears advisable to limit the foregoing provisions so as not to render ineligible for payment a producer who, through no fault of his own, is unable to enter into leasing or cropping agreements identical with those in effect in 1937.

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine that the foregoing provision of the said determination of September 29, 1937, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"That no change shall have been made in the leasing or cropping agreements for the purpose of diverting to any producer any payment to which tenants or share-croppers would be entitled if the 1937 leasing or cropping agreements were in effect."

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

[No. 3666]

ORDER IN THE MATTER OF REGULATIONS FOR TRANSPORTATION OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C. on the fifteenth day of March, A. D. 1938.

Regulations for the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles by rail in freight, express, and baggage services, and by water and highway, being under further consideration:

And it appearing, That upon motion of the Commission or applications made by interested parties, certain proposed new and amended regulations set out in detail herein should be established pursuant to section 233 of the Criminal Code (Transportation of Explosives Act), and upon full hearing and investigation are found to be in accord with the best-known practicable means for securing safety in transit, covering the packing, marking, loading, handling while in transit, and the precautions necessary to determine whether the material when offered is in proper condition to transport:

It is ordered, That the aforesaid regulations as heretofore published in orders of May 12, 1930, Apr. 7, 1931, Dec. 15, 1931, Jan. 13, 1934, July 23, 1935, Dec. 10, 1935, March 12, 1936, August 27, 1936, and Dec. 14, 1936, be and they are hereby superseded and/or amended as follows, effective June 17, 1938, except as noted in connection with paragraphs herein:

PART I—FREIGHT

Superseding and amending paragraph 113 (1), order May 12, 1930, to read as follows (forbidden fireworks):

(1) Toy caps containing more than an average of twenty-five hundredths of a grain of explosive composition per cap.

Amending paragraph 114, order May 12, 1930, as follows (packing acceptable fireworks):

(Add) (n) Toy caps must be packed in inside packages constructed of cardboard not less than .013 inch in thickness which shall provide a complete enclosure. The number of caps in these inside packages shall be limited so that not more than 10 grains of explosive composition shall be packed into one cubic inch of space and not exceeding 17.5 grains of the explosive composition of toy caps shall be packed in any inside container. (Effective January 1, 1939.)

Superseding and amending added 2d subparagraph, paragraph 358, order July 23, 1935, to read as follows (packing hydrofluoric acid):

Hydrofluoric acid of not over 65 percent H. F. maximum is also authorized in rubber drums, specification 43A. Any such container showing evidence of damage must be tested to 20 pounds hydrostatic pressure, without leakage, before using.

Superseding and amending subparagraph, paragraph 361 (a), added by order Jan. 13, 1934, to read as follows (packing nitric acid):

Or in aluminum drums, specification 42B; or aluminum-lined steel drums, specification 5X; or aluminum drums made and marked prior to October 1, 1930, in compliance with specification 42 then effective. Authorized only for acid over 1.46 specific gravity (45.75° Baumé); the acid shall not contain more than 0.1 percent of hydrochloric acid, more than 1 percent of sulphuric acid, or more than a trace of any of the lower oxides of nitrogen.

Amending paragraph 361 (c), order May 12, 1930, as follows:

(Add) Or glass bottles having necks with molded screw threads, must be closed by threaded-type acid-resistant plastic caps. Caps must be equipped with an elastic composition cushion and with glass, porcelain, or similar liner which must be impervious to the acid. Such caps, when secured in place by at least one complete continuous thread, must be capable of preventing any leakage of the liquid in transit.

(Add) Or glass bottles having necks with molded screw threads must be closed by threaded-type acid-resistant caps. Caps must be lined with a resilient liner which must be impervious to the acid. Such caps, when secured in place by at least one complete continuous thread, must be capable of preventing any leakage of the acid.

Amending paragraph 368 (c), order Dec. 14, 1936, as follows (packing perchloric acid):

(Add) Or glass bottles having necks with molded screw threads, must be closed by threaded-type acid-resistant plastic caps. Caps must be equipped with an elastic composition cushion and with glass, porcelain, or similar liner which must be impervious to the acid. Such caps, when secured in place by at least one complete continuous thread, must be capable of preventing any leakage of the liquid in transit.

(Add) Or glass bottles having necks with molded screw threads must be closed by threaded-type acid-resistant caps. Caps must be lined with a resilient liner which must be impervious to the acid. Such caps, when secured in place by at least one complete continuous thread, must be capable of preventing any leakage of the acid.

Amending 3d subparagraph, paragraph 484, order December 15, 1931, as follows (packing poisonous liquids, class B):

(Add) NOTE.—Shipments of sodium arsenite made to or for the U. S. Department of Agriculture in specification 5E metal drums, capacity not exceeding 55 gallons, are authorized.

PART II—EXPRESS

Superseding and amending paragraph 21 (cc), order May 12, 1930, to read as follows (forbidden explosives):

(cc) Toy caps containing more than an average of twenty-five hundredths of a grain of explosive composition per cap.

Amending paragraph 42, order May 12, 1930, as follows (packing acceptable explosives):

(Add) (n) Toy caps must be packed in inside packages constructed of cardboard not less than .013 inch in thickness which shall provide a complete enclosure. The number of caps in these inside packages shall be limited so that not more than 10 grains of explosive composition shall be packed into one cubic inch of space and not exceeding 17.5 grains of the explosive composition of toy caps shall be packed in any inside container. (Effective January 1, 1939.)

Superseding and amending paragraph 190 (b), order May 12, 1930, to read as follows (packing nitric acid and nitrating acid):

(b) Nitric acid or nitrating acid must be placed in glass bottles with glass stoppers ground to fit, and these stoppers must be held in place by plaster of paris covered by strong cloth securely tied;

Or glass bottles having necks with molded screw threads, must be closed by threaded-type acid-resistant plastic caps. Caps must be equipped with an elastic composition cushion and with glass, porcelain, or similar liner which must be impervious to the acid. Such caps, when secured in place by at least one complete continuous thread, must be capable of preventing any leakage of the liquid in transit. Each bottle must be placed in a tightly closed metal container, specification 2B, and well cushioned therein on all sides with incombustible mineral packing material, such as whiting, mineral wool, infusorial earth (kieselguhr), asbestos, sifted ashes, or powdered china clay, etc. The metal container must be packed in a wooden box, specification 15C, 16A, or 19A, and well cushioned by incombustible mineral packing material as herein described.

Or glass bottles having necks with molded screw threads must be closed by threaded-type acid-resistant caps. Caps must be lined with a resilient liner which must be impervious to the acid. Such caps, when secured in place by at least one complete continuous thread, must be capable of preventing any leakage of the acid.

Superseding and amending 1st subparagraph, paragraph 194A (a), order Dec. 14, 1936, to read as follows (packing perchloric acid):

(a) Perchloric acid of not exceeding 72 percent strength must be placed in glass bottles with glass stoppers ground to fit, and these stoppers must be held in place by plaster of paris covered by strong cloth securely tied;

Or glass bottles having necks with molded screw threads, must be closed by threaded-type acid-resistant plastic caps. Caps must be equipped with an elastic composition cushion and with glass, porcelain, or similar liner which must be impervious to the acid. Such caps, when secured in place by at least one complete continuous thread, must be capable of preventing any leakage of the liquid in transit. Each bottle must be well cushioned on all sides with incombustible mineral packing material, such as whiting, mineral wool, infusorial earth (kieselguhr), asbestos, sifted ashes, or powdered china clay, etc., and must be packed in a wooden box, specification 15C, 16A, or 19A.

Or glass bottles having necks with molded screw threads must be closed by threaded-type acid-resistant caps. Caps must be lined with a resilient liner which must be impervious to the acid. Such caps, when secured in place by at least one complete continuous thread, must be capable of preventing any leakage of the acid.

PART IV—SHIPPING CONTAINER SPECIFICATIONS

Superseding and amending paragraph 5 (f), specification 2D, order May 12, 1930, to read as follows:

(f) The tops of the bags must be closed after filling by either stapling or sewing, as specified above for the closing of the bottoms, or by machine sewing with filler cord and with crepe kraft tape over the mouth of the bag.

Superseding and amending paragraph 15, specification 4A, order May 12, 1930, to read as follows:

15. Openings into cylinder and connections (valves, fuse plugs, etc.) for those openings:—Threads required; to be clean cut, even, without checks, and tapped to gauge. Taper threads to be of length not less than as specified for American Standard taper pipe threads. Straight threads to have a tight fit of at least four engaged threads and a calculated shear strength at least 10 times the test pressure of the cylinder; gaskets required, with straight threads, adequate to prevent leakage.

Superseding and amending paragraph 2, specification 5, order May 12, 1930, to read as follows:

2. Restrictions in paragraph 6 (b), 6 (c), 10 (b), 10 (c), 10 (d), and 11 (d) do not apply.

Superseding and amending paragraph 6, specification 5A, order May 12, 1930, to read as follows:

6. (a) Body seams must be welded.

(b) Head and chime seams must be welded or double-seamed.

(c) Flanges for closures must be welded in place.

Superseding and amending paragraph 10, specification 5A, order May 12, 1930, as amended by orders April 7 and December 15, 1931, to read as follows:

10. (a) Closures for openings must be such as to prevent leakage in transit.

(b) Openings over 2.3 inches diameter are not permitted.

(c) Closures must be of screw-thread type or secured by means of screw-thread devices.

(d) Threaded flanges and plugs over ¾ inch standard pipe size must have 8 threads or less per inch. Construction to conform with the following drawing is recommended:

(NOTE.—Drawing to be continued as in current specification.)

Superseding and amending paragraph 11, specification 5A, order May 12, 1930, to read as follows:

11. (a) Threaded closures must be close fitting with adequate gaskets.

(b) Flange must have 5 or more complete threads; two 5/16-inch drainage holes are allowed. Plug, or cap, must have sufficient length of thread to engage 5 threads when screwed home with gasket in place.

(c) Threads must be cut at right angles to gasket seats which must be faced so as to bear squarely on each other when without gasket.

(d) Gaskets must be at least ⅛ inch thick and ¼ inch across the face.

Superseding and amending paragraph 2, specification 5B, order May 12, 1930, to read as follows:

2. (a) Restrictions in paragraphs 6 (b), 6 (c), 10 (b), 10 (c), 10 (d), 11 (c), and 11 (d), do not apply.

(b) Three or more threads for flanges and for engagement of plug, or cap, therewith are authorized in place of 5 or more prescribed by paragraph 11 (b).

Amending specification 5B, order May 12, 1930, as follows:

(Add) 6. Add to paragraph 11 the following:

(e) Closures must be of metal with gaskets of suitable materials; all parts closing the opening, except cap seal over threaded plug or cap, must be at least as thick as prescribed for head of container; Provided, That thinner metal closures are authorized for containers of not over 12 gallons capacity when constructed, or fitted with sealing device, so that closure cannot be removed without destroying it or the sealing device.

Superseding and amending paragraph 2, specification 5D, order December 10, 1935, to read as follows:

2. Restrictions in paragraphs 6 (a), 6 (c), and 10 (d), do not apply.

Superseding and amending paragraph 2, specification 5E, order May 12, 1930, to read as follows:

2. (a) Restriction in paragraphs 6 (b), 6 (c), 7, 10 (b), 10 (c), 10 (d), 11 (c), and 11 (d), do not apply.

(b) Three or more threads for flanges and for engagement of plug, or cap, therewith are authorized in place of 5 or more prescribed by paragraph 11 (b).

Amending specification 5E, order May 12, 1930, as follows:

(Add) 3A. For containers not of the full open head type, body sheets are authorized to be 20 gauge and head sheets 18 gauge for marked capacities not over 55 gallons, and 20 gauge body and head sheets are authorized for marked capacities of not over 30 gallons. (Effective July 1, 1938.)

Amending paragraph 9, specification 5E, order August 27, 1936, as follows:

(Add) (a) Closures must be of metal with gaskets of suitable material; all parts closing the opening, except cap seal over threaded plug or cap must be at least as thick as prescribed for head of container: Provided, That thinner metal closures are authorized for containers of not over 12 gallons capacity when constructed, or fitted with sealing device, so that closure cannot be removed without destroying it or the sealing device.

Superseding and amending paragraph 6, specification 5F, order May 12, 1930, to read as follows:

6. Restrictions in paragraph 10 (d) do not apply.

Superseding and amending paragraph 5, specification 5H, order January 13, 1934, to read as follows:

5. In place of paragraphs 10 (b) and 10 (c), the following:

Openings must be of screw-thread or flange-with-follower-plate type.

Superseding and amending paragraph 2, specification 5J, order March 12, 1936, to read as follows:

2. (a) Restrictions in paragraph 6 (b), 6 (c), 7, 10 (c), 10 (d), 11 (c), and 11 (d) do not apply.

(b) Three or more threads for flanges and for engagement of plug, or cap, therewith are authorized in place of 5 or more prescribed by paragraph 11 (b).

Amending paragraph 8, specification 5J, order August 27, 1936, as follows:

(Add) (a) Closures must be of metal with gaskets of suitable material; all parts closing the opening, except cap seal over threaded plug or cap, must be at least as thick as prescribed for head of container; Provided, That thinner metal closures are authorized for containers of not over 12 gallons capacity when constructed, or fitted with sealing device, so that closure cannot be removed without destroying it or the sealing device.

Amending order May 12, 1930, as follows:

(Add) SHIPPING CONTAINER SPECIFICATION 5X

Steel Drums—Aluminum Lined

1. Containers must comply with specification 5A with the following exceptions and additions:

2. Threaded cap closures, 3 full threads engaged, are also authorized.

3. (Add) Closure shall be located between rolling hoops.

4. (Add) Lining shall be of aluminum at least 99 percent pure, at least 0.12 inch thick, with all seams welded. It shall have reasonably good fit in outside drum and be arranged so that extensive movement therein will be prevented.

Superseding and amending paragraphs 3 and 5, specification 43A, order July 23, 1935, to read as follows:

3. Body and heads shall be made of at least 2 laminations; inside lamination shall be of pale crepe natural or synthetic rubber, capable of withstanding the action of hydrofluoric acid up to 65 percent H. F. maximum, for 30 days without any substantial deterioration. The other laminations shall be a mixture of cotton fiber and rubber. Thickness of heads shall be at least ½ inch. Thickness of sides shall be at least ⅜ inch.

5. Closing plug or stopper must be an efficient closure that will prevent spillage or leakage in transit and must have the approval of the Bureau of Explosives.

Amending paragraph 9 (a), specification 43A, order July 23, 1935, as follows:

(Add) Also a 4-foot drop to strike directly on closing device.

It is further ordered, That the aforesaid regulations as further amended herein shall be and remain in force on and after June 17, 1938, except as noted in connection with paragraphs herein, and shall be observed until further order of the Commission;

It is further ordered, That compliance with the aforesaid amendments made effective by this order is hereby authorized on and after the date of approval and publication thereof;

And it is further ordered, That copies of this order be served upon all the respondents herein, and that notice to the public be given by posting in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

CANCER CONTROL MONTH

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS House Joint Resolution 468, 75th Congress, 3d Session, provides:

That the President of the United States is hereby authorized and requested to issue annually a proclamation setting apart the month of April of each year as Cancer Control Month and to invite annually the Governors of the several States and Territories and possessions of the United States to issue proclamations for like purposes. It is requested that such proclamations invite the medical profession, the press, and all agencies and individuals interested in a national program for the control of the disease of cancer by education and other cooperative means to unite during the month in a public dedication to such a program and in a concerted effort to impress upon the people of the Nation the necessity of such a program.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, pursuant to the above joint resolution, do hereby proclaim the month of April 1938 Cancer Control Month and invite the Governors of the several States and Territories and possessions of the United States to issue proclamations for like purposes. I invite the medical profession, the press, and all agencies and individuals interested in a national program for the control of cancer by education and other cooperative means to unite during the month of April 1938 in public dedication to such a program and in a concerted effort to impress upon the people of the Nation the necessity of such a program.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 28" day of March, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] thirty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:

CORDELL HULL
Secretary of State.

DETERMINATION OF SUGAR COMMERCIALLY RECOVERABLE FROM SUGAR BEETS

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 302 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1937, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine for the purposes of Title III of the said act:

That the amount of sugar, raw value, commercially recoverable from sugar beets marketed under that type of agreement commonly known as an "individual test contract" shall be deemed to be 95.3 per centum of the total sugar in the sugar beets, net weight, at the time of delivery to a processor; and that the amount of sugar, raw value, commercially recoverable from sugar beets marketed under any other type of agreement shall be deemed to be 97 per centum of an amount of sugar calculated by applying to the net weight of the sugar beets, at the time of delivery to a processor, the average percentage of sugar content in the cossettes of all of the sugar beets included in a common marketing agreement: Provided, however, That in all cases the tests used to determine the sugar content are those tests customarily used for such purpose by sugar beet processors.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of March, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[A. A. A. Burley Tobacco 1938-1]

BY THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas the Act approved February 16, 1938, entitled "Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938", as amended, provides in section 312 (f):

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, the Secretary [of Agriculture] shall, within fifteen days after the enactment of this subsection (f), proclaim the amount of the total supply of burley tobacco for the marketing year therefor beginning October 1, 1937, and a national marketing quota shall be in effect for burley tobacco marketed during the marketing year for such tobacco beginning October 1, 1938. The Secretary shall also determine and specify in such proclamation the amount of such national marketing quota in terms of the total quantity of such tobacco which may be marketed, which will make available during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1938, a supply of such tobacco equal to the reserve supply level. The referendum with respect to such quota, pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, shall be held and the results thereof proclaimed within forty-five days after the enactment of this subsection (f).;

Whereas said Act contains, in section 301 (b), the following definitions of terms here pertinent:

"Total supply" of tobacco for any marketing year shall be the carry-over at the beginning of such marketing year plus the estimated production thereof in the United States during the calendar year in which such marketing year begins • • •.

"Carry-over" of tobacco for any marketing year shall be the quantity of such tobacco on hand in the United States at the beginning of such marketing year, which was produced in the United States prior to the beginning of the calendar year then current • • •.

"Marketing year" means, in the case of the following commodities, the period beginning on the first and ending with the second date specified below:

• • • • •

Tobacco (other than flue-cured), October 1–September 30 • • •.

"Reserve supply level" of tobacco shall be the normal supply plus 5 per centum thereof, to insure a supply adequate to meet domestic consumption and export needs in years of drought, flood, or other adverse conditions, as well as in years of plenty.

The "normal supply" of tobacco shall be a normal year's domestic consumption and exports plus 175 per centum of a normal year's domestic consumption and 65 per centum of a normal year's exports as an allowance for a normal carry-over.

"Normal year's domestic consumption", in the case of • • • tobacco, shall be the yearly average quantity of the commodity produced in the United States that was consumed in the United States during the ten marketing years immediately preceding the marketing year in which such consumption is determined, adjusted for current trends in such consumption.

"Normal year's exports", in the case of • • • tobacco, • • • shall be the yearly average quantity of the commodity produced in the United States that was exported from the United States during the ten marketing years • • • immediately preceding the marketing year in which such exports are determined, adjusted for current trends in such exports;

Whereas said Act provides, in section 301 (c), that

The latest available statistics of the Federal Government shall be used by the Secretary [of Agriculture] in making the determinations required to be made by the Secretary under this Act; and

Whereas said subsection (f) of section 312 was enacted on the 26th day of March, 1938:

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, acting under and pursuant to, and by virtue of, the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress known as the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, approved February 16, 1938, as amended, upon the basis of the latest available statistics[1] of the Federal Government, do hereby find, determine, specify, and proclaim under section 312 of said Act:

(1) That the "reserve supply level" of Burley tobacco is 985,000,000 pounds;

(2) That the "total supply" of Burley tobacco for the marketing year for such tobacco beginning October 1, 1937, was 974,000,000 pounds; and

(3) That the amount of the national marketing quota for Burley tobacco in terms of the total quantity of such tobacco which may be marketed, which will make available during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1938, a supply of such tobacco equal to the reserve supply level of such tobacco, is 350,000,000 pounds.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of March, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HOLDING REFERENDUM ON 1938 BURLEY TOBACCO MARKETING QUOTAS

Pursuant to section 312 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, the Secretary of Agriculture is directed to conduct a referendum of farmers who were engaged in the production of Burley tobacco in 1937 in order to determine whether they favor or oppose marketing quotas with respect to Burley tobacco during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1938.

It should be clearly understood that a farmer to vote in the referendum must be eligible. Burley tobacco marketing quotas will be effective if two-thirds or more of the Burley tobacco farmers voting in the referendum favor them. The Secretary of Agriculture is directed to proclaim the result of the referendum not later than 45 days after the enactment of subsection (f) of said section 312.

The following forms will be used:

Tobacco 213—"Notice—Burley Tobacco Marketing Quota Referendum."
38-AAA-1-C—"Instructions for Holding Referendum on 1938 Burley Tobacco Marketing Quotas."
Tobacco 214—"1938 Burley Tobacco Marketing Quota Referendum Ballot."
Tobacco 215—"Register of Ballots—1938 Burley Tobacco Marketing Quota Referendum."
Tobacco 216—"Community Summary of 1938 Burley Tobacco Marketing Quota Ballots."
Tobacco 217—"County Summary of 1938 Burley Tobacco Marketing Quota Ballots."
Tobacco 218—"State Tabulation of 1938 Burley Tobacco Marketing Quota Ballots."

A. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO COUNTY COMMITTEES

The county committee of the County Agricultural Conservation Association (hereinafter referred to as the county committee) shall be responsible for and in charge of the referendum on marketing quotas for Burley tobacco, which will be held in the county on Saturday, April 9, 1938, and it shall:

1. Designate a readily accessible place for balloting in each community and give public notice of the time and place for balloting by posting the appropriate notice form at least five days in advance of the voting day in one or more public places within each community. Make use (without advertising expense) of all available agencies of public information, including both the press and the radio, to give farmers in the county full and accurate notice of the day and hours of voting, the precise location of polling places, and the basis of eligibility to vote. Public notice should in all cases be given as soon as practicable after conditions of holding the referendum have been determined but must in every instance be given at least five days in advance of the date of the referendum.

2. Designate in each community three local farmers as members of the community referendum committee to be in charge of holding in the community the referendum on Burley tobacco marketing quotas. One of the members shall be designated as chairman of the community referendum committee.

3. Assist each community referendum committee in providing a ballot box for the ballots cast in the referendum.

4. Furnish each community referendum committee with a list of all the persons (owner-operators, share tenants, tenant-renters, and sharecroppers) in the community who were engaged in the production of Burley tobacco during 1937.

5. Deliver to the chairman of each community referendum committee ballot forms, register forms for use by the community referendum committee in tabulating the results in the community, and three or more sets of community summary forms on which to record the summaries of the ballots cast in the community, together with instructions, respecting balloting, keeping the registers, tabulating ballots, and certifying the results.

6. See that all appropriate measures are taken to insure that each referendum is conducted by secret ballot.

7. Convene not later than 8:30 a. m., Monday, April 11, 1938, for the purpose of receiving and tabulating the data from community summaries, using the county summary forms for this purpose. Four copies of each county summary showing the county results shall be prepared and certified, two copies of which shall be sent to the State committee not later than three days after the date of the referendum, one copy of which shall be posted in a conspicuous place in or near the county office, and one copy of which shall be filed in or near the office of the County Agricultural Conservation Association. One copy of each community summary shall likewise be posted in a conspicuous place in or near the county office.

8. Make an investigation in each case of a controversy respecting eligibility of a voter. Where the ballot is found in a sealed envelope marked "Challenged" by the community referendum committee and bearing the voter's name, the eligibility of such person shall first be determined; and if such person is determined to be eligible the envelope shall be opened and the ballot tabulated on the county summary. If it is determined such person was not eligible to vote, the envelope shall remain sealed and shall be preserved with the ballots as provided in paragraph 9.

9. Seal the voted ballots, register sheets, and community summaries for each county in envelopes or packages (marked "Burley Tobacco Referendum 1938", followed by the name of the county) which shall be kept under lock and key in a safe place under the supervision of the secretary of the County Agricultural Conservation Association for a period of 60 calendar days. If no contest has arisen at the end of such time the ballots shall be destroyed and the community summaries filed in the county office.

10. Make an investigation in cases of dispute regarding the correctness of the summary of the referendum in a community. No dispute shall be investigated unless it has arisen within 2 days after the date on which the referendum was held. The county committee shall promptly decide the disputed matter and immediately report its findings to the State committee and send by registered mail or deliver in person to the State office all voted ballots, register forms, and community summary sheets involved in the dispute.

B. INSTRUCTIONS TO COMMUNITY REFERENDUM COMMITTEES

The community referendum committee designated by the county agricultural conservation committee shall:

1. Arrange with the assistance of the county committee for conducting by secret ballot a referendum of all eligible Burley tobacco farmers tendering ballots within the hours for receiving same.

2. Assist the county committee in giving public notice of the time and place for casting ballots to farmers at least 5 days in advance of the date on which the referendum will be held.

3. Provide a place where each farmer eligible to vote can prepare and cast a ballot without interference and without anyone's seeing how he votes.

4. Open the polls not later than 9 a. m. on Saturday, April 9, 1938.

5. See that no device is used whereby any voter's ballot may be identified (except as provided in par. 11 below in the case of a challenged ballot), and instruct each voter to fold his ballot before placing it in the ballot box.

6. Provide ballot boxes where ballots may be deposited. Any container so arranged that ballots cannot be seen or removed without breaking seals on the container will be suitable. If strip adhesive paper or similar seals are used, such seals should be signed or initialed so that breaking or replacing the seal will affect or destroy the identifying marks.

7. Hold the referendum in a fair and unbiased manner and explain to eligible farmers making inquiry the procedure to be followed in casting their ballots.

8. Issue one ballot to each eligible voter requesting it.

9. See that all appropriate measures are taken to insure that the referendum is conducted by secret ballot.

10. Record on the register of ballots the name and address of each farmer to whom a ballot is issued.

11. Issue a ballot to each person who claims a right to vote, even though his right to vote has been challenged by the community referendum committee. Such ballot, after being marked by the challenged voter, shall be placed in a sealed envelope bearing the name of the voter, the notation "Challenged," and the reason for the challenge. The sealed envelope containing the challenged ballot shall be placed in the ballot box and the name of each farmer whose vote is challenged shall be listed at the bottom of the register of ballots.

12. Stop receiving ballots at 7 p. m. on the date of the referendum.

13. Tabulate and record the results on the community summary sheet after closing the polls. The number of challenged ballots cast and sealed in envelopes shall be entered on the community summary sheet in the space provided but shall not be entered as being either for or against the marketing quota. If any ballots are found to be mutilated and cannot be entered as being either for or against the marketing quota the number should be entered in the space provided.

14. Sign the register and community summary forms and certify to their accuracy.

15. Seal the register and community summary forms, and the unused ballots, in envelopes provided for that purpose and deliver them to the county committee not later than 12 o'clock noon, Monday, April 11, 1938. The chairman of the community referendum committee shall be responsible for the safe delivery of the forms and ballots.

16. Post one copy of the community summary in a conspicuous place at the polls.

C. INSTRUCTIONS TO STATE COMMITTEES

The State committee shall be responsible for and in charge of the referendum in the State and it shall:

1. Summarize on State tabulation forms all county summaries and forward to the applicable regional director, Agricultural Adjustment Administration, Washington, D. C., two certified copies of each summary for the State, not later than 7 days after the day of the referendum. One copy of each such report shall be filed in the State office of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Should one sheet for each report prove insufficient for listing the information with respect to all counties in the State, additional copies of each State tabulation form may be used as continuation sheets, in which case the totals should be entered on the last page only.

2. Make an investigation of any report from any county regarding controversies, irregularities, or the correctness of reports of the referendum, not later than seven days after the date of the referendum.

3. Forward to the applicable regional director its findings in such cases.

D. ELIGIBILITY AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

Official and final tabulation of the results of the referendum will be made by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and the result of the referendum will be announced as soon as the Secretary of Agriculture has determined that such tabulations of the results are correct. State and county committees are at liberty to give to the press unofficial reports of the total "Yes" and total "No" votes in referendum in the State or county.

Only farmers who were engaged in the production of Burley tobacco in 1937 are eligible to vote in the referendum. Any person who shared in the proceeds of the 1937 Burley tobacco crop as landowner, operator, share-tenant, or sharecropper shall be considered as engaged in the production of Burley tobacco.

No farmer (whether an individual, partnership, corporation, firm, association, or other legal entity) shall be entitled to more than one vote in referendum, even though he may have been engaged in 1937 in the production of Burley tobacco in two or more communities, counties, or States.

If a community referendum committee determines that a producer residing in the community within the jurisdiction of that committee is eligible to vote by reason of having been a Burley tobacco farmer in 1937 in another community, the committee may issue a ballot form to him and permit him to cast a ballot, provided the committee also determines that such farmer has not previously cast a ballot in another community. If the committee cannot so determine, the committee shall "Challenge" the ballot as heretofore outlined.

There shall be no voting by proxy or agent but a duly authorized officer of a corporation, firm, association, or other legal entity shall be allowed to cast its vote.

In case several persons, such as husband, wife, and children, participated in the production of Burley tobacco in 1937 under a lease or sharecropping agreement, only the person or persons who signed or entered into the lease or sharecropping agreement shall be eligible to vote.

In the event two or more persons engaged in producing Burley tobacco in 1937 jointly, in common, or in community, each such person is entitled to vote.

If the Secretary of Agriculture deems it necessary, any report of any community referendum committee, county committee, or State committee shall be reexamined and rechecked by such persons or agencies as the Secretary may designate and a report to him made thereon.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of March, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Secretary of Agriculture.

[Docket No. A-67 O-67]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING OF IRISH (WHITE) POTATOES GROWN IN LOUISIANA AND IN CERTAIN COUNTIES IN TEXAS, MISSISSIPPI, ALABAMA AND FLORIDA

Whereas under Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended and as reenacted by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling of Irish (white) potatoes grown in the State of Louisiana; the counties in the State of Texas lying on or north of 28½ degrees latitude; the counties of Warren, Hinds, Rankin, Scott, Newton and Lauderdale, and all counties south thereof, in the State of Mississippi; the counties of Baldwin, Mobile and Escambia in the State of Alabama; and the counties of Escambia and Santa Rosa in the State of Florida;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of such potatoes in the Auditorium, Agricultural Extension-Forestry Bldg., Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, on April 5, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Plaza Hotel, San Antonio, Texas, on April 7, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Court House, Wharton, Texas, on April 8, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Court Room (2nd Floor) Court House, Hattiesburg, Mississippi, on April 8, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; and in the American Legion Hall, Foley, Alabama, on April 9, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling of Irish (white) potatoes grown in the State of Louisiana and in the above mentioned counties in the States of Texas, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such potatoes. Among other things the proposed marketing agreement and proposed order provide for: (a) the establishment of an Area Committee and four State Advisory Committees, (b) prohibition of shipment of "cull" potatoes, (c) further grade and size regulations of shipments, (d) expenses of administration, and other matters relating to the handling of such potatoes in the aforesaid area.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of potatoes in the aforesaid area which requires a shorter period of notice than fifteen (15) days; and it is hereby determined that the period of notice given is reasonable under the circumstances.

Copies of the proposed marketing agreement and proposed order may be inspected in or procured from the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—EAST CENTRAL REGION

BULLETIN 101—GUILFORD COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA SUPPLEMENT (A)

Soil Conserving Crops for Farm Allowance

Subsection (4) of section 1, part I, East Central Region Bulletin 101, Guilford County, North Carolina, is amended by adding the following:

(5) For farms having no cotton or tobacco soil-depleting base and having a general soil-depleting base of more than 20 acres and on which the allotted acreage of general soil-depleting crops is as large as the general soil-depleting base for the farm, 75 cents per acre of cropland in the farm, or one dollar for each acre of soil-conserving crops specified in the farming plan established for the farm, whichever is the smaller; provided that this part of the allowance for any such farm shall not be less than $20.00.

The provisions of this Supplement (a) shall be effective as of October 14, 1937, so as to be covered by the provisions of the "Order Increasing the Allowances, Deductions, and Rates of Payment Under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in the East Central, Northeast, North Central, Southern and Western Regions" issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on October 14, 1937.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

ORDER IN THE MATTER OF A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS TO BE KEPT BY EXPRESS COMPANIES

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 4, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of March A. D., 1938.

The matter of modifying the Uniform System of Accounts for Express Companies being under consideration:

It is ordered, That the following general instructions be and they are hereby prescribed:

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Definitions.—When used in this system of accounts the term:

(A) "Cost of removal" means the cost of demolishing, tearing down, dismantling, removing or otherwise disposing of carrier property, recovering the salvage, and filling excavations of structures removed.

(B) "Component rates" as applied to depreciation accounting means the rates applied to the various subclasses of property within a primary account in arriving at the depreciation charge upon which the composite rate is based.

(C) "Composite rate" means the percentage rate applicable to the primary account as a whole.

(D) "Depreciable accounts" are those in which is recorded the cost of those classes of property for which depreciation acounting is required. (See instruction 2-D.)

(E) "Depreciation" means the loss in service value (note definition O) not restored by current maintenance and incurred in connection with the consumption or prospective retirement of physical property in the course of service from causes against which the carrier is not protected by insurance, which are known to be in current operation, and the effect of which can be forecast with a reasonable approach to accuracy.

(F) "Group method" as applied to depreciation accounting means the method under which depreciation charges are accrued upon the basis of the ledger value of all property included in each depreciable account, using the average service life thereof properly weighted, and upon the retirement of any depreciable property its full service value is charged to the depreciation reserve regardless of the amount accrued with respect to the particular unit retired.

(G) "Ledger value" means the amount at which assets are properly recorded in the accounts of the carrier.

(H) "Minor item" as applied to carrier property means any part or element thereof which is not designated as a unit of property in appendix A.

(I) "Nondepreciable accounts" are those real-property-and-equipment accounts in which are recorded the ledger values of those classes of carrier property for which no charges to operating expenses for depreciation are permitted.

(J) "Property retired" as applied to carrier property means property which has been permanently withdrawn from transportation service.

NOTE.—The dismantling or tearing down of a structure or a unit of equipment in order to replace parts thereof with improved parts the purpose of which is to modernize the unit and to create an expectation of life fairly comparable with a new and modern unit shall be accounted a retirement but the dismantling or stripping of such property only to the extent necessary to recondition or to replace in kind defective parts shall be accounted as repairs.

(K) "Retirement" as applied to physical property means the permanent withdrawal of the property from the service in which it has been used.

(L) "Replacement" means the installation of physical property in substitution for other property which has been retired.

(M) "Salvage from retired property" means the amount received for property retired and disposed of, or the amount at which the material recovered should be charged if re-used.

(N) "Service life" means the period of time between the installation or placing in service of a unit of property and its retirement for accounting purposes. In case buildings or other improvements on land not owned pass to lessor at the expiration of the lease, the service life of such improvements shall be computed as not extending beyond the term of the lease.

(O) "Service value" as applied to carrier property is the ledger value thereof less the value of the salvage therefrom.

(P) "Straight-line method" as applied to depreciation accounting means the method under which the service value of all depreciable property is charged to operating expenses or other appropriate accounts and concurrently credited to the depreciation reserve through equal annual charges as nearly as may be during its service life.

(Q) "Time of installation" means the date at which carrier property is placed in transportation service.

(R) "Time of retirement" as applied to carrier property means the date at which the property is permanently withdrawn from transportation service.

2. Depreciation accounting.—(A) Computing and filing of depreciation rates:

(1) The carrier shall file with this Commission composite annual percentage rates estimated to be applicable to the ledger value of each class of depreciable carrier property owned and used by it. These percentage rates shall be based on the estimated service values and service lives developed by a study of the carrier's history and experience and such engineering and other information as may be available with respect to prospective future conditions. They shall be computed in conformity with the group method of accounting for depreciation and shall be such that the loss in service value of the property may be distributed under the straight-line method during its service life. Such percentage rates shall, for each primary account comprised of more than one class of property, produce a charge to operating expenses for that account equal to the sum of the amounts that would otherwise be chargeable for each of the various classes of property included in the account. The annual percentage rates so filed shall be accompanied by a sworn statement showing the bases therefor and the methods employed in their computation. A carrier which becomes subject to the provisions of this system of accounts after January 1, 1938, shall file such percentage rates within six months after the provisions of this system of accounts become applicable to it.

(2) In the event any annual percentage rate prescribed by this Commission, in the judgment of the carrier, becomes no longer currently applicable, it shall in like manner file annual percentage rates which in its judgment should be established. Where property is acquired for which no rates have been prescribed the carrier shall immediately compile and submit to this Commission appropriate estimates developed in accordance with the provisions of this instruction.

(3) The carrier shall keep such records of property and property retirements as will reflect the service life of property which has been retired, or will permit the determination of service-life indications by mortality, turnover, or other appropriate methods; also such records as will reflect the percentage of value of the salvage for property retired from each class of depreciable carrier property. The carrier shall be prepared at any time, upon direction of this Commission, to compute and submit for its approval revised percentage rates in cases where existing rates are deemed inapplicable.

(B) Depreciation charges.—All depreciation charges to operating expenses, or other appropriate accounts, and concurrent credits to the accrued depreciation account shall be made monthly. In computing such monthly charges and credits the annual percentage rates shall be applied to the ledger value of depreciable property in the respective primary accounts as of the first of each month and the result divided by twelve.

(C) Depreciation rates.—A separate composite annual percentage rate (see note) for each account covering depreciable carrier property shall be used in computing depreciation charges. Such composite rates shall be those which are from time to time prescribed by this Commission, except that where no rates for any class of property previously have been prescribed for the carrier's use by this Commission, the carrier's estimates of composite annual percentage rates computed in accordance with paragraph A of this instruction shall be used prior to the date rates prescribed by this Commission become effective.

NOTE.—Where the composite rate as prescribed by this Commission has been developed by the application of component rates to the various subclasses of property within a primary account and a segregation of the property to which they are applicable is maintained or is available, such component rates, when specifically authorized, may be used in computing the current depreciation charges as long as the property to which they apply is in service and the estimated service lives, etc., upon which they are based remain the same, without a supplemental order.

(D) Classes of depreciable carrier property.—The classes of depreciable carrier property and the accounts covering such property are as follows:

(E) Upon the retirement of a unit of depreciable property the service value shall be charged in its entirety to account 548, "Accrued depreciation—Buildings and equipment."

(F) If as a result of unforeseen retirements or of insufficient credits to the depreciation reserve in the past it develops that the balance in it has become inadequate, a carrier may, upon application to this Commission and with its approval, credit it reserve and charge account 417, "Miscellaheous profit and loss debits," with an appropriate amount. The application to this Commission for such special accounting shall give full particulars concerning the situation.

(G) Insurance recovered.—If insured structures or units of equipment which are damaged are repaired, the insurance recovered shall be credited to the account in which the cost of the repairs is included; if they are destroyed, the insurance recovered shall be credited to the accrued depreciation account.

3. Retirements and replacements.—(A) To accounts 201 to 217, inclusive, shall be credited at the time of retirement the ledger value of carrier property retired as follows:

(1) Land retired including the proportional cost of public improvements pertaining to the land. (See special instruction 4 to the real-property and equipment accounts.)

(2) Units of depreciable carrier property retired. (See appendix A.)

(3) Minor items of depreciable carrier property retired and not replaced.

NOTE.—If the ledger value of the minor item retired is small, is not under a general plan and in the judgment of the carrier does not affect the condition and value of the property for valuation or depreciation purposes, has been or will be accounted for by the inclusion in the unit of property of which it is a part when such unit is retired, no separate credit to the property account is required when such minor item is retired.

(4) Minor items of depreciable carrier property retired and replaced with items of a different type or design or constructed of a different grade of material rendering the part applied more or less durable or of greater or less capacity than the item retired.

NOTE.—If the cost of the items applied in replacement is small, the replacement is not under a general plan, and in the judgment of the carrier the retirement and replacement does not affect the condition and value of the property for valuation or depreciation purposes the cost of the replacement shall be charged to operating expenses, as shall also be charged the cost of replacing in kind all minor items of carrier property retired, and no adjustment shall be made in the property investment account.

General note.—If the ledger value of units and minor items of property retired cannot be definitely determined from the carrier's records, the ledger value of such units and minor items shall be estimated. Average prices may be used in estimating the ledger value when it is impracticable, because of the relatively large number and small size of items, to otherwise determine the ledger value of such items.

(B) The amounts thus credited to accounts 202 to 217, inclusive, shall concurrently be charged as follows:

(1) If the retired property is held by the carrier for other than express service, its estimated value shall be included in account 503, "Miscellaneous physical property," and the difference between that amount and the ledger value shall be charged to account 548, "Accrued depreciation—Buildings and equipment."

(2) Value of salvage.—The value of the salvage from the retired property shall be charged to account 512, "Material and supplies," or other accounts appropriate according to the disposition made thereof. If retired property is held temporarily without being torn down the estimated value of the salvage therefrom (see also account 512, "Material and supplies") shall be included in account 520, "Other deferred assets," until the salvage is recovered.

(3) Service value of depreciable property.—(a) Units of property.—The service value shall be charged to account 548, "Accrued depreciation—Buildings and equipment."

(b) Minor items.—There shall be charged to account 548, "Accrued depreciation—Buildings and equipment," the service value of any minor item which is accounted for as retired in accordance with paragraphs A–3 and 4 of this instruction.

(C) Cost of removal.—The cost of removal (see Instruction 1 (A)) shall be accounted for as provided in the text of operating-expense account 30, "Retirements."

(D) Property installed.—The cost of carrier property installed in lieu of carrier property accounted for as retired, under the foregoing sections of this instruction, shall be charged to the appropriate real-property-and-equipment account.

It is further ordered, That sections 3, 4, and 5 of the Special Instructions for Operating Expense Accounts be and they are hereby cancelled.

It is further ordered, That the following operating-expense accounts and the texts pertaining thereto be and they are hereby cancelled:

3. Buildings and appurtenances—Depreciation.
4. Buildings and appurtenances—Retirements.
6. Cars—Depreciation.
7. Cars—Retirements.
8. Horses—Depreciation.
9. Horses—Retirements.
11. Automobiles—Depreciation.
12. Automobiles—Retirements.
14. Wagons and sleighs—Depreciation.
15. Wagons and sleighs—Retirements.
17. Harness equipment—Depreciation and retirements.
19. Office furniture and equipment—Depreciation and retirements.
21. Office safes—Depreciation and retirements.
23. Trucks—Depreciation and retirements.
25. Stable and Garage Equipment—Depreciation and retirements.
27. Line equipment—Depreciation and retirements.
29. Shop equipment—Depreciation and retirements.
31. Miscellaneous equipment—Depreciation and retirements.

It is further ordered, That the number of account "Miscellaneous equipment—Repairs," be and it is hereby changed from 30 to 29.

It is further ordered, That the first line of the text of operating-expense account 2, "Buildings and appurtenances—Repairs," be and it is hereby modified by inserting the word "and" before the word "repairing" and eliminating the words "and removing".

It is further ordered, That the parenthetical sentence at the end of the text of account 204, "Improvements to buildings not owned," be and it is hereby cancelled.

It is further ordered, That the following operating-expense accounts and the texts pertaining thereto be and they are hereby prescribed:

30. Retirements.—This account shall include the cost of demolishing, tearing down, dismantling, removing, or otherwise disposing of carrier property, recovering the salvage, and filling in the excavations of structures removed.

31. Depreciation.—(A) This account shall include charges covering the current loss through depreciation of buildings and equipment. (See general instruction 2–B.)

(B) The carrier's records shall be kept in such manner that charges for depreciation may be shown separately for each depreciable building and equipment account.

It is further ordered, That the following modifications in the special instructions pertaining to the real-property-and-equipment accounts be and they are hereby prescribed:

Modify paragraph (d) under special instruction No. 1 to read as follows:

(d) The cost of improvements representing physical changes in existing units of property, such as additions to buildings and other structures, and additional devices applied to facilities. (The cost of rearranging or altering the existing property in the process of making improvements shall be charged to operating expenses. See general instruction 3–C.)

These accounts shall also include the necessary credits to represent the ledger value, (estimated if not known), of units of equipment or of other property abandoned, sold, or otherwise retired, whether replaced by property of like purpose or not. (See general instruction 3–A–3–4.)

It is further ordered, That sections 3, 5, 6, and 7 of the special instructions for the real-property and equipment accounts be and they are hereby cancelled.

It is further ordered, That the part of the text of operating-expense general account I, Maintenance, reading "and the original cost, less salvage, of property, other than land, abandoned or retired from service" be and it is hereby cancelled.

It is further ordered, That the part of the text of general real-property-and-equipment account III, Equipment, reading as follows "also the excess cost of betterments, such as improved appliances, parts, or appurtenances over the cost as new, at current prices, of appliances, parts, or appurtenances removed. The cost of labor and supplies consumed in removing the old and applying the improved shall be charged to operating expenses." be and it is hereby cancelled.

It is further ordered, That the notes to real-property-and-equipment accounts 209 to 217, inclusive, be and they are hereby cancelled.

It is further ordered, That the following balance-sheet accounts and the texts pertaining thereto be and they are hereby cancelled:

548. Accrued depreciation—Buildings.
549. Accrued depreciation—Equipment.

It is further ordered, That the following balance-sheet account and the text pertaining thereto be and they are hereby prescribed:

548. Accrued depreciation—Buildings and equipment.—(A) To this account shall be credited amounts charged to account 31, "Depreciation," to cover the loss in service value (note instruction 1–O) of depreciable carrier property. It shall be credited also with any amounts which the carrier may be authorized to charge to account 417, "Miscellaneous profit and loss debits," in respect of past accrued depreciation not provided for. (See general instruction 2–F.)

(B) At the time of retirement (note instruction 1–R) of depreciable carrier property this account shall be charged with the service value (note instruction 1–O) of the property retired, and to it shall be credited the insurance recovered, if any.

(C) For corporate ledger and balance-sheet purposes, this account shall be regarded and treated as a single composite reserve. However, for purposes of analysis, the carrier shall maintain subsidiary records in which the depreciation reserve is broken down into component parts corresponding to the primary building and equipment accounts which include depreciable carrier property (see also instruction 2–D). These subsidiary records shall show the current credits and debits in the reserve in complete detail by such primary real-property-and-equipment accounts.

It is further ordered, That the following be and it is hereby prescribed as Appendix A to the text pertaining to the real-property and equipment accounts:

APPENDIX A

The following list of units of real property and equipment is established for the purpose of designating items of physical property included in each depreciable account the ledger value of which shall be credited to the respective accounts at time of retirement (see general instruction 3 for instructions applicable to minor items, and the text of account 218, "Minor equipment," for those applicable to equipment of classes having an average original cost of $50 or less per unit):

DETERMINATION OF FAIR AND REASONABLE WAGE RATES FOR HARVESTING SUGARCANE IN THE MAINLAND SUGARCANE AREA BETWEEN SEPTEMBER 1, 1937, AND JUNE 30, 1938

Whereas Section 301 (b) of the Sugar Act of 1937 provides, as one of the conditions for payment to producers of sugar beets and sugarcane, as follows:

(b) That all persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets or sugarcane with respect to which an application for payment is made shall have been paid in full for all such work, and shall have been paid wages therefor at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing; and in making such determinations the Secretary shall take into consideration the standards therefor formerly established by him under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, and the differences in conditions among various producing areas: Provided, however, That a payment which would be payable except for the foregoing provisions of this subsection may be made, as the Secretary may determine, in such manner that the laborer will receive an amount, insofar as such payment will suffice, equal to the amount of the accrued unpaid wages for such work, and that the producer will receive the remainder, if any, of such payment.

and

Whereas Section 301 (e) of the said act provides, in part, as follows:

The conditions provided in * * * subsection (b) with respect to wage rates, of this section shall not apply to work performed prior to the enactment of this Act; * * *

and

Whereas the Secretary of Agriculture, held public hearings in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, on October 4, 1937, and in Clewiston, Florida, on December 4, 1937, for the purpose of receiving evidence likely to be of assistance to him in determining fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane in the mainland sugarcane area.

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, after investigation and due consideration of the evidence obtained at the aforesaid hearing and all other information before me, do hereby determine that the requirements of subsection (b) of Section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937 shall be deemed to have been met with respect to harvesting of cane in the mainland sugarcane area during the period from September 1, 1937, to June 30, 1938, if all persons employed on the farm during that period in the harvesting of sugarcane shall have been paid in full for all such work and paid wages therefor at rates not less than the following:

(1) For cutting cane on a tonnage basis not less than 75 cents per ton including cutting, topping and stripping; and in the event that loading is also included, not less than the following rates:

Type of cane:	Rate per ton
Small barrel cane, green	$1.19
Small barrel cane, burned	.97
Medium barrel cane, green	.97
Medium barrel cane, burned	.81
Large barrel cane, green	.81
Large barrel cane, burned	.65

(2) For harvesting operations on a time basis not less than $1.50 per day for adult male workers, and for adult female workers, not less than $1.20 per day.

Provided, however, That laborers shall have been supplied by the producer, without charge, with the perquisites customarily furnished by him, such as, a habitable house, a suitable garden plot with facilities for its cultivation, pasture for livestock, medical attention, and similar incidentals.

Nothing in this determination shall be construed to mean that a producer may qualify for a payment under the said act who has not paid in full the amount agreed upon between the producer and the laborer.

This determination supersedes the "Determination of Fair and Reasonable Wage Rates for Harvesting of the 1937 Crop of Louisiana Sugarcane, Pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1937", made by the Secretary of Agriculture on November 12, 1937, except that any producer who has completed harvesting prior to the date of this determination shall be deemed to have met the requirements of subsection (b) of Section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937 if he has complied with the determination of November 12, 1937.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of March, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Secretary of Agriculture.

[Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 9]

ALLOTMENT OF THE DIRECT-CONSUMPTION PORTION OF THE 1938 SUGAR QUOTA FOR PUERTO RICO

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Sugar Act of 1937, approved September 1, 1937, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, in order to carry out the powers vested in me by the said act, do hereby make, issue, publish and give public notice of this order, which shall have the force and effect of law and shall continue in force and effect until amended or superseded by orders or regulations hereafter made by the Secretary of Agriculture.

I

Whereas General Sugar Quota Regulations, Series 5, No. 1, establishes for Puerto Rico for the calendar year 1938 a quota of 819,344 short tons of sugar, raw value, of which 126,033 short tons of sugar, raw value, may be filled by direct-consumption sugar, and

Whereas the Secretary of Agriculture on January 14, 1938, held a public hearing in Washington, D. C. for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable him to make a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of that portion of the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar, and

Whereas I hereby find that the allotment of that portion of the said quota which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar is necessary in order to prevent disorderly marketing of direct-consumption sugar from such area.

II

Now, therefore, upon the basis of the foregoing finding and pursuant to the foregoing authority, it is hereby ordered:

1. That the said quantity of 126,033 short tons, raw value, of direct-consumption sugar shall be allotted to the following processors in the amounts which appear opposite their respective names:

Name of processor:	Direct-Consumption Allotment (short tons, raw value)
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery, Inc.	93,406
Aguirre	3,464
Carmen	81
Guanica	3,914
Igualdad	5,741
Roig	11,788
San Francisco	1,947
	120,321
Unallotted reserve for marketings of raw sugar for direct-consumption	5,712
Total	126,033

2. That the above named processors are hereby prohibited from bringing into the continental United States, for consumption during the calendar year 1938, any direct-consumption sugar (except the above-mentioned amount of raw sugar used for direct-consumption) from Puerto Rico in excess of the marketing allotments set forth in paragraph 1 hereof.

3. That the allotments fixed herein shall not be assigned or transferred without the approval of the Secretary or his duly appointed agent.

In Testimony Whereof, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, this 30th day of March, 1938.

IN THE MATTER OF OBRA MINES CORPORATION, COMMON CAPITAL STOCK

FINDINGS AND ORDER WITHDRAWING REGISTRATION OF SECURITIES ON A NATIONAL SECURITIES EXCHANGE

The Commission having instituted a proceeding pursuant to Section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, to determine whether the registration on the San Francisco Mining Exchange of 960,000 shares of common stock, 10 cents par value, of Obra Mines Corporation shall be suspended or withdrawn; and

After appropriate notice, a hearing having been held in this matter on January 25, 1938, in San Francisco, California; and

The Obra Mines Corporation having stipulated under date of January 19, 1938, that it has failed to comply with the provisions of Section 13 (a) and 13 (b) and Rules KA1 and KA2 and with the provisions of Form 10–K in the respects charged by the order for hearing dated January 12, 1938; and

The Commission finding, upon the evidence introduced at said hearing, that the issuer has failed to comply with the provisions of Sections 13 (a) and 13 (b) of said Act, as amended, Rules KA1 and KA2, Form 10–K and the Instructions supplemental thereto, prescribed under said Section; and

The Commission being of the opinion, in view of the failure of the issuer to comply in the above respects with the provisions of Title I of said Act, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder, that it is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors to withdraw the registration of said common stock on said exchange;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that the registration on the San Francisco Mining Exchange of 960,000 shares of common stock, 10 cents par value, of Obra Mines Corporation shall be and the same is hereby withdrawn, effective as of April 8, 1938.

UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION.

[General Order No. 23, Amended]

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR CADET OFFICERS AND CADETS UPON VESSELS OPERATED FOR THE ACCOUNT OF THE UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION AND UPON VESSELS OPERATING UNDER SUBSIDY AGREEMENTS

General Order No. 23 is hereby amended to read as follows:

I. Effective March 15, 1938, there are established the ratings "Cadet Officer" and "Cadet."

A. Cadet Officer.—Qualifications for the rating "Cadet Officer" shall be:

(1) Graduation from the State Nautical School of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, New York or California, the U. S. Naval Academy, the U. S. Coast Guard Academy, or from such other school or academy specifically approved by this Commission, and in addition possession of a license as Third Mate or Third Assistant Engineer; or

(2) Completion of the course prescribed for "Cadets" by the United States Maritime Commission, and in addition, possession of a license as Third Mate or Third Assistant Engineer, or

(3) Possession by any person not more than 23 years of age, of a license as Third Mate or Third Assistant Engineer, under which license that person has not previously sailed.

B. Cadet.—The following requirements for cadets are hereby established:

(1) The rating "Cadet" shall comprise "Deck Cadets" and "Engineer Cadets."

(2) Deck Cadets.—To be eligible for appointment as a deck cadet, the applicant must be a graduate of a high school with fourteen standard high school credits.

(3) Engineer Cadets.—To be eligible for appointment as an engineer cadet, the applicant must comply with one of the following qualifications:

(a) Graduation from a vocational high school course approved by the Commission.

(b) Graduation from a high school, with fourteen standard high school credits, and also to have had two years service in a shipyard, engaged in building or repairing ships of more than 1,000 registered tons, or in a plant, approved by the Commission, where engines and/or boilers are manufactured or repaired.

(c) Completion of two years in an engineering course in a technical college approved by the Commission.

II. Compensation and quarters.

A. Cadet Officers.—Compensation for cadet officers shall be at the rate of $75.00 per month and cadet officers shall have in all other respects the perquisites and privileges of a licensed officer.

B. Cadets.—Compensation for cadets shall be at a rate of $50.00 per month. While traveling in the course of employment cadets shall be furnished an allowance for subsistence at the rate of $3.25 per day, except where subsistence is included with transportation. When meals are not furnished, cadets shall receive a subsistence allowance of $2.50 per day, and, when required to sleep ashore, they shall receive an allowance of $1.75 per night for lodging.

C. Quarters.—All cadet officers and cadets shall be quartered with licensed personnel.

III. Eligible list.—The Division of Maritime Personnel shall examine all applications for cadet officers and cadets and shall compile an eligible list in each classification. After March 15, 1938, appointment of cadet officers and cadets shall be made exclusively from among those on the eligible list. Operators of vessels with an operating subsidy and the Division of Operations and Traffic of this Commission may select from this eligible list cadet officers or cadets for vessels under their respective jurisdiction.

The number of cadet officers or cadets, deck and engine, required to be carried will be prescribed by the Commission in the establishment of minimum manning scales for each individual vessel operating under subsidy contracts.

IV. Requirements for application.

A. Every applicant for the position of cadet officer or cadet must satisfy the Commission as to his good moral character and standing and must submit with his application documentary evidence thereof signed by the principal of his high school, or other public official, and by two additional American citizens.

B. The applicant must be an unmarried American citizen not less than 18 (19 in the case of cadet officers) nor more than 23 years of age. His age must be attested by a birth certificate or other evidence satisfactory to the Commission. If the applicant is below the age of 21 his application must contain the written consent of his parents or guardian.

C. The applicant must present a certificate from a duly qualified practicing physician that he is free from any acute or organic disease, mental infirmity, or other constitutional weakness, and shall be subject to further physical examination at the direction of the Commission.

D. The applicant must furnish a satisfactory certificate showing that his scholastic attainments meet the requirements of the Commission.

E. Applications from citizens of any of the States will receive equal consideration.

F. The form of application to be used in this connection, attached hereto, is hereby approved.

V. Requirements for training.

A. The Master of the vessel shall be responsible for insuring that all cadet officers and cadets receive adequate practical instruction in the duties which they will be required to perform as licensed officers in the department for which they are in training.

B. Deck department.—Cadet officers and cadets, in addition to such other duties as may be prescribed by the Master of the vessel, are required to perform the following duties:

(1) To assist the Navigation Officer in the day's work pertaining to the Navigation of the ship. This shall include for cadet officers the determination daily of the position of the ship by dead reckoning and such astronomical observations as may be practicable under the direction of the Navigating Officer.

(2) To keep a navigation note book and work book in which he shall preserve such navigation records as he may make and which shall be subject to inspection by the Ship's officers or the Commission.

(3) To work eight hours daily, of which not more than two hours may be watch duty at night, but no cadet officer shall have charge of a watch at sea unless signed on the articles as a licensed officer.

(4) To perform such duties as shall be assigned to him by order of the Master of the vessel, which shall be restricted, however, to include only the type of work customarily done by a licensed officer or by a boatswain, carpenter, quartermaster or other petty officer. In no case, however, shall he replace an unlicensed employee.

(5) To become proficient, under direction of the Master, in handling safety-at-sea appliances aboard ship, including life boats, fire-fighting gear, etc.

(6) To become familiar with stowage of cargo, handling of cargo gear and with other work ordinarily coming under the supervision of licensed officers.

(7) To study, outside of working hours, such correspondence or extension courses as may be prescribed by the Commission, and to be prepared to pass examinations thereon to the satisfaction of the Commission. Such courses shall be designed to supplement other training.

C. Engine department.—The Chief Engineer of the vessel shall be responsible to the Master for insuring that all engineer cadet officers and cadets receive adequate practical instruction in the duties which they will be required to perform as licensed officers in the engine department. Engineer cadet officers and cadets, in addition to such other duties as may be prescribed by the Chief Engineer, are required to perform the following duties:

(1) To receive instruction in the operation and maintenance of all boilers, machinery and other mechanical equipment which may be under the jurisdiction of the Chief Engineer.

(2) To receive instruction in machine shop work where equipment is available.

(3) To work eight hours daily at such tasks as may be assigned to him by order of the Chief Engineer, but such work shall be restricted to that ordinarily done by licensed engineer officers, or by storekeepers, donkeymen, water tenders, oilers, and other petty officers except that engineer cadets (not engineer cadet officers) may also perform the duties of firemen at the discretion of the Chief Engineer. In no case, however, shall he replace an unlicensed employee.

(4) To become proficient, under direction of the Master, in handling appliances necessary for safety of life at sea aboard ship, including life boats, fire fighting gear, etc.

(5) To study, outside of working hours, such correspondence or extension courses as may be prescribed by the Commission, and to be prepared to pass examinations thereon to the satisfaction of the Commission. Such courses shall be designed to supplement other training.

VI. General rules and regulations.

A. No cadet officer may hold such position for more than two years, or cadet for more than four years, or a total service of five years for both ratings.

B. All cadet officers and cadets are required to obtain a certificate authorizing service at sea from the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation prior to sailing.

C. Correspondence and extension courses prescribed for cadet officers and cadets, and examinations thereon, should be conducted by the Coast Guard Institute at the expense of the Commission.

D. Cadet officers, because of their prior training, should be placed on as many vessels as possible with a view to their becoming officers of those vessels and to that extent assisting in raising standards. They can also assist those cadets who have not had prior training.

E. All deck and engineer cadets shall be required to sign articles for a rate of pay of $5 a month for the first six months. On completion of this six months service, they will be paid by the Operator $270, the equivalent of the balance of six months wages at the rate of $50 per month, and thereafter, if they sign articles will be paid at the rate of $50 a month. During the first six months probationary period cadets will be entitled to the subsistence and travel allowances prescribed in General Order No. 23. Cadet officers, however, shall not be required to serve a probationary period.

F. Uniforms for cadet officers and cadets shall be prescribed in the same manner as uniforms for licensed personnel.

For the Commission.

APPLICATIONS FOR OPERATING-DIFFERENTIAL SUBSIDY CONTRACTS BY AMERICAN SOUTH AFRICAN LINE AND SEAS SHIPPING COMPANY

ORDER FOR PUBLIC HEARING

At a session of the United States Maritime Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of March, A. D. 1938.

It appearing, That the American South African Line, an American citizen within the definition of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, and operating vessels of United States registry, has filed an application for an operating-differential subsidy contract covering services on routes between Atlantic ports of the United States and South and East Africa and between Gulf ports and South and East Africa.

It further appearing, That the Seas Shipping Company, an American citizen within said definition and operating under the trade name, "Robin Line", vessels of United States registry on the route between Atlantic ports of the United States and South and East Africa, has also filed an application for an operating-differential contract covering the services on said route.

It further appearing, That the award of an operating-differential subsidy contract covering the services on routes between Atlantic ports of the United States and South and East Africa upon the terms requested may give an undue advantage or be unduly prejudicial as between said citizens in the operation of vessels in the competitive service above mentioned.

It is ordered, That a public hearing be held, before such member or members of the Commission or such examiner as the Commission may designate, in Washington, D. C., in the Department of Commerce Building, room 2062, on Wednesday, April 13, at 10:00 A. M., in accordance with the provisions of Section 605 (c) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, and for the purposes therein stated.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served forthwith upon the American South African Line and upon the Seas Shipping Company and that notice of said public hearing be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER at least fifteen days before the date of said hearing.

It is further ordered, That, the Rules of Procedure now in force with respect to the Division of Regulation, shall be the rules in effect for this hearing in respect to the procedure, intervening of parties and taking of evidence.

By the Commission.

LOCAL SUBSIDIARY REGULATIONS

The following subsidiary regulations, issued under the authority of the Rules and Regulations approved by the Secretary of the Interior June 18, 1936 (1 F. R. 672), have been recommended by the superintendent and approved by the Director of the National Park Service, and are in force and effect within the boundaries of Great Smoky Mountains National Park:

Fishing.—The following waters and no others are open for fishing. All streams other than those listed below are closed for the purpose of restocking. Main streams only of water listed are open—all tributaries thereof are closed.

Tennessee section of the park—
Cosby Creek below Dry Branch.
Middle Prong Little Pigeon River below Buck Fork.
Ramsey Prong below Cascades.
Porters Creek below Boulevard Prong.
Roaring Fork below Enloe Hollow Branch.
West Prong Little Pigeon River below Road Prong.
Little River below Meigs Post Prong.
Fish Camp Prong below Goshen Prong.
Jakes Creek below Newt Prong.
Rough Creek.
West Prong Little River below Long Cove Branch.
Laurel Creek below Bote Mountain road crossing.
Anthony Creek.

North Carolina section of the park—
Big Creek below Gunter Fork.
Cataloochee Creek.
Palmer Creek below Lost Bottom Creek.
Rough Fork below Messer Fork.
Oconalufty River.
Bunches Creek below Flat Creek.
Straight Fork below Balsam Corner Creek.

Chasteen Creek below Forks.
Left Fork of Oconalufty River below Jack Bradley Branch.
Kephart Prong below Sweat Heifer Branch.
Deep Creek.
Left Fork below Hermit Branch.
Right Fork below Cherry Creek.
Indian Creek below Estes Branch.
Forney Creek below Huggins Branch.
Jonas Creek below Little Jonas Creek.
All waters of Hazel Creek.
Twentymile Creek below Greer Branch.
Moore Spring Branch below Dalton Branch.

Open season.—Trout, May 16 to August 31, inclusive; rock bass and small mouth bass, June 16 to August 31, inclusive. Fishing is permitted only between the hours of 5:00 A. M. and 6:30 P. M., Central Standard Time, for the Tennessee section of the park; and between 6:00 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, for the North Carolina section of the park. Both hours mentioned are of the same day.

Restriction as to the use of bait.—Fishing is permitted only with artificial bait with but one hook. Two artificial flies may be attached to the leader if desired. The use of other than artificial bait is prohibited.

Size limit.—Brook trout and rock bass under 6 inches in length, rainbow trout under 8 inches in length, and small mouth bass under 10 inches in length, shall not be retained unless seriously injured.

Limit of catch.—The maximum catch in any one day and the maximum number in possession of any one person shall be 10 fish of any or all species, including undersized fish retained because seriously injured.

Fishing license.—The park as such does not charge for fishing license, but persons fishing in the park must have State fishing license issued by Tennessee or North Carolina, depending upon the section being fished.

Fires.—The building of fires for any purpose on or along park roads, except in designated camp grounds and picnic areas, is prohibited.

Speed.—Speed of automobiles and other vehicles, except ambulances and Government cars on emergency trips, is limited to 35 miles per hour on highways. On secondary roads, posted as such, speed is limited to 20 miles per hour on straight sections, and 15 miles per hour on curves.

Camping.—Overnight camping in the campgrounds of the park is prohibited except in emergencies. Persons or parties who are unable to reach campgrounds outside the park before dark will be permitted to camp within the park for one night. This restriction shall remain in effect until all lands necessary for the park have been acquired by the United States and general development can be undertaken.

All previous local subsidiary regulations for Great Smoky Mountains National Park are hereby repealed.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

GRADES, REQUIREMENTS, AND REGULATIONS OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE FOR CARRYING OUT THE PROVISIONS OF THE EXPORT APPLE AND PEAR ACT OF JUNE 10, 1933 [2]

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by "An act to promote the foreign trade of the United States in apples and/or pears, to protect the reputation of American-grown apples and pears in foreign markets, to prevent deception or misrepresentation as to the quality of such products moving in foreign commerce, to provide for the commercial inspection of such products entering such commerce, and for other purposes," approved June 10, 1933 (48 Stat. 123, 7 U. S. C., Secs. 581–589), making it unlawful to ship or offer for shipment or to transport or receive for transportation to any foreign destination any apples or pears in packages not accompanied by a certificate authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture showing that the apples or pears are of a Federal or State grade which meets the minimum of quality established by the Secretary of Agriculture for shipment in export, and that they comply with the requirements prescribed by the regulations under said act, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby prescribe the following grades, requirements, and regulations which shall supersede those heretofore issued.

REGULATION 1. DEFINITIONS

Words used in these regulations in the singular form shall be deemed to import the plural, and vice versa, as the case may demand.

The following terms included in the act shall for the purpose of these regulations be construed to mean:

Act.—An act approved June 10, 1933 (48 Stat. 123, 7 U. S. C., Secs. 581–589), entitled "An Act To promote the foreign trade of the United States in apples and/or pears, to protect the reputation of American-grown apples and pears in foreign markets, to prevent deception or misrepre-

[1] This is a revision of S. R. A.—B. A. E. 143, (approved August 31, 1933, effective September 1, 1933) as amended January 30, 1934, December 31, 1935, July 22, 1936, and July 28, 1937 (2 F. R. 1333).

[2] 48 Stat. 123; 7 U. S. C., secs. 581–589.

sentation as to the quality of such products moving in foreign commerce, to provide for the commercial inspection of such products entering such commerce, and for other purposes," and which will be referred to by the Department as the Export Apple and Pear Act.

Person.—Individuals, partnerships, corporations, and associations.

Carriers.—All common and private carriers, including trucks, vessels, tramp and chartered steamers whether carrying for hire or otherwise.

Secretary.—The Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

Foreign commerce.—Commerce between any State, or the District of Columbia, and any place outside of the United States or its possessions.

Apples and/or pears.—Fresh whole apples or pears, whether or not they have been in storage.

Certificate.—This term means a statement that a designated lot of apples and/or pears meets the requirements of the Export Apple and Pear Act included in and made a part (1) of an Export Form Certificate issued under the farm products inspection law (Annual Agricultural Appropriation Act) or (2) of a memorandum in a form approved by the Chief of Bureau and issued in lieu of an Export Form Certificate.

REGULATION 2. ADMINISTRATION

The Chief or Acting Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics shall perform for and under the supervision of the Secretary such duties as the Secretary may require in enforcing the provisions of the act and of these regulations.

REGULATION 3

SECTION 1. The regulations of the Secretary under the farm products inspection law for the inspection and certification of fresh fruits and vegetables are hereby adopted for the purposes of the act except when in conflict with specific regulations herein set forth, and all persons authorized to issue certificates of grade and/or condition under the farm products inspection law are authorized to issue the certificates required for apples or pears under the act.

SEC. 2. Farm products inspection certificates bearing in prominent letters across the face the words "Export Form Certificate" shall be used only for apples or pears inspected and certified in accordance with the provisions of the act, and shall include the following statement either printed or typed: "The apples and/or pears covered by this certificate meet the requirements of the Export Apple and Pear Act."

SEC. 3. If the fruit is to be analyzed for spray residues and the chemist's report is not available at the time the inspection for grade is finished, the inspector may, if practicable, issue a certificate subject to being recalled and vacated within 48 hours should the chemical analysis show that the fruit does not comply with the tolerances for spray residues established under the Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906.

SEC. 4. If, at time of billing for shipment in export, a certificate shall have been issued under the provisions of the act, the original or a copy of such certificate on a form approved by the Chief of Bureau shall be delivered by the shipper or his agent to the initial carrier for delivery to the proper official of any vessel of any kind on which the apples or pears covered by the certificates are to be exported.

SEC. 5. PARAGRAPH 1. A shipment of apples or pears shall not be accepted for export by any vessel of any kind unless accompanied by a certificate or a copy thereof on a form approved by the Chief of Bureau which shall be surrendered to the steamship company showing that such apples or pears meet the requirements of the act.

PAR. 2. When a certificate has been issued covering a lot of apples or pears and the shipper desires to export part of the lot by one steamer or vessel of any kind, and part by another steamer or vessel of any kind, the original or a copy of the certificate on a form approved by the Chief of Bureau shall be furnished each steamship line, tramp or chartered steamer or vessel of any kind concerned.

PAR. 3. No vessel of any kind shall accept for shipment a part of a lot of apples or pears upon the mere representation by the shipper or his agent or by the initial carrier that a certificate has been issued covering the entire lot but shall require that the original or a copy of such certificate on a form approved by the Chief of Bureau be furnished.

REGULATION 4

When shipments, except as provided under regulation 13, are made to foreign countries under a through bill of lading or under a bill of lading marked for export, the shipper shall secure inspection and deliver to the local agent of the carrier a copy of the Export Form Certificate or memorandum covering such shipment. The local agent shall attach the certificate or memorandum to the waybill or make a notation on the waybill that the fruit has been inspected and that such export certificate or memorandum has been issued.

Inspection of shipments not under through bill of lading to a foreign country or not under bill of lading marked for export may be obtained at point of origin if inspection is available, or at any convenient point en route or at destination.

REGULATION 5

Any person operating any vessel of any kind shall within 72 hours after sailing from any port send to the Chief of Bureau of Agricultural Economics, at Washington, D. C., a list of shipments of apples and/or pears on board such vessel which are not accompanied by certificates and shall give all particulars with reference thereto, including destination, quantity, description, marks, names and addresses of shippers and consignees and names of railroads or persons delivering such shipments to such vessels, with car numbers or other means of identification. The furnishing of such information shall not relieve such person from liability under the act if in the judgment of the Secretary the facts warrant prosecution.

REGULATION 6

Special certificates to comply with the requirements of foreign countries shall, as authorized by section 3 of the act, be issued as a part of, or in addition to, the farm-products inspection certificates. A reasonable additional fee may be charged when the inspection necessary for such certificates requires additional time or an examination or certification at some time or place other than that at which the original inspection was made.

REGULATION 7

A certificate issued under this act and these regulations does not excuse any person for failure to comply with all regulatory laws or requirements applicable to the products shipped. No certificate shall be issued under this act and these regulations except upon a showing satisfactory to the Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics that the apples and/or pears comply with the tolerances for arsenical and lead spray residues established by the Department of Agriculture.

REGULATION 8

Minimum quality requirements for shipments in export:

(a) Any lot of apples must meet each minimum requirement of the United States Utility or United States Utility Early grade for apples subject to the tolerances for these grades except that apples shall not contain apple maggots and not more than 2 percent by count may have apple maggot-injury and not more than 2 percent may be infested with San Jose scale, and except that any lot of apples in containers conspicuously marked "cannery" must meet each minimum requirement of U. S. No. 2 for cannery apples subject to a tolerance of 10% for defects of this grade.

(b) Any lot of pears must meet each minimum requirement of the United States No. 2 grade for pears subject to the tolerances for this grade except that in case of pears in containers conspicuously marked "cannery" blemishes affecting only the surface of the fruit shall not be considered "serious damage" as this requirement is defined by said grade, and that pears other than those designated "cannery" shall not contain apple maggots and not more than 2 percent by count may have apple-maggot injury and not more than 2 percent may be infested with San Jose scale.

(c) Any lot of apples or pears shipped to a trans-Pacific port, except as provided in regulation 13, need not comply with the maturity standards of these grades if the packages are conspicuously marked or branded with the words "Immature fruit".

REGULATION 9

Packing and marking requirements for shipments in export:

(a) The packages shall be plainly and conspicuously marked with (1) the name and address of the grower or packer; (2) the variety; (3) the grade names not lower than those specified in regulation 8; and (4) the numerical count or the minimum size.

(b) Each package shall be packed so that the apples and/or pears in the shown face shall be reasonably representative in size, color, and quality of the contents of the package.

REGULATION 10

The fee for a certificate issued under the act shall be the fee charged at that time and place where the certificate is issued for an inspection made under the farm products inspection law: Provided, That when any lot of apples and/or pears arrives at any terminal market or point of export covered by a farm-products inspection certificate which shows that the fruit meets the requirements of the act a certificate complying with the terms of the act may be substituted for such farm-products inspection certificate or the same may be stamped with the words "Export Form Certificate" for a fee of $1.

REGULATION 11

Upon receipt of complaint from any person alleging that any apples and/or pears have been shipped in foreign commerce in violation of any of the provisions of the act, the Secretary shall cause such investigation of the facts to be made as he deems proper. If in his opinion there has been a violation of the act, he shall inform the party accused of the nature of the charges against him and of the specific cases in which violation of the act is charged. He shall give the party accused an opportunity for a hearing not less than 10 days after notice of such hearing has been served upon such person. At such hearing the person complained of shall be entitled to be present in person or by counsel and submit evidence and arguments in his behalf. Any order issued by the Secretary to withhold the issuance of certificates from such person as provided in section 6 of the act shall be effective from the date of its service upon the party found to have been guilty of such violation of the terms of the act. Such order shall state the inclusive dates within which it is to remain in effect, and during this period no person employed or licensed by the Secretary as an inspector for purposes of the farm products inspection law shall issue to such person any certificate as to compliance with the provisions of the act.

REGULATION 12

Service of any notice or order required by the act or prescribed by these regulations shall be deemed sufficient if made by registered mail or personally upon the person served. Service so made upon any member of a partnership or any officer of an association or corporation shall be sufficient. If it is impossible to make personal service upon the party named in the notice or order, service may be made by leaving a copy thereof with an employee or agent at such party's usual place of business or abode. If the party so named is a partnership, association, or corporation, service may be made likewise with respect to any member of the partnership or any officer, employee, or agent of the association or corporation.

REGULATION 13

Any shipment of apples and/or pears of less than 400 bushels in packages is hereby defined as a less-than-a-carload quantity for the purposes of the act. Such shipments to Canada, Bahamas or the Bermuda Islands, Cuba, the West Indies, Mexico, or any country in Central America or South America except Argentina, or to any African port not on the Mediterranean Sea, or to any trans-Pacific port, need not comply with the requirements of the act: Provided, That shipments of less than 200 pounds gross weight to any foreign destination shall not be subject to the provisions of this act.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed hereto, in the city of Washington, D. C., this 30th day of March 1938.

ORDER PERMITTING FISHING WITHIN CHAUTAUQUA MIGRATORY WATERFOWL REFUGE, ILLINOIS

Pursuant to regulations 2 and 3 of the Secretary of Agriculture, dated November 23, 1937, governing the administration of National wildlife refuges, it is hereby ordered, until further notice, that fish may be taken for commercial and noncommercial purposes when and as permitted by the laws and regulations of the State of Illinois from the waters of the Chautauqua Migratory Waterfowl Refuge as established by Executive Order No. 7524, dated December 23, 1936, subject to the following conditions and restrictions:

1. Recreational fishing.—During the period from May 1 to the first Monday in September inclusive, all waters of the refuge shall be open to hook and line fishing (as defined by State Law) for such species as may be legally taken under the laws of the State of Illinois. At all other times except during the Federal migratory waterfowl hunting season only the following described waters shall be open to hook and line fishing (as defined by State Law) for such species as may be legally taken under the laws of the State of Illinois:

(a) All of the borrow pit adjoining the dyke or levee on the north, west, and south portions of the refuge. Fishing from the dyke or levee will not be permitted except as hereinafter provided.

(b) In the channel of the old ditch and in the waters adjoining said ditch to the southeast, said area being a strip of water averaging approximately one-eighth mile in width and lying parallel to and adjoining the main shore line in Section 10, T. 22 N., R. 8 W. Fishing from the main shore line will be permitted in these waters.

(c) In the channel of an old ditch and waters adjoining it to the southeast, said area being a strip of water approximately one-eighth mile in width and lying parallel to and adjoining the main shore line in Sections 1 and 2, T. 22 N., R. 8 W., and Section 36, T. 23 N., R. 8 W. Fishing from the main shore line will be permitted in these waters.

During the Federal migratory waterfowl hunting season no fishing of any kind will be permitted within the refuge boundary.

2. Commercial fishing.—At any time except during the Federal migratory waterfowl hunting season only the following described waters of the refuge shall be open to commercial fishing for such species as may be legally taken under the laws of the State of Illinois, except that the Chief of the Bureau may issue such special permits as may be necessary to reduce the population of non-game fish in other waters of the refuge:

(a) That portion of the borrow pit which adjoins the main refuge dyke along the northwest portion of the refuge from the northeast corner of the southwest quarter of Section 35, T. 23 N., R. 8 W., southwestwardly to the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 18, T. 22 N., R. 8 W.

3. State fishing laws.—Every person who fishes in any of the aforesaid waters and under the aforesaid conditions must comply with the applicable fishing laws and regulations of the State of Illinois and in the absence of any State law or regulation, in respect to the fishing seasons and number and size of fish that may be taken, the Chief of the Bureau of Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture may fix such seasons and limits; and in the event he shall find that fishing in any of the aforesaid waters is unduly depleting any species of fishes therein, he may suspend the privilege of fishing in such waters pending final determination by the Secretary of Agriculture.

4. Fishing permits.—Any person exercising the privilege of fishing within the refuge shall be in possession of a valid State fishing license issued by the State of Illinois, if such license is required, and shall carry such license on his person while fishing, and when requested to do so shall exhibit the license to any representative of the Illinois State Department of Conservation authorized to enforce the game and fish laws of the State, or to any representative of the Bureau of Biological Survey: Provided, that fishing shall be done in such manner as will not interfere with the objects for which the refuge was established.

Fishing permits issued by the Chief of the Bureau shall be required only for commercial fishing in waters other than those described in paragraph numbered 2 above.

5. Special fishing restrictions.—No seine shall be employed in taking of minnows for bait in any of the waters of the refuge.

6. Firearms and fires.—The carrying or being in possession of firearms of any description or lighting of fires for any purpose while on such refuge is not permitted. Special care must be observed to prevent lighted matches, cigars, cigarettes, or pipe ashes from being dropped in grass or other inflammable material.

7. Use of motor boats.—Motor boats, both inboard and outboard, will not be permitted on any of the waters enclosed by the dyke or levee that circumscribes the refuge area on the north, west, and south sides except for administrative purposes by employees of the Department of Agriculture and of the Illinois State Department of Conservation.

8. Trespass on refuge lands.—No person or persons shall enter upon, cross over, or fish from any dyke, dam, levee, jetty, or other water-control structure at any point or points except as follows:

(a) Hook and line fishing in the borrow pit will be permitted from that portion of the dyke extending easterly from the inlet gate for approximately 700 feet to the main shore line and located in the northeast quarter southeast quarter, Section 36, T. 23 N., R. 8 W., at any time except during the Federal migratory waterfowl hunting season.

(b) Boats, equipment, and other fishing paraphernalia may be hauled or taken across the said dykes or levees at such "cross-overs" or "drag-overs" as the officer in charge shall designate.

The officer in charge shall designate such places of entry into and routes of travel within the refuge as he may consider necessary to reach fishing waters and no person shall enter upon any other portion of the refuge except as hereinabove provided.

No person or persons other than regular employees of the United States Department of Agriculture and the Illinois State Department of Conservation will be permitted on any portion of the refuge during the Federal migratory waterfowl hunting season.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the United States Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington this 31st day of March, 1938.

AMENDMENTS TO RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE UNDER THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Commodity Exchange Act (U. S. C., 1934 ed. and Supp. III, title 7, secs. 1–17a), I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby make, prescribe, publish, and give public notice of the following amendments to the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture under said act promulgated July 14, 1937, as amended, these amendments to be effective on April 1, 1938, and thereafter until amended or superseded under the authority of said act.

Section 720 of article VII of said rules and regulations is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 720. For the purpose of sections 704 and 705 of article VII of these rules and regulations, the amount specified for reporting accounts on form 701 is 1,000 tons, but such specified amount shall not apply to special calls issued under authority of section 722 hereof.

Section 721 of article VII of said rules and regulations is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 721. For the purpose of sections 710 and 714 of article VII of these rules and regulations, the amount fixed by the Secretary of Agriculture, under authority of section 4i (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act, for reporting on form 703 is 1,000 tons.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington on this 31st day of March 1938.

[FCA 84]

REGULATIONS RELATIVE TO EMERGENCY CROP AND FEED LOANS IN THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII MADE PURSUANT TO THE ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED JANUARY 29, 1937, AND THE JOINT RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS, APPROVED FEBRUARY 4, 1938

1. Loans for the production of crops, for planting, cultivating, and harvesting crops, for supplies incident and necessary to such production, planting, cultivating, and harvesting, or for any of such purposes, will be made during the year 1938 by the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration to farmers in the Territory of Hawaii.

2. Such loans may be made to farmers who have acreage suitable for cultivation, the necessary equipment for farming operations, and who are unable to obtain a loan from other sources, and, further, such loans will be limited to the amount necessary to meet the immediate and actual cash needs, and preference shall be given to the applications of farmers whose cash requirements are small.

3. Such loans shall be secured by a first lien upon all crops of which the planting, cultivation, production, or harvesting is to be financed, in whole or in part, with the proceeds of such loan.

4. Applicants must agree (1) to use seed and methods approved by the Department of Agriculture; and (2) to plant a garden for home use.

5. The total amount of loans made to any one borrower during the calendar year 1938 shall not exceed $400. No loan will be made for an amount less than $25. All loans will be made in multiples of $5. Notes will bear interest, from maturity until paid, at the rate of 4 percent per annum; and interest to the maturity date at the same rate will be deducted at the time the loan is made.

6. No such loan will be made:

(a) To any applicant who is a standard rehabilitation client of the Farm Security Administration or who has an application pending which is in process of approval, as indicated on lists furnished by the Farm Security Administration.

(b) To any applicant who can obtain a loan from other sources in an amount reasonably adequate to meet his needs for the purposes for which such loans may be made.

(c) To any applicant who is a pineapple grower unless he has a marketing agreement with a responsible pineapple cannery; to any sugar cane grower unless he signs, or agrees to sign, a grinding contract with an approved central or mill; or to any fruit or vegetable grower, or grower of any other crops, unless he agrees to marketing agreements which are satisfactory to the representative of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office in the Territory of Hawaii.

(d) To any applicant who has not undertaken in good faith to meet his obligations in connection with any previous crop or seed loans as follows: has willfully misused the proceeds of a loan check for any purpose other than those specified in his application; has failed to plant a crop or has planted crops on lands other than those described in the application; has willfully disposed of crops mortgaged to the Governor, or failed to account satisfactorily therefor without applying the proceeds of the sale or the value thereof as a payment on his loan; has willfully used the crops mortgaged to the Governor for any purpose other than that stated in his application or applications; or has failed to pay all or part of such loan or loans when able to do so.

(e) To any applicant in an amount greater than his immediate cash needs for the production or harvesting of crops, and for supplies incident and necessary to such production and harvesting.

(f) To more than one member of a family unit or to any person living and/or farming with an applicant whose application for a loan hereunder has been disapproved.

(g) To any applicant who has a means of livelihood other than farming.

(h) To partnerships, corporations, minors, guardians, agents, executors, or administrators; or, to receivers or trustees.

(i) To a wife living with her husband unless the husband joins in the application, note, and mortgage or lien.

(j) For the purchase of machinery or livestock, or for the payment of taxes, rent, debts, or interest or for any purpose other than as specified herein.

7. Loans may be made, subject to the limitations specified herein, in such amounts and in such installments as the Hawaiian representative of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section may approve.

8. (a) No loan for the production of crops will be made in an amount greater than the immediate and actual cash needs in the particular case to plant the crop in a manner approved by the Extension Service of the Department of Agriculture.

The immediate and actual cash needs in a particular case must not exceed the actual costs per acre in such case as determined by individual consideration of the various factors involved, e. g., whether it is necessary to purchase seed, feed, fertilizer, spraying material and/or fuel for tractors; the cost thereof; and any other incidental expenses currently incurred in that community in connection with the particular crop to be produced. In no event may loans for crop production purposes exceed the following maximum allowances per acre:

MAXIMUM ALLOWANCES PER ACRE

	Seed or plants	Fertilizer	Spray materials	Cash labor costs	Total
Sugar cane (Plant) [1]	----------	$40	$10	$50	$100
Sugar cane (Ratoon)	----------	40	10	25	75
Pineapple (Plant) [2]	$30	60	10	100	200
Pineapple (Ratoon)	----------	60	10	40	110
Coffee	----------	40	5	35	80
Rice	----------	20	----------	20	40

Vegetable and Miscellaneous Crops:
The cost of seed or plants, fertilizer, and spray materials will be allowed plus a maximum of $10 per acre for hired labor in the case of vegetables only.

[1] Total amount per acre allowed shall not exceed the maximum indicated nor shall it exceed $1.25 a ton based on previous yield records for the same type cane. Where irrigation is practiced, the total allowance for all costs including irrigation shall not exceed $1.25 per ton on estimated yield.

[2] In the case of pineapples where mulching paper is used, an additional allowance not to exceed $60 per acre shall be permitted on approval of the Emergency Crop Loan representative, but in no case shall the total amount loaned per acre exceed $10 per ton based upon past record of performances for both plant and ratoon pineapples.

(b) An amount not greater than the actual harvesting expenses may, in the discretion of the Hawaiian representative of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section, be released from the proceeds of the sale of any of the crops covered by a lien given to the Governor, in any case where a borrower does not have the necessary funds or credit to pay for the harvesting of such crops.

9. The amount approved for a loan by the Governor or his representatives under these regulations will be paid to the applicant by a disbursing officer upon receipt and approval by the Governor or his representative of the following documents:

(a) Application in the form prescribed, signed by the applicant.

(b) Promissory note in the form prescribed, executed by the applicant for the amount approved by the Governor or his representative, payable to the Governor, bearing interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum from maturity until paid.

(c) Lien instruments (including waivers) in the form prescribed, conveying a first lien, properly executed and filed, registered, or recorded in the proper office, as required by law.

(d) A voucher for the amount of the loan in the form prescribed, signed by the applicant.

10. Fees for recording, filing, registration, and examination of records (including certificates) shall be paid by the borrower; provided, however, that such fees aggregating not to exceed 75 cents per loan may be paid by him from the proceeds of the loan. No fees for releasing liens given to secure loans shall be paid from the proceeds of a loan.

11. The right is reserved to revoke, alter, or amend these regulations at any time and without notice.

THE FEDERAL LAND BANK OF COLUMBIA

SCHEDULE OF FEDERAL LAND BANK APPRAISAL, TITLE DETERMINATION, LOAN CLOSING, PARTIAL RELEASE OF SECURITY, RELEASE OF PERSONAL LIABILITY, TRANSFER, REAMORTIZATION, AND PREPAYMENT OF LOAN FEES ON FEDERAL LAND BANK AND LAND BANK COMMISSIONER LOANS IN THE THIRD FARM CREDIT DISTRICT

Pursuant to Paragraphs "Ninth" and "Thirteenth," Section 13 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended [12 U. S. C. 781 (Ninth, Thirteenth)], Section 32 of the Emergency Farm Mortgage Act of 1933, as amended (12 U. S. C. 1016), the "Association and Bank Fee Regulations" prescribed by the Land Bank Commissioner thereunder, December 14, 1935 (FLB 1001; Chapter II Sec. 6 (b) Federal Register Compilation), and the general authority vested in the bank, the following fees approved by the Land Bank Commissioner are prescribed:

Loan application fees.—Payable with application.

Amount of application:	Appraisal fee
$100–$5,000	$15
$5,100–$10,000	20
Exceeding $10,000	35

(a) Non-resident applicants.—If the applicant does not reside in the Third Farm Credit District an additional fee of $7.50 will be charged to cover the cost of securing an appraisal report from the district of his residence.

(b) Reappraisal fee.—If a reappraisal is required because of delay of the applicant, or is made at the applicant's request, another appraisal fee, fixed in accordance with the above schedule, will be charged.

(c) Loans on naval stores farms.—The regular schedule of fees will apply where the amount applied for does not exceed $10,000. If the amount exceeds $10,000, the regular schedule of fees increased by 50 percent will apply. If preliminary appraisal and review are made none of the fee will be refunded. If it is determined by the bank and the applicant, after preliminary appraisal, that the application will be further considered, 6½¢ per acre will be paid to the bank, as a deposit on the cost of a timber cruise. If the cost of the cruise exceeds 6½¢ per acre, the balance due the bank will be paid after the cruise is completed. If the cost of the cruise is less than the amount deposited, the difference will be refunded to the applicant.

Loan closing fees.—Payable when loan is closed.

Direct Loans

Amount of Loan:	Fee (percentage of loan)
$100–$1,100	1 percent (including $1 local correspondent's fee).
$1,200–$1,900	½ of 1 percent plus $5 (exclusive of $1 local correspondent's fee).
$2,000–$14,900	¾ of 1 percent (exclusive of $1 local correspondent's fee).
$15,000–$50,000	¼ of 1 percent plus $75 (exclusive of $1 local correspondent's fee).

Title determination fees.—Deducted when loan is closed.

Amount of loan	Fee
	Short term abstract	Long term abstract
$100–$5,000	$15 plus 25¢ per $100	$20
$5,100–$10,000	$20 plus 25¢ per $100	25
Exceeding $10,000	$25 plus 25¢ per $100	30

A long term abstract will be treated as a short term abstract at request of applicant.

When Federal land bank and Land Bank Commissioner loans are closed together the title determination fee charged is based upon the total amount of both loans.

Partial Release of Security Fees

Type of loan:	Fee
Land Bank Commissioner loan	$10.00
Direct Federal land bank loan	12.50
Land bank loan through national farm loan association	17.50

If an application for partial release is submitted simultaneously with an application for a new loan on the same security, or on the same and additional security, only the loan application fee will be charged, except when the security to be released is covered by a loan made through a national farm loan association, when an additional fee of $5 will be charged.

Timber release fees.—The following additional fees are charged in connection with applications for timber releases:

Sale price of timber:	Fee
Up to and including $2,000	$15
$2,001–$3,000	20
$3,001–$4,000	25
$4,001–$5,000	30
$5,001 and up	35

These fees are not collected in advance, but are paid from the proceeds of the sale of the timber.

Release of Personal Liability Fees

Type of loan:	Fee
Land Bank Commissioner loan	$10.00
Federal land bank loan	12.50

Transfer Fee

For transferring the mortgage and stock interests of a direct loan borrower a fee not to exceed $5 is charged; provided, that the amount shall not exceed 1 percent of the balance of the indebtedness.

Insurance inspection and appraisal fees

(a) Repairs or replacement.—When a building is damaged by fire and the insurance funds are trusteed for repairs a fee of $2.50 is charged for inspection of the building after the repairs are made.

When there is a total loss and insurance funds are trusteed for construction of a new building, the inspection fee is $5.

(If the funds are trusteed with an association operating under the bank's plan of allowance, or with a part-time field representative of the bank, no fee is charged.)

(b) Request for Reduction of Insurance Requirements.

Type of loan:	Appraisal fee
Land Bank Commissioner loan	$10.00
Federal land bank loan	12.50

Reamortization fees

Type of loan:	Fee
Land bank or Commissioner loan	$10
Joint land bank and Commissioner loans	15

Fees for Prepayment of Land Bank Loans

(a) If loan is less than five years old, thirty days additional interest on unmatured principal at contract rate.

(b) If loan is five years or more old and is not paid on an installment date, thirty days additional interest on unmatured principal at contract rate, except that if loan is paid within thirty days immediately preceding an installment date, interest is charged only for the interval between the date of payment and the installment date.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

AMENDMENT TO RULE AN21

The Securities and Exchange Commission, deeming it necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors so to do, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, particularly Sections 3 (a) (12), 10 (b) and 23 (a) thereof, hereby amends paragraph (a) of Rule AN21 by deleting the words "six hundred and eightieth" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "seven hundred and seventy-first."

Paragraph (a), as amended, reads as follows:

"(a) Evidences of indebtedness (i) which have been issued by any foreign state that is presently governed by an interim government which is holding office temporarily and which is to continue to hold such office only until the assumption thereof by a regular government which has been elected and (ii) as to which temporary exemption from the operation of Section 12 (a) shall expire pursuant to the terms of Rule AN7 on May 15, 1936, and as to which registration shall not be effective on that date, shall be exempt from the operation of said Section 12 (a) to and including the seven hundred and seventy-first day following the assumption of office by such elected regular government."

The foregoing action shall be effective immediately upon publication.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of March, A. D. 1938.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET FILED BY L. H. WITWER, RESPONDENT, ON MARCH 7, 1938, COVERING PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE SINCLAIR-PRAIRIE-RICE TRACT

ORDER TERMINATING PROCEEDING AFTER AMENDMENT

The Securities and Exchange Commission, finding that the offering sheet described in the title hereof has been amended to cure the objections specified in the Order for Hearing previously entered in this proceeding;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 354 (c) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the amendment received at the office of the Commission on March 26, 1938, be effective as of March 30, 1938.

It is further ordered, That the Order for Hearing heretofore entered in this proceeding be, and hereby is, revoked, and said proceeding is terminated as of the effective date of said amendment.

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

SUPERVISION OF FIDUCIARIES—LEGAL SERVICES

5251. (A) Legal services, if desired by the guardian, may be supplied by chief attorneys' offices if the estate or income is not sufficient to justify the employment of an attorney, as provided in R. & P. 5364 (A).

(B) In any case falling within the provisions of R. & P. 5366, where the guardian does not in due course institute the necessary action to terminate the guardianship, and the veteran requests the chief attorney to represent him, or in any such case where there is in question the proper administration of the veteran's estate, the chief attorney may file the necessary action and supply legal services. Costs, unless assessed against the guardian, should be charged to the estate of the veteran. (April 1, 1938.) (Veterans Regulation No. 6 (c), Par. VI and Public No. 262, 74th Congress.)

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

ADJUDICATION—VETERANS' CLAIMS

Payment of Pension to Naval Hospitals When World War Veterans Are Hospitalized Therein as Beneficiaries of the Navy Department

R–1260. (A) In accordance with the provisions of Section 4813, Revised Statutes (24 U. S. C. 6) the pension or pensions (in the event concurrent payments of pension under the laws administered by the Veterans' Administration and pension under Sections 4756 and 4757, Revised Statutes, are being made) of veterans will be paid to the Commanding Officer of a Naval hospital upon hospitalization therein by the Navy Department. The Secretary of the Navy has requested that such action be taken by the Veterans' Administration. This will not apply where upon application to the Veterans' Administration the veteran is hospitalized as a Veterans' Administration patient. (March 31, 1938.)

Restrictions Under Paragraph X, Veterans' Regulation No. 10 (c)

R–2160. The restrictions of paragraph X of Veterans Regulation No. 10 (c) apply to pension payable under Public No. 2

73d Congress, except under Veterans Regulation No. 1 (a), Part III, Paragraph 1 (g) (2), and where pension or compensation was being paid on March 19, 1933, on a finding theretofore made that an injury or disease was directly connected with active military or naval service. These exceptions are protected to the extent of $6.00 monthly, provided, that no award of disability compensation or pension shall be subject to reduction or discontinuance under this paragraph for any period subsequent to August 24, 1937. (Public No. 357, 75th Congress—Act of August 25, 1937.) (March 31, 1938.)

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

DEATH OCCURRING WHILE TRAVELING UNDER PRIOR AUTHORIZATION OR IN A VETERANS' ADMINISTRATION FACILITY

R-2696 (B). When death occurs in a Veterans' Administration facility on or subsequent to March 20, 1933, and prior to January 19, 1934, there will be paid the actual cost (not to exceed $75) of burial and funeral and the body will be transported to the place of residence or to the nearest available National Cemetery or such other place as the next of kin may direct where the expense is not greater than the ascertained cost of transportation to place of residence or to the nearest available National Cemetery. When the ascertained cost of transportation to place directed by the next of kin exceeds the amount to be allowed as provided herein, the allowable amount shall be the amount payable to the place of residence or to the nearest available National Cemetery, whichever is the greater, which amount shall be available for reimbursement expenses or partial payment of the expenses incurred for transportation. When death occurred on or after January 19, 1934, the amount to be allowed for the cost of burial and funeral will not exceed $100. (V. R. No. 9 (a), (b) and (c)).

(C) Removal of body from place of death by means other than common carrier.—When the body is removed from place of death to place of residence or to the nearest available National Cemetery or such other place as the next of kin may direct where the expense is not greater than the ascertained cost of transportation to place of residence or to the nearest available National Cemetery, by means other than by common carrier, there will be paid as a proper transportation expense the reasonable cost of removal in addition to the allowance for burial and funeral. This provision shall not, however, be construed as authorizing payment in excess of $75 or $100, whichever applies, if the burial is local. (March 31, 1938.) (V. R. No. 9 Series.)

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

RELEASE OF INFORMATION CONCERNING CLAIMANTS AND BENEFICIARIES

Paragraphs 5585 to 5591 inclusive have been amended and renumbered as paragraphs 310 to 320 inclusive, March 31, 1938.

Disclosure in General

310. (A) When service was after April 20, 1898.—Files, records, reports, and other papers and documents pertaining to any claim filed with the Veterans' Administration whether pending or adjudicated, in the cases of persons who served on or after April 21, 1898, will be deemed confidential and privileged and no disclosure thereof will be made except as provided in R. & P. 310–331.

(B) When service was prior to April 21, 1898.—When not prejudicial to the interests of the Government and, so far as may be apparent, to the interests of any living person, files, records, reports and other papers and documents pertaining to any claim filed with or in the custody or control of the Veterans' Administration in the cases of persons who served prior to but not on or after April 21, 1898, may be inspected by any person, and information given from such files, records, reports, and other documents, under the conditions prescribed in R. & P. 320 (B). (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

311. Military record.—(A) Information received by the Veterans' Administration from the War and Navy Departments relative to the military service of a claimant is furnished solely for the official use of the Veterans' Administration, and such information may be disclosed to the claimant or his duly authorized representative, if such disclosure will not be injurious to the physical and mental health of the claimant, only when such information is to be used by the claimant or his duly authorized representative in connection with his claim pending before the Veterans' Administration.

(B) When requests for information concerning the military service of a claimant are received from any person other than the claimant himself, or his duly authorized representative, the applicant will be advised that such information is furnished the Veterans' Administration by the War and Navy Departments for official use only, and, therefore, may not be released by the Veterans' Administration except to the claimant or his duly authorized representative. The applicant will also be advised that his application for the information requested should be made to the War Department, if the veteran served in the United States Army; or to the Navy Department, if the veteran served in the United States Navy, or United States Marine Corps, or to the Coast Guard, Treasury Department, if the veteran served in the United States Coast Guard, or the United States Revenue Cutter Service.

(C) Lists.—Lists of claimants will not be furnished attorneys or agents and will be furnished only to such others as the Administrator of Veterans Affairs may direct.

(D) Addresses.—When an address is requested that may not be furnished under R. & P. 310–331, the person making the request will be informed that a letter enclosed in an unsealed envelope, bearing sufficient postage, without return address, with the name of the addressee thereon, will be forwarded by the Veterans Administration, but this procedure will be followed only when it does not interfere unduly with the functions of the service or division concerned. In no event will letters be forwarded to aid in the collection of debts by commercial firms, collection agencies, and other like concerns. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Disclosure to Claimants; and Concerning Payments

312. Disclosures of information from the files, records, reports, and other papers and documents pertaining to claims filed with the Veterans Administration shall be made by the regional office or facility having possession of the case file:

(A) To a claimant or his duly authorized representative, as to matters concerning himself alone when such disclosure would not be injurious to the physical or mental health of the claimant.

(B) The amount of pension or compensation of any beneficiary shall be made known to any person who applies for such information. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Disclosure to Courts in Proceedings in the Nature of an Inquest

313. The solicitor, chief attorneys, and managers of facilities are authorized to make disclosures to courts of competent jurisdiction of such files, records, reports, and other documents as are necessary and proper evidence in proceedings in the nature of an inquest into the mental competency of claimants and other proceedings incident to the appointment and discharge of guardians, and such officers are further authorized to make disclosure of payments to guardians, curators, or conservators to any court having jurisdiction of such fiduciaries in all matters of appointment, discharge or accounting in such courts. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Disclosure in Cases Where Incompetent Claimants Are Charged With or Convicted of Criminal Offenses

314. Where incompetent claimants are charged with, or convicted of, offenses other than those growing out of their relations with the Veterans' Administration and in which it is desired to disclose information from the files and records of the Veterans' Administration, the chief attorney or the solicitor if he deems it necessary and proper, may disclose to the court having jurisdiction so much of the information from the files and records of the Veterans' Administration relating to the mental condition of such beneficiaries, the same to be available as evidence, as may be necessary to show the mental condition of the accused, and the time of its onset. This provision, however, does not alter the general procedure herein stated for handling offenses growing out of relations with the Veterans' Administration. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Judicial Proceedings Generally

315. Where a suit has been threatened or instituted against the Government, other than for insurance under Section 19 of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, or a prosecution against a claimant has been instituted or is being contemplated, the request of the claimant or his duly authorized representative for information, documents, reports, etc., shall be acted upon by the solicitor in central office or the chief attorney in the field station, who shall determine the action to be taken with respect thereto. In cases involving insurance litigation (suits for insurance filed under Section 19 of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended) the request shall be acted upon by the director of insurance. (See R. & P. 3080–3086.) In all other cases where copies of documents or records are desired by or on behalf of parties to a suit, whether in a court of the United States or any other, such copies shall be furnished as provided in (D) hereof; otherwise to the court only, and on an order of the court or subpoena duces tecum addressed to the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs or the manager of the station in which the records desired are located requesting the same. The determination as to the action to be taken upon any order received in this class of cases shall be made by the service having jurisdiction over the subject matter in central office or the division having jurisdiction over the subject matter in the field station, except in those cases in which the records desired are to be used adversely to the claimant, in which latter event the order of the court or the subpoena will be referred to the solicitor in central office or to the chief attorney in the field station for disposition.

(A) The address of a Veterans' Administration claimant as shown by Veterans' Administration files may be furnished to duly constituted police or court officials upon proper request and the submission of a certified copy either of the indictment returned against the claimant or of the warrant issued for his arrest. Such requests shall be forwarded for disposition to the service in central office or division in the field station having jurisdiction over the subject matter.

(B) Where the process of a United States court requires the production of documents or records (or copies thereof) contained in the Veterans' Administration file of a claimant, such documents or records (or copies) will be produced in the court out of which process has issued. Where original records are produced they must remain at all times in the custody of a representative of the Veterans' Administration and if offered and received in evidence permission should be obtained to substitute a copy so that the original may remain intact in the file. Where the subpoena is issued on praecipe of a party litigant other than the United States such party litigant must prepay the cost of copies in accordance with fees prescribed by R. & P. 328, and any other costs incident to production.

(C) Where copies of documents or records are requested by the process of any state or municipal court, the process when presented must be accompanied either by authority from the claimant concerned to comply therewith or by an affidavit of the attorney of the party securing the same, setting forth the character of the pending suit, and the purpose for which the documents or records sought are to be used as evidence, and if adversely to the claimant, information from which it may be determined whether the furnishing of the records sought is necessary to prevent the perpetration of a fraud or other injustice. Where the process received is accompanied by authorization of the claimant to comply therewith, copies of the records requested shall be furnished to the court upon the payment of the prescribed fee by the party who caused the process to be issued. Where the process shows that the records are to be used adversely to the claimant the averments contained in the affidavit shall be considered in connection with the facts shown by the claimant's file, and if such consideration shows the disclosure of the records is necessary and proper to prevent a fraud or other injustice the records requested shall be furnished in response to the court's process upon the payment of the fee as prescribed by the schedule of fees by the party who caused the process to be issued. Otherwise the court shall be advised that Veterans' Administration records are confidential and privileged. Where the process received requests the production of the complete Veterans' Administration file of a claimant and compliance is deemed necessary and proper under this paragraph, no expense to the Veterans' Administration may be involved in complying therewith and arrangements must be made with the attorney of the party causing issuance of the process to insure the submission of the file to the court without expense to the Veterans' Administration. The file must remain at all times in the custody of a representative of the Veterans' Administration, and if there is an offer and admission of any record or document contained therein permission should be obtained to substitute a copy so that the original may remain intact in the file.

(D) Requests received from attorneys or others for copies of records for use in suits in which the Government is not involved, not accompanied by a subpoena or court order, will be handled by the service having jurisdiction over the subject matter. If the request is such as can be complied with under R. & P. 312 the records requested will be furnished upon receipt of the required fee. If, however, the records cannot be furnished under such paragraph the applicant will be advised of the procedure to obtain copies of records for court use as set forth above. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Disclosure Prejudicial to Mental or Physical Health of Claimant

316. Determination of the question when disclosure of information from the files, records, reports, etc., will be prejudicial to the mental or physical health of the claimant, will be made by the medical director, central office; or the chief medical officer in the regional office or facility having regional office activities; or the manager in other facilities. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Persons Authorized to Represent Claimant

318. A duly authorized representative will be any person authorized in writing by the claimant to act for him, or his legally constituted fiduciary, if the claimant is incompetent. Where for proper reasons no legally constituted fiduciary has been or will be appointed, his wife, his children, or if the claimant is unmarried, either of his parents, shall be recognized as the fiduciary of the claimant. Such authorization must indicate the nature of the information desired and the purpose for which it is to be used.

(A) Such information as may be properly disclosed to a claimant personally under R. & P. 310–331 shall in the event of his death be disclosed upon proper request, to the duly appointed representative of his estate or to such person as may be designated by such representative. Where for proper reasons no representative of the claimant's estate has been or will be appointed, his widow, his children, or if the claimant was unmarried, either of his parents, shall be recognized as the representative of his estate; provided that if it be indicated that none of such persons is living or can be found, a brother, sister, or other near next of kin may be so recognized.

(B) When an undertaker requests information believed by him to be necessary in connection with the burial of a deceased veteran, such as the name and address of the beneficiary of the veteran's adjusted service certificate or Government Insurance policy; name and address of the next of kin; rank of veteran and organization in which he served; character of the veteran's discharge; or date and place of birth of the veteran, and it appears that the undertaker is holding the body awaiting receipt of the information requested, the undertaker, in such instances, may be considered the duly authorized representative of the deceased veteran for the purpose of obtaining said information. In ordinary cases, however, the undertaker will be advised that information concerning the beneficiary of an adjusted service certificate or Government Insurance policy is confidential and cannot be disclosed; the beneficiary will be advised immediately of the inquiry, and the furnishing of the desired information will be discretionary with the beneficiary. In no case will the undertaker be informed of the net amount due under the certificate or policy or furnished information not specifically mentioned herein. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Disclosure to Members of Congress and to Government Departments

319. All records or documents required by any department or other agency of the United States Government shall be furnished in response to a proper request. Senators or Representatives shall be furnished in their official capacity in any proper case such records, documents, or information contained in the Veterans' Administration files as may be requested for such use. However, in any unusual case, the request will be presented to the Administrator or the solicitor for personal action. When the information requested is other than the amount of pension payable to a beneficiary, the Member of Congress shall be advised that the information is furnished to him confidentially and the provisions of Veterans Regulation No. 11 brought to his attention. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Inspection of Records by Recognized Representatives of Organizations

320. (A) The accredited representatives of any of the organizations recognized under Sec. 200, Public No. 844, 74th Congress (Act of June 29, 1936) may inspect the Veterans' Administration file of any claimant upon the condition that only such information contained therein as may be properly disclosed under R. & P. 310–331 will be disclosed by him to the claimant, or if the claimant is incompetent, to his legally constituted fiduciary. All other information in the file shall be treated as confidential and will be used only in determining the status of the cases inspected or in connection with the presentation to officials of the Veterans' Administration of the claim of the claimant in those cases where the organization has, by proper power of attorney, been authorized to represent the claimant. The managers of field stations, and the directors of the services concerned in central office, will each designate a responsible officer to whom requests for all files must be made. When power of attorney does not obtain, the liaison officer will explain to the designated officer of the Veterans' Administration the reason for requesting the file, and the file will be made available only when in the opinion of the designated officer, it is justified; in such cases a contact report will be made out and attached to the case, outlining the reasons which justify the release of the file to the liaison officer. In any case where there is an unrevoked power of attorney, no persons or organizations other than the one named in the power of attorney shall be allowed to inspect the file; and when any claimant has filed notice with the Veterans' Administration that he does not want his file inspected, such file will not be made available for inspection. Any violation of the condition under which files are permitted to be inspected shall be brought to the immediate attention of the Administrator. Where a suit has been threatened or instituted against the Government upon a claim denied by the Veterans' Administration other than for insurance under Section 19 of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, or a prosecution against a claimant has been instituted or is being contemplated, the inspection of Veterans' Administration files as authorized in this paragraph shall be within the discretion and under the supervision of the chief attorney or the office of the solicitor. Where a suit for insurance under Section 19 of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, has been threatened or instituted against the Government, the inspection of Veterans' Administration files as authorized in this paragraph shall be within the discretion and under the supervision of the manager or the director of insurance.

(B) Inspection of records when service was prior to April 20, 1898.—Any person may inspect the records in cases of veterans who served prior to but not after April 21, 1898, when such inspection is not prejudicial to the interests of the Government or, so far as may be apparent, to the interests of any living person, provided that, if it be shown that the veteran or any one claiming or receiving benefits by reason of his service is living, such inspection may be made only by the veteran, the claimant, or the duly authorized representative of either when not prejudicial to the interests of the Government. The examination of records or other documents relating to claims for pension or bounty land shall not extend to confidential communications, including instructions regarding, or requests for special or field examinations, summaries and recommendations of inspectors or field examiners, reports relating to criminal charges and investigations, or to evidence obtained in cases involving crimes, forfeiture, or misconduct; nor shall it extend to reports from the Government departments, bureaus, or other agencies, except by permission of the head of the service concerned, or his designate. No person will be permitted to take copies from such reports. Inspection of reports of official physical or mental examinations will not be permitted in cases wherein payments are being made and no claim is pending. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Paragraphs 5593 to 5601 inclusive have been amended and renumbered as paragraphs 322 to 331 inclusive, March 31, 1938.

Information to Commanding Officers of State Soldiers' Homes

322. When a request is received in a regional office or Veterans' Administration facility, from the commanding officer of a State soldiers' home, for information, other than information relative to the character of the discharge from the facility, concerning a veteran formerly domiciled in a Veterans' Administration facility, the provisions of R. & P. 310 are applicable, and no disclosure will be made from the files, records, reports, and other papers and documents pertaining to any claim, whether pending or adjudicated, unless the request is accompanied by the authorization outlined in R. & P. 312 (A). However, managers of regional offices or Veterans' Administration facilities upon receipt of a request from the commanding officer of a State soldiers' home, for the character of the discharge of a veteran from a Veterans' Administration facility, will comply with the request, restricting the information disclosed solely to the character of the veteran's discharge from the facility. Such information will be disclosed only upon receipt of a specific request therefor from the commanding officer of State soldiers' home. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Furnishing Information Regarding Beneficiaries to Physicians

323. When a beneficiary elects to secure medical attention from a private practitioner or in a hospital other than a Veterans' Administration facility, there may be furnished to such private practitioner or head of such hospital (Federal, State, municipal, or private) such information as to the medical history, diagnosis, findings or treatment, as is requested, provided there is also submitted a written authorization from the beneficiary, his representative, or his nearest relative, for release of desired data. The said information will be supplied without charge directly to the private physician or hospital head, and not through the beneficiary. In forwarding this information, it will be accompanied by the stipulation that it is released with consent of the patient, and then only on condition that it is to be treated as a privileged communication. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

Copies of Records and Papers

324. Any person desiring a copy of any record, paper, etc., in the custody of the Veterans' Administration, which is subject to be furnished under R. & P. 310–331, must make written application for such copy to the Veterans' Administration, where the records desired are located, stating specifically (1) the particular record, paper, etc., the copy of which is desired and whether certified or uncertified; (2) the purpose for which such copy is desired to be used. (March 31, 1938.) (V. R. No. 11.)

325. With the application for a copy of any record, paper, etc. the applicant shall deposit the approximate amount of the lawful charge for such copy, such deposit to be returned to the applicant should the application be denied. Should the amount deposited be insufficient, the desired copy will not be delivered until such deficiency is paid. Any excess deposited over the lawful charge will be returned to the applicant. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

326. Copies of reports from the War or Navy Department or copies of records of other departments and other confidential matters will not be furnished. (March 31, 1938.) (V. R. No. 11.)

327. Members of Congress will be furnished with copies desired for their own official use gratis; but copies desired for use of their constituents will be charged for at legal rates and be subject to the provisions of R. & P. 324–331. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

328. Schedule of fees:

Written copies, per 100 words	$0.25
Photostat copies, per sheet	.25
Certifications, each	.25

Information furnished under R. & P. 323 shall be supplied without charge. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

329. Receipts from the sale of copies of records, papers, etc., will be deposited to the credit of "miscellaneous receipts." (March 31, 1938.) (V. R. No. 11.)

330. Uncertified copies may be furnished to the applicant by the field station having possession of the case file in which the original document is filed, subject to the provisions of R. & P. 310–331. (March 31, 1938.) (V. R. No. 11.)

331. Those offices not having photostat equipment will arrange with the nearest office having such equipment to make necessary photostat copies of records, papers, etc. (March 31, 1938.) (Veterans' Regulation No. 11.)

EXECUTIVE ORDER

RULES GOVERNING THE GRANTING AND ISSUING OF PASSPORTS IN THE UNITED STATES

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 1 of the act of July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 887 (U. S. C., title 22, sec. 211a), I hereby prescribe the following rules governing the granting and issuing of passports in the United States.

Part I—Authority to Issue Passports in the United States

1. Only the Secretary of State may grant and issue passports in the United States. (Sec. 1, act of July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 887; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 211a; sec. 4078, R. S.)

Part II—To Whom Passports Are Issued

2. No passport shall be granted or issued to any other persons than those owing allegiance, whether citizens or not, to the United States. (Sec. 4076, R. S; act of June 14, 1902, 32 Stat. 386; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 212)

3. Unless a request is made by the parental or other guardian that a passport be denied, passports may be issued to minors upon their own application.

4. Children may execute applications in their own behalf when of sufficient intelligence to understand the statements, and the meaning of the oath of allegiance to the United States, contained in the applications.

5. As a rule, children of 12 years of age or more should be required to execute their own applications for passports.

6. If circumstances warrant, a parent or guardian may execute applications for passports on behalf of minors of any age. The application should be signed thus: "Richard Roe, by John Roe, father." The oath of allegiance to the United States need not be administered.

Part III—Persons Who May Be Included in One Passport

7. Only persons who are citizens of, or who owe allegiance to, the United States may be included in a passport of the United States.

8. A passport issued to a husband or wife may include his or her spouse.

9. A passport issued to a parent may include his or her unmarried minor children or stepchildren.

10. A minor brother or sister may be included in the passport of an older brother or sister.

11. A minor grandchild, niece, or nephew of tender years may be included in the passport of the relative when the application therefor is accompanied by a request from the parental or other guardian.

12. Adopted children who are American citizens may be included in a passport issued to the adoptive parents. (See Par. 111).

13. A minor child who will attain majority within two years may be included in a passport issued to a parent under the conditions stated in this Part but such passport shall be limited in validity to the date when such minor child shall attain majority. In the discretion of the Secretary of State an exception may be made to this paragraph when the minor child will attain majority within a period not exceeding three months prior to the date of the expiration of the usual two-year period for which a passport is issued.

Part IV—Applications for Passports

14. Before a passport is issued to any person by or under the authority of the United States such person shall subscribe to and submit a written application duly verified by his oath before a person authorized and empowered to administer oaths, and each application shall contain a true recital of each and every matter of fact which may be required by law, or by any rules authorized by law, to be stated as a prerequisite to the issuance of any such passport. (Act of June 15, 1917, 40 Stat. 227; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 213.)

15. The application must be executed in person before a clerk of a Federal court or a State court authorized by the act of June 29, 1906, 34 Stat. 596, to naturalize aliens, or before an Agent of the Department of State within the jurisdiction in which the applicant or the witness to his application resides. However, if, for valid reason, the application is executed before such an official elsewhere, the Secretary of State may in his discretion accept such application.

16. When the application is executed before a clerk of court, the seal of the court must be affixed to the application. When the application is executed before an Agent of the Department of State, the seal of the Agency of the Department of State must be affixed to the application.

17. When an application for a passport is not made at or near the place where the applicant resides, the applicant should give the name and address of a reputable person residing at or near the place of the applicant's residence, to whom the clerk of court, the Agent of the Department of State, or the Department of State itself, may address such inquiry as may be necessary concerning the applicant. When it is necessary to make inquiries by telegraph, the expense thereof shall be borne by the applicant.

Part V—Names and Titles

18. The passport application shall contain the full name of the applicant, thus, "John Henry Smith", not "J. H. Smith". A married woman's name should, ordinarily, be written thus: "Mary Elizabeth Doe", not "Mrs. John Doe".

19. An applicant whose name has been changed by order or decree of a court should submit with his application a certified copy of such order or decree. An applicant who has changed his name by the adoption of a new name without formal court procedure, if he resides in a State where a formal court procedure is not necessary, should submit with his application the affidavits of two or more persons to the effect that he uses the new name exclusively, has used it exclusively for a stated period of time, and is known by such name in the community in which he resides.

20. A married woman desiring a passport issued in her maiden name must submit with her application the affidavits of two or more persons to the effect that she uses her maiden name exclusively, has used it exclusively for a stated period of time, and is known by such name in the community in which she resides.

21. If an applicant desires to use a professional name, he must submit affidavits of two or more persons to the effect that the applicant has used the professional name for a stated period of time. A married woman who uses her maiden name for professional purposes must submit affidavits of two or more persons to the effect that she has used such name for professional purposes for a stated period of time. In the case of an applicant using a professional name, his passport will be written thus: "John Henry Jones (professionally known as Thomas Augustus Smith)". In the case of a married woman using her married name, and also her maiden name as a professional name, the passport will be written thus: "Mary Doe (professionally known as Mary Roe)", and an applicant's name in religion or an author's nom de plume will be similarly written.

22. The Department of State may, in addition to the evidence required under this Part, require such other evidence as it may deem necessary.

Part VI—Contents of Application for a Passport

A. Each Application of a Native Citizen for a Passport Must Contain the Following:

23. The applicant's name.

24. The place and date of the applicant's birth.

25. The name, date and place of birth, and place of residence, of the applicant's father. (If the applicant was born outside of the United States at or after noon, Eastern Standard Time, May 24, 1934, of an alien father and an American mother, a supplemental affidavit shall be required giving the name, and date and place of birth, of the mother and complete data concerning the manner and date of her acquisition of American citizenship.)

26. The place of permanent residence of the applicant.

27. Whether the applicant has been naturalized as a citizen of a foreign state or has taken an oath of allegiance to a foreign state.

28. If the applicant or his father was born abroad, the period of residence of the applicant outside of the United States.

29. If the applicant's father was born abroad, the date of his emigration to the United States, the period of his residence in the United States, and if naturalized, the date and place of his naturalization as a citizen of the United States.

30. If the applicant is a woman: Whether she has ever been married; if so, the date of her marriage; the name, and date and place of birth, of her husband; whether he is a citizen of the United States; the place of his residence; her maiden name; whether she was previously married; if so, the name and place of birth of her former husband; the date and place of her former marriage; whether the marriage was terminated by death or divorce and the date thereof; if the present or former husband was born abroad, the date of his emigration to the United States; and if naturalized, the date and place of his naturalization, or if naturalized through his father, the father's name and date and place of his naturalization.

31. Such further information as the Secretary of State may require to establish satisfactorily the American citizenship of the applicant.

32. The name of the port from which, and the name and date of sailing of the vessel upon which, the applicant intends to depart from the United States.

33. The place of issue, and, if possible, the date or approximate date, the number, and the disposition made, of any passport previously issued to the applicant.

34. The names of the countries the applicant intends to visit and the object of the visit to each. (The Secretary of State may in his discretion require an applicant to submit satisfactory documentary evidence of the object of his visit to each country named in his application.)

35. The period within which the applicant intends to return to the United States.

36. A description of the applicant.

37. The applicant's oath or affirmation of allegiance to the United States.

38. If the applicant desires that members of his family be included in his passport, the information required by Paragraphs 65 to 69, inclusive, shall also be furnished.

Photographs of the Applicant

39. The applicant must submit with his application duplicate photographs not more than 3 by 3 inches and not less than 2½ by 2½ inches in size, unmounted, printed on thin paper on a light background, showing the full front view of the features of the applicant, and taken within six months of the date they are submitted. Snapshot, newspaper, magazine or full-length photographs will not be accepted. One photograph must be signed by the applicant, whose signature should correspond with the signature on the application. The unsigned photograph should be affixed by the clerk of court or Passport Agent to the application and the seal of the court or Passport Agency must be impressed on the lower portion of the photograph in such manner as not to obscure the features. The seal of the court or Passport Agency should not be impressed upon the signed photograph, which should be forwarded to the Department of State to be attached to the passport, if issued. An applicant who is accompanied by members of his family should submit duplicate photographs of the accompanying members. A group photograph is preferable. Photographs in the uniform of the United States Military or Naval Service will be accepted only from applicants who are in the active service of the United States and are proceeding abroad in the discharge of their duties.

Affidavit of a Supporting Witness

40. When the applicant applies for a passport he should be accompanied by one credible witness who is an American citizen, has known the applicant for a period of two or more years, and has a definite place of residence. The witness must state in the application that he is a citizen of the United States, that he knows the applicant to be a citizen of the United States, that the allegations contained in the application are true to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that he has known the applicant for a definite period of time. If the witness has been issued an American passport he should state the place of issue, and, if possible, give the number and date, or approximate date, of issue. The witness should subscribe and swear to his statement before the clerk of court or Passport Agent.

41. If the applicant or the witness is not known to the clerk of court or Passport Agent and cannot present conclusive documentary evidence of identity, the applicant must obtain as a witness to his application an American citizen who is established in a recognized profession or business and who has his office or place of business within the jurisdiction of the court or the Passport Agency (e. g., a clergyman, lawyer, physician, banker, broker, real estate dealer, or merchant). Clerks of courts and Passport Agents should satisfy themselves of the identity and bona fides of each applicant and his witness.

42. A passport issued by the Secretary of State, to which is affixed the photograph and signature of the person to whom the passport was originally issued, will be accepted in lieu of an identifying witness.

43. No lawyer or other person who expects to receive a fee in connection with the application or passport will be accepted as a supporting witness.

B. Each Application for a Passport of a Person Claiming Citizenship Through Naturalization Must Contain the Following:

44. The applicant's name.

45. The date and place of the applicant's birth.

46. The date of the applicant's emigration to the United States.

47. The period of the applicant's residence in the United States.

48. The place of permanent residence of the applicant.

49. The name of the applicant's father, and whether or not he is an American citizen, place of his birth, place of his present residence, and if naturalized, date and place of his naturalization.

50. If the applicant claims citizenship through the naturalization of his mother or through the acquisition of citizenship by both of his parents, a supplemental affidavit shall be required giving, in addition to the data required concerning his father, the name, and date and place of birth, of the mother and complete data concerning the manner and date of her acquisition of American citizenship.

51. If the applicant has been naturalized, upon his own petition, as a citizen of the United States, the date and place of such naturalization.

52. Whether since naturalization as a citizen of the United States the applicant has been naturalized as a citizen of a foreign state or taken an oath of allegiance to a foreign state.

53. The periods and places of residence outside of the United States since naturalization.

54. If the applicant is a woman: Whether she has ever been married; if so, the date of her marriage; name, and date and place of birth, of her husband; whether he is a citizen of the United States; the place of his residence; her maiden name; whether she was previously married; if so, the name and place of birth of her former husband; the date and place of her former marriage; whether the marriage was terminated by death or divorce and the date thereof; if the present or former husband was born abroad, the date of his emigration to the United States; and if naturalized in the United States, the date and place of his naturalization, or if naturalized through his father, the father's name and the date and place of his naturalization.

55. Such further information as the Secretary of State may require to establish satisfactorily the American citizenship of the applicant.

56. The name of the port from which, and the name and date of sailing of the vessel upon which, he intends to depart from the United States.

57. The place of issue, and, if possible, the date or approximate date of issue, the number and the disposition made, of any passport previously issued to the applicant.

58. The names of the countries the applicant intends to visit and the object of the visit to each. (The Secretary of State may in his discretion require an applicant to submit satisfactory documentary evidence of the object of his visit to each country named in his application.)

59. The period within which the applicant intends to return to the United States.

60. A description of the applicant.

61. The applicant's oath or affirmation of allegiance to the United States.

62. The provisions of Paragraph 39, relating to photographs, and Paragraphs 40 to 43, inclusive, relating to supporting witnesses, shall also be observed in connection with all applications submitted under this subdivision.

63. If the applicant desires that members of his family be included in his passport, the information required by Paragraphs 65 to 69, inclusive, shall also be furnished.

64. If the signature on the application does not conform to the applicant's name as written on his certificate of naturalization, a satisfactory explanation of the difference shall be submitted.

C. When an Applicant for a Passport Desires to Include a Member or Members of his Family his Application Must Contain the Following:

65. The names, and dates and places of birth, of other persons to be included in the passport.

66. In case a wife is to be included in the passport, complete data as to present and any former marriage, including the name, and date and place of birth, of her former husband, the date and place of marriage, whether the marriage was terminated by death or divorce and the date of termination. If the wife was born abroad, the date of her emigration to the United States; the date and place of her naturalization if she did not acquire American citizenship by marriage; the dates and places of residence abroad since acquiring citizenship; and whether she has been naturalized as a citizen of a foreign state or taken an oath of allegience to a foreign state since acquiring American citizenship. If the wife acquired citizenship through naturalization of a parent or a former husband, the name of the parent or the former husband and the date and place of naturalization.

67. If a native-born husband is included in the application, the date and place of his birth; the dates and places of residence abroad; the name of his father; the date and place of his father's birth, and, if born abroad, the date of his emigration to the United States, and the dates and places of his residence in the United States; if naturalized, the date and place of his naturalization and the dates and places of his residence outside of the United States subsequent to naturalization; and whether the husband or his father has been naturalized as a citizen of a foreign state or taken an oath of allegiance to a foreign state. If the husband's father has acquired American citizenship through naturalization of a parent, in addition to the foregoing, the name of the parent and date and place of naturalization.

68. If a foreign-born husband is included in the application, the date and place of his birth; the date of his emigration to the United States; the date and place of his naturalization; dates and places of residence abroad since naturalization; and whether he has been naturalized as a citizen of a foreign state or taken an oath of allegiance to a foreign state since naturalization as a citizen of the United States. If the husband has acquired citizenship through naturalization of a parent, the name of the parent and the date and place of naturalization.

69. If the husband or wife who is included in the application has previously been issued a passport, the place of issue, and, if possible, the date or approximate date of issue, the number, and the disposition made, of the passport previously issued.

D. Application of a Resident of an Outlying Possession of the United States Who was not Born or Naturalized in the United States but Who Owes Permanent Allegiance, Whether Citizen or Not, to the United States.

70. A resident of an outlying possession of the United States who was not born or naturalized in the United States but who owes permanent allegiance, whether citizen or not, to the United States must state in his application such facts concerning the date and place of his birth and the birth of his father; the dates and places of his and his father's residence in the United States and in the outlying possessions of the United States; and the dates and places of his residence abroad, and such other facts as may be necessary to determine his nationality status. In addition he must state whether since acquiring American nationality he has been naturalized as a citizen of a foreign state or taken an oath of allegiance to a foreign state.

71. If the applicant is a woman: Whether she has ever been married; if so, the name, and date and place of birth, of her husband; his nationality status; the place of his residence; her maiden name; whether she was previously married, and, if so, the name and place of birth of her former husband; the date and place of her former marriage; whether the marriage was terminated by death or divorce and the date thereof; and if the present or former husband was born abroad, the date of his emigration to the United States or an outlying possession of the United States.

72. The applicant shall also comply with the requirements of Paragraphs 32 to 37, inclusive.

73. The provisions of Paragraph 39, relating to photographs, and Paragraphs 40 to 43, inclusive, relating to supporting witnesses, shall also be observed in connection with applications submitted under this subdivision.

74. If the applicant desires that members of his family be included in his passport, he shall furnish such information with respect to them as may be required by these rules for the purpose of determining their nationality status.

75. The applicant must submit such further information as the Secretary of State may require to establish satisfactorily his status as an American national.

Part VII—Amendment of Passports

76. Passports may be amended in the United States by the Department of State or any of the Passport Agents of the Department of State.

77. Passports may be amended to include only those persons who are citizens of, or who owe permanent allegiance to, the United States.

78. A request for the amendment of a passport to include any person should be in writing and accompanied by documentary evidence that such person is a citizen of the United States or owes permanent allegiance to the United States, and by two photographs meeting the requirements of these rules.

79. A passport may be amended to include any of the persons specified in Paragraphs 7 to 13, inclusive, that is, any of the persons who might have been included in the passport when originally issued.

80. A passport will not be amended to include a person who bears a valid passport issued in his own name unless such passport is submitted for cancellation.

81. A passport will not be amended to include a person who is included in a valid passport unless such passport is submitted for amendment to exclude such person.

82. A passport may be amended upon the written request of the person to whom it was issued, to exclude a person or persons originally included in the passport.

83. The Secretary of State may in his discretion require an applicant for an amendment of a passport to submit satisfactory documentary evidence of the object of his journey abroad.

Part VIII—Period of Validity of Passports and the Renewal and Extension Thereof

84. The original period of possible validity of a passport is restricted to two years: Provided, that the passport may be renewed for a period of not more than two additional years under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of State: And provided further, that the Secretary of State may restrict the original or renewal period of a passport to less than two years. (Act of May 16, 1932, ch. 187, 47 Stat. 157; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 217a)

85. The Secretary of State may in his discretion require an applicant for the renewal of a passport to submit satisfactory documentary evidence of the object of his journey abroad.

Part IX—Fee for the Execution of an Application, for the Issue of a Passport and for the Renewal of a Passport, and Exemptions From the Payment of the Fee for the Issue of Passports

86. A fee of $1.00 shall be collected for the execution of each application for a passport. This rule is applicable in all cases, including the cases of persons applying for passports to proceed abroad on official business for the United States. (Act of June 4, 1920, 41 Stat. 750; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 214)

87. A fee of $9.00 shall be collected for each passport issued, except as hereinafter provided in Paragraphs 91 to 99, inclusive. A fee of $5.00 shall be collected for the renewal of a passport. (Act of May 16, 1932, ch. 187, 47 Stat. 157; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 217a)

88. The Secretary of State is authorized to make regulations authorizing the retention by State officials of the fee of $1.00 for executing an application for a passport. (Sec. 1, act of June 4, 1920, 41 Stat. 750; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 214)

89. The fees of $9.00 for the issue of a passport and $5.00 for the renewal of a passport, payable in currency or postal money order, shall accompany each application for a passport and for the renewal of a passport executed before a clerk of a court. Money orders should be made payable to the Secretary of State, Washington, D. C. If currency is transmitted with the application it will be understood that its transmission is at the risk of the applicant. If the application is executed before a Passport Agent of the Department of State, the fee shall be paid in currency. Personal checks will not be accepted by clerks of courts or Passport Agents.

90. The Secretary of State is authorized in the case of Passport Agencies to make such regulations as he may deem satisfactory for the transmission to him of fees collected in such Agencies.

Persons Exempt from the Payment of the Passport Fees

91. No fees shall be collected for passports issued to officers or employees of the United States proceeding abroad in the discharge of their official duties, or to members of their immediate families, or to seamen, or to widows, children, parents, brothers, and sisters of American soldiers, sailors, or marines buried abroad whose journey is undertaken for the purpose and with the intent of visiting the graves of such soldiers, sailors, or marines, which facts shall be made a part of the application for the passport. (Sec. 1, act of June 4, 1920, 41 Stat. 750; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 214)

(a) Officers or employees of the United States and Members of their immediate families.

92. In order to be exempt from the payment of the passport fee, an officer or employee of the United States shall submit with his application a written request for a passport from the head of the department or office in which he is employed. The request should set forth the nature of the employment of the applicant, the names of the countries in which he intends to travel, and the official nature of the journey abroad. These conditions shall be applicable to the renewal of a passport to an officer or employee of the United States.

93. An applicant who is a member of the immediate family of an officer or employee of the United States who intends to go abroad on official business, or who is abroad on such business, shall not be required to submit documentary evidence of the official status of the officer or employee of the United States of whose immediate family he is a member if he will refer to the passport application made by such officer or employee and such application meets the requirements of the preceding paragraph.

(b) American seamen.

94. No fees shall be collected for passports issued to American seamen. (Act of June 4, 1920, 41 Stat. 750; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 214)

95. Passports should not be issued to American seamen employed as such on American vessels unless documentary evidence is submitted to the Secretary of State satisfactorily establishing that it is necessary for the seaman to bear an American passport, in addition to the ordinary official documents issued to seamen, in which case they may be issued passports valid for a period sufficient to enable them to carry out the purpose for which the passport is desired. Seamen not traveling as such are not exempt from the payment of the passport fee.

96. Passports shall not be issued to American citizens who are employed or expect to be employed as seamen on foreign vessels unless the necessity for the possession of a passport is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State. However, in such case the seaman is not exempt from the payment of the passport fee.

97. A seaman who possesses a seaman's certificate of American citizenship should submit such certificate with his application for a passport. No other document issued to a seaman under laws applicable to seamen shall be required to be surrendered in connection with an application for a passport.

(c) Persons visiting the graves of American soldiers, sailors, or marines buried abroad.

98. No fees shall be collected for passports issued to widows, children, parents, brothers, and sisters of an American soldier, sailor, or marine buried abroad, who intends to go abroad for the purpose of visiting the grave of such soldier, sailor, or marine. (Act of June 4, 1920, 41 Stat. 750; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 214)

99. In order to be issued a passport without payment of the passport fee, such applicant, proceeding abroad for the purpose stated, must submit with his application a statement from the War Department, Washington, D. C., setting forth the name of the deceased American soldier, sailor, or marine to whom the applicant claims relationship, and the place of burial in a foreign country. A passport issued upon such application will be valid only for the country in which the deceased soldier, sailor, or marine is buried and the countries en route.

Part X—Evidence of Citizenship to Accompany Applications for Passports

(a) Native citizens.

100. A person born in the United States in a place where official records of birth were kept at the time of his birth must submit with the application a birth certificate under the seal of the official custodian of birth records. A certificate to be acceptable must show the date and place of birth and that the record thereof was made at the time of birth or shortly thereafter. If a birth certificate is not obtainable, that fact should be shown, and the application should be supported by a baptismal certificate or a certified copy of the record of baptism under the seal of the church in which the applicant was baptized, giving the date and place of birth, the date of baptism, and the date on which the record of baptism was made. A baptismal certificate to be acceptable must show that the baptism occurred within a short time after the date of the birth of the applicant as shown in the certificate. If birth and baptismal certificates are not obtainable, an affidavit of the parent or of the physician, nurse, or midwife who attended the birth, or the affidavit of a reputable person having sufficient knowledge to be able to testify as to the place and date of the applicant's birth may be accepted. A person who did not attend the birth but who testifies concerning the place and date of the applicant's birth should state briefly how and through what source the knowledge was acquired.

101. A person born abroad whose father was born in the United States and at the time of the applicant's birth had not ceased to be a citizen of the United States must submit with his application evidence of the father's birth in this country as required in the preceding paragraph.

102. If the applicant comes within the provisions of Paragraph 100 or 101 and has previously been issued a passport, reference to the application upon which such passport was issued will be sufficient, provided there was submitted with such application satisfactory evidence of American citizenship. If the applicant has not previously been issued a passport but his father has been issued such a document, reference to the application upon which a passport was issued to his father will be sufficient, provided there was submitted with such application satisfactory evidence of the father's American citizenship.

103. A person born abroad after noon, Eastern Standard Time, May 24, 1934, of a mother who was born in the United States and an alien father, must submit with his application evidence of the mother's birth in this country as required by Paragraph 101.

104. A person born abroad after noon, Eastern Standard Time, May 24, 1934, of parents both of whom were born in the United States, must submit with his application evidence of the birth in this country of both of his parents as required by Paragraph 101. If either parent has previously been issued a passport, reference to the application upon which such document was issued will be sufficient as evidence of the citizenship of that parent, provided there was submitted with such application evidence of his American citizenship.

105. A person born abroad who claims American citizenship through the birth abroad of a father who acquired

American citizenship at birth must submit evidence of the citizenship of his paternal grandfather and evidence that his father resided in the United States prior to the applicant's birth. If the father has previously been issued a passport, reference to the application upon which such document was issued will be sufficient as evidence of the citizenship of the father, provided there was submitted with such application evidence of his father's American citizenship and it satisfactorily appears from such application that the father had resided in the United States prior to the applicant's birth abroad.

106. A person born abroad after noon, Eastern Standard Time, May 24, 1934, who claims American citizenship through the birth abroad of a mother who acquired American citizenship at birth must submit evidence of the citizenship of his maternal grandfather and evidence that his mother resided in the United States prior to the applicant's birth. If the mother has previously been issued a passport reference to the application upon which such document was issued will be sufficient as evidence of the citizenship of the mother, provided there was submitted with such application evidence of her father's American citizenship and it satisfactorily appears from such application that the mother had resided in the United States prior to the applicant's birth abroad.

107. A person born abroad who claims citizenship at birth through a parent who was naturalized as a citizen of the United States must submit with his application the parent's certificate of naturalization, unless the applicant or his father has previously been issued a passport upon an application with which was submitted satisfactory evidence of the father's naturalization.

(b) Persons claiming citizenship through naturalization of self or parent.

108. A person naturalized in his own right must submit with his application his certificate of naturalization.

109. The child of a naturalized citizen claiming citizenship through the naturalization of the father or mother must submit the certificate of naturalization of the parent through whom he claims American citizenship, and if the parent was naturalized after noon, Eastern Standard Time, May 24, 1934, he must show that he has resided in the United States as a minor for a period of five years. If both parents have been naturalized, appropriate evidence thereof should be submitted. If the mother resumed American citizenship under section 3 of the act of March 2, 1907, 34 Stat. 1228, or was repatriated under the act of June 25, 1936, ch. 801, 49 Stat. 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, sec. 9a), appropriate evidence of such resumption or repatriation must be submitted with the application.

110. If the applicant comes within the provisions of Paragraph 108 or 109 and has previously been issued a passport, reference to the application upon which such passport was issued will be sufficient, provided there was submitted with such application evidence of his naturalization or the naturalization of the parent through whom he claims citizenship.

(c) An adopted child included in the passport of the foster parent or parents.

111. As the adoption of an alien child by an American citizen does not confer American citizenship upon such child, it is necessary when an adopted minor child is to be included in the passport of the foster parent or parents that the application be accompanied by documentary evidence of the adoption of the child and evidence of the child's American citizenship. When evidence of the citizenship of an adopted child of the nature mentioned in this section cannot be obtained but the custody of the adopted child was obtained during early infancy from a reputable charitable or other organization, an affidavit may be executed by an official of such organization setting forth, if possible, the date and place of birth in the United States of its former ward, the fact that the child has been legally adopted, the date and manner of adoption, and the name and place of residence of the adoptive parent or parents. Such affidavit should also set forth the basis for the knowledge and belief of the affiant concerning the date and place of birth of the child and the date when the child was placed in the custody of the organization. If the child has not been formally adopted, that fact should be set forth in the affidavit, together with a statement indicating that the child has had a permanent and established place for a definite period of time with the family in whose custody the child has been placed by the organization. The Secretary of State may require the submission of such further information or documents as he may deem necessary to establish the legal or actual custody of the child and its nationality.

(d) Wife included in husband's application.

112. When an application includes the wife of the applicant, evidence of the husband's citizenship only shall be required if the wife was born in the United States, or if alien born was eligible to naturalization under section 1994 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (repealed by section 6 of the act of September 22, 1922, 42 Stat. 1022), provided that in both cases the marriage occurred prior to September 22, 1922, and the applicant was an American citizen at the time of marriage or became a citizen prior to the date mentioned. When the marriage occurred on or after September 22, 1922, evidence of the American citizenship of both the husband and wife must accompany the application.

(e) Husband included in wife's application.

113. When an application includes the husband of the applicant, evidence of the husband's citizenship and not evidence of the wife's citizenship should be submitted if the marriage occurred prior to September 22, 1922. If the marriage occurred on or after September 22, 1922, evidence of the citizenship of the applicant and her husband must accompany the application.

114. The Secretary of State may require such additional evidence of citizenship as in his judgment may be necessary to establish the citizenship of an applicant for a passport.

Part XI—Evidence of Citizenship to Accompany a Woman's Application for a Passport

115. The following classes of American-born women must submit evidence of their own citizenship:

(a) One who has never been married.

(b) One who married on or after September 22, 1922.

(c) One who was married to an alien between March 2, 1907, and September 22, 1922, and whose marital status was terminated prior to September 22, 1922. If the marriage was terminated by divorce, the original decree of divorce or a certified copy of the court record thereof must be submitted. If the marriage was terminated by death, a statement to that effect must be made in the application. Prior to September 22, 1922, upon the termination of such a marriage a woman could resume her American citizenship, if abroad, by registering as an American citizen within one year with a Consul of the United States, or by returning to reside in the United States, or, if residing in the United States at the termination of the marital relationship, by continuing to reside therein. (Section 3, act of March 2, 1907, 34 Stat. 1228, repealed by section 7, act of September 22, 1922, 42 Stat. 1022) The manner in which American citizenship was resumed prior to September 22, 1922, must be set forth in the application and supported by appropriate evidence. If necessary, a supplementary statement under oath should be attached to the application.

(d) One who married an alien prior to March 2, 1907, but who did not, subsequent to the marriage, reside permanently abroad.

(e) One who married an alien prior to March 2, 1907, who, as a result of such marriage, acquired the nationality of the country of which her husband was a national, and who, subsequent to the marriage and prior to September 22, 1922, resided permanently abroad. In such case a woman must submit evidence that she resumed or reacquired American citizenship.

116. An American-born woman who was married to an American citizen prior to September 22, 1922, must submit evidence of her husband's citizenship.

117. An American woman who lost American citizenship by marriage to an alien and whose husband became naturalized prior to September 22, 1922, must submit the certificate of naturalization of her husband.

118. The following classes of alien-born women must submit evidence of their own citizenship:

(a) One who has never been married, and who has been naturalized in her own right or through the naturalization of either or both parents, or through the resumption of American citizenship by the mother or by the latter's repatriation.

(b) One who, subsequent to acquiring American citizenship, married an alien prior to September 22, 1922, and who, after the termination of the marital status, resumed American citizenship under section 3 of the act of March 2, 1907, 42 Stat. 1022, or was naturalized in her own right.

(c) One who, subsequent to acquiring American citizenship, married an alien prior to September 22, 1922, and who subsequent to that date was naturalized as an American citizen.

(d) One who was married after September 22, 1922, but whose claim to citizenship is based upon her own naturalization or the naturalization of either or both parents or through the resumption of American citizenship by the mother or by the latter's repatriation as a citizen of the United States.

(e) One who, subsequent to acquiring American citizenship, married an alien ineligible to citizenship on or after September 22, 1922, and prior to March 3, 1931, and who since the latter date has been naturalized as an American citizen.

119. The Secretary of State may require such additional evidence of citizenship as in his judgment may be necessary to establish the citizenship of an applicant for a passport.

Part XII—A Resident of an Outlying Possession of the United States Who Was Not Born or Naturalized in the United States but Who Owes Permanent Allegiance, Whether a Citizen or Not, to the United States

120. A resident of an outlying possession of the United States who was not born or naturalized in the United States but who owes permanent allegiance, whether a citizen or not, to the United States, who was born in an outlying possession at a place where official records of birth were kept at the time of his birth, must submit with his application evidence of citizenship of the nature described in Paragraph 100, except that when a proper birth or baptismal certificate cannot be submitted or an affidavit cannot be obtained from a person who attended the birth, the applicant must submit affidavits of two credible persons stating how long they have known the applicant and through what source the knowledge of the date and place of the applicant's birth was acquired.

121. The applicant must submit such additional documentary evidence as may be necessary to show conclusively that he has acquired American nationality under any law of the United States or any treaty to which the United States is a party.

122. An applicant who claims to be a citizen of the Commonwealth of the Philippines must submit such documentary evidence as may be necessary to show conclusively that under the laws of the United States or of the Philippine Islands in effect at the time of the adoption of the Constitution of the Philippines he was a citizen of the Philippine Islands and hence acquired citizenship in the Commonwealth, or that he subsequently, under the Constitution or under the laws subsequently enacted by the legislature of the Commonwealth of the Philippines, acquired citizenship in that Commonwealth.

Part XIII—Affidavits

123. Any affidavit which may be required under these rules or shall be submitted in support of an application for a passport or the renewal, extension, or amendment of a passport shall be considered as, and become, a part of the application.

Part XIV—Additional Regulations

124. The Secretary of State is authorized in his discretion to refuse to issue a passport, to restrict a passport for use only in certain countries, to restrict it against use in certain countries, to withdraw or cancel a passport already issued, and to withdraw a passport for the purpose of restricting its validity or use in certain countries.

125. Should a person to whom a passport has been issued knowingly use or attempt to use it in violation of the conditions or restrictions contained therein or of the provisions of these rules, the protection of the United States may be withdrawn from him while he continues to reside abroad.

126. The Secretary of State is authorized to make regulations on the subject of issuing, renewing, extending, amending, restricting, or withdrawing passports additional to these rules and not inconsistent therewith.

127. This order supersedes Executive Order No. 5860 of June 22, 1932, as amended by Executive Order No. 6650 of March 23, 1934, prescribing rules governing the granting and issuing of passports in the United States.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

TRANSFERRING TO THE PEOPLE OF PUERTO RICO CERTAIN LANDS NO LONGER NEEDED FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE UNITED STATES

Puerto Rico

WHEREAS section 7 of the act of Congress approved March 2, 1917 (39 Stat. 951, 954), entitled "An Act To provide a civil government for Porto Rico, and for other purposes", provides, in part, "That the President may from time to time, in his discretion, convey to the people of Porto Rico such lands, buildings, or interests in lands or other property now owned by the United States and within the territorial limits of Porto Rico, as in his opinion are no longer needed for the purposes of the United States"; and

WHEREAS it appears that certain portions of the reservations heretofore set apart for military or naval purposes within the municipality of San Juan, Puerto Rico, are no longer needed for the purposes of the United States; and

WHEREAS such lands are desired by the people of Puerto Rico and may be advantageously used by them:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the power vested in me by the foregoing statutory provision, do hereby transfer and convey to the people of Puerto Rico the two following-described parcels of land situate within the municipality of San Juan, Puerto Rico:

1. A parcel of land reserved for the use of the Marine Hospital service by proclamation of the President of June 30, 1903, lying next west of the north and south line of the eastern boundary line of the military reservation west of the first line of defense, near San Antonio bridge, running three hundred feet front east and west along the so-called military road and extending towards the north to the old stone ditch defense, containing an area of three and ninety-four one-hundredths acres, and under the jurisdiction and control of the Treasury Department; the said parcel being the remaining part of the Marine Hospital Reservation, a portion of which was transferred to the people of Puerto Rico for highway purposes by proclamation of the President No. 1807 of June 11, 1927.

2. A parcel of the land described in the proclamation of the President No. 1970 of September 15, 1931, which remained under the jurisdiction and control of the Department of the Navy after certain reserved lands were set apart for the uses of other executive departments by proclamation of the President No. 1177 of January 26, 1912, said parcel being more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the northerly line of the military road as relocated from which point numbered 84 on the old military road as shown on the military chart of the military reservation of San Juan, bears N. 23°29' E. 3.72 meters; thence, from the said initial point, by metes and bounds, always by the northerly line of the old military road, the following courses:

S. 66°9'30" E. 32.43 meters to a point;
S. 65°57'40" E. 31.01 meters to a point;
S. 67°15'30" E. 22.68 meters to a point;
S. 65°23'20" E. 14.48 meters to a point;
S. 60°22' E. 12.21 meters to a point;
S. 59°24'10" E. 16.61 meters to a point;
S. 52°34'20" E. 11.39 meters to a point;
S. 43°7' E. 14.44 meters to a point;
S. 34°5'50" E. 14.22 meters to a point;
S. 32°5'40" E. 6.31 meters to a point;
N. 86°49'40" E. 2.25 meters to a point at the northwesterly corner of an old fortification wall; thence N. 86°49'40" E. 3.43 meters to a point at the northeasterly corner of the said wall; thence along the easterly face of the said fortification wall the following two courses:
S. 6°35' E. 59.22 meters to a point;
S. 5°51' E. 93.49 meters to a point;
S. 84°6' E. 6.85 meters, crossing the said old fortification wall and old military road to the point of beginning of a curve with a radius of 310 meters in the northeasterly line of the aforementioned military road as relocated; thence in a general northwesterly direction along the said curve, coinciding with the said northeasterly line of road as relocated, the following four courses:

On said curve, with a radius of 310 meters, 80.02 meters along the curve, the chord of which bears N. 13°13' W. 79.81 meters;
Continuing on the said curve, 82.98 meters along the curve, the chord of which bears N. 28°17' W. 82.74 meters;
Continuing on the said curve, 80.02 meters along the curve, the chord of which bears N. 43°21' W. 79.81 meters;
Continuing on the said curve, 60.05 meters along the curve, the chord of which bears N. 56°18' W. 59.96 meters to the place of beginning; containing in area 1.549 acres.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

AUTHORIZING THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO REJECT BIDS FOR CERTAIN PROPERTY OFFERED FOR SALE AT SAVANNAH, GEORGIA, PURSUANT TO THE TRADING WITH THE ENEMY ACT, AS AMENDED

WHEREAS the Attorney General of the United States, as successor in interest to the Alien Property Custodian, offered for sale at public auction in the City of Savannah, Georgia, on March 1, 1938, two pieces of real estate, namely, a lot 60' x 100' and improvements thereon situated at Jones and Whitaker Streets, and a lot 30' x 110' and improvements thereon known as 413 E. 36th Street, both in the City of Savannah, Georgia; and

WHEREAS the highest bid received for the property first above mentioned was $11,050 and the highest bid received for the property last above mentioned was $716.50, both of which bids were made by Jake Fine; and

WHEREAS upon consideration I find that the above-mentioned bids are inadequate and do not represent the fair value of the real estate involved:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 12 of the Trading with the Enemy Act, approved October 6, 1917 (40 Stat. 411, 423), as amended by the act of March 28, 1918, 40 Stat. 459, I hereby authorize the Attorney General of the United States to reject all bids made at the above-mentioned public offering, including the bids of the said Jake Fine.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Docket No. 12]

IN THE MATTER OF PRESCRIBING DUE AND REASONABLE MAXIMUM DISCOUNTS OR PRICE ALLOWANCES BY CODE MEMBERS TO "DISTRIBUTORS" UNDER SECTION 4, PART II (H), OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937, AND ESTABLISHING RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE MAINTENANCE AND OBSERVANCE BY DISTRIBUTORS IN THE RESALE OF COAL, OF THE PRICES AND MARKETING RULES AND REGULATIONS TO BE ESTABLISHED BY THE COMMISSION

AN ORDER DIRECTING ALL DISTRICT BOARDS TO FILE WITH THE COMMISSION PROPOSED REASONABLE MAXIMUM DISCOUNTS TO "DISTRIBUTORS"

Pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs:

1. For the purpose of aiding the Commission to determine and prescribe due and reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances that may be made by code members to "distributors", as defined by Section 4, Part II (h) of the Act, the several District Boards are hereby directed to file with the Commission on or before April 18, 1938, proposed reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances for their respective districts, together with a statement of the names of the witnesses each district, alone or in conjunction with other districts, intends to have testify at the public hearing to be held on the 25th day of April, 1938 in the above entitled matter, and a statement of the nature of the testimony which will be offered at said hearing in support of their proposals.

2. The Secretary of the Commission shall, forthwith, mail copies of this order to the Consumers' Counsel, to the Secretary of all District Boards, and to all code members within their respective districts.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 31st day of March, 1938.

RULING RELATING TO COST DATA OF PRODUCERS

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 4, Part II (a) and Section 10 (a) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the Commission obtained from producers detailed information with respect to individual costs of production of the coals of such producers in the calendar year 1936 to be used in connection with the proposal and establishment of minimum prices of coals of code members. Such records are held by the various Statistical Bureaus of the Commission as the confidential records of the producers furnishing the information.

Section 10 (a) of the Act provides:

* * * No information obtained from a producer disclosing costs of production or sales realization shall be made public without the consent of the producer from whom the same shall have been obtained, except where such disclosure is made in evidence in any hearing before the Commission or any court and except that such information may be compiled in composite form in such manner as shall not be injurious to the interests of any producer and, as so compiled, may be published by the Commission.

The Commission construes the foregoing provision as permitting the introduction in evidence at a hearing before the Commission of the aforesaid cost data of the individual producers.

The Commission will in the immediate future give public notice of a hearing to be held to determine the weighted average of the total cost of the tonnage for each minimum price area in the calendar year 1936, adjusted as provided by Section 4, Part II (a) of the Act, at which hearing the aforesaid information obtained from producers with respect to individual costs of production of the coals of such producers in the calendar year 1936 will be made available for introduction in evidence to support the determinations of the District Boards of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in their respective districts in the calendar year 1936, and the necessary adjustments thereto and to support the Commission's determination of the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage for each minimum price area in the calendar year 1936 adjusted as aforesaid.

By the Commission.

Dated this 30th day of March, 1938.

RULING RELATING TO THIRTY-DAY CONTRACT LIMITATION

Inquiry having been made to the Commission as to whether or not a thirty (30) day limitation on contracts for the sale of coal is in effect by virtue of the provisions of the third paragraph of Section 4 (e) of the Act, or by virtue of Commission's Order No. 44, and as to the power of the Commission to impose such thirty (30) day limitation under the authority vesting in the Commission to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of the Act, in response thereto and in conformity with what it deems to be the intent of Congress, and in order to carry out the provisions of the Act:

The Commission construes the third paragraph of Section 4 (e) of the Act, which limits contracts for the sale of coal from and after the date of the approval of the Act, "until prices shall have been established," to a period not longer than thirty (30) days from the date of the contract, as meaning that the thirty (30) day limitation on contracts shall be effective "while" or "as long as" prices are not established, the word "until" referring to the entire time of the duration of a condition, rather than the mere point of inception of such condition, and;

The Commission declares that until minimum prices of coals of code members have been reestablished by the National Bituminous Coal Commission, pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of Part II, Section 4 of the Act, no code member shall sell or enter into any agreement to sell coal calling for delivery thereof for a period beyond thirty (30) days from the date of such sale or agreement of sale.

The Secretary of the Commission shall, forthwith, mail copies of this ruling to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards and to code members, and shall cause copies of this ruling to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all Statistical Bureaus of the Commission.

By the Commission.

Dated this 30th day of March, 1938.

AN ORDER REVOKING ORDERS NOS. 8, 11, 25, 32, 41, 46, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 72, 87, 115, 116, 117, AND 118

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. That the following orders of the Commission are hereby revoked: Orders Nos. 8, 11, 46, 57, 58, 59 with respect to standards for and hearings on classification of coals; Orders Nos. 9, 12, 33 and 34 providing for hearings in connection with maximum discounts to distributors and farmers cooperative organizations; Orders Nos. 25 and 32 providing for hearings on marketing rules and regulations; Orders Nos. 41, 60 and 72 issued in connection with the failure of district boards to comply with Commission's Order No. 39; Order No. 54 regarding a meeting of District Board No. 15 called to effectuate Order No. 42; Orders Nos. 55 and 56 directing certain district boards to determine and adjust their weighted average costs; Orders Nos. 87, 115, 116, 117 and 118 issued in connection with failure of district boards to take action required by Commission's Order No. 42.

2. That the Secretary of the Commission shall, forthwith, mail a copy of this order to the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for the several districts, to the Consumers' Counsel, and to all code members, and shall cause a copy of this order to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Commission.

PRESCRIBING AND APPROVING FORMS PURSUANT TO AUTHORITY CONTAINED IN CERTAIN EXECUTIVE ORDERS

APRIL 1, 1938.

Whereas, Executive Order No. 7756, dated December 1, 1937, was issued under the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate and foreign commerce in petroleum and its products by prohibiting the shipment in such commerce of petroleum and its products produced in violation of State law, and for other purposes", approved February 22, 1935 (49 Stat. 30), as amended by the Act approved June 14, 1937, Public No. 145, 75th Congress; and

Whereas, Executive Order No. 7757, dated December 1, 1937, Regulation XVIII thereof, issued under said Act, authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to prescribe and approve forms designated OCR–1 and OCR–2; and

Whereas, Executive Order No. 7758, dated December 1, 1937, Articles III and IV thereof, issued under said Act authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to approve forms of applications to Federal Tender Board No. 1 for certificates of clearance, supporting affidavits for said applications, returns relative thereto, and forms of monthly reports by refineries, reclamation plants, casing-head gasoline plants, pipe lines and producers operating in the East Texas Field,

Now, Therefore, pursuant to authority vested in me by said Executive Order No. 7756, and pursuant to said Executive Orders No. 7757 and No. 7758, it is hereby ordered that attached Forms OCR–1 and OCR–2, and Forms 1, 2, 3, and 4, and Forms A, B, C, D, and E,[1] all dated April 1, 1938, are prescribed and approved by me this date.

DETERMINATION OF FAIR AND REASONABLE WAGES FOR PERSONS EMPLOYED IN THE PRODUCTION, CULTIVATION, OR HARVESTING OF SUGARCANE IN HAWAII DURING THE PERIOD SEPTEMBER 1, 1937 TO DECEMBER 31, 1937

Whereas Section 301 (b) of the Sugar Act of 1937 provides, as one of the conditions for payment to producers of sugar beets and sugarcane, as follows:

(b) That all persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets or sugarcane with respect to which an application for payment is made shall have been paid in full for all such work, and shall have been paid wages therefor at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing; and in making such determinations the Secretary shall take into consideration the standards therefor formerly established by him under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, and the differences in conditions among various producing areas: Provided, however, That a payment which would be payable except for the foregoing provisions of this subsection may be made, as the Secretary may determine, in such manner that the laborer will receive an amount, insofar as such payment will suffice, equal to the amount of the accrued unpaid wages for such work, and that the producer will receive the remainder, if any, of such payment.

and

Whereas Section 301 (e) of the said Act provides, in part, as follows:

The conditions provided in * * * subsection (b) with respect to wage rates, of this section shall not apply to work performed prior to the enactment of this Act; * * *,

and

Whereas the Secretary of Agriculture, on November 29, 1937, held a public hearing in Honolulu, Hawaii, for the purpose of receiving evidence likely to be of assistance to him in determining fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane in Hawaii during the period September 1, 1937 to December 31, 1937:

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, after investigation and due consideration of the evidence obtained at the aforesaid hearing and all other information before me, do hereby determine that the requirements of subsection (b) of Section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937 shall be deemed to have been met with respect to the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane on a farm in the Territory of Hawaii during the period from September 1, 1937, to December 31, 1937, if all persons employed for such work on the farm during that period shall, in addition to receiving any perquisite furnished by the producer, have been paid in full for all such work at not less than the rates agreed upon plus a per centum of such rates (in no event less than 5 per centum) which, had it been applied as an increase in the wages paid for all work performed on the farm in the production, cultivation, and harvesting of sugarcane during the calendar year 1937, would have resulted in an average daily cash wage (computed on the basis of 8 hours per day of work) for such work of not less than $2.10.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of April, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

PART I

SECTION 5 OF THE JOINT RESOLUTION APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT MAY 1, 1937, AMENDING THE JOINT RESOLUTION OF AUGUST 31, 1935

Section 5 of the joint resolution approved by the President on May 1, 1937, amending the joint resolution of August 31, 1935, reads as follows:

SEC. 5. (a) There is hereby established a National Munitions Control Board (hereinafter referred to as the 'Board') to carry out the provisions of this Act. The Board shall consist of the Secretary of State, who shall be chairman and executive officer of the Board, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of Commerce. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, or by other law, the administration of this Act is vested in the Department of State. The Secretary of State shall promulgate such rules and regulations with regard to the enforcement of this section as he may deem necessary to carry out its provisions. The Board shall be convened by the chairman and shall hold at least one meeting a year.

(b) Every person who engages in the business of manufacturing, exporting, or importing any of the arms, ammunition, or implements of war referred to in this Act, whether as an exporter, importer, manufacturer, or dealer, shall register with the Secretary of State his name, or business name, principal place of business, and places of business in the United States, and a list of the arms, ammunition, and implements of war which he manufactures, imports, or exports.

(c) Every person required to register under this section shall notify the Secretary of State of any change in the arms, ammunition, or implements of war which he exports, imports, or manufactures; and upon such notification the Secretary of State shall issue to such person an amended certificate of registration, free of charge, which shall remain valid until the date of expiration of the original certificate. Every person required to register under the provisions of this section shall pay a registration fee of $500, unless he manufactured, exported, or imported arms, ammunition, and implements of war to a total sales value of less than $50,000 during the twelve months immediately preceding his registration, in which case he shall pay a registration fee of $100. Upon receipt of the required registration fee, the Secretary of State shall issue a registration certificate valid for five years, which shall be renewable for further periods of five years upon the payment for each renewal of a fee of $500 in the case of persons who manufactured, exported, or imported arms, ammunition, and implements of war to a total sales value of more than $50,000 during the twelve months immediately preceding the renewal, or a fee of $100 in the case of persons who manufactured, exported, or imported arms, ammunition, and implements of war to a total sales value of less than $50,000 during the twelve months immediately preceding the renewal. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed to refund out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $400 to every person who shall have paid a registration fee of $500 pursuant to this Act, who manufactured, exported, or imported arms, ammunition, and implements of war to a total sales value of less than $50,000 during the twelve months immediately preceding his registration.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any person to export, or attempt to export, from the United States to any other state, any of the arms, ammunition, or implements of war referred to in this Act, or to import, or attempt to import, to the United States from any other state, any of the arms, ammunition, or implements of war referred to in this Act, without first having obtained a license therefor.

(e) All persons required to register under this section shall maintain, subject to the inspection of the Secretary of State, or any person or persons designated by him, such permanent records of manufacture for export, importation, and exportation of arms, ammunition, and implements of war as the Secretary of State shall prescribe.

(f) Licenses shall be issued to persons who have registered as herein provided for, except in cases of export or import licenses where the export of arms, ammunition, or implements of war would be in violation of this Act or any other law of the United States, or of a treaty to which the United States is a party, in which cases such licenses shall not be issued.

(g) Whenever the President shall have issued a proclamation under the authority of section 1 of this Act, all licenses theretofore issued under this Act shall ipso facto and immediately upon the issuance of such proclamation, cease to grant authority to export arms, ammunition, or implements of war from any place in the United States to any belligerent state, or to any state wherein civil strife exists, named in such proclamation, or to any neutral state for transshipment to, or for the use of, any such belligerent state or any such state wherein civil strife exists; and said licenses, insofar as the grant of authority to export to the state or states named in such proclamation is concerned, shall be null and void.

(h) No purchase of arms, ammunition, or implements of war shall be made on behalf of the United States by any officer, executive department, or independent establishment of the Government from any person who shall have failed to register under the provisions of this Act.

(i) The provisions of the Act of August 29, 1916, relating to the sale of ordnance and stores to the Government of Cuba (39 Stat. 619, 643; U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 50, sec. 72), are hereby repealed as of December 31, 1937.

(j) The Board shall make an annual report to Congress, copies of which shall be distributed as are other reports transmitted to Congress. Such reports shall contain such information and data collected by the Board as may be considered of value in the determination of questions connected with the control of trade in arms, ammunition, and implements of war. The Board shall include in such reports a list of all persons required to register under the provisions of this Act, and full information concerning the licenses issued hereunder.

(k) The President is hereby authorized to proclaim upon recommendation of the Board from time to time a list of articles which shall be considered arms, ammunition, and implements of war for the purposes of this section.

Section 1 of the same joint resolution reads in part as follows:

(e) Whoever, in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, shall export, or attempt to export, or cause to be exported, arms, ammunition, or implements of war from the United States shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both, and the property, vessel, or vehicle containing the same shall be subject to the provisions of sections 1 to 8, inclusive, title 6, chapter 30, of the Act approved June 15, 1917 (40 Stat. 223–225; U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 22, secs. 238–245).

(f) In the case of the forfeiture of any arms, ammunition, or implements of war by reason of a violation of this Act, no public or private sale shall be required; but such arms, ammunition, or implements of war shall be delivered to the Secretary of War for such use or disposal thereof as shall be approved by the President of the United States.

Section 12 of the same joint resolution reads as follows:

SEC. 12. In every case of the violation of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule or regulation issued pursuant thereto where a specific penalty is not herein provided, such violator or violators, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

Section 13 of the same joint resolution reads as follows:

SEC. 13. For the purposes of this Act—

(a) The term "United States," when used in a geographical sense, includes the several States and Territories, the insular possessions of the United States (including the Philippine Islands), the Canal Zone, and the District of Columbia.

(b) The term "person" includes a partnership, company, association, or corporation, as well as a natural person.

(c) The term "vessel" means every description of watercraft (including aircraft) or other contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation on, under, or over water.

(d) The term "American vessel" means any vessel (including aircraft) documented under the laws of the United States.

(e) The term "vehicle" means every description of carriage (including aircraft) or other contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation on or over land.

(f) The term "state" shall include nation, government, and country.

PART II

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION OF MAY 1, 1937

The President's proclamation of May 1, 1937, issued pursuant to section 5 of the joint resolution of May 1, 1937, amending the joint resolution of August 31, 1935, reads as follows:

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS section 5 of the joint resolution of Congress approved May 1, 1937, amending the joint resolution entitled "Joint resolution providing for the prohibition of the export of arms, ammunition, and implements of war to belligerent countries; the prohibition of the transportation of arms, ammunition, and implements of war by vessels of the United States for the use of belligerent states; for the registration and licensing of persons engaged in the business of manufacturing, exporting, or importing arms, ammunition, or implements of war; and restricting travel by American citizens on belligerent ships during war," approved August 31, 1935, as amended February 29, 1936, provides in part as follows:

"The President is hereby authorized to proclaim upon recommendation of the Board from time to time a list of articles which shall be considered arms, ammunition, and implements of war for the purposes of this section."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon me by the said joint resolution of Congress, and pursuant to the recommendation of the National Munitions Control Board, declare and proclaim that the articles listed below shall, on and after June 1, 1937, be considered arms, ammunition, and implements of war for the purposes of section 5 of the said joint resolution of Congress:

(2) Aerial gun mounts and frames, bomb racks, torpedo carriers, and bomb or torpedo release mechanisms.

Category IV.

(1) Revolvers and automatic pistols using ammunition in excess of caliber .22;

(2) Ammunition in excess of caliber .22 for the arms ennumerated under (1) above, and cartridge cases or bullets for such ammunition.

Category V.

(1) Aircraft, unassembled, assembled or dismantled, both heavier and lighter than air, other than those included in category III;

(2) Propellers or air screws, fuselages, hulls, wings, tail units, and under-carriage units;

(3) Aircraft engines, unassembled, assembled, or dismantled.

Category VI.

(1) Livens projectors and flame throwers;

a. Mustard gas (dichlorethyl sulphide);
b. Lewisite (chlorvinyldichlorarsine and dichlordivinylchlorarsine);
c. Methyldichlorarsine;
d. Diphenylchlorarsine;
e. Diphenylcyanarsine;
f. Diphenylaminechlorarsine;
g. Phenyldichlorarsine;
h. Ethyldichlorarsine;
i. Phenyldibromarsine;
j. Ethyldibromarsine;
k. Phosgene;
l. Monochlormethylchlorformate;
m. Trichlormethylchlorformate (diphosgene);
n. Dichlordimethyl Ether;
o. Dibromdimethyl Ether;
p. Cyanogen Chloride;
q. Ethylbromacetate;
r. Ethyliodoacetate;
s. Brombenzylcyanide;
t. Bromacetone;
u. Brommethylethyl ketone.

Category VII.

(1) Propellant powders;

(2) High explosives as follows:

a. Nitrocelluiose having a nitrogen content of more than 12%;
b. Trinitrotoluene;
c. Trinitroxylene;
d. Tetryl (trinitrophenol methyl nitramine or tetranitro methylaniline);
e. Picric acid;
f. Ammonium picrate;
g. Trinitroanisol;
h. Trinitronaphthalene;
i. Tetranitronaphthalene;
j. Hexanitrodiphenylamine;
k. Pentaerythritetetranitrate (Penthrite or Pentrite);
l. Trimethylenetrinitramine (Hexogen or T.);
m. Potassium nitrate powders (black saltpeter powder);
n. Sodium nitrate powders (black soda powder);
o. Amatol (mixture of ammonium nitrate and trinitrotoluene);
p. Ammonal (mixture of ammonium nitrate, trinitrotoluene, and powdered aluminum, with or without other ingredients);
q. Schneiderite (mixture of ammonium nitrate and dinitronaphthalene, with or without other ingredients).

This proclamation shall supersede the proclamation of April 10, 1936, entitled "Enumeration of Arms, Ammunition, and Implements of War," on June 1, 1937.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this first day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-first.

[SEAL]

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:
CORDELL HULL
Secretary of State.

PART III

GENERAL REGULATIONS

In compliance with that paragraph of section 5 of the joint resolution approved May 1, 1937, amending the joint resolution of August 31, 1935, which requires the Secretary of State to promulgate such rules and regulations with regard to the enforcement of that section as he may deem necessary to carry out its provisions, the Secretary of State promulgates the following regulations:

(1) All persons engaged in the business of manufacturing, exporting, or importing any of the arms, ammunition, or implements of war enumerated in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937, shall register with the Secretary of State by duly filling out and transmitting to the Secretary of State an application for registration in the form printed below.[1] The articles manufactured, exported, or imported shall be listed on the application for registration under the same categories and in precisely the same terms in which they are listed in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937. Applications for registration must be signed and sworn to in the presence of a notary public before they are transmitted to the Secretary of State.

(2) Applications for registration transmitted to the Secretary of State must be accompanied by a registration fee in the form of money orders or a certified check. This fee is in the amount of $100 for persons who have not manufactured, exported, or imported arms, ammunition, or implements of war, as enumerated in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937, to a total sales value of more than $50,000 during the 12 months immediately preceding their application for registration, and in the amount of $500 for persons who have manufactured, exported, or imported arms, ammunition, or implements of war, as enumerated, to a total sales value of more than $50,000 during the 12 months immediately preceding their application. Persons paying a fee of $100 shall submit with their application for registration an affidavit, signed and sworn to before a notary public by a responsible officer of the company, stating that the company did not manufacture, export, or import arms, ammunition, or implements of war, as enumerated in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937, to a total sales value of more than $50,000 during the 12 months immediately preceding the application for registration and setting forth such evidence in substantiation of this affirmation as may seem appropriate.

(3) Upon receipt of an application for registration and the appended certificate of registration,[1] duly filled out and accompanied by a registration fee of $100 or $500, as the case may be, and by a satisfactory affidavit as described above in the case of persons paying a fee of $100, the Secretary of State will return to the applicant, as a receipt, the certificate of registration, duly signed and sealed. This certificate of registration must be conspicuously displayed at the principal place of business of the person registered.

(4) Manufacturers, exporters, and importers of component parts of the articles or units enumerated in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937, but not of a complete article or unit listed in that proclamation, are not required to register under the joint resolution. Aircraft wheels and aircraft propeller blades are, however, considered as constituting to such an unusual degree the main body of aircraft undercarriage units and aircraft propellers that the manufacture, export, or import of such wheels or blades alone is held to subject the manufacturer, exporter, or importer to the requirement of registration.

(5) Every person registered shall notify the Secretary of State of any change in the list of arms, ammunition, and implements of war which he manufactures, exports, or imports, and, upon such notification, the Secretary of State will issue to such person an amended certificate of registration free of charge, which will remain valid until the date of expiration of the original certificate issued to him.

(6) The production for experimental or scientific purposes, when such production is not followed by sale, of the appliances and substances included in category VI, or of single units of other arms, ammunition, and implements of war, is not considered as manufacture for the purposes of section 5 of the joint resolution.

(7) Persons who are not engaged in the business of exporting or importing arms, ammunition, or implements of war, but who, either for their own personal use or as forwarding agents for persons who are engaged in this business, or, in exceptional circumstances, in other capacities, may make or receive occasional shipments of such articles, will not be considered as exporters or importers of arms, ammunition, and implements of war within the meaning of section 5 of the joint resolution.

(8) The provisions of these regulations shall be considered as binding in addition to, and not in lieu of, those established under the act known as the National Firearms Act (48 Stat. 1236), approved by the President June 26, 1934. This act imposes certain taxes and restrictions upon the manufacture of, importation of, and commerce in certain firearms which are defined as "a shotgun or rifle having a barrel of less than eighteen inches in length, or any other weapon, except a pistol or revolver, from which a shot is discharged by an explosive if such weapon is capable of being concealed on the person, or a machine gun, and includes a muffler or silencer for any firearm whether or not such firearm is included within the foregoing definition." Rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act are prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

(9) No person not registered under section 5 of the joint resolution shall export or import any of the arms, ammunition, or implements of war listed in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937. All persons registered shall obtain from the Secretary of State a license to cover each shipment exported or imported. Blank forms of application for license similar to those printed below[1] will be furnished by the Secretary of State upon request.

(10) The Secretary of State will issue import licenses to all applicants who have duly filled out an application for license, provided that, in case the articles to be imported are firearms, as enumerated in the National Firearms Act of June 26, 1934, referred to under (8) above, the importer has conformed to the pertinent regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

(11) The Secretary of State will issue export licenses to all applicants who have duly filled out an application for license, unless the exportation of arms, ammunition, or implements of war for which a license is applied for would be in violation of a law of the United States or of a treaty to which the United States is a party. (See parts V, VI, and VII, below.)

(12) Export and import licenses are not transferable and are subject to revocation without notice, if the exportation or the importation authorized by the license becomes illegal before the shipment is made. If not revoked, licenses are valid for 1 year from the date of issuance.

(13) No alterations may be made except by the Department of State, or by collectors of customs acting under the specific instructions of the Department of State, in export or import licenses which have been issued under the seal of the Secretary of State.

(14) Export or import licenses which have been revoked or which have expired must be returned immediately to the Secretary of State.

(15) The country designated on the application for license to export as the country of destination should, in each case, be the country of ultimate destination. If the goods to be exported are consigned to one country, with the intention that they be transshipped thence to another country, the latter country should be named as the country of destination. If the country of ultimate destination cannot be ascertained at the time the application for export license is made, the country of initial destination may be named on the application as the country of destination. In such a case, however, the facts must be clearly explained and the Secretary of State must be informed of the ultimate destination by the exporter as soon as the latter has learned the country of ultimate destination of the shipment. The Secretary of State may refuse to grant an application for an export license until he is informed of the country of ultimate destination in order that he may assure himself that the license may be legally issued.

(16) The shipper's export declaration (customs form 7525) covering arms, ammunition, or implements of war for which an export license is required must contain the same information in regard to the nature and the value of the articles to be exported as that which appears on the application for license. If the person designated on the export declaration as the actual shipper of the goods

[1] The form was a part of the original document as filed with the Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives; requests for copies should be addressed to the Secretary of State.

[1] Filed as a part of the original document with the Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives.

is not the person to whom the export license has been issued by the Secretary of State, the name of this shipper should appear on the export license as that of the consignor in the United States.

(17) Applications for license to export arms, ammunition, and implements of war should state, whenever possible, the type and model designation of the article to be exported in order that the Secretary of State may determine, before issuing the license, that the provisions of Part V of these regulations would not be violated by the exportation of the article in question. If an application is submitted in which the articles to be exported are inadequately designated, it will be returned to the applicant for completion in this respect.

(18) The originals of licenses for the export and the import of arms, ammunition, and implements of war must be presented to the collector of customs at the port through which the shipment authorized by the license is being made. Export licenses and export declarations covering arms, ammunition, and implements of war must be filed with the appropriate collector of customs at least 24 hours before the proposed departure of the shipment from the United States, and, in the case of a shipment by a seagoing vessel, 24 hours before the lading of the vessel.

(19) Arms, ammunition, and implements of war covered by an export license must, when exported, be packed separately from all other goods.

(20) Export licenses for arms, ammunition, and implements of war which are shipped by parcel post must be presented to the postmaster at the post office at which the parcel is mailed.

(21) Articles entering or leaving a port of the United States, in transit through the territory of the United States to a foreign country, will not be considered as imported or exported within the meaning of section 5 of the joint resolution, unless they are destined to a country to which the exportation of arms, ammunition, and implements of war is prohibited.

(22) Persons who are registered as exporters or importers of arms, ammunition, or implements of war under section 5 of the joint resolution may make application for export or import licenses on behalf of persons who are not required to register under the joint resolution but who may, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (7) above, desire to make or receive occasional shipments of arms, ammunition, or implements of war.

(23) Arms, ammunition, and implements of war which are more than 100 years old will not be considered as arms, ammunition, or implements of war within the meaning of section 5 of the joint resolution.

(24) Rifles, carbines, revolvers, and pistols entering the United States in single units for the individual use of the person to whom consigned will not be considered as imported within the meaning of section 5 of the joint resolution. (This does not relieve the consignee from the obligation to comply with such of the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury under the National Firearms Act of June 26, 1934, referred to in (8) above, as may be applicable in the premises.)

(25) Arms and ammunition intended exclusively for sporting or scientific purposes or for personal protection, when entering or leaving the United States carried on the person of an individual or in his baggage, will not be considered as imported or exported within the meaning of section 5 of the joint resolution.

(26) The Government of the United States and its agencies are not "persons" within the meaning of that term as used in section 5 of the joint resolution and therefore no license is required for arms, ammunition, or implements of war imported or exported by them.

(27) Arms and implements of war which have been legally exported from the United States, and which are returned to the United States worn or damaged for repair and reexport, will not be considered as imported within the meaning of section 5 of the joint resolution. An export license must be obtained, however, before such articles are reexported.

(28) Licenses are required under the provisions of section 5 of the joint resolution for the export or the import of those articles only which are specifically mentioned in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937. No license is required for the export or the import of the component parts of the articles or units enumerated in that proclamation, except in cases where the export or import of such parts may reasonably be considered as involving, in fact, the export or import of a substantially complete article or unit in unassembled form. Aircraft wheels and aircraft propeller blades are, however, considered as constituting to such an unusual degree the main body of aircraft under-carriage units and aircraft propellers that a license is required for the export of wheels and propeller blades, even when they are shipped alone.

(29) Forgings and castings for any of the arms, ammunition, or implements of war enumerated in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937, which have reached such a stage in manufacture that they are clearly identifiable as forgings or castings for arms, ammunition, and implements of war, are considered as constituting arms, ammunition, and implements of war for the purposes of section 5 of the joint resolution, and licenses will be required for their export or import.

(30) A license is required for the export of all articles listed in subsection (5) of category I of the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937, which are intended or adapted for war purposes. The fact that such an article, when exported, is filled with a nonlethal gas or fluid having a common nonmilitary use will be considered as prima-facie evidence that the article is not intended for war purposes. No license is required for the export of articles listed under subsection (5), even if exported empty, which are adapted and intended solely for nonmilitary use. Articles listed in subsection (5) will be considered ipso facto as intended or adapted for war purposes, unless when exported they either contain a nonlethal gas or fluid or can be proven to be adapted and intended solely for a specific nonmilitary use.

(31) The terms "propellant powders," as used in paragraph (1) of category VII of the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937, and "potassium nitrate powders" and "sodium nitrate powders," as used in paragraph (2) of that category apply to those powders in bulk form. They do not apply to such powders when enclosed in cartridges of types not enumerated in the proclamation, in pyrotechnics, in safety fuse, or in other similar devices. Licenses will not, therefore, be required for the export or import of such cartridges or devices, even though they may contain one of these powders.

(32) Aircraft flown or shipped from the United States for a temporary sojourn abroad will not be considered as exported within the meaning of section 5 of the joint resolution when it is the intention of their owners that they shall remain under United States registry and shall be operated by a United States licensed pilot during the entire period of their sojourn abroad, and, further, when there is no intention on the part of their owners to dispose of them or of any of their essential parts listed in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937, in any foreign country. It should be noted that the United States registry of an aircraft which is sold to an alien either in the United States or abroad is canceled automatically at the time of the sale under the Air Commerce Regulations of the Department of Commerce. Should the owners, after the departure of an aircraft flown or shipped from the United States without an export license, propose to place the aircraft under foreign registry or to have it operated by a pilot not holding a United States license, or to dispose of the aircraft or any of the essential parts referred to in any foreign country, the aircraft, or the part in question, must be returned to the United States and a license obtained for its export to the country concerned. Aircraft of American registry returning to the United States from foreign countries will not be considered as imported within the meaning of section 5 of the joint resolution. Aircraft of foreign registry entering the United States for a temporary sojourn or leaving the United States after such a sojourn will not be considered as imported or exported within the meaning of section 5 of the joint resolution.

(33) Before an aircraft of United States registry leaves the United States for a temporary sojourn abroad under the provisions of paragraph (32) hereof, that aircraft shall be registered with the customs authorities at the port of exit by the shipper or pilot. Such registration shall indicate the approximate date of return of the aircraft and the port of entry through which it is proposed to return the aircraft to the United States.

PART IV

RECORDS OF MANUFACTURE, EXPORT, AND IMPORT

The Secretary of State prescribes that all persons required to register under section 5 of the joint resolution approved May 1, 1937, amending the joint resolution of August 31, 1935, shall maintain, subject to the inspection of the duly authorized agents of the Secretary of State or of any other enforcement agency of the Government of the United States, and distinct from all other records, special permanent records in which shall be recorded the amounts and estimated values of the arms, ammunition, and implements of war manufactured by them for export, and similar records of all arms, ammunition, and implements of war imported or exported by them. The records of articles imported shall, in addition, contain information as to the consignors of articles imported and the port of origin of each shipment. The records of articles exported shall, in addition, contain information as to the consignees and the destination of each shipment.

PART V

SPECIAL PROVISIONS IN REGARD TO MILITARY SECRETS

Title I of the Espionage Act, approved June 15, 1917, reads in part as follows:

> Whoever, with intent or reason to believe that it is to be used to the injury of the United States or to the advantage of a foreign nation, communicates, delivers, or transmits, or attempts to, or aids or induces another to, communicate, deliver, or transmit, to any foreign government, or to any faction or party or military or naval force within a foreign country, whether recognized or unrecognized by the United States, or to any representative, officer, agent, employee, subject, or citizen thereof, either directly or indirectly, any document, writing, code book, signal book, sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blue print, plan, map, model, note, instrument, appliance, or information relating to the national defense, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than twenty years * * *

The Secretary of State will not issue a license authorizing the exportation of any arms, ammunition, or implements of war considered by the Secretary of War or by the Secretary of the Navy as instruments or appliances included among the articles covered by those terms as used in this act if, in their opinion, they involve military secrets of interest to the national defense. The articles which may be so considered are articles falling within one of the following categories:

> (a) Articles, the whole or any features of which have been or are being developed or manufactured by or for the War Department or the Navy Department or with the participation of either of those Departments; and
> (b) Articles, the whole or any features of which have been used or are being used by the War Department or the Navy Department or which either Department has contracted to procure.

Included among articles developed by or for the War Department or the Navy Department are articles the development of which has been contracted for by either of those departments, or which have been developed in accordance with Army or Navy specifications and submitted to either department for evaluation for procurement.

Prospective exporters of arms, ammunition, and implements of war should, before applying for a license to authorize the exportation of any article falling within the above categories which may possibly involve military secrets of interest to the national defense, communicate with the Secretary of State in advance of the proposed shipment in order that he may be in a position to ascertain for the prospective exporter whether or not military secrets are, in fact, involved therein.

PART VI

SPECIAL PROVISIONS IN REGARD TO EXPORTATION TO CHINA, CUBA, HONDURAS, AND NICARAGUA

A joint resolution of Congress approved January 31, 1922, reads in part as follows:

> * * * That whenever the President finds that in any American country, or in any country in which the United States exercises extra-territorial jurisdiction, conditions of domestic violence exist, which are or may be promoted by the use of arms or munitions of war procured from the United States, and makes proclamation thereof, it shall be unlawful to export, except under such limitations and exceptions as the President prescribes, any arms or munitions of war from any place in the United States to such country until otherwise ordered by the President or by Congress.
> SEC. 2. Whoever exports any arms or munitions of war in violation of section 1 shall, on conviction, be punished by fine not exceeding $10,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both.

A convention between the United States of America and other American republics in regard to the duties and rights of states in the event of civil strife, signed at Habana, February 20, 1928, and ratified by the United States on May 21, 1930, reads in part as follows:

> "ARTICLE 1
> "The contracting states bind themselves to observe the following rules with regard to civil strife in another one of them:
> * * * * * * *
> "3. To forbid the traffic in arms and war material, except when intended for the government, while the belligerency of the rebels has not been recognized, in which latter case the rules of neutrality shall be applied."

Pursuant to the authority conferred by the joint resolution of January 31, 1922, a Presidential proclamation, which is still in effect, was issued on March 4, 1922, in respect to China, as follows:

> By the President of the United States of America
>
> WHEREAS, Section I of a Joint Resolution of Congress, entitled a "Joint Resolution To prohibit the exportation of arms or munitions of war from the United States to certain countries, and for other purposes," approved January 31, 1922, provides as follows:
> "That whenever the President finds that in any American country, or in any country in which the United States exercises extraterritorial jurisdiction, conditions of domestic violence exist, which are or may be promoted by the use of arms or munitions of war procured from the United States, and makes proclamation thereof, it shall be unlawful to export, except under such limitations and exceptions as the President prescribes, any arms or munitions of war from any place in the United States to such country until otherwise ordered by the President or by Congress."
> And whereas, it is provided by Section II of the said Joint Resolution that "Whoever exports any arms or munitions of war in violation of section 1 shall on conviction, be punished by fine not exceeding $10,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both."
> Now, therefore, I Warren G. Harding, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority conferred in me by the said Joint Resolution of Congress, do hereby declare and proclaim that I have found that there exist in China such conditions of domestic violence which are or may be promoted by the use of arms or munitions of war procured from the United States as contemplated by the said Joint Resolution; and I do hereby admonish all citizens of the United States and every person to abstain from every violation of the provisions of the Joint Resolution above set forth, hereby made applicable to China, and I do hereby warn them that all violations of such provisions will be rigorously prosecuted.
> And I do hereby enjoin upon all officers of the United States, charged with the execution of the laws thereof, the utmost diligence in preventing violations of the said Joint Resolution and this my Proclamation issued thereunder, and in bringing to trial and punishment any offenders against the same.

And I do hereby delegate to the Secretary of State the Power of prescribing exceptions and limitations to the application of the said Joint Resolution of January 31, 1922, as made effective by this my Proclamation issued thereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this fourth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred [SEAL] and twenty-two and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-sixth.

WARREN G. HARDING

By the President:

HENRY P. FLETCHER,
Acting Secretary of State.

Similar Presidential proclamations, which are still in effect, were issued on March 22, 1924, in respect of Honduras; on September 15, 1926, in respect of Nicaragua; and on June 29, 1934, in respect of Cuba.

In accordance with the authority conferred upon him in these proclamations, the Secretary of State will permit the exportation to China, Cuba, Honduras, and Nicaragua of the arms, ammunition, and implements of war listed in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937, only when the Department of State has been informed by the Chinese Embassy in Washington, the Cuban Embassy in Washington, the Honduran Legation in Washington, or the Nicaraguan Legation in Washington, as the case may be, that it is the desire of the government of the country into which the arms, ammunition, or implements of war are to be imported, that the exportation of the shipment be authorized.

The bringing about of notification to the Department of State through the appropriate embassy or legation that the government of an importing state desires that the exportation of a shipment be authorized is a matter with regard to which the initiative and responsibility lie with the importing government and the potential shipper.

In compliance with article II of the convention between the United States and Cuba to suppress smuggling, signed at Habana March 11, 1926, which reads in part as follows:

"The High Contracting Parties agree that clearance of shipments of merchandise by water, air, or land, from any of the ports of either country to a port of entry of the other country, shall be denied when such shipment comprises articles the importation of which is prohibited or restricted in the country to which such shipment is destined, unless in this last case there has been a compliance with the requisites demanded by the laws of both countries."

and in compliance with the laws of Cuba which restrict the importation of arms, ammunition, and implements of war of all kinds by requiring an import permit for each shipment, export licenses for shipments of arms, ammunition, and implements of war to Cuba are required for the articles enumerated below in addition to the articles enumerated in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937:

(1) Arms and small arms using ammunition of caliber .22 or less, other than those classed as toys.

(2) Spare parts of arms and small arms of all kinds and calibers, other than those classed as toys, and of guns and machine guns.

(3) Ammunition for the arms and small arms under (1) above.

(4) Sabers, swords, and military machetes with cross-guard hilts.

(5) Explosives as follows: explosive powders of all kinds for all purposes; nitrocellulose having a nitrogen content of 12 percent or less; diphenylamine; dynamite of all kinds; nitroglycerine; alkaline nitrates (ammonium, potassium, and sodium nitrate); nitric acid; nitrobenzene (essence or oil of mirbane); sulphur, sulphuric acid; chlorate of potash; and acetones.

(6) Tear gas ($C_6H_5COCH_2Cl$) and other similar nontoxic gases and apparatus designed for the storage or the projection of such gases.

The Secretary of State will permit the exportation to Cuba of the articles listed above only when the Department of State has been informed by the Cuban Embassy in Washington that it is the desire of the Cuban Government that the exportation of the shipment be authorized.

No export licenses will be issued for shipments destined to China, Cuba, Honduras, or Nicaragua of the appliances and substances listed under category VI in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937.

In the case of shipments of arms, ammunition, or implements of war from the United States not ostensibly destined to China, Cuba, Honduras, or Nicaragua, the Secretary of State may require exporters to present convincing evidence that they are not destined to any of those countries and may refuse to issue an export license for the same until such convincing evidence has been presented to him.

PART VII

SPECIAL PROVISIONS IN REGARD TO EXPORTATION TO SPAIN

A joint resolution of Congress approved January 8, 1937, reads as follows:

JOINT RESOLUTION

To Prohibit the Exportation of Arms, Ammunition, and Implements of War from the United States to Spain.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That during the existence of the state of civil strife now obtaining in Spain it shall, from and after the approval of this Resolution be unlawful to export arms, ammunition, or implements of war from any place in the United States, or possessions of the United States, to Spain or to any other foreign country for transshipment to Spain or for use of either of the opposing forces in Spain. Arms, ammunition, or implements of war, the exportation of which is prohibited by this Resolution, are those enumerated in the President's Proclamation No. 2163 of April 10, 1936.

Licenses heretofore issued under existing law for the exportation of arms, ammunition, or implements of war to Spain shall, as to all future exportations thereunder, ipso facto be deemed to be cancelled.

Whoever in violation of any of the provisions of this Resolution shall export, or attempt to export, or cause to be exported either directly or indirectly, arms, ammunition, or implements of war from the United States or any of its possessions, shall be fined not more than ten thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

When in the judgment of the President the conditions described in this Resolution have ceased to exist, he shall proclaim such fact, and the provisions hereof shall thereupon cease to apply.

Approved, January 8, 1937, at 12.30 p. m.

Section 1 of the joint resolution of Congress approved May 1, 1937, amending the joint resolution approved August 31, 1935, reads as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Whenever the President shall find that there exists a state of war between, or among, two or more foreign states, the President shall proclaim such fact, and it shall thereafter be unlawful to export, or attempt to export, or cause to be exported, arms, ammunition, or implements of war from any place in the United States to any belligerent state named in such proclamation, or to any neutral state for transshipment to, or for the use of, any such belligerent state.

(b) The President shall, from time to time, by proclamation, extend such embargo upon the export of arms, ammunition, or implements of war to other states as and when they may become involved in such war.

(c) Whenever the President shall find that a state of civil strife exists in a foreign state and that such civil strife is of a magnitude or is being conducted under such conditions that the export of arms, ammunition, or implements of war from the United States to such foreign state would threaten or endanger the peace of the United States, the President shall proclaim such fact, and it shall thereafter be unlawful to export, or attempt to export, or cause to be exported, arms, ammunition, or implements of war from any place in the United States to such foreign state, or to any neutral state for transshipment to, or for the use of, such foreign state.

(d) The President shall, from time to time by proclamation, definitely enumerate the arms, ammunition, and implements of war, the export of which is prohibited by this section. The arms, ammunition, and implements of war so enumerated shall include those enumerated in the President's proclamation Numbered 2163, of April 10, 1936, but shall not include raw materials or any other articles or materials not of the same general character as those enumerated in the said proclamation, and in the Convention for the Supervision of the International Trade in Arms and Ammunition and in Implements of War, signed at Geneva June 17, 1925.

(e) Whoever, in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, shall export, or attempt to export, or cause to be exported, arms, ammunition, or implements of war from the United States shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both, and the property, vessel, or vehicle containing the same shall be subject to the provisions of sections 1 to 8, inclusive, title 6, chapter 30, of the Act approved June 15, 1917 (40 Stat. 223-225; U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 22, secs. 238-245).

(f) In the case of the forfeiture of any arms, ammunition, or implements of war by reason of a violation of this Act, no public or private sale shall be required; but such arms, ammunition, or implements of war shall be delivered to the Secretary of War for such use or disposal thereof as shall be approved by the President of the United States.

(g) Whenever, in the judgment of the President, the conditions which have caused him to issue any proclamation under the authority of this section have ceased to exist, he shall revoke the same, and the provisions of this section shall thereupon cease to apply with respect to the state or states named in such proclamation, except with respect to offenses committed, or forfeitures incurred, prior to such revocation.

Pursuant to the provisions of subsections (c) and (d) of this section, the President, on May 1, 1937, issued a proclamation as follows:

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS section 1 of the joint resolution of Congress approved May 1, 1937, amending the joint resolution entitled "Joint resolution providing for the prohibition of the export of arms, ammunition, and implements of war to belligerent countries; the prohibition of the transportation of arms, ammunition, and implements of war by vessels of the United States for the use of belligerent states; for the registration and licensing of persons engaged in the business of manufacturing, exporting, or importing arms, ammunition, or implements of war; and restricting travel by American citizens on belligerent ships during war", approved August 31, 1935, as amended February 29, 1936, provides in part as follows:

"Whenever the President shall find that a state of civil strife exists in a foreign state and that such civil strife is of a magnitude or is being conducted under such conditions that the export of arms, ammunition, or implements of war from the United States to such foreign state would threaten or endanger the peace of the United States, the President shall proclaim such fact, and it shall thereafter be unlawful to export, or attempt to export, or cause to be exported, arms, ammunition, or implements of war from any place in the United States to such foreign state, or to any neutral state for transshipment to, or for the use of, such foreign state."

AND WHEREAS it is further provided by section 1 of the said joint resolution that

"The President shall, from time to time by proclamation, definitely enumerate the arms, ammunition, and implements of war, the export of which is prohibited by this section. The arms, ammunition, and implements of war so enumerated shall include those enumerated in the President's proclamation Numbered 2163, of April 10, 1936, but shall not include raw materials or any other articles or materials not of the same general character as those enumerated in the said proclamation, and in the Convention for the Supervision of the International Trade in Arms and Ammunition and in Implements of War, signed at Geneva June 17, 1925."

AND WHEREAS it is further provided by section 1 of the said joint resolution that

"Whoever, in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, shall export, or attempt to export, or cause to be exported, arms, ammunition, or implements of war from the United States shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both, and the property, vessel, or vehicle containing the same shall be subject to the provisions of sections 1 to 8, inclusive, title 6, chapter 30, of the Act approved June 15, 1917 (40 Stat. 223-225; U. S. C., 1934 ed., title 22, secs. 238-245)."

AND WHEREAS it is further provided by section 1 of the said joint resolution that

"In the case of the forfeiture of any arms, ammunition, or implements of war by reason of a violation of this Act, no public or private sale shall be required; but such arms, ammunition, or implements of war shall be delivered to the Secretary of War for such use or disposal thereof as shall be approved by the President of the United States."

AND WHEREAS it is further provided by section 11 of the said joint resolution that

"The President may, from time to time, promulgate such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be necessary and proper to carry out any of the provisions of this Act; and he may exercise any power or authority conferred on him by this Act through such officer or officers, or agency or agencies, as he shall direct."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority conferred on me by the said joint resolution, do hereby proclaim that a state of civil strife unhappily exists in Spain and that such civil strife is of a magnitude and is being conducted under such conditions that the export of arms, ammunition, or implements of war from the United States to Spain would threaten and endanger the peace of the United States, and I do hereby admonish all citizens of the United States, or any of its possessions, and all persons residing or being within the territory or jurisdiction of the United States, or its possessions, to abstain from every violation of the provisions of the joint resolution above set forth, hereby made effective and applicable to the export of arms, ammunition, or implements of war from any place in the United States to Spain or to any other state for transshipment to, or for the use of, Spain.

And I do hereby declare and proclaim that the articles listed below shall be considered arms, ammunition, and implements of war for the purposes of section 1 of the said joint resolution of Congress:

Category I.

(1) Rifles and carbines using ammunition in excess of caliber .22, and barrels for those weapons;

(2) Machine guns, automatic or autoloading rifles, and machine pistols using ammunition in excess of caliber .22, and barrels for those weapons;

(3) Guns, howitzers, and mortars of all calibers, their mountings and barrels;

(4) Ammunition in excess of caliber .22 for the arms enumerated under (1) and (2) above, and cartridge cases or bullets for such ammunition; filled and unfilled projectiles for the arms enumerated under (3) above;

(5) Grenades, bombs, torpedoes, mines and depth charges, filled or unfilled, and apparatus for their use or discharge;

(6) Tanks, military armored vehicles, and armored trains.

Category II.

Vessels of war of all kinds, including aircraft carriers and submarines, and armor plate for such vessels.

Category III.

(1) Aircraft, unassembled, assembled, or dismantled, both heavier and lighter than air, which are designed, adapted, and intended for aerial combat by the use of machine guns or of artillery or for the carrying and dropping of bombs, or which are equipped with, or which by reason of design or construction are prepared for, any of the appliances referred to in paragraph (2) below;

(2) Aerial gun mounts and frames, bomb racks, torpedo carriers, and bomb or torpedo release mechanisms.

Category IV.

(1) Revolvers and automatic pistols using ammunition in excess of caliber .22;

(2) Ammunition in excess of caliber .22 for the arms enumerated under (1) above, and cartridge cases or bullets for such ammunition.

Category V.

(1) Aircraft, unassembled, assembled, or dismantled, both heavier and lighter than air, other than those included in Category III;

(2) Propellers or air screws, fuselages, hulls, wings, tail units, and under-carriage units;

(3) Aircraft engines, unassembled, assembled, or dismantled.

Category VI.

(1) Livens projectors and flame throwers;

(2)—

a. Mustard gas (dichlorethyl sulphide);

b. Lewisite (chlorvinyldichlorarsine and dichlordivinylchlorarsine);

c. Mehtyldichlorarsine;

d. Diphenylchlorarsine;

e. Diphenylcyanarsine;

f. Diphenylaminechlorarsine;

g. Phenyldichlorarsine;

h. Ethyldichlorarsine;

i. Phenyldibromarsine;

j. Ethyldibromarsine;

k. Phosgene;

l. Monochlormethylchlorformate;

m. Trichlormethylchlorformate (diphosgene);

n. Dichlordimethyl Ether;

o. Dibromdimethyl Ether;

p. Cyanogen Chloride;

q. Ethylbromacetate;

r. Ethyliodoacetate;

s. Brombenzylcyanide;

t. Bromacetone;

u. Brommethylethyl ketone.

Category VII.

(1) Propellant powders;

(2) High explosives as follows:

a. Nitrocellulose having a nitrogen content of more than 12%;

b. Trinitrotoluene;

c. Trinitroxylene;

d. Tetryl (trinitrophenol methyl nitramine or tetranitro methylaniline);

e. Picric acid;

f. Ammonium picrate;

g. Trinitroanisol;

h. Trinitronaphthalene;

i. Tetranitronaphthalene;

j. Hexanitrodiphenylamine;

k. Pentaerythritetetranitrate (Penthrite or Pentrite);

l. Trimethylenetrinitramine (Hexogen or T_4);

m. Potassium nitrate powders (black saltpeter powder);

n. Sodium nitrate powders (black soda powder);

o. Amatol (mixture of ammonium nitrate and trinitrotoluene);

p. Ammonal (mixture of ammonium nitrate, trinitrotoluene, and powdered aluminum, with or without other ingredients);

q. Schneiderite (mixture of ammonium nitrate and dinitronaphthalene, with or without other ingredients).

And I do hereby enjoin upon all officers of the United States, charged with the execution of the laws thereof, the utmost diligence in preventing violations of the said joint resolution, and this my proclamation issued thereunder, and in bringing to trial and punishment any offenders against the same.

And I do hereby delegate to the Secretary of State the power to exercise any power or authority conferred on me by the said joint resolution, as made effective by this my proclamation issued thereunder, and the power to promulgate such rules and regulations not inconsistent with law as may be necessary and proper to carry out any of its provisions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this first day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, [SEAL] and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-first.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:

CORDELL HULL
Secretary of State.

No export licenses will be issued for shipments destined to Spain of any of the arms, ammunition, or implements of war enumerated in the President's proclamation of May 1, 1937.

By virtue of the power delegated to the Secretary of State by this proclamation of May 1, 1937, to promulgate such rules and regulations not inconsistent with law as may be necessary to carry out any of the provisions of the joint resolution of Congress approved May 1, 1937, as made effective by this proclamation, the Secretary of State may require exporters of any of the arms, ammunition, or implements of war enumerated in the proclamation to present convincing evidence that they are not destined to Spain and may refuse to issue an export license for the same until such convincing evidence has been presented to him.

Section 6 of the joint resolution of Congress approved May 1, 1937, reads as follows:

SEC. 6. (a) Whenever the President shall have issued a proclamation under the authority of section 1 of this Act, it shall thereafter be unlawful, until such proclamation is revoked, for any American vessel to carry any arms, ammunition, or implements of war to any belligerent state, or to any state wherein civil strife exists, named in such proclamation, or to any neutral state for transshipment to, or for the use of, any such belligerent state or any such state wherein civil strife exists.

(b) Whoever, in violation of the provisions of this section, shall take, or attempt to take, or shall authorize, hire, or solicit another to take, any American vessel carrying such cargo out of port or from the jurisdiction of the United States shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both; and, in addition, such vessel, and her tackle, apparel, furniture, and equipment, and the arms, ammunition, and implements of war on board, shall be forfeited to the United States.

Section 10 of the same joint resolution reads as follows:

SEC. 10. Whenever the President shall have issued a proclamation under the authority of section 1, it shall thereafter be unlawful, until such proclamation is revoked, for any American vessel engaged in commerce with any belligerent state, or any state wherein civil strife exists, named in such proclamation, to be armed or to carry any armament, arms, ammunition, or implements of war, except small arms and ammunition therefor which the President may deem necessary and shall publicly designate for the preservation of discipline aboard such vessels.

Under the provisions of this section and by virtue of the power delegated to the Secretary of State by this proclamation of May 1, 1937, to promulgate such rules and regulations not inconsistent with law as may be necessary to carry out any of the provisions of the joint resolution of Congress approved May 1, 1937, the Secretary of State on May 1, 1937, announced that American vessels engaged in commerce with Spain might carry such small arms and ammunition as the masters of these vessels might deem indispensable for the preservation of discipline aboard the vessels.

PART VIII

SPECIAL PROVISIONS IN REGARD TO THE EXPORTATION OF TIN-PLATE SCRAP

The act of Congress approved February 15, 1936, entitled "AN ACT To provide for the protection and preservation of the domestic sources of tin" reads as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in the interest of national defense, it is hereby declared to be the policy of Congress and the purpose and intent of this Act to protect, preserve, and develop domestic sources of tin, to restrain the depletion of domestic reserves of tin-bearing materials, and to lessen the present costly and dangerously dependent position of the United States with respect to resources of tin.

SEC. 2. There shall not be exported from the United States after the expiration of sixty days from the enactment of this Act any tin-plate scrap, except upon license issued by the President of the United States. The President is authorized to grant licenses upon such conditions and regulations as he may find necessary to assure in the public interest fair and equitable consideration to all producers of this commodity.

SEC. 3. Any violations of the provisions of this Act shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment of not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

On February 16, 1936, the President issued an Executive order as follows:

EXECUTIVE ORDER

To Provide for the Protection and Preservation of the Domestic Sources of Tin

WHEREAS section 2 of an act of Congress approved February 15, 1936, entitled "AN ACT To provide for the protection and preservation of the domestic sources of tin," provides:

"There shall not be exported from the United States after the expiration of sixty days from the enactment of this Act any tin-plate scrap, except upon license issued by the President of the United States. The President is authorized to grant licenses upon such conditions and regulations as he may find necessary to assure in the public interest fair and equitable consideration to all producers of this commodity."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT, President of the United States, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the aforesaid act, do hereby delegate to the Secretary of State as Chairman of the National Munitions Control Board the power to grant licenses for the exportation of tin-plate scrap upon such conditions and under such regulations as he may find necessary to assure in the public interest fair and equitable consideration to all producers of this commodity, and as he may prescribe by and with the advice and consent of the Board.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,
February 16, 1936.

In virtue of the authority vested in him by the Executive order of February 16, 1936, the Secretary of State by and with the advice and consent of the National Munitions Control Board prescribed on December 7, 1936, the following regulations:

"(1) For the purpose of the act the term 'tin-plate scrap' is construed, provisionally, to mean tin-plate clippings, cuttings, stampings, trimmings, skeleton sheets, and all other miscellaneous pieces of discarded tin plate, which result from (1) the manufacture of tin plate, or (2) the manufacture of tin-bearing articles from tin plate. As thus defined, the term 'tin-plate scrap' does not include tin-plate waste waste, tin-plate circles, tin-plate strips, tin-plate cobbles, and tin-plate scroll shear butts, when packed separately and sold as such, and when not intermingled with tin-plate scrap.

"(2) Blank forms of application for export licenses similar to that printed below [1] will be furnished by the Secretary of State on request.

"(3) The Secretary of State will issue export licenses to cover proposed shipments of tin-plate scrap to applicants who have duly filled out the above form, when in the opinion of the National Munitions Control Board the issuance of such licenses may be consistent with the purposes of the act. Copies of the statement of the procedure adopted by the Board to govern the issuance of licenses may be obtained from the Secretary of State.

[1] Filed as a part of the original document with the Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives.

"(4) The shipper's export declaration (customs form 7525) must contain the same information in regard to the nature and the value of the tin-plate scrap to be exported as that which appears on the application for license.

"(5) Export licenses and export declarations covering tin-plate scrap must be filed with the appropriate collector of customs at least 24 hours before the proposed departure of the shipment from the United States, and, in the case of a shipment by a sea-going vessel, 24 hours before the lading of the vessel."

PART IX

SPECIAL PROVISIONS IN REGARD TO THE EXPORTATION OF HELIUM GAS

Section 3 of the act of September 1, 1937 (50 Stat. 885), entitled "AN ACT Authorizing the conservation, production, exploitation, and sale of helium gas, a mineral resource pertaining to the national defense and to the development of commercial aeronautics, authorizing the acquisition, by purchase or otherwise, by the United States of properties for the production of helium gas, and for other purposes," provides in part as follows:

(b) That helium not needed for Government use may be produced and sold upon payment in advance in quantities and under regulations approved by the President, for medical, scientific, and commercial use, except that helium may be sold for the inflation of only such airships as operate in or between the United States and its Territories and possessions, or between the United States or its territories and possessions and foreign countries: Provided, That no helium shall be sold for the inflation of any airship operating between two foreign countries notwithstanding such airship may also touch at some point in the United States * * *

Section 4 of the act provides as follows:

SEC. 4. No helium gas shall be exported from the United States, or from its Territories and possessions, until after application has been made to the Secretary of State and a license authorizing said exportation has been obtained from him on the joint recommendation of all of the members of the National Munitions Control Board and the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That under regulations governing exportation of helium approved by the National Munitions Control Board and the Secretary of the Interior, export shipments of quantities of helium that are not of military importance as defined in said regulations, and which do not exceed a maximum to be specified therein, may be made uhder license granted by the Secretary of State without such specific recommendation. Such regulations shall not permit accumulations of helium in quantities of military importance in any foreign country, nor the exportation of helium to countries named in proclamations of the President issued pursuant to section 1 (a) or (c) of the Neutrality Act of May 1, 1937 (Public Resolution Numbered 27 of the Seventy-fifth Congress) while such proclamations are in effect, and shall require exporters to submit a sworn statement to the Secretary of State showing the quantity, destination, consignee, and intended use of each proposed exportation.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section or of the regulations made pursuant hereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and the Federal courts of the United States are hereby granted jurisdiction to try and determine all questions arising under this section.

The National Munitions Control Board shall include in its Annual Report to the Congress full information concerning the licenses issued hereunder, together with such information and data collected by the Board as may be considered of value in the determination of questions related to the exportation of helium gas.

Under the authority of the afore-mentioned provisions of law and in pursuance thereof, the Secretary of State on September 3, 1937, prescribed and promulgated, with the approval of the National Munitions Control Board and the Secretary of the Interior, the following regulations governing the export of helium gas:

"(1) Wherever the word helium is used in these regulations, it shall be understood to mean 'contained helium' at standard atmospheric pressure (14.7 pounds per square inch) and 70° Fahrenheit. The expression 'contained helium' means the actual quantity of the element helium (i. e. 100 percent pure helium) present in a mixture of helium and other gases. Purity determinations shall be made by usually recognized methods.

"(2) Applications for license to export helium gas shall be submitted to the Secretary of State on forms similar to that printed below,[1] copies of which will be furnished by the Secretary of State on request. Each application must be signed and sworn to in the presence of a notary public before it is transmitted to the Secretary of State. All applications must be submitted in duplicate.

"(3) Licenses authorizing export shipments of helium gas for medical, scientific, and commercial use other than aeronautical operations will be issued by the Secretary of State for quantities not to exceed, during any one year, to one ultimate consignee or purchaser, 20,000 cubic feet, and not exceeding, during any one year, to the consignees or purchasers within any one country, 500,000 cubic feet. Applications for license to export helium gas in excess of the quantities stated herein, for purposes other than aeronautical operations, will not be granted by the Secretary of State without the unanimous recommendation of the members of the National Munitions Control Board and the Secretary of the Interior.

"(4) All applications for license to export helium gas shall be accompanied by evidence to show that reasonable safeguards have been adopted to insure that there shall be no unnecessary waste of the helium gas desired.

"(5) Succeeding applications for license to export helium gas shall be accompanied by information indicating the manner of disposal of the helium gas obtained under licenses preceding that applied for.

"(6) Licenses authorizing the exportation of helium gas for use in commercial or scientific aircraft operations and in quantities considered by the National Munitions Control Board and the Secretary of the Interior not to be of military importance will be issued by the Secretary of State under allotments to exporters which, on the joint recommendation of the Board and the Secretary of the Interior, will be granted for a period of not to exceed one year.

"Requests for allotments under paragraph (6) hereof shall be submitted to the Secretary of State in the form of an affidavit, subscribed and sworn to before a notary public. Such requests shall identify and describe the aircraft for use in which the helium gas is intended and shall include, for the consideration of the National Munitions Control Board and the Secretary of the Interior, full information in regard to the proposed schedule of operations of the aircraft for the period to which the allotments are to apply. Requests for allotments shall also be accompanied by evidence showing that reasonable safeguards have been adopted to insure that there shall be no unnecessary waste of the helium gas desired and evidence to rebut the presumption that the quantity stated therein should be considered of military importance. An estimate of the rate at which the helium gas is to be exported shall be included in all requests for allotments.

"(8) Succeeding requests for allotments under paragraphs (6) and (7) hereof shall indicate the manner of disposal of the helium gas obtained under the allotment preceding that requested.

"(9) Applications for license to export helium gas under allotments in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (6) and (7) hereof shall be made to the Secretary of State and shall include information which will adequately identify the aircraft for use in which the helium gas is intended. Such identification shall be the same as that used in the request for the allotment under which application is being made.

"Helium gas leaving the United States when used for or intended for the inflation of an aircraft will not be considered as exported within the meaning of section 4 of the act when it is the intention of the owner of the aircraft that it shall remain under American registry and shall be commanded by a duly certificated United States airman during the entire period of its sojourn abroad, and when there is no intention on the part of the owner of the aircraft to dispose of the helium gas in any foreign country.

"(11) The shipper's export declaration (customs form 7525) or such other document as the Bureau of Customs may require must contain the same information in regard to the quantity and value of the helium gas as that which appears on the application for license.

"(12) Export licenses and export declarations, or other documents required by the Bureau of Customs, concerning helium gas must be filed with the appropriate collector of customs at least 24 hours before the proposed departure of the shipment from the United States, and, in the case of a shipment by a seagoing vessel, 24 hours before the lading of the helium gas."

HIGHWAY REGULATIONS

MARCH 2, 1938.

Highway regulations.—Superintendents and other officers in charge of Indian Reservations will be guided by the following regulations in the construction and maintenance of roads and bridges on Indian lands under their jurisdiction:

1. Road program.

A well-planned long range road program will be prepared for each reservation and kept on file. This will include preliminary surveys, notes, maps, estimates and appropriate economic data. Road work will be prosecuted under such plans as funds become available from time to time. (Reference Road Circular No. 56, October 11, 1937).

2. Roadless areas.

Extension of roads into roadless and wildlife areas will not be undertaken contrary to provisions of Order No. 486, dated October 25, 1937, approved by the Secretary of the Interior, October 29, 1937.

3. Project approval.

No construction, repair or extensive road or bridge maintenance will be undertaken without prior approval of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Budget and project statement forms provided therefor will be used in securing approval of work contemplated.

4. Project statements.

Budget and project statements submitted on appropriate forms for approval will be based on careful planning, accurate description and accompanied with maps showing by appropriate symbols the location of the project, the estimated cost and the type of improvement recommended. The forms prepared in quadruplicate will be submitted to the District Road Engineer, who will immediately review and transmit same to the Washington Office with his recommendation.

5. Separate projects.

The construction of a road and the surfacing of a road will be considered as a separate project for which approval is required for each, likewise bridges or other drainage structures costing in excess of $1,000.

6. Classification of roads.

a. Primary Reservation Roads are the important through roads carrying heavy traffic and connecting with or forming a connecting link in a Federal or State road system.

b. Secondary Reservation Roads are roads built solely or primarily to serve the needs of the Indians, for administrative purposes and for operation of school busses.

c. Tertiary Reservation Roads are those of lesser importance, such as cemetery roads, of not less than 14 feet between shoulders.

7. Mapping.

The following symbols will be used on maps and where practicable on a scale of one-half (½") inch to the mile:

a. Symbols:

A Shield ¼" size, inclosing the highway number, will be used to designate Federal-Aid Roads.

A Circle ¼" in diameter, inclosing the road number, may be used to designate State Roads.

A Triangle ¼" on each side, inclosing road number or letter, will be used to designate County Roads.

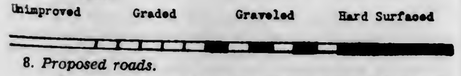
A Capital A in a ¼" diameter circle will denote all projects approved by the Washington Office.

"P" Primary, Secondary and Tertiary reservation roads, which are not Federal, State or County, will be indicated by the capital letter "P" for Primary, capital letter "S" for Secondary, and capital letter "T" for Tertiary roads followed by the route number (P–2 indicates Primary route No. 2, etc.).

b. Color.

All Federal, State, and County Roads will be indicated by two (2) parallel black lines.

All Indian Service roads will be indicated by two (2) parallel red lines.



c. Type of roads.

The unimproved portion of roads of all classes will be shown blank between lines, following coloring scheme indicated above.

The graded portion will be shown by perpendicular areas hatching or cross lines, spaces approximately ¼" apart.

The graveled portion will be shown by blocking or filling in each alternate pair of cross lines.

Any portion of road which has been hard surfaced will be shown solid. These classifications will be shown as follows:

8. Proposed roads.

a. Proposed Federal, State or County Roads will be indicated by the use of two parallel lines of black dashes approximately ⅜" in length, using shield, circle, or triangle, as previously described in paragraph 7 (symbols) above.

b. Proposed Primary, Secondary and Tertiary Indian Service Roads will be indicated by two parallel lines of red dashes or broken lines with letters "P", "S" and "T" therein as required for proper designation as to classification. It will not be necessary to submit a new map to the Washington Office each time a section of a road is constructed or improved, when current reports of improvements are made to the District Road Office and to the Washington Office so that new data may be placed on duplicate maps retained for that purpose.

9. Route numbers.

All Indian Service Roads shall be given specific route numbers. For the sake of uniformity in numbering Service roads it will be desirable to number all roads consecutively from North to South and from East to West. Odd numbers will designate North and South roads, and even numbers will designate East and West roads.

10. Current progress.

Current progress on road work may be indicated in pencil over portions of the road under construction, as follows:

After improvements are effected, the pencil notation may be erased and the proper hatching or blocking is done as indicated above.

11. Location and construction.

a. Work on all projects will be carefully planned and prosecuted under competent engineering supervision.

b. The location of all roads and bridges shall be agreed upon by the Superintendent, the Indian Service District Road Engineer, the Bureau of Public Roads, and the Indians prior to the beginning of construction or improvement work. Where agreement cannot be reached as to location and plans therefor, the questions involved should be presented to the Washington Office for decision.

c. All roads shall be properly located and constructed with good alignment, easy grades, good drainage, and of such width as funds permit and the needs require. The relocation of old roads each time they are improved or reconstructed must be avoided wherever possible. The general standards will not be less than those adopted for similar classes of roads by the State in which the reservation is located.

12. Rights of way.

No work shall be undertaken on a road project until the question of adequate rights of way has been properly settled. The consent of the Tribal Council or a general council, as may be appropriate, should be obtained in the case of rights of way on tribal land. The written consent of the owners of allotted or other individually owned land for rights of way, on forms provided therefor, should be sent to the Washington Office for recording. A copy of the owner's consent should be kept in the Agency file after appropriate notation has been made on Agency land records. Sufficient widths should be secured in right of way grants to take care of present as well as future road requirements. Under ordinary circumstances owners of land benefited by road construction are expected to grant easements free of charge, however, payments may be authorized for rights of way easements where the damage in the construction work exceeds the value of the road to the property. The following rule may be used as a guide in establishing damages.

A. Those factors in favor of allottee or land owner.

(1) Market value of land taken for road.
(2) Cost of fencing right of way.
(3) General damage to whole tract.

B. Those factors favorable to the Government and which can be figured as off-setting the sum of factors 1, 2 and 3 above.

(a) General benefits to remaining land. A minus B equals allowable damage. The question of damage and amount to be allowed must be approved by the Washington Office before payment is made.

13. Application—Reservation roads.

Where a reservation road being constructed or improved with gratuity funds connects with an established outside highway and the State or County authorities wish to give the reservation road the status of a public highway, they should make application for right of way to the Superintendent, accompanied by two linen tracings and three blue print copies in accordance with the Act of March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. L. 1084), and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

14. Application—State or Federal aid roads.

Where it is desired to construct a State or Federal Aid road across Indian lands, an application should be made by the State in accordance with the Act of March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. L. 1084), or in compliance with the Act of March 4, 1915 (38 Stat. L. 1188) if in Montana or Nebraska. See "Rights of Way" section of the Indian Service Regulations.

15. Road signs and colors.

The standard Federal Highway yellow is adopted as a general color scheme excepting for bridges and other drainage structures, for which aluminum paint is specified as a safety measure. Road signs should conform so far as practicable to the Federal-Aid Highway scheme as a matter of uniformity and safety.

16. Co-operation with other units.

Where local counties are unable to improve, repair or maintain County roads on or adjacent to reservations which are highly important to Indians and to Government activities, Superintendents are authorized to co-operate with the County Commissioners in respect thereto on such basis as appears equitable.

17. Expenditure of funds.

No expenditure of Government funds shall be made on Federal-Aid projects, or on routes expected to be added to a State's 7% road system to become eligible for Federal-aid.

18. Authorization for road construction.

The Act of May 26, 1928 (45 Stat. 750) which is considered the basic law for road construction on Indian lands includes the following proviso:

Appropriations are hereby authorized out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated for material, equipment, supervision and engineering, and the employment of Indian labor in survey, improvement, construction and maintenance of Indian reservation roads not eligible to Government aid under Chapter 1 of Title 23 (U. S. C.) and for which no other appropriation is available, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior.

Chapter 1 of Title 23, U. S. C., is the Federal Highway Act authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to co-operate with the State Highway Departments and with the Department of Interior in the survey, construction, reconstruction and maintenance of main roads through unappropriated or unreserved public lands, nontaxable Indian lands, or other Federal reservations other than the forest reservations. It contains the following proviso:

That in the allocation of any such funds authorized to be appropriated under this section or any subsequent Act preference shall be given to those projects which are located on the Federal-aid highway system as the same are now or may hereafter be designated.

19. Approval by Bureau of Public Roads.

The Acts of June 19, 1934 (48 Stat. 1058) and June 16, 1936 (49 Stat. 1521) authorizing to be appropriated the sum of $4,000,000 per annum for Indian Reservation roads, provides:

That hereafter the location, type and design of all roads constructed under the provisions of said Act of May 26, 1928, shall be approved by the Bureau of Public Roads before any expenditures are made thereon, and all such construction done by contract shall be under the general supervision of said Bureau.

20. Cooperation.

Close cooperation will be maintained with the Bureau of Public Roads, other Federal Agencies, the various State Highway Commissions, counties and private organizations on all road projects of mutual interest. (Instructions may be issued from time to time to Field Officers dealing with this cooperative work).

21. Cost records.

An accurate cost account record will be kept of all funds expended on road and bridge projects. Forms and instructions therefor have been issued by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

22. Training Indians.

In order to insure the greatest amount of employment and the training of as many Indians as practicable and to obtain the greatest amount of construction for the money expended, all road and bridge work should, so far as feasible, be supervised by the Indian Service under force account.

23. Road machinery and equipment.

Road machinery and road equipment will be properly used and adequately maintained by storage when not in actual use. Where it is to the advantage of the Government, machinery and equipment may be loaned or transferred to other Indian Service jurisdictions for road work.

24. District road engineers.

The District Road Engineers of the Indian Service will visit the reservations in their districts in an advisory capacity to the Superintendents in connection with all road and bridge work. They will periodically inspect the work being carried on, to see that proper standards are being maintained and that the regulations and the Commissioner's policies are being complied with. Where a difference of opinion may arise between the reservation officials and the District Engineer as to road and bridge work, a full report thereof will be made to the Washington Office for final decision. Recommendations and suggestions by the District Road Engineers to a Superintendent may be embodied in a written memorandum and a copy sent to the Washington Office.

25. Repeal.

Provisions of orders, circulars and other instructions in conflict with the foregoing are hereby rescinded, effective 30 days from date of approval of these regulations.

JOHN COLLIER,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Approved March 15, 1938.

DETERMINATION OF FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICES FOR THE 1937 AND 1938 CROPS OF SUGAR BEETS

Whereas Section 301 (d) of the Sugar Act of 1937, approved September 1, 1937, provides, as one of the conditions for payment to producers of sugar beets and sugarcane, as follows:

That the producer on the farm who is also, directly or indirectly, a processor of sugar beets or sugarcane, as may be determined by the Secretary, shall have paid, or contracted to pay under either purchase or toll agreements, for any sugar beets or sugarcane grown by other producers and processed by him at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing.

And,

Whereas the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to a notice of hearing dated January 14, 1938 held public hearings for the purpose of receiving evidence likely to be of assistance to him in determining fair and reasonable prices for the 1937 and 1938 crops of sugar beets:

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, after investigation and consideration of the evidence obtained at the aforesaid hearings and all other information before me, do hereby determine, with respect to the requirements of Section 301 (d) of the Sugar Act of 1937, fair and reasonable prices for the 1937 and 1938 crops of sugar beets to be paid by processors who, as producers, apply for payments under the said Act to be as follows: (1) with respect to the 1937 crop of sugar beets, rates not less than those specified in the contracts under which such sugar beets were marketed; (2) with respect to the 1938 crop of sugar beets, in the case of a factory district in which processor-grower contracts have been made, rates not less than those specified in such contracts; and (3) with respect to the 1938 crop of sugar beets, in the case of a factory district in which processor-grower contracts have not been made, rates not less than those specified in the processor-grower contract for the 1937 crop of sugar beets in such district, provided the rate per net short ton of sugar beets marketed under that type of agreement commonly known as a "factory average contract", shall not be less than $5.00 for sugar beets which contain 16.5 per centum sugar, as determined in accordance with the terms of such contract, and the rate per net short ton of sugar beets marketed under that type of agreement commonly known as an "individual test contract", shall not be less than $5.00 for sugar beets which contain 16.8 per centum sugar, as determined in accordance with the terms of such contract, with increases and decreases in the foregoing prices to be calculated in direct proportion to the extent to which the sugar content, as determined in accordance with the terms of the contract, is greater or less than the amounts specified herein.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 2nd day of April, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

DETERMINATION OF FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICES FOR THE 1937 CROP OF HAWAIIAN SUGARCANE

Whereas, Section 301 (d) of the Sugar Act of 1937, approved September 1, 1937, provides, as one of the conditions for payment to producers of sugar beets and sugarcane, as follows:

That the producer on the farm who is also, directly or indirectly, a processor of sugar beets or sugarcane, as may be determined by the Secretary, shall have paid, or contracted to pay under either purchase or toll agreements, for any sugar beets or sugarcane grown by other producers and processed by him at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing;

and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture, on November 29, 1937, held a public hearing at Honolulu, Hawaii, for the purpose of receiving evidence likely to be of assistance to him in determining fair and reasonable prices for the 1937 crop of Hawaiian sugarcane:

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace Secretary of Agriculture, after investigation and due consideration of the evidence obtained at the aforesaid hearing and all other information before me, do hereby determine that the prices for the 1937 crop of sugarcane heretofore agreed upon between the several processors in Hawaii and producers of such sugarcane are fair and reasonable.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 2nd day of April, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[Order No. 38]

REPORT REQUIRED SHOWING FINANCIAL RESULTS OF BROADCAST OPERATIONS FOR THE YEAR 1937

The Commission at a meeting held on March 23, 1938, adopted the following Order:

ORDER NO. 38

Under the authority of the Communications Act of 1934, particularly Section 308 (b) thereof,

It is ordered, That each licensee of a regular broadcast station operating within the band of frequencies from 550 kilocycles to 1600 kilocycles, both inclusive, shall file with the Commission information as to earnings and other data as provided by separate form attached hereto and made a part hereof:

It is further ordered, That such information and data shall cover the period ending December 31, 1937, or the date nearest thereto upon which the licensee closed its books of account, and shall be submitted on a form similar in all respects to the aforementioned form.

And it is further ordered, That such forms, in duplicate, shall be filed with the Commission on or before April 25, 1938.

By the Commission.

[SEAL]

T. J. SLOWIE, Secretary.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Each licensee operating a regular broadcast station should report in conformity with the attached forms on paper not larger than 8 x 13 inches information with respect to the results of its broadcast operations and activities incident thereto.

2. The report should be made as of December 31, 1937, or the nearest date within one week thereof as of which the accounts were closed and should embrace the results of operation for not less than the 52 preceding weeks unless the station had been in operation for a shorter period of time, in which event the report should embrace the entire period of operation.

3. Each licensee operating two or more regular broadcast stations should file a separate report for each station operated by such licensee and also a report that will embrace the combined results of operation of all stations operated by such licensee.

4. If the licensee is also engaged in activities outside the field of regular broadcasting and those incidental thereto and the amounts reported in response to the attached forms have been determined by apportionment, that fact should be indicated, and the method of apportionment described.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

DETERMINATION OF FAIR AND REASONABLE WAGE RATES FOR PERSONS EMPLOYED IN THE PRODUCTION, CULTIVATION OR HARVESTING OF THE 1938 CROP OF SUGAR BEETS

APRIL 4, 1938.

Whereas, Section 301 (b) of the Sugar Act of 1937 provides, as one of the conditions for payment to producers of sugar beets and sugarcane, as follows:

(b) That all persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugar beets or sugarcane with respect to which an application for payment is made shall have been paid in full for all such work, and shall have been paid wages therefor at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing; and in making such determinations the Secretary shall take into consideration the standards therefor formerly established by him under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, and the differences in conditions among various producing areas: Provided, however, That a payment which would be payable except for the foregoing provisions of this subsection may be made, as the Secretary may determine, in such manner that the laborer will receive an amount, insofar as such payment will suffice, equal to the amount of the accrued unpaid wages for such work, and that the producer will receive the remainder, if any, of such payment.

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to a notice of hearing, dated January 14, 1938, held public hearings for the purpose of receiving evidence likely to be of assistance to him in determining fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation or harvesting of the 1938 crop of sugar beets.

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, after investigation and due consideration of the evidence obtained at the aforesaid hearings and all other information before me, do hereby determine fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of the 1938 crop of sugar beets on farms from which such sugar beets were contracted to be delivered to factories located in the districts given below, to be not less than the following: [1]

District I.—Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Wisconsin:

Blocking, thinning and hoeing, $11.00 per acre. Pulling and topping, $7.00 for 7 tons or less per acre plus $1.00 for each ton per acre in excess of 7 tons per acre.

Farm Security Administration.

[Administration Order 230 (Supplement 1)]

APRIL 4, 1938.

DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY WITH REFERENCE TO THE TENANT PURCHASE PROGRAM

I. Authorizations to regional directors.—In carrying out the provisions of Title I and the related provisions of Title IV of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act, the authorities listed in this Supplement are hereby delegated to regional directors, and other regional personnel as specified, to be exercised in accordance with the terms given herein. All such redelegations of authority, as are authorized herein, must be in writing designating by name, title, and address the delegates and specifying the authority delegated. A copy of the delegation of authority shall be made available to the regional FC manager.

A. The following authority may not be redelegated by the regional directors:

1. Wage rates.—To prescribe wage rates to be paid for construction work by contract carried on with tenant purchase loan funds.

B. The following authority may be redelegated by the regional directors to state RR directors:

1. State committee meetings.—To call meetings of state Farm Security Advisory committees within their regions.

C. The following authorities may be redelegated by the regional directors to assistant regional directors in charge of RR and chiefs and assistant chiefs of regional Tenant Purchase sections:

1. Approval of loans.—To approve tenant purchase loans by executing the necessary documents and by approving the vouchers.

2. Approval of titles.—To determine whether or not easements, leases, and other outstanding reservations and exceptions to, and minor defects in, the title to lands to be acquired through tenant purchase loans will interfere with the purposes for which the land is to be acquired.

3. Inspection of construction.—To determine whether or not inspection is necessary and, if so, by whom it shall be done where construction or repair work is to be performed with tenant purchase loan funds.

4. Variable payments.—To sign agreements with the borrowers concerning the method of making variable payments on their loans, and determining annually, thereafter, the amount of payment each borrower is to make.

D. The following authorities may be redelegated by the regional directors to assistant regional directors in charge of RR, chiefs and assistant chiefs of regional Tenant Purchase sections, and county RR supervisors:

1. Physical examination.—To make all necessary arrangements with physicians to give health examinations to approved tenant purchase applicants.

2. Construction performed with tenant purchase loan funds.—

a. To specify the methods by which the work is to be done where minor repair or construction work involving less than five hundred dollars ($500) is necessary.

b. To authorize payment when the work is completed on a contract basis.

(I) Exception.—This payment must not be made until the final inspection report indicates that the work is satisfactory.

c. To approve plans for major repairs and new construction work and construction contracts where such work is to be performed.

(I) Exception.—The approval of plans for major repairs and new construction work may not be redelegated to county RR supervisors.

E. The following authority may be redelegated by the regional directors to any designees:

1. Approval of depositories.—To approve the bank or other depository (which must be insured under the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation) in which the proceeds of tenant purchase loans shall be deposited by the borrower.

F. The following authority shall be delegated to county RR supervisors by the regional directors:

1. Countersignatures.—To countersign all withdrawals of tenant purchase loan proceeds from the bank or other depository by the borrower and to perform all of the functions ascribed to countersigning officers.

G. The following authorities cannot be redelegated in connection with the sale of lands which were acquired by the United States for resettlement purposes (except land acquired with state RR corporation funds), but which are suitable for the purposes of Title I of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act:

1. Utilization of resettlement lands.—

a. To execute deeds in the sale of these lands to applicants for tenant purchase loans after these lands have been approved by the Administrator for such sales.

b. To determine the selling price of the lands in accordance with the established standards provided, however, that no land can be so utilized unless the county committee certifies with respect thereto as under regular procedure.

II. Authorization to regional directors, State RR directors, State tenant purchase specialists, and district or county RR supervisors.—

A. County committee meetings.—To call meetings of county committees for the purpose of considering applications for tenant purchase loans and performing related work.

III. Authorization to regional directors and regional office managers, the business manager or assistant business manager.—

A. Letters of authorization.—To issue a letter of authorization to each county RR supervisor authorizing him to direct travel of county committeemen within and outside of the county for the purpose of attending meetings called by the persons mentioned in paragraph II.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

CHILD HEALTH DAY—1938

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS a joint resolution of the Congress approved May 18, 1928 (45 Stat. 617), authorizes and requests the President of the United States to issue annually a proclamation setting apart May 1 as Child Health Day; and

WHEREAS child health is of vital concern to the Nation:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the first day of May of this year as Child Health Day.

And I hereby call the people of the United States to the peaceful task of considering whether the children in their families and in each community are receiving the full benefit of our knowledge of how to promote the health of mothers and babies at the time of birth and of children throughout the period of growth and development, and ask them to plan how the child-health work of our public and private agencies can be extended and made more effective. I also call upon the children to celebrate the gains they have made during the year in health and strength and to do their part in the year-round effort to promote the health of the Nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 4th day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Office of Indian Affairs.

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS ON SALE OF TIMBER PRODUCTS ON MENOMINEE INDIAN RESERVATION

MARCH 5, 1938.

Mr. H. W. JOHANNES,
Manager, Menominee Indian Mills.

DEAR MR. JOHANNES: Reference is made to your letters of January 20 and February 5, suggesting proposed changes in the regulations covering the sale of timber products on the Menominee Indian Reservation.

The amendment of the act of March 28, 1908 (35 Stat. 51), contained in the act of May 18, 1916 (39 Stat. 157), provides:

That the lumber, lath, shingles, crating, ties, piles, poles, posts, bolts, logs, bark, pulpwood and other marketable materials obtained from the forests on the Menominee Reservation shall be sold under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe.

As you have been previously advised there does not appear to be any authority under which the Menominee Indian Mills may exchange lumber or purchase lumber for resale purposes. However, there does not appear to be any prohibition against the purchase of building materials to be sold through the warehouse.

On November 9 the Menominee Advisory Board approved the adoption of changes in the sales regulations which would permit the allowance of a two per cent cash discount on payments made within 10 days after arrival of shipment, or 60 days net. In accordance with your recommendations and those of the Menominee Advisory Board, Section 9 of the "Regulations for the Sale of Timber Products on the Menominee Indian Reservation" approved February 24, 1934, by the Assistant Secretary of the Interior, is hereby modified to read as follows:

SEC. 9. Payments in full for all material sold must be made before shipment, except that on all cash payments a discount of two per cent (2%) of the selling price may be allowed in the discretion of the Manager and the Sales Manager; and those purchasers whose names shall be placed on an approved credit list, to be established by the Manager and Special Disbursing Agent, may have shipments go forward without payment in advance on condition that payment for the material included in such shipments must be made within ten (10) days from the date of arrival of shipment, unless specific arrangement for a longer time has been made. Such credit shipments must be made with the understanding that the purchase price is due and payable when the shipment is made and that the material sold is forwarded at the risk of the purchaser. Credit of this nature may be extended for thirty (30) days from date of shipment, and in special cases, when advantageous to the Menominee Indian Mills through the elimination of rehandling charges or for other satisfactory reasons, may be extended for sixty (60) days from date of shipment. The two per cent (2%) discount may be allowed when purchasers on the approved credit list pay within ten (10) days from the date of arrival of shipment, but no discount shall be allowed on payments made after the expiration of the said ten (10) days. Shipments in advance of full payment may be sent forward consigned to the order of the Menominee Indian Mills, and the invoice and a draft for the value of the material shipped may be sent through reliable banks for collection, with collection fees payable by the purchaser. In the event that such a draft is not promptly paid, the Menominee Indian Mills may cancel the sale and sell the materials shipped in the open market, the original purchaser being responsible and held liable for any loss that results from his default. All payments for products of the operation must be made direct to the Menominee Indian Mills.

In view of the lumber trade practice of allowing an eight per cent discount to the wholesale trade, the following is hereby added to Section 11 of the Sales Regulations:

Sales may be made to wholesalers on which a discount of not more than eight per cent (8%) of the f. o. b. mill value may be allowed.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN HERRICK,
Assistant to the Commissioner.

Approved March 16, 1938.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

[Docket No. A-68 O-68]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE AND SUCH HANDLING AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE COMMERCE, OF IRISH (WHITE) POTATOES GROWN IN LOUISIANA AND IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN ALABAMA, ARKANSAS, CALIFORNIA, FLORIDA, GEORGIA, MARYLAND, MISSISSIPPI, NORTH CAROLINA, OKLAHOMA, SOUTH CAROLINA, TEXAS AND VIRGINIA

Whereas, under Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended and as reenacted by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling of Irish (white) potatoes grown in all counties in the State of Louisiana; in the counties of Santa Barbara, Los Angeles, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego and Kern in the State of California; in the counties of Cameron, Hidalgo, Willacy, Atascosa, Bexar, Brazoria, Brown, Colorado, Comanche, Eastland, Erath, Fort Bend, Harris, Hood, Medina, Wharton, Wilson, Bowie, Camp, Cass, Henderson, Hopkins, Lamar, Morris, Red River, Titus and Wood in the State of Texas; in the counties of Hinds, Lauderdale, Newton, Rankin, Scott, Warren and all counties south thereof in the State of Mississippi; in the counties of Baldwin, Escambia and Mobile in the State of Alabama; in the counties of Brevard, Hillsboro, Osceola, Polk, and all counties south thereof, Escambia, Santa Rosa, St. Johns, Seminole, Union, Alachua, Bradford, Clay, Flagler, Marion, Putnam and Volusia in the State of Florida; in the counties of Arkansas, Ashley, Bradley, Calhoun, Clark, Cleburne, Cleveland, Columbia, Conway, Crawford, Dallas, Desha, Drew, Franklin, Garland, Grant, Hot Springs, Howard, Jackson, Jefferson, Johnson, LaFayette, Lincoln, Little River, Logan, Miller, Montgomery, Nevada, Ouachita, Pike, Polk, Pope, Pulaski, Salina, Scott, Sebastian, Sevier, Washington, White and Yell in the State of Arkansas; in the counties of Adair, Bryan, Carter, Cherokee, Choctaw, Coal, Grady, Hughes, Le Flore, McIntosh, Nobel, Oklahoma, Haskell, Latimer, McCurtain, Muskogee, Okfuskee, Okmulgee, Osage, Pittsburg, Pontotoc, Pottawatomie, Pushmataha, Washington, Seminole, Sequoyah, Tulsa and Wagoner, in the State of Oklahoma; in the counties of Beaufort, Bladen, Carteret, Columbus, Craven, Cumberland, Duplin, Edgecombe, Greene, Halifax, Harnett, Washington, Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Jones, Lenoir, Martin, New Hanover, Onslow, Pamlico, Pender, Pitt, Robeson, Sampson, Tyrrell, Wayne, Wilson, Perquimans and Pasquotank in the State of North Carolina; in the counties of Elizabeth City, Gloucester, Isle of Wight, James City, Mathews, Middlesex, Nansemond, Norfolk, Princess Anne, Warwick, York, Accomac and Northampton in the State of Virginia; in the counties of Allendale, Beaufort, Berkeley, Charleston, Clarendon, Colleton, Dorchester, Georgetown, Hampton, Horry, Jasper, Marion, Orangeburg, Sumter, and Williamsburg in the State of South Carolina; in the counties of Bryan, Chatham, Effingham, Liberty, Long and Screven in the State of Georgia; and in the counties of Dorchester, Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester in the State of Maryland;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of such potatoes in the San Benito City Hall, San Benito, Texas, on April 18, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the McCarthey Hotel, Texarkana, Texas, on April 20, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Library, Pulaski County Court House, Markham and Broadway Streets, Little Rock, Arkansas, on April 21, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Court House, Muskogee, Oklahoma, on April 22, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Court House, Wharton, Texas, on April 18, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in Room 300, Association of Commerce Building, 315 Camp Street, New Orleans, La., on April 20, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Auditorium, Court House (second floor), Gulfport, Mississippi, on April 21, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the American Legion Hall, Foley, Alabama, on April 23, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Criminal Court Room, Court House, West Palm Beach, Florida, on April 18, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Court House, Palatka, Florida, on April 19, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Court Room, Court House, Springfield, Georgia, on April 20, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Community Center Auditorium, Community Center Headquarters, Charleston, South Carolina, on April 21, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Auditorium, Central High School, Painter, Virginia, on April 19, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Social Hall, Navy Y. M. C. A., 130 Brooke Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia, on April 21, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the High School Auditorium, Washington, North Carolina, on April 22, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Richland Grammar School, Auditorium, Shafter, California, on April 19, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; and in the Assembly Hall, State Office Building, Los Angeles, California, on April 20, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling of Irish (white) potatoes grown in the State of Louisiana and in the above mentioned counties in the States of Alabama, Arkansas, California, Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Texas and Virginia as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such potatoes. Among other things, the proposed marketing agreement and proposed order provide for: (a) the establishment of area committees, district committees and an Early Potato Committee, (b) prohibition of shipment of "cull" potatoes, (c) further grade and size regulations of shipments, (d) expenses of administration, and other matters relating to the handling of such potatoes in the aforesaid States and counties.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of potatoes in the aforesaid area which requires a shorter period of notice than fifteen (15) days; and it is hereby determined that the period of notice given is reasonable under the circumstances.

Copies of the proposed marketing agreement and proposed order may be inspected in or procured from the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

RAILROAD RETIREMENT BOARD.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE EXISTENCE OR NON-EXISTENCE OF AN EMPLOYMENT RELATION AS DEFINED IN THE RAILROAD RETIREMENT ACT OF 1937

Pursuant to the authority conferred by section 10 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 the Railroad Retirement Board hereby prescribes the following rules and regulations:

I

GENERAL RULES

1. The existence or non-existence of an employment relation as defined in Section 1 (d) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 is a conclusion which must be reached by the Board or its authorized representatives upon the basis of the evidence before it; the burden of formulating the conclusion may not be delegated to the employer or to the individual or to any representative of either; the employer or the individual or their representatives are the principal sources of evidence with respect to the established rules and practices in effect on the employer and with respect to the facts constituting the conditions under which the individual was not in active service, but the Board will not make a determination on the basis of a conclusion of the employer or of the individual or of a representative of either to the effect that the individual had or had not an employment relation.

2. An employment relation exists if there was, at the time in question, in effect on the employer an established rule or practice in accordance with which the individual was either (a) on furlough (subject to call for service and ready and willing to serve) or (b) on leave of absence, or (c) absent on account of sickness or disability.

3. A furlough, leave of absence, or absence on account of sickness or disability, within the scope of these regulations or the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, exists if the terms of the established rule or practice in accordance with which the individual is out of active service are such that they would operate to restore him to active service upon the occurrence of definite and ascertainable events or conditions. Within the limitations of the preceding sentence: A furlough is an involuntary absence from active service which is brought about by action of the employer. A leave of absence is action of the employer permitting or requiring the employee to remain away from active service and relieving the employee from the obligations or conditions attached to active service, or to a furlough relationship or to absence on account of sickness or disability; absence on account of sickness or disability is an interruption of active service, or of a furlough, by reason of sickness or disability. An individual on furlough can have an employment relation only if at the time in question he was subject to call for service and ready and willing to serve.

4. An established rule is an authoritative and binding declaration definitely and specifically formulated and of general application to employees within the same class. A rule may be expressed either in the form of specific authoritative instructions in force on the employer or in a contract or working agreement covering the individual and made between the employer and an employee organization, and may derive its authoritative effect either from the authority of the officer issuing the declaration or from the binding nature of the contract between the employer and the employee organization.

5. An established practice is a custom not expressed in the form of a rule but followed with such frequency and uniformity as to give reasonable assurance that it would be followed in the individual's case, and to permit ascertainment of the practice with such precision as to render it capable of statement in the form of a rule.

6. No employment relation can exist unless it represents a continuous relationship following immediately upon actual compensated service; it cannot be brought into existence through an application for employment, or inclusion on a waiting list, or a promise of employment, or similar circumstances preceding actual service or following an interruption of the relationship; Provided, however, that a rule may be amended so as to create anew an employment relationship which has lapsed, but such relationship can exist only from the time of the adoption of such amendment.

7. The termination of an employment relation need not involve a specific action but may be inferred from circumstances. It is terminated in any case in which there has been discharge, resignation, or retirement, with or without pension. Discharge, resignation or retirement must be determined according to the substance of the transaction, even though the transaction may have been denominated furlough, leave of absence or absence on account of sickness or disability. A transaction so denominated, but which represents in substance and effect a discharge, resignation or retirement, terminates the employment relation.

II

BEARING OF SPECIFIC FACTORS UPON EXISTENCE OF EMPLOYMENT RELATION

In the application of the general rules set forth in Part I of these regulations, certain specific and frequently recurring factors shall be dealt with in accordance with the respective paragraphs of this Part II. Such paragraphs do not constitute an exhaustive catalogue of all factors which may arise in the application of the general rules to concrete cases.

1. Probability of return to service.—Any established rule or practice, in order to be relevant to the existence of an employment relation, and any furlough, leave of absence, or absence on account of sickness or disability which is claimed to express an employment relation, must contemplate a resumption of active service. Physical or mental incapacity to return to service, even though judged to be "permanent", is not in and of itself significant, except that it is significant in connection with definitive action of the employer or of the individual, including statements or actions on the part of the individual indicating his retirement or statements or actions of the employer treating the individual as a retired employee, such as, application for and the award of a pension or gratuity of indefinite duration.

2. Limitations of Time.—Where the terms of a furlough, or the rules or practices under which it was issued, place a limitation on the time within which the furlough will operate to return an individual to active service, the employment relation ceases upon the expiration of such period, unless he has resumed active service within the period. Where the terms of a leave of absence or the conditions under which an individual is absent on account of sickness or disability, or the rules or practices under which a leave of absence is granted or an absence on account of sickness or disability is permitted, place a limitation on the time during which the individual may be absent, the employment relation ceases upon the expiration of such period, unless he has reported for active service upon or before the expiration of such period. However, the period may be extended by action of the employer if such action is permissible under the established rules or practices in effect on the employer.

3. Failure to preserve or exercise rights.—Where the terms of a furlough, leave of absence or absence on account of sickness or disability, or the rules or practices under which it is granted, require periodic or continuous action of the individual (such as periodic renewal of address, or continuous availability for service, or the exercise of rights upon proper occasion) in order to preserve his status, or require the continuance of a condition (such as the continuance of incapacity as the basis of absence on account of sickness or disability) and the individual fails to take such action, or the condition ceases to exist, the employment relation terminates.

4. Seniority Roster.—The appearance of the individual's name on a seniority roster is not, in and of itself, indicative of an employment relation. There must appear the further fact that the appearance of the individual's name on the seniority roster is based on established rules or practices in effect on the employer which would operate to restore him to active service upon the occurrence of definite and ascertainable events or conditions.

5. Promise of Further Employment after Termination of Rights.—When such rights to return to service as an individual may hold, in accordance with the established rules and practices in effect on the employer, are terminated, but in connection with such termination or coincidentally therewith, a promise not in accordance with the established rules or practices in effect on the employer is made, indicating some future employment, such promise does not operate to maintain an employment relation.

6. Reinstatement.—A bona fide reinstatement with restoration of seniority privileges, with or without pay for time lost, made for the purpose of and in contemplation of return to actual service (irrespective of whether actual service is resumed) operates to maintain the employment relation throughout the breach in service, provided that the reinstatement is not a violation of the rights of other employees. Participation in the reinstatement by representatives of the other employees, or acquiescence on their part in an actual return to service, shall be conclusive evidence that the reinstatement was not a violation of the rights of such other employees.

7. Reaching retirement age while in employment relation.—If there is in effect upon the employer an established rule or practice requiring automatic retirement upon attainment of a particular age, or at the end of the month in which such age is attained, such rule or practice will operate to terminate the employment relation of an individual who is on furlough, leave of absence, or absent on account of sickness or disability when the time for automatic retirement is reached.

8. Abolition of job, discontinuance of service and abandonment of line.—Abolition of a job, or the discontinuance of a service, in which the individual was engaged is not in and of itself relevant to the determination of the existence or nonexistence of an employment relation. When an individual is out of active service under such circumstances, determination must be made under the other provisions of those regulations as to whether the individual was on furlough, leave of absence, or absent on account of sickness or disability, in accordance with established rules or practices in effect on the employer. However, abandonment of line or facility involving abandonment of all jobs to which the individual's preference or seniority attaches under the established rules or practices in effect on the employer terminates the employment relation, unless, by agreement between the employer and the individuals affected, the latter acquire seniority on some other line or facility of the employer; or in cases of merger or consolidation of two or more employers, on the consolidated or merged employer; such agreement need not be entered into simultaneously with the abandonment of the line or facility, provided that it is so immediately and directly connected therewith as to constitute part of the disposition of the same matter.

9. Pass privileges, or retention of employer property.—The fact that an individual continues to receive free transportation, or is permitted to retain employer property, such as rule books and switch keys, is not indicative of the existence of an employment relation. However, definite action of the employer terminating free transportation privileges or requiring the surrender of employer property may be indicative of the termination of the employment relation.

By direction of the Board.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of March, A. D., 1938.

[File No. 37-14]

IN THE MATTER OF CITIZENS UTILITIES COMPANY

AMENDMENT TO ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY EXEMPTION FROM THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 13 (A) OF THE PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

Citizens Utilities Company, a registered holding company, having filed an application, and amendments thereto, for an exemption from the provisions of Section 13 (a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; a hearing on said application, as amended, having been duly held after appropriate notice; the Commission having issued an order on October 6, 1936, exempting said Citizens Utilities Company from the provisions of Section 13 (a) of said Act for a period of six months from the date of such order; one of the findings upon which said order was based being that applicant's servicing of its subsidiary companies while certain of them were in the process of being merged or consolidated with it, constituted special and unusual circumstances justifying a temporary exemption; and said order having been made upon condition that the services performed by said Citizens Utilities Company should comply with the provisions of such rules, regulations, or orders of the Commission as may be applicable, including Rule 13-31, and upon the further condition that the applicant, in accordance with such rules and regulations, should amend its method of allocating costs so as to charge itself for the expenses of its operations as a holding company and so that it should make direct charges so far as costs can be identified and related to particular transactions without excessive effort or expense;

Said exemption having been heretofore extended until sixty days after the determination of a certain application made by said Citizens Utilities Company to the Federal Power Commission, for approval of the transfer of certain facilities by Newport Electric Corporation, one of applicant's subsidiaries, to applicant; the Commission being advised that the Federal Power Commission has denied said application and has on January 21, 1938 denied an application for a re-hearing thereon; the said Citizens Utilities Company having filed a petition for review of said determination of the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to Section 313 (b) of the Federal Power Act, and the Commission thereupon having reconsidered the record in this case;

It is ordered, That said order of the Commission, dated October 6, 1936, as heretofore amended, be and it hereby is further amended to provide that the exemption therein granted shall continue until sixty days after the expiration, or final adjudication, of any rights of said Citizens Utilities Company, pursuant to said Section 313 (b) of the Federal Power Act, to seek to modify or set aside, in whole or in part, said order of the Federal Power Commission, upon condition that said Citizens Utilities Company shall continue to comply with the conditions contained in the Commission's order of October 6, 1936.

It is further ordered, That the exemption herein granted shall be subject to revocation, after notice and opportunity for hearing, in the event that said Citizens Utilities Company shall not diligently proceed to obtain a final adjudication of its rights with respect to said application to the Federal Power Commission, or shall fail to comply with the terms of the original order.

By the Commission.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

MODIFICATION OF RULING DATED MARCH 30, 1938, RELATING TO THIRTY DAY CONTRACT LIMITATION, IN SO FAR AS THE SAME RELATES TO GOVERNMENTAL AGENCIES

The Commission declares that until minimum prices of coals of code members have been reestablished by the National Bituminous Coal Commission, pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of Part II, Section 4 of the Act, no code member shall sell or enter into any agreement to sell coal calling for delivery thereof for a period beyond thirty (30) days from the date of such sale or agreement of sale, provided however, that it will not be deemed a violation of the code:

(1) To enter into a contract for the sale of coal with agencies of the Federal Government containing a provision permitting the Federal Government to renew the contract after the effective date of minimum prices, either for the remainder of the fiscal year or for such part thereof as the Government may desire, but such contract must provide that no coal will be delivered thereunder below the minimum prices, when the same are established by the Commission, or;

(2) To enter into a contract for the sale of coal for periods not exceeding one year in any case where a State or political subdivision thereof or any other governmental agency is required by state statute or local ordinance to purchase coal for periods in excess of thirty (30) days, but such contract must provide for a reasonable price to continue until minimum prices are made effective by the Commission and that thereafter no coal will be delivered thereunder below the minimum prices.

The Ruling dated March 30, 1938, is, in all other respects, unchanged, and this modification is made for the purpose of relieving any undue interference with governmental functions.

The Secretary of the Commission shall, forthwith, mail copies of this Ruling to the Consumers' Counsel, the Secretaries of the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards, and to code members, and shall cause copies of this Ruling to be made available for inspection by all interested parties at the Secretary's office of the Commission and at all statistical bureaus of the Commission.

By the Commission.

Dated this 6th day of April, 1938.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

1936 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—NORTH CENTRAL REGION BULLETIN NO. 2-D

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, in order to clarify its provisions, the second paragraph of North Central Region Bulletin No. 2, Revised, as Amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"To be eligible for soil-building payments the soil-building practices listed herein must be carried out by such methods and with such kinds and quantities of seeds, trees, and other materials as conform to good farming practice. A soil-building payment for any practice hereinafter set forth will not be made with respect to any acreage on the farm for which all or any portion of the labor, seed, or materials used for such practice is furnished free or paid for by any State or Federal agency, except that in the case of the soil-building practices designated in sections (f) and (j) hereof, payment will be made at the stipulated rates on an acreage which bears the same proportion to the total acreage with respect to such practice as the quantity of material used or the value of the labor and materials furnished by the owner, operator, or sharecropper bears to the total quantity of materials or the total value of the labor and materials used in carrying out such practice."

The provisions of this NCR–B–2–D shall be effective as of October 19, 1936, so as to be included within the conditions mentioned in the "Order with respect to payments under the 1936 Agricultural Conservation Program—North Central Region", issued October 7, 1936, as amended.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of April, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

JAPANESE BEETLE QUARANTINE No. 48

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

[Effective April 11, 1938]

Introductory Note

An important change in the following revision of the regulations of the Japanese beetle quarantine is the inclusion in the regulated areas for the first time of part of Schuyler County, N. Y., parts of the Ohio counties of Coshocton, Portage, and Summit, and parts of the West Virginia counties of Berkeley and Jefferson. This action is considered necessary because of the establishment of the Japanese beetle therein. Areas were also added to counties, parts of which were formerly under regulation, in the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, and Virginia. Lancaster County, Pa. has been added to the special area (regulation 5, sec. A (1) (ii)) from which the movement of fruits and vegetables by motortruck or refrigerator car is regulated. Wheeling, W. Va. and Coshocton, Ohio, are brought under regulation and placed in the same category as Buffalo, Cleveland, and other outlying cities in that a certificate or permit is required in the movement of fruits and vegetables to these cities but no restrictions are placed on the interstate movement therefrom.

Of interest to nurserymen is the elimination of restrictions on the movement of aquatics except during the period from June 15 to October 15, inclusive.

The restrictions on the movement of sand are modified to exempt from certification silica sand, greensand, marl, "bird sand," "bird gravel," and pottery clay, when free from vegetable matter, and when labeled as to contents on the outside of each container.

Some outlying areas where Japanese beetle infestations have been found the past field season are not included in the regulated area because of assurance from the States concerned that adequate measures will be taken to prevent the spread of the pest therefrom.

Summary

Unless a certificate or permit has been issued, these regulations as now revised prohibit the interstate shipment of green corn on the cob, beans in the pod, bananas in entire bunches or in clusters of 25 or more, apples, peaches, blackberries, blueberries, huckleberries, or raspberries from the regulated areas, to or through points outside; and also prohibit (unless a certificate of permit has been issued) the interstate movement of all fruits and vegetables by refrigerator car or motortruck from the District of Columbia, the State of Delaware, and parts of the States of Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, to or through points outside the regulated areas as defined in regulation 3. Refrigerator cars used for loading fruits and vegetables, other than onions and potatoes, in such area must, prior to loading, be cleaned by the common carrier and kept tightly closed and sealed during the interval between cleaning and loading. Onions and potatoes must be fumigated in the car when such action is deemed necessary by the inspector, and doors and hatches of the cars must be closed or screened. For other details and exceptions see regulation 5.

The regulations also prohibit the interstate shipment of plants, sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure from any part of the regulated areas to or through any outside point throughout the year unless a Federal permit or certificate has been secured. Portions of plants and cut flowers are restricted interstate movement only between June 15 and October 15, inclusive. For details and exceptions see regulations 6 and 7.

The regulated areas include the District of Columbia, the entire States of Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and Rhode Island, and parts of the States of Maine, Maryland, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Virginia, and West Virginia. The boundaries are shown in regulation 3.

These regulations also place certain restrictions to protect restricted articles from infestation while in transit, require thorough cleaning of vehicles and containers which have been used in transporting restricted products, and provide other safeguards and conditions as specified in regulations 8 to 13, inclusive.

To secure permits and certificates, address the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, 266 Glenwood Avenue, Bloomfield, N. J., or the nearest branch office listed in the appendix.

AVERY S. HOYT,
Acting Chief, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

NOTICE OF QUARANTINE No. 48 (TWELFTH REVISION)

[Approved March 1, 1937; effective March 1, 1937]

I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, have determined that it is necessary to quarantine the States of Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia, and West Virginia, and the District of Columbia, to prevent the spread of the Japanese beetle (Popillia japonica Newm.), a dangerous insect new to and not heretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States.

Now, therefore, under authority conferred by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912 (37 Stat. 315), as amended by the act of Congress approved March 4, 1917 (39 Stat. 1134, 1165), and having duly given the public hearing required thereby, I do quarantine the said States of Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia, and West Virginia, and the District of Columbia, effective on and after March 1, 1937. Hereafter, under the authority of said act of August 20, 1912, amended as aforesaid (1) fruits and vegetables; (2) nursery, ornamental, and greenhouse stock, and other plants; and (3) sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure shall not be shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved or allowed to be moved from any of said quarantined States or District into or through any other State or Territory or District of the United States in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed in the rules and regulations hereinafter made and amendments thereto: Provided, That the restrictions of this quarantine and of the rules and regulations supplemental thereto may be limited to the areas in a quarantined State now, or which may hereafter be, designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as regulated areas when in the judgment of the Secretary of Agriculture, the enforcement of the aforesaid rules and regulations as to such regulated areas shall be adequate to prevent the spread of the Japanese beetle: Provided further, That such limitations shall be conditioned upon the said State providing for and enforcing such control measures with respect to such regulated areas as, in the judgment of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall be deemed adequate to prevent the spread of the Japanese beetle therefrom to other parts of the State: And provided further, That certain articles classed as restricted herein may, because of the nature of their growth or production or their manufactured or processed condition, be exempted by administrative instructions issued by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine when, in his judgment, such articles are considered innocuous as carriers of infestation.

Done at the city of Washington this 1st day of March 1937.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

RULES AND REGULATIONS (SIXTEENTH REVISION) SUPPLEMENTAL TO NOTICE OF QUARANTINE No. 48

[Approved April 6, 1938; effective Apr. 11, 1938]

REGULATION 1. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these regulations the following words, names, and terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

(a) Japanese beetle.—The insect known as the Japanese beetle (Popillia japonica Newm.), in any stage of development.

(b) The terms "infested", "infestation", and the like, relate to infestation with the Japanese beetle.

(c) Quarantined area.—Any State or District quarantined by the Secretary of Agriculture to prevent the spread of the Japanese beetle.

(d) Regulated area.—Any area in a quarantined State or District which is now, or which may hereafter be, designated as such by the Secretary of Agriculture in accordance with the provisos to Notice of Quarantine No. 48, as revised.

(e) Fruits and vegetables.—For the list of restricted fruits and vegetables see regulation 5.

(f) Nursery and ornamental stock.—Nursery, ornamental, and greenhouse stock, and all other plants, plant roots, cut flowers, or other portions of plants.

(g) Sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure.—Sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, or manure of any kind and as to either bulk movement or in connection with farm products or nursery and ornamental stock.

(h) Certified sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure.—Sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, or manure determined by the inspector as uninfested and so certified.

(i) Certified greenhouse.—A greenhouse or similar establishment which has complied to the satisfaction of the inspector with the conditions imposed in regulation 6. This term may apply also to potting beds, heeling-in areas, hotbeds, coldframes, or similar plots or to storage houses, packing sheds, or stores treated or otherwise safeguarded in manner and method satisfactory to the inspector.

(j) Inspector.—An inspector of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(k) Moved or allowed to be moved interstate.—Shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved from one State or Territory or District of the United States into or through any other State or Territory or District.

REGULATION 2. LIMITATION OF RESTRICTIONS TO REGULATED AREAS

Conditioned upon the compliance on the part of the State concerned with the provisos to Notice of Quarantine No. 48 (twelfth revision), the restrictions provided in these regulations on the interstate movement of plants and plant products and other articles enumerated in said notice of quarantine will be limited to such movement from the areas in such State now or hereafter designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as regulated areas.

REGULATION 3. REGULATED AREAS

In accordance with the provisos to Notice of Quarantine No. 48 (twelfth revision), the Secretary of Agriculture designates as regulated areas for the purpose of these regulations the States, District, counties, townships, towns, cities, election districts, and magisterial districts listed below, including all cities, towns, boroughs, or other political subdivisions within their limits:

Connecticut.—The entire State.

Delaware.—The entire State.

REGULATION 4. EXTENSION OR REDUCTION OF REGULATED AREAS

The regulated areas designated in regulation 3 may be extended or reduced as may be found advisable by the Secretary of Agriculture. Due notice of any extension or reduction and the areas affected thereby will be given in writing to the transportation companies doing business in or through the States in which such areas are located and by publication in one or more newspapers selected by the Secretary of Agriculture within the States in which the areas affected are located.

REGULATION 5. RESTRICTIONS ON THE MOVEMENT OF FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Section A. Control of Movement

(1) Unless a certificate or permit shall have been issued therefor, by an inspector, except as provided in paragraphs (a) to (e), inclusive, of this section: (i) No green corn on the cob, beans in the pod, bananas in entire bunches or in clusters of 25 or more, apples, peaches, blackberries, blueberries, huckleberries, or raspberries shall be moved or allowed to be moved interstate from any regulated area to or through any point outside thereof; and (ii) no fruits and vegetables of any kind shall be moved or allowed to be moved interstate via refrigerator car or motortruck from the State, District, counties, election districts, or city listed below to or through any point outside of the regulated areas:

Delaware.—The entire State.

District of Columbia.—The entire District.

Maryland.—Counties of Cecil, Kent, Queen Annes, Somerset, and Worcester; the city of Baltimore; all of Caroline County except election districts of Hillsboro (No. 6), American Corners (No. 8), and Preston (No. 4); election district of Cambridge (No. 7), in Dorchester County; and election districts of Pittsburg (No. 4), Parsons (No. 5), Dennis (No. 6), Trappe (No. 7), Nutters (No. 8), Salisbury (No. 9), Delmar (No. 11), Camden (No. 13), Willards (No. 14), and Fruitland (No. 16), in Wicomico County.

New Jersey.—Counties of Atlantic, Burlington, Camden, Cape May, Cumberland, Gloucester, Hunterdon, Mercer, Middlesex, Monmouth, Ocean, Salem, Somerset, and Union.

Pennsylvania.—Counties of Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Lancaster, Montgomery, and Philadelphia.

Virginia.—Counties of Accomac, Arlington, and Northampton.

Provided, That the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine may by administrative instructions extend or reduce the areas specified in this regulation when in his judgment such action is considered advisable.

(a) No restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of fruits and vegetables between October 16 and June 14, inclusive.

(b) No certificate will be required for the interstate movement of fruits and vegetables on a through bill of lading either from an area not under regulation through a regulated area to another nonregulated area, or from a regulated area through a nonregulated area to another regulated area, except that a certificate is required for interstate movement to Brewer and Waterville, Maine; Buffalo, N. Y., or to the other regulated parts of Erie County, N. Y.; Cleveland, Columbus, Coshocton, and Toledo, Ohio; Burlington, Vt.; and Parkersburg and Wheeling, W. Va. No restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of fruits and vegetables from Brewer and Waterville, Maine; Buffalo, N. Y., or from other parts of Erie County, N. Y.; Cleveland, Columbus, Coshocton, and Toledo, Ohio; Burlington, Vt.; and Parkersburg and Wheeling, W. Va.

(c) No restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of fruits and vegetables when they shall have been manufactured or processed in such a manner that in the judgment of the inspector no infestation could be transmitted.

(d) No restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of any shipments of apples or peaches of less than 15 pounds to the shipment or of bananas other than in entire bunches or in clusters of 25 or more.

(e) No restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of commercially packed apples in any quantity, except those moving via refrigerator cars or motor vehicles from the State, District, counties, election districts, or city listed in paragraph (1) (ii) of this section.

(2) No restrictions are placed on the interstate shipment from the regulated areas of fruits and vegetables other than those mentioned above, except that any such interstate shipments of fruits and vegetables may be inspected at any time or place inside or outside the regulated areas and when actually found to involve danger of dissemination of Japanese beetle to uninfested localities, measures to eliminate infestation may be required as a condition of further transportation or delivery.

Section B. Conditions of Certification

Certificates may be issued for the interstate movement of fruits and vegetables to points outside the regulated areas between June 15 and October 15, inclusive, under one of the following conditions:

(1) When the fruits and vegetables, moving from a point in the regulated area other than the State, District, counties, election districts, or city listed in paragraph 1, (ii), of this regulation, or moving from such designated State, District, counties, election districts, or city other than by refrigerator car, have actually been inspected by the United States Department of Agriculture and found free from infestation. The number of inspection points for such certification will be limited and their location determined by shipping needs and further conditioned on the establishment at such points of provisions satisfactory to the inspector for the handling and safeguarding of such shipments during inspection. Such inspection may be discontinued and certification withheld by the inspector during periods of general or unusual flight of the beetles.

(2) When the fruits and vegetables have been handled or treated under the supervision of an inspector in manner and by method to free them from any infestation.

(3) When the fruits and vegetables have originated outside of the regulated areas and are to be reshipped directly from freight yards, transfer points, or unloading docks within such areas, under provisions satisfactory to the inspector for the safeguarding of such shipments pending certification and reshipment. Certificates on this basis will be issued without inspection only in cases where, in the judgment of the inspector, the shipments concerned have not been exposed to infestation while within such freight yards, transfer points, or unloading docks.

(4) When the fruits and vegetables were grown in districts where the fact has been established to the satisfaction of the inspector that no infestation exists and are to be shipped directly from the farms where grown to points outside the regulated areas, or are shipped from infested districts where the fact has been established to the satisfaction of the inspector that the Japanese beetle has not begun or has ceased its flight.

(5) When the fruits and vegetables other than onions and potatoes, moving via refrigerator car from the State, District, counties, election districts, or city listed in paragraph 1, (ii), of this regulation, have been inspected and loaded in a manner to prevent infestation, in a refrigerator car with closed or adequately screened doors and hatches, which car prior to loading has been determined by an inspector as thoroughly swept and cleaned by the common carrier in a manner to rid it of infestation. During the interval between cleaning and loading such refrigerator car must be tightly closed and sealed.

(6) When the onions or potatoes moving via refrigerator car from the State, District, counties, election districts, or city listed in this regulation have been fumigated in the car, when deemed necessary in the judgment of the inspector and when the doors and hatches of the car have been tightly closed or adequately screened under the supervision of an inspector.

REGULATION 6. RESTRICTIONS ON THE MOVEMENT OF NURSERY AND ORNAMENTAL STOCK

Section A. Control of Movement

Nursery and ornamental stock as defined in regulation 1, shall not be moved or allowed to be moved interstate from the regulated areas to or through any point outside thereof, unless a certificate or permit shall have been issued therefor by the inspector except as follows:

(1) True bulbs, corms, and tubers, when dormant, except for storage growth, and when free from soil, are exempt from the requirement of certification, except that this exemption does not apply to dahlia tubers.

(2) No restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of nursery and ornamental stock imported from foreign countries when reshipped from the port of entry in the unopened original container and labeled as to each container with a copy certificate of the country from which it was exported, a statement of the general nature and quantity of the contents, the name and address of the consignee, and the country and locality where grown.

(3) No restrictions are placed on the interstate movement between October 16 and June 14, inclusive, of cut flowers, aquatic plants, and of portions of plants without roots and free from soil (such as branches and twigs of trees and shrubs, scions, Christmas trees, holly, laurel, and sphagnum moss).

(4) No certificate or permit will be required for the interstate movement of nursery and ornamental stock when transported by a common carrier on a through bill of lading either from an area not under regulation through a regulated area, or from a regulated area through a nonregulated area to another regulated area.

Section B. Conditions Governing the Issuance of Certificates and Permits

For the purpose of certification of nursery and ornamental stock, nurseries, greenhouses, and other premises concerned in the movement of such stock will be classified as follows:

(1) Class I.—Nurseries, greenhouses, and other premises concerned in the movement of nursery and ornamental stock on or within approximately 500 feet of which no infestation has been found may be classified as class I. Upon compliance with the requirements of subsection (6) of this section, nursery and ornamental stock may be certified by the inspector for shipment from such premises without further inspection, and without meeting the safeguards prescribed as a condition of interstate shipment of plants originating in nurseries or greenhouses of class III.

(2) Class III.—

(a) Nurseries, greenhouses, and other premises concerned in the movement of nursery and ornamental stock on which either grubs in the soil or one or more beetles have been found, will be classified as class III. Such classification also may be given to nurseries, etc., in localities known to be generally infested where one or more beetles or grubs are found in the immediate proximity (within approximately 500 feet) of such nurseries, etc., on adjacent property or properties. In the case of nursery properties, under single ownership and management, but represented by parcels of land widely separated, such parcels may be independently classified either as class I or class III upon compliance with such conditions and safeguards as shall be required by the inspector. Similarly, unit nursery properties, which would otherwise fall in class III, may be open to subdivision, for the purpose of rating such subdivisions in classes I or III, when in the judgment of the inspector such action is warranted by recent and scanty infestation limited to a portion of the nursery concerned: Provided, That the subdivision containing the infestation shall be clearly marked by boundaries of a permanent nature which shall be approximately 500 feet beyond the point where the infestation occurs.

(b) Upon compliance with subsections (3) and (6) of this section, nursery and ornamental stock may be certified by the inspector for shipment from such premises under any one of the following conditions: (i) That the roots shall be treated by means approved by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine in manner and by method satisfactory to the inspector; or (ii) in the case of plants in which the root system is such that a thorough inspection may be made, that the soil shall be entirely removed from the stock by shaking or washing; or (iii) that it shall be shown by evidence satisfactory to the inspector that the plants concerned were produced in a certified greenhouse.

(3) Greenhouses of class III may be certified upon compliance with all the following conditions with respect to the greenhouses themselves and to all potting beds, heeling-in areas, hotbeds, coldframes, and similar plots:

(a) Ventilators, doors, and all other openings in greenhouses or coldframes on premises in class III shall be kept screened in manner satisfactory to the inspector during the period of flight of the beetle, namely, south of the northern boundaries of Maryland and Delaware between June 1 and October 1, inclusive, or north thereof between June 15 and October 15, inclusive.

(b) Prior to introduction into nurseries or greenhouses, sand, if contaminated with vegetable matter, soil, earth, peat, compost, or manure taken from infested locations or which may have been exposed to infestation, must be sterilized or fumigated under the direction and supervision of, and in manner and by method satisfactory to the inspector. If such sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, or manure is not to be immediately used in such greenhouses, it must be protected from possible infestation in manner and by method satisfactory to the inspector.

(c) All potted plants placed in certified greenhouses of class III and all potted plants to be certified for interstate movement therefrom (i) shall be potted in certified soil; (ii) shall, if grown outdoors south of the northern boundaries of Maryland and Delaware at any time between June 1 and October 1, inclusive, or north thereof at any time between June 15 and October 15, inclusive, be kept in screened frames while outdoors; (iii) shall, if grown outdoors during any part of the year, be placed in beds in which the soil or other material shall have been treated in manner and by method approved by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine to eliminate infestation; and (iv) shall comply with such other safeguards as may be required by the inspector.

(4) Cut flowers and other parts of plants without roots or soil may be certified for movement either (a) when they have been inspected by an inspector and found free from infestation, or (b) when they have been grown in a greenhouse of class I or in a certified greenhouse of class III and are transported under such safeguards as will in the judgment of the inspector prevent infestation. (See also sec. A (3) of this regulation.)

(5) Nursery and ornamental stock originating on or moved from unclassified premises may be certified by the inspector under either one of the following conditions: (a) That the soil shall be entirely removed from the stock, or (b) that the roots shall be treated by means approved by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine in manner and by method satisfactory to the inspector, or (c) that it shall be shown by evidence satisfactory to the inspector that the accompanying soil was obtained at such points and under such conditions that in his judgment no infestation could exist therein.

(6) Nurserymen, florists, dealers, and others, in order to maintain their classified status, (a) shall restrict their purchases or receipts of nursery and ornamental stock, sand, if contaminated with vegetable matter, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure within the regulated area to articles which have been certified under these regulations as to each such article and the said certificate shall accompany the articles when moved; (b) shall obtain approval of the inspector before such articles are received on their premises or moved from the open on their own premises into certified greenhouses; and (c) shall also report immediately in writing all purchases or receipts of such articles secured from within the regulated area. Nurserymen, florists, dealers, and others whose premises are classified as class III shall, in addition, report immediately on forms provided for that purpose all their sales or shipments of such articles both to points outside the regulated areas and to other classified nurseries or greenhouses within the regulated areas. Certification may be denied to any person who has omitted to make the report or reports required by this regulation, and such denial of certification shall continue until the information so omitted has been supplied.

(7) Nursery and ornamental stock imported from foreign countries and not reshipped from the port of entry in the unopened original container may be certified for movement under these regulations when such stock has been inspected by an inspector and found free from infestation.

(8) Nursery and ornamental stock originating outside the regulated areas and certified stock originating in classified nurseries or greenhouses may be certified for reshipment from premises other than those on which they originated, under provisions satisfactory to the inspector for the safeguarding of such stock from infestation at the point of reshipment and en route, and when found advisable by the inspector, after reinspection and determination of freedom from infestation.

REGULATION 7. RESTRICTIONS ON THE MOVEMENT OF SAND, SOIL, EARTH, PEAT, COMPOST, AND MANURE

Section A. Control of Movement

Sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure shall not be moved or allowed to be moved interstate from any point in the regulated areas to or through any point outside thereof unless a certificate or permit shall have been issued therefor by the inspector, except as follows:

(1) No restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of (a) sand for construction purposes, silica sand, greensand, marl, "bird sand," "bird gravel," and pottery clay, when free from vegetable matter; (b) such other sands as have been treated or processed and subsequently handled in such manner that in the judgment of the inspector no Japanese beetle could exist therein, provided that each container of such article shall be labeled on the outside thereof as to nature of contents, except that in case of bulk shipments such label shall accompany the waybill or other shipping papers; and (c) ground, dried, imported peat in packages of 5 pounds or less to the package.

(2) No restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure imported from foreign countries when reshipped from the port of entry in the unopened original container and labeled as to each container with the country of origin, and when the shipment is further protected in manner or method satisfactory to the inspector.

(3) No certificate will be required for the interstate movement of sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure when transported by a common carrier on a through bill of lading either from an area not under regulation through a regulated area, or from a regulated area through a nonregulated area to another regulated area.

Section B. Conditions of Certification

Certificates for the movement of restricted sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure may be issued under any one of the following conditions:

(1) When the articles to be moved have originated in districts included in the regulated area, but in which neither beetles nor grubs in soil have been found.

(2) When the material consists of fresh manure or of mined, dredged, or other similar materials, and it has been determined by an inspector that no infestation could exist therein.

(3) When the material has been removed, under the supervision of an inspector, from a depth of more than 12 inches below the surface of the ground and either (a) is to be moved between October 16 and June 14, inclusive, or (b) is loaded and shipped at points where it has been determined by an inspector that no general infestation of adult beetles exists, or (c) when the cars and loading operations are protected by screening under the direction of and in manner and by method satisfactory to the inspector.

(4) When the material has been fumigated with carbon disulphide or otherwise treated under the supervision of and in manner and by method satisfactory to the inspector. Such fumigation or treatment will be required as a condition of certification of all restricted sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure, except such as is loaded and shipped in compliance with paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) hereof.

REGULATION 8. CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE PROTECTION OF RESTRICTED ARTICLES FROM INFESTATION WHILE IN TRANSIT

Fruits and vegetables, nursery and ornamental stock, and sand, soil, earth, peat, compost, and manure, moving interstate from or through the regulated areas to points outside thereof between June 15 and October 15, inclusive, shall at all times while they are in the regulated areas be screened, covered, or otherwise protected in manner or method satisfactory to the inspector for safeguarding the articles from infestation.

Trucks or other road vehicles transporting restricted articles may be sealed by the inspector at the point of inspection, and all such seals shall remain intact as long as the vehicle is en route within the regulated area.

REGULATION 9. MARKING AND CERTIFICATION A CONDITION OF INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION

(a) Every car, vehicle, box, basket, or other container of the articles listed, the interstate movement of which is restricted in regulations 5, 6, and 7, shall be plainly marked with the name and address of the consignor and the name and address of the consignee, and shall have securely attached to the outside thereof a valid certificate or permit issued in compliance with these regulations. In the case of lot shipments by freight, one certificate attached to one of the containers and another certificate attached to the waybill will be sufficient.

(b) In the case of bulk carload shipments by rail, the certificate shall accompany the waybill, conductor's manifest, memorandum, or bill of lading pertaining to such shipment, and in addition each car shall have securely attached to the outside thereof a placard showing the number of the certificate or certificates accompanying the waybill.

(c) In the case of shipment by road vehicle, the certificates shall accompany the vehicle.

(d) Certificates shall be surrendered to the consignee upon delivery of the shipment.

REGULATION 10. GENERAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING INSPECTION AND ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES AND PERMITS

(a) Persons intending to move or allow to be moved interstate any of the articles the movement of which is restricted in regulations 5, 6, and 7, shall make application for inspection and certification as far as possible in advance of the probable date of shipment, specifying in the application the article and quantity to be shipped, method of shipment, name and address of the consignor, and name and address of the consignee.

(b) Applicants for inspection will be required to assemble the articles at such points as the inspector shall designate and so to place them that inspection may readily be made; if not so placed, inspection may be refused. All charges for storage, cartage, and labor incident to inspection, other than the services of the inspector, shall be paid by the shipper.

(c) Certificates and permits shall be used in connection with the transportation of only those articles intended to be covered thereby.

(d) Where the apparent absolute freedom from infestation of any of the articles enumerated cannot be determined by the inspector, certification will be refused.

(e) Permits may be issued for the interstate movement of restricted articles by truck or other road vehicle from a regulated area through a nonregulated area to another regulated area except that permits issued for the movement of fruits and vegetables from the State, District, counties, election districts, or city listed in regulation 5, section A, (1) (ii), shall be limited to green corn on the cob, beans in the pod, bananas in entire bunches or in clusters of 25 or more, apples, peaches, blackberries, blueberries, huckleberries, or raspberries. Fruits and vegetables other than the above-named commodities may be moved from the State, District, counties, election districts, or city listed in regulation 5, section A, (1) (ii), only under certification.

REGULATION 11. CANCELATION OF CERTIFICATES

Certificates issued under these regulations may be withdrawn or canceled by the inspector and further certification refused, either for any failure of compliance with the conditions of these regulations or violation of them, or whenever in the judgment of the inspector the further use of such certificates might result in the dissemination of infestation.

REGULATION 12. INSPECTION IN TRANSIT

Any car, vehicle, basket, box, or other container moved interstate or offered to a common carrier for shipment interstate, which contains or which the inspector has probable cause to believe contains either infested articles or articles the movement of which is prohibited or restricted by these regulations, shall be subject to inspection by an inspector at any time or place.

REGULATION 13. THOROUGH CLEANING REQUIRED OF TRUCKS WAGONS, CARS, BOATS, AND OTHER VEHICLES AND CONTAINERS BEFORE MOVING INTERSTATE Trucks, wagons, cars, boats, and other vehicles and containers which have been used in transporting any article covered by these regulations within the regulated areas shall not thereafter be moved or allowed to be moved interstate until they have been thoroughly swept and cleaned by the carrier at the point of unloading or destination.

REGULATION 14. SHIPMENTS BY THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Articles subject to restriction in these regulations may be moved interstate by the United States Department of Agriculture for experimental or scientific purposes, on such conditions and under such safeguards as may be prescribed by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. The container of articles so moved shall bear, securely attached to the outside thereof, an identifying tag from the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine showing compliance with such conditions.

These revised rules and regulations shall be effective on and after April 11, 1938, and shall supersede the rules and regulations promulgated March 1, 1937, as amended effective May 10, 1937.

Done at the city of Washington this 6th day of April 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

APPENDIX

PENALTIES

The Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912 (37 Stat. 315), as amended, provides that no person shall ship or offer for shipment to any common carrier, nor shall any common carrier receive for transportation or transport, nor shall any person carry or transport from any quarantined State or Territory or District of the United States, or from any quarantined portion thereof, into or through any other State or Territory or District, any class of nursery stock or any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds * * * or any other article * * * specified in the notice of quarantine * * * in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. It also provides that any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, or who shall forge, counterfeit, alter, deface, or destroy any certificate provided for in this act or in the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment not exceeding 1 year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

[General Order No. 261]

ADMISSION UNDER IMMIGRATION LAWS OF ALIENS PARTICIPATING IN GOLDEN GATE INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION AND NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR, 1939

APRIL 6, 1938.

Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 3 of the Act of April 29, 1902 (32 Stat. 177), Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (Act of February 5, 1917, 39 Stat. 892; 8 U. S. C. 102), as amended, and Section 24 of the Immigration Act of 1924 (Act of May 26, 1924, 43 Stat. 166; 8 U. S. C. 222), the following regulations are prescribed for the temporary admission of aliens to the United States for the purpose of participating as employees of an alien exhibitor or concessionaire or holder of any privilege at the Golden Gate International Exposition to be held during 1939 at San Francisco, California (Joint Resolution, July 9, 1937; 50 Stat. 488), and the New York World's Fair to be held during 1939 at New York, N. Y. (Joint Resolution, July 9, 1937; 50 Stat. 493), as authorized by the provisions of Section 3 of the Act of April 29, 1902 (32 Stat. 177), and the 8th proviso to Section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 878; 8 U. S. C. 136 (h)):

SECTION 1. Requirements for admission.—The following requirements must be complied with:

PAR. a. Nonimmigrant visa.—Every such alien shall be required to present a document bearing the visa of a United States Consular Officer showing that the bearer is a nonimmigrant under Section 3 (2) of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended: Provided, however, That such visa will not be required of a nonimmigrant alien who is a citizen of Canada, Newfoundland, St. Pierre, Miquelon, Mexico, Cuba, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, Panama, Bermuda, or of any British, French or Netherland possession in the West Indies, and domiciled therein, or who is a British subject domiciled in Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda, or any British possession in the West Indies, or who is a French citizen domiciled in St. Pierre or Miquelon or any French possession in the West Indies, or who is a Netherland subject domiciled in any Netherland possession in the West Indies. (Ex. Order 6986, May 5, 1935.)

PAR. b. Bond.—Every such employee shall furnish a satisfactory bond in the sum of $500, or one shall be furnished in his behalf, prepared upon a form furnished for that purpose by the Department, containing conditions for his departure from the United States, without expense to the United States, upon failure (or refusal) to maintain the status under which temporarily admitted, and, if such status is maintained, within thirty days after the termination of the employment for which temporarily admitted. In lieu of such bond the written engagement of the Government of which the employee is a subject or citizen, made directly or through such Government's exposition commissioners, that the undertakings mentioned in the bond will be observed, will be accepted. In such cases, every absence of an employee from the exposition grounds in excess of one week should be reported by the foreign exposition commissioners of the Golden Gate International Exposition to the District Director of Immigration and Naturalization at San Francisco, California and by the foreign exposition commissioners of the New York World's Fair to the District Director of Immigration and Naturalization at Ellis Island, New York. (Sec. 15, 43 Stat. 162; 8 U. S. C. 215.)

PAR. c. Port of departure.—Every such employee shall depart from the United States at the port through which he entered, unless permission to depart from some other port is granted by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. Before departure, the alien shall present himself to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure for identification and shall surrender the certificate required in the next paragraph hereof. (Sec. 15, 43 Stat. 162; 8 U. S. C. 215.)

PAR. d. Record and certificate of admission.—A record in the following form shall be prepared in triplicate at the port of admission for each alien admitted in accordance with these regulations, the original to be delivered to the alien named therein, the duplicate to be forwarded to the District Director of Immigration and Naturalization, at San Francisco, California in reference to aliens destined to the Golden Gate International Exposition and to the District Director, Ellis Island, New York in reference to aliens destined to the New York World's Fair, and the triplicate retained on file at the port of entry for purposes of comparison and identification.

PAR. e. Forfeiture of bond and deportation.—Any alien holding the certificate described above who shall fail to leave the United States, as required by these regulations, or any amendment thereof, within the time limit prescribed, unless specifically permitted by the Department to remain for a longer period, shall be deemed to be unlawfully within the United States, and shall be arrested on warrant and the bond given in his behalf shall be forfeited. (Sec. 14, 43 Stat. 162; 8 U. S. C. 214.) (Sec. 15, 43 Stat. 162; 8 U. S. C. 215.)

PAR. f. Commissioners' weekly reports.—The foreign exhibition commissioner of the Golden Gate International Exposition shall furnish weekly to the District Director of Immigration and Naturalization, San Francisco, California and the foreign exhibition commissioners of the New York World's Fair shall furnish weekly to the District Director of Immigration and Naturalization, Ellis Island, N. Y., a report certifying that the employees brought into the United States under and in pursuance of these regulations have remained in continuous employment at the exposition or fair grounds, or, if employees are absent, shall give the names of the absentees, the period of their absence, the reason therefor, and their addresses. (Sec. 15, 43 Stat. 162; 8 U. S. C. 215.)

PAR. g. Advance report of departure.—With a view to facilitating the prompt cancelation of bonds and the termination of the responsibility of foreign governments, where assumed in lieu of furnishing bonds, the exhibitors, concession or privilege holders, etc., of the Golden Gate International Exposition shall furnish to the District Director of Immigration and Naturalization, San Francisco, California and the exhibitors, concession or privilege holders, etc., of the New York World's Fair shall furnish to the District Director of Immigration and Naturalization at Ellis Island, N. Y., ten days in advance of contemplated departure of employees, the name of the port through which such employees are to depart, and the name of the vessel upon which sailing is to occur, if departure is to be by vessel, and the employees shall further be required to present themselves to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure, at least one day in advance of departure. (Sec. 15, 43 Stat. 162; 8 U. S. C. 215.)

PAR. h. Report of maintenance of status.—As frequently as may be deemed necessary, immigration officers detailed for that purpose by the District Director of Immigration and Naturalization, at San Francisco, California, and Ellis Island, N. Y., in reference to the exposition or fair within their district, shall ascertain by personal observation whether or not all employees admitted under the bond provided herein are still employed at the exposition grounds: Provided, however, That the report of such foreign exposition commissioners, furnished weekly to the District Director of Immigration and Naturalization, at San Francisco, California, and Ellis Island, N. Y., certifying to the fact that the bonded employees have remained in continuous employment at the exposition grounds (or, if any of them are temporarily absent, their addresses, the period of absence and the reason therefor) may be accepted. (Sec. 15, 43 Stat. 162; 8 U. S. C. 215.)

PAR. i. Aliens remaining after exposition or fair closes.—Three months after the close of the exposition or fair herein mentioned the immigration officers in charge at ports of entry through which aliens have been admitted pursuant to these regulations shall report to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization the certificate numbers and names of all persons admitted at their ports hereunder and not shown to have departed from the country. (Sec. 15, 43 Stat. 162; 8 U. S. C. 215.)

PAR. j. Facilitation of admission.—The admission of persons who wish to visit or participate in the exposition shall be facilitated in every way possible. So far as practicable examination under the immigration laws and rules shall be made simultaneously with the disposal of cases under these regulations. (Sec. 15, 43 Stat. 162; 8 U. S. C. 215.)

May 24, 1934, to an American citizen parent shall be controlled by Section 1993, United States Revised Statutes previous to its amendment in 1934. If the birth occurred on or after 12 noon E. S. T. May 24, 1934, the provisions of that section as amended on that date (48 Stat. 797; 8 U. S. C. 6) shall apply."

Rule 10, Subdivision 3, Paragraph 1 of such rules, as amended by Chinese General Order No. 17, dated June 27, 1930, is further amended to read as follows:

"PARAGRAPH 1. In every application for entry as the wife or child of a citizen there shall be exacted convincing proof of relationship asserted as the basis for admission, and of the American citizenship of the alleged husband or parent; also convincing proof of when and where the alleged husband or parent first acquired residence in the United States."

Rule 10, Subdivision 4, Paragraph 1 of such rules, as amended by Chinese General Order No. 17, dated June 27, 1930, is further amended to read as follows:

"Paragraph 1. In the class of cases described in this rule the claim of citizenship advanced by the husband or parent who resides within the United States may, at his request, be investigated and determined prior to the arrival of the wife or child; but, in the case of a child, no investigation regarding the claimed relationship shall be made before the child arrives at a port of entry. This procedure is adopted in order to avoid undue delay in the determination of the applications for admission when the alleged wife or child arrives at a port of the United States. Preinvestigation of the citizenship of the husband or parent shall be based upon an affidavit setting forth the purpose for which the advance determination of status is desired. Such affidavit shall be prepared in triplicate and shall contain photograph of the affiant, and of the wife or child whose entry is desired, and shall be submitted for proper investigation to the immigration office nearest the applicant's place of residence. The affidavits of any supporting witnesses relied upon to substantiate or support the claim of citizenship of the alleged husband or parent shall be submitted in like number and shall likewise contain photographs of such witnesses."

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET FILED BY BILLIE SMALLWOOD, RESPONDENT, COVERING PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE CHAMPLIN-MCFALL TRACT

ORDER FOR HEARING AND ORDER DESIGNATING TRIAL EXAMINER

Billie Smallwood, having filed on March 15, 1938, with the Securities and Exchange Commission, an offering sheet for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from registration for the securities described therein under Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended; and

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe, and, therefore, alleging that said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in a material respect, or contains an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of said Regulation B, to wit:

(1) That the information given under Division II, Item 2 (d) concerning the area of the tract in acres is inaccurate in that said tract contains 3.29 acres, whereas it is stated under this item to contain only 3.09 acres;

(2) That the smallest fractional interest offered does not appear to be correctly stated in Division II, Item 1;

(3) That the data set forth under Division II, Items 20 (a), (d) and (e), are inaccurate;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 340 (b) of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that an opportunity for hearing be given to the said respondent for the purpose of determining the material completeness or accuracy of the said offering sheet in the respects in which it is herein alleged to be deficient and/or misleading, and whether the effectiveness of the filing of the said offering sheet shall be suspended; and

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder, an officer of the Commission be, and hereby is, designated as Trial Examiner to preside at such hearing, to continue or adjourn the said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, consider any amendments to said offering sheet as may be filed prior to the conclusion of the hearing, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law; and

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony in this proceeding commence on the 21st day of April, 1938, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., and continue thereafter at such times and places as said Examiner may designate.

Upon completion of testimony in this matter the Examiner is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

NORWAY—RECIPROCAL ENFORCEMENT OF CERTAIN TREATY PROVISIONS

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the first section of the act of Congress approved the eleventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, entitled "An Act to provide for the execution of treaties between the United States and foreign nations respecting consular jurisdiction over the crews of vessels of such foreign nations in the waters and ports of the United States" (13 Stat. L. 121; U. S. C., title 22, sec. 256), provides that "before this act shall take effect as to the ships and vessels of any particular nation having such treaty with the United States, the President of the United States shall have been satisfied that similar provisions have been made for the execution of such treaty by the other contracting party, and shall have issued his proclamation to that effect, declaring this act to be in force as to such nation"; and

WHEREAS the Treaty of Friendship, Commerce, and Consular Rights concluded between the United States and Norway on June 5, 1928, and the additional article thereto, signed on February 25, 1929 (47 Stat. L. [pt. 2] 2135), provides for the jurisdiction of Norwegian consular officers in the waters and ports of the United States over controversies arising out of the internal order of private vessels of Norway and for the enforcement of discipline thereon by such consular officers; and

WHEREAS due inquiry has been made of the Norwegian Government, and an answer has been received containing satisfactory assurances that provisions similar to the provisions of the said act for the execution of said treaty have been made and are in force in Norway;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim that provisions have been made to that effect by Norway and declare the aforesaid act approved June 11, 1864, as amended (U. S. C., title 22, secs. 256–258) to be in force as to Norway.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this 8'' day of April, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-
[SEAL] eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.

APPLICATION OF DUTIES PROCLAIMED IN CONNECTION WITH CERTAIN TRADE AGREEMENTS TO PRODUCTS OF AUSTRIA

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, April 6, 1938.

THE HONORABLE HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: I refer to my letter addressed to you on March 15, 1938, concerning the application of duties proclaimed in connection with trade agreements concluded under the authority of the Act to amend the Tariff Act of 1930, approved June 12, 1934 (48 Stat. 943), as extended by the Joint Resolution approved March 1, 1937 (50 Stat. 24).

You are hereby directed to delete the word "Austria" from numbered section 2 of my letter under reference, such deletion to be effective on and after May 6, 1938. The proclaimed duties shall cease to be applied to products of Austria entered for consumption or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption on and after such date.

The above-mentioned letter of March 15, 1938, is hereby modified accordingly and you will please cause notice of such modification to be published in an early issue of the weekly Treasury Decisions.

Sincerely yours,

[B. E. P. Q. 472—Superseding PQCA–329]

STERILIZATION OF GRAPEFRUIT AND ORANGES BY HEAT UNDER THE MEXICAN FRUITFLY QUARANTINE

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS

[Approved April 5, 1938; effective April 8, 1938]

Introductory Note

Investigations in sterilizing fruit for the Mexican fruitfly have shown that the holding period at 110° F. can be reduced from 8 to 6 hours provided the time for heating the fruit to this temperature is at least 8 hours, making a minimum treating period of 14 hours. In order that shippers may take advantage of this reduction, the administrative instructions issued as circular PQCA–329 on March 3, 1932, are modified and superseded by the following instructions.

Under the authority contained in paragraph (e) of regulation 6 of the Mexican fruitfly quarantine regulations, as revised effective October 15, 1937, and having determined that shipments of unsterilized oranges and grapefruit from infested areas might involve risk of spread of the Mexican fruitfly, notice is hereby given that sterilization is required as a condition of issuance of permits for the interstate movement of oranges and grapefruit produced in areas designated by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine as infested. Such sterilization shall be in accordance with one of the following prescribed treatments:

(1) Heating the fruit to a temperature of 110° F. or above (not to exceed 112°) in the approximate center of the fruit and holding the temperature of 110° or above (not to exceed 112°) for a period of 8 hours;

(2) Heating the fruit for a period of not less than 14 hours during which time the fruit shall be raised to a temperature of 110° F. at the approximate center of the fruit and shall be maintained at or above that temperature for the last 6 hours of such treatment.

No specifications as to the exact methods and equipment for obtaining these conditions are prescribed. Available information clearly indicates that by the application of dry heat the required temperatures cannot be reached without injury to the fruit. To prevent such injury it is necessary to maintain a very high humidity throughout the period of treatment. In the tests where successful performance was obtained, live steam as the source of heat was applied in such a way as to secure as nearly as possible a uniform distribution of steam-heated air so directed as not to discharge directly on the fruit. The air temperature ranged from 110° to 112° F. and the air was very moist. The fruit was held in field boxes stacked four boxes high and without special means of separating the boxes in each stack. The experiments indicate that the fruit should be sterilized after coloring, if this is necessary, and before packing for shipment, and then cooled down to a temperature around 45° F. as soon as possible after sterilizing. Wax or paraffine, either dry or in solution, should not be applied to this fruit either before or after sterilization.

Such treatment is authorized in sterilization plants in the regulated area which are approved by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. The Bureau will approve only those plants which are adequately equipped to handle and sterilize the fruit. Such sterilization will be done under the supervision of inspectors of the Bureau. These inspectors should at all times be given access to fruit while in process of sterilization. They will supervise the movement of the fruit from the car to and from the sterilizing rooms.

While the results of the experiments so far conducted have been successful, it should be emphasized that inexactness and carelessness in operation may result in injury to fruit. In authorizing the movement of fruit sterilized in accordance with the above requirements, it is understood that the Department does not accept responsibility for fruit injury.

[SEAL] AVERY S. HOYT,
Acting Chief, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION.

[FCA 86]

REGULATIONS RELATIVE TO EMERGENCY CROP AND FEED LOANS IN PUERTO RICO MADE PURSUANT TO THE ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED JANUARY 29, 1937, AND THE JOINT RESOLUTION OF CONGRESS APPROVED FEBRUARY 4, 1938

1. Loans for the production of crops, for planting, cultivating, and harvesting of crops, for supplies incident and necessary to such production, planting, cultivating, and harvesting, or for any of such purposes, will be made during the year 1938, by the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration to farmers in Puerto Rico.

2. Such loans may be made to farmers who have acreage fit for cultivation, the necessary equipment for farming operations, and who are unable to obtain a loan from other sources, and, further, such loans will be limited to the amount necessary to meet the immediate and actual cash needs, and preference shall be given to the applications of farmers whose cash requirements are small.

3. Such loans shall be secured by a first lien upon all crops of which the planting, cultivation, production or harvesting is to be financed, in whole or in part, with the proceeds of such loan.

4. Applicants must agree (1) to use seed and methods approved by the Department of Agriculture; and (2) to plant and cultivate a garden for home use.

5. The total amount of loans made to any one borrower during the calendar year 1938 shall not exceed $400. No loan will be made for an amount less than $25. All loans will be made in multiples of $5. Notes will bear interest, from maturity until paid, at the rate of 4 percent per annum; and interest to the maturity date at the same rate will be deducted at the time the loan is made.

6. No such loan will be made:

(a) To any applicant who is a standard rehabilitation client of the Farm Security Administration or who has an application pending which is in process of approval, as indicated on lists furnished by the Farm Security Administration.

(b) To any applicant who can obtain a loan from other sources, including production credit associations, in an amount reasonably adequate to meet his needs for the purposes for which such loans may be made. An applicant for a loan in an amount in excess of a minimum fixed by the Governor, or his representative, for the territory in which the applicant resides, must first submit written evidence from a production credit association that his application for a loan of the same or less amount has been rejected.

(c) To any applicant who has an application for a 1938 crop loan pending with a production credit association.

(d) To any applicant who is a tobacco, coffee, fruit, or vegetable grower, or grower of any other crops, unless he signs a marketing agreement satisfactory to the representative of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office in Puerto Rico, nor to any cane grower unless he signs or agrees to sign a grinding contract with an approved central or mill.

(e) To any applicant who has not undertaken in good faith to meet his obligations in connection with any previous crop, feed, or seed loans as follows: Has willfully misused the proceeds of a loan check for any purpose other than those specified in his application; has failed to plant a crop or has planted crops or lands other than those described in the application; has willfully disposed of crops mortgaged to the Governor, or failed to account satisfactorily therefor without applying the proceeds of the sale or the value thereof as a payment on his loan; has willfully used the crops mortgaged to the Governor for any purpose other than that stated in his application or applications; or has failed to pay all or part of such loan or loans when able to do so.

(f) To any applicant in an amount greater than his immediate cash needs for the production or harvesting of crops and for supplies incident and necessary to such production and harvesting.

(g) To applicants who are occupants of the same farm or plantation, or are tenants of the same landlord (with the exception of tenants on land the title of which is vested directly in the United States or in the Insular Government of Puerto Rico) in an aggregate amount during the calendar year 1938 which (inclusive of all emergency loans theretofore made to them or any of them, during the calendar year 1938, pursuant to the Act of Congress approved January 29, 1937, and the Joint Resolution of Congress approved February 4, 1938), exceeds the sum of $2,000.

(h) To any applicant who has a means of livelihood other than farming.

(i) To partnerships, corporations, minors, guardians, agents, executors, or administrators; or, to receivers or trustees.

(j) To either a husband or a wife, if living together, unless both join in the application, note, and lien instrument(s).

(k) To more than one member of a family unit nor to any person living and/or farming with an applicant whose application for a loan hereunder has been disapproved.

(l) For the purchase of machinery or livestock, or for the payment of taxes, rent, debts, or interest or for any purpose other than as specified herein.

7. Loans may be made, subject to the limitations specified herein, in such amounts and in such installments as the Puerto Rican representative of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section may approve.

8. No loan for the production of crops will be made in an amount greater than the immediate and actual cash needs in the particular case to plant the crop in a manner approved by the Extension Service of the Department of Agriculture.

The immediate and actual cash needs in a particular case must not exceed the actual costs per cuerda in such case as determined by individual consideration of the various factors involved, e. g., whether it is necessary to purchase seed, feed, fertilizer, spraying material and/or fuel for tractors; the cost thereof; and any other incidental expenses currently incurred in that community in connection with the particular crop to be produced. In no event may loans for crop production purposes exceed the following maximum allowances per cuerda:

Maximum Allowances per Cuerda

	(1) Without commercial fertilizer	(2) Where commercial fertilizer is used	(3) Where commercial fertilizer is used upon irrigated land
Long staple cotton	$5.00	$10.00	----------

Miscellaneous crops	5.00	5.00	5.00

[1] A harvesting allowance of $5.00 per cuerda may be made for stalk-cut tobacco, and $15.00 per cuerda for prime tobacco.

[2] When fertilizer is not used, loans shall be limited to $4.00 per thousand estimated yield of cocoanuts and not exceeding 20¢ per tree. When fertilizer is used, loans shall be limited to $10.00 per thousand estimated yield of cocoanuts, not exceeding 50¢ per tree, and not exceeding $20.00 per cuerda in any case.

[3] Not exceeding 30¢ per box estimated crop on tree.

[4] Not exceeding $5.00 per cuerda additional where harvesting advance is made (whether with or without fertilizer).

[5] In addition to the $7.00 allowance provided where fertilizer is not used, $15.00 may be allowed for fertilizer and $5.00 for applying the same.

The use of fertilizer is optional with the borrower, but if an allowance is made for such purpose the following table indicates, for varying acreages in coffee, the number of acres which in each instance is the minimum that must be fertilized and the maximum for which an allowance will be approved:

No. acres in coffee:	No. acres which must be fertilized and in excess of which no allowance will be approved
1– 5 (inclusive)	½
6–10 (inclusive)	1
11–20 (inclusive)	2
21–40 (inclusive)	3
Over 40	4

The application of fertilizer must be in accordance with the best methods advocated by the Extension Service, and must be under the supervision of the Extension Service field force.

9. The amount approved for a loan by the Governor or his representative under these regulations will be paid to the applicant by a disbursing officer upon receipt and approval by the Governor or his representative of the following documents:

(a) Application in the form prescribed, signed by the applicant.

(b) Promissory note in the form prescribed, executed by the applicant for the amount approved by the Governor or his representative, payable to the Governor, bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum from maturity until paid.

(c) Lien instruments (including waivers) in the form prescribed, conveying a first lien, properly executed and filed, registered, or recorded in the proper office, as required by law.

(d) A voucher for the amount of the loan in the form prescribed, signed by the applicant.

10. Fees for recording, filing, registration, and examination of records (including certificates) shall be paid by the borrower; provided, however, that such fees aggregating not to exceed 75 cents per loan may be paid by him from the proceeds of the loan. No fees for releasing liens given to secure loans shall be paid from the proceeds of a loan.

11. The right is reserved to revoke, alter, or amend these regulations at any time and without notice.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 5072]

AUTHORIZED POWER OF BROADCAST STATIONS ON CLEAR CHANNELS

HEARING NOTICE TO DETERMINE WHETHER RULE 117 SHOULD BE AMENDED

To the Licensees and Permittees of All Existing Regular Broadcast Stations (All Broadcast Stations Licensed to Operate Upon the Channels 550 kc to 1600 kc, Both Inclusive), and to All Applicants Who Have Pending Before the Commission Applications for Regular Broadcast Stations to Operate Upon Such Channels, and to Any Other Interested Parties:

Attention is directed to the provisions of the Commission's order of February 21, 1938, Minute #75–38, as follows:

"The Commission directed that a hearing be held beginning at 10 A. M., May 16, 1938, at its offices in Washington, D. C., to determine whether or not Rule 117 should be amended with respect to the power of broadcast stations on clear channels, and in particular to determine what limit, if any, should be placed upon the power to be authorized for any such stations.

"It further directed that at said hearing and to be consolidated therewith, the Commission will hear all pending applications for permits, modification or renewal of licenses, experimental or regular, which request power increases in excess of that permitted by the existing rule."

Pursuant to said order you are hereby notified that the Commission, at the time and place specified, will first hear any party, licensee, permittee or applicant on the questions hereinafter outlined as to whether or not Rule 117 should be modified with respect to authorized power of broadcast stations on clear channels and, in particular, to determine what limit if any will be placed upon such power; thereafter the Commission will hear any such applicants who may desire to be heard upon their individual applications.

For the purposes of the hearing upon the question of the modification of the rule the following issues shall be determined:

1. To determine if, in general, objectionable interference will be caused to the service of existing stations by increasing the power limit of stations assigned to the clear channels set out in Commission Rule 116.

2. To determine the nature and extent of the effect of the limitation, if any, of the service area of other classes of stations.

3. To determine whether the enlargement and improvement in the service of clear channel stations resulting from an increase in the maximum limit of power will be greater than any limitation of service that may result to other stations by reason of interference.

4. To determine the extent to which an increase in power on clear channels will enlarge the primary and secondary service areas of clear channel stations and improve the service of such stations.

5. To determine whether there is need for the proposed increased service which will be rendered by the use of the higher power on clear channels, and if so, in what areas such need exists.

6. To determine whether an increase in power on clear channels will tend to or result in an increase in, or concentration of, economic or social power and influence in the clear channel stations, and if so, whether this may have an effect upon other stations, the service rendered by them, or upon the public.

7. To determine whether an increase in power on clear channels will tend to or result in a decrease in competition between stations and whether the service to the public will be affected thereby.

8. To determine what charges will be necessary to support the operation of clear channel stations at additional power, whether such charges may be borne by the commercial support available and whether such charges will have an adverse effect upon the character of program service rendered.

9. To determine whether an increase in the maximum limitation of power upon clear channels will tend to, or result in, a duplication of service, either day or night, rural or urban, and if so, the nature and extent of such duplication.

10. To determine whether the stations now operating upon clear channels are so located geographically that an increase in the maximum limitation of power on such channels will bring about, or tend to bring about, a proper distribution of service, particularly to the rural areas served by such stations.

11. To determine whether the habits of listeners under such conditions will be such that they will listen to the high power service rather than the more localized regional and local class service.

12. To determine whether or not an increase in the maximum power limitation on clear channels would tend toward a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of transmission and reception among the states and communities within the meaning of Section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

13. To determine whether or not a maximum limit of power should be fixed in the rule, and if so, what limit should be fixed.

14. To determine whether or not the present minimum and maximum power limits of Rule 117 should be maintained.

15. To determine whether or not public interest, convenience and necessity will be served by modification of Rule 117.

16. To determine what modification, if any, should be made in the public interest, convenience and necessity.

Each licensee, permittee, applicant or other party who desires to be heard shall, within fifteen days of the mailing of this notice by the Secretary of the Commission, file with the Commission verified notice of its intention to be present and participate in said hearing and shall set forth in detail a complete statement outlining the evidence which will be presented.

The above specified issues shall not be considered exclusive of, nor to preclude the presentation of, any other material evidence which any party may desire to present. But if evidence on any other material question or issue, not indicated herein, is to be presented by any party, a complete and detailed statement thereof must be furnished at the time the notice of appearance and above statement is filed.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

[Docket No. 3373]

IN THE MATTER OF MERCK & COMPANY, INC., A CORPORATION

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," (the Clayton Act) as amended by an Act approved June 19, 1936, entitled "An Act to amend Section 2 of the Act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved October 15, 1914, as amended, (U. S. C., Title 15, Section 13) and for other purposes," (the Robinson-Patman Act), the Federal Trade Commission having reason to believe that Merck & Company, Inc., a corporation, is violating and has been violating the provisions of the said Clayton Act as amended, hereby issues its complaint stating its charges in that respect as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent, Merck & Company, Inc., is a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New Jersey, with its principal office and place of business located at Rahway, New Jersey. Said respondent operates manufacturing plants in Rahway, New Jersey, and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and maintains branch offices in New York, New York, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and St. Louis, Missouri.

PAR. 2. Respondent corporation is, and has been since prior to June 19, 1936, engaged in the business of manufacturing, compounding, packaging, bottling, and offering for sale, selling, and distributing a line of laboratory chemicals and a line of medicinal, analytic, technical, and photographic chemicals. Respondent sells said chemicals generally to manufacturing consumers or processors, to hospitals, and to the wholesale trade for resale. Respondent sells and distributes said products in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia, and preliminary to or as a result of such sales causes such products to be shipped and transported from the places of origin or manufacture to its branch offices and to purchasers of such products, who are usually located in states of the United States other than those in which such products originate, are manufactured or held for distribution, and there is and has been at all times herein mentioned a continuous current of trade and commerce in said products across state lines between respondent factories, branch offices and distributing points and the purchasers of such commodities. Such products are so sold and distributed for use, consumption, and resale within the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 3. In the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, respondent is now and, during the time herein mentioned, has been in substantial competition with other corporations, individuals, partnerships and firms, engaged in the business of manufacturing or compounding, and offering for sale, selling, and distributing laboratory chemicals and medicinal, analytic, technical, and photographic chemicals, in commerce, between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 4. In the course and conduct of its business as above described, since June 19, 1936, respondent has been and is now discriminating in price between different purchasers buying such products in like grades and qualities, so sold by respondent in interstate commerce for use, consumption, and resale, by giving and allowing some of its said purchasers of such chemical products lower prices than those given or allowed other of its said purchasers competitively engaged one with the other in the resale of said products within the United States. Said discriminations are brought about by the following practice and policy pursued by respondent, to wit:

Respondent has designated certain wholesalers reselling its products as "Merck Depots"; in selling its chemicals to such depots so-called, respondent on many of its items makes a special list price, which is usually from 5% to 15% lower than its regular quoted price to wholesalers generally; on other items on which respondent's list prices are the same to depots and to wholesale dealers generally, respondent follows the practice of selling its chemicals to said so-called depots at a quantity price which is lower than the price quoted for the quantity actually purchased, with the result that said depots have been and are purchasing such items at a price of from 5% to 15% less than that made available for the same quantities to wholesale dealers generally.

PAR. 5. Wholesalers purchasing such products from respondent, so bought and sold in interstate commerce, are in competition in the resale of such products with one another in the different states of the United States in which such purchasers are respectively located and engaged in business; and particularly in many cities and localities in the United States said so-called depots are in direct and substantial competition in the resale of such commodities with other wholesalers dealing in Merck products.

PAR. 6. The general effect of said systematic discriminations in price, so made by respondent as above set forth, has been or may be substantially to lessen competition and to injure, destroy, and prevent competition between respondent and its competitors in the manufacture, sale, and distribution of laboratory, medicinal, analytic, technical, and photographic chemicals, and also has been or may be substantially to lessen competition and to injure, destroy, and prevent competition in the resale of such products between some of the said favored purchasers of such products, being the so-called Merck Depots, so receiving such discriminatory prices, and some of the competitive unfavored wholesale dealers in said products not receiving such discriminatory prices. The effect of said discriminations in price also has been or may be to tend to create a monopoly in respondent in said line of commerce and to tend to create a monopoly in the said favored purchasers receiving such discriminatory prices in the resale of said products in the various localities or trade territories in the United States in which such purchasers respectively are engaged in business.

PAR. 7. The foregoing alleged acts and practices of the said respondent are in violation of Section 2 (a) of the Clayton Act, as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act.

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 5th day of April, A. D., 1938, hereby issues this, its complaint against said respondent, stating its charges in that respect as hereinabove set out.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given you, Merck & Company, Inc., a corporation, respondent herein, that the 13th day of May, A. D., 1938, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violations of law charged in this complaint.

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer thereto. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of Practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule VII) provide as follows:

In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a short and simple statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.

* * * * * * *

Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided or failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further hearing or notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint, and to make, enter, issue, and serve upon respondent findings of fact and an order to cease and desist.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the charges set forth in the complaint and not to contest the proceeding, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of the complaint to be true. Any such answer shall be deemed to waive a hearing thereon, and to authorize the Commission, without trial and without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to make, enter, issue, and serve upon respondent:

(a) In cases arising under section 5 of the act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, entitled "An Act to create a Federal Trade Commission, to define its powers and duties, and for other purposes" (the Federal Trade Commission Act), or under sections 2 and 3 of the act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes" (the Clayton Act), or under section 2 of the aforesaid Clayton Act as amended by "An Act to amend section 2 of the act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C., title 15, sec. 13), and for other purposes," approved June 19, 1936 (the Robinson-Patman Act), findings of fact and an order to cease and desist from the violations of law charged in the complaint.

In witness whereof, the Federal Trade Commission has caused this, its complaint, to be signed by its Secretary, and its official seal to be hereto affixed, at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of April, A. D. 1938.

[Ex Parte No. MC 21]

ORDER RELATIVE TO INVESTIGATION OF MOTOR CARRIER RATES IN CENTRAL TERRITORY

At a General Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of March, A. D. 1938.

The Commission having under consideration the subject of the rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations, and practices applicable to the transportation of property in interstate or foreign commerce by common carriers by motor vehicle between points as hereinafter described:

It is ordered, That an investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted by the Commission, on its own motion, into and concerning the lawfulness of the maximum, minimum, and precise basis of all rates, charges, and classifications, and the rules, regulations, and practices relating thereto, applicable to the transportation by all common carriers by motor vehicle subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, of all property in interstate or foreign commerce between all points in the States of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, and Wisconsin, and all points in the States of Iowa, Kentucky, Missouri, New York, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia which are shown in Agent H. M. Slater's tariff MF–I. C. C. No. 1, as amended, with a view to determining whether the rates, charges, classifications, and the rules, regulations, and practices relating thereto, of respondents, or any of them, applicable to such transportation are in any respects in violation of law, and of making such findings and entering such order or orders in the premises, and of taking such other and further action, as the facts and circumstances may appear to warrant.

It is further ordered, That all common carriers of property by motor vehicle subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, operating between the points and participating in the transportation, described in the next preceding paragraph hereof, be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding, that this order be served upon said respondents, and that notice to the public be given by posting a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission.

[File No. 32-83]

IN THE MATTER OF GEORGIA POWER COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by Georgia Power Company, of Atlanta, Georgia, a subsidiary company of The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation, a registered holding company, for exemption from the provisions of Section 6 (a) of said Act, (1) the issuance of $2,301,000 principal amount of Georgia Power Company First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, 5% Series due March 1, 1967, (2) the sale of $1,301,000 principal amount of said bonds to The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation;

The remaining $1,000,000 principal amount of said bonds are to be held in the Treasury of the applicant;

The proceeds of the bonds to be sold are required in connection with the maturity on May 1, 1938 of $2,300,800 principal amount of Central Georgia Power Company 5% First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds:

Applicant states that the issue and sale of new bonds are solely for the purpose of financing the business of Georgia Power Company and have been expressly authorized by the Georgia Public Service Commission, the State commission of the State in which applicant is organized and doing business.

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on April 25, 1938, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before April 21, 1938.

MARKING OF COUNTRY OF ORIGIN—PRODUCTS OF AUSTRIA

ARTICLES MANUFACTURED OR PRODUCED WITHIN THE TERRITORY WHICH COMPRISED THE REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA TO BE MARKED TO INDICATE GERMANY AS THE COUNTRY OF ORIGIN

APRIL 8, 1938.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Under date of April 5, 1938, the Department of State advised the Treasury Department that for all practical purposes the disappearance of the Republic of Austria as an independent state and its incorporation in the territory of the German Government must be accepted as a fact.

In the circumstances, articles manufactured or produced within the territory which comprised the Republic of Austria shall, when imported after the expiration of sixty days from the date of publication of this decision in the weekly Treasury Decisions, be marked, pursuant to the provisions of section 304 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1304), to indicate Germany as the country of origin of such merchandise. Articles manufactured or produced within the territory referred to which are imported on or after April 5, 1938, and before the expiration of the said sixty-day period may be marked to show either Austria or Germany as the country of origin.

PRODUCTION, FORTIFICATION, TAXPAYMENT, ETC., OF WINE

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS NO. 7

To District Supervisors and Others Concerned:

Paragraphs 71 and 77 of Treasury Department Regulations No. 7, relative to the production, fortification, taxpayment, etc., of wine, approved October 6, 1937, are amended to read as follows:

PAR. 71. Sweetening for fortification.—Natural wine, ameliorated in accordance with paragraph 70, may, prior to fortification, be sweetened with cane sugar or beet sugar or pure condensed grape must. Natural wine, to which no sweetening agents have been added, may, prior to fortification, be sweetened with cane sugar or beet sugar or pure condensed grape must. The cane sugar or beet sugar added shall not be in excess of 11 per cent of the weight of the wine.

PAR. 77. Sweetening for fortification.—Fruit and berry wine, ameliorated in accordance with paragraph 76, may, prior to fortification, be sweetened with cane sugar or beet sugar or pure condensed must of the fruit or berry used in manufacturing the wine. Fruit and berry wine which has not been ameliorated may, prior to fortification, be sweetened with cane sugar or beet sugar, or pure condensed must of the fruit or berry used in manufacturing the wine. The cane sugar or beet sugar added shall not be in excess of 11 per cent of the weight of the wine.

[Health Order No. 492]

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE ADMISSION OF PATIENTS INTO INDIAN HOSPITALS AND SANATORIA

JANUARY 10, 1938.

To Superintendents, Physicians, and Others Concerned:

The following rules and regulations are issued under authority of Title 5 U. S. C. 485; Title 25 U. S. C. 2, 9, 13 and 31.

1. Hospitals and sanatoria maintained and operated by the Indian Service from gratuity funds are for the hospitalization and treatment of Indians who are recognized as the responsibility of the Federal Government.

2. Persons who are in need of hospitalization and who are enrolled Indians, recognized members of a tribe, and who are unable to provide such hospitalization from their own funds, may be admitted to such institutions.

3. In the order of priority, provided the individual is eligible as set forth in paragraph two, consideration should be given first to the emergency or necessity for hospitalization; second, to the degree of Indian blood of the individual; and, third, to his ability to pay.

4. Preference should be given to those of a higher degree of Indian blood. Nonresidents, who return to the reservation for the purpose of receiving free services and hospitalization and who otherwise do not have any interest in the reservation or who do not participate in tribal affairs, are not entitled to hospitalization as a matter of right, but only as a matter of courtesy based on the decision of the superintendent. The superintendent has authority to deny such applicants hospitalization when the facilities are needed for members residing within the reservation; and, likewise, the superintendent has a right, and is hereby authorized, to make a charge for hospitalization to nonresidents when they are in a position to pay the daily cost of operation.

5. Indian employees of the Indian Service, who receive a salary of $1620 per year or more, and members of their families, shall be required to pay for hospitalization at the average cost per patient-day based on the daily per capita figure for the preceding year; but any extra facilities or services required, such as are not provided at the hospital, shall be paid for by the patient. Those receiving less than $1620 per year shall pay one-half the full rate.

6. All other employees of the Service, regardless of salary, and dependent members of their families, when admitted as patients, shall be required to pay at the full rate indicated in the previous section. Admission of such persons as patients should be held strictly to emergency cases or cases where private hospitals are not available. No employee shall be hospitalized in an Indian Service hospital removed from the jurisdiction where he is employed, without Indian Office approval. The courtesy rate of $1 per day for any employee, white or Indian, or members of their families, is hereby abrogated.

Failure to make payment within a reasonable time by either Indian or white employees should be reported to the Washington Office for instructions. See Circular No. 2982, dated February 13, 1934, and Amendment No. 1, dated April 26, 1935, for instructions as to the collection and deposit of such charges.

7. The white wife of an Indian shall be eligible to hospitalization and medical services on the same basis as an Indian by reason of the fact that her husband is legally responsible to provide same; and he being an Indian, and government facilities being available, they may be extended to the wife.

8. An Indian wife and children of a white husband are not entitled to such facilities, except where they maintain a permanent home on the reservation and participate in tribal affairs. Since the husband is a white man and is legally responsible for his wife and family and not being a member of a tribe, he has no right to expect free services for himself or his family, except as indicated in this paragraph.

9. Any Indian child being educated in a government boarding or day school or for whom tuition is being paid by the government is entitled to hospitalization.

10. Indian women, who are widows of whites or of nonrestricted Indians and who maintain a residence on the reservation and are considered members of a tribe, shall be eligible for hospitalization.

11. Since our facilities are limited and the demand for hospitalization is more than can be supplied, superintendents shall follow these rules in determining those who are eligible for hospitalization. It must be realized that this Office at this distance can not make these decisions. The superintendent and the physician have all the facts before them, know the needs of the patient, his status, and his circumstances, and they are expected to assume the responsibility for making the decision in each case.

12. As indicated above, these rules apply to hospitals and sanatoria supported and paid for from gratuity appropriations. In the case of hospitals operated exclusively from tribal funds, all recognized members of the tribe, regardless of other considerations, are entitled to hospitalization and treatment. It is believed proper to indicate, however, that resident and active members of the tribe should be given preference over those who have established homes elsewhere and only consider themselves members because of certain benefits available to them.

13. These rules and regulations will not apply to the Indians of the Five Civilized Tribes jurisdiction. Until otherwise notified, the present requirements for admission in that area will be followed.

14. Indian Office Order No. 416, dated June 21, 1933, and Circular No. 2942, dated August 23, 1933, including Amendment No. 1 thereto, dated November 20, 1934, are hereby abrogated.

Acting Commissioner.

[Docket No. A-68 O-68]

NOTICE OF HEARING RE AMENDMENT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE AND SUCH HANDLING AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS, OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE COMMERCE, OF IRISH (WHITE) POTATOES GROWN IN LOUISIANA, AND IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN ALABAMA, ARKANSAS, CALIFORNIA, FLORIDA, GEORGIA, MARYLAND, MISSISSIPPI, NORTH CAROLINA, OKLAHOMA, SOUTH CAROLINA, TEXAS AND VIRGINIA

Whereas pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended and as reenacted and further amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, the Secretary of Agriculture called a public hearing in connection with a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling in interstate commerce and such handling as directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce, of Irish (white) potatoes grown in the State of Louisiana, and in certain designated counties in the States of Alabama, Arkansas, California, Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Texas, and Virginia, to be held in the San Benito City Hall, San Benito, Texas, on April 18, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the McCarthey Hotel, Texarkana, Texas, on April 20, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Library, Pulaski County Court House, Markham and Broadway Streets, Little Rock, Arkansas, on April 21, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Court House, Muskogee, Oklahoma, on April 22, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Court House, Wharton, Texas, on April 18, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in Room 300, Association of Commerce Building, 315 Camp Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, on April 20, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Auditorium, Court House (second floor), Gulfport, Mississippi, on April 21, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the American Legion Hall, Foley, Alabama, on April 23, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Criminal Court Room, Court House, West Palm Beach, Florida, on April 18, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Court House, Palatka, Florida, on April 19, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Court Room, Court House, Springfield, Georgia, on April 20, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Community Center Auditorium, Community Center Headquarters, Charleston, South Carolina, on April 21, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Auditorium, Central High School, Painter, Virginia, on April 19, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Social Hall, Navy Y. M. C. A., 130 Brooke Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia, on April 21, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the High School Auditorium, Washington, North Carolina, on April 22, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Richland Grammar School Auditorium, Shafter, California, on April 19, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; and in the Assembly Hall, State Office Building, Los Angeles, California, on April 20, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; and

Whereas an amendment has been proposed to the aforementioned marketing agreement and order, which amendment would amend article I, section 1, paragraph 9, by including in the definition of the "Southwestern Area" the county of Hempstead in the State of Arkansas;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that when the said hearing convenes at the aforesaid places and times, in addition to the evidence called for in the original notice of hearing dated April 5, 1938, evidence will be received concerning the proposed amendment set forth above.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of potatoes in the aforesaid area and it is hereby determined that the period of notice of the proposed amendment hereby given is reasonable under the circumstances.

Copies of the proposed amendment may be inspected in or procured from the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

EXEMPTION FROM RADIO REQUIREMENT FOR SMALL PASSENGER VESSELS ENGAGED IN FISHING IN AREAS LYING BETWEEN TAMPA, FLORIDA AND NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

The Commission at a meeting held April 5, 1938, adopted the following Order:

Whereas there are pending before the Commission certain applications for exemption from the provisions of Title III, Part II, of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended by Public No. 97, which applications were filed on behalf of certain sport-fishing passenger vessels of less than 100 gross tons operating along the Gulf Coast in areas lying between Tampa, Florida and New Orleans, Louisiana; and

Whereas it appears that the route and conditions of the voyages and other circumstances are such as to render a radio installation unreasonable or unnecessary for the purpose of Title III, Part II of said Communications Act;

It is ordered, That the sport-fishing passenger vessels, Betty B. Itasca, Athor II, Rambler, Dorris White, Jennie

Louise, Cavalier, Suitsme, Sportsman, Atlanta, Mardale, Silver King, Geane Bryant, Silver Spray, and Kathleen, when navigated not more than 15 miles off shore in the waters between Tampa, Florida and New Orleans, Louisiana, are exempt from the provisions of Title III, Part II, of the Communications Act, as amended, for a period of one year from the date of this Order; and

It is further ordered, That any other sport-fishing passenger vessels of less than 100 gross tons, when navigated not more than 15 miles off shore in waters lying between Tampa, Florida and New Orleans, Louisiana, shall be exempt from the provisions of Title III, Part II, of the Communications Act for a period ending one year from the date of this Order; said period to begin with the date of filing of a written request for said exemption, under oath and in triplicate, with the Inspector in Charge, Federal Communications Commission, 326 Customhouse, New Orleans, Louisiana; 411 Federal Annex, Atlanta, Georgia; or 201 Stovalls Professional Building, Tampa, Florida. The request for such exemption shall include the following information:

Name and owner or applicant.
Name of vessel.
Official number.
Gross tonnage.
Required crew.
Number of passengers permitted.
Trade in which engaged.
Maximum distance navigated from land.
Route vessel normally follows.
Number of passengers normally carried on this (these) route(s).
Period of day and seasons in which vessel is operated.
Reason in detail for requesting exemption.

Provided, however, That the foregoing exemptions shall be specifically subject to such rules and regulations as the Commission may hereafter adopt with regard to the granting of applications without hearing, and, with respect to any ship or ships not specifically named herein, such exemption shall be subject to suspension or cancellation without notice or hearing within 60 days from the date of filing the request for exemption.

By The Commission.

[File Nos. 43-111, 47-22]

IN THE MATTER OF IOWA POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A declaration pursuant to section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by Iowa Power and Light Company, a subsidiary of a registered holding company, regarding the issue and sale, at private sale, of $5,700,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, 4% Series due 1968, to provide funds (1) for the repayment of bank loans incurred for additions to its physical properties, (2) to complete additions to its physical property now contemplated or in the course of construction, and (3) for the redemption, in connection with a proposal to merge and consolidate its subsidiary, Des Moines Gas Company, into itself, of the bonds of such subsidiary on September 1, 1938 and, on July 1, 1938, of the preferred stock of such subsidiary outstanding in the hands of the public; said Iowa Power and Light Company, simultaneously with the filing of such declaration, having also filed an application, pursuant to Section 10 of said Act, for approval of the acquisition by it of all the physical properties and other assets of said Des Moines Gas Company through liquidation and dissolution thereof upon the redemption of the preferred stock of such company; and it appearing that the hearings on such declaration and application should be joined and consolidated;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on May 3, 1938, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before April 29, 1938.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

ANCHORAGE GROUNDS IN HAMPTON ROADS AND THE HARBORS OF NORFOLK AND NEWPORT NEWS, VIRGINIA, AND RULES AND REGULATIONS RELATING THERETO

EXTRACTS FROM LAWS REGULATING THE USE OF NAVIGABLE WATERS

Obstruction Prohibited

River and harbor act approved March 3, 1899:

"SEC. 10. That the creation of any obstruction not affirmatively authorized by Congress to the navigable capacity of any of the waters of the United States is hereby prohibited; * * *

* * * * * *

"SEC. 12. That every person and every corporation that shall violate any of the provisions of sections nine, ten, and eleven of this act, * * * shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,500 nor less than $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding one year, or by both such punishments, in the discretion of the court.

* * * * * *

"SEC. 15. That it shall not be lawful to tie up or anchor vessels or other craft in navigable channels in such a manner as to prevent or obstruct the passage of other vessels or craft; or to voluntarily or carelessly sink, or permit or cause to be sunk, vessels or other craft in navigable channels; * * *

* * * * * *

"SEC. 16. That every person and every corporation that shall violate, or that shall knowingly aid, abet, authorize, or instigate a violation of the provisions of sections thirteen, fourteen, and fifteen of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,500 nor less than $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) for not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, one-half of said fine to be paid to the person or persons giving information which shall lead to conviction." * * *

Interference With Range Lights Prohibited

Act approved May 14, 1908:

"SEC. 6. That it shall be unlawful for any person to obstruct or interfere with any aid to navigation established or maintained in the Lighthouse Establishment under the Lighthouse Board, or to anchor any vessel in any of the navigable waters of the United States so as to obstruct or interfere with range lights maintained therein, and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to a fine not exceeding the sum of $500 for each offense, and each day during which such violation shall continue shall be considered as a new offense."

Establishment of Anchorage Grounds Authorized

River and harbor act approved March 4, 1915:

"SEC. 7. That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to define and establish anchorage grounds for vessels in all harbors, rivers, bays, and other navigable waters of the United States whenever it is manifest to the said Secretary that the maritime or commercial interests of the United States require such anchorage grounds for safe navigation and the establishment of such anchorage grounds shall have been recommended by the Chief of Engineers, and to adopt suitable rules and regulations in relation thereto; and such rules and regulations shall be enforced by the Revenue-Cutter Service under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That at ports or places where there is no revenue cutter available such rules and regulations may be enforced by the Chief of Engineers under the direction of the Secretary of War. In the event of the violation of any such rules and regulations by the owner, master, or person in charge of any vessel, such owner, master, or person in charge of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $100; and the said vessel may be holden for the payment of such penalty, and may be seized and proceeded against summarily by libel for the recovery of the same in any United States district court for the district within which such vessel may be and in the name of the officer designated by the Secretary of War."

NOTE.—The Revenue-Cutter Service is now included in the United States Coast Guard (act of January 28, 1915). The officer of the Coast Guard Service charged with special duties in connection with the enforcement of these regulations under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury is designated "Captain of the Port." Complaints arising under these regulations should be addressed to that officer. His office is at Norfolk, Va.

THE ANCHORAGE GROUNDS

(All azimuths are referred to a true meridian)

Under authority of the provisions of section 7 of the river and harbor act approved March 4, 1915, quoted above, the following anchorage grounds for vessels in Hampton Roads and the harbors of Norfolk and Newport News, Virginia, are hereby defined and established, and the following rules and regulations relating thereto are adopted:

Temporary Anchorage A—Hampton Bar

To the westward of a line bearing 8° from a point "A" determined by the following cross bearings: Old Point Comfort Light, bearing 31°; range and beacon tower on west end of Fort Wool, bearing 100°; to the northward of a line bearing 229° from point "A" to a point "B", 425 yards distant; to the northeastward of a line bearing 289° from point "B" to the Elizabeth City County shore.

NOTE.—This area is reserved for the use of vessels while undergoing examination by quarantine, customs, and immigration authorities. Upon completion of these examinations, vessels shall move promptly to a regular anchorage area.

The master of every steam vessel using this temporary anchorage shall keep his vessel in condition to move promptly under her own power upon notification by the Captain of the Port, and, when any such vessel is in charge of a pilot, the pilot shall remain on board until the vessel is safely anchored in a designated anchorage area. No sailing vessel, using this anchorage, shall be left unattended by a steam tugboat while undergoing examination by any of the authorities mentioned herein, except when her stay is likely to be of several hours' duration, when she shall be anchored in the western part of this temporary anchorage out of the way of other vessels before the tug and pilot leave her.

No master of a vessel awaiting or undergoing quarantine inspection shall release any part of the crew until the vessel has been passed by the proper quarantine officials and safely anchored, or moored, in one of the designated areas.

Anchorage B—Naval Anchorage[1]

To the southward of a line extending 289° from point "B" defined under "Temporary Anchorage A"; to the westward of a line extending 3,680 yards, 229° from point "B" to point "C"; and to the northward of a line extending 292° from point "C" to the Elizabeth City County shore.

NOTE.—This area is reserved for the use of naval vessels, but, in the absence of the fleet, the Captain of the Port may, in his discretion, permit it to be used by merchant vessels. Upon receiving word that any part of the fleet is expected, the Captain of the Port shall cause a sufficient area in this anchorage, and also in Anchorage C, to be vacated to accommodate the number of vessels scheduled to arrive.

Anchorage C—Newport News Bar[1]

To the southward of the southern boundary of Anchorage B; to the westward of an extension of the line forming the eastern boundary of Anchorage B; to the northward of a line running through the red buoys marking the 40-foot dredged channel to Newport News; to the eastward of a line bearing north through red gas buoy No. 8, at the western entrance to the Newport News Channel.

NOTE.—Vessels shall be anchored so as to leave a clear fairway 200 yards wide from Newport News Channel buoy No. 5 to the gas and bell buoy off the Chesapeake Ferry Company's slip at Newport News, thence 200 yards wide to the said ferry slip, except that in an emergency the fairway may be closed and occupied for the anchoring of naval vessels.

Anchorage D

The area enclosed by lines drawn as follows: From gas buoy No. 1 at the entrance to the Newport News dredged channel to bell buoy No. 2, on the western side of the Norfolk Harbor dredged channel; thence 229° until Newport News Middle Ground Light bears 303°; thence 250° until Newport News Middle Ground Light bears 3°; thence bearing 3° for a distance of 775 yards to anchorage buoy E; thence bearing 49° on a line in extension of the southeast boundary of Anchorage B to intersection with the first line.

NOTE.—This area is to be used by deep-draft vessels, wind-bound vessels from Lambert Point and Sewall Point, and vessels awaiting turn for docking. Other vessels may use this anchorage when permitted by the Captain of the Port.

Vessels shall be anchored so as to leave a clear fairway 200 yards wide on a straight line between the slip of the Chesapeake Ferry Company at Pine Beach and Newport News Channel buoy No. 5.

Anchorage E—Middle Ground Anchorage

To the southward of a line running through the black buoys marking the southern edge of the 40-foot dredged channel to Newport News; to the westward of the northwest boundary line of Anchorage D; to the northeastward of a line bearing 310° from anchorage buoy E.

NOTE.—Vessels shall be anchored so as to leave a clear fairway 200 yards wide on a straight line between the slip of the Chesapeake Ferry Company at Pine Beach and Newport News Channel buoy No. 5, except that in an emergency the fairway may be closed and occupied for the anchoring of naval vessels.

Anchorage F—Anchorage for Explosives and Other Dangerous Articles

To the southward of a line, bearing 310°, through two points determined by the following cross bearings: Easterly point, Newport News Middle Ground Light, bearing 20°; Craney Island beacon, bearing 131°; Nansemond River Light, bearing 243°; westerly point, Newport News Middle Ground Light, bearing 89°; Nansemond River Light, bearing 219°; northern red light on the railroad pier at Newport News, bearing 327°45′. To the westward of a line bearing 183° through the above easterly point; to the eastward of a line bearing 183° through the above westerly point. The northeasterly limit of Anchorage F is parallel to and 425 yards southeast of the southeast boundary of Anchorage E. (See note.)

NOTE.—All vessels are forbidden to anchor between the northern boundary line of Anchorage F, and the southwestern boundary line of Anchorage E, or within a zone 425 yards wide on the eastern and the western sides of Anchorage F.

Anchorage F–1—Anchorage for Vessels Carrying Explosives and Other Dangerous Articles and Having Drafts Too Great to Permit Them to Use Anchorage F

An area within Anchorage C to the westward of the eastern boundary of Anchorage C; to the northward of a line bearing 292° from the southeasterly corner of Anchorage C, 1,800 yards; to the eastward of a line bearing 49° to a point in the northern boundary of Anchorage C, 1,800 yards distant from the easterly corner of Anchorage C; to the southward of the northern boundary of Anchorage C.

NOTE.—When Anchorage F–1 is not occupied by vessels carrying explosives, it may be used as a general anchorage in the same manner as other portions of Anchorage C, except that it must be vacated upon notice from the Captain of the Port when a vessel of a draft too great to permit it to use Anchorage F carrying explosives desires to anchor.

When Anchorage F–1 is occupied by a vessel carrying explosives, vessels shall not anchor in Anchorages B or C within a zone 425 yards wide on all sides of the area.

No vessel carrying explosives shall be anchored in area F–1 so as to swing within 500 yards of the Newport News dredged channel.

Anchorage G—Newport News

To the southward of the following lines: From Fishing Point to black can buoy No. 3 off Naseway Shoal; thence to a point fixed by the following cross bearings: Northern red light on railroad pier, Newport News, bearing 135°; Nansemond River Light, bearing 180°; thence to a point determined by the following cross bearings: Northern red light on railroad pier, Newport News, bearing 45°; Newport News Middle Ground Light, bearing 119°; Nansemond River Light, bearing 189°35′; thence 145° to Anchorage buoy F, intersecting an extension of the line marking the northern boundary of Anchorage E; thence easterly to the westerly point of Anchorage E. To the westward of a line parallel to and 425 yards west of the western boundary of Anchorage F.

Anchorage G–1—James River

To the northward of a line bearing 121° through a point on the Warwick County shore and a point 450 yards northerly of the midway point of the draw opening in James River Bridge; and to the eastward of a line parallel to James River Bridge and easterly therefrom not less than 200 yards.

Anchorage G–2—James River

To the westward of a line parallel to James River Bridge and westerly therefrom not less than 200 yards; to the northward of a line bearing 121° from a point 450 yards northerly of the midway point of the draw opening of James River Bridge, 6,100 yards northwesterly to a point; and to the eastward of a line bearing 30° from that point on the Warwick County shore.

Anchorage H—Craney Island Flats

To the southward of the lines forming the southeastern boundary of Anchorage D; to the westward of a line through the red buoys marking the western side of the Norfolk Harbor Channel as far south as Craney Island beacon; to the northward of an east and west line joining Craney Island beacon and a point on the eastern boundary of Craney Island; generally eastward, northward, and westward of the northern portion of Craney Island between the point on the eastern boundary and the mainland west of the island; and to the eastward of a line parallel to and 425 yards easterly of the eastern boundary of Anchorage F.

NOTE.—Vessels shall be anchored so as to leave a clear fairway 200 yards wide on a straight line between the slip of the Chesapeake Ferry Company at Pine Beach and Newport News Channel buoy No. 5.

Anchorage H–1—West Norfolk

To the southward and eastward of the southern and eastern boundaries of Craney Island and to the southward of an east and west line joining a point on the eastern boundary of Craney Island and Craney Island beacon; to the westward of a line through the red buoys marking the western side of the Norfolk Harbor Channel; to the northwestward of a line through buoys Nos. 20 and 8, marking the northern side of the Western Branch Channel; and to the northeastward of a line through buoy No. 8 and high stack at West Norfolk.

NOTE.—No vessel after receiving its load shall remain more than 12 hours in this anchorage, except by special permit from the Captain of the Port.

Anchorage J—Sewall Point

To the southward of a line bearing 87° from gas buoy No. 5 on the eastern side of the Norfolk Harbor channel; to the northward of a line bearing 282° from the northwestern corner of the submarine basin, Naval Operating Base; to the eastward of a line through the black buoys marking the eastern side of the channel to Norfolk.

Anchorage K

To the southward of lines bearing 87° and 220°, respectively, from spar buoy No. 2, marking the southern side of the channel to the Virginian Railway coal pier at Sewall Point; to the northward of a line through spar buoys Nos. 1 and 3, marking the northern side of the channel to the Norfolk & Western Railway terminal at Sewall Point; and to the eastward of a line through can buoy No. 11, marking the eastern side of the Norfolk Harbor Channel.

Anchorage K–1

To the southward of a line through spar buoy No. 4, marking the southern side of the channel to the Standard Oil Company's pipe line pier; to the northward of a line 185 yards north of pier No. 2 of the United States Army Supply Base; and to the eastward of the eastern side of the Norfolk Harbor Channel.

Anchorage K–2

To the southward of two lines, one 185 yards south of pier No. 1 of the United States Army Supply Base, and the other running easterly from the extreme tip of Tanner Point on the north side of Lafayette River, at its mouth, to the extreme tip of the most northerly point on the south side of the river; to the northward of a line bearing 112° from gas buoy No. 21, about 835 yards northerly of Lambert Point; and to the eastward of a line through buoys Nos. 15, 19, and 21, marking the eastern side of Norfolk Harbor Channel.

Anchorage K–3—Lafayette River

(For yachts and pleasure craft)

To the westward of Hampton Boulevard bridge crossing Lafayette River; and to the northward and eastward of a line running easterly from the extreme tip of Tanner Point on the north side of the river, at its mouth, to the extreme tip of the most northerly point on the south side of the river, this line constituting the dividing line between Anchorages K–2 and K–3.

NOTE.—It will be understood that the establishment of this area shall not interfere with navigation and oyster cultivation.

Anchorage L—Lambert Point

To the southeastward of a line bearing 51° from gas buoy No. 23 off Lambert Point; to the northwestward of a line bearing 51° from can buoy No. 25 off Lambert Point Creek; to the northeastward of a line through gas buoy No. 23 and can buoy No. 25 marking the eastern side of channel to Norfolk.

Anchorage M

To the southeastward of a line bearing 47° from can buoy No. 27, 75 yards southeastward of the southernmost pier of the Norfolk & Western Railway on the east side of the channel to Norfolk, to the northeastward of two lines, one bearing 132° from can buoy No. 27, 530 yards to a point; and the other bearing 109° from that point.

Anchorage N—Atlantic City

To the northeastward of a line running from the westerly end of the Pennsylvania Railroad pier in Norfolk to the southerly end of the pier at Fort Norfolk; and between two lines at right angles to above line, one passing 200 feet northwest of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad pier in Norfolk and the other passing 109 feet southeast of the Nottingham & Wrenn pier; and to the southward of a line drawn 100 feet north of and parallel to an extension of the north side of West Freemason Street.

Anchorage N–1—Smith Creek

Mowbray Arch.—Between Mowbray Arch and a line described as follows: Beginning at Ghent Bridge 150 feet from Mowbray Arch and continuing westerly the same distance therefrom to the intersection of the prolongation of the east side of the Colonial Avenue; thence in a straight line to a point on the south side of Mill Street prolonged and 70 feet from Mowbray Arch; thence parallel to and 70 feet from Mowbray Arch to the south side of Pembroke Avenue prolonged; thence along the prolongation of the south side of Pembroke Avenue to a point 50 feet from Mowbray Arch; thence in a straight line to a point on the south side of Fairfax Avenue prolonged and 40 feet from Mowbray Arch.

The Hague.—Between the wall on the west side of the Hague and the straight line joining the point 40 feet easterly thereof in the south side of Fairfax Avenue prolonged, with the point 70 feet easterly from the wall in the perpendicular to the wall at the south end thereof.

NOTE.—No floats, rafts, lighters, houseboats, or craft laid up for any reason shall be permitted within the Smith Creek anchorages, except by permission of the Captain of the Port.

No vessel shall anchor, or moor, alongside any wharf or pier on Smith Creek, so as to extend more than 40 feet beyond the pierhead line, except in the authorized anchorages.

Anchorage O—Hospital Point

To the southwestward of a line through the red buoys marking the western side of the Norfolk Harbor Channel; to the southward of a line bearing 242° from north tower elevator at Atlantic City.

Anchorage P—Port Norfolk

To the southeastward of a line bearing 37° from the northeast corner of the Pennsylvania Railroad piers at Port Norfolk; to the southwestward of a line through the red buoys marking the southwestern side of channel to Norfolk; to the northwestward of the outside bulkhead at the north end of Pinner Point and its northeasterly extension.

Anchorage Q

The area known as Spotico Creek Flats landward of the United States pierhead line, and not within 200 feet of wharves or other permanent improvements.

Anchorage R

The area landward of the United States pierhead line on the south side of the Eastern Branch of the Elizabeth River extending from a point 700 feet to the eastward from the Norfolk & Western Railway bridge to a point 250 feet from [1] The established anchorages for naval vessels having been found inadequate at times when an especially large number of vessels are gathered for parade or other purpose, and the Navy Department having requested the establishment of a numbered series of anchorages for such occasions in order that a naval vessel may be ordered to proceed to a designated numbered anchorage in the harbor, the following arrangements have been made: A key chart for naval anchorages in Hampton Roads, which provides for the emergent anchorage of naval vessels in Anchorages A, C, E, and G, has been prepared. These designated anchorages, with the exception of those in Naval Anchorage B, which are primarily for naval vessels, are not set aside for the exclusive use of naval vessels, but permission will be given for naval vessels to use them when available. When the Captain of the Port receives notification from the proper naval authorities that it is desired to utilize certain of these specially numbered anchorages he will authorize the use by naval vessels of the requested numbers, if they can be made available, the commercial conditions at the time being given proper consideration. If, in the opinion of the Captain of the Port, there are sufficient reasons why the numbers first asked for should not be used, he will confer with the naval officers making the request, and if other numbers can be agreed upon he will authorize their use, otherwise he will communicate the request to the Secretary of War with a statement of the circumstances and with his recommendations.

the Virginian Railway bridge and not within 200 feet of permanent improvements; provided, that no vessel shall anchor within 100 feet of the eastern and western entrances of Steamboat Creek, or in a position that will obstruct passage thereto.

Anchorage S

The area landward of the United States pierhead line on the northern side of the Eastern Branch of the Elizabeth River, between a point 250 feet from the Virginian Railway bridge and the western entrance of Broad Creek, not within 200 feet of permanent improvements, and exclusive of the area included between the combined pierhead and bulkhead lines in Moseley Creek.

THE RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Except in cases of great emergency no vessel shall be anchored in Hampton Roads or the harbors of Newport News and Norfolk, Virginia, outside of the anchorage areas hereby defined and established, nor be made fast to the exterior end of any pier, nor to any vessel lying at the exterior end of any pier, or along any bulkhead in such manner as to obstruct or endanger the passage of any vessels to or from the adjacent wharf property, or impede the movements of any vessel entering or leaving adjacent slips.

2. Whenever in the opinion of the Captain of the Port such action may be necessary, that officer may require any or all vessels in any designated anchorage area to moor with two or more anchors.

3. Every vessel whose crew may be reduced to such number that it will not have sufficient men on board to weigh the anchor at any time, shall be anchored with two anchors, with mooring swivel put on before the crew shall be reduced or released.

4. Anchors must not be placed outside the anchorage areas, nor shall any vessel be so anchored that any portion of the hull or rigging shall at any time extend outside the boundaries of the anchorage area.

5. Any vessel anchoring under the circumstances of great emergency outside of the anchorage areas must be placed near the edge of the channel and in such position as not to interfere with the free navigation of the channel, nor obstruct the approach to any pier nor impede the movement of any boat, and shall move away immediately after the emergency ceases, or upon notification by the Captain of the Port.

6. The Captain of the Port shall assign berths in the anchorages to all vessels applying. He may grant permits for habitually maintaining and using the same mooring place in an anchorage area, and no vessel shall occupy a permanent berth in an anchorage area, except under authority of such permit, which may be revoked at any time.

7. A vessel upon being notified to move into the anchorage limits or to shift its position on anchorage grounds, must get under way at once or signal for a tug, and must change position as directed with reasonable promptness.

8. Except as provided in rule 10, vessels carrying explosives or other dangerous articles, including inflammable liquids, inflammable solids, oxidizing materials, corrosive liquids, compressed gases and poisonous substances, shall be anchored within the Anchoraging areas F and F–1 only, described above under the heading "The Anchorage Grounds". Anchorage F is reserved for this special purpose and is not to be used by vessels carrying other classes of freight except in cases of emergency.

Any vessels carrying explosives and desiring to proceed to the anchorage provided therefor must first obtain a written permit from the Captain of the Port; and no vessel shall occupy a berth in such anchorage except by authority of such permit, which may be revoked at any time. All other vessels, especially tugs and stevedores' boats, engaged or used in connection with loading explosives on vessels in anchorage areas must carry written permits from the Captain of the Port and must show these permits whenever required by the Captain of the Port or his properly authorized agents.

9. Whenever any water craft not fitted with mechanical power anchors in Anchorage F while carrying explosives, the Captain of the Port may require the attendance of a tug upon such water craft, when in his judgment such action is deemed necessary.

10. The District Engineer in charge of works or river and harbor improvement is empowered to authorize, in writing, the anchoring in or near the vicinity of such a work of a single scow carrying explosives for use on the work, but only in quantities considered by him safe and necessary. The District Engineer shall prescribe the conditions under which this explosive shall be stored and handled and shall in each case furnish the Captain of the Port with a copy of the written permit to anchor explosives on the work and a copy of the rules and regulations for its storage and handling.

The mooring for the purpose of taking on bunker coal at any wharf of a vessel carrying explosives or other dangerous articles may be permitted by the Captain of the Port, in writing, at such times and places and such periods, during daylight only, and under such conditions as to arrangement, loading and handling of cargo, and mobility of vessel as in his judgment will not interrupt the free and proper use of navigable waters and will not endanger life or property; provided the explosives aboard are manufactured, marked, packed, shipped, and stowed in compliance with the Interstate Commerce Regulations governing the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles, or foreign government regulations providing an equal degree of safety and security.

11. Municipal ash scows may be anchored in such places as the Captain of the Port may designate.

12. Whenever the maritime or commercial interests of the United States so require, the Captain of the Port is hereby empowered to shift the position of any vessel anchored within the anchorage areas, of any vessel anchored outside the anchorage areas, of any vessel which is so moored or anchored as to impede or obstruct vessel movements in any channel or obstruct or interfere with range lights, and of any vessel which, lying at the exterior end of a pier or alongside an open bulkhead, obstructs the passage of vessels to or from adjacent wharf property or impedes the movements of vessels entering or leaving adjacent slips.

13. Permits to anchor in channels within the limits of Hampton Roads and the harbors of Norfolk and Newport News, Virginia, may be granted by the Captain of the Port to wrecking plants legally engaged in recovering sunken property, when the application for such anchorage is approved by the District Engineer in charge of works of river and harbor improvements.

14. Nothing in these rules and regulations shall be construed as relieving the owner or person in charge of any vessel from the penalties of the law for obstructing navigation or for obstructing or interfering with range lights, or for not complying with the navigation laws in regard to lights, fog signals, or for otherwise violating law.

15. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof and shall supersede the "Anchorage Grounds in Hampton Roads and the Harbors of Norfolk and Newport News, Virginia, and Rules and Regulations Relating Thereto", approved October 18, 1921, as amended February 7, 1922, May 8, 1924, July 18, 1930, March 23, 1931, and October 9, 1931.

Recommended, March 29, 1938.

Major General,
Chief of Engineers.

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS, APPROVED NOVEMBER 11, 1926,[1] REGARDING RECOGNITION OF ATTORNEYS

The following shall be substituted for the introductory paragraphs preceding the paragraph numbered 1, page 1, of the existing regulations:

"Indian tribes organized pursuant to the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat., 984), are authorized to employ counsel, the choice of counsel and fixing of fees to be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. Many tribes employ attorneys or agents under contracts approved by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and the Secretary of the Interior under Section 2103 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and a number of attorneys and agents annually ask to be allowed to practice before the Indian Bureau in prosecuting enrollment cases, requests for railroad rights of way, etc.

All such attorneys or agents seeking approval of their employment by Indian tribes or desiring to represent individual claimants before the Indian Bureau shall be required to comply fully with the regulations of the Department promulgated September 27, 1917, governing admission to practice, and to take the oath of allegiance and to support the Constitution of the United States, as required by Section 3478 of the United States Revised Statutes.

These regulations, which cite the various laws applicable, are as follows:"

REGULATIONS FOR THE DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS APPROPRIATED IN AID OF COMMON SCHOOLS IN THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES AND QUAPAW AGENCY, OKLAHOMA

MARCH 24, 1938.

Pursuant to the Act of February 14, 1920 (41 Stat. 410), the following regulations are hereby issued covering distribution of moneys appropriated by Congress for aid of common schools in eastern Oklahoma. Payment of tuition by the Federal Government under these regulations will in all cases be conditioned upon the existence and adequacy of Congressional appropriations of money therefor.

When authorized by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and in accordance with the provisions of the appropriation, money may be expended for the following purposes:

1. To cover salaries, traveling and other necessary expenses of administration.

2. For the payment of salaries of public school teachers employed by the state, district, or county in special Indian day schools in full-blood Indian communities where there are not adequate schools available for their attendance, provided that preference shall be given to qualified Indian teachers. Contracts for such teachers shall be approved by the Superintendent of the Five Civilized Tribes upon recommendation by the Superintendent of Indian Education, Five Civilized Tribes, and payment shall be made to the county treasurer for reimbursement of the teachers' salaries.

3. For maintenance and furnishing equipment and supplies in special Indian day schools.

4. For salaries and expenses of education field agents, or visiting teachers (school social workers), whose duties and territory shall be assigned to them from time to time by the official in charge of schools for the Five Civilized Tribes upon the approval of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

5. Payment of salaries of Indian assistants in special Indian day schools whose duties shall be to assist in school and community activities, such as weaving, spinning, homemaking, gardening and preparation of noonday lunches.

6. For the purpose of supplying books, supplies, clothing and noonday lunches to destitute Indian children attending public or special Indian day schools, and transportation when not otherwise available.

7. In addition to the amount authorized for tuition, any savings under sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of these regulations will be available for tuition payments. Tuition shall be paid to public school districts at the basic rate per day per pupil authorized by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for the actual attendance of children of one-fourth or more Indian blood of school age, for the period ending December 31 of each year and reported prior to January 10 of the succeeding year: Provided, That reports received after January 10 shall be included with reports for final payment in June at the same rate as paid for the second period. For the period of January 1 to April 30 of each year, and reported prior to May 10 of the same year, tuition shall be paid for actual attendance at such a basic rate as to consume the amount available for the purpose as nearly as possible. When such tuition moneys are received by the treasurer of the school district, 50% of such funds shall be set up with other miscellaneous revenues to be used for the regular maintenance of schools; the other 50% of such funds shall be set up as a separate cash item which shall be used to provide an enrichment program designed to be of special benefit to Indian children.

a. The half of the Indian tuition to be classified as miscellaneous revenue shall be included in the regular estimate of income by the local school board and the County Excise Board in the same way that State Apportionment and miscellaneous revenues are included. The funds used for the enrichment program will be classified as local initiative funds by the State Board of Education when making the apportionment of Secondary Aid. At the close of the year an itemized statement showing receipts and expenditures of the Indian tuition and enrichment funds shall be made by the local school board to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs or his representative and to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Oklahoma.

The enrichment program shall consist of services agreed upon by the local school board and the agency superintendent and approved by the Superintendent of Indian Education, Five Civilized Tribes. The enrichment program may include the employment of special teachers to assist in overcoming language and social deficiencies of Indian children, extending school program to community activities, purchasing of extra instructional supplies and library books for special use of Indian children for the entire school year.

8. Districts in which incorporated towns are located, having a population of 500 or more, shall receive tuition at the basic rate for the attendance only of the Indian children who live outside the corporate limits. Payments will be based on attendance reports of teachers, certified to by the clerks of the districts and an education field agent or a school social worker and approved by the county superintendent: Provided, That payments will be made February 1 and June 1 of each year or as soon thereafter as practicable.

9. Tuition may be paid for pupils enrolled in Government or tribal boarding schools, who attend classes in the local public school, at a rate to be agreed upon by the school authorities and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, but not to exceed the actual per capita cost for pupils in the grades which the pupils attend.

10. The Indian Office reserves the right to investigate the correctness of any report of attendance presented by a school district, as a basis for payment; if upon such investigation and examination of the evidence it shall find that such report for a given period is incorrect, it will direct that payment of tuition be not made to or for the period covered by the report.

11. Tuition payments, except as provided in Paragraph 9, shall be made to the treasurer of the county in which districts are located, on vouchers (Standard Form No. 1034), showing the district number, actual days of attendance by districts,

[1] Requests for copies should be addressed to the Office of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior.

and amounts due to the several districts, such vouchers to be forwarded to the Indian Office without teachers' attendance reports attached, which reports shall be retained in the Office of the official in charge of schools for the Five Civilized Tribes, Muskogee, Oklahoma.

All vouchers shall be certified by the county superintendent of schools under whose direction the amounts shall be credited to the several districts, signed by the county treasurer as claimant and approved by the official in charge of schools for the Five Civilized Tribes.

12. No tuition shall be paid to any district in which Indian children are enrolled if the state compulsory school law is not enforced alike as to Indians and whites, or in which Indian children are not accorded the same privileges, opportunities and attention as the white children enrolled, in which the right of inspection at any time by officers of the Indian Service is denied, or in which district officers fail to render promptly any reports required by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or his representative, such as reports of enumeration or attendance of Indian pupils.

13. The right is further reserved to refuse or reduce tuition payments for Indian children to any school district maintaining less than the highest Oklahoma state standards in respect to professional preparation of teachers, school equipment and supplies, text and library books, construction and sanitation of buildings.

Assistant Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

REGULATIONS, PUBLIC SCHOOL TUITION, INDIAN SERVICE

MARCH 22, 1938.

Pursuant to the Act of February 14, 1920 (41 Stat. 410), the following regulations are hereby prescribed with regard to the payment of tuition for Indian children attending public schools:

APPLICATION FORMS

With a view to eliminating unnecessary work in handling applications for public school tuition, data which are more or less permanent will hereafter be furnished on form 5–144a (extra sheet 5–144b when required), and form 5–144c. Data which change each year will continue to be furnished on form 5–144.[1]

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Public school districts desiring to receive payment of tuition for Indian children should present through the local Indian superintendent an application, in triplicate, on form 5–144 (revised January, 1938).

Only one application should be submitted for each district, and it should cover all schools within the district. The names of the schools, as well as the district number, should be shown on the application. The superintendent will assign a contract number to each application, using his own symbol. This number should appear in the upper right-hand corner of the application, as indicated on the form. The superintendent shall then forward the original and two copies of each application to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs with appropriate recommendations and endorsements thereon. All applications should be received in this Office not later than May 1.

Superintendents will see that all applications are carefully completed and properly endorsed and signed by officials whose titles appear on form 5–144 and that the information given is correct, before sending them to the Office. The per capita cost of public schools should include only the operation cost of the school. It should not include new building or repairs and improvements to plant. If yearly interest is included the amount must be stated separately. In order to secure this information it will be necessary for superintendents to have an accurate budget of the income and expenditures of the school district under consideration. These expenditures should be carefully itemized as to purpose. Expenditures for new buildings, for repairs and improvements to plant, interest on bonded indebtedness, amortization of bonded indebtedness or sinking fund payments should be clearly set forth separately and identified as to purpose. Payment of tuition is made on the per capita operating cost of the school from which these several items are explicitly excluded, and the amount given should be the daily cost. Federal tuition will be paid to supplement local and state funds, on a basis of enabling the district to maintain a suitable school for the school year; provided that the tax rate is a reasonable millage on actual property value, regardless of the assessed valuation.

2. Public school officials of each jurisdiction shall be informed that applications, on form 5–144, must be submitted in advance of the school year, and if possible by the date given herein, in order that tuition for the Indian children may be secured; if applications are delayed funds may be exhausted. Upon receipt of such applications by the Indian Office, authority may then be issued by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for payment of tuition found to be reasonable and consistent with the amount of funds available for the purpose. In accordance with existing law, no formal contract is required in connection with payment of public school tuition. However, to meet the requirements of the General Accounting Office, the Indian Office will forward to the General Accounting Office a complete numbered set of the original applications and a copy of the authority. The authority will bear the contract numbers assigned. Upon receipt of Office authority, the superintendent will notify each applicant for tuition of the terms of same as regards his application.

3. A general change in rate each year hereafter is not contemplated.—Districts may count on the rate allowed so long as conditions remain unchanged. If an increase is required, justification therefor should be submitted, and if it affects any information on the permanent record full information should be given for notation as a base for the change. There should be a gradual reduction of the rates in states where there is a sales, or alcohol and beverage, or other tax, to which Indians contribute, and in localities where there is little or no tax-free land. As the Indians from time to time assume a greater share of the burden of maintaining the local school system, the rates will correspondingly decrease. The Indian Office should be kept informed of changes indicating a reduction in rate. See paragraph 1.

PER CAPITA TUITION

4. Superintendents of Indian agencies must carefully consider the daily rates recommended, whether correct for a single school district, and comparatively as to all districts within the jurisdiction, in order to secure impartial uniformity. Rates are based on estimated enrollment and care should be taken that the figure is not excessive. If estimated enrollment is well above average attendance, explanation should be made. Determining factors regarding rates are:

a. The proportion of non-taxable Indian land.
b. The annual operative cost and income other than Federal tuition.
c. The scholastic standards maintained.
d. The proportion of Indian children to white children.
e. Any other special facts in a given case, such as Special State equalization aid.

The cost of noonday lunches or transportation, if provided, will be an addition to the basic rate, but these added costs should be explained and itemized separately in the blanks afforded for them.

[1] The forms listed were a part of the original document as filed with the Division of the Federal Register. The National Archives; requests for copies should be addressed to the Office of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior.

5. In order that records may be kept up to date, data on form 5–144a (and extra sheet 5–144b) giving data for the entire reservation, should be submitted in duplicate, one copy to be filed in the individual public school authority file in the Indian Office, and one copy to form a combined permanent record for the Office. A copy should be retained in the agency files.

6. Form 5–144c, giving additional data for each district, will also be filed with the first application from a district but will not be required again until conditions locally change to such an extent that the responsible Indian Service officials file information regarding a major change in the local situation. Two copies of this form should be filed with the Indian Office and one copy retained by the field officer.

7. Except as provided in Section 13 hereof, payment of the sums due under authorities so issued shall be based upon the usual teacher's report of Indian pupils in public schools, form 5–143b, and will be made under authorities issued at the end of the second, third and fourth quarters. Payments may, however, be made monthly in the discretion of the superintendent, who should see that all tuition obligations for the year are settled in full not later than July 21.

8. Where there is full or partial state provision for transportation of pupils, or other special services, these shall be taken into consideration in arriving at the rates to be paid for Indian children.

9. When schools are closed due to sickness, epidemics or bad roads, or when attendance of Indian children falls to one-half of the usual attendance of Indian children for the reasons mentioned above, or other unavoidable reasons, tuition may be paid at one-half of the usual rate per day for such periods for all children who return to school at the end of the period of illness or when roads are again passable, or when other unavoidable periods of absence terminate, to compensate the district for the proportionate share of overhead and administrative expenses due to enrollment of Indian children. Payment will be made at the end of the period of absence on the usual voucher form prescribed by the Indian Service, and the report of attendance showing the absences for which payment is claimed shall be supported by a statement duly certified to by the proper local authorities as to correctness and approved by the responsible Indian Service officials. No payments shall be made under this section for illness not in the nature of an epidemic or which does not affect at least one-half of the Indian children enrolled in the school.

10. All payments for the third quarter must be made not later than April 15, and certifying officers must report immediately the condition of the funds allotted, the total amount expended for the three quarters, and a close estimate of the amount needed for the last quarter. It is important that this information be forwarded promptly to the Indian Office after April 15 in order to avoid further calls for such information at that time, and that the surplus on hand may be available for use at another jurisdiction before the close of the fiscal year.

11. Payments shall not be made under any authority issued under these regulations for any pupil having less than one-quarter Indian blood, nor for any pupil if he or either of his parents owns taxable real property within the public school district: Provided, however, That when pupil or parent owns taxable and non-taxable real property within the district, payment may be made if the non-taxable holdings by them jointly are greater in value than the taxable holdings. Provided, further, That the Federal Government reserves the right not to pay to any district for tuition of Indian children a sum greater in amount than the school tax would amount to on non-taxable Indian land within the district, except that tuition may be paid for children who are not residents. Districts in which incorporated towns are located having a population of 500 or more shall receive tuition at the basic rate for attendance only of Indian children who live outside the corporate limits. In districts where there is a proportionately large enrollment of white children, tuition will not be paid for two or three Indian children, except in special cases, approved in writing by the Indian Office, as there is no great additional expense on account of the Indian children: Provided, That tuition for Indian children shall not be used by public school districts for any obligations except those of the current year, except upon approval in writing by the Indian Office, and assurance to such effect must be given by school districts or counties: Provided, That the right is reserved to refuse or reduce tuition payments for Indian children to any school district maintaining less than the highest state standards with respect to professional preparation of teachers, school equipment and supplies, text and library books, construction and sanitation of buildings. Teachers' salaries must be paid before tuition money is used for repairs on buildings.

12. The number of Indian children in public schools whose families are renters of real estate is called for on form 5–144c. These families pay taxes indirectly and in that way contribute to the support of the school. This shall be taken into consideration in recommending the rate to be paid.

FLAT RATE PAYMENTS

13. When in the opinion of the Indian Office the interests of Indian children, as well as white children, of the community will be better served by payment of a flat rate (lump sum) instead of tuition based on daily attendance, the district applying for aid may accompany the usual application form by a budget showing proposed plans and educational program for the following fiscal year, showing amounts which will be available aside from Federal payments for Indian children and the amount of Federal payment necessary to carry out the plans. Recommendations of the local responsible representatives of the Indian Service shall accompany this budget and program. When approved by the Indian Service payment may be made monthly or quarterly as agreed upon, but no payment shall be made in advance. This method of making payments will be employed only when the particular conditions make it obviously preferable to tuition payments based on average attendance.

14. In any state having equalization laws, upon the filing of an agreement executed by the district, state authorities and the agency superintendent, together with the usual applications, a uniform daily rate may be paid all districts within the state for tuition and other services to Indian school children, the rates to be based on the amount required in addition to state funds to provide educational facilities suited to the needs of white and Indian children in the districts.

TUITION RATES, WESTERN OKLAHOMA

15. Payment of tuition for Indian children attending the public schools in the Cheyenne and Arapaho, Kiowa, Pawnee and Shawnee jurisdictions in Oklahoma, will be made as follows:

1. Tuition for the attendance of Indian children in public schools shall be paid at a rate agreed upon in writing by the superintendent and the proper state education officials. When such tuition moneys are received by the treasurer of the school district, 50% of such funds shall be set up with other miscellaneous revenues to be used for the regular maintenance of schools; the other 50% of such funds shall be set up as a separate cash item which shall be used to provide an enrichment program designed to be of special benefit to Indian children.

a. The half of the Indian tuition to be classified as miscellaneous revenue may be included in the regular estimate of income by the local school board and the County Excise Board in the same way that State apportionment and miscellaneous revenues are included. The funds used for the enrichment program will be classified as local initiative funds by the State Board of Education. At the close of the year an itemized statement showing receipts and expenditures of the Indian tuition and enrichment funds shall be made by the local school board to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction in Oklahoma.

2. The enrichment program will consist of services agreed upon by the local school board and the agency superintendent concerned and approved by the supervisor of Indian Education for Oklahoma. The enrichment program may include the employment of special teachers to assist in overcoming language and social deficiencies of Indian children, extending school program to community activities, purchase of extra instructional supplies and library books for special use of Indian children.

3. When lunches are provided a nominal allowance will be paid per pupil per day. The State Board of Education will classify this payment as local initiative funds.

4. When transportation is furnished for non-transferable children an additional amount required to provide this service will be paid. Such payments will be classified as local initiative funds by the State Board of Education.

The provisions of these regulations should be read carefully and followed closely in submitting applications for public school tuition.

Payment of tuition by the Federal Government under these regulations will in all cases be conditioned upon the existence or adequacy of Congressional appropriations of money therefor.

Assistant Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

DETERMINATION OF NORMAL YIELDS OF COMMERCIALLY RECOVERABLE SUGAR PER ACRE FOR SUGAR BEETS—1937 SUGAR BEET PROGRAM

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 303 of the Sugar Act of 1937, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine that the normal yield of commercially recoverable sugar per acre for a farm on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937 shall be the amount of sugar obtained by multiplying the normal yield of sugar beets, in tons per acre, for the farm by the amount of sugar, raw value, determined to be commercially recoverable in the determination entitled "Determination of Sugar Commercially Recoverable from Sugar Beets," approved March 28, 1938, from a ton of sugar beets of normal percentage of sugar content for the farm.

For the purposes of this determination:

I. The normal yield of sugar beets in tons per acre shall be,

A. For a farm on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in three or more of the years 1930–36, inclusive, the simple average of the annual average yields of sugar beets per acre planted on the farm for harvest for all of the years 1930–36, inclusive, in which sugar beets were planted for harvest;

B. For a farm on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in only one or two of the years 1930–36, inclusive, the number of tons obtained by multiplying the county normal yield in tons of sugar beets per acre [1] by the percentage that the simple average of the yields of sugar beets per acre planted on the farm for harvest in such year or two years is of the simple average of the yields of sugar beets per acre for the county for such year or years, which county average yield shall be, (1) for any year in which sugar beets were planted for harvest on ten or more of the farms on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937, the weighted average yield of sugar beets per acre planted for harvest in that year on farms in the county on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937; and (2) for any year in which sugar beets were planted for harvest on less than ten of the farms on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937, the yield per acre established by the State Agricultural Conservation Committee on the basis of the yields per acre for that year in the county and in adjacent counties which have similar sugar beet production conditions: Provided, however, That the normal yield for such farm shall not be less than 80 percent or more than 120 percent of the county normal yield; and

C. For a farm on which sugar beets were not planted for harvest in any of the years 1930–36, inclusive, 90 percent of the county normal yield per acre, which county normal yield shall be, (1) for a county in which sugar beets were planted for harvest in three or more of the years 1930–36, inclusive, on ten or more of the farms on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937, the simple average of the county average yields, as defined in B above, for all of the years 1930–36, inclusive, in which sugar beets were planted for harvest on ten or more of such farms; and (2) for a county in which sugar beets were planted for harvest in less than three of the years 1930–36, inclusive, on ten or more of the farms on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937, the yield per acre established by the State Agricultural Conservation Committee on the basis of the yields per acre for the years 1930–36, inclusive, in the county and in adjacent counties which have similar sugar beet production conditions.

II. The normal percentage of sugar content for sugar beets shall be,

A. For farms from which sugar beets were contracted to be marketed in 1937 under that type of agreement commonly known as an "individual test contract," as follows:

(1) In cases in which sugar beets were so marketed in each of the years 1934, 1935, and 1936, the simple average of the annual average percentages of sugar content, at the time of delivery to a processor, of the sugar beets marketed in such years;

(2) In cases in which sugar beets were so marketed in only one or two of the years 1934, 1935, and 1936, the percentage of sugar content obtained by multiplying the county normal percentage of sugar content of sugar beets [1] by the percentage that the simple average of the average percentages of sugar content, at the time of delivery to a processor, of the sugar beets marketed in such year or two years is of the simple average of the average percentages of sugar content of sugar beets for the county for such year or years, which county average percentage shall be, (a) for any year in which sugar beets were so marketed from ten or more of the farms on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937, the weighted average percentage of sugar content, at the time of delivery to a processor, of the sugar beets marketed in that year from farms in the county on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937; and (b) for any year in which sugar beets were so marketed from less than ten of the farms on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937, the percentage of sugar content established by the State Agricultural Conservation Committee on the basis of the percentage of sugar content, at the time of delivery to a processor, of the sugar beets marketed in that year from farms in the county and in adjacent counties; and

(3) In cases in which sugar beets were not so marketed in any of the three years 1934, 1935, or 1936, the county normal percentage of sugar beets, which county normal percentage shall be, (a) for a county in which sugar beets were so marketed in 1934, 1935, and 1936, from ten or more of the farms on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937, the simple average of the county average percentages of sugar content, as defined in (2) above, for such years; and (b) for a county in which sugar beets were not so marketed in all three of the years 1934, 1935, and 1936, from ten or more of the farms on which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937, the percentage of sugar content established by the State Agricultural Conservation Committee on the basis of the percentage of sugar content, at the time of delivery to a processor, of the sugar beets marketed in the years 1934, 1935, and 1936, from farms in the county and in adjacent counties; and

B. For farms from which sugar beets were contracted to be marketed in 1937 under any type of agreement other than that commonly known as an "individual test contract," the normal percentage of sugar content of sugar beets for the district (an area in which a common marketing agreement was in use in 1937), which district normal percentage shall be:

(1) For districts in which beet sugar factories were operated in three or more of the years 1930–36, inclusive, the simple average of the annual average percentages of sugar content, at the time of processing, of all the sugar beets processed in the district in all of such years in which sugar beets were processed; and

(2) For districts in which beet sugar factories were operated in less than three of the years 1930–36, inclusive, the percentage of sugar content established by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration on the basis of the average percentage of sugar content, at the time of processing, of sugar beets produced under similar conditions in the years 1930–36, inclusive.

[ECR-205]

1938 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM FOR UPSHUR COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, and in connection with the effectuation of the purposes of Section 7 (a) of the said Act in 1938, payments and grants of aid will be made in Upshur County, West Virginia, for participation in the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program in accordance with the provisions of this bulletin and such modifications thereof or other provisions as may hereafter be made.

The provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program are necessarily subject to such legislation affecting said program as the Congress of the United States may hereafter enact. The making of the payments and grants of aid herein provided are contingent upon such appropriation as the Congress may hereafter provide for such purpose; and the amount of such payments and grants of aid will necessarily be within the limits finally determined by such appropriation and the extent of national participation. Any increase or decrease in rates of payments and deductions with respect to any item of payment made because of the extent of participation in the program will not exceed 10 per cent.

The provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program as contained in this bulletin are applicable only in Upshur County, West Virginia.

SECTION 1. Soil-building goals.—County soil-building goals.—Insofar as practicable, county goals shall be established for particular soil-building practices which are not routine farming practices and which are most needed in the county in order to preserve and improve soil fertility and to prevent erosion.

Soil-building goal for individual farms.—The soil-building goal for any farm shall be the number of units of soil-building practices equal to two-thirds of the number of dollars computed for the farm under Section 2. The goal so established shall represent the number of units of applicable practices to be carried out on the farm. A number of units of practices equal to one-half of the number of dollars computed for the farm (under item 2 of Section 2) with respect to noncrop open pasture land are to be carried out on such pasture land.

Insofar as practicable, the county committee shall determine for individual farms practices to be followed in meeting the goal which are not routine farming practices on the farm but which are needed on the farm in order to preserve and improve soil fertility and prevent erosion, and which will tend to accomplish the goals, if any, established for the county with respect to particular soil-building practices.

SEC. 2. Payment for full performance.—Payment will be made with respect to any farm for achieving the soil-building goal in an amount which shall be the sum of the following:

(1) 70 cents per acre for each acre of cropland.

(2) 25 cents per acre for fenced noncrop open pasture land in the farm which is capable of maintaining during the normal pasture season at least one animal unit for each five acres of such pasture land.

SEC. 3. Payment for partial performance.—The payment for any farm computed under the provisions of Section 2, shall be subject to all of the following deductions which are applicable to the farm:

(1) $1.50 for each unit by which the number of units of soil-building practices carried out on pastures is less than the number of units to be carried out on pastures as provided in Section 1.

(2) $1.50 for each unit by which the total soil-building goal is not reached, less any units on which deductions are made under item (1) of this Section 3.

SEC. 4. Soil-depleting crops.—Land devoted in 1938 to any of the following crops or uses shall be classified as soil-depleting. Land devoted to volunteer crops harvested shall be classified as if such crops were planted.

A. Land planted to corn, truck, and vegetable crops, potatoes, bulbs and flowers, or field beans for harvest in 1938.

B. Land planted to wheat, oats, barley, rye, flax, or mixtures of these crops between August 1, 1937 and July 31, 1938, and harvested for grain or hay.

C. Land planted in 1938 to buckwheat, sweet sorghum, Sudan grass, or millet harvested for hay, grain, seed, syrup, or silage.

SEC. 5. Soil-building practices.—The soil-building practices listed in the following schedule shall count toward the achievement of the soil-building goal to the extent indicated therein, when such practices are carried out in 1938 in workmanlike manner and in accordance with good farming practices for the locality.

Practice carried out with labor, seed, trees, and materials furnished entirely by any Federal or State agency other than the Agricultural Adjustment Administration shall not be counted toward the achievement of the soil-building goal. If a portion of the labor, seed, trees, or other materials used in carrying out any practice is furnished by a State or Federal agency other than the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and such portion represents one-half or more of the total cost of carrying out such practice, such practice shall not be counted toward the achievement of the soil-building goal; if such practice represents less than half of the total cost of carrying out such practice; one-half of such practice shall be counted toward the achievement of the soil-building goal.

SCHEDULE OF SOIL-BUILDING PRACTICES

A. Each of the following practices in the amounts specified shall be counted as one unit, provided that, when the materials specified in items 1 or 2 are applied to biennial or perennial legumes, perennial grasses, winter legumes, or lespedeza, seeded or grown in connection with a soil-depleting crop, only one-half of the material applied shall be counted.

1. Application of 240 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate (or its equivalent) to, or in connection with the seeding of, perennial or biennial legumes, perennial grasses, winter legumes, lespedeza, or permanent pasture, provided that application on noncrop pasture land shall be counted only if such land has been treated since January 1, 1936, with a minimum of 1,000 pounds per acre of ground limestone, or equivalent, or lime was applied between January 1, 1933, and December 31, 1935, and tests show that lime is not required.

2. Application of 200 pounds of 50 percent muriate of potash (or its equivalent) to, or in connection with the seeding of, perennial or biennial legumes, perennial grasses, winter legumes, lespedeza, or permanent pasture.

3. Application of 1,500 pounds of ground limestone (or its equivalent) when applied at a rate of not less than 1,000 pounds per acre.

For purposes of this item 3, 100 pounds of ground oyster shell, 130 pounds of limestone screenings, 70 pounds of hydrated lime, or 50 pounds of burned lime, shall be considered, respectively, to be equivalent to 100 pounds of ground limestone.

4. Each acre seeded to alfalfa, approved red clover, alsike clover, sweet clover, white clover, bluegrass, orchard grass, vetch, crimson clover, annual lespedeza, annual ryegrass, or mixtures of such legumes and perennial grasses other than a mixture consisting solely of timothy and redtop; provided the land has been treated since January 1, 1937, with a minimum of 200 pounds per acre of 20 percent superphosphate, or equivalent, and since January 1, 1936, with a minimum of 2,000 pounds per acre of ground limestone or equivalent, or lime was applied between January 1, 1933, and December 31, 1935, and tests show that lime is not required.

5. Each acre of green manure crops: soybeans, cowpeas, crimson clover, vetch, rye, barley, wheat, buckwheat, oats, Sudan grass, millet, sorghum, or mixtures of any two or more of such crops, of which a good stand and good growth is plowed or disked under as green manure.

6. Each two acres seeded to timothy or redtop or a mixture consisting solely of timothy and redtop.

7. With prior approval of the county committee, each four acres of strip cropping.

B. Each acre of the following shall be counted as two units.—

1. With prior approval of the county committee, improving a stand of forest trees under such approved system of farm woodlot management as is specified by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

C. Each acre of the following shall be counted as five units.—

1. Planting forest trees, provided such trees are protected and cultivated in accordance with good tree-culture practice.

SEC. 6. Division of payments.—The amount of payment earned in connection with the soil-building goal for the farm shall be paid to the landlord, tenant, or sharecropper who carried out the soil-building practices. If the county committee determines that more than one such person contributed to the carrying-out of soil-building practices on the farm in 1938, such payment shall be divided in the proportion that the units contributed by each such person to such practices bears to the total units of such practices carried out on the farm in 1938. Each person contributing to the practice carried out on a particular acreage shall be deemed to have contributed equally to the units of such practice unless such persons establish to the satisfaction of the county committee that their respecive contributions thereto were not in equal proportion, in which event such unit shall be divided in the proportion which the county committee determines each such person contributed thereto.

SEC. 7. Increase in small payments.—The total payment computed under Sections 2 to 6, inclusive, for any person with respect to any farm shall be increased as follows:

(1) Any payment amounting to 71 cents or less shall be increased to $1.00;

(2) Any payment amounting to more than 71 cents but less than $1.00 shall be increased by 40 percent;

(3) Any payment amounting to $1.00 or more shall be increased in accordance with the following schedule:

Amount of payment computed	Increase in payment	Amount of payment computed	Increase in payment
$1.00 to $1.99	$0.40	$32.00 to $32.99	$10.40

$31.00 to $31.99	10.20	$200.00 and over	(2)

[1] Increase to $200.00.
[2] No increase.

SEC. 8. Materials furnished as grants of aid.—Wherever it is found practicable limestone, superphosphate, trees, seeds, and other materials may upon request of the producer be furnished by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration as grants of aid to be used in carrying out approved soil-building practices which shall be counted toward meeting the soil-building goal for the farm. Wherever such materials are furnished, a deduction from the payment for the farm shall be made in the amount of the approximate cost of such material to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Such deduction shall be applied first to the payment computed for the person to whom such materials are furnished, and the balance, if any, of such deduction shall be prorated among the payments to other persons sharing in the payment with respect to the farm on which such materials were used.

In making a request for materials pursuant to this section, the producer to whom such materials are furnished shall agree that in the event the amount of the deduction for the materials exceeds the amount of the payment with respect to the farm, the amount of such difference shall be repaid by him to the Secretary.

SEC. 9. General provisions.—

A. Payment restricted to effectuation of purposes of the program.—All or any part of any payment which otherwise would be made to any person under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may be withheld:

(1) If he has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the program;

(2) If, by means of any corporation, partnership, estate, trust, or any other device, or in any manner whatsoever, he has offset, or has participated in offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance for which such payment is otherwise authorized; or

(3) If, with respect to forest land or woodland owned or controlled by him, he wilfully burns over or allows to be burned over his woodland or any material portion thereof (failure to attempt to suppress any such woods fire will be considered as intentional burning) or, clear-cuts or allows to be clear-cut his present stand of timber below a minimum diameter on the stump of approximately 10" for coniferous species, and approximately 14" for hardwood species except (1) where clear-cutting of undesirable species is followed by planting of forest trees of desirable species, (2) where the clearing is for needed cropland, or (3) other special cases approved by the county committee in accordance with instructions issued by the State committee. This provision will not prohibit cutting a limited number of selected trees of smaller size in places where the stand is dense.

B. Payment computed and made without regard to claims.—Any payment or share of payment shall be computed and made without regard to questions of title under State law, without deduction of claims for advances (except as provided in subsection D of this Section 9) and without regard to any claim or lien against any crop, or proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any other creditor.

C. Deduction for association expenses.—There shall be deducted pro rata from the payments with respect to any farm all or such part as the Secretary may prescribe of the estimated administrative expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Upshur County Agricultural Conservation Association.

D. Assignments.—Any person who may be entitled to any payment in connection with the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may assign his interest in such payment as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1938. No such assignment will be recognized unless (1) the assignment is made in writing on a form prescribed by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and is acknowledged by the farmer before the county agricultural extension agent and filed with such agent; (2) the farmer files with the assignment an affidavit showing that the assignment is made to pay or secure an indebtedness incurred in connection with financing the making of a 1938 crop and not to pay or secure any pre-existing indebtedness; and (3) the person to whom such assignment is made certifies that the payment is being assigned without discount for such purpose.

Nothing in the provisions of this section shall be construed to give an assignee a right to any payment other than that to which the farmer is entitled nor shall the Secretary or any disbursing agent be subject to any suit or liability if payment is made to the farmer without regard to the existence of any such assignment.

E. Persons eligible to file applications for payment.—An application for payment with respect to a farm may be made by any person for whom, under the provisions of Section 6, a share in the payment with respect to the farm may be computed.

F. Schemes or Devices to deprive persons of payments.—If the State committee finds that any person who files an application for payment pursuant to the provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program has employed any scheme or device, the effect of which would be or has been to deprive any other person of any payment under any agricultural conservation program to which such other person would normally be entitled, the Secretary may withhold in whole or in part from the person participating in or employing such a scheme or device, or require such person to refund in whole or in part, the amount of any payment which has been or would otherwise be made to such person in connection with the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program.

G. Time and manner of filing application and information required.—Payment will be made only upon application submitted through the county office. The Secretary reserves the right (1) to withhold payment from any person who fails to file any form or furnish any information required with respect to any farm which such person is operating or renting to another person for a share of the crops grown thereon, and (2) to refuse to accept any application for payment if such application or any other form or information required is not submitted to the county office within the time fixed by the Regional Director. At least two weeks notice to the public shall be given of the expiration of a time limit for filing prescribed forms. Such notice shall be given by mailing the same to the office of each county committee and making copies of the same available to the press.

H. Appeals.—Any person may request the county committee in writing to reconsider its determination with respect to any matter affecting the right to or the amount of his payment under the program, within 15 days after notice of the determination is forwarded to or made available to him. After reconsideration by the county committee, an appeal may be made to the State committee and to the Regional Director.

I. Instructions and forms.—The Agricultural Adjustment Administration will prepare and issue such instructions and forms as may be required in administering the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program for Upshur County, West Virginia.

SEC. 10. Definitions.—For the purposes of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program for Upshur County:

Secretary means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

Regional Director means the director of the East Central Division of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

East Central Region means the area included in the States of Delaware, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia.

State Committee means the group of persons designated within the State of West Virginia to assist in the administration of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program in the State.

County Committee means the group of persons elected within Upshur County to assist in the administration of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program in the county.

Person means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, and, wherever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

Farm means all adjacent or nearby farm land under the same ownership which is operated by one person.

Cropland means farm land which is tilled annually or in a regular rotation, including also land planted to orchards other than abandoned orchards.

Landlord means a person who owns land and rents such land to another person or operates such land.

Sharecropper means a person who works a farm in whole or in part under the general supervision of the operator and is entitled to receive for his labor a share of a crop produced thereon or the proceeds thereof.

Tenant means a person other than a sharecropper who rents land from another person (for cash, a fixed commodity payment, or a share of the proceeds of the crops) and is entitled under a written or oral lease or agreement to receive all or a share of the proceeds of the crops produced thereon.

Noncrop open pasture means pasture land (other than rotation pasture land) on which the predominant growth is forage suitable for grazing and on which the number or grouping of any trees or shrubs is such that the land could not fairly be considered as woodland.

Animal unit means one cow, one horse, five sheep, or five goats, two calves, or two colts, or the equivalent thereof.

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

SERVICE CONNECTION AND EVALUATION

Act of March 3, 1927, Indian Wars, as Amended by Pub. No. 355, 75th Congress

R. 2071. (A) Definition of disability.—In claims of veterans of the Indian Wars under Public No. 723, 69th Congress (Act of March 3, 1927) evaluation of disability will be made without regard to service connection on the basis of aggregate permanent mental or physical incapacity, not the result of vicious habits on the part of the veteran, for the performance of manual labor, proportioned to the degree of inability to earn support.

(B) Ratings.—Evaluation will be made on the following bases: 1/10, 1/4, 1/2, 3/4, total, and regular aid and attendance. (September 1, 1937.)

Indian Wars

R-2109. Pension pursuant to the Act of March 3, 1927, or Public No. 355, 75th Congress, shall commence from the date of claim therefor or the date of entitlement, whichever is the later. As to those veterans on the rolls on August 25, 1937, the increased rates provided in Public No. 355, 75th Congress, with the exception of the rate for regular aid and attendance, shall be effective from September 1, 1937. The rate for regular aid or attendance is payable from the date of receipt in the Veterans Administration of the evidence showing the requisite condition or the date of filing application therefor on or after the date of the Act, whichever is the later. (September 1, 1937.)

R. 2110. Pension is payable at rates as follows:

Degree of disability	Rates prior to 9-1-37	Rates on and after 9-1-37	Age	Rates prior to 9-1-37	Rates on and after 9-1-37
1/10	$20.00	$20.00	62	$20.00	$25.00

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED OF ALIENS ENTERING THE UNITED STATES

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the act of May 22, 1918, 40 Stat. 559, as extended by the act of March 2, 1921, 41 Stat. 1205, 1217, I hereby prescribe the following regulations pertaining to documents required of aliens entering the United States (which regulations shall be applicable to Chinese and to Philippine citizens who are not citizens of the United States except as may be otherwise provided by special laws and regulations governing the entry of such persons):

Part I

1. Non-immigrants must present unexpired passports, or official documents in the nature of passports, issued by the governments of the countries to which they owe allegiance, or other travel documents showing their origin and identity, prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary of State, and valid passport visas, or, in lieu of passport visas, if passing in transit through the United States to a foreign destination, transit certificates granted by authorized officers of the United States, except in the following cases:

(a) A non-immigrant alien who is a passenger on a vessel entering a port of the United States, landing temporarily while the vessel is in port.

(b) A non-immigrant alien coming within a category and domiciled in a country, island, or territory of the Western Hemisphere, specified in regulations issued by the Secretary of State, passing in transit through the United States or entering the United States temporarily.

(c) A non-immigrant alien lawfully admitted into the United States who later goes in transit from one part of the United States to another through foreign contiguous territory.

(d) A non-immigrant alien child born subsequent to the issuance of the passport visa or transit certificate of an accompanying parent, the visa or transit certificate not having expired.

(e) An alien who has previously been legally admitted into the United States with a diplomatic visa or with a passport visa as a non-immigrant as defined by section 3 (1) or section 3 (6) of the Immigration Act of 1924 (43 Stat. 153, 154), and who has departed temporarily therefrom and returned within six months, not having proceeded to any place outside the countries, islands, and territories of the Western Hemisphere specified in regulations issued by the Secretary of State, and not having relinquished the status in which he was originally admitted.

2. The Secretary of State is authorized in his discretion to waive the passport and visa requirements in cases of emergency for non-immigrant aliens and in other cases under such conditions as may by regulations be prescribed by him, except that the Governor of the Virgin Islands is authorized in his discretion to waive the requirements in cases of emergency for non-immigrant aliens applying for admission at a port of entry of the Virgin Islands.

3. No passport visa or transit certificate shall be granted to an alien whose entry would be contrary to the public safety.

Part II

1. Immigrants must present unexpired passports, or official documents in the nature of passports, issued by the governments of the countries to which they owe allegiance, or other travel documents showing their origin and identity, prescribed in regulations issued by the Secretary of State, and valid immigration visas granted by the consular officers of the United States in accordance with the requirements of the Immigration Act of 1924 and the regulations issued thereunder, except in the following cases:

(a) An alien immigrant child born subsequent to the issuance of the immigration visa of an accompanying parent, the visa not having expired.

(b) An alien immigrant child born during the temporary visit abroad of an alien mother who has previously been legally admitted into the United States for permanent residence, under such regulations as may be prescribed.

(c) An alien immigrant who has previously been legally admitted into the United States for permanent residence, has departed temporarily therefrom and returned within six months, not having proceeded to any place outside the countries, islands, and territories of the Western Hemisphere specified in regulations issued by the Secretary of State.

(d) An alien immigrant who has previously been legally admitted into the United States for permanent residence, re-entering from a journey beginning in an American port, without trans-shipment from the original vessel to another vessel.

(e) An alien immigrant who has previously been legally admitted into the United States for permanent residence, has departed therefrom and has returned from a temporary visit abroad, and who presents an unexpired permit to re-enter, issued pursuant to section 10 of the Immigration Act of 1924.

2. An alien who has previously been legally admitted into the United States as a non-quota immigrant student, has departed temporarily therefrom and returned within six months, not having proceeded to any place outside the countries, islands, and territories of the Western Hemisphere specified in regulations issued by the Secretary of State, and not having relinquished his student status, may re-enter without an immigration visa.

3. An immigrant Spanish national who on April 11, 1899 (whether adult or minor), was a bona fide resident of Puerto Rico or adjacent islands which comprised the Province of Puerto Rico, and who, in conformity with Article IX of the treaty between the United States and Spain of April 11, 1899, has preserved his allegiance to Spain, may present a passport visa, in lieu of an immigration visa, for entry into Puerto Rico. Such aliens may be admitted into Puerto Rico without regard to the provisions of the Immigration Act of 1924, except section 23. (Act of May 26, 1926, ch. 400, 44 Stat. 657)

4. In such classes of cases and under such conditions as may by regulations be prescribed, the immigration visa requirements may be waived, under section 13 (b) of the Immigration Act of 1924, and the passport requirements may also be waived, for an alien immigrant who has previously been legally admitted into the United States for permanent residence, has departed therefrom, and is returning from a temporary visit abroad.

5. In such classes of cases and under such conditions as may by regulations be prescribed by the Secretary of State, the passport requirements may be waived for any immigrant.

Part III

The Executive Secretary of the Panama Canal is hereby authorized to issue passport visas, transit certificates, and immigration visas to aliens coming to the United States from the Canal Zone. The Governor of American Samoa is hereby authorized to issue passport visas, transit certificates, and immigration visas to aliens coming to the United States from American Samoa. The Governor of Guam is hereby authorized to issue passport visas, transit certificates, and immigration visas to aliens coming to the United States from Guam.

Part IV

The documentary requirements for aliens applying for admission into American possessions outside the United States, except the Philippine Islands, are to be prescribed by the competent authorities in such possessions.

Part V

The definitions contained in section 28 of the Immigration Act of 1924 shall be regarded as applicable to this order, except as otherwise specified herein.

Part VI

The Secretary of State and the Secretary of Labor are hereby authorized to make such additional rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this order, as may be deemed necessary for carrying out the provisions of this order and the statutes mentioned herein.

Part VII

This order shall take effect immediately and shall supersede the provisions of Executive Order No. 6986 of March 9, 1935, entitled "Documents Required of Aliens Entering the United States," but shall not supersede Executive Order No. 4049 of July 14, 1924, entitled "Documents Required of Aliens Entering the United States on Airships," or Executive Order No. 7797 of January 26, 1938, entitled "Documents Required of Bona Fide Alien Seamen Entering the United States."

FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION.

PROPERTY IMPROVEMENT LOANS UNDER TITLE I OF THE NATIONAL HOUSING ACT

The Regulations of the Federal Housing Administration, issued February 4, 1938, are hereby amended to read as follows:

Regulation No. 20

Applicable Only to New Structure Loans

Regulation No. 20 is hereby amended to read as follows:

A loan, advance of credit, or purchase of an obligation representing a loan or advance of credit, not in excess of $2,500, exclusive of financing charges to the borrower and including the cost of architectural and engineering services, will be eligible for insurance if it is made to finance the building of a new structure. If such new structure is intended for use in whole or in part for residential purposes, the following conditions must be complied with:

1. Such new structure shall be erected in conformity with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations, including codes, zoning ordinances, and health regulations.

2. Foundations.—(a) All foundations shall be of masonry pier or wall construction.

(b) Foundations shall be carried below the frost line prevailing in the neighborhood.

(c) No wood construction shall be less than 18 inches from the ground in unexcavated portions, and 8 inches from the ground on the exterior.

3. Minimum land area for any one dwelling.—(a) Minimum land area for any one dwelling shall be 4,000 square feet where public water supply and public sewer are available, except in those areas wherein there is seasonal occupancy (examples of such areas are summer camps, resort properties, and those properties not generally used as year around residences), or wherein the existing lots have been platted prior to the date of these regulations with smaller areas, in which cases there is no minimum area.

(b) Minimum area shall be 7,500 square feet where public water supply is available and private sewage disposal system (cesspool or septic tank) is used. This area may be reduced when the installation of the private sewage disposal system is in conformity with State regulations, and is approved by the local Health Officer, but, in no event, shall such area be less than 4,000 square feet.

(c) Minimum area shall be 20,000 square feet where neither public sewer nor public water supply is available. This area may be reduced when the installation of the private well and sanitary facilities are in conformity with State regulations and are approved by the local Health Officer, but in no event shall such area be less than 5,000 square feet.

4. Minimum floor area of the dwelling shall be 360 square feet. In the case of seasonal occupancy, the requirement with respect to minimum floor area need not apply.

5. Windows.—All habitable rooms, including bathrooms, must be provided with one or more windows to permit adequate natural light and ventilation.

6. Water supply.—(a) When public water supply is available, connection shall be made to public water main.

(b) When public water supply is not available, a private water supply shall be on the property and may be a drilled, driven or dug well or a natural spring.

7. Sewage disposal.—(a) When public water supply and public sewers are available, a bathroom shall be provided and running water shall be piped and connected to all fixtures and the kitchen sink and connections shall be made to public sewer main.

(b) When public water supply is available, but a public sewer is not available, a bathroom shall be provided and running water shall be piped and connected to all fixtures and the kitchen sink and a cesspool or septic tank shall be installed.

(c) When public water supply is not available, the requirements of (a) and (b) above are not applicable.

8. Outdoor toilets.—Outdoor toilets will not be permitted on lots less than 20,000 square feet in area.

9. Fire insurance.—(a) Fire insurance coverage must be obtained in an amount at least equal to the unpaid principal of the loan and must name the lending institution as beneficiary. In event of loss or damage, the proceeds of such insurance shall be payable to the lending institution and shall either be applied to the reduction of the unpaid balance of the loan or if the borrower desires to obtain the use of such proceeds for the purpose of repairing or reconstructing the damaged structure, the lending institution may release such proceeds to the borrower for such purposes.

(b) The cost of such insurance may be in addition to the maximum finance charge to the borrower permitted in Regulation No. 22, but in no event may such cost be included in the net proceeds advanced to the borrower.

(c) In areas where it is impossible to obtain full fire insurance coverage, the maximum allowed in that area will be acceptable.

10. Collateral.—It is not required that lending institutions obtain collateral security in the case of loans having a maximum final maturity of five years and thirty-two days. However, in the case of loans having a final maturity in excess of five years and thirty-two days, collateral security must be obtained in the form of a first mortgage or first deed of trust covering the property improved by the new structure, except as hereinafter provided. Such mortgage or deed of trust shall be recorded in accordance with the applicable laws of the jurisdiction, and shall represent a first lien upon the new structure and the property improved thereby, except that in the case of institutions publicly supervised and prohibited by law or regulation from advancing an amount equal to the full loan insurable under Title I of the National Housing Act, the requirement relative to collateral security may be disregarded and the taking of such security is left to the discretion of the insured institution. Recording fees and title examination charges may be in addition to the maximum finance charge to the borrower permitted in Regulation No. 22, but in no event may such cost be included in the net proceeds advanced to the borrower.

11. Prior approval.—All applications for loans to be made or purchased for the purpose of financing the building of new structures for use, in whole or in part, for residential purposes must be submitted to the local insuring office of the Federal Housing Administration for prior approval as to the proposed location of the new structure and a simple memorandum signed by the State Director and the Chief Underwriter of the Insuring Office approving the location is all that will be required. (The purpose of this requirement is to avoid placing these small houses in locations surrounded by higher priced dwellings and thus to avoid injuring other properties. The Chief Underwriters will be instructed to approve or disapprove on conformity to the neighborhood.)

12. Exceptions.—The above conditions may be varied under special circumstances and in certain areas upon prior approval of the Administrator.

Question No. 20a.—Will a loan, advance of credit, or purchase of an obligation representing a loan or advance of credit for the purpose of financing the building of a new structure, the building of which was commenced prior to February 4, 1938, be eligible for insurance?

Answer.—No. Only those loans or purchases of obligations made on and after February 4, 1938, to finance the building of new structures, the erection of which started after that date, will be eligible for insurance.

Question No. 20b.—By what means may an institution determine whether the conditions necessary for the eligibility of a new structure for residential purposes complies with the requirements set forth in this Regulation?

Answer.—The borrower must furnish the lending institution a signed Certificate of Conformance, approved as to form or supplied by the Administrator, clearly stating the necessary information from which the institution can determine whether there is conformity with the required conditions set forth in this Regulation.

The lending institution may rely upon the statements made by the borrower on his signed Certificate of Conformance and need not make any further investigation.

Question No. 20c.—What type of new structure other than those designed in whole or in part for residential purposes are eligible for building with the proceeds of an insured loan as contemplated by this Regulation?

Answer.—Any building which represents an improvement to the realty may be built with the proceeds of an insured loan. Examples of such buildings are barns, wayside stands, garages, and similar rural, commercial or industrial buildings.

Regulation No. 21

Applicable Only to Loans for New Structures for Residential Use

Regulation No. 21 is amended to read as follows:

Loans or advances of credit, or purchases of obligations representing loans or advances of credit, not in excess of $2,500, exclusive of financing charges to the borrower, and including the cost of architectural and engineering services, if any, for the purpose of financing the building of new structures intended for use, in whole or in part, for residential purposes will be eligible for insurance if they have a final maturity not in excess of seven years and thirty-two days.

Regulation No. 22

Applicable Only to Loans for New Structures for Residential Use

Regulation No. 22 is hereby amended to read as follows:

A note for residential construction will be eligible for insurance only if the total payment to be made by the borrower for interest, discount, and fees of all kinds (except fire insurance costs, recording fees, and title examination charges as authorized in Regulation No. 20) in connection with the transaction is not in excess of an amount equivalent to $3.50 discount for $100 original face amount of a one year note to be paid in equal monthly installments, calculated from the date of the note. This charge is a permitted maximum and not a mandatory rate, and a loan at any lower rate is eligible for insurance, and such charge correctly based on tables of calculations issued by the Federal Housing Administrator is deemed to comply with this regulation.

The Regulations and Questions and Answers contained herein are hereby declared to be effective as of the date hereof and shall have the same force and effect as if included in and made a part of each contract of insurance on the date such contract was originally executed. The Questions and Answers shall have the same force and effect as the Regulations interpreted thereby.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of March, 1938.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

[Docket No. 3377]

IN THE MATTER OF MIAMI WHOLESALE DRUG CORPORATION, A CORPORATION; ITS OFFICERS AS FOLLOWS: ARTHUR S. LAVINE, PRESIDENT, VIVIAN L. KING, VICE PRESIDENT, SAM S. LAVINE, TREASURER, AND RODNEY S. PULLEN, JR., ARTHUR S. LAVINE, SAM S. LAVINE, VIVIAN L. KING, ESTHER S. KING, AND ELIZABETH R. KING, INDIVIDUALS DOING BUSINESS UNDER THE TRADE NAME MIAMI MAGAZINE

COMPLAINT

The Federal Trade Commission having reason to believe that the parties respondent named in the caption hereof, since June 19, 1936, have violated and are now violating the provisions of Section 2 (f) of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," approved October 15, 1914 (the Clayton Act), as amended by Section One of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to amend Section 2 of the Act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C., title 15, sec. 13), and for other purposes," approved June 19, 1936, (the Robinson-Patman Act), hereby issues this its Complaint against respondents and states its charges with respect thereto as follows, to wit:

PARAGRAPH 1. The respondent, Miami Wholesale Drug Corporation, is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida, having an office and principal place of business in Miami, Florida. It is now, and for several years last past has been, engaged in the wholesale drug business.

The individual respondents, Arthur S. Lavine, Vivian L. King, and Sam S. Lavine, are President, Vice President, and Treasurer, respectively, of the respondent corporation.

Respondent Rodney S. Pullen, Jr., is in active charge of the management of the business of the respondent corporation as well as the business conducted under the trade name Miami Magazine.

In the course and conduct of the wholesale drug business of the respondent corporation as aforesaid, goods, wares and merchandise are purchased from manufacturers and sellers located in the various States of the United States, pursuant to which purchases the said goods, wares and merchandise are shipped and transported to the respondent corporation from the States in which the various manufacturers and sellers are located, and the respondent corporation causes said goods, wares and merchandise so purchased to be sold, shipped, and distributed, to other wholesalers and to retailers residing in the various States of the United States.

There are other corporations, partnerships, firms, and individuals, engaged in the wholesale drug business, who purchase goods, wares and merchandise from manufacturers and sellers thereof, pursuant to which said purchases, goods, wares and merchandise are shipped and distributed into and through the various States of the United States to the respective purchasers thereof, and with such corporations, partnerships, firms, and individuals, the respondent corporation and its customers are, and at all times mentioned herein have been, in competition.

PAR. 2. In the course and conduct of the business as hereinabove described, the respondent corporation, with the active cooperation, aid and assistance of the individual respondents, adopted, follows, and pursues a purchasing policy and practice designed and intended to induce favorable discriminatory prices for the respondent corporation in its purchases of goods, wares and merchandise of like grade and quality to those purchased by competing purchasers. Pursuant to, and in furtherance of, the said purchasing plan and policy, the parties respondent cause a magazine to be published under the trade name "Miami Magazine." Manufacturers and sellers are persuaded and induced to enter into contracts or agreements authorizing advertisements to be inserted in the said magazine, which contracts or agreements either provide, or it is understood, and so carried out, that the charges made for said advertisements shall be credited on the purchase price of the goods, wares and merchandise purchased by the respondent corporation from such manufacturers and sellers. Many of such contracts or agreements have been so induced, entered into, and executed since June 19, 1936.

The publication of the aforesaid magazine by the parties respondent is not an independent business operated in good faith on a profit basis, but is a subterfuge operated solely as an incident to the wholesale drug business engaged in by the respondent corporation, for the purpose of obtaining the discriminations in price as aforesaid. The said magazine has no substantial value as an advertising medium, and there are no substantial benefits and considerations accruing to manufacturers and sellers for the credits, discounts, and allowances made on purchases of goods, wares and merchandise by the respondent corporation by virtue of the contracts and agreements for advertising space therein.

The discriminations in price thus obtained are substantial, amounting to differentials in favor of respondent of from 33⅓% to 50% over other wholesalers competing with respondent and with customers of respondent; enable respondent to offer and sell, and respondent does offer and sell, to other wholesalers at prices lower than competitors of respondent's said wholesaler customers can purchase the same commodities, or commodities of like grade and quality, from the manufacturers thereof; and enable respondent and its said wholesaler customers to offer and sell, and they do offer and sell, said commodities to retailers at prices lower than other wholesalers competing with respondent and its said customers can profitably sell such commodities to retailers.

PAR. 3. The effect of the aforesaid discriminations in price, induced and received by the respondents, has been, and may be, substantially to lessen competition and tend to create a monopoly in the sale and distribution of drug products, and to injure, destroy, and prevent competition between and among the respondent and its customers, on the one hand, and their competitors, on the other hand, and between and among customers of each.

PAR. 4. The foregoing alleged acts of the respondents are in violation of Section 2 (f) of said Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936, entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," approved October 15, 1914, (the Clayton Act), as amended by Section One of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to amend Section 2 of the Act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C., title 15, sec. 13), and for other purposes," approved June 19, 1936, (the Robinson-Patman Act).

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission, on this 11th day of April, A. D., 1938, now issues this, its complaint against the parties respondent named in the caption hereof, stating its charges as hereinabove set out.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given the parties respondent named herein, that the 20th day of May, A. D., 1938, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violation of the law charged in the complaint.

The parties respondent are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of Practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule VII) provide as follows:

In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a short and simple statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.

* * * * *

Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided or failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further hearing or notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint, and to make, enter, issue, and serve upon respondent findings of fact and an order to cease and desist.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the charges set forth in the complaint and not to contest the proceeding, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of the complaint to be true. Any such answer shall be deemed to waive a hearing thereon, and to authorize the Commission, without trial and without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to make, enter, issue, and serve upon respondent:

(a) In cases arising under Section 5 of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, entitled "An Act to create a Federal Trade Commission, to define its powers and duties, and for other purposes" (the Federal Trade Commission Act), or under Sections 2 and 3 of the Act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes" (the Clayton Act), or under Section 2 of the aforesaid Clayton Act as amended by "An Act to amend Section 2 of the act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C., title 15, sec. 13), and for other purposes," approved June 19, 1936, (the Robinson-Patman Act), findings of fact and an order to cease and desist from the violations of law charged in the complaint.

In witness whereof, the Federal Trade Commission has caused this, its complaint to be signed by its Secretary, and its official seal to be hereto affixed, at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of April, A. D. 1938.

By the Commission.

STANDARDS FOR NAVAJO, PUEBLO, AND HOPI SILVER AND TURQUOISE PRODUCTS

MARCH 3, 1937.

Subject to the detailed requirements that follow, the Government stamp shall be affixed only to work individually produced and to work entirely hand-made. No object produced under conditions resembling a bench-work system, and no object in whose manufacture any power-driven machinery has been used, shall be eligible for the use of the Government stamp.

In detail, Indian silver objects, to merit the Government stamp of genuineness, must meet the following specifications:

(1) Material.—Silver slugs of 1 ounce weight or other silver objects may be used, provided their fineness is at least 900; and provided further, that no silver sheet shall be used. Unless cast, the slug or other object is to be hand hammered to thickness and shape desired. The only exceptions here are pins on brooches or similar objects; ear screws for ear rings; backs for tie clasps and chain, which may be of silver of different fineness and mechanically made.

(2) Dies.—Dies used are to be entirely hand-made, with no tool more mechanical than hand tools and vice. Dies shall contain only a single element of the design.

(3) Application of dies.—Dies are to be applied to the object with the aid of nothing except hand tools.

(4) Applique elements in design.—All such parts of the ornament are to be hand-made. If wire is used, it is to be hand-made with no tool other than a hand-made draw plate. These requirements apply to the boxes for stone used in the design.

(5) Stone for ornamentation.—In addition to turquoise, the use of other local stone is permitted. Turquoise, if used, must be genuine stone, uncolored by any artificial means.

(6) Cutting of stone.—All stone used, including turquoise, is to be hand-cut and polished. This permits the use of hand- or foot-driven wheels.

(7) Finish.—All silver is to be hand polished.

For the present the Arts and Crafts Board reserves to itself the sole right to determine what silver, complying with the official standards, shall be stamped with the Government mark.

REGULATIONS FOR USE OF GOVERNMENT MARK ON NAVAJO, PUEBLO, AND HOPI SILVER

The following regulations governing the use of Government trade marks of genuineness and quality for Indian products are promulgated pursuant to sections 2 and 3 of the act of August 27, 1935 (49 Stat. 891; U. S. C., title 25, secs. 305a, 305b).

The use of Government trade marks in an unauthorized manner, or the colorable imitation of such marks, is subject to the criminal penalties imposed by section 5 of the said act.

1. All dies used to mark silver will be provided by and owned by the Indian Arts and Crafts Board.

2. For the present the Indian Arts and Crafts Board reserves to itself the sole right to judge what silver complying with its standards shall bear the Government mark. All such marking of silver shall, for the present, be done by an agent of the Indian Arts and Crafts Board.

3. No piece of silver, though made in compliance with the standards set forth by the Indian Arts and Crafts Board, shall bear the Government mark unless:

(a) Its weight is substantially in accord with Indian usage and custom.

(b) Its design elements are substantially in accord with Indian usage and tradition.

(c) Its workmanship is substantially that expected in good hand craftmanship.

4. Dies are marked with name of tribe. A Navajo stamp will be used where the maker is a Navajo Indian; similarly, for Zuni, Hopi, and Rio Grande Pueblo.

5. All dies will be numbered, and each wholesaler or dealer will be held responsible for any violation of standards in silver that bears his mark. Until such time as the Board relinquishes its sole right to mark silver, the responsibility of the dealer for whom silver is marked will be confined to misrepresentations as to quality of silver and of stones used for ornament and to methods of production.

6. In addition to silver currently made in compliance with the standards of the Indian Arts and Crafts Board, other silver products made prior to the promulgation of these regulations may be stamped, provided the maker thereof is known to be an Indian, and the product satisfies the requirements in paragraph 3.

7. Any dealer offering for sale silver bearing the Government mark may, if he wishes, attach to silver so marked a label or ticket calling attention to the Government mark.

8. Every dealer offering for sale silver bearing the Government mark shall display in a prominent place a placard setting forth the standards and these regulations, such placard to be furnished by the Indian Arts and Crafts Board.

Promulgated by the Indian Arts and Crafts Board on March 10, 1937.

REGULATIONS FOR USE OF GOVERNMENT CERTIFICATE OF GENUINENESS FOR NAVAJO ALL-WOOL WOVEN FABRICS

The following regulations governing the use of Government trade-marks of genuineness and quality for Indian products are promulgated pursuant to sections 2 and 3 of the act of August 27, 1935 (49 Stat., 891; U. S. C., title 25, secs. 305a, 305b).

The use of Government trade-marks in an unauthorized manner, or the colorable imitation of such marks, is subject to the criminal penalties imposed by section 5 of the said act, which provides:

Any person who shall counterfeit or colorably imitate any Government trade-mark used or devised by the Board as provided in section 305a of this chapter, or shall, except as authorized by the Board, affix any such Government trade-mark, or shall knowingly, willfully, and corruptly affix any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation thereof upon any products, Indian or otherwise, or to any labels, signs, prints, packages, wrappers, or receptacles intended to be used upon or in connection with the sale of such products, or any person who shall knowingly make any false statement for the purpose of obtaining the use of any such Government trade-mark, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be enjoined from further carrying on the act or acts complained of and shall be subject to a fine not exceeding $2,000, or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both such fine and imprisonment (U. S. Code, title 25, sec. 305d).

1. Government certificates of genuineness for Navajo all-wool woven fabrics may be affixed to fabrics meeting the conditions specified in section 3 of these regulations by persons duly authorized to affix such certificates, under license issued by the Indian Arts and Crafts Board.

2. A license may be granted to any person desiring to use the Government certificate of genuineness for Navajo all-wool woven fabrics who shall make application therefor and shall execute a contract acceptable to the Indian Arts and Crafts Board providing for the use of such certificates in conformity with these regulations, which contract shall be accompanied by an indemnity bond acceptable to the Indian Arts and Crafts Board, in the amount of $500, conditioned upon faithful performance of such contract.

3. No fabric may carry the Government certificate of genuineness for Navajo all-wool woven fabrics unless all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The fabric is made entirely of local wool that is locally hand-spun and is entirely woven on a native Navajo loom;

(b) The fabric is made by a member of the Navajo Tribe working under conditions not resembling a workshop or factory system;

(c) The size and weight of the fabric are indicated in the certificate;

(d) The licensee dates and signs the certificate.

4. Each licensee will be furnished, upon payment of the registration and license fees hereinafter specified, one hand seal press and a supply of blank Government certificates, which shall be used only in accordance with this license, and shall remain at all times the property of the Board.

5. Each licensee shall pay a registration fee of $2, together with a license fee which shall be determined on the basis of $1 for each 40 Government certificates ordered by the licensee from the Board.

6. In the event that complaint is made to the Board that any provision of any license or of these regulations has been violated by any licensee, the Board may suspend the license and all authority conferred thereby, in its discretion, for a period of 30 days, by notifying the licensee of such suspension, by mail, by telegraph, or in any other manner.

7. In the event that the Board, after giving a licensee written notice of charges and affording an opportunity to reply to such charges, orally or in writing, is satisfied that any provision of any license or of these regulations has been violated by any licensee, the Board may revoke the license by notifying the licensee of such revocation, by mail, by telegraph, or in any other manner. Upon notice of such revocation all authority conferred by the license so revoked shall forthwith terminate, but the validity of actions taken while the license was in force shall not be affected.

8. Any license may be surrendered by the licensee at any time by surrendering to the Board the Government hand seal press and unused certificates of genuineness entrusted to the licensee, accompanied by a copy of the license marked "surrendered" and signed by the licensee. Such surrender shall take effect as of the time that such property and document have been received by the Board.

9. Each license shall be in effect from the date of execution thereof and until 1 year thereafter, unless sooner surrendered or canceled in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

10. Certificates shall be fastened to the woven fabric by wire caught in a lead seal disc that shall be impressed and made fast with the hand seal press furnished by the Indian Arts and Crafts Board.

11. When the certificate is first applied, the lower of the two spaces provided for the purpose shall be dated and signed. In the event that the ultimate retailer of any fabric so marked is not the person who originally attached the certificates, that ultimate retailer, if duly licensed under section 2 of these regulations, may date and sign the upper of the two spaces provided for the purpose and may, if he so desires, detach the original date and signature.

12. Certificates may be attached only to products which are in the ownership or possession of the licensee. Certificates will be consecutively numbered and records of the allocation of such certificates will be maintained by the Indian Arts and Crafts Board. Each licensee will be held responsible for the proper use of such certificates and of the Government hand seal press furnished to such licensee.

Promulgated by the Indian Arts and Crafts Board on June 15, 1937.

Watershed of the Kern River—
Wallace Lake and the stream flowing out of it for a distance of 300 yards below the lake.
Kern River between the junction of Rattlesnake Creek and the Big Arroyo.
All waters of the Kern watershed until July 1, 1938.

The following parts of all streams and lakes within the park are also closed to fishing:

All lakes within 300 feet of the inlet or outlet.
All streams connected with any lake shall be closed for a distance of 300 feet from either the inlet or the outlet of the lake.
Where any stream connecting two lakes in one-fourth mile or less in length, the entire stream shall be closed to fishing.

Open season.—May 1 to October 31, 1938:

All waters in the park which are open to fishing except the waters in the Kern watershed, Hamilton Lake, and Tamarack Lake, which are open from July 1, to October 31, only. July 1 to October 31, 1938: All waters in the Kern watershed, Hamilton Lake, Tamarack Lake.

Limit of catch.—The limit of catch shall be 15 fish per day, caught or in possession, or 7 pounds and one fish, in all waters of the park, except Wolverton Reservoir, where a special limit of 5 fish regardless of size shall apply.

Possession of more than one day's catch limit by any one person at any time shall be construed as a violation of this regulation.

Fishing license.—A California State fishing license is required of all persons 18 years of age or over fishing in the park.

All previous subsidiary regulations relating to fishing in Sequoia National Park are hereby repealed.

[Docket No. A-69 O-69]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING IN INTERSTATE AND FOREIGN COMMERCE, AND SUCH HANDLING AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE, OF CANTALOUPES GROWN IN IMPERIAL COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, AND IN YUMA COUNTY, ARIZONA

Whereas, under Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended and as reenacted by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling in interstate and foreign commerce, and such handling as directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce, of cantaloupes grown in Imperial County, California, and in Yuma County, Arizona;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations, notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of such cantaloupes in the Barbara Worth Hotel, El Centro, California, on April 22, 1938, at 10:00 a. m.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of the handling in interstate and foreign commerce, and such handling as directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce, of cantaloupes grown in Imperial County, California, and in Yuma County, Arizona. Among other things, the proposed marketing agreement and proposed order provide for: (a) the establishment of a Control Committee, (b) regulation of shipments by size, and (c) expenses of administration, and other matters relating to the handling of cantaloupes in said counties.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of cantaloupes in the aforesaid area which requires a shorter period of notice than fifteen (15) days; and it is hereby determined that the period of notice given is reasonable under the circumstances.

Copies of the proposed marketing agreement and proposed order may be inspected in or procured from the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

[Docket No. A-70 0-70]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND A PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF FRESH PRUNES GROWN IN UMATILLA COUNTY IN THE STATE OF OREGON, AND IN WALLA WALLA AND COLUMBIA COUNTIES IN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Whereas under Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended and as reenacted by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling in interstate and foreign commerce, and such handling as directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce, of fresh prunes grown in Umatilla County in the State of Oregon, and in Walla Walla and Columbia Counties in the State of Washington;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations, notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating such handling of fresh prunes grown in Umatilla County in the State of Oregon, and in Walla Walla and Columbia Counties in the State of Washington, in the auditorium of the Milton City Hall, Milton, Oregon, on May 3, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling in interstate and foreign commerce, and such handling as directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce, of fresh prunes grown in Umatilla County in the State of Oregon, and in Walla Walla and Columbia Counties in the State of Washington. Among other things, the proposed marketing agreement and order provide for: (a) the establishment of a Control Committee, (b) regulation of shipments by volume, (c) grade and size regulation of shipments, (d) posting and filing of prices by handlers, (e) expenses of administration, and other matters relating to the handling of fresh prunes grown in Umatilla County in the State of Oregon, and in Walla Walla and Columbia Counties in the State of Washington.

Copies of the proposed marketing agreement and proposed order may be inspected in or procured from the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

RULES UNDER SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED

RULES FOR THE REGULATION OF SHORT-SELLING

These rules were adopted pursuant to authority conferred upon the Securities and Exchange Commission by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, particularly Sections 3 (b), 10 (a), and 23 (a) thereof. The rules apply to short-selling of securities on National Securities Exchanges. Rule X-3B-3 defines the term "short-selling". Rule X-10A-1 prohibits short-selling under certain circumstances and is applicable to all persons whether members of national securities exchanges or the public. Rule X-10A-2 is applicable only to members of national securities exchanges and is designed to prohibit the borrowing of securities for deliveries against "long" sales. The following amendment, adopted April 8, 1938, makes available to certain arbitrage transactions a limited exemption from the price restrictions of the rule.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, deeming it necessary for the exercise of the functions vested in it and necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors so to do, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly Sections 10 (a) and 23 (a) thereof, hereby amends paragraph (d) of the Rule X-10A-1 by striking out the word "or" before the figure "(6)" and by inserting immediately before the period at the end thereof a semicolon and the following:

"or (7) any sale of a security for a special arbitrage account by a person who then owns another security by virtue of which he is, or presently will be, entitled to acquire an equivalent number of securities of the same class as the securities sold; provided such sale, or the purchase which such sale offsets, is effected for the bona fide purpose of profiting from a current difference between the price of the security sold and the security owned and that such right of acquisition was originally attached to or represented by another security or was issued to all holders of any class of securities of the issuer"

Paragraph (d) of Rule X-10A-1 as amended, reads as follows:

"(d) The provisions of paragraph (a) hereof shall not apply to (1) any sale by any person, for an account in which he has an interest, if such person owns the security sold and intends to deliver such security as soon as is possible without undue inconvenience or expense; (2) any member in respect of a sale, for an account in which he has no interest, pursuant to an order to sell which is marked 'long'; (3) any sale of an odd-lot; (4) any sale by an odd-lot dealer to offset odd-lot orders of customers; (5) any sale by an odd-lot dealer to liquidate a long position which is less than a round lot, provided such sale does not change the position of such odd-lot dealer by more than the unit of trading; (6) any sale of a security on a national securities exchange effected with the approval of such exchange which is necessary to equalize the price of such security thereon with the current price of such security on another national securities exchange which is the principal exchange market for such security; or (7) any sale of a security for a special arbitrage account by a person who then owns another security by virtue of which he is, or presently will be, entitled to acquire an equivalent number of securities of the same class as the securities sold; provided such sale, or the purchase which such sale offsets, is effected for the bona fide purpose of profiting from a current difference between the price of the security sold and the security owned and that such right of acquisition was originally attached to or represented by another security or was issued to all the holders of any class of securities of the issuer."

The foregoing amendment shall be effective immediately.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF NORTHEASTERN WATER AND ELECTRIC CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A declaration pursuant to section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by Northeastern Water and Electric Corporation relating to the issuance by it of a $500,000 promissory note to Chemical Bank & Trust Co., payable $100,000 in 1 year, $100,000 in 2 years, and $300,000 in 3 years, with interest of 2% on the $100,000 payable in 1 year, 3% on the $100,000 payable in 2 years and 3½% on the $300,000 payable in 3 years and it appearing that the matters involved are intimately connected with those involved in an application by the declarant under Section 10 (a) (1) to acquire 9,600 shares of the common stock of Hazleton Water Company on which a hearing has been ordered for April 25, 1938, and it further appearing that it is desirable that both the declaration and the application be heard together.

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on April 25, 1938, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Edward C. Johnson or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer.

IN THE MATTER OF JESSE ENGLE AND HARRY PHILIP ENGLE, DOING BUSINESS AS ENGLE & ENGLE, HOLDEN BUILDING, PORT JERVIS, NEW YORK

ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION

Jesse Engle and Harry Philip Engle, doing business as Engle & Engle, a partnership, hereinafter called the registrant, having filed with the Commission on July 2, 1935, an application for registration on Form 1-M pursuant to Rule MA2 of the rules then governing the over-the-counter markets; and the said registration having become effective on January 1, 1936, in accordance with the Commission's rules and regulations; and the said registrant having become registered under Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, by virtue of the provisions of Section 10 of the Act of Congress approved May 27, 1936, providing for the registration of over-the-counter brokers and dealers; and

The Commission having reasonable grounds to believe that the said registrant has willfully violated the provisions of Section 17 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, Section 8 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule MB2 of the rules and regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; and having further reasonable grounds to believe that it is in the public interest to revoke the said registration; and

The said registrant, through its general partner, Jesse Engle, on April 4, 1938, having consented in writing to the revocation of said registration and having waived notice and opportunity for hearing in connection therewith, and the Commission having duly considered the matter and being fully advised in the premises;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that the registration of Jesse Engle and Harry Philip Engle, doing business as Engle & Engle, as a broker and dealer transacting business on the over-the-counter markets be and the same is hereby revoked.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] FRANCIS P. BRASSOR, Secretary.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

WITHDRAWAL OF PUBLIC LAND FOR USE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Louisiana

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the act of June 25, 1910, ch. 421, 36 Stat. 847, as amended by the act of August 24, 1912, ch. 369, 37 Stat. 497, it is ordered as follows:

SECTION 1. Executive Order No. 6964 of February 5, 1935, as amended, temporarily withdrawing certain lands for classification and other purposes, is hereby revoked in so far as it affects the following-described public land in Claiborne Parish, Louisiana:

LOUISIANA MERIDIAN

T. 22 N., R. 4 W., sec. 2, SE¼NE¼, 40 acres.

SECTION 2. Subject to the conditions expressed in the above-mentioned acts and to all valid existing rights, the vacant, unappropriated, and unreserved public land described in section 1 of this order is hereby temporarily withdrawn from settlement, location, sale, and entry, and reserved and set apart for use and development by the Department of Agriculture for reforestation, forestation, soil erosion control, and other land utilization activities, in connection with the Claiborne Parish Project, LA-LA-2: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall restrict prospecting, locating, developing, mining, entering, leasing, or patenting the mineral resources of the land under the applicable laws.

SECTION 3. The reservation made by section 2 of this order shall remain in force until revoked by the President or by act of Congress.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,

EXECUTIVE ORDER

TRANSFER OF JURISDICTION OVER CERTAIN LANDS FROM THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE TO THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

WHEREAS certain lands, together with the improvements thereon, largely contiguous or in close proximity to existing Indian Reservations, have been, or are in the process of being, acquired in connection with the projects hereinafter designated, under authority of Title II of the National Industrial Recovery Act of June 16, 1933 (48 Stat. 200), the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of April 8, 1935 (49 Stat. 115), and section 55 of Title I of the act of August 24, 1935, 49 Stat. 750, 781; and

WHEREAS it appears that the transfer of jurisdiction over such lands from the Secretary of Agriculture to the Secretary of the Interior for administrative purposes would be in the public interest:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me under the aforesaid National Industrial Recovery Act, the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, and the act of August 24, 1935, it is hereby ordered that jurisdiction over the lands within the hereinafter-described areas, together with the improvements thereon, acquired or in the process of acquisition by the United States in connection with the hereinafter-designated projects, be, and it is hereby, transferred from the Secretary of Agriculture to the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, however, that the Secretary of Agriculture shall retain such jurisdiction over the lands now in process of acquisition by the United States as may be necessary to enable him to complete the purchase of such lands; and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized (1) to administer, through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, such lands for the uses for which they were, or are in the process of being, acquired, and, insofar as consistent with such uses, for the benefit of such Indians as he may designate, (2) in connection with the administration of such lands to exercise all powers and functions, insofar as they may relate to these lands, conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by Executive Order No. 7530 of December 31, 1936, and Executive Order No. 7557 of February 19, 1937, and (3) to prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this order:

DUTIES PROCLAIMED IN CONNECTION WITH TRADE AGREEMENT WITH CZECHOSLOVAKIA

MODIFICATION

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, April 15, 1938.

The Honorable HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: I refer to my letters addressed to you on March 15, and April 6, 1938, concerning the application of duties proclaimed in connection with trade agreements concluded under the authority of the Act to amend the Tariff Act of 1930, approved June 12, 1934 (48 Stat. 943), as extended by the Joint Resolution approved March 1, 1937 (50 Stat. 24).

In so far as the above-mentioned letters of March 15, 1938 and April 6, 1938, refer to duties proclaimed in connection with the trade agreement signed on March 7, 1938 with Czechoslovakia, the said letters are hereby modified to refer to duties proclaimed in connection with the said trade agreement as amended by a Protocol of Amendment signed on April 15, 1938, with Czechoslovakia, proclaimed today.

You will please cause notice of this modification to be published in an early issue of the weekly Treasury Decisions.

Sincerely yours,

[SEAL] FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH REFERENCE TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS NO. 5, RELATING TO LABELING AND ADVERTISING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS

REVISION OF THE STANDARDS OF IDENTITY FOR BRANDY

APRIL 16, 1938.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended:

Notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held on Wednesday, April 27, 1938, at 10 A. M., and Monday, May 2, 1938, at 10 A. M., at The Mayflower Hotel, Connecticut Avenue and DeSales Street, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of taking evidence with reference to the following proposed amendments to Regulations No. 5, Relating to Labeling and Advertising of Distilled Spirits:

1. To amend Article II, Section 21, and other pertinent sections of the regulations, in such manner as to provide—

(a) That any brandy distilled from dried or otherwise processed fruit, or from waste or residual fruit products, or from the waste or residue of fermentation or distillation, shall bear a designation indicating the nature of the distilling material, e. g. "raisin brandy," "pomace brandy," "lees brandy," "dried apricot brandy" or "grappa brandy";

(b) That all brandy distilled at more than 160° proof shall bear, as a part of the designation, the qualifying words "industrial", "fortifying", or similar words, e. g. "industrial grape brandy", "fortifying raisin brandy", "industrial pomace brandy" or "fortifying apple brandy"; and

(c) That no brandy shall bear the unqualified designations "brandy" or "grape brandy", or the unqualified designations of any type of fresh fruit brandy, such as "peach brandy" or "apricot brandy", unless distilled at 160° proof or less, from the following—

1. Sound grape or fruit wine, manufactured on winery premises without amelioration except such amelioration as is provided for by law in the production of standard grape or fruit wines on such premises, and having, prior to the addition of water to facilitate distillation, a volatile acidity (exclusive of sulphur dioxide) not in excess of 0.14 grams per 100 cc calculated as acetic acid, and an amount of suspended material not in solution (such as sediment, lees or pomace) not in excess of 5 grams per 100 cc; or

2. The sound, clean juice of fresh fruit, or the sound, clean mash of whole fresh fruit, fermented on distillery premises, and having, prior to the addition of water to facilitate distillation, a volatile acidity (exclusive of sulphur dioxide) not in excess of 0.14 grams per 100 cc calculated as acetic acid.

[SEAL] W. S. ALEXANDER, Administrator.

SHENANDOAH NATIONAL PARK

LOCAL SUBSIDIARY REGULATIONS

The following subsidiary regulations, issued under the authority of the Rules and Regulations approved by the Secretary of the Interior June 18, 1936 (1 F. R. 672), have been recommended by the superintendent and approved by the Director of the National Park Service, and are in force and effect within the boundaries of the Shenandoah National Park.

Fishing.—All waters within the boundaries of the park on the western slope of the Blue Ridge Mountains are closed to fishing. All waters within the boundaries of the park on the eastern slope are open to fishing, subject to the following provisions:

Open season: April 20 to July 5, inclusive. No fishing will be permitted between sunset and sunrise.

Restriction as to use of bait: Fishing is permitted only with artificial bait with but one hook. Two artificial flies may be attached to the leader if desired. The use of other than artificial bait is prohibited.

Size limit: All fish caught shall be retained, regardless of size.

Limit of catch: The maximum catch in any one day and the maximum number in possession of any one person shall be 20 of any or all species.

Fishing license: The park as such does not charge for fishing license, but persons fishing in the park must have State fishing licenses issued by the State of Virginia.

Approved: April 10, 1938.

FLORENCE-CASA GRANDE IRRIGATION PROJECT

ORDER FIXING MAINTENANCE AND OPERATION CHARGES

MARCH 10, 1938.

In compliance with the provisions of the Act of May 18, 1916 (39 Stat. 123-130) and acts supplementary thereto and the agreement with the landowners commonly called the Florence-Casa Grande Landowners' Agreement, between the United States and the landowners in the Florence-Casa Grande Irrigation Project, the maintenance and operation charges assessable against the privately owned lands of the Florence-Casa Grande Irrigation Project which are not included within the San Carlos Project, are hereby fixed at $1.25 per acre for the calendar year 1938.

The charge of $1.25 per acre for each assessable acre of privately owned land shall be paid on or before March 1, 1938, and shall entitle each acre of such land to receive the quantity of water to which it is entitled in accordance with law, under the terms of the said Florence-Casa Grande Landowners' Agreement.

The San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District, operating the distribution system for delivery of water to non-Indian lands will make delivery of water and shall collect assessments due from Florence-Casa Grande Lands, and for said service the District shall be allowed 65 cents per acre on account of all lands of the Florence-Casa Grande Project so served, and the District shall pay the balance of said sum to the San Carlos Project Engineer or other proper officer.

SAN CARLOS PROJECT, ARIZONA

ORDER FIXING MAINTENANCE AND OPERATION CHARGES

MARCH 10, 1938.

In compliance with the provisions of the Act of June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 475-476) and acts supplementary thereto and the repayment contract of June 8, 1931, between the United and the San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District made pursuant to said act, the maintenance and operation charges assessable against the 50,000 acres of privately owned lands of the San Carlos project within the boundary of said San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District for the calendar year 1938, based upon a total project area of 100,000 acres under constructed works, are hereby fixed as follows:

1. A fixed or basic charge of $1.65 per acre which shall entitle each acre in the District to have delivered for use thereon two acre feet of water per acre or its proportionate share of the available water supply. This fixed or basic charge shall be paid whether or not the land is in cultivation and whether or not the landowner uses any water.

2. Fifty cents per acre foot or fraction thereof for the first acre foot of water delivered in excess of the two acre feet provided for by the basic charge and one dollar per acre foot or fraction thereof for water delivered in excess of three (3) acre feet per acre, except such free water as may be delivered in accordance with the provisions of the repayment contract whenever such free water is available.

Conditions.—The fixed or basic charge of $1.65 per acre shall be paid for each assessable acre within the San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District on or before March 1, 1938.

Payments for excess water as herein provided for shall be made at the time of request for delivery thereof.

Payments made on account of the 50,000 acres of lands within the San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District shall be paid to the Project Engineer of the Indian Irrigation Service, or other proper officer, by the San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District.

The United States will make available for expenditure on account of the maintenance and operation of this project the $1.65 per acre fixed or basic charge for the 50,000 acres of Indian land in the project, and also the charge for excess water.

The San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District upon request of its Board of Directors may continue for the period of this order to operate the canals serving lands in private and public ownership within its boundary, and in the event said District elects to continue such operation a credit of 70 cents per acre shall be allowed from the said basic charge for the area of district lands so operated and the basic charge to be paid to the Government by the District will accordingly be reduced to $0.95 per acre.

It should be understood that the provisions of this order requiring funds to be made available by the United States are dependent upon appropriations being made by Congress therefor; that the charges based upon the conditions defined shall apply to the calendar year 1938 only, and that nothing herein shall be construed as establishing a precedent for future years.

Should the San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District, through its Board of Directors, request and be granted the privilege of maintaining certain of the works of the project designated in the said repayment contract as "Works of the District," the rights and obligations of the District shall be prescribed and governed by the departmental order turning over the maintenance of such works to the District.

FLATHEAD INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, MONTANA

ORDER FIXING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

MARCH 19, 1938.

Pursuant to authority of law contained in existing legislation relative to the Flathead Irrigation Project, Montana, it is hereby ordered that the operation and maintenance assessment rates due April 1, 1938, for the calendar year 1938 and for subsequent years until further notice, for the various subdivisions of the Flathead Irrigation Project, Montana, which are not included in Irrigation Districts that have executed a suitable repayment contract with the United States, be fixed as follows:

Charges Applicable to All Irrigable Lands in the Flathead Irrigation Project but Which Are Not Included in the Irrigation District Organizations

Jocko Division

Charges for service.—A minimum charge of Ninety-five Cents (95¢) per acre will be made against all lands within the Jocko Division to which water can be delivered, whether water is used or not, this minimum charge to be credited to the account of water delivered at the following acre foot rates:

(a) For lands receiving water from the lower Jocko and Revais Creek Laterals, water will be delivered in amounts equal to one acre foot per acre for the entire irrigable area of the farm unit, allotment, or tract, at the rate of one dollar ($1) per acre foot, and additional water will be delivered at the rate of fifty cents (50¢) per acre foot.

(b) For lands receiving water from Finley, East Finley, Agency, and Big Knife Creeks, water will be delivered at the rate of seventy-five cents (75¢) per acre foot at any time during the irrigation season.

(c) And for lands receiving water from Jocko River through the Jocko K Lateral system, at the rate of fifty cents (50¢) per acre foot at any time during the irrigation season.

Mission Valley and Camas Divisions

Charges for service.—A charge of Ninety-five Cents (95¢) per acre shall be levied against all the irrigable area to which water can be delivered, whether water is used or not, and there shall be no further charge for water delivered up to one and one-half acre feet of water per irrigable acre of land included in any farm unit, allotment, or tract of land which has been assessed for operation and maintenance for that season, provided, that for all water delivered to any farm unit, allotment, or tract, in excess of the above amounts there shall be assessed a charge of seventy-five cents (75¢) per acre foot in addition to the minimum charge of ninety-five cents (95¢) per acre already levied.

General

For all areas covered by private water rights where the water is regulated by the Flathead Irrigation Project and delivered through the Flathead Irrigation Project systems, a charge of fifty cents (50¢) per acre shall be made for water delivered up to two (2) acre feet per acre, or to such quantity of water as was allowed under the private water right findings for each acre carrying a recognized private water right under the Secretary's private water right findings, and for any additional water furnished to private water right lands, whether through the project irrigation system or otherwise, a charge of one dollar ($1) per acre foot shall be made.

If at any time during the irrigation season when it shall appear, in the judgment of the Project Engineer, that there shall not be sufficient water available to deliver the amount specified under the minimum charge in this regulation to the entire irrigable area for which application for delivery of water has been made and approved, then the Project Engineer shall be authorized to reduce such amounts to the extent that there shall, in his judgment, be sufficient water available to make proportionate delivery to each farm unit, allotment, or tract, and when any farm unit, allotment, or tract shall have had delivered to it the amount so fixed, it shall not be entitled to further delivery of water except when it shall appear that there is a surplus of water available, provided that, for those tracts located in the Mission Valley and Camas Divisions of the Flathead Irrigation Project only, after an agreement has been reached between a landowner and the Project Engineer as to duty of water on individual tracts where the landowner claims excess requirements on account of porous or gravelly soils, the Project Engineer shall have authority, pending further orders, to increase the quantity of water to be delivered under the minimum charge levy to such porous or gravelly tract, provided it shall not exceed four (4) acre feet of water per acre per season for the accessible irrigable area of the tract.

In the case of lands belonging to the State of Montana, where water service is requested by lessees, delivery will be made upon payment in advance by the lessee of the same minimum charge and at the same rates, and under the same regulations, as are in force for other lands in the same general area that are not included in the Irrigation Districts.

The maximum charge for water delivered to any farm unit or allotment shall not exceed an amount equal to Two Dollars ($2) per acre for the entire irrigable area of the farm unit or allotment, and no charge for water delivered shall be less than Five Dollars ($5) for the season.

To all charges assessed against owners of patent in fee or white-owned lands not paid on July 1 following, there shall be added a penalty of one-half of one per cent (½ of 1 per cent) per month, or fraction thereof, from the due date, April 1, so long as the delinquency continues. No water shall be delivered to patent in fee or white-owned lands until such charges shall have been paid, or to trust patent lands until the Superintendent of the reservation shall have issued a statement to the Project Engineer certifying that the Indian farming such land has paid or will pay or that such Indian is financially unable to pay the charge, or in the case of such Indian trust lands as are leased, until the terms of the lease relative to the payment of water charges shall have been fulfilled.

This order supersedes the order of February 19, 1937.

DETERMINATION OF (1) NORMAL YIELD OF COMMERCIALLY RECOVERABLE SUGAR PER ACRE AND (2) ELIGIBILITY FOR PAYMENT WITH RESPECT TO ABANDONMENT AND CROP DEFICIENCY FOR FARMS IN THE MAINLAND CANE SUGAR AREA

Pursuant to the provisions of section 303 of the Sugar Act of 1937, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine:

1. That the normal yield of commercially recoverable sugar per acre for any farm in the mainland cane sugar area on which sugarcane was grown and marketed (or processed by the producer) for the extraction of sugar during the 1937-38 crop season shall be the product of the average number of hundredweights of sugar, raw value, recovered per short ton of sugarcane processed for the extraction of sugar during the 1935-36 and the 1936-37 crop seasons in the district in which the farm is located and (1) the average yield of sugarcane for sugar per acre, in short tons, for the farm during the crop years 1935 and 1936, if sugarcane for sugar was grown on the farm during both of such crop years, or (2) the average yield per acre, in short tons, of sugarcane for sugar harvested during the crop years 1935 and 1936 on similar farms in the community in which the farm is located, if sugarcane for sugar was not grown on the farm in both of such crop years.

2. That for the purposes of paragraph 1 above, a district shall be any one of the following groups of parishes or counties:

I. Iberia, Lafayette, Acadia, St. Martin, St. Mary and Vermilion parishes, Louisiana.

II. Rapides, St. Landry, Evangeline, Avoyelles and West Feliciana parishes, Louisiana.

III. Assumption, La Fourche and Terrebonne parishes, Louisiana.

IV. Ascension, Iberville, Pointe Coupee, East Baton Rouge, West Baton Rouge, St. Charles, St. James and St. John parishes, Louisiana.

V. All counties in Florida where sugarcane is grown and processed for the extraction of sugar.

3. That any farm located in a parish or county in which the actual yields of commercially recoverable sugar from the 1937 crop of sugarcane for farms comprising 10 per cent or more of the acreage of such sugarcane were 80 per cent or less of the normal yields therefor, because of drought, flood, storm, freeze, disease or insects, shall be eligible for abandonment and deficiency payments, pursuant to section 303 of the said act.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 15th day of April 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

1938 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM BULLETIN

ALASKA, HAWAII, AND PUERTO RICO

Supplement No. 1

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, paragraph C of Section VI of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin—Alaska, paragraph C of Section VI of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin—Hawaii, and paragraph D of Section IX of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin—Puerto Rico, issued March 22, 1938, are hereby amended to read as follows:

"Assignments.—Any person who may be entitled to any payment in connection with the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may assign his interest in such payment as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1938. No such assignment will be recognized unless (1) the assignment is made in writing on Form ACP-69 in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and is filed in the office of the local agricultural extension agent; (2) the farmer files with the assignment a statement that the assignment is made to pay or secure an indebtedness incurred in connection with financing the making of a crop in 1938 and not to pay or secure any preexisting indebtedness; and (3) the person to whom such assignment is made certifies that the payment is being assigned without discount for such purpose.

"Nothing in the provisions of this section shall be construed to give an assignee a right to any payment other than that to which the farmer is entitled nor shall the Secretary or any disbursing agent be subject to any suit or liability if payment is made to the farmer without regard to the existence of any such assignment."

Done at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of April, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

1938 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM BULLETIN

SUPPLEMENT NO. 7

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin, as amended February 19, 1938, is hereby amended as follows:

(1) The third of the introductory paragraphs preceding Section I is hereby amended by striking out that portion of the paragraph following the second semicolon in the first sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"and the amounts of such payments and grants of aid will necessarily be within the limits finally determined by such appropriation, the apportionment of such appropriation under the provisions of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act as amended, and the extent of national participation. Under the provisions of Section 105 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, payments under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program, based on soil-depleting crops for which special acreage allotments are established, shall be made at not less than 90 percent of the rates specified in the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin (ACP—1938) approved October 23, 1937. The rates specified herein with respect to potatoes, fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco, and Georgia-Florida Type 62 tobacco are 90 percent of the rates approved for these commodities on October 23, 1937 and, therefore, will not be decreased. As an adjustment for participation the rates of payment and deduction with respect to each other commodity or item of payment may be decreased, and the rates of payment and deduction with respect to any commodity or item of payment may be increased, by as much as 10 percent.

(2) The national goals with respect to cotton and Burley tobacco, set forth in item 1 of subsection A of Section I, are hereby revised to read as follows:

"Cotton, 27,000,000 to 29,000,000 acres.
"Tobacco: Burley, 440,000 to 460,000 acres."

(3) Item 2 of subsection A of Section III is hereby amended to read as follows:

"2. Cotton allotment.—(a) County cotton acreage allotments shall be apportioned among the farms in the county on which cotton was planted in any one of the years 1935, 1936, and 1937, in a manner that will result in a cotton acreage allotment for each such farm which is a percentage (which shall be the same percentage for all farms in the county or administrative area) of the land in the farm in 1937 which was tilled annually or in regular rotation exclusive of the acres of such land normally devoted to the production of sugarcane for sugar, wheat, tobacco, or rice for market, or wheat or rice for feeding to livestock for market except that—

"(1) For any such farm with respect to which the highest acreage planted to cotton and diverted from the production of cotton in any one of the three years 1935, 1936, and 1937, is five acres or less, the cotton acreage allotment for the farm shall be such highest number of acres if the county cotton acreage allotment is sufficient therefor;

"(2) For any such farm with respect to which the highest number of acres planted to cotton and diverted from the production of cotton in any one of the three years 1935, 1936, and 1937, is more than five acres, the allotment for the farm shall not be less than five acres if the county cotton acreage allotment is sufficient therefor;

"(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (a), a number of acres equal to not more than 3 percent of the county acreage allotment in excess of the allotments made to farms on which the highest number of acres planted to cotton plus the acres diverted from the production of cotton in any of the years 1935, 1936, and 1937, was five acres or less and the number of acres required for allotments of five acres for each other farm in the county on which cotton was planted in 1935, 1936, or 1937 may be apportioned among farms in the county on which cotton was planted in 1935, 1936, or 1937, and for which the allotment otherwise provided is five acres or more but less than 15 acres and less than the highest number of acres planted to cotton and diverted from the production of cotton in any one of the years 1935, 1936, and 1937.

In making such allotments under clause (3) in the preceding sentence consideration shall be given to the land, labor, and equipment available for the production of cotton, crop rotation practices, and the soil and other facilities affecting the production of cotton, and such increases shall not be such as to increase the allotment to any farm above 15 acres. In no event shall the allotment for any farm under this paragraph (a) exceed the highest number of acres planted to cotton and diverted from the production of cotton in any one of the three years 1935, 1936, and 1937.

"(b) In case the county allotment is insufficient to provide allotments to farms in the county, which are determined, under instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, to be adequate and representative in view of their past production of cotton and their tilled land, there shall be apportioned to such farms, under instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, such part of a State reserve equal to 4 percent of the State acreage allotment as is necessary to give such farms allotments in conformity with paragraph (a) which are as nearly adequate and representative as such 4-percent reserve will permit. Such additional allotment shall be used first to increase allotments to farms under clauses (1) and (2) of paragraph (a).

"(c) Notwithstanding the provision of paragraph (a) above the cotton acreage allotment for any farm shall be increased by such amount as may be necessary to provide an allotment of not less than 50 percent of the sum of the acreage as determined by the county committee to have been planted in cotton in 1937 and the acreage diverted from cotton production in 1937 under the agricultural conservation program provided that the cotton acreage allotment for any farm shall not be increased under this paragraph to more than 40 percent of the acreage on such farm which is tilled annually or in regular rotation.

"(d) That portion of the State acreage allotment not apportioned among the counties under Section II, subsection A, paragraph 2 (a), hereof shall be apportioned to farms in the State on which cotton will be planted in 1938 but on which cotton was not planted in any of the years 1935, 1936, and 1937, so as to result in comparable allotments to farms similar with respect to land, labor, and equipment available for the production of cotton, crop rotation practices, and the soil and other physical facilities affecting the production of cotton. The county committee shall report, through the State committee, to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration the acreage required for the allotments to such farms in the county together with much substantiating data as may be required by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, and the Agricultural Adjustment Administration shall allot to the county the proportion of that part of the State acreage allotment reserved for this purpose which it finds reasonable on the basis of the data so reported."

(4) Subsection A of Section IV is hereby amended to read as follows:

"A. Soil-depleting acreage allotments.—

"1. Cotton—2.4 cents per pound of the normal yield per acre of cotton for the farm for each acre in the cotton acreage allotment; or, if the acreage planted to cotton is less than 80 percent of the cotton acreage allotment and the county committee finds that the failure to plant 80 percent of such cotton acreage allotment was not due to flood or drought, for 125 percent of the acreage planted to cotton. The acreage planted to cotton shall be deemed to be that acreage which is seeded to cotton.

"2. Corn.—10 cents per bushel of the normal yield per acre of corn for the farm for each acre in the corn acreage allotment; or, if the acreage planted to corn is less than 80 percent of the corn acreage allotment and the county committee finds that the failure to plant 80 percent of such corn acreage allotment was not due to flood or drought, for 125 percent of the acreage planted to corn. The acreage planted to corn shall be deemed to be that acreage which is seeded to corn classified as soil-depleting (excluding (1) any acreage of sweet corn contracted to be sold for canning; (2) any acreage of sweet corn sold for canning or roasting ears; and (3) any acreage of popcorn sold as popcorn).

"3. Wheat.—12 cents per bushel of the normal yield per acre of wheat for the farm for each acre in the wheat acreage allotment; or, if the acreage planted to wheat is less than 80 percent of the wheat acreage allotment and the county committee finds that the failure to plant 80 percent of such wheat acreage allotment was not due to flood or drought, for 125 percent of the acreage planted to wheat. The acreage planted to wheat shall be deemed to be that acreage which is seeded to wheat classified as soil-depleting under subsection B of Section XIII.

"4. Tobacco.—The following number of cents per pound of the normal yield per acre of tobacco for the farm for each acre in the tobacco acreage allotment for each of the following kinds of tobacco:

(a) Burley	0.5 cent.
(b) Flue-cured	1.0 cent.
(c) Fire-cured and dark-air-cured	1.53 cents.
(d) Cigar filler and binder	1.0 cent.
(e) Georgia-Florida Type 62	1.8 cents.

Provided, That in the case of cigar filler and binder tobacco, if the acreage planted to such kind of tobacco is less than 80 percent of the acreage allotment therefor, and the county committee finds that the failure to plant 80 percent of the acreage allotment was not due to flood, drought, or plant-bed diseases, the payment shall be computed on 125 percent of the acreage planted to cigar filler and binder tobacco.

"5. Potatoes.—In early potato-producing areas, 5.4 cents, and in late potato-producing areas, 3.6 cents per bushel of the normal yield of potatoes for the farm for each acre of potatoes planted on the farm in 1938 not in excess of the potato acreage allotment. The acreage planted to potatoes shall be deemed to be that acreage which is seeded to potatoes.

"6. Peanuts.—0.2 of a cent per pound of the normal yield per acre of peanuts for the farm for each acre in the peanut acreage allotment.

"7. Rice.—0.125 of a cent per pound of the normal yield per acre of rice for the farm for each acre in the rice acreage allotment, or if the acreage planted to rice is less than 80 percent of the rice acreage allotment and the county committee finds that failure to plant 80 percent of such rice acreage allotment was not due to flood or drought, for 125 percent of the acreage planted to rice. The acreage planted to rice shall be deemed to be that acreage which is seeded to rice.

"8. General soil-depleting crops on class A farms.—$1.25 per acre, adjusted for productivity, for each acre in the total soil-depleting acreage allotment established for the farm in excess of the sum of (1) the acreages used in computing payments with respect to the corn, wheat, potato, rice, peanut, cigar filler and binder tobacco, and Georgia-Florida Type 62 tobacco acreage allotments established for the farm; (2) 1¼ times the acreages used in computing payments with respect to the cotton, flue-cured tobacco, Burley tobacco, and fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotments established for the farm; and (3) the acreage of sugar beets planted on the farm in 1938."

(5) Item 5 of subsection C of Section IV is hereby amended to read as follows:

"5. 70 cents per acre of cropland on any class B farm in excess of the sum of (1) the acreages used in computing payments with respect to the corn, wheat, potato, rice, peanut, cigar filler and binder tobacco, and Georgia-Florida Type 62 tobacco acreage allotments established for the farm; (2) 1½ times the acreages used in computing payments with respect to the cotton, flue-cured tobacco, Burley tobacco, and fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotments established for the farm; (3) the acreage of sugar beets and sugarcane for sugar planted on the farm in 1938; and (4) in the Western Region, the normal acreage of summer fallow for the farm, not in excess of the wheat acreage allotment established for the farm."

(6) Item 6 of subsection A of Section V is hereby amended to read as follows:

"6. Total soil-depleting acreage allotments.—The following applicable rate for each acre of land classified as soil-depleting in excess of the total soil-depleting acreage allotment, less the acreages for which deductions are made under items 1 to 5, inclusive, of this subsection A;

"(a) 8 times the rate of payment with respect to the wheat acreage allotment if a payment is computed for the farm under Section IV with respect to a wheat acreage allotment.

"(b) 8 times the rate of payment with respect to general soil-depleting crops if the farm is a class A farm and no payment is computed for the farm under Section IV with respect to a wheat acreage allotment.

"(c) $6.00 per acre if the farm is a class B farm and a payment is computed for the farm under Section IV with respect to a cotton, corn, tobacco, peanut, potato or rice acreage allotment but no payment is computed for the farm under Section IV with respect to a wheat acreage allotment."

(7) Subsection A of Section VI is hereby amended to read as follows:

"A. Payments and deductions in connection with acreage allotments and restoration land goals.—The net payment or net deduction computed for any farm with respect to the corn, cotton, rice, wheat, tobacco, peanut, or potato acreage allotment, or general soil-depleting crops shall be divided among the landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers in the same proportion (as indicated by their acreage shares) that such persons are entitled, at the time the crop is harvested, to share in the proceeds (other than a fixed commodity payment) of the corn, cotton, rice, wheat, tobacco, peanuts, potatoes, or general crops, respectively, grown on the farm in 1938.

"The net payment or net deduction computed for any farm with respect to the restoration land goal shall be divided in the same proportion that any payment with respect to the wheat acreage allotment for such farm is divided among landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers, provided that if no payment is computed with respect to a wheat acreage allotment for such farm, the net payment or net deduction with respect to the restoration land goal shall be divided in the same proportion that any payment in connection with general soil-depleting crops for such farm is, or would be, divided among landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers. In the event that restoration land is designated for a farm which is not operated by a tenant in 1938, the net payment or net deduction, if any, with respect to such restoration land goal shall be attributed to the owner of such farm.

"In computing such net payments and net deductions with respect to acreage allotments, general crops, and restoration land goals, the deduction with respect to commercial vegetables (item 5, subsection A, Section V) shall be regarded as a prorata deduction with respect to the potato acreage allotment and the cigar filler (type 41) or binder (types 51, 52, and 53) tobacco acreage allotment. The total amount of deductions computed under Section V with respect to (1) soil-depleting crops grown in excess of the total soil-depleting acreage allotment (item 6, subsection A); (2) failure to prevent wind and water erosion (subsection C); and (3) breaking out of native sod (subsection D) shall be regarded (a) as prorata deductions with respect to the payments computed under Section IV in connection with the wheat acreage allotment and general soil-depleting crops on class A farms; (b) as deductions with respect to the wheat acreage allotment on class B farms for which a payment is computed under Section IV in connection with a wheat acreage allotment; (c) as prorata deductions with respect to the payments computed under Section IV in connection with crop acreage allotments and the restoration land goal on class B farms for which no payment is computed in connection with a wheat acreage allotment; or (d) as deductions with respect to the soil-building goal on class B farms for which no payment is computed under Section IV in connection with crop acreage allotments or a restoration land goal, provided, that any net amount of such deductions computed for such farms shall be divided equally among the landlords and tenants on the farm.

"In the event that corn, cotton, rice, wheat, tobacco, peanuts, potatoes, or general crops are not harvested in 1938 on the farm the net payment or net deduction, if any, with respect to the acreage allotment for such crop, or with respect to general soil-depleting crops, shall be divided among the landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers in the same proportion that the county committee determines that such persons would have shared in the proceeds of such crop(s) had such crop(s) been harvested on the farm in 1938."

(8) Section VIII is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION VIII. Deductions Incurred on Other Farms.—

"A. Other farms in the same county.—If the deductions computed under Section V with respect to any farm in a county exceed the payment for full performance on such farm computed under Section IV, a landlord's or tenant's share of the amount by which such deduction exceeds such payments shall be deducted from such landlord's or tenant's share of the payment which would otherwise be made to him with respect to any other farms in such county.

"B. Other farms in the State.—If the deductions computed for a landlord or tenant with respect to one or more farms in a county exceeds the payments computed for such landlord or tenant on other farms in such county, the amount of such excess deductions shall be deducted from the payments computed for such landlord or tenant with respect to any other farms in the State if the State committee finds that the crops grown and practices adopted on the farm with respect to which such deductions are computed substantially offset the contribution to the program made on such other farms."

(9) The first paragraph of subsection A of Section XI is hereby amended to read as follows:

"A. Payment restricted to effectuation of purposes of the program.—All or any part of any payment which otherwise would be made to any person under the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may be withheld (1) if he has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1938 or previous agricultural conservation programs, (2) if, by means of any corporation, partnership, estate, trust, or any other device, or in any manner whatsoever, he has offset, or has participated in offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance for which such payment is otherwise authorized, or (3) if, with respect to forest land or woodland owned or controlled by him, he adopts any practice which the regional director finds is contrary to sound conservation practices. If on any class B farm for which no wheat, cotton, corn, tobacco, peanut, potato, or rice acreage allotment is established, the acreage of soil-depleting crops in 1938 is in excess of 50 acres and in excess of the total soil-depleting acreage allotment, the deduction provided in paragraph 6 (c) of subsection A of Section V shall be applicable to such farm if the county committee determines that the increase in soil-depleting crops was not due to the rotation of crops normally followed on the farm. No payment, other than a payment in connection with the restoration land goal, shall be computed with respect to any farm which is idle in 1938."

(10) Subsection D of Section XI is hereby amended to read as follows:

"D. Assignments.—Any person who may be entitled to any payment in connection with the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program may assign his interest in such payment as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1938. No such assignment will be recognized unless (1) the assignment is made in writing on Form ACP-69 in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, and is filed in the office of the county agricultural conservation association; (2) the farmer files with the assignment a statement that the assignment is made to pay or secure an indebtedness incurred in connection with financing the making of a crop in 1938 and not to pay or secure any preexisting indebtedness; and (3) the person to whom such assignment is made certifies that the payment is being assigned without discount for such purpose.

"Nothing contained in this Section XI shall be construed to give an assignee a right to any payment other than that to which the farmer is entitled nor shall the Secretary or any disbursing agent be subject to any suit or liability if payment is made to the farmer without regard to the existence of any such assignment."

(11) Item 3 of subsection A of Section XIII is hereby amended to read as follows:

"3. Grain sorghums (except when a good stand and a good growth of such crops is used as a green manure crop in areas in Texas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration as areas affected by cotton root rot)."

(12) Items 1 and 2 of subsection A of Section XV are hereby amended to read as follows:

"1. Cotton.—

"(a) Where reliable records of the actual average yield of cotton per acre for the years 1933 to 1937, inclusive, are presented by the farmer or are available to the committee, the normal yield for the farm shall be the average of such yields adjusted for abnormal weather conditions in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

"(b) If for any year of such five-year period records of the actual average yield are not available or there was no actual yield because cotton was not planted on the farm in such year, the normal yield for the farm shall be the yield which, on the basis of all available facts, including the yield customarily secured on the farm, weather conditions, type of soil, drainage, production practices, and general fertility of the land, the county committee determines to be the yield which was or could reasonably have been expected on the farm for such five-year period.

"(c) The yields determined under paragraph (b) of this subdivision 1 shall be adjusted so that the average of the normal yields determined for all farms in the county or administrative area (weighted by the cotton acreage allotments established for such farms) shall conform to the county (or administrative area) average yield established by the Secretary.

"2. Corn and wheat.—

"(a) Where reliable records of the actual average yield per acre of corn or wheat, as the case may be, for the years 1928 to 1937, inclusive, are presented by the farmer or are available to the committee, the normal yield for the farm shall be the average of such yields adjusted for trends and abnormal weather conditions in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

"(b) If for any year of such ten-year period reliable records of the actual average yield are not available or there was no actual yield because the commodity was not planted on the farm in such year, the normal yield for the farm shall be the yield which, on the basis of all the available facts, including the yield customarily secured on the farm, weather conditions, type of soil, drainage, production practices, and general fertility of the land, the county committee determines to be the yield which was or could reasonably have been expected on the farm for such ten-year period. Where the productivity index most recently established for the farm in connection with the agricultural conservation programs is determined by the county committee to be an accurate reflection of the foregoing factors, the yield obtained by multiplying such index by the county average yield established by the Secretary shall be used as the normal yield for the farm.

"(c) The yields determined under paragraph (b) of this subdivision 2 shall be adjusted so that the average of the normal yields for all farms in the county (weighted respectively by the corn or wheat acreage allotments established for such farms) shall conform to the county average yield established by the Secretary."

(13) Section XV is hereby amended by striking out subsection C thereof.

(14) The definition of class A farms in Section XVIII is hereby amended by revising clause 3 thereof to read as follows:

"3. All farms in Aroostook County, Maine, and in the townships of Patten, Mt. Chase, and Stacyville in Penobscot County, Maine, for which potato acreage allotments are established; and"

(15) Section XVIII is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following definitions:

"Early Potato-Producing Area means all the States in the East Central and Southern Regions, the States of Missouri and Kansas, and the counties of Kern, Los Angeles, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, and Santa Barbara in the State of California.

"Late Potato-Producing Area means the area not included in the early potato-producing area."

AMENDMENTS TO RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE UNDER THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U. S. C. and Supp. III, secs. 1-17a), as amended by the act of Congress, approved April 7, 1938 (Public, No. 471, 75th Cong.), I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby make, prescribe, publish, and give public notice of the following amendments to the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture under said act promulgated July 14, 1937, said amendments to be effective immediately and until amended or superseded under the authority of said act, as amended.

The definitions of "commodity" and "Commodity Exchange Act; the act", contained in section 3 of the said rules and regulations are amended to read as follows:

Commodity.—This term means and includes wheat, cotton, rice, corn, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, grain sorghums, millfeeds, butter, eggs, Irish potatoes, and wool tops.

Commodity Exchange Act; the act.—These terms mean the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U. S. C. and Supp. III, secs. 1–17a), as amended by the act of Congress, approved April 7, 1938 (Public, No. 471, 75th Cong.).

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington this 18th day of April 1938.

OCCUPANCY, USE, PROTECTION AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE NATIONAL FORESTS

MODIFICATION OF REGULATION T–7

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Act of Congress of February 1, 1905 (33 Stat. 628) amendatory of the Act of June 4, 1897 (30 Stat. 11, 35), I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby amend Regulation T–7 of the rules and regulations governing the occupancy, use, protection and administration of the National Forests, by modifying paragraph two of the regulation to read as follows:

Hunting, trapping, catching, disturbing, killing, or having in possession any kind of game animal, game or non-game bird or fish, or taking the eggs of any such bird, in violation of the laws of the State in which such land is situated.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal at the City of Washington, this 15th day of April, 1938.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM.

[Supplement to Regulation D]

RESERVES REQUIRED TO BE MAINTAINED BY MEMBER BANKS WITH FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS

EFFECTIVE AS TO EACH MEMBER BANK AT THE OPENING OF BUSINESS ON APRIL 16, 1938

Pursuant to the provisions of section 19 of the Federal Reserve Act and section 2 (a) of its Regulation D, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System hereby prescribes the following reserve balances which each member bank of the Federal Reserve System is required to maintain on deposit with the Federal Reserve bank of its district:

5 per cent of its time deposits plus—

12 per cent of its net demand deposits if not in a reserve or central reserve city;

17½ per cent of its net demand deposits if in a reserve city, except that if located in an outlying district of a reserve city or in territory added to such city by the extension of the city's corporate limits such bank may, upon the affirmative vote of five members of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, be permitted to maintain 12 per cent reserves against its net demand deposits;

22¾ per cent of its net demand deposits if located in a central reserve city, except that if located in an outlying district of a central reserve city or in territory added to such city by the extension of the city's corporate limits, such bank may, upon the affirmative vote of five members of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, be permitted to maintain 12 per cent or 17½ per cent reserves against its net demand deposits.

The supplements to Regulation D which have previously been issued are hereby revoked and superseded.

Approved by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System on April 15, 1938.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. IT–5508]

IN THE MATTER OF OKLAHOMA GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY, RATE SCHEDULE FPC NO. 3

ORDER DIRECTING FURTHER SUSPENSION AND POSTPONEMENT OF HEARING

APRIL 14, 1938.

Commissioners: Clyde L. Seavey, Acting Chairman; Claude L. Draper, Basil Manly, John W. Scott.

(1) Whereas, Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company, Rate Schedule FPC No. 3 was suspended by order of the Commission on February 2, 1938 and the use of rates, charges, classifications and service provided thereby deferred until May 2, 1938, and it was further ordered that during the period February 2, 1938 to May 2, 1938, Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company, Rate Schedule FPC No. 2, was to be and remain in full force and effect; and

(2) Whereas, the Commission by order entered upon its own motion on March 8, 1938, directed that a public hearing be held in the matter of the suspension of the rate schedule designated as Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company, Rate Schedule FPC No. 3 on April 18, 1938; and

(3) Whereas, counsel for Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company on April 7, 1938, represented to the Commission the desirability of postponing the hearing in the above matter from April 18, 1938, to May 2, 1938, and this recommendation has been concurred in by all other parties to the proceeding; and

(4) Whereas, the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications, and services specified in Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company, Rate Schedule FPC No. 3, cannot be determined by the Commission until the public hearing has been had thereon and the Commission fully advised as to all facts and circumstances relating thereto.

It is therefore ordered by the Commission:

(a) That, Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company, Rate Schedule FPC No. 3 and rates, charges, classifications and service provided thereby be further suspended from May 2, 1938, to July 2, 1938, and that the use of such rates, charges, classifications, and service therein specified is further deferred for such period, and that during said period the agreement designated as, Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company, Rate Schedule FPC No. 2, shall remain and be in full force and effect.

(b) That a copy of this order be filed with Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company, Rate Schedule FPC No. 3, in the offices of the Federal Power Commission, and that copies hereof be forthwith served upon the parties to the said schedule.

(c) That the hearing on the above matter now assigned for April 18, 1938, be postponed and a public hearing on the matter of the suspension of the rate schedule designated as Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company, Rate Schedule FPC No. 3, and rates, charges, classifications, and service therein specified, be held on May 3, 1938, at 10 a. m., in the hearing room of the Commission, Hurley-Wright Building, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C.

By the Commission.

ORDER RELATIVE TO MOTOR CARRIER RATES IN CENTRAL TERRITORY

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 5, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of April, A. D. 1938.

It appearing that income statements of Class I common carriers of property by motor vehicle (carriers which have gross revenues of $100,000.00 or over annually from motor carrier operations), which are made respondents in this proceedings,' are desirable to aid the Commission in the determination of the above-entitled proceeding:

It is ordered, That each Class I common carrier of property by motor vehicle which is a respondent in this proceeding submit to the Commission at its offices in Washington, D. C., on or before April 22, 1938, income statements for the year 1937 and for the months of January and February 1938, or for the first two periods in 1938 instead of the months of January and February in the case of those carriers which keep their accounts on a four-week period basis;

It is further ordered, That said income statements shall be submitted under oath on the form herewith enclosed which form is hereby made a part of this order;

And it is further ordered, That any respondent in this proceeding receiving this order, which respondent is not a Class I carrier, as above defined, shall return the blank form of income statement to the Commission at its offices in Washington, D. C., on or before April 22, 1938, accompanied by a statement that this order is not applicable to its operation.

By the Commission, division 5.

OWYHEE PROJECT—OREGON-IDAHO

PUBLIC NOTICE OF ANNUAL WATER RENTAL CHARGES[1]

MARCH 28, 1938.

Announcement is hereby made that water will be furnished during the irrigation season of 1938 (from April 15 to October 15, inclusive) for the irrigation of project lands, hereinafter described, upon a water rental basis, at rates and upon terms following:

For lands in the Owyhee and Kingman Colony irrigation districts—now in process of merging:

For lands in the Kingman Colony District and for privately owned and entered lands under the North Canal in the Owyhee District, a minimum charge of one dollar ($1.00) per irrigable acre whether irrigated or not, payable by the district in advance of the delivery of any water, for which amount two and six-sevenths (2⅔) acre-feet of water per acre will be furnished. Thirty-five cents ($0.35) per acre-foot will be charged for any additional water furnished to any tract or farm unit in excess of two and six-sevenths (2⅔) acre-feet per irrigable acre, payable by the district December 1, 1938.

For lands under the South Canal in the Owyhee Irrigation District, a minimum charge of one dollar ($1.00) per acre for the lands actually irrigated, payable by the district in advance of the delivery of water, for which amount two and six-sevenths (2⅔) acre-feet of water per acre will be furnished. Thirty-five cents ($0.35) per acre-foot will be charged for any additional water furnished, payable by the district December 1, 1938.

Water for the Owyhee and Kingman Colony irrigation districts will be delivered and measured at the nearest tap and weir to the individual farm.

For lands in the Ontario-Nyssa Irrigation District:

A minimum charge of five thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($5,250) for fifteen thousand (15,000) acre-feet of water, payable by the district in advance of the delivery of any water. Thirty-five cents ($0.35) per acre-foot for any additional water furnished, payable by the district on December 1, 1938. Water for the Ontario-Nyssa Irrigation District will be delivered into the Ontario-Nyssa canal at the head and at a feeder near the oil well and at other points mutually agreed on by the district and the Bureau of Reclamation.

For lands in the Advancement Irrigation District:

A minimum charge of one dollar ($1.00) per irrigable acre for two and six-sevenths (2⅔) acre-feet per acre per annum, payable by the district for each irrigable acre contained therein, in advance of the delivery of any water. Thirty-five cents ($0.35) per acre-foot for any additional water furnished, payable by the district on December 1, 1938.

Water for the Advancement Irrigation District to be measured at the outlets of the North and South Advancement pumps.

For lands in the Payette-Oregon Slope, Bench, and Crystal Irrigation districts:

A minimum charge of one dollar ($1.00) per irrigable acre for two and six-sevenths (2⅔) acre-feet per acre per annum payable by the respective districts for each irrigable acre contained therein in advance of delivery of any water. Thirty-five cents ($0.35) per acre-foot for any additional water furnished, payable by the respective districts on December 1, 1938.

Water for the Payette-Oregon Slope, Bench, and Crystal irrigation districts will be delivered and measured at the nearest tap and weir to the individual farms.

For lands in the Slide Irrigation District:

If the reorganization of the Slide Irrigation District is completed, then water may be furnished to the lands of the district if and when available, depending on the progress of construction.

A minimum charge of one dollar ($1.00) per acre for the lands actually irrigated for two and six-sevenths (2⅔) acre-feet per acre per annum and payable by the district in advance of delivery of water. Thirty-five cents ($0.35) per acre-foot for any additional water furnished, payable by the district December 1, 1938.

For lands in the Gem Irrigation District:

For old lands in the district, a minimum charge of three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) for ten thousand (10,000) acre-feet, payable by the district in advance of delivery of any water. Thirty-five cents ($0.35) per acre-foot for any additional water furnished, payable by the district on December 1, 1938.

For new lands in the district, water will be furnished if and when available, depending on the progress of construction, at a price of thirty-five cents ($0.35) per acre-foot for water furnished, payable by the district when ordered.

Water for the old lands of the Gem District will be delivered into the A and D canals at the various constructed feeders and measured at these points.

Water for the new lands will be delivered and measured at the nearest tap and weir to the individual farms.

In determining the amount of water delivered on which rental charges will be based, in the case of the Ontario-Nyssa and the old lands of the Gem Irrigation District, deduction of ten per cent (10%) will be made from the amounts measured at points of delivery to the respective districts as an allowance for losses in the district canals operated by district forces.

Applications for water on the basis of this public notice will be received at the office of the United States Bureau of Reclamation at Boise, Idaho, P. O. Box 937, and payments shall be made to that office.

YUMA IRRIGATION PROJECT, ARIZONA-CALIFORNIA

PUBLIC NOTICE OF ANNUAL WATER CHARGES[1]

MARCH 28, 1938.

1. Annual operation and maintenance charges for lands under public notice, Reservation Division.—The annual operation and maintenance charge for the irrigation season of 1938, and thereafter until further notice, against all lands of the Reservation Division of the Yuma Irrigation project, Arizona-California, under public notice, shall be a minimum of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per irrigable acre, whether water is used or not, which charge shall permit the delivery of not to exceed 5 acre-feet of water per acre on certain sandy areas shown on the list attached to public notices No. 31 dated April 14, 1931, No. 40 dated March 1, 1935, No. 43 dated February 17, 1936, and No. 47 dated March 5, 1937, and as amended by the list attached to this public notice, and of not to exceed 4 acre-feet of water per acre on all other lands of this division; additional water shall be furnished at the rate of one dollar ($1.00) per acre-foot. Where, in the opinion of the superintendent, it may be done without interference with other project requirements, upon written request filed in advance by the water users, water for reclaiming lands by the washing out of alkali, either by the usual leach methods or by growing rice or similar crop, will be furnished free of charge; and water in excess of the minimum amount herein provided, which is to be used for the growing of fertilizer crops of no commercial value or which is to be used for the purpose of depositing silt upon the land, shall be furnished free of charge. All lands for which free water was served during the year 1937 will not again be served free water for the same area until evidence satisfactory to the project superintendent has been made that the water so granted free of charge during the year 1937 was applied to the land in sufficient quantities over a period of not less than 3 months, in which event water shall again be served free of charge provided the results accomplished during the preceding irrigation season were not satisfactory. All operation and maintenance charges shall be due and payable on March 1 of each year for the preceding irrigation season to the Agent-Cashier, Bureau of Reclamation, Yuma, Arizona.

2. Annual water rental charges for other lands, Reservation Division.—Lands not under public notice that can be irrigated from the present distribution system without further construction expense by the Bureau may secure irrigation water under water rental contracts at a rate of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per irrigable acre, which charge will permit the delivery of not to exceed 4 acre-feet of water per acre, and additional water will be furnished at the rate of one dollar ($1.00) per acre-foot. All charges due under water rental contracts are payable in advance of the delivery of water. The minimum charge as specified shall be paid before any water is delivered during the current or subsequent seasons and all additional or excess water over the minimum of 4 acre-feet shall be paid for when ordered and prior to delivery. Refund will be made for excess water paid for but not used.

3. Annual water rental charge for lands in the Valley Division not under public notice.—Lands in the Valley Division not under public notice which can be irrigated from the present distribution system without further construction expense by the United States may secure irrigation water during the calendar year 1938 and until further notice under water rental contracts at a rate of three dollars ($3.00) per irrigable acre, which charge will permit the delivery of four acre-feet per acre. Additional water furnished will be charged for at the rate of one dollar ($1.00) per acre-foot, payable in advance of delivery. All town lots that can be served under the present system may secure water under annual water rental contracts at the rate of five dollars ($5.00) a lot and one dollar ($1.00) for each additional lot in the same ownership, considering the maximum lot to be not over sixty (60) feet in width. All payments under water rental contracts are due and payable in advance of the delivery of water to the Agent-Cashier, Bureau of Reclamation, Yuma, Arizona.

DETERMINATION OF ELIGIBILITY FOR PAYMENT WITH RESPECT TO ABANDONMENT AND CROP DEFICIENCY FOR FARMS IN THE DOMESTIC BEET SUGAR AREA

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 303 of the Sugar Act of 1937, I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, hereby determine:

1. That the State Agricultural Conservation Committee for each state in which sugar beets were planted for harvest in 1937 shall determine the counties or local producing areas, as hereinafter defined, in which the actual yields of commercially recoverable sugar from the acreage planted to sugar beets for harvest in 1937 on 10 per centum or more of all the farms in the county or local producing area are less than 80 per centum of the respective normal yields of commercially recoverable sugar for such farms because of drought, flood, storm, freeze, disease, or insects.

2. That the State Agricultural Conservation Committee for each such state shall approve for abandonment and deficiency payments, in accordance with the provisions of Section 303 of the said Act, any farm in any such county or local producing area if the farm has otherwise met the conditions of Title III of the said Act.

3. That a "local producing area" for purpose of paragraph one above shall be all contiguous farms in the county which are found by the State Agricultural Conservation Committee to be similar with respect to types of soil, or with respect to topography: Provided, however, That farms separated from other farms by any natural boundary or barrier (such as mountains, rivers, or large areas of land) shall not be included within the same local producing area.

4. That approval on behalf of the State Agricultural Conservation Committee of Section VI of form SB–110, "Application For Payment, 1937 Sugar Beet Program," shall constitute determination, pursuant to paragraphs one and two hereof, that the farm covered by the application is, if otherwise eligible for payment pursuant to Title III of said Act, also eligible for abandonment and deficiency payments pursuant to Section 303 of said Act.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of April, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

DETERMINATION OF SUGAR COMMERCIALLY RECOVERABLE FROM THE 1937 CROP OF SUGARCANE IN THE MAINLAND CANE SUGAR AREA

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 302 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1937, I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine that the amount of sugar commercially recoverable from the sugarcane grown on a farm in the mainland cane sugar area and marketed (or processed by the producer) for the extraction of sugar during the 1937–38 crop season shall be:

1. For sugarcane in localities in which settlement for purchased cane is based on sucrose content of the normal juice, the product of the number of short tons of sugarcane, not in excess of the proportionate share for the farm, multiplied by the number of hundredweights of sugar, raw value, applicable for the average percentage of sucrose in the normal juice of such sugarcane (computed to the nearest one-tenth of one per cent), as set forth in the following table:

[Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10]

DECISION AND ORDER OF SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE ALLOTTING THE DIRECT-CONSUMPTION PORTION OF THE 1938 SUGAR QUOTA FOR PUERTO RICO

General Sugar Quota Regulations, Series 5, No. 1, issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on December 20, 1937, pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1937 (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), provides that the 1938 Puerto Rican sugar quota for shipment to the continental United States may be filled by shipments of direct-consumption sugar not in excess of 126,033 short tons, raw value.

Under the provisions of section 205 (a) of the act, the Secretary is required to allot a quota whenever he finds that the allotment is necessary (1) to assure an orderly and adequate flow of sugar or liquid sugar in the channels of interstate commerce, (2) to prevent the disorderly marketing of sugar or liquid sugar, (3) to maintain a continuous and stable supply of sugar or liquid sugar, or (4) to afford all interested persons an equitable opportunity to market sugar or liquid sugar within any area's quota. Section 205 (a) also provides that such allotment shall be made after such hearing and upon such notice as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe. On December 31, 1937, the Secretary issued a notice of a public hearing to be held in Washington, D. C., on January 14, 1938, for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable him to make a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of the Puerto Rican sugar quotas among interested persons and such other evidence as might be pertinent to the exercise of the powers vested in the Secretary under section 205 (a) of the act.

Section 205 (a) of the act requires a preliminary finding of the Secretary as a condition precedent to the calling of a hearing. This preliminary finding may be changed or modified on the basis of the record obtained at the hearing. The Notice of Hearing and Designation of Presiding Officers issued by the Secretary on December 31, 1937, provided in part as follows:

"Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 205 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1937 (Public, No. 414, 75th Congress) and on the basis of the information now before me, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby find that the allotment of the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for shipment to the continental United States (including the portion which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar, pursuant to section 207 (b) of said act) and the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for local consumption, established pursuant to section 202 and 203, respectively, of the said act is necessary to prevent disorderly marketing and importation of such sugar * * *."

The hearing was held at Washington, D. C., on the date specified in the notice. No evidence was presented at the hearing held on January 14, 1938, which in any way indicated that the preliminary finding of the Secretary should not be confirmed. The preliminary finding was based upon information which the Secretary had to the effect that Puerto Rican processors were in a position to manufacture and make available for market a potential supply of approximately 400,000 tons of direct-consumption sugar during the calendar year 1938. The evidence presented at the hearing indicated a plant capacity of 402,000 tons for all processors in Puerto Rico. The total amount of such sugar which may be shipped to continental United States under the act is limited to 126,033 short tons. Under these conditions, it is probable that, without allotment of the direct-consumption portion of the quota, more raw sugar would be processed into direct-consumption sugar than can be shipped to the continental United States during any calendar year. This would result in disorderly marketing of sugar.

Section 205 (a) of the act provides in part that:

Allotments shall be made in such manner and in such amounts as to provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of such quota, or proration thereof, by taking into consideration the processings of sugar or liquid sugar from sugar beets or sugarcane to which proportionate shares, determined pursuant to the provisions of subsection (b) of section 302, pertained; the past marketings or importations of each such person; or the ability of such person to market or import that portion of such quota or proration thereof allotted to him.

The first standard stated above for the Secretary to use in making allotments, namely, processings to which proportionate shares established under section 302 (b) of the act pertain, is inapplicable to the allotment of that portion of the quota which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar.

The other two standards given in the act, namely, "past marketings" and "ability * * * to market", are applicable and should both be used in making individual allotments, in order to provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of the portion of the quota under discussion.

In determining "ability * * * to market", it in apparent that mill capacity alone cannot be taken as an accurate measure. That factor represents only a potential ability to produce sugar, dependent upon a number of other factors, such as the availability of raw sugar, the price of raw materials, transportation costs, and similar factors. An additional factor must be used in order to arrive at a true measure of ability to market. It is believed that the ratios of each processor's current marketings of sugar to the total of such marketings should be considered and given equal weight with the ratios of each processor's mill capacity to the total mill capacity for all processors. Since the hearing was held on January 14, 1938, it would be possible to take 1937 marketings as indicating the processor's current ability to market, but this method would be unfair to processors marketing direct-consumption sugar for the first time in 1938. In order, therefore, to be fair to both new and old processors, and in order to obtain as accurate a measure of present ability to market as possible, it is necessary to take marketings of direct-consumption sugar during the present calendar year. During the first three months of the current year, no allotment order was in effect and processors were not restricted in their shipments of direct-consumption sugar to the United States, and since there was reason to believe that allotments would be made, processors had an incentive to hasten shipments prior to the making of such allotments. Hence the official data of the Department showing actual entries against such quota during the period from January 1, 1938, to March 22, 1938 (the date of final preparation of Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 9), are believed to constitute a necessary factor in determining actual ability to market sugar. This factor, along with that of mill refining capacity, is therefore deemed to be a fair measure of the present ability to market sugar.

Of the processors appearing at the hearing, all presented testimony bearing on the operating capacity of their respective mills. The testimony in this respect may be summarized as follows: [1]

Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery: 700 tons per day, or, on the basis of 300 operating days per year, 210,000 tons per annum (pp. 62 and 82 of record).

Central Aguirre Sugar Company: 8,000 to 9,000 tons per annum (p. 125 of record).

Central Guanica: 50,000 tons per annum (p. 128 of record).

Central Igualdad: 225 tons per day, or, on the basis of 300 operating days per year, 67,500 tons per annum (p. 77 of record).

Central Roig: 200 tons per day (pp. 170 and 174 of record).

The actual shipments of direct-consumption sugar to the continental United States between January 1, 1938, and March 22, 1938, as shown by official records of the Department of Agriculture, are as follows: [2]

	Short Tons Raw Value
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	46,866
Central Aguirre	1,970
Central Carmen	------
Central Guanica	------
Central Igualdad	1,124
Central Roig	8,070
Central San Francisco	795

In determining "past marketings" for processors which have shipped direct-consumption sugar to the continental United States, it is believed that the years 1935, 1936, and 1937 should be used, since they are years during which a quota system was in effect and, consequently, are believed to be fair and reasonable under a restrictive program such as that provided for under the present and prior sugar legislation.

The testimony as to the past marketings of Porto Rico American Refinery and Central Aguirre may be summarized as follows: [3]

	Short tons, raw value
	1935	1936	1937
Puerto Rican-American Sugar Refinery [1]	116,611	109,942	99,227
Central Aguirre [2]	2,600	2,350	5,460

[1] P. 60 of record.
[2] P. 126 of record.

The witness testifying on behalf of Central Guanica stated that it was given an allotment in 1935 but did not fill that allotment by "a substantial amount" (p. 130 of record). The official records of the Department show that Central Guanica shipped only 1,015 short tons, raw value, of direct-consumption sugar in 1935 and none in either of the other two years, 1936 and 1937.

[1] No testimony was given on behalf of Central Carmen and Central San Francisco.

[2] These figures are taken from forms (Form SS–3) which importers, under regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, are required to execute under oath and file with Collectors of Customs. The completed forms showing the kind of sugar, amount, and other pertinent data are forwarded by the Collectors of Customs to the Department of Agriculture.

[3] The figures are substantially correct, although somewhat at variance with the official statistics of the Department. However, the differences are small, as will be shown by comparison with the official figures hereinafter set forth in the Findings of Fact. In calculating past marketings, the figures used are those taken from the official statistics of the Department, collected in the manner stated in footnote 2, supra. The use of the official statistics instead of figures contained in the record gives no important differences in result.

The witness testifying on behalf of Central Roig stated that the company shipped 16,210 [1] short tons in 1937 (p. 181 of the record). No testimony was offered as to other years, but the official records of the Department show that Central Roig shipped 2,778 short tons, raw value, in 1936 and none in 1935.

Central Igualdad, Central Carmen, and Central San Francisco offered no testimony in regard to past marketings of direct-consumption sugar. However, the official records of the Department show the following marketings for these three companies for the years indicated:

Processor	Short tons, raw value
	1935	1936	1937
Central Carmen	------	264	------
Central Igualdad	163	438	52
Central San Francisco	2,463	2,590	1,981

It is deemed desirable to reserve 5,712 short tons of sugar to be set aside for persons who bring in raw sugar from Puerto Rico for direct-consumption purposes, which amount represents the average quantity of such sugar brought in during the years 1935–1937, inclusive. It is not practicable to allot this quantity of sugar to individual processors, inasmuch as it would have to be allotted to 34 raw sugar processors, thereby rendering it impossible to make an efficient allotment as required by the act. An allotment would require continental purchasers of raw sugar for direct consumption to deal with a large number of sellers in order to obtain their requirements. Such disruption of customary trade practices could not reasonably be said to be an efficient distribution of this kind of sugar as required by the act.

On March 30, 1938, the Secretary issued Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 9 containing allotments identical with those made in this Order but without the issuance of a statement of the facts and grounds for his decision. It is, therefore, deemed advisable to reissue the Order with a full statement of the facts and grounds for the allotments hereinafter made.

On the basis of the record of the hearing and official records of the Department of Agriculture used to the extent hereinbefore stated, I hereby find:

1. That the Puerto Rican processors of direct-consumption sugar are equipped to produce 401,500 tons of such sugar during the calendar year 1938.

2. That the present plant capacity of each Puerto Rican processor of direct-consumption sugar is as follows:

Processor:	Rated Refining Capacity Per Annum—300-Day Basis
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	210,000
Central Aguirre	8,500
Central Carmen	500
Central Guanica	50,000
Central Igualdad	67,500
Central Roig	60,000
Central San Francisco	5,000
	401,500

3. That shipments of direct-consumption sugar from Puerto Rico to the continental United States between January 1, 1938, and March 22, 1938, were as follows:

Processor:	Short Tons
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	46,866
Central Aguirre	1,970
Central Carmen	------
Central Guanica	------
Central Igualdad	1,124
Central Roig	8,070
Central San Francisco	795

[1] Footnote 3 is applicable to this figure.

4. That during the years 1935, 1936, and 1937, Puerto Rican processors shipped direct-consumption sugar to the continental United States in the following amounts:

	Puerto Rican direct-consumption entries (refined and turbinado) into the U. S. (in terms of short tons, raw value)
	1935	1936	1937
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	116,611	109,915	97,498
Central Aguirre	2,719	2,496	5,767
Central Carmen	------	264	------
Central Guanica	1,015	------	------
Central Igualdad	163	438	52
Central Roig	------	2,778	16,204
Central San Francisco	2,463	2,590	1,981
	122,971	118,511	121,502

On the basis of the foregoing, I hereby determine and conclude that the allotment of that portion of the 1938 Puerto Rican sugar quota which may be filled by shipments of direct-consumption sugar is necessary in order to prevent disorderly marketing of sugar, and that in order to make a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of such sugar, as required by section 205 (a) of the act, allotments should be made by giving equal weight to past marketings during the years 1935, 1936, and 1937, and ability to market as measured by present plant capacity and actual marketings of direct-consumption sugar between January 1, 1938, and March 22, 1938.

ORDER

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 205 (a) of the act, it is hereby ordered:

1. That the said quantity of 126,033 short tons, raw value, of direct-consumption sugar shall be allotted to the following processors in the amounts which appear opposite their respective names:

Name of processor:	Direct-consumption allotment (short tons, raw value)
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	93,406
Aguirre	3,464
Carmen	81
Guanica	3,914
Igualdad	5,741
Roig	11,768
San Francisco	1,947
	120,321
Unallotted reserve for marketings of raw sugar for direct consumption	5,712
Total	126,033

2. That the above-named processors are hereby prohibited from bringing into the continental United States, for consumption during the calendar year 1938, any direct-consumption sugar (except the above-mentioned amount of raw sugar used for direct consumption) from Puerto Rico in excess of the marketing allotments set forth in the next preceding paragraph.

3. That the allotments fixed herein shall not be assigned or transferred without the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture or his duly appointed agent.

4. That this Order shall supersede Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 9, issued by the Secretary on March 30, 1938.

In testimony whereof, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, this 19th day of April, 1938.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

ADOPTION OF RULE RELATIVE TO SALE OF PUBLIC UTILITY SECURITIES AND UTILITY ASSETS BY REGISTERED HOLDING COMPANIES

Acting pursuant to the authority conferred upon it by sections 12 (d), 20 (a) and 27 (a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the Securities and Exchange Commission deems it necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers, and to prevent the circumvention of the provisions of the Act, to adopt, and does hereby adopt a rule which shall be known as 12D–1 and shall read as follows:

RULE 12D–1. Sale of public utility securities and utility assets by registered holding companies.—(a) No registered holding company shall, directly or indirectly, sell any security which it owns of any public-utility company, or any utility assets except upon application to the Commission and in compliance with an order of the Commission entered after opportunity for hearing upon such application.

(b) An application with respect to a sale of securities subject to this rule shall set forth the information prescribed in Form U12D–1. An application with respect to a sale of utility assets subject to this rule shall set forth the information prescribed in Form U12D–2.

(c) The Commission, after opportunity for hearing, shall approve such application if it finds that the terms and conditions of such sale with respect to the consideration to be received for such sale, maintenance of competitive conditions, fees and commissions, accounts, disclosure of interest, and similar matters, are not detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers, and will not tend to circumvent the provisions of the Act or any rules, regulations or orders of the Commission thereunder.

(d) Paragraph (a) of this rule shall not apply to:

(1) The sale of any prime commercial paper or other security which has been acquired by the company making such sale pursuant to paragraph (2) of Rule 9C–3;

(2) The pledge of any security as collateral for any other security issued by the pledgor if such pledge is made at the time of the issuance or sale of such other security by the pledgor: Provided, That such pledge has been disclosed in a declaration or application filed with the Commission in connection with the issuance or sale of such other security or that the issuance and sale of such other security is exempt under the first sentence of section 6 (b);

(3) The sale of any security of any public-utility company which does not operate or have any subsidiary company which operates in the United States;

(4) The sale of any security, the seller of which, prior to such sale, owns less than 5 percent of the class of securities so sold;

(5) The sale of any security if the consideration for such sale and all prior sales of securities of the same class during the same calendar year aggregates less than $50,000 and;

(A) The security so sold is not a security of an associate company; or

(B) The security so sold is not a voting security or a security convertible into a voting security.

(e) Paragraph (a) of this rule shall not apply to the sale of any utility assets where the gross consideration, or book value of such assets, whichever is the greater, is less than $50,000.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF CHARLES TRUE ADAMS, TRUSTEE, UTILITIES POWER & LIGHT CORPORATION AND CENTRAL SERVICE CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 11 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and of Rule 11F–2 thereunder, having been duly filed with this Commission by Central Service Corporation for approval by the Commission of the amount to be paid for services to be rendered to the Trustee of the Estate of Utilities Power & Light Corporation, a registered holding company, now being reorganized under section 77B of the Bankruptcy Act;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on April 25, 1938, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 105 West Adams Street, Chicago, Illinois. On such day the Regional Administrator, at the above mentioned address, will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held;

It is further ordered, That Commissioner George C. Mathews, a member of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and Henry Fitts, an officer of the Commission, be and they hereby are designated by said Commission for the purpose of presiding at the hearing in such matter. Such Commissioner, or such officer, so designated to preside at such hearing, or either of them, are hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer;

It is further ordered, That the Commission's order of April 13, 1938 be and the same hereby is amended to the extent of additionally designating the said Commissioner George C. Mathews to preside at the hearing on the application of Charles True Adams, Trustee, Utilities Power & Light Corporation;

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before April 22, 1938.

IN THE MATTER OF MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL STOCK EXCHANGE

ORDER AMENDING CONDITION (5) OF ORDER GRANTING EXEMPTION OF SAID EXCHANGE FROM REGISTRATION AS A NATIONAL SECURITIES EXCHANGE

The Minneapolis-St. Paul Stock Exchange, upon application having been granted exemption from registration as a national securities exchange pursuant to Section 5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, subject, however, to certain conditions; and

Condition (5) of the order granting said exemption having prohibited said exchange from admitting any security to unlisted trading privileges after February 1, 1936; and

It being the opinion of the Commission that it is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors to make provision for the admission of securities to unlisted trading privileges on said Exchange in the same manner in which securities may be admitted to unlisted trading privileges on exchanges registered as national securities exchanges;

It is ordered, That said Condition (5) be amended to read as follows:

(5) (a) that after January 15, 1938, said exchange shall not extend unlisted trading privileges to a security unless, in respect of such security, the requirements prescribed for the extension of unlisted trading privileges pursuant to the provisions of Section 12 (f) of said Act, as amended, and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder are complied with by said Exchange as if it were a national securities exchange; and

(b) that with respect to the suspension or termination of unlisted trading privileges in a security, the provisions of Section 12 (f) of said Act, as amended, and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder, shall be complied with by said Exchange as if it were a national securities exchange.

[Order No. 240]

AN ORDER DIRECTING EACH DISTRICT BOARD TO DETERMINE THE WEIGHTED AVERAGE OF THE TOTAL COSTS OF THE ASCERTAINABLE TONNAGE PRODUCED IN ITS DISTRICT IN THE CALENDAR YEAR 1936; AND TO ADJUST THE AVERAGE COSTS SO DETERMINED AS MAY BE NECESSARY TO GIVE EFFECT TO ANY CHANGES SUBSTANTIALLY AFFECTING COSTS, EXCLUSIVE OF SEASONAL CHANGES, WHICH MAY HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED SINCE JANUARY 1, 1936; AND PROVIDING FOR THE SUBMISSION OF SUCH DETERMINATION AND THE COMPUTATIONS TO THE COMMISSION

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs:

1. That each District Board shall forthwith, from the cost data covering 1936 tonnage previously submitted to it by the statistical bureau of the Commission for the district, determine the weighted average of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in its district in the calendar year 1936; and each District Board shall adjust the average costs so determined as may be necessary to give effect to any changes in wage rates, hours of employment, or other factors substantially affecting costs, exclusive of seasonal changes, so as to reflect as accurately as possible any change or changes which may have been established since January 1, 1936.

2. That each District Board shall, on or before April 30th, 1938, submit to the Commission such determination of the weighted average of the total costs, as adjusted, together with the computations upon which it is based.

3. The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this Order to the Secretary of each District Board.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 19th day of April, 1938.

AMENDMENT OF REGULATION GOVERNING METHOD OF COMPUTING MAXIMUM AMOUNT LOANABLE BY FEDERAL LAND BANKS TO ONE BORROWER

The regulation governing the method of computing the maximum amount loanable by a Federal land bank to one borrower [November 8, 1935, FLB 987, REV APP 267, LB APP 131; Federal Register Compilation, Chapter II, Section 3] is hereby amended by striking out the paragraph beginning with the following words: "In determining the aggregate amount of existing and prospective loans to any one borrower," and inserting in lieu of such paragraph the following:

"In determining the aggregate amount of existing and prospective loans to any one borrower for the purpose of applying the limitation provided for in Section 12 (Seventh) of the Federal Farm Loan Act (12 U. S. C. Section 771 (Seventh)), there shall be included (1) the amount of the unpaid principal of loans made by a Federal land bank which are secured by mortgages on property owned by the applicant, except loans secured by purchase money mortgages not made on a basis which qualifies them for deposit with the Registrar as collateral security for farm loan bonds; (2) the amount of the unpaid principal of Federal land bank loans made to the applicant, or assumed by him with the permission of the bank, which are secured by mortgages on property he no longer owns, except loans secured by mortgages which have been assumed with the permission of the bank by a subsequent owner of the property in accordance with Section 12 (Sixth) of the Federal Farm Loan Act (12 U. S. C. Section 771 (Sixth)); and (3) the amount of the unpaid principal of mortgages which are liens on property owned by the applicant and which have been acquired by a Federal land bank under the provisions of Section 13 (Second) of the Federal Farm Loan Act (12 U. S. C. Section 781 (Second))."

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD.

Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

CONSOLIDATION OF LOAN AND ADVANCE ACCOUNTS

AMENDMENT OF ACCOUNTING CHAPTER OF THE MANUAL

Whereas in many instances the accounting records of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation contain two or more accounts with individual mortgagors or vendees as a result of reconditioning loans or advances made in addition to the original loans; and,

Whereas the consolidation of such reconditioning loan and advance accounts with related primary mortgage or vendee accounts will materially simplify and reduce the volume of work in both accounting and servicing operations: Therefore

Be it resolved, That pursuant to the authority vested in the Board by Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 128, 129) as amended by Sections 1 and 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 643-647) and particularly by sub-Sections a and k of Section 4 of said Act as amended, sub-Sections (f) and (g) of Section 800 of Chapter VIII of the Consolidated Manual are hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 800 (f). Any advance, or reconditioning loan made under Section 4 (m) of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, as amended, for the account of a borrower or vendee shall be consolidated with the related mortgage or vendee account, and shall be repaid in such manner and on such terms as are properly approved in accordance with the regulations of the Corporation.

SECTION 800 (g). The Accounting Section, in the posting of payments (other than miscellaneous credits) to the borrowers' or vendees' consolidated accounts, shall distribute the amounts first to interest and second to principal, without segregation on the individual ledger sheets between the primary obligation, reconditioning loan or advance elements of the consolidated balance of either interest or principal. When requested by the Legal Department, the Accounting Section shall prepare statements of account showing the elements of the consolidated account and a segregation of the amounts posted to the consolidated interest and consolidated principal balances applicable to each such element, unless, under direction of Regional Counsel, the statement is required to reflect a different segregation of credits or application of payments.

Be it further resolved, That the provisions of this resolution shall become effective on June 1, 1938 for all advances made and payments received on and after that date; and that, where separate accounts are now maintained for unpaid advances, or reconditioning loans, made prior to June 1, 1938, such separate accounts shall be consolidated with the accounts for related primary obligations under instructions, consistent herewith, which the Comptroller is hereby authorized to prescribe.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on April 19, 1938.

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE OPENING OF DRAWBRIDGE OF THE GLOUCESTER TURNPIKE COMPANY ACROSS BIG TIMBER CREEK, NEAR WESTVILLE, N. J.

APRIL 6, 1938.

On February 13, 1918, the Assistant Secretary of War prescribed special regulations to govern the opening of the drawbridge of the Gloucester Turnpike Company across Big Timber Creek, near Westville, New Jersey. This drawbridge was recently replaced by a fixed bridge constructed pursuant to plans submitted by the New Jersey State Highway Commission and approved by the Department on February 9, 1934, and June 4, 1934. There is no further need for the regulations approved in 1918 and accordingly I recommend that they be revoked.

TRANSIT PERMITS COVERING CORPSES.

ANCHORAGE, ALASKA,
March 30th, 1938.

To all concerned:

Rule No. 21-d of Local Baggage Tariff No. 2 relative to the handling of transit permits covering the movement of corpses is amended as follows:

Transit Permit (Territory of Alaska form 2B) including transit Label, is issued by the United States Commissioner, and single copy of each is furnished.

The Transit Label must be pasted or securely tacked to the coffin box by the shipper.

The Transit Permit, properly signed, must be presented to the checking Agent at the time of checking corpse, who will lift the Transit Permit and handle as follows:

On corpses checked locally to points on The Alaska Railroad the transit permit will be forwarded to Auditor at Anchorage.

On corpses checked to points on the line of Alaska Steamship Company, the transit permit will be forwarded by mail on same train as corpse is handled, to Agent, Seward Dock, where the permit will be turned over to the Purser or Freight Clerk of steamer handling corpse from Seward.

Transit permits must not be returned to the person who acts as escort or the party who presents the corpse for checking.

[Department Circular No. 304, First Edition]

PRE-SAILING EXAMINATION OF DANISH PASSENGER VESSELS AND COLLECTION OF FEES FOR SAME

APRIL 21, 1938.

It has come to the attention of the Department that the Government of Denmark under the "Ordinance Relating to the Application of the Merchant Shipping (Inspection of Ships) Act of March 29th, 1920, to Foreign Ships" with subsequent amendments and regulations promulgated thereunder, requires the inspection of all American passenger vessels prior to each departure from a Danish port. A fee of 100 kroner is imposed against an American vessel with a passenger carrying capacity of less than 50 and a fee of 200 kroner is imposed against American passenger vessels with a carrying capacity of over 50 passengers for such pre-sailing inspections.

In view of the above and pursuant to the 3rd understanding of the President of the United States contained in the ratification of the International Convention for Safety of Life at Sea, 1929, and the provisions of Section 4400 of the U. S. Revised Statutes, it is hereby ordered that all passenger vessels flying the flag of Denmark calling at ports of the United States shall be subject to a pre-sailing examination and a fee shall be imposed against such vessels for such examination in the amount of dollars and cents corresponding with the rate of exchange for the Danish kroner on the date the inspection is made.

The fees to be charged shall be in accordance with the fees imposed by the Government of Denmark against American vessels in their ports which are as follows:

Not over 50 passengers---- 100 kroner (in dollars and cents according to the current rate of exchange).
Over 50 passengers ------- 200 kroner (in dollars and cents according to the current rate of exchange).

In carrying out the pre-sailing examination and the collection of fees, the Local Inspectors and Collectors of Customs shall conform to the following procedure:

The certificate of examination, Form 989, will be issued as heretofore and on the back of such certificate of examination the Local Inspectors will enter the date the pre-sailing examination is made. The certificate of examination so endorsed shall be presented by the master, owner or agent to the Collector of Customs at time of clearance, which officer will collect a fee and endorse thereon the fact of such collection. The Collector of Customs will issue a receipt to the master, owner or agent of the vessel on Cat. 1008. The fees so collected should be accounted for in the same manner as any other navigation fee. In order that this fee may be properly identified on Cat. 1008, the caption "Pre-sailing Examination" should be inserted directly under the caption "Post Entry".

No clearance shall be granted to any Danish vessel unless the fee has been collected for such examination and receipt thereof endorsed on such certificate of examination. This procedure will be followed each time a Danish passenger vessel applies for clearance in order to insure that such vessel is examined and the fee for such examination is paid to the Collector of Customs.

These fees will be levied on and after May 1, 1938.

Approved.

Secretary of Commerce.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

[Docket No. 3381]

IN THE MATTER OF CURTICE BROTHERS CO.

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," (the Clayton Act) as amended by an Act approved June 19, 1936, entitled, "An Act to amend Section 2 of the Act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C., Title 15, Section 13) and for other purposes," (the Robinson-Patman Act), the Federal Trade Commission having reason to believe that Curtice Brothers Co., a corporation, is violating and has been violating the provisions of the said Clayton Act as amended, hereby issues its complaint stating its charges in that respect as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent Curtice Brothers Co. is a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York, with its principal office and place of business located at 20 Curtice Street, Rochester, New York. Said respondent operates and maintains packing plants at Rochester, Bergen, Mt. Morris and Wilson, all in the State of New York.

PAR. 2. Respondent corporation is now, and has been since prior to June 19, 1936, engaged in the business of packing and offering for sale, selling and distributing fruits, vegetables and vegetable products. Respondent sells said products to every type of food distributor, jobber, corporate chain, voluntary chain and independent retailer. Respondent sells and distributes said products in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia, and, preliminary to or as a result of such sales, causes such products to be shipped and transported from the places of origin of shipment to the purchasers thereof who are located in states of the United States other than the state of origin of the shipment, and there is, and has been at all times herein mentioned, a continuous current of trade and commerce in said products across state lines between respondent's plants or factories and the purchasers of such commodities. Said products are sold and distributed for use, consumption and resale within the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 3. In the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, respondent is now, and during the time herein mentioned has been, in substantial competition with other corporations, individuals, partnerships and firms engaged in the business of packing, selling and distributing fruits, vegetables and vegetable products in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 4. In the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid since June 19, 1936, respondent has been, and is now, discriminating in price between different purchasers buying such products of like grades and qualities so sold by the respondent in interstate commerce for use, consumption and resale, by giving and allowing some of its said purchasers of such products lower prices than given or allowed other of its said purchasers competitively engaged one with the other in the resale of said products within the United States. Said discriminations in price are brought about by the following practice and policy pursued by respondent to wit:

Respondent sells its products under three different price lists which price lists are designated by the following letters: "R," "A," and "S." Customers in order to purchase respondent's products at the prices under the "S" classification must place a minimum order for one thousand cases for shipment in quantities of not less than 250 cases. Customers in order to purchase respondent's products at the prices under the "A" classification are required to place a minimum order for 300 cases for shipment in quantities of not less than 50 cases. All other customers purchase respondent's products under the "R" classification. The prices at which respondent's products are sold under the "A" classification are lower by from 2.5% to 8.3% than the prices at which said products are sold under the "R" classification; and the prices at which said products are sold under the "S" classification are lower by from 5.1% to 16.6% than the prices at which said products are sold under the "R" classification. The differentials in price at which said products are sold are not constant and not only vary between different commodities, but also as between different sizes of the same commodity.

Said respondent has in some instances sold its products at prices under the "S" classification to customers who do not take the required shipments as designated for said classification.

Respondent does not make known to all its customers that it sells its products at the prices set forth in the various classifications, and, as a result thereof, many customers purchase respondent's products either under the "A" or "R" classification, whereas if they had known of other or more favorable prices they would have purchased sufficient quantities to entitle them to said favorable prices.

PAR. 5. In the course and conduct of its business, as hereinabove described, respondent, contrary to the provisions of Subsection 2 (d) of Section 1 of said Act of Congress, Public 692, is now, and since June 19, 1936, has been, discriminating between different purchasers of the said products, by paying, or contracting to pay, certain sums of money to, or for the benefit of, certain of its customers, in consideration for advertising services furnished by said customers in connection with the sale, or offering for sale, of respondent's said products, without making such payments or advertising allowances available on proportionately equal terms to all of their said customers competing in the sale and distribution of their said products.

PAR. 6. The general effect of said discriminations in price so made by respondent as above set forth has been, or may be, substantially to lessen competition and to injure, destroy and prevent competition between the respondent and its competitors in the packing, sale and distribution of fruits, vegetables and vegetable products and also has been or may be substantially to lessen competition and to injure, destroy and prevent competition in the resale of such products between some of the favored purchasers of such products and some of the competitive customers dealing in said products not receiving such favorable prices. The effect of said discriminations in price also has been, or may be, to tend to create a monopoly in respondent in said line of commerce and to tend to create a monopoly in the said favored purchasers receiving such discriminatory prices in the resale of said products in the various localities or trade territories in the United States in which such purchasers respectively are engaged in business.

PAR. 7. The foregoing alleged acts and practices of said respondent are violations of Subsection 2 (a) and 2 (d) of Section 1 of said Act of Congress approved June 19, 1936, entitled "An Act to amend Section 2 of the act entitled 'An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C. Title 15, Section 13), and for other purposes."

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 16th day of April, A. D. 1938, hereby issues this, its complaint against said respondent, stating its charges in that respect as hereinabove set out.

Notice

Notice is hereby given you, Curtice Brothers Co., a corporation, respondent herein, that the 20th day of May, A. D. 1938, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violations of law charged in this complaint.

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer thereto. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of Practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule VII) provide as follows:

> In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a short and simple statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.
> Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided or failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further hearing or notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint, and to make, enter, issue, and serve upon respondent findings of fact and an order to cease and desist.
>
> If respondent desires to waive hearing on the charges set forth in the complaint and not to contest the proceeding, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of the complaint to be true. Any such answer shall be deemed to waive a hearing thereon, and to authorize the Commission, without trial and without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to make, enter, issue, and serve upon respondent:
> (a) In cases arising under Section 5 of the act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, entitled "An Act to create a Federal Trade Commission, to define its powers and duties, and for other purposes" (the Federal Trade Commission Act), or under Sections 2 and 3 of the Act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes" (the Clayton Act), or under Section 2 of the aforesaid Clayton Act as amended by "An Act to amend Section 2 of the Act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C., Title 15, Sec. 13), and for other purposes," approved June 19, 1936 (the Robinson-Patman Act), findings of fact and an order to cease and desist from the violations of law charged in the complaint.

In witness whereof, the Federal Trade Commission has caused this, its complaint, to be signed by its Secretary, and its official seal to be hereto affixed, at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of April, A. D., 1938.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

ADOPTION OF RULE 210

The Securities and Exchange Commission acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, particularly Sections 3 (b) and 19 (a) thereof, and finding that registration of the class of securities specified in the following rule, when sold in conformity with the terms and conditions prescribed therein, is not necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors by reason of the small amounts involved and the limited character of the public offerings, and finding the adoption of such rule necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and necessary to carry out the provisions of the Act, hereby takes the following action:

The following new rule is adopted, to be inserted in the "General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933" after Rule 209 of Regulation A:

RULE 210. General exemption of securities sold for cash in compliance with State law.—(a) Any securities offered to the public for cash (other than fractional undivided interests in oil or gas rights as defined in Rule 300 and certificates of interest as defined in Rule 360) shall be exempt from the operation of the Act to the same extent as the classes of securities specified in Section 3 (a) of the Act, subject to the following terms and conditions:

(1) The aggregate offering price of (A) the securities proposed to be offered, (B) all other securities of the issuer currently being offered under Regulation A, and (C) all securities of the issuer previously sold or subscribed for pursuant to an offering under Regulation A commenced within one year prior to the commencement of the proposed offering, shall not exceed $100,000. The aggregate offering price of securities offered at the market shall be taken as the product of the number of units offered multiplied by the price per unit at which the securities were sold on the first day of sale. The aggregate offering price of securities exchanged for bona fide outstanding securities or claims shall be determined as provided in Rule 205. The aggregate offering price of assessable shares of stock shall be taken as the sum of the offering price thereof determined as hereinbefore provided, and the aggregate amount of all assessments which may legally be levied thereon.

(2) No security shall be offered, sold, or delivered after sale in any State or Territory under the exemption provided by this rule except in compliance with all State or Territorial laws relating to the registration, qualification and licensing of securities and dealers which are applicable to the transaction of offering, sale, and delivery after sale or which would be applicable if such transaction were effected entirely within such State or Territory.

(3) No security shall be offered, sold, or delivered after sale in the District of Columbia under the exemption provided by this rule.

(4) No offering shall be made under the exemption provided by this rule until the issuer shall have filed with the Commission, at Washington, D. C., a letter of notification containing the following information: (A) the name and address of the issuer and of each principal underwriter; (B) the title of the issue, the amount proposed to be offered, and the proposed offering price per unit and aggregate offering price of the securities proposed to be offered; (C) a list of the States and Territories in which it is proposed to offer the securities; and (D) the title of issue of all securities of the issuer previously sold or subscribed for pursuant to an offering under Regulation A commenced within one year prior to the commencement of the proposed offering, indicating the aggregate sale or subscription price of such securities. No offering shall be made under the exemption provided by this rule in any State or Territory which was not listed in the original letter of notification until the issuer shall have filed a supplementary letter stating the name of such additional State or Territory.

(5) There shall be inserted in a conspicuous part of any written communication prepared or authorized by the issuer (or by a person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, the issuer) offering for sale any security herein exempted, in type as large as that used in the body thereof, the following statement:

> These securities have not been registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission because such securities are believed to be exempted from registration But such exemption, if available, in no sense indicates approval by the Commission of the merits of these securities.

However, the above statement need not be included in any communication (A) which merely states from whom a written prospectus may be obtained and, in addition, does no more than identify the security, state the price thereof, and state by whom orders will be executed, or (B) which is made to a person who concurrently receives, or previously has received, a written communication relating to the same securities and containing such required statement.

(6) Ten copies of each written communication prepared or authorized by the issuer (or by a person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the issuer) which is proposed to be used at the commencement of the public offering, or intended to be sent or delivered thereafter to more than ten persons, shall be filed with the Commission in Washington, D. C., prior to any use thereof.

(7) No security of the issuer shall be currently offered under the exemption provided by Rule 200, 201, 202, 203, or 206.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule, transactions effected in violation of any term or condition contained in paragraph (a) shall not operate to defeat the exemption as to other transactions which are effected by a person not directly or indirectly responsible for such violation, and which, except for such violation, conform to all applicable terms and conditions. In any case, the violation of any term or condition contained in paragraph (a) shall not operate to defeat the exemption as to any person who has, after reasonable investigation, reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe, that all applicable terms and conditions have been satisfied.

The foregoing action shall become effective immediately upon publication and, in the absence of any further action by the Commission, shall cease to be effective after October 29, 1938, except as to any offering commenced on or before that date.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

AMENDMENT NO. 32 TO INSTRUCTION BOOK FOR FORM A-2

The Securities and Exchange Commission, finding that any information or documents specified in Schedule A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which Form A-2 and the book of instructions accompanying that form, as hereby amended, do not require to be set forth, are inapplicable to the class of securities to which such form is appropriate, and that disclosure fully adequate for the protection of investors is otherwise required to be included in the registration statement, and that such information and documents as Form A-2 and the accompanying book of instructions, as hereby amended, require to be set forth, but which are not specified in Schedule A, are necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, particularly Sections 7 and 19 (a) thereof, hereby amends Form A-2 and the book of instructions accompanying that form, as follows:

I. At the end of the "Special Rules as to the Use of Form A-2 for Corporations", there is added a new rule reading as follows:

"7. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b) of the Rule as to the Use of Form A-2 for Corporations, this form may be used by a corporation which has had a net income for only one fiscal year of the five fiscal years preceding the date of the latest balance sheet filed with the registration statement, if

"(1) The corporation was organized at least five years prior to the date of filing;

"(2) Total assets of the registrant and its subsidiaries after deducting valuation and qualifying reserves, amount to not more than $5,000,000, as shown by the most recent balance sheets filed with the registration statement; and

"(3) The registrant is not an investment company, a bank holding company, or a small-loan or other finance company."

II. The second paragraph of the "Rule as to the Use of Form A-2 for Corporations" is amended to read as follows:

"(NOTE.—If the applicability of this form to any corporation depends upon net income for one or two fiscal years, and if such fiscal year, or if either or both of such two fiscal years, antecedes the period for which profit and loss statements are required by the Instructions as to Financial Statements in this Instruction Book, such corporation shall furnish for the information of the Commission at the time the registration statement is filed, but not as a part of the registration statement, profit and loss statements, in addition to those required by the Instructions as to Financial Statements, for such antecedent fiscal year, or the earlier of such two antecedent fiscal years, and for any intervening period prior to the first year for which such statements are required by the Instructions. Such additional profit and loss statements shall be prepared in accordance with the Instructions as to Financial Statements, except that they need not be certified and no schedules need be furnished.)"

III. At the end of the instructions to Item 45 and immediately preceding the instructions to Item 45 (a), the following additional paragraph is added:

"The information required by Item 45 may be omitted and Item 46 renumbered Item 45 if the registrant meets the conditions of Special Rule 7 as to the use of this form."

IV. In the instructions as to financial statements in the Instruction Book for Form A-2 there is added to paragraph 4 captioned "Special Financial Requirements as to Particular Classes of Registrants" a new subparagraph numbered (4) reading as follows:

"(4) Certain companies having total assets of less than $5,000,000.—If the registrant meets the conditions of Special Rule 7 as to the use of this form, the profit and loss statements required to be filed pursuant to paragraph 1 under the caption 'Instructions as to Financial Statements', and schedules required to be filed in support of the balance sheet and profit and loss statements, need be certified only for the most recent full fiscal year preceding the date of the certified balance sheet and for the period, if any, between the close of such fiscal year and the date of such balance sheet.

"Notwithstanding the requirements of Rule 563 any financial statement or part thereof previously or concurrently filed with the Commission pursuant to any act administered by the Commission may be incorporated by reference and, as to form and content, need only conform to the requirements of the form pursuant to which such statement or part thereof was filed."

The foregoing amendments shall become effective immediately after publication, and, in the absence of any further action by the Commission, shall cease to be effective after October 29, 1938.

By the Commission.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AMENDED—POWERS OF ATTORNEY

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to authority contained in section 251 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 66), and sections 484 and 624 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, secs. 1484 and 1624), article 301 (a) of the Customs Regulations of 1937 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) A power of attorney may be executed for the transaction of a specified part or for all the customs business of the principal, except that a separate power of attorney (customs Form 5295-A or 5295-B) will be required for filing protests. (See art. 849.) Customs Form 5291 may be used for powers of attorney for individuals and customs Form 5293 for corporations. If a power of attorney is not on a prescribed customs form it must be as explicit in its terms as is the prescribed customs form. If for the execution of sealed instruments it must be under seal. A power of attorney given by a partnership for the execution of sealed instruments must be signed and sealed by each partner. A power of attorney to a minor shall not be accepted. A power of attorney executed under authority of another power of attorney may be accepted if the grantor of the original power of attorney is a nonresident and such original power contains express authority from the principal for the appointment of a sub-agent or sub-agents, but powers of attorney of residents shall be without power of substitution except for the purpose of executing shippers' export declarations. A sub-agent so appointed may not delegate his authority.

COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION ¾ PERCENT NOTES OF SERIES C, DUE NOVEMBER 2, 1939

[Dated and bearing interest from May 2, 1938]

FULLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED BOTH AS TO INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL BY THE UNITED STATES, WHICH GUARANTY IS EXPRESSED ON THE FACE OF EACH NOTE

Exempt Both as to Principal and Interest From All Federal, State, Municipal, and Local Taxation (Except Surtaxes, Estate, Inheritance, and Gift Taxes)

APRIL 25, 1938.

I. Offering of Notes

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, on behalf of the Commodity Credit Corporation, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for notes of the Commodity Credit Corporation, designated ¾ percent notes of Series C. The amount of the offering is $200,000,000, or thereabouts.

II. Description of Notes

1. The notes will be dated May 2, 1938, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of ¾ percent per annum, payable semiannually on November 2, 1938, and on May 2 and November 2, 1939. They will mature November 2, 1939, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. These notes are issued under the authority of the act approved March 8, 1938, (Public No. 442—75th Congress) which provides that these notes shall be fully and unconditionally guaranteed both as to interest and principal by the United States; that they shall be deemed and held to be instrumentalities of the Government of the United States, and as such they and the income derived therefrom shall be exempt from Federal, State, municipal, and local taxation (except surtaxes, estate, inheritance, and gift taxes); and that the notes shall be lawful investments and may be accepted as security for all fiduciary, trust and public funds the investment or deposit of which shall be under the authority or control of the United States or any officer or officers thereof.

3. The authorizing act further provides that in the event the Commodity Credit Corporation shall be unable to pay upon demand, when due, the principal of, or interest on, such obligations, the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay to the holder the amount thereof which is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and thereupon to the extent of the amount so paid the Secretary of the Treasury shall succeed to all the rights of the holders of such obligations.

4. The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, but will not bear the circulation privilege.

5. Bearer notes with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000. The notes will not be issued in registered form.

III. Subscription and Allotment

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Others than banking institutions will not be permitted to enter subscriptions except for their own account. Cash subscriptions from banks and trust companies for their own account will be received without deposit but will be restricted in each case to an amount not exceeding one-half of the combined capital and surplus of the subscribing bank or trust company. Cash subscriptions from all others must be accompanied by payment of 10 percent of the amount of notes applied for. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of notes applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, subscriptions in payment of which Series B Collateral Trust Notes of the Corporation are tendered will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment, and the basis of the allotment will be publicly announced.

IV. Payment

1. Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for notes allotted on cash subscriptions must be made or completed on or before May 2, 1938, or on later allotment. In every case where payment is not so completed, the payment with application up to 10 percent of the amount of notes applied for shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Series B Collateral Trust Notes of the Commodity Credit Corporation, maturing May 2, 1938, will be accepted at par in payment for any notes subscribed for and allotted and should accompany the subscription.

V. General Provisions

1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for notes allotted, to make delivery of notes on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive notes.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks.

DETERMINATION OF FARMING PRACTICES TO BE CARRIED OUT IN CONNECTION WITH THE PRODUCTION OF SUGARCANE IN THE MAINLAND CANE SUGAR AREA DURING THE CROP YEAR 1938

Whereas, Section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937 authorizes the Secretary to make payments upon certain conditions with respect to sugar or liquid sugar commercially recoverable from the sugar beets and sugarcane grown on a farm for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar, and

Whereas, subsection (e) of section 301 of the said act provides, as one of the conditions for payment, as follows:

That there shall have been carried out on the farm such farming practices in connection with the production of sugar beets and sugarcane during the year in which the crop was harvested with respect to which a payment is applied for, as the Secretary may determine, pursuant to this subsection, for preserving and improving fertility of the soil and for preventing soil erosion, such practices to be consistent with the reasonable standards of the farming community in which the farm is situated.

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine that the conditions prescribed in said subsection (e) of section 301 of the said act shall be deemed to have been fulfilled with respect to the production of the 1938 crop of sugarcane for sugar on any farm in the mainland cane sugar area if there is carried out, on land on the farm which is adapted to the production of sugarcane for sugar, an acreage of soil-building practices equal to not less than 30 per centum of the acreage of sugarcane for sugar growing on the farm for harvest in 1938.

For the purposes of this determination:

A. Each acre of the following shall be counted as one acre of soil-building practices:

1. Seeding in 1938 biennial legumes, perennial legumes, perennial grasses (other than timothy or redtop) or mixtures (other than a mixture consisting solely of timothy and redtop) containing perennial grasses, perennial legumes, or biennial legumes.

2. Seeding in 1938 winter legumes, annual lespedeza, annual ryegrass, crotalaria, sesbania, or annual sweet clover.

3. Plowing or disking under in 1938 a good stand and good growth of a green manure crop, or cover crop (excluding lespedeza, peanuts hogged off, and any crop for which credit is given in 1938 under any other practice).

B. Each two acres of the following shall be counted as one acre of soil-building practices:

1. Turning under in 1938 a good stand and good growth of summer legumes (excluding peanuts and excluding summer legumes used as truck crops) interplanted or grown in combination with row crops, such as corn and sorghums, provided the summer legume occupies at least one-third of the land.

2. Seeding in 1938 timothy or redtop, or mixtures consisting solely of timothy and redtop.

C. Each of the following practices in the amounts specified shall be counted as one acre of soil-building practices if applied to a full seeding of perennial or biennial legumes, perennial grasses, winter legumes, lespedeza, crotalaria, or Natal grass:

1. Application in 1938 of 300 pounds of 16-percent superphosphate (or its equivalent) to, or in connection with the seeding of, perennial or biennial legumes, perennial grasses, winter legumes, lespedeza, crotalaria, Natal grass, or permanent pasture.

2. Application in 1938 of 500 pounds of basic slag or rock phosphate (including Colloidal phosphate) to, or in connection with the seeding of, perennial or biennial legumes, perennial grasses, winter legumes, lespedeza, crotalaria or Natal grass.

The soil conserving practices shall be carried out on the farm in accordance with farming methods commonly used in the community in which the farm is located and specifications approved by the Director of the Southern Division of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of April, 1938. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING GAME ANIMALS, LAND FUR-BEARING ANIMALS, GAME BIRDS, NONGAME BIRDS, AND NESTS AND EGGS OF BIRDS IN ALASKA

Pursuant to the authority and direction contained in section 10 of the Alaska Game Law of January 13, 1925 (43 Stat. 739; U. S. Code, title 48, sec. 198), as amended by act of February 14, 1931 (46 Stat. 1111; U. S. Code, title 48, sec. 198), upon consultation with and recommendation from the Alaska Game Commission, having determined when, to what extent, and by what means game animals, land fur-bearing animals, game birds, nongame birds, and nests and eggs of birds may be taken, possessed, transported, bought, or sold in Alaska, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby adopt and publish the following regulations permitting and governing the same, said regulations to be effective on and after July 25, 1938:

CHAPTER I.—GENERAL REGULATIONS

Regulation 1.—Definitions

For the purpose of these regulations the following shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

Secretary.—The Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

Commission.—The Alaska Game Commission.

Person.—The plural or the singular as the case demands, including individuals, associations, partnerships, and corporations, unless the context otherwise requires.

Take.—To take, pursue, disturb, hunt, capture, trap, or kill, or attempt to take, pursue, disturb, hunt, capture, trap, or kill, game animals, land fur-bearing animals, or game or nongame birds, or to set or use a net, trap, or other device for taking them, or to collect the nests or eggs of such birds. Whenever the taking of game animals, land fur-bearing animals, game or nongame birds, or the nests or eggs of birds is permitted, reference is had to taking by legal means and in legal manner.

Open season.—The time during which game animals, land fur-bearing animals, and game birds may legally be taken. Each period prescribed as an open season shall be construed to include the first and last days thereof.

Close season.—The time during which game animals, land fur-bearing animals, and game birds may not be taken.

Transport.—To transport, ship, carry, convey, import, or export, by any means or in any manner, or to receive or deliver for transportation, shipment, carriage, conveyance, or export, unless the context otherwise requires.

Game animal.—Deer, moose, caribou, elk, mountain sheep, mountain goat, and large brown and grizzly bears, and such other mammals as have been or may hereafter be introduced, including buffalo (bison) and musk ox.

Land fur-bearing animal.—Beaver, muskrat, marmot, ground squirrel (spermophile), fisher, fox, lynx, marten (sable), mink, weasel (ermine), land otter, wolverine, polar bear, and black bear, including its brown and blue (glacier bear) color variations.

Game bird.—(1) Migratory: Duck, goose, brant, swan, shorebird (commonly known as plover, sandpiper, snipe, curlew, phalarope, dowitcher, knot, oyster-catcher, surf bird, turnstone, yellowlegs, godwit, and tattler), and crane; and (2) Resident: The several species of grouse and ptarmigan and such other birds as have been or may hereafter be introduced, including Chinese or ring-necked pheasant; which migratory and resident game birds shall be known as small game.

Nongame bird.—Every wild bird except a game bird.

Territory.—The Territory of Alaska.

Reg. 2.—Licenses of Hunters, Trappers, and Guides

These regulations do not permit any person to take, possess, or transport game animals, land fur-bearing animals, or birds, or to purchase or sell land fur-bearing animals or parts thereof, or to act as a guide in the Territory unless he is in possession of a valid license bearing his signature written in ink on the face thereof, if he is required by the Alaska Game Law or regulations of the Commission thereunder to have such license, and he shall have his license on his person when taking such animals or birds or when acting as a guide and shall produce it for inspection by any game warden or other person requesting to see it.

Each application for a license shall be made on the form prescribed by the Commission and if the application is made by mail it shall be accompanied by a draft on a Juneau bank or an express or postal money order payable to the Commission for the amount of the license fee.

Reg. 3.—Taking Animals and Birds in Emergencies

An Indian, Eskimo, or half-breed, or an explorer, prospector, or traveler, may take animals or birds in any part of the Territory at any time for food when in absolute need thereof and other food is not available, but he shall not transport or sell any animal, bird, or part thereof so taken, and an Indian, Eskimo, or half-breed also may take, possess, and transport, at any time, auks, auklets, guillemots, murres, and puffins and their eggs for food, and their skins for clothing for their own use and that of their immediate families.

Reg. 4.—Using Game as Food for Dogs or Land Fur-Bearing Animals or as Crab Bait

No person is permitted to feed any mountain sheep (bighorn) or deer, or part thereof, to any dog or to any land fur-bearing animal held in captivity, and no person is permitted to feed any other game animal, protected bird, or part thereof, to a dog boarded for pay or to a land fur-bearing animal held in captivity, except the waste parts, such as hides, viscera, and bones; and no person is permitted to use any part of any game animal or protected bird for crab bait.

Reg. 5.—Continuous Close Season on All Species in Specified Areas

These regulations do not permit the taking at any time of any game animal, land fur-bearing animal, or game or nongame bird, or the nests or eggs of such birds, on any area specified in Schedule A of these regulations except for scientific or propagating purposes, and then only under specific permit issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, supplemented by such permit as may be required by any other Department having administrative supervision of the particular area.

Reg. 6.—Continuous Close Season on Certain Species in Specified Areas

These regulations do not permit the taking at any time of the game animals, land fur-bearing animals, or game birds specified in Schedule B of these regulations on areas correlated with said animals or birds in said Schedule B, except for scientific or propagating purposes, and then only under specific permit issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, supplemented by such permit as may be required by any other Department having administrative supervision of the particular area.

CHAPTER II.—GAME ANIMALS

Reg. 7.—Taking Game Animals and Methods of Taking

Game animals may be taken on areas not closed by regulations 5 and 6, during the respective open seasons and in the numbers not exceeding the respective season limits prescribed in regulation 8, with a shotgun (not larger than No. 10 gage, nor capable of holding more than three shells), rifle, pistol, bow and arrow, or spear; but not with the aid or use of a dog, machine or submachine gun, set gun of any description, pit, deadfall, fire, jack light, searchlight, or other artificial light, or from or by means of a motor vehicle, airplane, steam or power launch, or any boat other than one propelled by paddle, oars, or pole, or while such animals are swimming, or within the First and Third Judicial Divisions of the Territory by shooting from, on, or across, or within 33 feet of the center line of any public highway; and when legally taken such animals, or parts thereof, may be possessed, transported, or sold as permitted by regulations 9 and 11.

Reg. 8.—Open Seasons and Limits on Certain Game Animals

Deer, bucks (with horns not less than 3 inches in length above the top of the skull).—East of longitude 138° in southeastern Alaska, August 20 to November 15.

West of longitude 138°, no open season, except for resident only under a special hunting permit of the Secretary, in the drainage to Prince William Sound north of the center of the C. R. & N. W. Railway and west of Mountain Slough, including the islands of said sound, except Hawkins and Knight Islands, September 20 to September 30.

Limit.—East of longitude 138°, 3 a season.

In restricted area west of longitude 138° (under special resident hunting permit only), 1 a season.

Moose, bulls (except yearlings and calves).—September 1 to December 31.

Limit.—1 a season.

Caribou.—North of the Yukon River, no close season.

South of the Yukon River, August 20 to December 31.

Limit.—North of the Yukon River: By resident, 5 a year; by nonresident, 2 a year.

South of the Yukon River: By resident, 3 a season; by nonresident, 2 a season.

Mountain sheep, rams (except lambs).—August 20 to November 30.

Limit.—By nonresident on the Kenai Peninsula south of Turnagain Arm, Portage Creek, and a line from its head to the head of Passage Canal, 1 a season; in rest of Territory, 2 a season.

By resident south of the Arctic Circle, 2 a season, except on the Kenai Peninsula south of Turnagain Arm, Portage Creek, and a line from its head to the head of Passage Canal, 1 a season; north of the Arctic Circle, 3 a season.

Mountain goat (except kids).—August 20 to November 30.

Limit.—2 a season.

Bear (large brown or grizzly).—September 1 to June 20, except that a resident is restricted to this season in the following described areas only:

Alaska Peninsula south of the Kvichak River and Iliamna Lake.

The drainage to Cook Inlet from the west northward to the south banks of the Happy and Skwentna Rivers.

That portion of the drainage to Cook Inlet south and west of the Yentna River to its confluence with the Susitna River.

That area east and south of the left banks of the Susitna River and Willow Creek and of a line from the head of Willow Creek to the mouth of the Knik River.

That portion of the mainland draining to Cook Inlet, Prince William Sound, and the Gulf of Alaska south to Knik Arm, Knik River, Knik Glacier, and the divide of the Chugach Mountains from the head of said glacier running generally easterly through Thompson Pass to the head of Childs Glacier; thence down the center line of said glacier to the center of the C. R. & N. W. Railway bridge across Copper River at mile 49; thence up the center line of Miles Glacier to the summit of the Chugach Mountains; thence along the summit of said mountains to Mount St. Elias.

All of southeastern Alaska east of longitude 141°.

The islands of the Kodiak-Afognak group (except Afognak Island), Montague, Hinchinbrook, Hawkins, Yacobi, Kruzof, Chichagof, Baranof, and Admiralty. A large brown or grizzly bear may be killed at any time or place in the Territory when about to attack or molest persons or their property. Persons so killing such animal shall make a written report to the Commission setting forth the reasons for such killing and the time and place.

Limit.—By resident on Admiralty Island, 1 a season; in the above specially described areas, 2 in the aggregate a season; in rest of Territory, no limit.

By nonresident on Admiralty Island, 1 a season; in rest of Territory, 2 in the aggregate a season.

Reg. 9.—Possession and Transportation of Game Animals

Game animals (except live animals) legally taken in numbers not exceeding the respective season limits prescribed in regulation 8, the hides, heads, and feet thereof, and articles made therefrom, may be possessed and transported by any person at any time within the Territory, and, as hereinafter permitted by this regulation, may be transported out of the Territory; but until dismembered, no carcass of deer, moose, or mountain sheep shall be so mutilated that the sex cannot be determined.

By resident.—(1) At the discretion of the Commission, a permit may be issued to a resident of the Territory for the export by express or freight of a legally taken or acquired game animal, or part thereof, for purposes other than sale. Such permit may be obtained from any game warden or collector of customs upon payment of the required fee. The permit must accompany the bill of lading covering shipment to the port of clearance, where it will be taken up by the collector of customs and returned to the Commission.

(2) A resident may export by express, freight, or parcel post for mounting and return to the Territory within 1 year, but not for sale, any game animal or part thereof legally taken or acquired by him upon first procuring a resident export license, which license shall accompany the bill of lading when shipment is made by freight or express, and if made by parcel post, the license shall be attached securely to the outside of the package in a conspicuous place. On return of the trophy to the licensee by express or freight, the export license shall accompany the bill of lading, but if returned by parcel post, the license shall be attached securely to the outside of the package in a conspicuous place, and the collector of customs at the port of entry, or the postmaster through whose office the package is received, shall detach the license, note thereon the contents of the shipment, and promptly return it to the Commission.

By nonresident.—A nonresident citizen or an alien who is the holder of a valid license may possess and transport within the Territory, or export, by express or freight only, when legally taken by him, not to exceed in the aggregate 3 deer, 1 moose, 2 caribou; 2 mountain sheep, not more than 1 of which shall have been taken on the Kenai Peninsula as particularly described in regulation 8; 2 mountain goats; and 2 in the aggregate of large brown and grizzly bears, not more than 1 of which shall have been taken on Admiralty Island; or any part of such animals. Before any such animal or part thereof shall be exported, the person offering it for export shall first deliver to the transportation agent at the point of shipment his affidavit that he has not violated any of the provisions of the Alaska Game Law or the regulations thereunder; that such animal or part thereof has not been purchased or sold and is not being shipped for sale; and that he legally killed and is the owner of such animal or part thereof. If the shipment consists of a mountain sheep or part thereof, the affidavit must show where in the Territory the animal was killed. Such affidavit shall accompany the express or freight bill of lading to the port of clearance, there to be taken up and promptly transmitted to the Commission by the collector of customs.

Manufactured articles and shed antlers.—Any person may without a permit or license possess and transport at any time within or out of the Territory any article manufactured from the hides or hoofs of deer, caribou, or mountain goats, legally taken; and in fur districts 5 and 8 parka hood trimmings cut from the hides of grizzly bears in strips not to exceed 4 inches in width, legally taken; and the shed antlers of deer, moose, and caribou.

Possession without license.—Any person possessing any game animal or part thereof without a valid hunting or trapping license shall furnish on demand to any officer authorized to enforce the Alaska Game Law an affidavit showing the name or license number of the person from whom he received it, together with such other information as the officer may require.

Reg. 10.—Marking Packages Containing Game Animals

Each package in which game animals or parts thereof are transported within or out of the Territory shall have clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee and an accurate statement of the number of each kind of game animal or part thereof contained therein.

Reg. 11.—Sale and Serving of Caribou and Moose

The meat of caribou legally killed in the Territory and the meat of moose legally killed north of the Alaska Range and the Kuskokwim-Bristol Bay Divide may be sold for food in the respective areas by the person killing said animals, to the owner or operator of a restaurant, roadhouse, or public or other eating house within said respective areas, but no person to whom such meat is so sold shall resell it otherwise than in cooked form and then only under permit prescribed by the Secretary and issued in the discretion of the Commission, which permit may authorize the purchase and possession of caribou or moose in excess of the numbers permitted under these regulations, but such meats shall not be sold or served within 5 miles of the Alaska Railroad of or Steese Highway from Fairbanks to and including Chatanika.

The meat of caribou or moose is not permitted to be sold to the owner, master, or employee of any coastal or river steamer, commercial power or sail boat, pile driver, barge, scow, boat under charter, cannery, or mine (where five or more men are employed), nor may any such owner, master, operator, or employee buy or serve any such animal or part thereof.

The meat of caribou or moose is not permitted to be possessed for serving or served in any dining car, mess house operated by a railroad, or mine (where five or more men are employed), by a contractor, or by an owner of a cannery, or by or in any other place maintained for the serving of food regularly to employees of such railroad, mine, contractor, or cannery.

The meat of caribou or moose is not permitted to be served to an employee of any coastal or river steamer, commercial power or sail boat, pile driver, barge, scow, boat under charter, cannery, or mine (where five or more men are employed.)

No contractor or person operating a railroad, mine (where five or more men are employed), cannery, coastal or river steamer, or other commercial power or sail boat, pile driver, barge, scow, boat under charter, or any employee of any such contractor, operator, or person, is permitted to possess the meat of caribou or moose in a dining car, mess house, or the galley or dining room of any such boat, pile driver, barge, scow, or mine (where five or more men are employed.)

Reg. 12.—Sale of Trophies of Game Animals

Any person may without a permit or license buy and sell at any time in the Territory the hides or parts of hides and the hoofs and articles manufactured therefrom of deer, moose, caribou, and mountain goats, and in fur districts 5 and 8, parka hood trimmings cut from the hides of grizzly bears in strips not to exceed 4 inches in width, legally taken; and the shed antlers of deer, moose, and caribou.

CHAPTER III.—LAND FUR-BEARING ANIMALS

Reg. 13.—Fur Districts and Open Seasons and Limits on Land Fur-Bearing Animals

The following-named land fur-bearing animals may be taken in the fur districts, herein defined, other than in areas closed to such taking by regulations 5 and 6, in the open seasons and in the numbers not exceeding the respective season limits prescribed in this regulation:

Fur district 1.—All of southeastern Alaska from Dixon Entrance to Cape Fairweather and along longitude 138° to the international boundary:

Open seasons.—

Mink, marten, land otter, weasel (ermine), fox (red, cross, and silver), and lynx.—No open season.

Muskrat.—No open season.

Beaver.—No open season.

Black bear.—September 1 to June 20.

Limit.—2 a season, but a black bear may be killed at any time or place when about to attack or molest persons or property. Persons so killing such animal shall make a written report to the Commission setting forth the reasons for such killing and time and place.

Wolf, coyote, wolverine, marmot, and ground squirrel (spermophile).—No close season, may be taken by any person at any time in a legal manner.

Fur district 2.—That part of southern Alaska draining to the Gulf of Alaska and Cook Inlet, beginning with the western boundary line of fur district 1 and following longitude 138° from Cape Fairweather to the international boundary and along this boundary to Mount St. Elias; thence following the summit of the Chugach Range to the head of Miles Glacier; thence down the center line of said glacier to the center of the C. R. & N. W. Railway bridge across the Copper River at mile 49; thence up the center line of Childs Glacier to its summit; thence along the divide through Marshall Pass and Thompson Pass; thence along the divide to Tahneta Pass; thence along the divide separating the waters of the Matanuska River from the Nelchina River and the Talkeetna River from the Oshetna River; thence along the divide separating the waters of the Oshetna River from Kosina Creek to and across the Susitna River at a point 4 miles northwest of the mouth of Goose Creek; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing northwest into the Susitna River from those flowing southerly into the Susitna River; thence following said divide separating the waters flowing north into the Nenana River from those flowing southerly into the Susitna and Chulitna Rivers and across Broad Pass and the Alaska Railroad at mile 308; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing south into the Chulitna River from those flowing north into Cantwell Creek and the Nenana River to the summit of the Alaska Range; thence along said summit through Rainy Pass to Merrill Pass; thence along the summit of the Chigmit Mountains, separating the waters flowing easterly into Cook Inlet from those flowing westerly into the Kuskokwim River and Bristol Bay, to its intersection with the old portage from Kamishak Bay to Kakhonak Bay on Iliamna Lake; thence along said portage to Kamishak Bay.

Open seasons.—

Mink, land otter, weasel (ermine), fox (red, cross, and silver), and lynx.—December 1 to the last day of February; except that there shall be no open season in that part of the Kenai Peninsula west of the center line of the Alaska Railroad.

Marten.—No open season.

Muskrat.—April 1 to May 31; except on Kenai Peninsula, no open season.

Beaver.—No open season.

Black bear.—September 1 to June 20.

Limit.—3 a season, but a black bear may be killed at any time or place when about to attack or molest persons or property. Persons so killing such animal shall make a written report to the Commission setting forth the reasons for such killing and time and place.

Wolf, coyote, wolverine, marmot, and ground squirrel (spermophile).—No close season, may be taken by any person at any time in a legal manner.

Fur district 3.—Consisting of the Aleutian Islands, Unimak Island, Amak Island, all the islands lying south of the Alaska Peninsula, the Kodiak-Afognak Islands group, the Barren Islands, Augustine Island, and the Alaska Peninsula from False Pass to the mouth of Reindeer Creek, thence following said creek and a line to the center of Aniakchak Crater, and including that part of said peninsula consisting of the drainage to the Pacific Ocean south of a line following the divide from the center of Aniakchak Crater to the old portage from Kamishak Bay to Kakhonak Bay; thence along said portage on the boundary of fur district 2 to Kamishak Bay.

Open seasons.—

Mink, land otter, weasel (ermine), fox (red, cross, silver, white and blue), and lynx.—November 16 to January 15; except that there shall be no open season for mink, land otter, or weasel (ermine) on Unimak Island.

Marten.—No open season.

Muskrat.—March 10 to May 10.

Beaver.—No open season.

Wolf, coyote, wolverine, black bear, marmot, and ground squirrel (spermophile).—No close season; may be taken by any person at any time in a legal manner.

Fur district 4.—All the drainage to Bristol Bay, bounded on the south by the northern boundary of fur district 3, on the east by the western boundary of fur district 2, and on the north by a line beginning at Cape Newenham and extending along the summit of the divide separating the waters flowing northerly into Kuskokwim Bay and Kuskokwim River from those flowing southerly into Bristol Bay, to its intersection with the western boundary of fur district 2 at a point approximately 22 miles south of Merrill Pass.

Open seasons.—

Mink, land otter, weasel (ermine), fox (red, cross, silver, white, and blue), and lynx.—December 1 to February 15.

Marten.—No open season.

Muskrat.—March 10 to May 10.

Beaver.—April 10 to May 10.

Limit.—10 a season.

Wolf, coyotte, wolverine, black bear, marmot, and ground squirrel (spermophile).—No close season; may be taken by any person at any time in a legal manner.

Fur district 5.—That part of western Alaska draining to Kuskokwim Bay, Bering Sea, Norton Sound, and Kotzebue Sound, bounded on the east by a line beginning at Cape Newenham and extending along the divide separating the waters flowing into Kuskokwim Bay and Kuskokwim River from those flowing into Bristol Bay and the Tikchik Lakes; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing into Tulusak River and Whitefish Lake from those flowing into the Aniak River and Swift Creek; thence to a point on the Kuskokwim River opposite the mouth of the first stream on the north bank above Ohagamut; thence across the Kuskokwim River and following the center of said first north-bank stream above Ohagamut to its head; thence along the divide separating the waters of Paimute Portage flowing into Big Lake from those flowing into the Yukon River; thence to a point on the Yukon River 15 miles below Paimiut Village; thence following down the south bank of the Yukon River to a point 5 miles below Dogfish Village; thence across the Yukon River to Mount Chiniklik; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing into the Stuyahok River from those flowing into the Kuyukutuk River; thence continuing along said divide separating the waters flowing easterly into the Yukon River from those flowing westerly into Norton Sound; thence continuing along said divide separating the waters flowing into the Koyukuk River from those flowing into Kotzebue Sound to the summit of the divide separating those flowing into the Colville River from those flowing into the Noatak River; thence westerly along the divide separating the waters flowing north into the Arctic Ocean from those flowing south into the Noatak and Kukpuk Rivers to the coast at Cape Lisburne.

Open seasons.—

Mink, land otter, weasel (ermine), fox (red, cross, silver, white, and blue), and lynx.—November 16 to March 10.

Marten.—No open season.

Muskrat.—North of the Unalakleet River drainage, April 1 to June 7; except Golovin Bay drainage, no open season; south of the Unalakleet River, including its drainage, April 1 to May 31.

Beaver.—April 25 to May 25.

Limit.—10 a season.

Wolf, coyote, wolverine, polar bear, black bear, marmot, and ground squirrel (spermophile).—No close season; may be taken by any person at any time in a legal manner.

Fur district 6.—All the watershed of the Tanana River, the upper Copper River, part of the lower Yukon River, and the upper Kuskokwim River, bounded on the east by the international boundary, on the south by the northern boundaries of fur districts 2 and 4, on the west by the eastern boundary of fur district 5, and on the north by a line beginning at International Boundary Monument No. 146 and following the divide separating the waters of the north fork of the Ladue River from those of the Ladue River; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing northerly into the Yukon River from those flowing southerly into the Tanana River, through Far Mountain, Twelve Mile Summit, and Wickersham Dome; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing easterly into Beaver Creek from those flowing westerly into Hess Creek; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing southwesterly into Hess Creek from those flowing northerly into the Yukon River; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing southerly into Waldron Creek from those flowing northerly into the Yukon River, to the site of old Fort Hamlin; thence across the Yukon River to the divide separating the waters flowing northerly into the Dall River from those flowing southerly into the Ray River; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing northerly into the Kanuti River from those flowing southerly into the Yukon River; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing westerly into the Koyukuk River from those flowing southerly into the Melozitna River; thence along the divide separating those waters flowing into the Koyukuk River above the upper end of Treat Island from those entering below said point, to the Koyukuk River; thence across the Koyukuk River at the upper end of Treat Island and northwesterly along the divide separating the waters flowing easterly into the Hogatza River and Koyukuk River from those flowing southerly into the Koyukuk River, to Cone Mountain; thence along the divide separating the waters flowing easterly into the Hogatza River from those flowing westerly into the Dakli River, to the intersection with the eastern boundary of fur district 5.

Open seasons.—

Mink, land otter, weasel (ermine), fox (red, cross, silver, white, and blue), and lynx.—November 16 to February 20.

Marten.—No open season.

Muskrat.—April 1 to May 31.

Beaver.—April 20 to May 20, except that there shall be no open season in that part of the Tanana River drainage east of the Richardson Highway and south and east of the divide between the Goodpaster River drainage and the Shaw Creek drainage, and the divide between the Goodpaster River drainage and the upper Salcha River drainage.

Limit.—10 a season.

Wolf, coyote, wolverine, black bear, marmot, and ground squirrel (spermophile).—No close season; may be taken by any person at any time in a legal manner.

Fur district 7.—All the drainage to the upper Koyukuk and upper Yukon Rivers bounded on the east by the international boundary, on the north by the summit of the Brooks Range, on the west by the eastern boundary of fur district 5, and on the south by the northern boundary of fur district 6.

Open seasons.—

Mink, land otter, weasel (ermine), fox (red, cross, silver, white, and blue), and lynx.—November 6 to February 20.

Marten.—No open season.

Muskrat.—March 1 to May 31.

Beaver.—April 20 to May 20.

Limit.—10 a season.

Wolf, coyote, wolverine, black bear, marmot, and ground squirrel (spermophile).—No close season; may be taken by any person at any time in a legal manner.

Fur district 8.—The Arctic coast of Alaska, consisting of all the drainage to the Arctic Ocean north of the northern boundaries of fur districts 5 and 7.

Open seasons.—

Mink, land otter, weasel (ermine), fox (red, cross, silver, white, and blue), and lynx.—November 16 to March 31.

Marten.—No open season.

Muskrat.—April 10 to June 10.

Beaver.—No open season.

Wolf, coyote, wolverine, polar bear, black bear, marmot, and ground squirrel (spermophile).—No close season; may be taken by any person at any time in a legal manner.

Reg. 14.—Methods of Taking Land Fur-Bearing Animals

Land fur-bearing animals are not permitted to be taken by means, aid, or use of a set gun of any description, a shotgun, fire, jack light, pit lamp, searchlight, or other artificial light, trap or device known as the "klips," steel bear trap or any other trap with jaws having a spread exceeding 9 inches, strychnine, or other poison. No dog shall be used to take any such animal (except polar bears in fur district 8 and wolves and coyotes in fur districts 5, 6, 7, and 8), and no land fur-bearing animal on which there is a close season shall be taken from its home, den, or hole by digging, smoking, or use of chemicals.

Blackfish traps, so-called, commonly used near the Bering Sea coast for taking blackfish, shall be properly screened to prevent the capture or killing of land fur-bearing animals.

Beavers. No trap shall be set within 25 feet of any beaver house or den.

Beaver and muskrat homes, houses, dens, dams, or runways are not permitted to be injured or destroyed.

Foxes are not permitted to be taken by the use of a trap set within 100 feet of a fox den.

Reg. 15.—Setting Traps in Close Seasons

During the close seasons on land fur-bearing animals in the respective fur districts, no person, unless authorized by a permit, which may be issued in the discretion of the Commission, shall set, maintain, or attend traps for wolves, coyotes, or other animals on which there is no close season. Application for such permit shall be addressed to the Alaska Game Commission, Juneau, Alaska, and shall contain a statement of the nature, extent, and locality of the proposed operations, and the species of animals to be taken.

Reg. 16.—Possession and Transportation of Skins of Land Fur-Bearing Animals

The skins or parts thereof of land fur-bearing animals on which an open season is prescribed by regulation 13, when legally taken or acquired, and the skins or parts thereof of wolves, coyotes, and land fur-bearing animals on which there is no close season, may be possessed and transported by any person at any time, under the conditions prescribed in this chapter, but no person who is engaged in fur farming or is a fur dealer shall possess or transport the skin or part thereof of any land fur-bearing animal unless at the time of such possession or transportation he has a valid fur-farm or fur-dealer license, as the case may be, issued to him pursuant to the Alaska Game Law No person is permitted to possess or transport at any time the skin or part thereof of a land fur-bearing animal that has been illegally taken or acquired.

Where transportation is by express or freight, the shipper shall first deliver to the transportation agent at the point of shipment, or where by parcel post, to the postmaster at the point of mailing, a statement correctly showing the number and kinds of skins in each shipment and stating that no illegal skin or unsealed beaver skin or, after October 31, 1938, that no unsealed marten skin, is contained therein. Such statement shall accompany the express or freight shipment to the port of clearance, there to be taken up by the collector of customs, or, in the case of parcel post shipments, by the postmaster at the office where mailed. Where such skins are transported out of the Territory by means other than express, freight, or parcel post, the person transporting them shall make and deliver a like statement to the collector of customs at the port of clearance. Collectors and postmasters shall promptly transmit such statements to the Commission.

Transportation agents and postmasters shall not knowingly accept shipments containing skins or parts thereof of such land fur-bearing animals without such statement.

Reg. 17.—Purchase and Sale of Skins of Land Fur-Bearing Animals

A person who is engaged or employed in the business of trading in skins of land fur-bearing animals and who is in possession of a valid license, issued pursuant to the Alaska Game Law, authorizing him so to do may at any time buy and sell the skins of land fur-bearing animals legally taken, tagged, or sealed, as the case may be, and such person shall have his license with him when buying or selling such skins, except that a person buying or selling skins at an established place of business shall have his license posted conspicuously on the premises, and each such licensee shall produce his license for inspection by any game warden or other person requesting to see it.

A person who is not engaged or employed in the business of trading in the skins of land fur-bearing animals may acquire by purchase or trade without a license the skins of such animals legally taken, possessed, or sealed, as the case may be, for his own use, but he is not permitted to sell the skins so acquired.

A native-born Indian, Eskimo, or half-breed who has not severed his tribal relations by adopting a civilized mode of living or by exercising the right of franchise, or a licensed hunter or trapper, may sell without a fur-dealer's license the skins or parts thereof of land fur-bearing animals which he has legally taken and which, if required by this chapter, are legally tagged or sealed.

Reg. 18.—Sealing, Possession, and Sale of Beaver and Marten Skins

Skins of beavers and martens imported into the Territory shall be sealed with a seal prescribed by the Commission. Persons importing such skins shall within 30 days after such importation present them to a game warden or other officer authorized by the Commission to seal such skins, together with such proof of entry and legal possession by affidavit or otherwise as the Commission or any such officer may require.

Persons taking the skins of beavers in the Territory shall during the open season in which they were legally taken or within 90 days immediately thereafter personally present them for sealing or tagging to a game warden or any other officer authorized by the Commission to seal or tag skins, together with an affidavit of legal taking on a form furnished by the Commission and such other affidavits as may be required by any officer authorized to seal or tag skins. Persons residing in remote localities and finding it impracticable to present skins to an officer authorized to seal them may present such skins, together with affidavit of lawful taking on a form furnished by the Commission to any person authorized by the Commission to attach thereto a tag permitting skins, if legally taken, to be sold and transported within the Territory, subject to examination and authentication by a representative of the Commission. Skins so tagged shall be presented by a lawful possessor to a game warden or any other officer authorized by the Commission to seal skins, for sealing during the open season in which they were taken or within 90 days immediately thereafter, but such officer may require further affidavits of the person taking the skins at any time before he accepts and seals them. No person is permitted to sell, trade, or otherwise dispose of the skins of beavers during the open season or within 90 days thereafter unless they have been sealed or tagged as hereinbefore provided, or to purchase or otherwise procure any such untagged or unsealed skins at any time.

On or before October 31, 1938, all persons possessing marten skins shall present them to a game warden or other person authorized to seal such skins, for sealing as prescribed by the Commission.

Skins of beavers and martens, unless sealed as prescribed by this regulation, are not permitted to be possessed or transported by any person after the expiration of the time within which they are required by this regulation to be sealed.

No person other than a bona fide fur dealer is permitted to possess at any time in the Territory, unless sealed, numbers of skins of beavers in excess of the season limit prescribed in regulation 13.

Reg. 19.—Marking Packages Containing Skins of Land Fur-Bearing Animals and Wolves and Coyotes

Each package in which the skins or parts thereof of land fur-bearing animals and wolves and coyotes are transported within or out of the Territory shall have clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee and an accurate statement of the number of each kind of such skins contained therein.

Reg. 20.—Possession of Live Land Fur-Bearing Animals

Live land fur-bearing animals, legally taken during the respective open seasons thereon, may be retained or sold for propagation within the Territory, but persons possessing such animals shall within 30 days after the close of said season report such taking and possession to the Alaska Game Commission at Juneau and apply for a permit to possess them.

Reg. 21.—Recapture of Escaped Land Fur-bearing Animals

Operators of licensed fur farms from which land fur-bearing animals escape from captivity may conduct operations for the recapture of such escaped animals through the use of legal trapping devices within a period of 30 days after the discovery of the escape. If such operations are conducted during the close season on wild animals of the same species, such operator shall immediately notify the nearest game warden in writing of the numbers and kinds of escaped animals, the kinds of devices being used in recapturing operations, and the locality where such operations are being conducted.

Reg. 22.—Duties of Fur Farmers and Fur Dealers

Each licensed fur farmer or fur dealer, including stores operated by missions or otherwise for native Indians, Eskimos, or half-breeds, must comply with the provisions of all Territorial laws relating to fur farmers and fur dealers, as the case may be, and at all reasonable hours shall allow any member of the Commission, any game warden, or any authorized employee of the United States Department of Agriculture to enter and inspect the premises where operations are being carried on under the Alaska Game Law and the regulations thereunder, and to inspect the books and records relating thereto. Each licensed fur farmer shall submit annually a written report on a form furnished by the Commission stating the numbers and kinds of land fur-bearing animals farmed, the numbers and kinds of live land fur-bearing animals or skins or pelts thereof bought or sold, and the methods of fur farming employed.

CHAPTER IV.—GAME BIRDS

Reg. 23.—Taking Grouse and Ptarmigan and Methods of Taking

Grouse and ptarmigan may be taken on areas not closed to such taking by regulations 5 and 6, during the open season and in the numbers not exceeding the respective daily limits prescribed in the following regulation, with a shotgun (not larger than No. 10 gage nor capable of holding more than three shells), rifle, pistol, bow and arrow, or spear, and with the aid of a dog, but they shall not be taken from or by means, aid, or use of aircraft or steam or power boat of any kind, motor vehicle, jack light, searchlight, or other artificial light, nor within the First and Third Judicial Divisions of the Territory by shooting from, on, or across, or within 33 feet of the center line of any public highway, and when legally taken may be possessed, transported, or sold as permitted by regulations 25 and 27.

Reg. 24.—Open Season and Limits on Grouse and Ptarmigan

Open season.—September 1 to the last day of February.

Limit.—Grouse, 15; ptarmigan, 25, but not to exceed 25 in the aggregate of all kinds of grouse and ptarmigan a day.

Such daily limits shall include all such birds taken by any other person who for hire accompanies or assists the hunter in taking them.

Reg. 25.—Possession and Transportation of Grouse and Ptarmigan

Grouse and ptarmigan legally taken and the skins and feathers thereof and articles made therefrom may be possessed and transported by any person at any time within the Territory, and, as hereinafter permitted by this regulation, may be transported out of the Territory.

By resident.—(1) At the discretion of the Commission, a permit may be issued to a resident of the Territory for the export by express or freight of legally taken or acquired grouse or ptarmigan, or parts thereof, for purposes other than sale. Such permit may be obtained from any game warden or collector of customs upon payment of the required fee. The permit must accompany the bill of lading covering shipment to the port of clearance, where it will be taken up by the collector of customs and returned to the Commission.

(2) A resident may export by express, freight, or parcel post for mounting and return to the Territory within 1 year, but not for sale, any grouse or ptarmigan or part thereof legally taken or acquired by him upon first procuring a resident export license, which license shall accompany the bill of lading when shipment is made by freight or express, and if made by parcel post, the license shall be attached securely to the outside of the package in a conspicuous place. On return of the mounted specimen to the licensee by express or freight, the export license shall accompany the bill of lading, but if returned by parcel post, the license shall be attached securely to the outside of the package in a conspicuous place, and the collector of customs at the port of entry, or the postmaster through whose office the package is received, shall detach the license, note thereon the contents of the shipment, and promptly return it to the Commission.

By nonresident.—A nonresident citizen or an alien who is the holder of a valid license may possess and transport within the Territory grouse and ptarmigan legally taken by him, or he may export, by express or freight only, not to exceed in the aggregate 1 day's limit of such grouse or ptarmigan. Before any such grouse or ptarmigan or part thereof shall be exported, the person offering it for export shall first deliver to the transportation agent at the point of shipment his affidavit that he has not violated any of the provisions of the Alaska Game Law or the regulations thereunder; that such grouse or ptarmigan or part thereof has not been purchased or sold and is not being shipped for sale; and that he legally killed or is the owner of such grouse or ptarmigan or part thereof. Such affidavit shall accompany the express or freight bill of lading to the port of clearance, there to be taken up and promptly transmitted to the Commission by the collector of customs.

Any person possessing any grouse or ptarmigan or part thereof without a valid license shall furnish on demand to any officer authorized to enforce the Alaska Game Law an affidavit showing the name and license number of the person from whom he received such grouse or ptarmigan or part thereof together with such other information as the officer may require.

Reg. 26.—Marking Packages Containing Grouse and Ptarmigan

Each package in which grouse and ptarmigan, or parts thereof, are transported within or out of the Territory, shall have clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee an accurate statement of the number of each kind of such birds or parts thereof contained therein.

Reg. 27.—Sale and Serving of Grouse and Ptarmigan

The meat of grouse or ptarmigan legally killed in the area north of the Alaska Range and the Kuskokwim-Bristol Bay Divide may be sold for food in that area by the person killing said birds, to the owner or operator of a restaurant, roadhouse, or public or other eating house within said restricted area, but no person to whom such meat is sold shall resell it otherwise than in cooked form and then only under permit prescribed by the Secretary and issued in the discretion of the Commission, which permit may authorize the purchase and possession of grouse or ptarmigan and the serving of such birds as provided herein, but such birds shall not be sold or served within 5 miles of the Alaska Railroad or of Steese Highway from Fairbanks to and including Chatanika.

The meat of grouse or ptarmigan is not permitted to be sold to the owner, master, or employee of any coastal or river steamer, commercial power or sail boat, pile driver, barge, scow, boat under charter, or cannery, or mine (where five or more men are employed), nor may any such owner, master, operator, or employee buy or serve any such birds or part thereof.

The meat of grouse or ptarmigan is not permitted to be possessed for serving or served in any dining car, mess house operated by a railroad, or mine (where five or more men are employed), by a contractor, or by an owner of a cannery, or by or in any other place maintained for the serving of food regularly to employees of such railroad, mine, contractor, or cannery.

The meat of grouse or ptarmigan is not permitted to be served to an employee of any coastal or river steamer, commercial power or sail boat, pile driver, barge, scow, boat under charter, cannery, or mine (where five or more men are employed).

No contractor or person operating a railroad, mine (where five or more men are employed), cannery, coastal or river steamer, or other commercial power or sail boat, pile driver, barge, scow, boat under charter, or any employee of any such contractor, operator, or person, is permitted to possess the meat of grouse or ptarmigan in a dining car, mess house, or the galley or dining room of any such boat, pile driver, barge, scow, or mine (where five or more men are employed).

Reg. 28.—Taking and Possession of Migratory Game Birds

Migratory game birds may be taken on areas not closed to such taking by regulations 5 and 6, during the open seasons, by the means, and in the numbers permitted, and when so taken, may be possessed, in accordance with the terms, conditions, and restrictions of regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture adopted and approved pursuant to the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918, as amended, except, further, that they may not be taken by means, aid, or use of a jack light, searchlight, or other artificial light, or within the First and Third Judicial Divisions of the Territory by shooting from, on, or across, or within 33 feet of the center line of any public highway.

Any person possessing a migratory game bird or part thereof without a valid license shall furnish on demand to any officer authorized to enforce the Alaska Game Law an affidavit showing the name or license number of the person from whom he received such bird or part thereof together with such other information as the officer may require.

Reg. 29.—Transportation of Migratory Game Birds

Migratory game birds, and parts thereof, may be possessed and transported within or out of the Territory as permitted by the regulations under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act referred to in regulation 28, under the following conditions:

By resident.—(1) At the discretion of the Commission a permit may be issued to a resident of the Territory for the export by express or freight of a legally taken or acquired migratory game bird, or part thereof, for purposes other than sale. Such permit may be obtained from any game warden or collector of customs upon payment of the required fee. The permit must accompany the bill of lading covering shipment to the port of clearance, where it will be taken up by the collector of customs and returned to the Commission.

(2) A resident may export by express, freight, or parcel post for mounting and return to the Territory within 1 year, but not for sale, any migratory game bird or part thereof legally taken or acquired by him, upon first procuring a resident export license, which license shall accompany the bill of lading when shipment is made by freight or express, and if made by parcel post, the license shall be attached securely to the outside of the package in a conspicuous place. On return of the mounted specimen to the licensee by express or freight, the export license shall accompany the bill of lading, but if returned by parcel post, the license shall be attached securely to the outside of the package in a conspicuous place, and the collector of customs at the port of entry, or the postmaster through whose office the package is received, shall detach the license, note thereon the contents of the shipment, and promptly return it to the Commission.

By nonresident.—A nonresident citizen or an alien who is the holder of a valid license may possess and transport within the Territory during the open seasons prescribed by the aforesaid regulations and the 10 days immediately following, or, in any one calendar week during such open seasons, respectively, may export by express or freight only, not to exceed 1 day's limit of migratory game birds legally taken by him. Before any such migratory game bird or part thereof shall be exported, the person offering it for export shall first deliver to the transportation agent at the point of shipment his affidavit that he has not violated any of the provisions of the Alaska Game Law or the regulations thereunder; that such migratory game bird or part thereof has not been purchased or sold and is not being shipped for sale; and that he legally killed and is the owner of such bird or part thereof. Such affidavit shall accompany the express or freight bill of lading to the port of clearance, there to be taken up and promptly transmitted to the Commission by the collector of customs.

Reg. 30.—Marking Packages Containing Migratory Game Birds

Each package in which migratory game birds or parts thereof are transported within or out of the Territory shall have clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee and an accurate statement of the number of each kind of such bird or part thereof contained therein.

Reg. 31.—Sale of Migratory Game Birds

Migratory game birds (except specimens for scientific purposes and ducks and geese for propagation, as provided in chapter V of these regulations) or parts thereof are not permitted to be sold at any time, except that the feathers of wild ducks and geese legally killed, and the feathers of such birds seized and condemned pursuant to law, may be sold and transported for use in making fishing flies, bed pillows, mattresses, and for such similar commercial purposes, but not for millinery or ornamental purposes.

CHAPTER V.—TAKING WILD ANIMALS, BIRDS, AND THE NESTS AND EGGS OF BIRDS FOR SCIENTIFIC OR PROPAGATING PURPOSES AND ANIMALS OR BIRDS FOR THE PROTECTION OF PROPERTY

Reg. 32.—Taking Game and Land Fur-bearing Animals, Game and Nongame Birds, and the Nests or Eggs of Birds for Scientific or Propagating Purposes

The Secretary may issue a permit to a duly accredited representative of an educational or scientific institution, public museum or park, governmental department of the United States, or of a State engaged in the scientific study of mammals or birds, or to a person known to be making a special mammal or bird investigation, authorizing the holder to take, possess, and transport game or land fur-bearing animals, game or nongame birds, or the nests or eggs of birds for scientific purposes.

The Secretary may issue a permit to any person to take, possess, and transport game and land fur-bearing animals, migratory waterfowl, grouse, ptarmigan, and the eggs of such birds for propagation, but no permit to take, possess, and transport such animals, birds, or eggs for propagation shall be valid unless countersigned by the executive officer of the Commission.

Such permit shall be carried on the person of the permittee when he is taking animals, birds, or nests or eggs for scientific or propagating purposes, and shall be exhibited to any warden or other person requesting to see it.

Application for a permit to take, possess, buy, sell, exchange, or transport animals, birds, or the nests or eggs of birds for scientific purposes should be addressed to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and must state the name and address of applicant, his age, whether he is a taxidermist, the name and address of the public museum or park, if any, that he represents, the region in which he desires to take them, the number of each species of animal or bird or of nests or eggs he desires to take, the probable port and date of shipment, and the purpose for which they are intended.

Application for a permit to take, possess, buy, sell, exchange, or transport animals, birds, or eggs for propagation should be addressed to the Alaska Game Commission, Juneau, Alaska, and must state the name and address of the applicant, the kinds and numbers of animals, birds, or eggs he desires to take, and how, when, and where they are to be taken and kept.

The permit may limit the number of species of animals, birds, and nests and eggs that may be taken thereunder, and may authorize the permittee to possess, buy, sell, exchange, or transport such animals or birds, parts thereof, or nests or eggs for scientific or propagating purposes, and prescribe the manner in which they may be taken or transported, and it may limit the permittee to one or more of these privileges and prescribe such other restrictions as either the Secretary or the Commission may deem necessary.

The permit unless otherwise provided therein shall expire on December 31 of the year of issue, shall be revocable at the discretion of the Secretary, and shall not be transferable. A permit revoked by the Secretary shall be surrendered to him by the person to whom issued on demand of any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture or of the Commission authorized by the Secretary to make such demand.

The holder of a permit to take, possess, buy, sell, exchange, or transport such animals or birds or eggs of birds for propagation shall on or before the 10th day of January of the year following the issuance of the permit, or as required by such permit, with respect to such animals, grouse, and ptarmigan report to the Alaska Game Commission, Juneau, Alaska, and with respect to migratory waterfowl, report to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., with a duplicate to the Commission, the kinds, number, and sex of such animals or birds taken, possessed, bought, sold, exchanged, or transported by him under the permit, the disposition made of them, and whether any of them were killed or died as a result of operations under the permit.

The holder of a permit to take, possess, buy, sell, exchange, or transport such animals, birds, nests, or eggs for scientific purposes shall report to the Secretary, as required in such permit, the number of animals, birds, nests, or eggs taken, purchased, or sold (if purchase or sale is permitted), exchanged, or transported thereunder during the preceding calendar year.

The holder of a permit who transports within or out of the Territory wild animals or birds, or parts thereof, or the nests or eggs of birds, for scientific or propagating purposes, shall plainly and clearly mark, label, or tag the outside of the package containing said animals or birds, or parts, or nests or eggs, so as to show the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee, the contents of the package, the number of the permit under authority of which it is transported, and that the contents thereof are for scientific or propagating purposes, as the case may be. When such package is transported out of the Territory the permittee must at the time forward to the collector of customs at the port of clearance a copy of his permit bearing the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture and a list correctly showing the number and kinds of animals or birds, or parts thereof, or the nests or eggs of birds contained in the package, and in the event subsequent packages are exported under the one permit, such a list of the contents of each such subsequent package, together with a reference to the number of the permit, shall be mailed to the collector of customs at the port of clearance.

Reg. 33.—License, Guide or Other Requirements

Unless specifically provided therein no permit of the Secretary to take, possess, buy, sell, exchange, or transport any game or land fur-bearing animal or any bird for scientific or propagating purposes shall be deemed to exempt the permittee from compliance with the license, guide, or other requirements of the Alaska Game Law, but no license is required to export such species or specimens for such purposes.

Reg. 34.—Taking Animals or Birds for the Protection of Property

When information is furnished the Secretary that any species of game or land fur-bearing animal or bird has become, under extraordinary conditions, seriously injurious to agricultural or other interests in the Territory, an investigation will be made to determine the nature and extent of the injury and whether the animal or bird alleged to be doing the damage should be killed, and, if so, during what time and by what means. Upon his determination an appropriate order will be made.

CHAPTER VI.—UNPROTECTED NONGAME BIRDS

Reg. 35.—Certain Nongame Birds Unprotected

A resident of the Territory without a hunting and trapping license and a nonresident with a hunting license may take crows, hawks, owls, eagles, ravens, magpies, and cormorants and their nests and eggs at any time, in any number, and by any means except by the use of poison, and when so taken such birds or parts thereof, articles manufactured therefrom, and the nests and eggs may, without further license and at any time, be bought, sold, or transported within or out of the Territory.

Reg. 36.—Marking Packages Containing Unprotected Nongame Birds

Every package containing any of the birds specified in regulation 35, or parts or nests or eggs thereof or articles manufactured therefrom, when transported out of the Territory shall be plainly and clearly marked, labeled, or tagged so as to show the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee and the contents of the package, specifying the kinds and number of each, of birds, parts, nests or eggs, or manufactured articles.

SCHEDULE A—CHAPTER 1, REGULATION 5

Areas in Which There Is a Continuous Close Season On All Species, Except for Scientific or Propagating Purposes

Mount McKinley National Park.
Katmai National Monument.
Glacier Bay National Monument.
Sitka National Monument.

Any bird refuge or other wildlife refuge or reservation, except under permit or regulation of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Eyak Lake area, embracing the drainage area of Eyak Lake and Power Creek, north and east of Cordova, more particularly described as follows: Beginning on the north boundary line of the town of Cordova at a point where said boundary line is crossed by the divide between Eyak Lake and Power Creek and Orca Inlet and Orca Bay; thence in a general northeasterly direction along said divide to the intersection with parallel 60°40′ north; thence east along said parallel to the intersection with the divide between the watershed of Power Creek and Eyak Lake and the watershed of Ibek Creek; thence in a general southwesterly direction along said divide to the headwaters of Allen Creek; thence southwesterly along the course of Allen Creek to its confluence with Eyak Lake; thence southerly along the shore of Eyak Lake to the northerly side line of the C. R. & N. W. Railway right-of-way; thence in a general westerly direction along the northerly side line of said railway right-of-way to the intersection with the east boundary line of the town of Cordova; thence north along said east boundary line to the northeast corner of said town; thence west along the northern boundary line of said town to the point of beginning (containing approximately 22,000 acres).

Ward Lake and Mendenhall Lake areas, Tongass National Forest, as posted and described by the United States Forest Service.

An area on Mitkof Island 1 mile wide along the beach extending from the creek and cove immediately south of Blind Point to the city limits of Petersburg.

Any island occupied under lease or permit for fur-farming purposes, except by the occupant thereof.

The following-described areas along the line of the Alaska Railroad:

1. Strip one mile wide between mileposts 40 and 52, situated one-half mile on either side of the center line of the railroad.
2. Strip one-half mile wide between mileposts 176 and 177, situated to the westward of the center line of the railroad.
3. Strip one-half mile wide between mileposts 181.5 and 182.5, situated to the westward of the center line of the railroad.
4. Strip one-half mile wide between mileposts 190 and 191, situated to the westward of the center line of the railroad.
5. Strip one-half mile wide between mileposts 195.5 and 196.5, situated to the westward of the center line of the railroad.
6. Strip one mile wide between mileposts 234.5 and 236.5, situated one-half mile on either side of the center line of the railroad.
7. Strip one mile wide between mileposts 242 and 243, situated one-half mile on either side of the center line of the railroad.
8. Strip one mile wide between mileposts 247 and 254, situated one-half mile on either side of the center line of the railroad.
9. Strip 2,000 feet wide between mileposts 283 and 293, situated 1,000 feet on either side of the center line of the railroad.
10. Strip 2 miles wide, situated as follows: Beginning at a point on the railroad 6 miles north of the Curry Hotel, thence east 1 mile, thence south 7 miles, thence west 2 miles, thence north 7 miles, thence east 1 mile to the place of beginning.

SCHEDULE B—CHAPTER I, REGULATION 6

Areas in Which There Are Continuous Close Seasons on Specified Game Animals, Land Fur-Bearing Animals, and Game Birds, Except for Scientific or Propagating Purposes

Any game animal or game bird.—In Keystone Canyon, embracing an area one-half mile on each side of and paralleling the Richardson Highway from milepost 13 (from Valdez) to milepost 20 (from Valdez).

In the Big Delta area described as follows: Beginning at a point on the south bank of the Tanana River 1 mile east of the ferry at Big Delta post office, thence south parallel to the Richardson Highway to a point 1 mile east of and opposite milepost 269 (from Valdez), thence westerly across and to a point on the west bank of the Big Delta River due west of aforesaid milepost 269, thence north along the west bank of the Big Delta River to its junction with the south bank of the Tanana River, thence easterly along the south bank of the Tanana River to the place of beginning.

Deer.—In Yakutat Bay region between longitude 138° and 141°.

In the Kodiak-Afognak Islands group.

Moose.—In Yakutat Bay region between longitude 138° and 141°.

On the Alaska Peninsula south and west of Kvichak River, Iliamna Lake, and the old portage from Kamishak Bay to Kakhonak Bay.

On the Kenai Peninsula in the area beginning at the true point for the meander corner of fractional secs. 23 and 26, T. 6 N., R. 12 W., on the east shore of Cook Inlet, at low water; the approximate geographic position is in latitude 60°34'17" N., and longitude 151°19'36" W. from Greenwich; thence from said initial point easterly, between secs. 23 and 26 and secs. 24 and 25 to the corner of secs. 19, 24, 25, and 30, T. 6 N., Rs. 11 and 12 W.; thence easterly, in T. 6 N., R. 11 W., along the north boundary of secs. 30, 29, and 28 to the NE corner of sec. 28; thence southerly, along the east boundary of secs. 28 and 33, to the corner of secs. 3, 4, 33, and 34, Tps. 5 and 6 N., R. 11 W.; thence easterly along the north boundary of secs. 3, 2, and 1, to the NE corner of T. 5 N., R. 11 W.; thence southerly, along the east boundary of sec. 1 to the meander corner of fractional secs. 1 and 6, on the right bank of the Kenai River; thence up the right bank of the Kenai River, at low water, to the outlet and westerly end of Skilak Lake; thence easterly, along and following the northerly shore of Skilak Lake, at low water, to a point on the northeasterly shore of the said lake at the mouth of the Kenai River; thence northeasterly, up the right bank of the Kenai River, at low water, to a point opposite the mouth of Russian River; this point falls on the west boundary of the Chugach National Forest as defined by Proclamation No. 1307, dated August 2, 1915; thence due north, following the west boundary of the Chugach National Forest as described by Proclamation No. 1741, dated May 29, 1925, to its intersection with Thurman Creek, thence following down the west bank of said creek and the Chickaloon River to Chickaloon Bay on Turnagain Arm of Cook Inlet, at low water; thence westerly and northwesterly along the the shore of Chickaloon Bay, at low water, to Point Possession; thence southwesterly, along the southeast shore of Cook Inlet, at low water, to the true point for the meander corner of fractional secs. 23 and 26, T. 6 N., R. 12 W., the place of beginning.

In the drainages of the Chilkoot and the Chilkat Rivers in southeastern Alaska.

Caribou.—Along Steese Highway embracing areas one mile on either side of and paralleling the center line of the said highway from milepost 85 to milepost 88 (Twelve Mile Summit); and from milepost 106 to milepost 111 (Eagle Summit).

Mountain sheep and mountain goat.—In the eastern part of the Kenai Peninsula east of the center line of the Alaska Railroad.

In the Girdwood area beginning at the center of the bridge of the Crow Creek road over California Creek, at approximately latitude 60°58' north and longitude 149°8' west of Greenwich, as shown on the preliminary topographic map of the Girdwood District, Alaska, 1931, published by the Geological Survey, Department of the Interior; thence on a course bearing due east continuing in a straight line to the west bank of Glacier Creek; thence northeasterly following the west and north bank of said creek and its largest northern tributary to its head; thence along the west side of the glacier it drains to the summit of the divide between Glacier Creek and the drainage to the north at approximately latitude 61°2'30" north, longitude 149° west; thence westerly and northerly along said divide around the head of Raven Glacier to a point where said divide intersects the western margin of the most northern glacier in Raven Creek basin; thence following northeasterly and westerly along the western and southern margin of Eagle Glacier to its termination; thence westerly in a straight line to the junction of Camp and Raven Creeks; thence southwesterly along the south bank of Camp Creek to its head, at the divide between Camp Creek and the North Fork Ship Creek; thence northwesterly down the valley of the North Fork Ship Creek to a small lake in this valley; thence westerly along the south shore of said lake and continuing westerly along the south bank of North Fork Ship Creek to the junction of said creek with its first large tributary from the south, entering it about 1 mile east of Bird Creek Pass; thence southerly along the west bank of said tributary and its most westerly branch to the divide between North Fork Ship Creek and Bird Creek; thence southwesterly in a straight line to the junction of Bird Creek with its first large tributary from the head entering it from the south; thence southeasterly along the northern and eastern side of the stream bed of said tributary to the summit of the divide between the said tributary and the drainage of California Creek; thence southerly along the divide between California Creek and Bird Creek to a summit marked 4322 on the said preliminary topographic map of Girdwood District, Alaska, said point being in approximately latitude 60°59' north, longitude 149°11'15" west; thence southeasterly in a straight line to the point of beginning (containing approximately 77 square miles).

Mountain goat.—On Baranof and Chichagof Islands.

Large brown or grizzly bear.—On Afognak Island.

In that area of land and water embracing the Glacier Bay National Monument, a part of the Tongass National Forest, and other lands included within the following-described boundary: Beginning at the summit of Mount Fairweather, in approximate latitude 58°54' N. and approximate longitude 137°31' W., which point is identical with angle point No. 164 on the international boundary between Alaska and British Columbia and common to the most westerly point of the Glacier Bay National Monument, as established February 26, 1925; thence southwesterly to Cape Fairweather on the Pacific Ocean, at the northwest corner of the Tongass National Forest as established June 10, 1925; thence southeasterly along the Pacific coast, including all islands along the coast, to the center channel of Cross Sound at the point of confluence with the Pacific Ocean; thence northeasterly, easterly, and southeasterly through the center channel of Cross Sound, North Inian Pass, North Passage, and Icy Passage to the center channel of Excursion Inlet, at the point of confluence with Icy Passage; thence easterly to a point on the east shore of Excursion Inlet at the foot of the spur ridge, which point is approximately 3 miles northeast of the Porpoise Islands; thence northeasterly, following the summit of the spur ridge to the summit of the watershed between Excursion Inlet and Lynn Canal; thence northerly, northwesterly, and westerly, along the summit of the watershed between Excursion Inlet and Lynn Canal to the intersection of the east boundary of the Glacier Bay National Monument and the watershed divide of Excursion Inlet, Endicott River, and Glacier Bay, which point is in approximate latitude 58°42' N. and approximate longitude 135°41' W.; thence northwesterly along the east and north boundary of the Glacier Bay National Monument, as now established, to the most northerly corner of said Glacier Bay National Monument, at a point on the international boundary between Alaska and British Columbia; thence southwesterly along the international boundary between Alaska and British Columbia through angle points Nos. 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, and 163 to the summit of Mount Fairweather, the point of beginning; excepting and reserving from the above-described area all surveyed lands within fractional Tps. 39 and 40 S., Rs. 57, 58, and 59 E., Copper River Meridian.

In the following areas on Admiralty Island:

Thayer Mountain.—Beginning at the foot of the waterfall at the mouth of Hasselborg River on Salt Lake, head of Mitchell Bay; thence along the easterly bank of the Hasselborg River to the outlet of Hasselborg Lake; thence along the west shore of said lake to the outlet of the creek flowing into the head of the lake; thence upstream along the east bank of said creek to the trail crossing; thence in a southwesterly direction along the trial to the head of Thayer Lake; thence along the easterly shore of said lake to the extreme southern end of the lake; thence southeasterly approximately 2 miles in a straight line to the west end of Salt Lake at the head of Mitchell Bay; thence along the line of mean high tide of Salt Lake to the foot of the waterfall on Hasselborg River, the place of beginning (containing approximately 60 square miles); and Pack Creek.—The entire watershed of Pack Creek, which empties into Seymour Canal near the north side of the entrance to Windfall Harbor (containing approximately 21 square miles).

Black bear.—In the drainage of Anan Creek.

Buffalo (bison), musk ox, and elk.—In any part of Alaska.

Beaver.—On Baranof and Chichagof Islands.

In the drainage to the Mendenhall Valley east of the main Glacier Highway.

In Fairbanks area, beginning at a point on the east bank of the Tanana River at the entrance of Pile Driver Slough; thence along the east bank of Pile Driver Slough to a point 4 miles south of Moose Creek; thence east along the divide between Moose Creek and French Creek around the head of Moose Creek and including all the drainage thereto; thence northwesterly along the divide between Moose Creek and Chena River; thence across the flats of Chena River to a point marked on Big Chena Bluffs; thence down the north bank of Chena River to its confluence with Tanana River; thence south along the east bank of Tanana River to the place of beginning.

On the Kodiak-Afognak Islands group.

Snowshoe hare.—On the Kodiak-Afognak Islands group.

Muskrat.—In the Golovin Bay drainage.

On the Kodiak-Afognak Islands group.

Raccoon.—In any part of Alaska.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the United States Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, this 25th day of April, 1938.

ALASKA GAME COMMISSION

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS RELATING TO GUIDES, POISONS, AND RESIDENT TRAPPING AND HUNTING LICENSES

By virtue of the authority conferred upon the Alaska Game Commission by the act of January 13, 1925 (43 Stat. 739; U. S. Code, title 48, secs. 192–211; as amended by the act of February 14, 1931, 46 Stat. 1111; U. S. Code, title 48, secs. 192–207), entitled "An act to establish an Alaska Game Commission to protect game animals, land fur-bearing animals, and birds in Alaska, and for other purposes", the following regulations for the protection of game animals, land fur-bearing animals, and birds in Alaska are made and published, to be effective on and after July 1, 1938:

Regulation A. Employment of Guides by Nonresidents and Aliens

Nonresidents of the Territory or aliens taking game animals for any purpose, or black bear or polar bear for sport or trophies, or going afield to photograph large brown or grizzly bears, except nonresident Federal officials engaged in wildlife investigations in Alaska exempted by special permit of the Commission, are required to employ and be accompanied by a guide registered with and licensed by the Commission; but no such guide shall accompany in the field more than one nonresident or alien except husband and wife and minor child all of whom are in possession of the required hunting licenses.

Regulation B. Qualifications for Guide Licenses and Issuance Thereof

Only resident citizens who have resided in the Territory for the five years immediately preceding application for registration and a guide license will be registered and licensed to act as guides for nonresidents and aliens taking game animals for any purpose, or black or polar bears for sport or trophies, or going afield to photograph large brown or grizzly bears.

The Alaska Game Commission will establish guide districts and maintain a register of such persons as are duly qualified and licensed to act as guides in such districts.

Application for such registration and guide license shall be made on a form issued by the Commission and shall state applicant's citizenship and resident status, age, physical characteristics, permanent address, and district or districts in which he desires to operate, together with full information relative to his qualifications to act as guide, and shall be subscribed and sworn to by the applicant before an officer authorized to administer oaths.

Upon receipt of such application the Commission, through one of its members or such person as it shall designate, will arrange to determine, by such written and oral examinations and otherwise as it shall require, the qualifications of such applicant to act as a guide and his knowledge of the Alaska Game Law and regulations.

The member of the Commission or other person authorized to conduct such examination shall promptly file his report thereof with the Commission, together with his recommendation thereon, which report and recommendation shall be attached to the application and considered and determined at a regular or special meeting of the Commission.

If the Commission determines that the applicant does not possess sufficient field experience to qualify him to act as a principal guide but has all other qualifications, an assistant guide license may be issued to him, which shall authorize him to act as assistant to a principal guide.

In cases of emergency the Executive Officer of the Commission may, after investigation and satisfying himself of an applicant's qualifications, issue a special guide license to him upon payment of the required fee, authorizing him to guide the nonresident or alien hunter named in the application for such special license.

Extension or renewal of guiding privileges authorized by any guide license shall be made, in the discretion of the Commission, only upon examination and approval as hereinbefore provided.

A registered guide license must bear the signature of the chairman of the Commission and be countersigned by one other member of the Commission. Each license shall expire on June 30 next succeeding its issuance, shall be revocable at the discretion of the Commission, and shall not be transferable.

Each licensed guide shall submit to the Commission, immediately upon completion of a hunting or photographing trip, a report containing the name and address of the nonresident or alien for whom he acted as guide, period covered by his services, number and species of animals taken, wounded and not secured, numbers and localities of each species of big game animal observed on the trip, and such other information as the Commission may require.

Regulation C. Designation and Use of Poison

Pursuant to section 9 of the Alaska Game Law, the following substances are by the Commission designated poisons: strychnine, arsenic, phosphorus, antimony, barium, the cyanides, corrosive sublimate, or any derivative or derivatives, compound or compounds thereof, which, by said section 9, are forbidden

(1) to be used at any time to kill any game or wild furbearing animal or bird,
(2) to be put out where any game or wild furbearing animal or bird may come in contact with it,
(3) to be sold or given to any hunter or trapper, or
(4) to be possessed by any hunter or trapper.

Any person selling or otherwise disposing of any of the aforesaid poisons is required by said section 9 of the Alaska Game Law to keep a record in a special book showing the name and address of each person purchasing or otherwise procuring such poison, and the kind and amount thereof, such record to be, at all times, open to inspection by any game warden or other officer authorized to enforce the Alaska Game Law and information thereof to be transmitted monthly to the Alaska Game Commission.

Regulation D. Resident Trapping and Hunting Licenses

No resident of the Territory over 16 years of age, except a native-born Indian, Eskimo, or half-breed who has not severed his tribal relations by adopting a civilized mode of living or by exercising the right of franchise, shall take game animals, land furbearing animals, or birds in the Territory without first having obtained a resident hunting license for game animals or birds or a trapping license for land furbearing animals, but a person who is the holder of such trapping license shall be entitled to the privilege of hunting game animals or birds during the respective open seasons without a hunting license.

On and after July 1, 1938, all former regulations of the Alaska Game Commission relating to guides, poisons, and resident hunting and trapping licenses shall be and are hereby revoked.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the official seal of the Commission to be affixed in the City of Juneau, Territory of Alaska, this 25th day of February, 1938.

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION.

[FCA 89]

FUNCTIONS, POWERS, AUTHORITY AND DUTIES OF LAND BANK COMMISSIONER

Whereas, pursuant to authority vested in him by law, the President of the United States issued and transmitted to the Congress on March 27, 1933, Executive Order No. 6084, in and by which there were transferred from the Federal Farm Loan Board, effective May 27, 1933, the powers and functions of said board, including the functions of the Farm Loan Commissioner; and

Whereas, in and by said order all power, authority and duties conferred by law upon any officer, executive agency, or head thereof from which or from whom transfer was made by said order, in relation to the executive agency or functions transferred, were transferred to and vested in the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration; and

Whereas, in and by said order the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration was authorized to execute any and all functions and perform any and all duties vested in him through such persons as he shall by order designate or employ; and

Whereas, in and by said order, the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration was authorized, by order or rules and regulations, to regroup and transfer offices, activities and functions in the Farm Credit Administration, so far as may be required to carry out the purposes to which said order was directed, and to fix or change the names of such offices, bureaus and activities and the duties, powers and titles of their executive heads; and

Whereas, section 80 of the Farm Credit Act of 1933, approved June 16, 1933, provides that after the date of the enactment thereof, the Farm Loan Commissioner shall be known as the Land Bank Commissioner;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration as aforesaid, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Land Bank Commissioner shall, subject to the jurisdiction and control of the Farm Credit Administration, execute and perform all functions, powers, authority and duties heretofore vested in or conferred upon the Federal Farm Loan Board or the Land Bank Commissioner (previously known as Farm Loan Commissioner), except functions, powers, authority and duties pertaining to intermediate credit and to matters incidental thereto and to the administration of the provisions of law relative to Federal intermediate credit banks, and shall, subject to such supervision and control, execute and perform all functions, powers, authority and duties of the Farm Credit Administration relative to the administration of the provisions of law relating to Federal land banks, national farm loan associations and joint stock land banks.

2. The provisions hereinbefore set forth shall not operate to limit or restrict the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration in the execution and performance of any functions, powers, authority or duties vested in him.

3. The provisions of this order do not modify or revoke the provisions of any previous Farm Credit Administration Order except that the provisions of Farm Credit Administration Order No. 9, dated June 16, 1933, are hereby revoked.

4. The provisions of this order shall be effective as of the opening of business on the date above written, and shall remain in force and effect until the same are amended or revoked by subsequent order.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

STANDARDS OF GOOD ENGINEERING PRACTICE, APPLICABLE TO NON-COMMERCIAL EDUCATIONAL BROADCAST STATIONS

The Commission en banc, at a meeting held on April 13, 1938, approved the following Standards of Good Engineering Practice, Applicable to Non-Commercial Educational Broadcast Stations:

RULE 1058 (d) Specifies that the transmitting equipment of all non-commercial educational broadcast stations shall be designed, constructed, installed and operated in conformity with the requirements of good engineering practice as specified from time to time by the Commission. Also the location of the transmitter shall conform with the same requirements. The general principles of these requirements to insure satisfactory service from the station are enunciated below for the guidance of applicants and licenses. These principles are based on the best information available at this time but since the development of transmission and reception on the very high frequencies is only in the early stages, these standards may be departed from in case experience warrants the same. Each case will be treated on its individual merits as to details. The general principles are as follows:

1. Transmitter and antenna location.—To accomplish satisfactory coverage of any area, it is necessary that the transmitter and antenna be located at or near the highest point in such an area and as near the center thereof as obtainable and yet meet the height requirements. The area desired to serve may be only a section of the city, and the site should permit placing the antenna higher than surrounding buildings or obstructions so as to obtain as large an area as possible in the line of sight from the antenna. In compromising between height and central location, it is generally considered the height is of more importance. Any area behind a large hill or in a valley out of line of sight of the antenna may receive materially reduced signal depending upon several factors as to the formation of the hill, distance, receiving conditions, etc.

2. Antenna system.—Since at the frequencies allocated for this service, one half wave length is only approximately 12 feet, the antenna system design may vary within wide limits without unreasonable expense even for a very elaborate installation. It has not been definitely determined whether horizontal or vertical polarization is superior. However, it is considered that at the frequencies of these stations horizontal polarization (radiating element horizontal) is superior for general broadcast purposes.

In addition to meeting the above requirement relative to location, the antenna itself should be above the immediate surrounding obstructions as explained above. Where a central location is not obtainable, a directional antenna for increasing the service in the farther areas should be considered. In cases where the radiating elements are horizontal, consideration should be given to concentrating the radiation in a small angle with the horizontal by means of several elements and also to avoid directional properties in the horizontal plane when not desirable, elements in different vertical planes are necessary.

3. Transmitter design and construction.—The transmitter shall be capable of delivering satisfactorily the authorized power with modulation of at least 85 per cent with combined audio frequency harmonics generated by the transmitter not in excess of 10 per cent. The system of modulation is not prescribed, but must be a system that has been tested and proven satisfactory in operation. The carrier hum and extraneous noise level shall be kept at a minimum and shall be at least 50 decibels below 100 per cent modulation. Automatic frequency control shall be provided for automatically maintaining the operating frequency within 0.01 per cent of the assigned frequency. Adequate margin shall be provided in all component parts to avoid over-heating at the maximum rated power output. The maximum output power rating will be accepted as that given by the manufacturer unless it appears unsatisfactory. The transmitter shall be constructed in keeping with modern practice as to frame, panels and mounting, complete shielding, safety of life provisions, proper wiring, adequate meters (plate voltage, total plate current, output RF current, and others, as required) and control facilities.

4. Installation of equipment.—The installation must be made in a suitable room with no exposed high voltage leads or connections. The output connection shall be made through suitable bushings of minimum length and with protection from contact. A transmission line to antenna is recommended in all except very special cases. As an operator is required on duty during all operation, suitable facilities for his welfare and comfort shall be provided.

5. Operation of Station.—The transmitter shall be so tuned and operated that harmonics and spurious radiations are reduced to a minimum in keeping with current practice. Percentage of modulation should be maintained as high as practical without over-modulation to such an extent as to cause excessive distortion of spurious emissions. Adequate facilities for checking the modulation and general operation are required. A frequency monitor is required by Rule 981.

Any phase of construction, operation, etc., which is not clear from these specifications, shall be further determined from the standards of good engineering practice applicable to standard broadcast stations insofar as not in disagreement with these standards.

ASSIGNMENT OF COMMISSIONERS AND CERTAIN STAFF MEMBERS TO ACT ON VARIOUS CLASSES OF APPLICATIONS

AMENDMENT TO PARAGRAPH 2 OF ORDER NO. 28 BY ADDING CERTAIN ITEMS

The Commission en banc, at at a meeting held on April 13, 1938, amended Paragraph 2 of Order No. 28 by adding thereto the following items:

(r) Extensions of time within which to comply with technical requirements specified in authorizations, orders and rules or releases of the Commission.

(s) Changes in equipment necessary to comply with technical requirements specified in authorizations, orders, rules or releases (except formal applications).

(t) Representations of compliance with technical requirements specified in authorizations, orders, rules or releases (except formal applications).

(u) Operation with licensed, new or modified equipment at a temporary location with a temporary antenna system in case of an emergency when, due to causes beyond the control of the licensee, it becomes impossible to continue operating at the licensed location.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD.

Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

AMENDMENT TO RENTAL AND CONTRACTS CHAPTER OF THE MANUAL

CHANGING PROVISIONS GOVERNING CONTRACTS FOR ELECTRIC SERVICE

Be it resolved, That pursuant to the authority vested in the Board by Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 128, 129) as amended by Sections 1 and 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 643-647) and particularly by subsections a and k of Section 4 of said Act as amended, it is hereby ordered that Section 1300 of the Rental and Contracts Chapter (Chap. XIII) of the Consolidated Manual be amended to read as follows:

SEC. 1300. The Rental and Contracts Subsection, subject to the control and direction of the Treasurer of the Corporation, shall have jurisdiction over all office rental agreements, electric service contracts and telephone service contracts; shall be responsible for the safe-keeping of all such leases and contracts; and shall maintain necessary records in connection therewith.

Board approval is required prior to the execution of any lease covering office space.

The General Manager's approval is required prior to the execution of any contract for telephone service and electric service, except where payment for such service in accordance with the lease, is included in the monthly rental or is to be made to the lessor based on meter readings (at approved rates of the Public Utilities Commission of the State.)

The Rental Subsection shall be responsible for the safe-keeping of all leases and contracts in such safes, cabinets or files as the Treasurer may provide, and shall maintain necessary records in connection therewith.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on April 22, 1938.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

NATIONAL MARITIME DAY—1938

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS in commemoration of the first successful transoceanic voyage made under steam propulsion by the steamship The Savannah, which set sail from Savannah, Georgia, on May 22, 1819, Public Resolution 7, approved May 20, 1933 (48 Stat. 73), provides:

"That May 22 of each year shall hereafter be designated and known as National Maritime Day, and the President is authorized and requested annually to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such National Maritime Day by displaying the flag at their homes or other suitable places and Government officials to display the flag on all Government buildings on May 22 of each year.";

AND WHEREAS May 22, 1938, falls on a Sunday:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do hereby call upon the people of the United States to observe Monday, May 23, 1938, as National Maritime Day by displaying the flag at their homes or other suitable places, and do direct Government officials to display the flag on all Government buildings on that day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 25" day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-
[SEAL] eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:
SUMNER WELLES
Acting Secretary of State.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

ORDER REGULATING HANDLING OF MILK IN CINCINNATI, OHIO, MARKETING AREA AS IS IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE, AND AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE COMMERCE

Whereas, under the terms and provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States is empowered, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, to enter into marketing agreements with processors, producers, associations of producers, and others engaged in such handling of any agricultural commodity or product thereof as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodity or product thereof; and

Whereas, under the terms and provisions of said act, the Secretary of Agriculture is empowered to issue orders applicable to processors, producers, associations of producers, and others engaged in the handling of any agricultural commodity or product thereof specified in subsection (2) of section 8c, such orders to regulate only such handling of such agricultural commodity or product thereof as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodity or product thereof; and

Whereas, the Secretary, having reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order with respect to the handling of milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area, would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act, gave, on the 12th day of November 1937, notice of a public hearing to be held at Cincinnati, Ohio, on the 29th day of November 1937, on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order, said hearing being reopened at Cincinnati, Ohio, on the 4th and 20th days of January 1938 and the 2nd day of February 1938 for the purpose of receiving additional evidence, and at said times and places conducted public hearings, at which all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order; and

Whereas, the Secretary has found and proclaimed the period August 1919–July 1929 to be the base period to be used in connection with ascertaining the purchasing power of milk handled in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area; and

Whereas, after said hearings and after the tentative approval by the Secretary of a marketing agreement on the 22nd day of March 1938, handlers of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, which is marketed within the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area, have signed such tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held and this order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to handlers defined in, said marketing agreement; and

Whereas, the Secretary hereby determines that the issuance of this order is approved or favored by over two-thirds of the producers who, during the month of January 1938, said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, have been engaged in the production of milk for sale in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds that the expenses which the market administrator will necessarily incur during any twelve-month period of time for the maintenance and functioning of such agency for the administration of this order will be approximately $35,000 and that the payment by each handler of 2 cents per hundredweight on all milk received from producers is a proper maximum pro rata share of such expenses; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds, upon the evidence introduced at said hearings:

1. That approximately 38 percent of the total volume of milk received by handlers distributing milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area, is produced outside the State of Ohio and approximately 74 percent of all milk received by handlers distributing milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area, is either produced outside the State of Ohio or is physically and inextricably intermingled by such handlers with milk which is produced outside the State of Ohio; and

2. That the milk originating in States other than Ohio enters the current of interstate commerce; that the milk originating in the State of Ohio is inextricably intermingled with that milk which is in the current of interstate commerce and in such amount that it is impossible to regulate that milk originating in States other than Ohio without regulating that milk which originates in the State of Ohio; and that the handling of milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area is in the current of interstate commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce; and

3. That orderly marketing conditions for milk flowing into the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area are threatened with disruption which will result in an impairment of the purchasing power of milk handled in said marketing area, and that the issuance of this order and all its terms and conditions will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the said act; and

4. That the prices calculated to give milk handled in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to section 2 and section 8e of the said act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds and other economic conditions which affect the supply and demand for such milk and that the minimum prices set forth in this order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest.

Now, therefore, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority vested in him by said act, hereby orders that such handling of milk produced for sale in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce, shall, from the effective date hereof, be in conformity to and in compliance with the following terms and conditions.

ARTICLE I—DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. Terms.—The following terms shall have the following definitions:

1. Secretary means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

2. Cincinnati Marketing Area, hereinafter called the "marketing area," means the city of Cincinnati, Ohio, and the territory included within the boundary lines of Hamilton County, Ohio.

3. Person means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, and any other business unit.

4. Producer means any person who, in conformity with the health regulations, as applied and enforced by the proper authorities, with respect to milk which is sold for consumption in the form of milk in the marketing area, produces milk and delivers it to a handler: Provided, That if such producer has not regularly distributed milk in the marketing area or sold milk to a handler for a period of 30 days prior to the effective date hereof, but thereafter begins the regular delivery of milk to a handler, he shall be known as a "new producer" during the first two full calendar months after deliveries are first made to a handler, after which he shall be known as a producer.

5. Handler means any person who purchases or receives milk from producers, associations of producers, or other handlers, all, or a portion, of which milk is sold in the marketing area, and who, on his own behalf or on behalf of others, engages in such handling of milk as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk and its products.

6. Delivery period means any calendar month.

ARTICLE II—MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

SECTION 1. Designation.—The agency for the administration hereof shall be a market administrator who shall be a person selected by the Secretary. Such person shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

SEC. 2. Powers.—The market administrator shall:

1. Administer the terms and provisions hereof;

2. Report to the Secretary complaints of the violations of the provisions hereof.

SEC. 3. Duties.—The market administrator shall:

1. Within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

2. Pay out of the funds provided by article IX the cost of his bond, his own compensation, and all other expenses which the Secretary finds will be necessarily incurred in the maintenance and functioning of his office;

3. Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for herein, and surrender the same to his successor or to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

4. Publicly disclose to handlers and producers, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, the name of any person who, within 2 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not (a) made reports pursuant to article VII and IX; and

5. Promptly verify the information contained in the reports submitted by handlers.

ARTICLE III—REPORTS OF HANDLERS

SECTION 1. Submission of reports.—Each handler shall report to the market administrator, in the detail and form prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

1. On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period, (a) the receipts of milk at each plant from producers and new producers, (b) the receipts of milk at each plant from handlers, (c) the receipts at each plant of the milk, if any, produced by him, (d) the utilization of all receipts of milk for the delivery period, and (e) the name and address of each new producer.

2. Within 10 days after the market administrator's request with respect to any producer and new producer for whom such information is not in the files of the market administrator and with respect to a period or periods of time designated by the market administrator (a) the name and address, (b) the total pounds of milk delivered, (c) the average butterfat test of milk delivered, and (d) the number of days upon which deliveries were made.

3. On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period, his producer pay roll, which shall show for each producer and new producer (a) the total delivery of milk with the average butterfat test thereof, (b) the amount of the advance payment to such producer and new producer made pursuant to section 1 of article VII, and (c) the deductions and charges made by the handler.

SEC. 2. Verification of reports.—Each handler shall make available to the market administrator or his agent (1) those records which are necessary for the verification of the information contained in the reports submitted in accordance with this article, and (2) those facilities which are necessary for the sampling and weighing of the milk of each producer and new producer.

ARTICLE IV—CLASSIFICATION OF MILK

SECTION 1. Class definitions.—Milk received by each handler, including milk produced by him, if any, shall be classified by the market administrator as follows:

1. Class I milk shall be all milk sold or given away in the form of milk or milk drinks, whether plain or flavored, and all milk not accounted for as Class II or Class III milk.

2. Class II milk shall be all milk used to produce cream (for consumption as cream), creamed buttermilk, and creamed cottage cheese.

3. Class III milk shall be all milk accounted for (a) as actual plant shrinkage but not to exceed 2½ percent of total receipts of milk, and (b) as used to produce a milk product other than one of those specified in Class II.

SEC. 2. Interhandler and nonhandler sales.—Milk sold by a handler to another handler or to a person who is not a handler but who distributes milk or manufactures milk products, shall be Class I milk: Provided, That if the selling handler on or before the 10th day after the end of the delivery period furnishes to the market administrator a statement, which is signed by the buyer and seller, that such milk was used in Class II or Class III, such milk shall be classified accordingly, subject to verification by the market administrator.

SEC. 3. Computation of butterfat in each class.—For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler the butterfat in each class, as set forth in section 1, as follows:

1. Determine the total pounds of butterfat received as follows: (a) multiply the weight of the milk received from producers and new producers by the average butterfat test, (b) multiply the weight of the milk produced by him, if any, by the average butterfat test, (c) multiply the weight of the milk received from handlers, if any, by the average butterfat test, and (d) add together the resulting amounts.

2. Determine the total pounds of butterfat in Class I milk as follows: (a) convert to quarts the quantity of milk or milk drinks, whether plain or flavored, sold or given away in the form of milk, and multiply by 2.15 (b) multiply the result by the average butterfat test of such milk; and (c) if the quantity of butterfat so computed when added to the pounds of butterfat in Class II and Class III milk computed pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4 of this section is less than the total pounds of butterfat received, computed in accordance with paragraph 1, an amount equal to the difference shall be added to the quantity of butterfat determined pursuant to (b) of this paragraph.

3. Determine the total pounds of butterfat in Class II milk as follows: (a) multiply the actual weight of the several products of Class II milk by the average butterfat test and (b) add together the resulting amounts.

4. Determine the total pounds of butterfat in Class III milk as follows: (a) multiply the actual weight of the several products of Class III milk by the average butterfat test, (b) multiply the weight of a quantity of milk equal to the plant shrinkage, which shall not exceed 2½ percent of total receipts, by the average butterfat test of milk received, and (c) add together the resulting amounts.

5. Determine the classification of the butterfat received from producers and new producers, as follows:

(a) Subtract from the total pounds of butterfat in each class the total pounds of butterfat which were received from other handlers and used in such class.

(b) In the case of a handler who also distributes milk of his own production, subtract from the total pounds of butterfat in each class a further amount which shall be computed as follows: divide the total pounds of butterfat in said class by the total pounds of butterfat in all classes and multiply by the total pounds of butterfat produced by him.

SEC. 4. Computation of milk in each class.—For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler the hundredweight of milk in each class, which was received from producers and new producers and to which the prices set forth in article V apply, as follows:

1. Divide the total pounds of butterfat computed for each class in accordance with paragraph 5 of section 3 of article IV by the average test of all milk received from producers and new producers by such handler.

ARTICLE V—PRICES

SECTION 1. Class prices.—Each handler shall pay at the time and in the manner set forth in article VII not less than the following prices for milk delivered at the handler's plant on the basis of milk of 4 percent butterfat content as follows:

Class I milk—$2.75 per hundredweight: Provided, That where Class I milk is delivered to the residence of a relief client and paid for by a recognized relief agency the price shall be $2.15 per hundredweight, and Provided further, that where Class I milk is sold outside the marketing area, the price shall be that which the market administrator ascertains is being paid to farmers for milk of equivalent use in the market where such milk is sold, subject to a reasonable adjustment on account of transportation from the plant where such milk is received from producers to the plant where such milk is loaded on wholesale and retail routes.

Class II—$2.00 per hundredweight.

Class III milk—The price per hundredweight which shall be calculated by the market administrator as follows: multiply by 4 the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk is delivered, and add 30 percent thereof: Provided, That for a quantity of Class III milk not to exceed 10 percent of the Class I and Class II milk delivered by producers and new producers the price shall be the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk is delivered, plus 3 cents, multiplied by 4.

SEC. 2. Computation of value of milk for each handler.—For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute the value of milk which each handler has received from producers, new producers, or an association of producers as follows:

1. Multiply the hundredweight of milk in each class, computed in accordance with section 4 of article IV, by the respective class price for 4-percent milk: Provided, That, if the average butterfat test of milk received from producers by such handler is more than 4 percent, there shall be added to the respective Class I and Class II prices for 4-percent milk, 4 cents per hundredweight, and to the Class III price for 4-percent milk, there shall be added an amount equal to 1/40 of the Class III price for each 1/10 of one percent of average butterfat content above 4 percent; and, if the average butterfat content of milk received from producers by such handler is less than 4 percent, there shall be subtracted from the Class I and Class II prices for 4-percent milk, 4 cents per hundredweight, and from the Class III price for 4-percent milk there shall be subtracted an amount equal to 1/40 of the Class III price, for each 1/10 of one percent of average butterfat content below 4 percent.

2. Add together the resulting amounts.

3. If, in the verification of reports from handlers, the market administrator discovers errors in the reports submitted by any handler or errors in payments to producers or new producers for any previous delivery periods, there shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, the amount of money necessary to correct any such errors.

SEC. 3. Notification to each handler of value of milk.—On or before the 13th day after the close of each delivery period, the market administrator shall bill each handler for the value of milk computed in accordance with section 2.

ARTICLE VI—DETERMINATION AND ANNOUNCEMENT OF VALUES AND PRICES

SECTION 1. Computation of uniform price.—The market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight of milk delivered during each delivery period as follows:

1. Add together values of milk, as computed in section 2 of article V, for each handler who made the payments required by article VII.

2. Subtract from this sum the total amount to be paid pursuant to paragraph 2 of section 1 of article VIII.

3. Subtract, if the average test of all milk is greater than 4 percent butterfat, or add, if the average test of such milk is less than 4 percent, an amount computed as follows: multiply the total hundredweight of milk by the variance of such average test from 4 percent, and multiply the resulting amount by $0.40.

4. Add the cash balance, if any, in the settlement fund.

5. Divide by the total hundredweight of milk received from producers other than the milk represented by the amount subtracted in paragraph 2.

6. Subtract the fraction of a cent, if any.

SEC. 2. Announcement of price.—On or before the beginning of the following delivery period, the market administrator shall notify each handler of the uniform price for milk and of the price for milk delivered by new producers, and shall make public announcement of the computation of the uniform price.

ARTICLE VII—PAYMENT FOR MILK

SECTION 1. Payment to producers.—On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay each producer and new producer, from whom he has received milk, $1.00 per hundredweight for all milk delivered during the delivery period.

SEC. 2. Payment to producer-settlement fund.—On or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator a check in the amount of the value of milk billed to him for said delivery period, pursuant to section 3 of article V, less the amount paid out in accordance with section 1, and less the amount of the deductions and charges itemized on his producer pay roll. The market administrator shall maintain a separate fund known as the producer-settlement fund, in which he shall deposit all checks of handlers received pursuant to this section.

ARTICLE VIII—PAYMENTS TO PRODUCERS FROM PRODUCER-SETTLEMENT FUND

SECTION 1. Calculation of Payments for Each Producer.—For each delivery period the market administrator shall calculate the payment due each producer and new producer who delivered milk during said delivery period to a handler, who paid into the producer-settlement fund in accordance with article VII, as follows:

1. Multiply the hundredweight of milk delivered by each producer by the uniform price computed in accordance with section 1 of article VI; Provided, That if such milk is of an average butterfat content other than 4 percent, there shall be added or subtracted for each one-tenth of one percent variance above or below 4 percent, 4 cents per hundredweight;

2. Multiply the total hundredweight of milk delivered by each new producer during said delivery period by the Class III price; Provided, That if such milk is of an average butterfat content other than 4 percent, there shall be added or subtracted for each 1/10 of one percent variance above or below 4 percent, an amount per hundredweight equal to 1/10 of the Class III price;

3. Subtract, in each case, the amount of the advance payment made pursuant to section 1 of article VII, the charges and the deductions, if any, which have been made by the handler against each producer and new producer.

SEC. 2. Payments.—On or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each cooperative association, authorized to receive payments due producers who market their milk through such association, or to an agent designated by such cooperative to receive such payments, the aggregate of payments calculated pursuant to section 1 of this article, for all producers and new producers certified to the market administrator by such association as having authorized such association to receive such payments, and shall pay direct to each producer and new producer who has not been certified as having authorized such association to receive such payments the amount of the payment calculated pursuant to section 1.

ARTICLE IX—EXPENSE OF ADMINISTRATION

SECTION 1. Payment by handlers.—As his pro rata share of the expenses which the Secretary finds will be necessarily incurred in the maintenance and functioning of the office of the market administrator, each handler shall, with respect to all milk received from producers and new producers or produced by him during the delivery period, pay to the market administrator on or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period that amount per hundredweight, subject to review by the Secretary and not to exceed 2 cents per hundredweight, which is announced on or before the 13th day after the end of each delivery period by the market administrator.

ARTICLE X—AMENDMENT, SUSPENSION, AND TERMINATION

SECTION 1. Effect of amendment, suspension, or termination.—The amendment, suspension, or termination of any or all of the provisions of this order shall not affect, waive, or terminate any right, duty, obligation, violation, or liability which shall have arisen, or may thereafter arise, in connection with any of the provisions herein.

SEC. 2. Power of the market administrator to liquidate.—Upon the suspension or termination of this order, the powers and duties of the market administrator shall be continued for the purpose of permitting the market administrator then functioning, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, to: (1) reduce all assets to cash, (2) pay all costs of liquidation, (3) distribute all remaining cash on hand to the parties entitled to receive the same, and (4) ship all books and records to the Secretary for filing.

ARTICLE XI—LIABILITY

SECTION 1. Handlers.—The liability of the handlers hereunder is several and not joint and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handler.

Now, therefore, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, acting under the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacts and amends certain provisions of Public No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, for the purposes and within the limitations therein contained and not otherwise, does hereby execute and issue in duplicate this order under his hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on this 27th day of April, 1938, and declares this order to be effective on and after 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., May 1, 1938.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

PUERTO RICO SUGAR QUOTA

NOTICE OF HEARING AND DESIGNATION OF PRESIDING OFFICERS

Whereas the Secretary of Agriculture, acting pursuant to the authority contained in Section 205 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1937, held a public hearing in Washington, D. C., on January 14, 1938, for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable him to make a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for shipment to the continental United States (including the portion which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar) and the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for local consumption; and

Whereas the Secretary of Agriculture, on April 19, 1938, issued Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10 allotting the portion of the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar; and

Whereas it is deemed necessary to revise or amend the said Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10 as provided in section 205 (a) of the said act; and

Whereas the evidence presented to the Secretary of Agriculture at the aforesaid hearing is inadequate to enable him to make a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of the 1938 raw sugar quota for Puerto Rico and the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for local consumption; and

Whereas an emergency exists which requires a shorter period of notice than that required under General Sugar Regulations, Series 2, No. 2, issued September 21, 1937; and

Whereas the period of notice given hereunder is deemed to be reasonable under the circumstances:

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 205 (a) of the said act, do hereby confirm my prior finding of December 31, 1937, that the allotment of the 1938 raw sugar quota for Puerto Rico for shipment to the continental United States and the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for local consumption is necessary to prevent disorderly marketing and importation of such sugar, and hereby give notice that a public hearing will be held in Washington, D. C., in the auditorium of the United States Department of Agriculture on May 3, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.

The purpose of such hearing is to receive evidence to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to revise or amend the provisions of the said Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10 in accordance with the provisions of section 205 (a) of the said act, and to receive evidence to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to make a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of the 1938 raw sugar quota for Puerto Rico for shipment to the continental United States and the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for local consumption.
